

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 466

Soon, it was late at night.

Boom!

Suddenly, a deafening boom could be heard. A warehouse within the Situ family mansion had exploded.

Flames lit up the sky and sent shockwaves across the property.

“What happened?”

Situ Hong, Long Biao and the others who were inside a meeting room within the Situ family mansion felt a tremor pass through their bodies.

A housekeeper ran in looking flustered and said, “Sir, things are not going well! Something bad has happened! The warehouse has exploded!”

“What did you say?”

Situ Hong’s lips twitched.

That warehouse was no ordinary storage facility. All the files and documents owned by the Situ family from all these years were placed within that warehouse.

“Who had the guts to do this? How dare they do this to the Situ family?” Situ Hong bellowed.

“Our people have been deployed to investigate!” said the housekeeper quickly.

“Check thoroughly and make sure you capture the culprit!” Situ Hong commanded before bringing a group of men to chase after the culprit.

Outside the Situ family mansion and within the forest surrounded by mountains, a few tents were set up.

More than ten silhouettes dashed across the forest and finally arrived in front of the tents.

A few of them reported, “Young Master Wei, everything has been settled!”

“Great, our mission is now done. The rest is up to Mister Chen!”

Wei Qingshu lifted up the flap of the tent and walked out. He nodded and said, “Alright, let’s send the second team in to assist Mister Chen and his group in evacuating the premises!”

Ever since Wei Qingshu saw what Chen Hao was capable of with his own eyes, he was now more respectful toward Chen Hao.

On the contrary, Chen Hao had delegated a rather important job to him, and Wei Qingshu loved it.

Since Chen Hao knew of the Situ family’s plans from two of their henchmen, Wei Qingshu’s responsibility was to provide assistance whenever necessary.

The Wei family was a large family from the Southwest Region. Chen Hao managed to pry two of the Situ family's henchmen's mouths open and learnt about the landscape of the Situ family mansion. Naturally it was not a challenging task for Wei Qingshu to send his people to sneak into the house.

Just then, Fang Yi asked, "Jiannan, what is that noise? Why do I feel the ground trembling and shaking? Furthermore, it is a mess outside! Not only that, it's pitch-black now and we can't see anything!"

"I have no idea what happened but it seems to be an explosion. Anyway, we can use this to our advantage. This is a great opportunity to escape! Maybe Grandfather knows what happened and arranged for this! Let's go!"

Fang Jiannan stuck to their original plan and dashed outside with Shen Junwen and the others.

Despite the few people watching over them in the corridor, they could be easily dealt with by Fang Jiannan.

In addition to that, a power outage had occurred and the basement was pitch-black.

It was utter chaos outside.

It barely took them any effort to eliminate the guards and escape outside.

"It seems like everything is fine!"

Everyone within the house was also looking on.

Fang Yi also stayed put.

"San, Shengnnan, what do we do now? It seems like it's a mess out there. Should we escape?" Fang Yi said anxiously.

Just then, someone grabbed Fang Yi's hand.

She turned around and saw that it was San.

"San, didnt you rush outside with Jiannan and the others?"

Fang Yi immediately felt at ease.

Chen Hao shook his head and motioned for Fang Yi to leave right now with the rest.

Fang Yi asked, "Can we? We have no idea where Jiannan and the others are!"

Chen Hao motioned again to tell her that everything would be fine, and that he would take care of things.

Fang Yi shouted, "Then let's rush outside as well, all of us! We shall escape from the back door!"

"Alright, let's seize this opportunity. It's dark and lights are out, so they wouldn't be able to hit us even if they opened fire!"

It was clear that everybody agreed.

Over thirty of them crept behind Chen Hao and started running.

“F*ck! Where are you all going?”

A loud bang could be heard.

Suddenly a bright beam of light from a torch shone into the basement from the exit.

Five to six bodyguards appeared, all of them armed. They blocked off the entrance and glared furiously at them.

Ah!

A few of the ladies screamed.

“San, what do we do? They have guns.”

Fang Yi clutched Chen Hao’s arm in fear, hiding behind him.

