

Skeletons 151

Chapter 151 Fortunately, Aurum saved her in time. Otherwise, if something bad happened to the child, she would never let Duphine go!

Duphine gritted her teeth fiercely in unhappiness.

Gale was tough, and she would need to try another day again! Since so many men like her, she will go to President Wood to file a complaint!

After making up her mind, Duphine immediately rushed to the president's office. She reiterated the whole thing to Shawn again.

"Gale almost broke my deal. I took her to see Aurum because I wanted to train her and nurture her, but it turned out that she just spent all her efforts on seducing him..." "Tell me, how can such an employee stay here? When she left, Aurum gave her his business card."

"In my opinion, it won't take long before Gale weasels up to him. Today, she not only flirted with him, but she even hugged him. She pretended to fall and fell into his arms!"

Shawn sat on the sofa, crossing his legs, as he listened in silence.

Seeing that there was no response from President Wood, Duphine was a little puzzled.

Could it be that she has not made Gale out to sound more promiscuous? Duphine was about to speak again, but Shawn waved his hand. "Get out."

"Mr. Wood, everything I said is the truth." Shawn stood up suddenly. "I've asked you to leave! Get out!"

Duphine could not bear his wrath. She was so frightened that she ran out of the president's office.

Shawn's chest kept heaving, and his forehead was bulging. Gale's ability to seduce men really impressed him!

Sure enough, Charlie went abroad, and she was unwilling to be lonely. When she saw Aurum today, she immediately tried to hook up with him! Shawn kicked the chair over and strode out of the office.

Night fell.

She had a backlog of work because she went to see Aurum in the afternoon, so Gale worked overtime until eight o'clock in the evening. All went well, and no one bothered her. Back at Temperley Hall, as soon as she entered the living room, Shawn's voice sounded, "Come here."

She put down her bag and walked in front of him,

He raised his chin. "Take out the things in your pocket." "I..."

"Take it out!"

She had no way out. Gale could only do as he said and took out Aurum's business card.

Shawn picked it up and threw it on her face. "You are so desperate for men?"

Gale also guessed what was going on. It must be Duphine who went to Shawn to complain.

"I'm just working. Aurum appreciated me and just left a business card. I haven't saved his phone number in my phone, and I don't plan to save it," she said.

She knew exactly who Aurum was.

She is a sinner, a pregnant woman, and doomed to live a gloomy life under the control of Shawn, so it is impossible for her to even consider being with a nobleman like Aurum.

Gale was self-aware.

"Why did Aurum only give you a business card?" Shawn asked back, "Because you are so attractive and because you can seduce any man?" Gale bit her lip. "Can you be reasonable?" "Tell the truth!"

She did not say anything and just put on a resigned expression. Anyway, she was innocent, and she was not afraid of slander and lies.

Shawn was just... vexatious. Anyway, he was so egotistical, and it was pointless even to explain. Gale's appearance made Shawn even angrier. "You gave me the middle finger. You took my car, seduced a man... You are getting more and more daring." "Gale, your actions have consequences!" "Speak quickly. How do you want to torture me now?"

Chapter 152 Gale had been very clearly defiant since that night, so Shawn would only be more ruthless to her than before!

"Kneel down." Shawn squinted deeply. "Until you admit your mistake."

She did not move.

"Do you want me to help you bend your knees? Huh?" Gale looked at him. "I thought you don't beat women?" Shawn snorted coldly and pushed at the back of her knees hard.

She was in pain and fell to her knees with a plop. "Who do you think you are to be able to seduce Aurum? Besides, Aurum has a girlfriend, so it's impossible for him to see you," Shawn said. "I'm not Susan. I don't like to be a mistress and get involved in other people's feelings."

"She is my woman."

"So she's a mistress."

Shawn bent over and raised her chin. "You dare be haughty. When I marry her, you will be the mistress."

Gale gritted her teeth. "You are shameless!"

Shawn's hand increased in strength.

"Shameless!" He still scolded her.

Her chin was about to be dislocated!

“Kneel for another hour.”

Shawn spat and turned to leave.

