

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 364

Hu Huimin shouted agitatedly at Chen Hao when she saw him ignoring her.

Ignoring me? Who do you think you are?!

“What?”

Chen Hao was feeling quite indifferent toward Hu Huimin, so he decided to just ignore her. Plus, he knew how resentful she felt toward him knowing that he was wealthy now.

Therefore, he couldn't be bothered to talk to her.

“What's so great about becoming wealthy? How dare you treat me as if I'm a stranger to you! I just want to know where you get your money from, that's all!” Hu Huimin stared at Chen Hao and asked.

“Sorry, but this is my privacy!” Chen Hao answered coldly.

“A person like you has privacy? I guess things are different now that you are wealthy, huh? Take a look at your past self and your current behavior. I can tell you this, Chen Hao, you're nothing but an upstart, do you understand? And you reek of the mentality of an upstart! Seriously, you're lacking the maturity and steadiness which Wang Jian and the rest have!” Hu Huimin taunted.

“You can say whatever you want. I'm leaving now with Xiaohua to choose the location for our new company. Please excuse us!”

Chen Hao shook his head and smiled.

After all, this was not his first time being mocked by someone. Then again, it did not affect him no matter how much they mocked him. He couldn't be bothered wasting his efforts to explain himself.

“New company? You are opening a new company?”

For some reason, Hu Huimin felt uncomfortable deep down knowing Chen Hao's life was improving.

“Yes. We are opening a travel agency together and Chen Hao will be investing in it!” For the first time, Wang Xiaohua could not hold back his excitement.

After that, he went in with Chen Hao.

It was true. Chen Hao called to inform him of this matter just yesterday afternoon.

With his grandmother's health deteriorating recently, as well as having troubles in his relationship, Wang Xiaohua was under a lot of stress.

Fortunately, Chen Hao's funds came as a timely help which allowed Wang Xiaohua to sail through his crisis.

This made Wang Xiaohua deeply grateful to Chen Hao, to the extent of even murmuring Chen Hao's name in his sleep, more intimately than he would his own brother.

Looking at their disappearing figures, Shen Junwen vented in displeasure, "What kind of dumb luck does that brat have?"

"Who knows? Even someone like Chen Hao is opening a company and he is spending extravagantly!"

Hu Huimin stomped her foot in anger as she was completely bewildered.

"Hmph! Let's stand aside and enjoy his pointless actions. When he has wasted all of his money, we'll see what else he has!" Shen Junwen spoke with jealousy. He then paused shortly before continuing, "Enough about Chen Hao. Let's go. There is a taekwondo competition in the university today. Among all the activities in the campus, this competition caught my interest the most!"

Hu Huimin replied, "Of course. Before you joined the police academy, you were already the champion of Jiang Nan province taekwondo in the senior high team. Now that there's a taekwondo competition being held, I bet you can't resist commenting on the fresh talents, huh?"

Both of them chatted as they walked inside.

Meanwhile, after Chen Hao and Wang Xiaohua reported their attendance, they applied to leave from school and left right away since there was only an extracurricular class in the morning.

The reason why Chen Hao was willing to help Wang Xiaohua was because he saw himself in him. During this period of time, Chen Hao had taken Wang Xiaohua as his own brother.

If Wang Xiaohua met with difficulties, he would lend a helping hand whenever he could as it was not a big deal.

Besides, Wang Xiaohua was filial to his parents as well as his family.

Therefore, Chen Hao knew that Wang Xiaohua had a good personality and respectable values, thus he was willing to support Wang Xiaohua at all times.

Eventually, he came up with the idea of launching a travel agency together.

The first step was to decide on their company's address.

The location was fixed in an office building of a huge luxurious business plaza which was located in the city area near University City.

This building was located near a scenic area with mountains and rivers. Hence, many industries flocked here as it was fairly popular among the public.

The travel agency should not be located at an outlying place as they needed various resources to be able to arrange their companies' team building activities and annual meetings.

At this moment, both of them arrived at the investment center in the business plaza.

"Didn't we arrange the time during the call earlier? Where is the person who is supposed to tend to us?" Chen Hao asked Wang Xiaohua after they went in.

"I'm not sure about that, Chen Hao. I've tried calling that person, but his line was engaged!"

“Fine. The investment center is crowded anyway, so let’s just wait for a while.”

Chen Hao glanced at the time as he shook his head and smiled helplessly.

Suddenly, Wang Xiaohua stared at the entrance in a trance. Noticing his unusual reaction, Chen Hao raised his head and followed his gaze.

In his sight, a few young guys and girls came down from a car together and walked toward the investment center.

One of the girls held intimately onto the arm of the young man who got down from the driver’s seat. Both of them were chatting and joking while walking into the center together with two other girls behind them.

“Qin Nuan, are you not joining the group stage of the whole form that will be starting soon?” the two girls asked.

“Group stage would be too easy for her. After all, Qin Nuan is an expert in taekwondo. She can just join the final round this afternoon, no need for the group stage! Am I right?” the boy replied complacently.

“Absolutely! Qin Nuan, you are truly blessed! Now that you have Li Xiang, you can even open your own training school to coach students!” the girls commented with envy.

“It’s not a big deal. It’s just a training institute. I’m just doing the things that I enjoy. Right, Li Xiang?” Qin Nuan replied gleefully.

“Yes. But Qin Nuan, you must be emotionally prepared and I need to warn you beforehand. Nowadays, the competition of training institutes is unimaginably strong. There are a variety of training courses out there. I don’t have a deep insight on taekwondo, but my sister trains with you and according to her, the competition is quite intense. Although I’m using my family’s connections, you and my sister have to work hard for it when your business starts running,” Li Xiang replied.

“No problem. Due to the fierce competition, I chose the location at the Zhen Da Business Plaza as the visitor flow rate here is quite high!”

“But this place... Alright, alright. Let’s not talk about this. I’ll look for my friend’s brother to enquire as he is the business executive here.”

“Alright!”

“Qin Nuan?”

At this moment, Wang Xiaohua appeared in front of Qin Nuan and stared at the scene before him in surprise.

Upon noticing Wang Xiaohua, Qin Nuan awkwardly let go of Li Xiang’s hand.

Indeed. Previously, she had told Wang Xiaohua that they should take some time apart. In this period of time, there would be sufficient space for Wang Xiaohua to prove his worth.

At the same time, she could focus on her training.

Therefore, Wang Xiaohua agreed to take a break temporarily.

However, Qin Nuan's behavior toward Wang Xiaohua after that was obvious to all.

Now, she was even walking intimately with another guy.

At this moment, Wang Xiaohua finally understood the reason for her actions. Everything Qin Nuan said was a lie!

Meanwhile, due to the guilt that Qin Nuan felt, she was rather embarrassed when she saw Wang Xiaohua.

"You were lying to me all this time!"

Wang Xiaohua's hand started trembling and the investment application material in his hand fell onto the floor at once...??????
