

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 243

“What the f*ck? They actually ordered that?!”

Liu Ke was stunned.

The conceited look on her face vanished immediately.

“Hmph! Stop trying to act cool if you can’t afford to! What’s the point of ordering something so expensive anyways?” Liu Ke attempted to mock.

The other girls also tried to mock along although they felt like they had just been slapped in the face.

However, it was still undeniable that Chen Hao ate better than them. He spent so much just for the two of them. Unlike their table, who only ordered a small portion to feed four mouths.

Hence, the waiter couldn’t help but roll his eyes at them when he served their dishes.

Chen Hao too, did not go over to confront them under Su Ziyue’s advice.

They ate and chatted in peace.

After they finished, they realized that Liu Ke and the others already left. Obviously not used to being compared, they ate in a hurry and quickly left.

“Let’s go!”

Chen Hao patted his stomach.

Then, he left with Su Ziyue.

“Oh yea, Ziyue. Where are the clothes I bought you previously? Why are you not wearing them?”

Chen Hao chuckled and looked at Su Ziyue.

He used to buy Su Ziyue quite a lot of outfits.

Su Ziyue lowered her gaze and blushed, “I’m too embarrassed to wear those expensive clothes!”

Chen Hao laughed.

She was just like him. When he used to be poor, he figured that any clothes were fine as long as they looked clean.

Now, Chen Hao still dressed in simple clothes to keep a low profile.

However, compared to him, Su Ziyue was too hard on herself.

“What are you afraid of? Oh, by the way, there’s a luxury store nearby. Let me buy more outfits for you!”

“Huh? No! I don’t want to go! It’s too expensive!”

Su Ziyue shook her head vigorously.

“It’s okay! Come on, I have a black card anyways!”

Chen Hao chuckled.

He pulled Su Ziyue into the store.

“Tian, I want this! It looks so pretty! Do you think I look good in it?”

Liu Ke was holding a dress. She blushed as she held it against her body and made a few poses.

The dress looked really gorgeous.

The rich guy Tian almost threw the dress when he saw the pricetag, “What the f*ck? This dress costs around 20,000? Why don’t they rob a bank instead? Come on baby, why don’t you pick another dress?”

Tian begged as he touched his wallet.

“Okay. What about this piece? What do you think?” Liu Ke asked again.

He looked again. The outfit was around 10,000. It was still too expensive.

The other girls only looked on in awe standing at the side with their handbags. After all, they didn’t have a rich boyfriend like Tian. They couldn’t afford these luxuries with their minimal wages.

It is okay to benefit a little by hanging out with Liu Ke and Tian. However, it isn’t realistic to ask him to buy them luxury items too!

After choosing close to ten outfits, Tian still couldn’t decide on one as it was too expensive for him.

Liu Ke was in dismay.

“Chen Hao, don’t you think that it’s too much? I can’t wear all of them! Moreover, they are too expensive!” Su Ziyue protested at Chen Hao who was holding a bag of clothes.

Her heart was bleeding from the price of the clothes.

“Don’t bother about the price! You are what you wear!”

Chen Hao thought, It wasn’t like Ziyue needs to live her life low-key.

“Hey, this dress looks pretty! It’s cheap too! I’m getting it for you!”

Chen Hao took a look at the dress laying next to Tian Ge. He chose the correct size and asked for the saleswoman who was dazed by his behavior to wrap them up.

“What the hell! Su Ziyue? A-A-Are you guys nuts?!”

Liu Ke was shocked when she saw both of them as well as the amount of luxury items in their hands.

There are at least ten outfits in Chen Hao's hand!

"Oh my God! Can you guys even afford one piece? And you guys went around and bought so many? Stop acting like a fool! Do you guys want to take more pictures?"

The colleagues continued taunting them.

It was as if someone had offended them, their dignity took a punch.

Chen Hao chose to ignore them. After he was done, he headed to the cashier.

Liu Ke and the others looked at each other. Then, they immediately headed toward Chen Hao and Su Ziyue's direction.

"Hello, sir. The clothes and the bags total up to 320,000. Would you like to—?"

To be honest, even the cashier was stunned.