“Are you jealous?!” Gale looked at his back. “You are jealous because Aurum and I met like old friends!”

He also said before that she was jealous.

Now it seems that he was fed back his words.

Shawn did not turn his head. “Aurum is something you can’t imagine. I’m just punishing you.”

Jealous?

What a joke!

That was an emotion he would never have!

The living room was empty, save for the ticking of the clock.

After kneeling for a long time, her legs were numb, and she could not feel it when Gale stood up. She sat on the sofa and massaged her legs for a long time.

It was impossible for her to even consider a life with Aurum, an elegant and noble man. They were from two different worlds.

However... since Aurum personally promised to help her, if she encountered difficult things that she could not solve, she should try to find him again.

At least she would have one more option, one more choice.

She hoped that that day would never come. Gale pushed open the door of the master bedroom just as Shawn came out of the bathroom. He simply wrapped the towel around his waist. It exposed his strong upper body muscles, and water dripped from him.

“Ah,” Gale still exclaimed and looked away.

Why can’t this man wear clothes before getting out of the bathroom?

“It’s not the first time you’ve seen it.” Shawn’s expression was very calm. “It’s not that you haven’t touched it before.”

“You...” She hesitated, and her face turned uncontrollable red.

Gale was easily embarrassed and was not very familiar with the affairs of men and women. She only had the experience of that one night. How could he casually say such things without even blushing? “Feeling shy?” Shawn snorted coldly. “If you know shame, you won’t be pregnant with a bastard.”

“He is not a bastard!”

“Who is the child’s father? Why doesn’t he dare to show up and take responsibility?”

Gale was silent.

She will never forget that night in her life, nor will she forget the phrase from him, saying, "I will marry you."

Chapter 153 That one sentence... she was clinging on to it for hope.

Gale replied, "Yes, the child I am carrying is not as precious as Susan's. She has a good life. She is favored by you, and you will even try to give the moon and the stars to her... Where am I in your eyes? It's incomparable."

Shawn said lightly, "If you are pregnant with my child, you will be better off than her."

How is that possible?

He had never touched her, and he did not plan to touch her for the time being.

Shawn walked to the cloakroom, but heard Gale's very soft voice, murmured...

"If there is no blood feud between us, would you fall in love with me?"

He stopped abruptly. "Say it again."

Gale was surprised. Did he actually hear it? Was his hearing so good?

"It's nothing. I didn't say anything." she denied. "I heard it."

Gale bit her lip. "Then why do you still ask?" After a few seconds of silence, Shawn said, "If there is no blood feud, we will not even meet each other."

Just like two parallel lines, there will never be an intersection, and they will live well in their respective lives.

Gale replied, "I didn't really... ask that."

She asked about love.

Whether he would love her.

Shawn smiled sarcastically. "Gale, can't you feel it? Do you need to ask?"

He would not admit it!

He was proud, and she was stubborn.

Shawn walked into the cloakroom and slammed the door shut.

Gale scratched her head. Did she kneel for too long, and her blood was not flowing, which caused her brain to spin stupidly and ask such a question?

Love?

Where would he even have love for her? He only had hate. He hated her, and she hated him. They tormented each other, not letting each other go. Gale sat on the ground, looking at the swelling on her knees

. She applied a heat patch to it for a while and then slowly fell asleep. When she woke up, it was already dawn.

She was lying on the big bed, and there was no one next to her. What's the matter... did she sleepwalk again and crawl onto the bed by herself? When did she suffer from this problem? She should go to the hospital to check it out. Otherwise, maybe one day Shawn will throw her out of bed.

Arriving at the company, Gale walked toward her workstation when Duphine walked over.

"Yo, what's wrong with your leg?" Duphine asked strangely, "Did someone hit you?" "Nobody would do that to me. Your turn would come before mine."

"I'm not a promiscuous woman like you. Sooner or later, his rightful woman would come for you and tear out all your hair."

Gale smiled and said, "Me? Seducing a man? You saw it for yourself. Men just come toward me without even lifting a finger or putting in any effort. What can I do?"

"You think it's funny?"