“If you all wish to stay alive, get back inside!”

The men inched closer.

All of a sudden, Chen Hao moved swiftly at the men, instantly prodding their vital points with his fingers.

In a blink of an eye, the five bodyguards collapsed on the floor, bleeding profusely.

“Ah! San, I didn’t know you were so powerful.”

Fang Yi’s eyes widened and she stared in disbelief.

Even Lin Shengnan and Xu Yangyang who knew many Taekwondo athletes were shocked.

The difference was so vast when compared with San, who was mute.

This ugly guy is actually very powerful!

Everyone else was also astonished.

Immediately everyone felt that he was the one to depend on.

Chen Hao waved his hand and led them out of there.

They ran all the way to the backyard.

By then, they could see the warehouse of the Situ family mansion in flames. The fire was raging steadily on. A few nearby houses were devoured by the flames as well.

The Situ family mansion was in a huge mess.

However, Chen Hao was efficient and it was clear that the elite bodyguards were not around as they had gone after Fang Jiannan and the others.

This was a great opportunity for Chen Hao to lure the opponent away.

The few guards at the entrance were no match for Chen Hao.

Very soon, the group was led outside the courtyard by Chen Hao.

They ran around five hundred to six hundred metres northward.

As they passed by the forest, they saw many cars awaiting their arrival.

Chen Hao motioned for Fang Yi and the rest of them to get into the cars and leave.

Fang Yi finally felt a sense of relief.

“Wait, where is Shengnan?”

“Yang, wasn’t Shengnan with you all this while? Where is she now?”

Fang Yi, who was about to get into the car, suddenly asked.

Only then did Chen Hao realize that Lin Shengnan was missing.

What happened?

Chen Hao asked Fang Yi to get into the car while he retraced his steps to look for her.

Only when he arrived at the entrance of the basement did he notice Lin Shengnan.

She was curled up in a corner, crying.

Only when she saw San’s return did her expression change. She excitedly said, “San, I-I tripped and broke my knee!”

“Here, let me carry you!” Chen Hao suddenly said.

Then, he lifted Lin Shengnan onto his back.

Lin Shengnan was shocked. “San, you can talk? I thought you were mute?”

Chen Hao smiled helplessly and said, “Of course! What? Can’t you even recognize my voice?”

Lin Shengnan’s eyes widened and said, “Y-you are Chen Hao? Yes, you really are Chen Hao. No wonder I found the look in your eyes so familiar when I met you this morning! Not only that, your figure was so familiar as well!”

Lin Shengnan was confused and asked, “B-but Chen Hao, didn’t something bad happen to you?”

"It's a long story, let us get out of here first! Oh, you have to keep my identity a secret! I do not wish for people to know that I was in the Southwest Region!" Chen Hao replied.

Lin Shengnan nodded.

Minute by minute, two hours had passed.

On Fang Jiannan's side, things were not optimistic

Just as their group escaped amidst the chaos, they bumped into Situ Yang who were chasing after them with his guards.

As such, they could only head south into the jungle.

Situ Yang and his men chased after them tirelessly.

Fang Jiannan and Hu Huimin had no idea how far they had run before eventually arriving at a highway at the bottom of the hill.

However, they had lost their bearings.

Hu Huimin asked, "Jiannan, where is this? Why is there not even a village here? It would be difficult to even make a call!"

Fang Jiannan said, "We've been running for so long. I have no idea either! Anyway, we can only follow the highway and continue walking!"

Just as the group of them got ready to jog along the highway, a loud bang could be heard.

Suddenly, the roaring sound of motors surrounded them.

Immediately after, car headlights flared.

They saw that over fifty vehicles had gathered in front of them.

The vehicles blocked off the highway so no other cars could go through.

Next to each car stood crowds of men in black suits.

"We are doomed!"

Fang Jiannan and Hu Huimin felt their hearts sink.

"Is there somebody called Miss Fang Jiannan here?"

Just then, a man that looked like a wealthy master walked out from the crowd and asked, a smile on his face.
