

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 446

“Oh, sister, I know you were hurt by Nangong before. But Nangong’s wife is also from the outside world!” Mo Qingying said.

Suddenly, Mo Qingwu’s eyes were burning in fury. “Shut up! How many times have I told you not to mention that man and that woman in front of me?”

“I-I know, sister. I know you despise and look down on people from the outer world. Fine, I won’t say it again!” Mo Qingying said, her eyes reddened with tears.

Mo Qingwu realized she went too far with her words. She caressed Mo Qingying’s head and said, “It’s for your own good. That Chen Hao is just some secular guy who has a lot of money—the only thing which people from the outer world care about. Like people of his kind, he is money-minded. He isn’t worth the time and favor of the Mo Family. The reason we are here to help them is to honor the promise of the son of the Mo Family’s Third Elder. Unlike those worldly people, we, people of the Mo Family care the most about honoring our promises! So, even if you’re interested in Chen Hao, it’s still impossible between you and him! I’ll not agree with that!” A disdainful look crossed Mo Qingwu’s eyes.

“Oh... I understood...” Mo Qingying lowered her head.

“But, we can think of some other way to make Chen Hao stay by your side,” Mo Qingwu continued.

“Eh? How?” Mo Qingying asked.

Indeed, when Chen Hao came ten days ago, Mo Qingying had a crush on the young man due to his good look.

Her interest and curiosity for Chen Hao also grew when she heard about the matters revolving around him, after she got to know him.

Girls’ feelings were funny sometimes; they would fall in love with someone or hate someone easily for no apparent reasons. And all these happened within seconds.

He was neither extremely good nor talented. But still, she liked him! This was exactly how Mo Qingying felt toward Chen Hao.

Since Mo Qingying grew up in the secluded Mo Family, she was innocent and did not have any complicated thoughts like the girls from the outer world.

“Ha! That’s easy! Just let him become your servant and follow you around! The Mo Family has the ability to help him achieve longevity after he becomes Mo Family’s servant. After all, longevity is something you can’t buy with money!” Mo Qingwu said emotionlessly.

“Oh, I don’t want him to be my servant. But sister, why don’t you like him? After all, he is...”

“That’s enough. Don’t talk about this again. There’s no other way to keep him by your side except this. Don’t say I never told you about it!” Mo Qingwu said before she left.

Back at the banquet, Chen Jindong was talking to the Third Elder of the Mo Family and his men.

“Thank you so much for your help in this business!” Chen Jindong smiled.

“You’re welcome, Mr. Chen. We’ll do our best and hope this first alliance between the Chen Family and the Mo Family will be a happy and successful one!” Mo Weiping, the Third Elder of the Mo Family, said with a smile.

“I’m afraid the alliance will not be such a happy one after all.”

At the same time, an old man in his sixties led his group of men into the place.

“Who are you? How did you come in?” Chen Jindong was surprised to see the old man.

“You think you can stop me with those useless weaklings?” the old man sneered.

“Mo Changkong, what are you doing? We’re in the middle of discussion for an important business alliance here! How dare you interrupt us rudely?” Mo Weiping frowned and rose from his seat.

“Ha! An alliance? There will not be any alliance!” Mo Changkong retorted coldly.

Mo Changkong looked like a man in his fifties even though he was already in his sixties. He had a pair of eyes which were filled with cruelty and wickedness.

“Why can’t we form the alliance?” Mo Weiping asked.

“Uncle, I know your son was saved by the Yang Family years ago. Because of this, you owed the Yang Family a favor and had to break the rules to help the Chen Family on the Yang Family’s request. But Chen Hao, the eldest son of the Chen Family, offended my friend, the Long Family. Now, I represent the Long Family to demand some explanations from the Chen Family! So, what do you say? Will you still help the Chen Family?” Mo Changkong asked coldly.

Although Mo Changkong addressed Mo Weiping, who was in his nineties, as ‘uncle’, the position of Mo Changkong was higher than Mo Weiping in terms of ranking in the Mo Family; Mo Changkong was the Second Elder of the Mo Family, while Mo Weiping was the Third Elder of the family.

“The Long Family?” Chen Hao was standing by the side. He wondered how the Long Family was related to the Mo Family. Besides, my sister and I have been in conflict with the Long Family for such a long time. I wonder what kind of action Mo Changkong wants from us.

“Elder Mo Changkong, how are you? I am wondering what we can do for you?” Chen Jindong asked with a smile.

“Ha! That’s easy. I want the Chen Family to surrender half of your properties to be managed by the Long Family. If you do this, I will let the Chen Family off the hook, and I will not talk about the matter anymore!” Mo Changkong smiled coldly.

“What an arrogant request!” Members of the Chen Family looked at each other; they were shocked by Mo Changkong’s words.

The Chen Family’s property? Even one-thousandth of the Chen Family’s properties is enough to compensate the whole Long Family, not to mention half of the family’s properties. Apparently, Mo

Changkong was there to rob them rather than negotiating with them. Chen Hao couldn't help but frowned.

"Mr. Chen, think about it clearly. If my friend is not happy with what you offer, I will make sure that the Chen Family pay heavily for it! I'm sure you know what I'm capable of," Mo Changkong said with a smile.

The reason Mo Changkong fought his way in here without informing his name was to intimidate the Chen Family. He wanted the Chen Family to know that they were absolutely helpless if he chose to take revenge on them!

"Elder Mo Changkong, isn't it too much to ask for half of the family properties? Who is the Long Family to even dare ask for half of the properties?" Mo Qingying stepped forward and protested.

The Mo Family was divided into several sects and Mo Changkong was the leader of one of these sects.

Every member of the Mo Family knew that Mo Changkong was obsessed with the secular world and had a lot of women out there.

So, Mo Qingwu, Mo Qingying and the others despised him.

Now, all members of the Mo Family, including Mo Weiping, could tell that Mo Changkong was taking advantage of the Chen Family for his own benefit under the pretext of avenging the Long Family.

He had destroyed many families and snatched away their wealth using the same method over and over again.

It was rumored that he established another grand Mo Family in the outer world with the fortune he robbed from those families!

He, however, would not admit the crimes he did.

"Qingying, I believe that you don't have a right to speak here. And uncle, I suppose you won't meddle in my business here, will you? You need to consider the consequences carefully if you wish to do so. Is it worth the risk for the Chen Family?" Mo Changkong warned Mo Weiping.

Mo Weiping remained silent even though he was infuriated, as Mo Changkong was way more powerful than him.

"Mr. Chen, I'll give you 30 minutes to consider my offer. I want an answer from you after 30 minutes!" Mo Changkong said before he turned and left with his men.
