

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 238

“Damn! Chen Hao, we actually came in!”

Chen Lin voiced out in shock.

She did not resist when Chen Hao hugged her around the waist as the sudden change in storyline was too exhilarating.

By now, they had already arrived at the venue.

The decorations for Lin Yiyi’s birthday party were very grand. It was mainly due to the fact that her father wanted to take this opportunity and organize a huge gathering as well.

As a representative from Yunmeng Mountain, Ding Hao certainly had the right to be here.

Anyway, there were more than a hundred people in the hall. Most of them were rich second generation heirs as well as bosses of big companies.

The decoration in the hall was akin to those of a wedding banquet. There was a long walkway in the center with banquet tables on both sides.

After Chen Hao brought Chen Lin in, they found a place and sat down.

There were a lot of people here and everyone would choose to sit with their friends.

Meanwhile, Ding Hao glared at Chen Hao and Chen Lin furiously after he got in. With a discontented look on his face, he brought Li Shihan to another table and sat there with a group of friends.

“Chen Hao, why are you here?”

Just then, Chen Hao heard a questioning voice next to his ears.

Chen Hao turned his head around and was shocked.

The voice came from a girl and it was none other than Jiang Ranran, Uncle Jiang’s daughter.

There were a bunch of handsome guys and beautiful girls next to her. At that moment, Jiang Ranran was staring at Chen Hao in shock.

Why was Jiang Ranran here?

After much thought, Chen Hao eventually understood.

Ah, right. Uncle Jiang is the leader of the Foreign Investment Team. Now that I am investing in Ping An County, he must have dealt with a lot of my managers.

Now that Lin Yiyi’s father had purposely organized such a huge gathering, there was nothing surprising about Jiang Ranran being able to lay her hands on a ticket. After all, even people like Ding Hao could attend.

However, Chen Hao did not expect such coincidence to bump into her.

“Ran, is this your friend?”

A young and handsome guy next to Jiang Ranran asked.

“Not exactly a friend of mine, but he’s from my hometown. His father used to have some personal connections with my father back in the days. However, we no longer have any connections with their family now! His family is in a lot of debt, and his parents left to work as foreign labour in another country. I did not expect that he could actually attend such an event!”

Jiang Ranran glanced at Chen Hao and said.

After all, Jiang Ranran clearly remembered the time when Chen Hao embarrassed her in the western restaurant.

This time around, it was not easy for her to lay her hands on the entrance ticket to such a huge gathering event. She begged her father for a long time, and only then did her father use his connections and ask another leader for the ticket. She had also planned to utilize this opportunity to expand her horizons.

Lo and behold, this time around she had managed to get to know Zhang Lang, a rich heir in Jin Ling City.

Zhang Lang’s family used to deal with big corporations. When they heard of this development project on Yunmeng mountain, they successfully acquired the contract of being the proxy for a large restaurant there. Therefore, their family would not be having any cash flow problems in the long run.

Indeed, he was a rich heir with actual capabilities.

Lin Dong’s family background pales into insignificance when compared to that of Zhang Lang.

Even Jiang Ranran felt that she was a joke back then for actually bearing grudges when Chen Hao had embarrassed Lin Dong.

“Young Master Zhang, he is just a poor boy. He used to be a famous and poor loser back in our high school days in Ping An County!”

Lin Dong who was also present during this gathering, stood out from the crowd and spoke to Zhang Lang with a hint of flattery.

“Oh, I see. Haha, I think we better take our seats and continue our conversations!”

Zhang Lang faced the guys and girls behind him and said.

“Zhang, you just arrived? I have reserved good seats for you!”

Just then, Ding Hao brought Li Shihan over and paid their greetings.

After all, Ding Hao’s table was quite close to Chen Hao’s table.

“Brother Ding, you are here early! Ran, let’s go over and let me introduce my friend to you. He’s my friend, Young Master Ding!”

Zhang Lang introduced Ding Hao to Jiang Ranran with a smile.

Ding Hao became quite popular now that he owned shops at Yunmeng Mountain.

Naturally, his status and class rose accordingly.

He also managed to step foot into the circle of rich heirs.

After all the introduction, Jiang Ranran eventually got to know everyone.

As a matter of fact, that day was a huge learning experience for Jiang Ranran. It was the first time she got to understand the fascination among the high-end social circle.

At first, Jiang Ranran thought that the circle of rich heirs would only be discussing luxurious products like cars and such.

However, they did not discuss those topics at all.

In fact, they spent most of their time discussing the little things they experienced in life as well as the knowledge of personal finance and investment they learnt from their fathers and people of that generation.

All these opened up a new world for Jiang Ranran.

In comparison, Lin Dong who loved to brag about his money and power was nothing but an ugly duckling.

Not to mention Chen Hao, the upstart. He looked so disgusting!

There was nothing incredible about him.

Ding Hao’s conduct today had also put an embarrassed look on Chen Lin’s face.

Because there was no way Chen Hao could continue to pretend and act like he was a rich heir anymore.

After all, everyone around was an actual rich heir.

Chen Lin looked at Ding Hao and realized how well he was doing in his life. The amount of friends he knew was many as well.

Gosh, I am such a failure, Chen Lin thought. Today was just a complete disaster.

Chen Lin could not even lift her head up!

“Oh right, when is the ‘goddess’ Lin Yiyi going to appear?”

There were a few rich heirs like Ding Hao, whereby it was their first time attending such a huge event. It was also their first time seeing Lin Yiyi who was rumoured to be extraordinarily beautiful. Therefore, they could not hold in their excitement and asked.

Meanwhile, at the backstage of the hotel.

“Manager Wang, are you sure you saw him? H-He is here? How is that possible?”

Lin Yiyi had just finished putting on her makeup when she heard what Wang Biao said. She immediately pushed the makeup artist aside and stood up.

“Ah? Miss Lin, you didn’t know Young Master Chen was coming?”

Wang Biao was stunned.

“No way, why would he be here... You must have mistaken him for someone else. Oh right, was there a girl who came with him?”

Lin Yiyi asked.

The main reason why Lin Yiyi had not contacted Chen Hao all this while was that she was saddened by the fact that Chen Hao had Su Tongxin as his girlfriend. She knew that Chen Hao would not fall in love with her. Therefore, if she had seen Chen Hao, she would feel a little dejected.

At first, Lin Yiyi had planned to invite Chen Hao to this party.

However, her father said that Young Master Chen was busy with the development of Ping An County. Not only that, one of Chen Hao’s older relatives had fallen sick and been hospitalized.

Thus, her father warned her not to disturb Young Master Chen.

Furthermore, to be honest, this gathering was not catered to the senior executives of the group. That was why people like Bai Xiaofei and the rest did not attend.

Therefore, her father said there was no point inviting Young Master Chen.

Lin Yiyi reluctantly agreed.

In reality, she had constantly been thinking about Chen Hao.

Therefore, there was no way she could contain her excitement when she heard from Wang Biao that Young Master Chen was here. However, at the same time she could not believe it.

Wang Biao gave a bitter smile and said, “It’s true, Miss Lin. How could I make a mistake in recognizing Young Master Chen? I personally passed the entrance tickets over to him. Oh, yes! There was a girl that came in with Young Master Chen!”

“I still cannot believe he would come by!” After saying that, Lin Yiyi turned her head and said to the staff members, “Get ready, I would be heading out soon!”

In the meantime, the lights in the event hall dimmed. Lin Yiyi, who was in a white dress, slowly walked out.

“Damn! Such a beauty, an absolute beauty!”

“My goodness, Miss Lin is too beautiful!”

In the midst of the noise, Chen Hao also lifted his head up and looked toward the stage.
