

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 391

Wang Wen just recalled something. As she was feeling quite wretched earlier with all the people there in front of her, she had gotten off the scooter in a haste.

Originally, her bag was placed beside her.

However, she had forgotten to take it with her when she got off the scooter.

“Damn, why are you so careless? I bet you have a large amount of cash inside your bag, huh?” asked Hou Xiaoxia.

“Xiaoxia, what are you talking about? I don’t mean it that way. I’m worried that Chen Hao might lose my bag somewhere when he’s not paying attention. My phone, identity card and bank cards are inside my bag!” said Wang Wen anxiously.

“Hey, hey, hey! You, why are you here again? You’re not supposed to park your vehicle here!”

At the moment, a commotion came from the entrance.

Several security guards were blocking a young guy from entering the hotel.

“My friend forgot to take her bag, I have to pass it to her!”

The young guy was none other than Chen Hao.

“Take a look at this place, would you? Do you think anyone could just enter as they like? Scram!”

Several security guards were jostling with Chen Hao.

As Hou Xiaoxia and Wang Wen were standing close to the entrance, they caught sight of the scene.

“Hey, Wen, look at how embarrassing he is! Just take your bag from him quickly and ask him to leave,” said Hou Xiaoxia hastily.

Several young rich men standing nearby were staring scornfully in the direction of the entrance.

After all, everyone was fairly vain in front of his or her peers.

Both Hou Xiaoxia and Wang Wen would become the laughing stock of the event if everyone knew they were acquainted with Chen Hao.

Wang Wen then made a dash toward Chen Hao and said, “Chen Hao, I am here. You may pass me my bag.”

Only then did Chen Hao hand over Wang Wen’s bag to her.

Deep down, Wang Wen had wanted to say something to Chen Hao to express her gratitude.

However, it was complicated.

The same thing happened during her high school days. Back then, although she had a crush on Chen Hao, she didn't make any move on him because of her pride.

And it was no different now as Wang Wen did not say anything to Chen Hao.

After giving him a simple greeting, Wang Wen was ready to head back into the hotel.

"Chen Hao!!!"

All of a sudden, a high-pitched female voice came from the stage.

It turned out to be President Lin's daughter from Jin Ling City who shouted.

Chen Hao thought the voice sounded familiar, and so, he immediately turned around to look at the stage. Unexpectedly, Lin Yiyi, her father and a few directors of his subsidiary companies were standing onstage.

"Chen Hao, is that you? On my way here just now, I saw someone riding an electric three-wheeler looking very much like you. However, my father said it was impossible for you to be here. Little did I know, you were actually the rider!"

That girl was Lin Yiyi. At that moment, she was speaking excitedly.

This time around, all of the guests offstage were stupefied.

No one would expect that the daughter from the Lin Family was that close to someone who was merely riding an electric three-wheeler!

"Who is that guy? It seems like Miss Lin is treating him quite different from the other guys!"

"Exactly. Damn! Could he be Miss Lin's classmate?"

Everyone started speculating.

At that moment, Hou Xiaoxia was having a shortness of breath.

Does Lin Yiyi actually know Chen Hao?

I wonder how he got to know so many people?

"Eh? Yiyi, President Lin, I see all of you are here."

Only then did Chen Hao avert his eyes to the stage. He was somewhat shocked at what he saw.

Especially when he spotted Guo Xilin.

Then, something dawned on Chen Hao. Earlier that day, Guo Xilin had given him a call, inviting him to attend a gathering.

However, as he was dealing with Hou Xiaoxia at that time, he had turned down Guo Xilin's invitation.

He didn't expect that Hou Xiaoxia and Wang Wen were going to attend the same gathering.

"Isn't that guy being too rude? Does he even know how to speak in a proper way?"

"The way he addressed President Lin was way too rude. He's probably too young to know how the real world works!"

"Exactly!"

"Xiaoxia, Wen, isn't that guy your classmate?"

At that moment, Li Liang shook his head and let out a forced laugh.

"Of course not. We don't know him at all!" Hou Xiaoxia shook her head in denial.