"Yeah, it shows that I am very attractive." Gale wanted to fan the flames. "Unlike you, who hangs around men, reeking of desperation and getting pushed away."

Duphine was extremely angry. "Okay, Gale, you better wish I don't come for you!"

"I am not quite sure you can't do anything to me."

"What arrogance. Do you think President Wood would dare to support his little lover openly?"

It turned out, Duphine thought she was Shawn's secret lover. So funny.

"To deal with you, I don't need President Wood. Just Summer is good enough to get rid of you. If not Summer, there's Mr. Winter."

Duphine ran out of rebuttals. She pushed past Gale and hit her shoulder.

Duphine could not win her in an argument.

Apart from being stubbornly suppressed in front of Shawn, Gale had a sharp tongue and would always win in a verbal fight!

Chapter 154 "Gale!" Summer greeted her with a bag while smiling. "Morning."

"Morning." "Why are you so listless... eh? Why do you limp while walking?" Gale sighed. "Oh, I'm tired even to tell you."

"Did you fall down?"

"It's Shawn." Gale replied, "He was back at it again."

Shawn's method of punishing her has never been repeated.

It can be said that it is full of tricks!

"He beat you?" Summer shouted, "No, no, no, there are still men hitting women these days? This is domestic violence! Call the police and arrest him!"

"He didn't do it himself, just... Forget it, it's fine, it'll be fine in two days."

Gale knew that it was not a big problem. Kneeling for too long was a little numbing for her knees, and it was enough to block her blood flow for a while and cause her legs to cramp up for a long time.

Summer has always been a person who thirsted for revenge.

After suffering such a big loss, she would definitely pay it back! Nothing could hold her back! "No, it can't be like this." Summer pulled Gale. "I have to take revenge."

"Summer, stop joking. That's Shawn we're talking about... Shawn!"

Revenge sounded like an easy thing to her.

Was it that easy? "I know." Summer snapped her fingers. "Anyway, there are many ways to get back at him."

She always had a lot of ideas.

Gale looked at her curiously.

"Come here." Summer hooked her fingers. "Listen to me..."

She whispered in Gale's ear for a while.

Gale hesitated a bit. "Can it work?"

"Of course! It depends on your acting skills and how well you play!" "I...I'll try."

"Do your best! Otherwise, don't do it. It won't achieve the desired effect, and it's all in vain."

Gale clenched her phone tightly and looked at death with a face. "Okay." Summer patted her on the shoulder. "Don't be afraid. No one knows you are Mrs. Wood anyway! But everyone knows Shawn!"

Gale went to implement the plan.

At this time in the conference room, Shawn sat in the main seat, his eyes lowered, with a coldness emanating from him. He had always been decisive, cold, and ruthless in his work.

Subordinates were reporting their work in earnest.

Everything proceeded in an orderly manner.

Until...the phone rang.

Everyone looked at Shawn in unison.

The employees of the Wood Group all know that as long as there is a meeting with President Wood, their phones must be muted. Otherwise, they would die miserably.

However, this call came from Mr. Wood's mobile phone.

Shawn did not think about it and reached out to hang up, but saw that the caller ID read...

Gale.

Did she actually call him?

Strange.

Turning his phone

over, Shawn answered the call. "Hello." Others were a little surprised that Mr. Wood actually answered the phone! In the quiet conference room... A soft goddess voice came from the receiver. "Hey, husband ..."

It was soft and whiny, making people feel slightly repulsed.

It turned out to be Mrs. Wood's call. No wonder Mr. Wood answered!

Throughout the company, no one has ever seen this Mrs. Wood, and this is the first time they heard her voice!

Chapter 155

Shawn twitched the corners of his mouth. "What's the matter?"

'Is this Gale? What the hell is she doing?

"I miss you... What are you doing... I sent you a message, but you didn't reply to me. I am so sad!"

Shawn was speechless.

"Have you eaten yet? Do you want me to bring you some food? Did you order food? Pay attention to your health. I won't spend too much of your money today..."

"Darling, why aren't you talking?"

Shawn coughed twice. "Can you be normal..."

She was mad.

