

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 357

After that, Chen Hao went out with Shen Junwen.

“Damn, Chen Hao, aren’t you vacationing in Chengdu? Why are you here in Chengdu University?”

“I came here to study. What about you? What are you doing here in Chengdu University?” Chen Hao asked.

Technically, both of them did not have a feud with each other, but Shen Junwen looked down upon Chen Hao. Of course, it was a mutual feeling for Chen Hao as well.

“I was about to tell you that. I’ll be straightforward. This time, I didn’t come alone. Hu Huimin is here too. As for the reason for our arrival here, it is confidential. Let me tell you, keep your mouth sealed and don’t ever tell anyone our identities. Don’t say I didn’t warn you!” After warning Chen Hao, Shen Junwen turned and left.

Perhaps this was their mission.

But Chen Hao did not care and was not curious about their mission at all.

After giving a bitter smile and shaking his head, Chen Hao prepared to return to the classroom.

“Hi Mister, we are collecting money for charity. Do you wish to make a donation? It doesn’t matter how much you donate! We will send it to the poor children in the mountain region who can’t afford to study. We wish to give everyone an opportunity to study!”

Suddenly, a girl grabbed Chen Hao bashfully.

She seemed like a staff member of the fundraising event.

Since Chen Hao was stopped, he felt obliged to donate.

After all, it was a meaningful and kind act, and it had the same objective as the Hope Elementary School he had built.

Therefore, Chen Hao nodded.

“How much do you wish to donate?”

A few female staff stood up at once and smiled at Chen Hao while looking at him.

“I’ll donate 50,000!” Chen Hao replied with a smile.

“What? 50,000?!”

The few girls were astounded by his answer.

After all, campus fundraising was common nowadays and most of the schools or universities had this event to help the poor students in the mountain region.

Therefore, many students would donate whenever the campus had this event.

Usually, they would donate ten, five or six bucks. It was not the amount of donation that mattered, but the kindness and compassion they showed.

But 50,000...

They had been running the fundraising event here for almost half a month, but this was their first time meeting such an extravagant and generous student.

“Mister, are you seriously going to donate 50,000?”

They found it hard to believe it.

Chen Hao gave a wry smile and took out his card. He wanted to swipe his card.

Chen Hao then pressed five zeros into the credit card machine to donate his money.

“The transaction of 500,000 is successful!” A robotic voice rang from the machine.

“What?” The staff gaped with their mouths open.

“Oh!” Chen Hao jumped out of habit.

Initially, Chen Hao planned to donate 50,000. After all, he always joined charity events now whenever he saw one, and he had been donating to lots of fundraising campaigns. However, he wished to keep a low profile in the university.

Therefore, he had planned to donate less.

However, he had accidentally pressed an extra zero and ended up donating 500,000.

Chen Hao was thinking about Fang Jiannan just now, so he did not pay attention to his actions.

“Mister, you’ve donated too much. I’ll lead you through the procedures now and return the extra money to you. Are you free to follow us to our headquarters this afternoon? We need you to be there personally for your signature in order to refund your money!” The staff was utterly horrified and said hastily.

“That’s too troublesome. It’s fine then. I’ll donate 500,000!”

Chen Hao smiled bitterly and shook his head. After all, 50,000 and 500,000 was just a difference in the digits to him. That was all.

“Mister, can you write down your department and name?”

The staff was beyond impressed.

Upon her request, Chen Hao wrote down his department and class. Just when he was about to write Wang Xiaohua’s name, a few boys and girls had surrounded him, and they were carrying cameras and stuff.

They must be the reporters of the Charity Society, who had rushed here to interview him as soon as they got the news of him donating 500,000.

Upon the sight of the reporters, Chen Hao was startled and threw away his pen.

“No thanks! I have only one request. Please don’t expose me!”

After that, Chen Hao fled from the scene.

“Alright, Mister! But Mister, please leave your name!” the staff shouted.

But Chen Hao just waved his hand and ran off at lightning’s speed, leaving the few young female staff in disappointment.

Although this was their job, they still wished to know some wealthy people.

They had an opportunity just now, but he did not give them any chance to know him.

Meanwhile, Chen Hao had returned.

When he reached the classroom, he heard the gleeful hails from inside.

“Shengnan is indeed awesome. You are so amazing to have donated such a large sum of money! 30,000 is a huge amount!” A few people were shouting excitedly.

It all happened this morning when Lin Shengnan came to the university and saw that the fundraising event was held on campus. So, she donated.

It was nothing special at first, and she did not intend to mention it. However, it accidentally slipped out of her mouth when she was chatting with her friends just now.

This caused everyone in the classroom to gasp in astonishment.

As a university student, it was considered astonishing to be able to spend 30,000 at one go.

Xu Yangyang laughed heartily and said she donated just a thousand, while the majority of the students donated some or did not donate.

And that was fine.

“Oh, didn’t Liang Fei say he would be coming to class today? Why isn’t he here yet? He just finished the taekwondo competition and came in second!”

Suddenly, Xu Yangyang looked in the direction of the door.

“Geez, you just can’t wait, can you?” Lin Shengnan teased her.

“Of course I am looking forward to Liang Fei’s return. Otherwise, someone will think that he is amazing!” Xu Yangyang glanced at Chen Hao as she spoke.

At this moment, a boy walked into the classroom.

“Liang Fei!”

“Liang Fei, you’re back!”

Everyone in the classroom shouted excitedly.

“Liang Fei, you’re finally here. You’re almost late!” Xu Yangyang stood up with joy and said to Liang Fei.

“Yeah. I was blocked by a few girls from the fundraising events downstairs, so it took a bit of time to come up!” Liang Fei shook his head and smiled bitterly.

He then looked at Chen Hao who was sitting on his usual seat, then sat down beside Xu Yangyang.

“Liang Fei, did you donate too?” Lin Shengnan asked with a smile.

Liang Fei nodded his head.

He was tall, skinny and handsome. On top of that, his family background was the best in this class.

Besides, he was skilled in sports, so he was naturally the star of the class.

“Liang Fei, how much did you donate? I heard that there will be a ceremony to thank the donors this afternoon. Those who donated a lot will appear at the ceremony!” Xu Yangyang said with admiration.

“Me? I just donated some. I’m not interested in these ceremonies!” Liang Fei felt speechless and shook his head.

Why was everyone interested in these?

“Liang Fei, don’t leave us hanging! How much is ‘some’?” The girls were pursuing this question anxiously, and the boys were also curious to know.

“I just donated 100,000!” Liang Fei had no choice but to answer them to quench their curiosity.

Bam!

The class sank into a deathly silence at once.

Soon after that, there was an explosion of voices.

100,000?

Oh my god!

“Liang Fei, you donated 100,000? Really?!” Most of the girls could not hold in their excitement and shouted.

Indeed. It was a great shock to them when they knew he had donated such a large sum of money!

Xu Yangyang could not even make out a word due to overexcitement.

“Liang Fei, I love you so much! You are truly amazing!” Xu Yangyang screamed in admiration.????
