

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 367

At the same time, Shen Junwen noticed Liang Fei and raised his eyebrows as well.

Without any delay, they walked out together.

“Are you the champion of Jiang Nan province’s youth group, Shen Junwen? I watched your competition when I participated in the national competition last year!”

Surprisingly, Liang Fei looked at Shen Junwen with eyes full of respect.

“Actually, I do know you as well. You are the runner-up of Chengdu province’s youth group this season. It was a narrow win for the champion!”

Shen Junwen was also astonished.

Both of them were specifically invited by the organizer to perform a show.

The sight of them talking to each other attracted the contestants and the audience’s attention. Everyone’s gaze focused on the both of them.

“Yes. You have achieved a high rank in the national competition. I’ve always looked forward to competing with you in a competition, and today seems like a great opportunity!” Liang Fei looked at Shen Junwen and replied. In his eyes, there was a strong gleam of will to fight.

On the other side, Hu Huimin smiled complacently as she looked at Shen Junwen.

Indeed. Shen Junwen was outstanding. Not only his fighting skills, his reputation in the field of taekwondo was fairly well-known.

This was one of the reasons why Hu Huimin admired Shen Junwen.

“Yes. Today is indeed a great opportunity!” Shen Junwen shook his head while smiling bitterly.

In just a short moment, their suggestion was approved by the organizer.

The battle between the two experts would be the highlight of this event.

Naturally, the battle between the champion of Jiang Nan province versus the runner-up of Chengdu province drove the crowd into an energetic frenzy.

Even many of the taekwondo contestants were excited and inspired at the same time, causing them to fight even more enthusiastically during the competition.

“Chen Hao, quick, look who that is!”

While Chen Hao was immersed in the competition, Wang Xiaohua suddenly nudged his arm.

Chen Hao then looked in the direction pointed by Wang Xiaohua.

In his sight, two beautiful figures had appeared on the stand by the sides. They were also watching the competition.

Those two were none other than Fang Jiannan and Fang Yi.

“They came as well?”

Chen Hao was bewildered.

The two girls were living a routine. Wherever they went, they would always pick a seat at the corner and refrain from interacting with people around them.

Chen Hao’s stare seemed to be noticed by Fang Jiannan, so she looked at Chen Hao at once.

In that moment, their eyes met.

But soon, Fang Jiannan frowned slightly and shifted her gaze.

Chen Hao did not continue staring at her as well.

“Chen Hao, I’m not sure if you’ve noticed it.”

“What?”

“That two goddesses have peeked at you several times, especially Fang Yi. Two days ago during a class, Fang Yi was whispering to Fang Jiannan, and I noticed that she sneaked a peek at you from the corner of her eyes! Apart from that, didn’t Xu Yangyang pick a fight with you frequently these two days? When you and her had a row, Fang Jiannan and Fang Yi were also staring at you! Even just now, I saw both of them looking at you. Chen Hao, could these two goddesses have fallen in love with you?” Wang Xiaohua explained his analysis.

“Bullsh*t! How could that be possible?”

Chen Hao shook his head in disbelief and smiled.

At this moment, Wang Xiaohua shut his mouth as well, because Qin Nuan had entered the stage and started the competition.

Wang Xiaohua stared fixedly at Qin Nuan.

Although it was apparent that Wang Xiaohua was cold toward Qin Nuan this morning, deep down, he still had feelings for Qin Nuan.

Just like Chen Hao and Yang Xia. Back then, even though he hated her, he still could not turn a blind eye when she was in danger.

Bang!

The battle lasted for seven to eight minutes before Qin Nuan accidentally lost. She was kicked out of the stage and landed on the floor near Chen Hao and Wang Xiaohua.

Qin Nuan pressed on her chest and bit her lips softly while looking at Wang Xiaohua. Realizing Wang Xiaohua was ignoring her, a tinge of disappointment flashed across her face.

She felt like she had lost something precious.

As time went by, the competition was drawing to an end.

But it was this time when the crowd grew enormously. All the students were gathering toward the competition venue. Obviously, the battle between Liang Fei and Shen Junwen was almost starting, so everyone rushed to the scene feeling hyped up for it.

Soon, the venue was overcrowded with the audience.