The employees in the conference room were struggling to hold back their laughter. They lowered their heads and shrugged their shoulders, daring not to make a single sound.

"I'm being normal." Gale squeezed her throat. Her voice was in an unusually high tone, not like her usual tone at all. "I hate it. You didn't say that to me last night, and now you feel squeamish by me..."

To be honest, Gale had goosebumps as she was saying these things.

She deliberately squeezed her throat and spoke louder.

"Can you let me rest tonight, husband... We still have a lifetime. Take your time."

Shawn was completely speechless, frowning, wrinkles appearing on his forehead.

Gale was crazy.

“Okay, I won’t disturb you. I’ll wait for you to go home. Oh, oh, oh, kiss!”

In the silent conference room, someone finally could not help but cough loudly to hide their smile.

Shawn still kept his posture when answering the phone.

He probably guessed that Gale was pranking him on purpose.

How childish.

Shawn swept his eyes around the employees sitting below and said blankly, “Continue the meeting.” “Yes, Mr. Wood.”

Gale sat on the toilet and patted her face.

God, she really used her minimal coquettish skills to say those words just now,

Fortunately, no one knew it was her. Otherwise, it would be really shameless.

She really didn’t know how Susan managed to speak in such a tone. Her goosebumps could be left all over.

When she returned to her workstation, she heard a colleague next to her say excitedly, “Hurry up, I’ve got news!” “What’s wrong?” Gale asked, “What major news?” “Big gossip!” Gale clicked into the staff group chat curiously

[F*ck it, it’s so cool. At the meeting today, Mr. Wood answered Mrs. Wood’s call, and her voice was so sweet!]

(What’s more, it’s so sweet and coquettish! I can’t stand it as a woman, let alone Mr. Wood!)

[It turns out that Mr. Wood, who is serious on the surface, likes this type of woman....] [This woman is really something!]

Gale was speechless.

Everyone was talking about the story of Mr. Wood and his little wife. Unfortunately, the truth will let them down.

She and Shawn have always been at odds with each other. Looking at the gossip in the group, the administrator suddenly jumped out and texted, [No, Mr. Wood has requested to join the group. Leave now!] After a second, the group disbanded. Before Gale came back to her senses, Shawn sent a message. (Gale, was it fun?)

Chapter 156 She raised a smile and replied, “It feels good.” Shawn ignored her. Gale continued to work happily. ‘I have to say that Summer has some good ideas. Although it is not that powerful, it’s sure fun.’

Anyway, just getting a small reaction from Shawn was good enough.

In the president’s office, Shawn threw his phone away. Fiona’s heart tensed. “Mr. Wood...”

“Are women so naive?”

Fiona scratched her head. “Uh....I’m still single...” She knew nothing about relationships as she worked with Shawn all day long. She also saw the discussions in the company chat and did not know what the h*ll Gale was thinking.

Shawn pressed his eyebrows deeply. “Prepare the car. Go to the hospital.”

That kind of trick was not worth his time to ponder over. When he was free, he went to the hospital to see Susan. After all, she was still pregnant with his child.

Susan saw Shawn’s arrival, and her eyes lit up. “Mr. Wood, you have come to see me.”

Sure enough, children are useful. Women were more valuable with children! She must work hard to actually be pregnant with Mr. Wood’s child! “Well, how is your body?” Shawn said lightly. She said, “It’s fine, don’t worry. I will take care of myself and my child. You are busy with your work, and don’t waste your time because of me.” Susan was pretending to be ‘gentle and considerate’.

She felt that men all lapped this act up.

“It’s been hard for you to be pregnant.” Shawn patted her on the shoulder. “You should slow down the shoot, and the main thing you should think about is how to raise the baby.”

Susan took advantage of the situation and snuggled into his arins. “I don’t have to work hard. I can give birth to a baby for you. Having a daughter is my blessing. Actually... When I found out I was pregnant, my first reaction was to be very scared.” “Scared?” “I’m afraid you don’t want this child...”

Shawn frowned deeply. “How is that possible?”

Although his feelings for Susan were not as strong as the first night, he would take the corresponding responsibility.

