

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 229

Du Yue had been Han Siyu's assistant since the previous incident.

As such, she was extremely shocked when she saw Chen Hao.

"Yup, I would like to ask for a favor!"

Chen Hao had not seen Du Yue and Han Siyu for quite some time.

He had not met them since he saved them from being kidnapped last time.

Chen Hao still felt rather uncomfortable because of that incident.

"Chen Hao, give me a moment, Siyu is still doing her makeup. Let me go and inform her!"

Du Yue's attitude toward Chen Hao was also no longer as nasty as before.

After all, the incident that happened to them was still fresh in her mind. It was also very likely that Chen Hao saved them and that Chen Hao was actually a very powerful person.

Thus, the only thing on Du Yue's mind was to please him.

Of course, Han Siyu also had the same thought as Du Yue.

Chen Hao's background was rather suspicious.

After all, under such dangerous circumstances, no one else within their circle of friends could help.

Furthermore, no one knew about what happened to them other than Chen Hao.

Not only that, there were other incidents such as the time Meng Cairu's power bank was left in his car, and the time Chen Hao left his clothes on the Maybach. All these incidents had signs of Chen Hao's presence. Thus, his background was definitely worth looking into.

Since then, Han Siyu's attitude toward Chen Hao had changed.

"Chen Hao, why are you here?"

Han Siyu came out with light makeup on her face. Despite that, she looked stunning.

That surprised Zhao Tongtong and the rest of them.

They had never expected Han Siyu to look so fantastic even without makeup on.

Zhao Tongtong, Ling Fei, Xiao Qiang and the rest of them had an awkward look on their face. "Chen Hao, you know them?"

"Yes, these are my classmates! Of course I know them!"

Chen Hao casually said.

Du Yue nervously asked, "Chen Hao, what is your relationship with the girl called Qin Ya?"

"She is a very close friend of mine. Anyway, utilize the power of your fanbase and request your fans to help look for her. Once she is located, I will not hesitate to repay you!"

Chen Hao was not in the mood to lay low anymore thus his tone sounded more domineering than usual.

Han Siyu and Du Yue were not surprised by that.

In fact, it convinced them even more that Chen Hao may be the mysterious person they were thinking about!

"We will help you with this and we will do so immediately. However before that, Chen Hao, could you follow me into my office first? I have something to discuss with you. Du Yue, host Xiao Qiang's friends for me!"

Upon saying that, Han Siyu turned around and returned to her office.

Chen Hao followed suit.

He had also guessed that Han Siyu, Meng Cairu and the rest of them had probably figured out his real identity.

After all, he had slipped up when he saved them a few times previously.

Haha, otherwise forget being invited by Han Siyu into her office, Du Yue would have long chased me out of here while cursing at me!

However, other than the usual ridicule, Chen Hao had no deep grudges or hatred toward Han Siyu.

Otherwise, he would not have let her grow into the popular streamer she was today.

"Chen Hao, helping you out is not a problem. However, I need you to tell me the truth. Are you Ordinary Guy? Or Young Master Chen of Jin Ling city?"

Han Siyu bit her lip and eventually asked the burning question within her.

To be honest, nobody else felt more complicated than Han Siyu upon meeting Chen Hao.

After all, who was the one she had always loved?

It was Ordinary Guy that had treated her so kindly.

Despite having never met him before, the help Ordinary Guy gave her had made her fall for him. It was also the kind of obsession that was deeply engraved in her heart.

Due to that, Han Siyu felt indifferent despite being constantly courted and helped by many rich guys.

During this period of time, the amount of rich and handsome guys that offered their hand toward her had grown along with her popularity. Even if she was merely down with a cold, there would be many rich guys that drove all the way in order to deliver some medication for her.

They even talked to her every single night.

By right, the things they did were good enough.

After all, Han Siyu barely had the opportunity to even speak to Ordinary Guy these few months. Not to mention, she had never seen him in person.

However, Han Siyu did not fall for any of the rich guys.

That was enough to prove the amount of love and admiration she had for Ordinary Guy.

Han Siyu had even fantasized countless times about how Ordinary Guy actually looked like.

Therefore, when all the clues pointed to Chen Hao, a guy she had never bothered to look at in her entire life, as Ordinary Guy, the conflicted feelings within Han Siyu were indescribable.

Would it really be Chen Hao?

Is it really him?

If it was Chen Hao. would-would I still love him?"

I cannot believe this, I actually fell in love with Chen Hao?

All these questions and thoughts were constantly on Han Siyu's mind.

Her brain felt like exploding.

Therefore, upon meeting Chen Hao, her heart skipped a beat.

Not only that, she could no longer suppress her curiosity and had to ask Chen Hao to find out the truth.

"If that was me, would you still love me?"

Chen Hao gave a bitter smile and said.

Han Siyu bit her lip and then shook her head. "I have no idea. I have no idea if I would fall in love with you if you are really Ordinary Guy!"

"Haha, you are overthinking. How could I be Ordinary Guy!"

Chen Hao saw the conflicted look on Han Siyu's face and decided not to reveal his real identity. It was also to prevent any awkwardness between them in the future.

After Qin Ya's incident, Chen Hao learnt his lesson and understood that he should not flirt with a girl if he had no intention of providing a guarantee for the girl's happiness in the future.

Chen Hao also knew that there was no point in admitting his actual identity. There was nothing else to be gained from it. Han Siyu might just end up entangled in a painful mess.

“I don’t believe you. You must be lying to me!”

Han Siyu said while staring at Chen Hao.

“Chen Hao, all I want is to hear the truth from you. Furthermore, if you tell me the truth, I would also provide you with some information. I am sure you would be very interested in this news as well! Is that okay?”

Han Siyu said and inched closer to Chen Hao.

“I am really not Young Master Chen, nor am I Ordinary Guy. I am not lying to you, I merely got lucky and won the lottery. I won quite a lot of money so I showed off and bragged a little. If I am Young Master Chen and have so much money, would I still be so low profile? Furthermore, Young Master Chen is from a very wealthy family. You’ve known me for three years in college, do I look like I come from a very wealthy family?” Chen Hao said.

Han Siyu nodded her head in agreement.

There was a certain truth to that and it was something that they were always suspicious about.

Nonetheless, even if Chen Hao was not Ordinary Guy, Han Siyu was no longer disgusted by him.

“Alright, I will believe you for now! Anyway, are you still interested in the information I have?” Han Siyu asked.

“What information?”

“Two weeks ago when I attended an event in Beijing, I bumped into someone. To be more specific, a girl!” Han Siyu lifted her head up once she completed her sentence. She looked curiously at Chen Hao as she wanted to look at Chen Hao’s reaction.

“Which girl? Do I know her?” Chen Hao asked.

“Of course you do! In fact, she is someone you are extremely familiar with!”

Han Siyu said, “Actually I did not expect to bump into her in Beijing as well. Furthermore, she is no longer who she was before. She has changed greatly. Chen Hao, I guarantee that you would be shocked if you ever met her again!”

Chen Hao scratched his head as he had no idea who she was referring to.

“It’s Yang Xia! Your ex-girlfriend. Chen Hao, you can’t have forgotten who she is right?” Han Siyu said.

“Yang Xia?”

Chen Hao was really shocked this time...
