

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 601

“What the h*ll? Let me go right now!”

When the woman’s hair was being pulled by someone, she lost her mind and waved her bag immediately, wanting to hit that person.

But before she could do that, she was given a good slap on her face with a loud smack.

The world suddenly spun around her. She couldn’t distinguish between different directions as she staggered to a noodle store nearby, almost flipping the store over.

The person who hit her was Chen Hao.

After witnessing the scene in front of him, Chen Hao was so furious that he felt his lungs might explode anytime.

He had seen a fair share of arrogant people, but he had never seen anyone as arrogant as her.

She builds her own happiness on other’s grief. Who would keep such an evil woman like her?

“What the hell? Yunyun?”

The Young Master was stunned. As everything happened too quickly, he didn’t even have the time to react.

My woman is hit here at Willow City?

She’s hit?

How is this possible? Who would dare to do that?

After realizing what had happened, the Young Master glared at Chen Hao furiously.

“You bastard! You’re asking for death! How dare you hit my woman? Do you know who I am?” he shouted angrily.

All the onlookers on the street took a step back involuntarily,

It was obvious that the locals knew who the Young Master was. As they were clear about his background, they dared not speak up to him just now, even though they were all furious about it.

This young man acted out of righteousness, but he had picked the wrong opponent—he shouldn’t mind Young Master Guo’s business.

Yeah, Young Master Guo could simply kill anyone in Willow City!

The last time there was a person who accidentally offended Young Master Guo, and his entire family was massacred that night. It was horrible! the onlookers thought quietly.

“This jade is obviously real, and he really is in a tough situation. You guys are not short of money, yet you force him to sell this to you with fifty bucks? This is too arrogant! If you don’t want to buy, fine! Why do you have to break his jade? This could bring him money to save a human life! Such ruthlessness! Say, doesn’t she deserve a slap in the face?” Chen Hao said icily.

“Darling, chop him into pieces for me! Cut off his limbs!”

After the woman who lay on the floor regained some consciousness, she immediately covered her face and wailed at Young Master Guo.

“Hmph! She deserves it? I think you deserve to die! You, come here and cut him into pieces!” Young Master Guo waved his hands roughly.

A few bodyguards took out their knives and tried to strike Chen Hao’s head.

Looking at their attacks which aimed to kill, anger surged in Chen Hao as his killing intent rose.

However, when he reached the tipping point, he suddenly remembered that he could not use his Inner Energy. If he used it, the jade amulet that he used to hide himself would not be useful anymore.

Even if he didn’t use his Inner Energy, these few people were no match for him anyway.

In a few seconds, they held their broken arms and ribs and lay on the floor, moaning in pain.

“T-This—” Young Master Guo and the remaining bodyguards widened their eyes as they didn’t dare to continue their attacks.

This brat is actually this strong?

As Chen Hao walked toward Young Master Guo, he panicked and took a gun out from his waist, aiming at Chen Hao.

“F*ck you! Since you like minding other’s business so much, I’ll f*cking kill you if you take one more step forward!” Young Master Guo said with red eyes.

At once, the crowd screamed and dispersed in fear.

“And if you dare to move right now, I will not let the father and daughter go today!” Young Master Guo warned.

Chen Hao took a deep breath as his Inner Energy was rumbling within him.

It was too easy for him to finish the Young Master off—he just needed to move slightly, and the Young Master would be beheaded at once.

As for his family, Chen Hao could simply massacre the entire family along with him.

However, he couldn’t do that in his current state.

Chen Hao took another deep breath.

When Young Master Guo saw Chen Hao had stopped moving, his lips curled into a thin smile.

“Hit him!” he bellowed to the remaining bodyguards.

The bodyguards charged toward Chen Hao, wanting to slice him into pieces.

“Stop!” Suddenly, another pair of bodyguards in black walked toward them and stopped them.

“Who do you guys belong to?” Young Master Guo looked at them and bellowed.

“The Su Family,” the bodyguards replied coolly.

“What?” Young Master Guo shuddered involuntarily before slowly putting his gun down.

“Ah, I see. Someone from the Su Family came!” Guo Qiang smiled faintly.

In Willow City, the Su Family was one of the few families which was more powerful than the Guo Family.

Even though Guo Qiang was ruthless, he knew the ways of the world and the unspoken rules of the society—some people could be offended, but some people were best to stay away.

“You’re not allowed to touch this man and this pair of father and daughter because they are now under the protection of the Young Lady from the Su Family,” the bodyguards told them.

“Hmph, the Young Lady of the Su Family? I’m—” The woman on the floor slowly stood up as she was about to throw a fit.

However, Guo Qiang stopped her abruptly and looked at her meaningfully. “Fine. Since the Young Lady of the Su Family said so, we respect her decision because the Guo Family treats the Su Family with dignity. Moreover, they’re no more than a few dogs to me. I’ll let them go!”

Guo Qiang nodded and cracked a thin smile before he left with the woman, supporting her as they left.

However, when he walked past Chen Hao, he softly spoke, “Wait and see, brother. I’ll make you cry one day!”

They left after that.

“Mister, there’s two hundred thousand in this card. This is given by our Young Lady as the money to buy your jade.” The bodyguard brought a luggage with another two hundred thousand in cash. “And take this to cure your daughter first. That Young Master Guo won’t give you any trouble in the future.”

“Thank you so much! Young Lady Su, thank you for saving our lives today!” The middle-aged man was so touched that he wanted to kowtow to them, but he was stopped by the bodyguards.

Chen Hao was quite touched at how everything turned out. The Young Lady from the Su Family left a good impression on him.

Two young women wearing masks were observing them from afar.

They were the two beautiful women on the street just now, and their fleet of cars had already arrived by their side.

When Su Chuchu came here with her younger sister, she saw the crowd dispersing without knowing what was going on.

It was because Guo Qiang took a gun out and aimed it at a young man.

She then stopped a passer-by and asked about the events that transpired which led up to that point.

Su Chuchu immediately made people stop Young Master Guo.

In conclusion, this was the sequence of events that happened.

She had a very kind personality—whenever she saw anyone in trouble, she would try her best to help them.

Chen Hao was touched by this act of justice by the Young Lady.

After hearing from the bodyguards that she was the Young Lady of the Su Family, Chen Hao frantically turned and looked at Su Chuchu through the crowd.

As Su Chuchu was wearing a mask, she merely nodded after meeting Chen Hao's gaze.

She then turned and entered the car with her sister without noticing Chen Hao's blank look after he saw her.

His entire body was also shaking vigorously because her eyes and figure were too familiar to him. He would never forget her throughout his life.

"Tongxin!" Chen Hao finally yelled these two words out incredulously.

This girl is Su Tongxin!

But she didn't even hear him.

In a short while, the car engine started and it sped away quickly.

"Tongxin!" Looking at the car getting further away from his sight, Chen Hao chased after it.