At this moment, Shen Junwen and Liang Fei had started to warm up their bodies.

“Both Shen Junwen and Liang Fei are skillful. Though we all know that Liang Fei is our province’s runner-up, I heard that Shen Junwen is the champion of Jiang Nan province and he is an absolute expert!”

“Oh god! This will be interesting. But I still support Liang Fei! I hope that Liang Fei will bring pride to Chengdu!”

“Well, I expect Shen Junwen to win. After all, Shen Junwen seems like an experienced contestant!”

Everyone was discussing the upcoming battle.

Even Chen Hao’s classmates were discussing it fervently.

“Chen Hao, who do you think will win the battle?”

Out of nowhere, a few girls suddenly gathered around Chen Hao and asked curiously.

“Well, both of them seem skillful. It’s hard to say who will win for now.”

“Just tell us. Don’t you know Shen Junwen?”

A girl swayed Chen Hao’s arm.

Actually, Chen Hao knew Shen Junwen’s identity, so he was sure that Shen Junwen’s ability was not limited to taekwondo.

After all, Shen Junwen’s job was complicated.

To be honest, Shen Junwen was indeed talented, but Chen Hao would not say that out loud.

“Why bother asking him? He knows nothing as he has no knowledge in taekwondo. Hmph! All that you’ve got is that little amount of dirty cash. Do you think you are qualified to comment on the competition after seeing others commenting on them? Who do you think you are?” Suddenly, Xu Yangyang turned to Chen Hao and interrupted their conversation.

She had been acting outrageously these two days, taunting and humiliating Chen Hao whenever she had the chance.

Chen Hao did not bother to get back at her as she was just a girl.

Indeed. Chen Hao knew that he stole the limelight from Liang Fei during the charity event, but it was excessively rude to mock him for so long.

But that was not the worst. When Shen Junwen was battling against Liang Fei, Xu Yangyang deliberately moved her body to a side and blocked Chen Hao's view.

When Chen Hao moved to the left, she would shift her body to the left; when Chen Hao moved to the right, she would move to the right as well.

In simpler words, she was intentionally making it an unpleasant experience for Chen Hao to watch the competition.

Chen Hao was bottling up with rage.

With every passing second, the battle had become quite intense.

In the beginning, Liang Fei started with aggressive attacks, his moves and techniques were flawless.

On the other hand, Shen Junwen did not launch many effective attacks.

He was mainly dodging Liang Fei's blows.

In the later stage, Liang Fei's attacks started to weaken.

Although he launched the attacks, they failed to inflict any successful damage on Shen Junwen.

"He lost."

On the other side of the stand, Fang Jiannan stated in an indifferent tone.

"What? Who lost? Shen Junwen? I see that Liang Fei's attacks are impeccable, and his moves are so cool! But look at Shen Junwen, his moves are so simple. Is he really a champion? Could it be just a rumor?" said Fang Yi.

Though they had yet to talk to each other, Liang Fei was her classmate in their joint class after all. Naturally, Fang Yi's favor was relatively inclined toward Liang Fei.

"The greatest truths are the simplest. Although Liang Fei's moves are quite cool, his attacking strategies would be exposed faster. As the provincial champion, Shen Junwen is indeed smart. You just need to wait and see!" Fang Jiannan explained.

As expected, when Liang Fei was preparing for another round of attack, Shen Junwen suddenly leaped into mid-air and made a roundhouse kick. His movement was smooth and cool, sending Liang Fei out of the stage with a kick.

"Ah!"

This scene threw the whole audience into a euphoric state and everyone was shouting at the top of their lungs.

Only Xu Yangyang was taken over by anxiety.

Initially when Liang Fei was launching attacks, Xu Yangyang was cheering for him. Now that he lost to just one move, it was only natural for Xu Yangyang to sulk.

“Fantastic!”

Chen Hao was also watching the battle with great interest. At this moment, he could not suppress his excitement and cheered loudly.

However, Xu Yangyang stood up immediately when she heard his cheers and glared at him. “What do you mean ‘fantastic’? Do you even understand what’s going on?!”

She shouted loudly, almost everyone could hear her.

At this moment, everyone focused their eyes on Chen Hao...
