

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 376

“That’s a long story! Even if I summarized it, I couldn’t possibly explain it clearly.” Chen Hao smiled.

Just then, a few servants entered respectfully and served tea to both Hu Huimin and Xu Yangyang.

“Chen Hao, I don’t know what relationship you have with President Zhu, but I’m sure you know what happened to us. If you have the ability to help us, then I hope you put it to use!” Hu Huimin said.

Xu Yangyang nodded fervently. “Chen Hao, I’m sorry! From now on, you can treat me however you want, as long as you help us out just this once!”

“Alright, I’ll bring it up to President Zhu. But after everything is settled, I don’t want my help to have been for nothing!” Chen Hao smiled as he looked at them.

Right at the beginning, despite how coldly Hu Huimin treated him, he would still help if he could whenever they got into trouble.

But right now, Chen Hao wasn’t feeling very generous toward them.

Especially toward Xu Yangyang.

Except, they had come to find Zhu Ming, which was equivalent to finding Chen Hao himself.

Obviously, Chen Hao would not reject them outright.

It was just that he wanted to be reciprocated for the help he gave!

“What do you want?”

Chen Hao snapped his fingers.

After a while, Xu Yangyang and Hu Huimin left.

As they were leaving, they didn’t utter a single word to Shen Junwen and Xu Wentao. They walked away after throwing a glance at them.

Shen Junwen and Xu Wentao were very confused, but they still followed them and walked out.

After all of that was settled, Zhu Ming came in to look for Chen Hao.

Xu Yangyang’s issue was actually pretty easy to deal with.

Even if there was the Situ family behind the Meng family, taking things into consideration, they still had to respect Zhu Ming.

Besides, Chen Hao had come here for an even more important problem.

“Young Master Chen, we made a big discovery! We have found Fang Mengxin’s personal butler! After spending a long time investigating further, we found out that Fang Mengxin had left the Fang family twenty plus years ago. Apparently, a big argument was what caused it. She had left then with her personal butler. Apart from that, she also brought along a one-month-old baby!” Zhu Ming said.

Just then, Chen Hao immediately sat up straighter.

This was indeed a very big discovery.

A one-month-old baby? Could it be Su Ziyue?

Chen Hao prompted Zhu Ming to explain further.

It turned out that when Chen Hao was still in Jin Ling and had asked Li Zhenguo to help investigate this case, the latter had already asked Zhu Ming to help with the investigation.

Zhu Ming, of course, took this very seriously.

He used almost a 100 million worth of resources to start a large-scale investigation to locate this person named Fang Mengxin.

In the end, he had only found out some information about the Fang family.

As for the location of Fang Mengxin’s personal butler, they had gotten the information yesterday from an old man who contacted them himself.

This old man used to own a guesthouse.

He still remembered it as clear as day.

That night twenty-two years ago, thunder and lightning flashed across the sky as rain poured from above.

Two women and a baby arrived at the scene.

Their expressions looked rather anxious and rushed. The woman holding onto the baby was entirely drenched while the baby’s clothes were still dry. On top of that, this woman was extremely beautiful.

Even after all these years, the old man still clucked his tongue when he remembered it, saying that he had never seen such a beautiful woman in his life.

There was another woman next to her who looked to be about thirty years old.

This woman kept referring to the other as ‘Miss’.

They were walking pretty quickly, and came in saying they wanted a room and just one would be enough. What was strange was that they said they didn’t have money at the moment, but someone would deliver money to the guest house owner by tomorrow afternoon, in order for him not to worry.

But the man was a store owner and was in his forties then. Needless to say, he was an experienced member of society.

So how could he agree to that?

Seeing that he wasn't budging, the beautiful woman who was carrying a baby then took out a jade pendant and gave it to the man.

The good thing was that this man could be considered a lover of antiques. With one look, he could immediately tell that the pendant was expensive.

There were two words carved distinctively onto it—Mengxin.

Right away, he felt that these two girls were not from an average household.

He didn't dare to offend anybody, so he agreed.

Zhu Ming said that the old man recounted this part extremely clearly, because that night after getting the pendant, he contacted some friends to look at it and even wanted to keep it for his own.

But his friends reminded him that the owner of a beautiful jade pendant such as this would not be good to displease, and he should avoid it if he could.

Only then did the old man decide against it.

Just like that, he waited until two o' clock in the afternoon the next day.

Surprisingly, a young man actually arrived.

He had sent Fang Mengxin a lot of money.

That was when Fang Mengxin took her jade pendant back and the two of them left.

The old man didn't expect that the girl would return just seven days later.

However, the beautiful lady holding the baby did not return.

Instead, it was the woman next to her.

When he saw her again, the old man got a shock.

Seven days ago, this woman's visage was lively. However, she was now reduced to just skin and bones with her face now pale, as if she were a ghost.

She told him she wanted to book a night here.

She also asked the guest house owner about a place called Hong County.

The old man knew where it was, since his daughter-in-law lived in Hong County.

So, he nodded.

The woman gave the old man a lot of money, and in the early morning of the next day, the old man personally escorted the woman to Hong County.

He had asked her some questions along the way, and she said she was here to find a relative.

The old man then sent her to that relative's house.

Because of this, the woman gave him a 100,000 to show her gratitude.

100,000 was in no way a small amount back then.

That was why the old man's memory remained fresh all these years.

He managed to remember every detail from that incident.

And after Zhu Ming showed him the jade pendant, the old man was extremely sure that it was the same jade pendant the beautiful woman had given him that year.

He had hugged it to sleep for a night, so how could he forget?

"Young Master Chen, he already told me the address of the relative that he had sent the butler to that year. I sent people over there to investigate yesterday night, but I found out that the family there had already moved and the house had been demolished long ago. Don't worry, I promise that I will find that family's whereabouts within twenty-four hours!" Zhu Ming said.

Chen Hao nodded. "President Zhu, thank you so much for your help!"

To be honest, Chen Hao believed firmly in Zhu Ming's abilities.

Chen Hao could feel that they were getting closer to finding Fang Mengxin, and along with that, they were finally about to locate Su Ziyue's biological mother.

Until then, he would finally understand—what relationship did Fang Mengxin have with his father?

"Another thing, Young Master Chen. I don't know why you're looking for Fang Mengxin, neither do I know what she has on her, but there is something I must let you know!" Zhu Ming suddenly reported in a serious manner.

"What is it?"