Liu Ke and the other's mouth hanged in shock too.

"I will pay by card!"

Chen Hao flashed the black card he was holding.

The cashier immediately straightened.

"Sir, because you've spent so much, our shop will give you three additional outfits for free! I would like to ask you to please pick three more outfits!" the cashier said dutifully.

"No, no. It's fine! I don't want them anymore. Chen Hao, they are too expensive! I don't want them!"

Su Ziyue continued shaking her head vigorously.

"I can't even wear these many outfits. I really don't need them!"

She was almost scared sh*tless.

"It's fine if you can't wear them. Let's pick three more outfits! You can give them away as presents to some of the colleagues that are closer to you. With that, you can maintain a good relationship with them too!"

Chen Hao smiled lightly.

It was obvious that almost everyone pushed Su Ziyue around at work because she was too honest and simple-minded.

Since this card had a monthly consumption of 300,000, he should just spend it anyways.

Chen Hao felt that it was worth spending every penny on Su Ziyue.

Maybe it was also because of his feelings for her.

The colleagues that stood behind Liu Ke were surprised when they heard what Chen Hao said.

Especially the other two.

“Wow, Ziyue! Your boyfriend is so rich! Chen Hao, was it? Young Master Chen’s name sounds really good, and he’s handsome too!” Both of them immediately came over and praised them.

Wasn’t the gap in their capabilities obvious now?

“Huh? Lili, Wenwen, thank you. But Chen Hao, he’s—he’s not—”

Su Ziyue wanted to say that he wasn’t her boyfriend.

Chen Hao took over the conversation swiftly, “I’m her godbrother! Moreover, I don’t think I look handsome anyways. Look at my sense of fashion!”

“Haha, Young Master Chen really likes to joke around!”

The girls flushed in embarrassment.

Huh? Godbrother? Then Su Ziyue might be his mistress!

However, that did not affect Su Ziyue’s status in their heart.

After all, Su Ziyue was backed by someone who was way richer!

“Ziyue, Young Master Chen bought you so many new clothes! He also said that you could give them away to your colleagues that are close to you! Do you still remember me smiling at you when you came to work at the nursery on your first day?” one of the girls said.

“Yeah! Ziyue, do you remember that I showed you to the canteen when you didn’t know how to get there? Have you forgotten?” another girl added.

“I do remember!”

Su Ziyue nodded.

“Hmph! Su Ziyue, it’s unexpected that you have such a rich godbrother! Take all of them since he bought it for you anyways! But, I will let you know—I saw that dress first! If you want to give them out as presents, you must give them to me!”

Liu Ke almost turned green from envy.

“Hmph! Liu Ke, how shameful are you? You were the one who always bullied Ziyue at work. Do you think you can just demand Ziyue to give you stuff? Who do you even think you are?”

Both of them girls snarled at Liu Ke.

“What the hell? You guys?”

Liu Ke’s eyes widened in anger.

“Okay, Ziyue. Since these two colleagues were nice to you, you should just give them those outfits as presents. I’m sure that they will help you if you need anything at work in the future. Let’s go, I will send you guys back to the school along the way!”

“Wow! Thanks, Young Master Chen! Of course we will help each other out, right, Ziyue?”

Both of the girls were over the brim with happiness.

They left the shop.

When they reached the parking lot to get his car, the girls were surprised once again.

“Huh? Ziyue, does this G Wagon belong to your godbrother? Holy sh*t!”

He finally managed to give that arrogant Liu Ke a lesson.

That noon, Chen Hao took Su Ziyue’s jade and prepared to head over to Ping An County. He wanted to get Li Zhenguo to help him to investigate it. He even went to the hospital to bid Qin Ya farewell.

Chen Hao drove toward Ping An County.

However, right after he entered the county, he found out that the mainroad was sealed with police tape.

Police, as well as many construction workers and their leaders surrounded the area.

Chen Hao rolled down his windows and took off his sunglasses. He was curious about the commotion that was happening in front. So, he offered cigarettes to a few workers by the side and asked them about the situation.

The workers saw that Chen Hao was being polite, hence they summarized the situation to him, “Brother, you can’t go ahead. Something bad happened!”
