

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 483

Back to Qin Nuan and her boyfriend.

Initially, his car was parked at the side of the road.

However, there was a car convoy in the middle of the road.

Thus, it was impossible for other cars to cut past the convoy.

His car had blocked the rest of the path for all the other cars behind.

“Look, this isn’t even our car’s problem! It was the convoy that jammed the whole road! Why are you asking us to move our car?” Qin Nuan protested.

With how badly the worker humiliated them just now, it was an understatement that they were pissed.

“What kind of car do you guys even drive to compare yourself to the car convoy? You’re new here right? If you don’t know the rules here, you better listen to my advice now. Remove your car quickly before you get into trouble! This isn’t something that your Fatty Wu or Skinny Wu would be able to handle!”

The worker smirked.

“I’ve heard that those that are able to partake in the convoy are all powerful people from Tagou Town!” Qin Nuan’s boyfriend commented.

“Well, I’m glad that you understand now!” the worker said and left.

“Qin Nuan, let’s just go and move our car. If we really offend one of those powerful people, even my uncle will have a hard time trying to help us!”

“Alright then!”

Qin Nuan stuck her tongue at him.

She stared at the convoy.

She felt jealous.

To the honest, not only Qin Nuan, but everyone that walked past stared at the convoy with envy.

Who wouldn’t want to bask in the limelight? Who wouldn’t want to drive as if they owned the place?

To park a row of cars in the middle of the road and have not one person dare to say anything against it.

How domineering was that?

Qin Nuan finally experienced it.

Right at that moment, a car door opened.

A row of bodyguards dressed in full black attire came down from the car .

It was like they were prepared to welcome their king in solemn silence.

The atmosphere of it felt surreal.

“Is this really the power of someone from our Tagou Town?”

“It surely doesn’t look like it! I’ve never seen someone with such an impressive team of bodyguards in Tagou Town, or even in Tian City!”

“Could it be a new rise of power?”

“They surely gave off a powerful impression!”

When the bodyguards appeared, most of the on-lookers gasped.

However, a few men that looked like the higher-ups of the convoy led the bodyguards and headed toward the crowd.

Qin Nuan and her boyfriend were scared speechless. Both of them were too afraid to go and move their car.

They gulped.

“Sir, please enter the car!”

They stopped right in front of a young man and called out.

One of the bodyguards had already opened the door for him.

“Sir? What? Their boss was actually here all along?!”

“Exactly! I can’t believe their boss is actually a young man!”

Everyone discussed in shock.

Qin Nuan was taken aback.

They were waiting for none other than Chen Hao?!

“Okay, let’s go!” Chen Hao nodded and said.

When he walked past Qin Nuan and her boyfriend, Chen Hao gave Qin Nuan a look.

Qin Nuan stared back at him in shock, trying to contemplate the meaning of the look he gave her. Even her boyfriend immediately let go of her hand.

This wasn’t the first time Qin Nuan picked on Chen Hao already.

However, he was actually one of the tyrants here? With so many underlings?

However, Chen Hao didn't bother to make a fuss over Qin Nuan. At this point, he did not bother to care or make a hassle over people like them anymore.

He got into the car. The car engine started and they sped off, leaving Qin Nuan who was having mixed feelings along with a twinge of fear. It was as if she was nailed to the ground, not knowing what to do.

At the same time.

At the largest hotel villa in Tagou Town.

Another convocation was held.

With the leaders from all five areas along with their underlings, there were almost thousands of people.

The villa was bustling with people that stuffed the villa to the brim.

At the top of the villa was a balcony.

A few seats were placed at the balcony.

There sat all of the aforementioned leaders.

"Jin, you're really smart! Using the Literacy and Martialism Night to threaten the Tian Long Group! Haha, this is just like hitting two birds with one stone!"

"Exactly! The herbal medicine factory was our main source of income, but it was taken over by the Tian Long Group! I've also heard rumors that the boss of Tian Long Group is just a kid! A person like that trying to make a mark in Tagou Town? He's definitely looking for a fight!"

"In my opinion, he's just a kid after all. I thought that he wouldn't have come today but to be honest, I would have looked up to him if he were to decline the invitations today! However, it looks like he's just a good-for-nothing!"

The few leaders laughed as they discussed the Tian Long Group.

Jin's real name was Jin Diao. He was around forty years old, and had a pair of golden teeth. In Tagou Town, he was definitely one of the most powerful men.

He replied, "But, for this year's Literacy and Martialism Night... Aside from the Tian Long Group, there is still another issue. About the partition of power among the five of us in Tagou Town... I hope that once this has reached an agreement, what happened four years ago will not repeat itself again!"

The Literacy and Martialism Night was just a front for these men to carry on the partition of their territory based on their powers.

The standard for the partition of territory was simple: The strongest ones would get the most territories.

This was held once every four years.

In the strength competition, all five of them will send one of their underlings to participate.

The winner would be the king.

After that, the five of them would make an agreement.

Once the agreement was signed, no one was allowed to breach the agreement.

Four years back, there were leaders that picked fights because their territories were stripped from them.

You must know that although Tagou Town was dubbed a town, its size was equivalent to a few Ping An Counties!

That was almost the size of Beijing in China.

Right then.

“Mr. Chen from Tian Long Group is here...”

Someone shouted from the outside.

This turned the initially bustling venue silent in a heartbeat.

It was obvious that everyone was curious. Who was this man who founded the Tian Long Group on his own?

Chen Hao strode in along with his bodyguards.

There were only around sixty bodyguards.

However, all of them had solemn expressions and had imposing mannerisms.

This gave many of the underlings a chill down the spine.

Chen Hao headed straight to the balcony.

“Hello, fellow presidents!”

Chen Hao gave a polite smile.

“Hello, President Chen! Please, have a seat!”

A few of them looked at each other.

They also noticed the bodyguards standing behind Chen Hao.

It looked like this kid named Chen Hao wasn't any ordinary man.

After the standard greetings, Jin Diao squinted his eyes a little and chuckled. “I'm sure that President Chen has already heard of the Literacy and Martialicism Night of Tagou Town. We will be starting soon.

Since all of your underlings look mighty and strong as well, would you be interested to partake in our game so that we could witness their strength as well?"

Jin Diao had made his intentions clear. Tian Long Group could be a match to the president of the last herbal medicine enterprise.

Even the way he made his entrance wasn't ordinary.

Hence, Jin Diao wanted to test the Tian Long Group's potential.

"Nah, I'll pass. All my underlings only look strong, how is it possible for them to compete with all of your underlings?"

Chen Hao shook his head and chuckled bitterly.

"President Chen, you're being too humble! How could you tell if you don't participate?"

Jin Diao laughed.

"Alright, since all of you are interested, then sure! Wanshan, let the presidents' underlings teach the few of you guys the rules around here then!" Chen Hao laughed along and ordered.

"Alright, mister! My brothers and I are eager to learn more as well!"

Shen Wanshan stretched his shoulders and noted, smiling as well.