As for Wang Wen, she held her head low and did not say a thing.

"Y-Young Master Chen! You actually came!"

Guo Xilin got so agitated that even his lips were trembling.

At first, he assumed that Chen Hao would not bother to attend the event as he probably looked down upon the average rich merchants who were going to be here. Hence, he thought that any attempt to please him would be in vain. However, as it turned out, Young Master Chen was actually here!

"Greetings to you, Young Master Chen!"

As for President Lin and the rest of the directors, they took a step forward and bowed slightly.

Silence!

In the blink of an eye, total silence settled over the audience.

Many of the guests had their mouth agape in shock at that moment.

So many big shots were actually bowing to that guy who rode a three-wheeler.

Besides, President Guo's voice had even turned shaky.

As for Hou Xiaoxia, she began to hyperventilate.

Her mind went blank and her ears started ringing as though someone had just thrown firecrackers right next to her ears.

Her mouth was so widely open that an egg could fit inside.

"What? They are addressing Chen Hao as Young Master Chen? How is that possible? How is that even possible?!"

Wang Wen was deeply shaken too as she had no idea what was going on.

“Could he be the Young Master Chen from Jin Ling City?”

After a brief silence, the crowd started to get rowdy again.

Exchanging glances among themselves, all of the guests were shaken to the core.

“President Guo and President Lin, you guys are being too courteous. I had no idea you guys are having a function here!”

Chen Hao appeared to be somewhat awkward.

More importantly, the guests from both sides were staring at him with mixed expressions.

Chen Hao became even more embarrassed under their gazes.

Nonetheless, Chen Hao managed to walk graciously toward the hotel.

As for Hou Xiaoxia, she was staring in a befuddlement at Chen Hao who was walking past herself on his way to the stage.

“Exactly, Young Master Chen!”

President Guo cleared the center position onstage for Chen Hao in an instant.

At the same time, he looked at the guests, who were all in a daze, and announced, “Ladies and gentleman, this is Young Master Chen from Jin Ling City. He is Jin Ling’s tycoon and the owner of the Cloud Mansion!”

Boom!

The whole scene got tumultuous at once.

“Hahahahaha!”

Suddenly, an untimely and frenzied laughter of a girl was heard.

Everyone turned to look at the girl at once.

“Xiaoxia, what are you laughing at?”

Li Liang, too, was taken aback by Hou Xiaoxia’s laughter.

“What am I laughing at? Haha, I am laughing at how impressive Chen Hao is! He managed to deceive everyone! Everyone believes he is Young Master Chen! Isn’t this incredulous?”

Hou Xiaoxia stepped forward while laughing at the same time.

Onstage, the rich merchants had their brows creased together, especially President Guo. He stared at Hou Xiaoxia with his brows deeply furrowed.

“What are you doing? Someone please get her out of here!” Guo Xilin exclaimed furiously.

“President Guo, please don’t get the wrong idea. I don’t mean to offend you. All I wish to do is to enlighten everyone so that no one would be deceived by that guy. In fact, I am his high school classmate. I know everything about his background! Wang Wen, too, knows him! He is just a poor guy! He is so poor that he couldn’t even afford his meals!”

Hiss...

Everyone at the scene gasped after listening to her words.

Could he be pretending to be Young Master Chen?

Hou Xiaoxia started to gloat as she saw that everyone appeared to be convinced.

Hmph! It seemed that she would be able to impress all those rich merchants with this.

Young Master Chen from Jin Ling City? He is Chen Hao? That’s simply impossible!

She then cast a disdainful look at Chen Hao and stated, “Haha, Chen Hao, I bet you didn’t see this coming, did you? You won’t be able to make a successful act as long as I’m around. Don’t you dare think that you could bluff President Guo and the rest of us!”

It was clear that Hou Xiaoxia would never accept it as the truth.

Looking at Hou Xiaoxia, Chen Hao shook his head and let out a forced laugh.

“Hehe, lady, it seems like you have misunderstood Young Master Chen...”

Guo Xilin let out a bitter laugh.

“He really is Young Master Chen, the President of the Dreamer Group in Jin Ling City!”
