

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 606

The extremely loud voice belonged to a woman. It seemed like she was arguing with another person outside.

Everyone looked at the entrance automatically.

They saw a woman with thick makeup stopping a young man and scolding him..

“After hitting me, you thought everything would be over just like that? I thought you’ve escaped, and I was trying to find you. Who knew you showed up here on your own? Good! Since you have the guts to attend this party, I will not forgive you today!” The woman glared fiercely at the young man in front of her.

When Su Ranran saw the young man, her expression changed.

They had everything arranged, but now some other problems had occurred.

That’s right, the young man being stopped outside was Chen Hao who came here to deliver the invitation card to Su Chuchu.

According to Su Ranran, he had to deliver it right in front of Su Chuchu before Young Master Shen confessed.

Hence, Chen Hao did not dare to be late.

Early in the morning, he took the invitation card and rushed to the party immediately.

However, he met the woman he slapped yesterday, who was Young Master Guo’s girlfriend.

“You better stay away from me. Otherwise, you will regret it!” Chen Hao glared at the woman coldly.

After being glared at by Chen Hao, the woman who was just insulting Chen Hao a while ago suddenly felt a chill running down her spine that shrouded her entire body.

She actually staggered back in fear.

However, this was not enough to extinguish her flame of arrogance.

Looking behind her, her boyfriend and her parents were here.

Hence, she had a lot of confidence this time.

“Dad, mom, he’s the one who slapped me on the streets yesterday, and he almost hit Guo Qiang too! You can ask him if you don’t believe me!” she said.

Guo Qiang said darkly, “Bing’s brother was seriously injured by this man. He’s very skilled, dad!

There was a hint of fear and reverence in his tone.

“Really? It’s such a coincidence today to meet again today.” Guo Qiang’s father smiled icily.

He's skilled? I've seen numerous skilled people, and I've been in the martial arts world for half my life. I don't depend on courage, but on strategy!

"Young man, I heard from Qiang that you came from another city. Perhaps you don't know about the rules here at Willow City, but don't be too harsh and cruel. You have to be more careful. You might have entered this city easily, but it's difficult to get out!" He smiled friendly at Chen Hao while speaking, obviously using another way to warn Chen Hao.

"That's right. Don't die without knowing why you're dead! How dare you offend my son?" Guo Qiang's mother looked at Chen Hao disparagingly.

"The clothes that you wear are like a beggar's! People who don't know you might have thought you came here to ask for food. Moreover, how could you bring yourself to come to such events? Have you looked at yourself in the mirror?" she added.

"What's going on?"

The butler from the Shen Family walked out.

Do you know the occasion today? How dare you make a scene here?

The butler had a grim expression on his face.

"Oh, it's Mr. Shen! No worries, no worries! I've just met this young man here and talked to him for a while. I'm really sorry for the trouble caused."

The woman was trying to say something, but she was stopped by Guo Qiang's father immediately. He then explained to the butler in an experienced manner.

The butler did not believe that he was just 'talking' to the young man.

Since Guo Xing was one of the top guys in Willow City, Mr. Shen didn't say anything.

"No matter what happens today, the prestige and dignity of the Shen Family is the most important! I believe you understand Master Shen and Young Master Shen's intentions—if anything happens today, don't settle it right now. Whoever dares to tarnish the reputation of the Shen Family today will know the consequences!" Mr. Shen warned coldly.

"Of course!"

"As for you, what are you doing here? Do you have an invitation card?" He then looked at Chen Hao disparagingly.

As Chen Hao was dressed like a commoner in the city, he was very different from the people who were from the upper-class society.

Hence, it was natural that he looked down on Chen Hao.

"No, I'm from Jin Ling, and I'm here to hand an invitation card to Young Lady Chuchu of the Su Family."

“Invitation card? Whose card is it?”

“I’m afraid that I don’t have the liberty to tell you that,” Chen Hao said.

Every word that he was saying was taught by Su Ranran. As for the origin of the invitation card, Chen Hao honestly had no interest in it, so he didn’t look it up.

“Mr. Shen, let him in. Since he’s from Jin Ling, he must have some errands to run here!” Su Ranran suddenly appeared. According to their plans, she was the one who should bring Chen Hao in.

“Oh, since he’s a friend of the Su Family, come on in! It’s all good then!”

Because of the relationship between Su Chuchu and Young Master Shen, Mr. Shen couldn’t really embarrass him in public.

Su Ranran stuck out her tongue at Chen Hao and made a face before pulling him into the hall.

As it was just a small argument, the atmosphere immediately returned to its original liveliness.

“Just let him go like that? I can’t take this!” Guo Qiang glared at Chen Hao and looked at him grudgingly.

“Don’t worry. Why are you so anxious? I’ve already made some arrangements via the phone just now. I can promise you, after he enters this hall, he will never get out alive!”

A hint of ruthlessness flashed across Guo Xing’s eyes.

Guo Qiang and his girlfriend looked at each other, admiring his father who was skilled in arranging tricks and strategies.

Predictably, when Young Master Shen took a deep breath and was about to begin the event, something cropped up.

A group of people rushed into the hall screaming, “Let us in! We have to catch this thief! We have to!”

Around twenty people who looked like they were vendors protested angrily.

“What are you doing?” The bodyguards tried to stop them but failed.

“B*stards! What’s going on?”

With many internationally renowned guests, Young Master Shen’s face darkened once he saw them.

“We want to see Young Master Shen! Please uphold justice for us!”

The vendors barged into the hall at once.

Upon hearing this, Young Master Shen gestured to let them in.

“What can I help you with? What happened?” Young Master Shen asked with one hand in his pocket.

“Young Master Shen, the story goes like this—we’re businessmen, but this man here stole our goods and ran all the way here to hide from us. He even hurt a few kindergarten students and left them seriously injured! We want to ask you—why are you keeping a thief here?”

Around twenty of them pointed at Chen Hao angrily.

After hearing their complaints, many people in the hall looked at each other awkwardly,

“I can’t believe this thief sneaked in here! What is the Shen Family doing? Why did they let a thief in here?”

“He even hurt kids who are still in kindergarten. This guy is a beast!”

Everyone’s emotions rose rapidly.

As twenty of them came to find one person, no one asked for evidence as no one suspected the authenticity of this matter.

Moreover, Young Master Shen was infamous for being short tempered. Right now, he was being held accountable for judging the morals of the situation. Hence, he would have to perform well.

“What? This happened here? You’ve done so many wrong doings, and even came to our Shen Family to hide? Do you want to die here?” Young Master Shen glared at Chen Hao frostily.

“No, it’s not him!”

Su Ranran had never thought that Chen Hao would be accused by so many people, and even Young Master Shen wanted to kill him.

Hence, she tried to defend him.

Chen Hao, however, looked at the people who accused him coolly. Even though they were dressed in normal clothes, they were sturdy and alert. It was obvious that they had a background in martial arts.

After glancing at the father and son from the Guo Family, Chen Hao then immediately understood what had happened.