Susan laughed. “I’m relieved now, and I don’t dare to cause you any trouble. I’ll take care of the baby obediently, so you don’t have to worry about it.” After speaking, she quietly gave Lily, the nanny sitting beside her, a wink. Lily immediately answered, “Mr. Wood, Ms. Susan is just reporting the good news but not the bad news, so she doesn’t tell you anything. She still had morning sickness, she couldn’t eat anything, and her blood sugar was low at noon, so the doctor came to inject glucose...” Susan pretended to be in a hurry to stop her. “Lily, didn’t I tell you not to say this in front of Mr. Wood!” “Miss Susan, I feel sorry for you.” “Okay, you go out.” This move really worked. Shawn’s brows softened a lot.

He bent down and looked into Susan’s eyes. “I’m already planning our future. It won’t be long before we can implement it.”

Susan was very excited, “Mr. Wood, can I know how you planned it?”

For the sake of the child, Shawn no longer rejected Susan. He said, “Gale and I signed a divorce agreement long ago, and it will come to pass in slightly more than a month. When we get divorced, I will marry you.” “But...will the Wood family agree?”

Susan knew that Lucas did not like her, as her status was inferior to that of the rich and noble ladies around Shawn.

Although Gale was the daughter of an enemy of the Wood family, she came from a scholarly family and graduated from a prestigious university.

Chapter 157 "Then..." Susan asked, "Can't I confess to the Wood family now that I'm pregnant? You and Gale can divorce early!"

"Not now."

"Why?"

Shawn replied, "There are still some things that have not been handled." For example, the child in Gale's womb.

That child would never have a suture. If it was born, what would lie do?

He felt jealous!

Susan still wanted to ask, but she was afraid that Shawn would be unhappy, so she could only nod her head. "Okay, then I will wait for you with the baby."

"Okay."

"Actually, I am not afraid of waiting." Susan said tentatively, "I'm afraid you will fall in love with Gale."

She looked at Shawn's face.

That was what Susan worried about the most.

It was because that night, the person who really had a relationship with Shawn was Gale.

The person who really carried the blood of the Wood family was also Gale. She was worried that when Shawn and Gale were getting along, they would have subtle uncontrolled emotions.

"It's impossible for me to like her." Shawn pursed her thin lips. "Absolutely impossible."

Was he trying to convince Susan or his own heart?

After staying with Susan for half an hour, Shawn left. He knew in his heart what he was going to do next. The bond between him and Gale would only last for slightly longer than a month more... When the time is up, the divorce agreement will take effect, and he and she will no longer live under the same roof or share the same bed.

No one will be able to provoke his anger anymore.

Shawn walked out of the hospital just as Paula got out of the car.

She was here to get the test results.

The doctor said it had come out!

She had not expected...she would meet Shawn!

Coincid

“Shawn?” Paula was a little surprised when he saw him. “It’s a coincidence. I have something to tell you.” Shawn kept walking, “Tell me.” “Last time, I didn’t bring Gale for a late pregnancy check-up. Well, the results are out now.” Paula smiled. “As the father of the child, you should also be concerned about it.”

He refused, “I don’t have time.” Paula brought up Lucas just to pressure Shawn. She said, “No way, Lucas would be so sad to hear this.” Paula was a hundred percent sure that the results would shock everyone and it would be a good show! Otherwise, Gale would not ask people to steal test tubes in the middle of the night and destroy the authenticity of the identification results! So, she wanted to invite Shawn to witness together and see his expression after knowing that the child was not his!

Before Shawn could answer, Paula had already dragged him to the hospital. “Why don’t you go? The doctor will tell you some precautions, and you should also listen to him. You will become a father soon.”

They came to the doctor’s office. Paula smiled so much that the corners of her mouth almost stretched beyond her ears.

The show is about to begin!

“I’m here for the results.” Paula said, “Doctor, you’ve worked so hard these days. Thanks for working overtime for me.”

She wanted to know the results earlier, so she kept urging the doctor to speed up and finally got it today. “You’re welcome, Paula. Wait a moment. I’ll go get the folder.”

“Okay.” Shawn’s expression was indifferent, and he put his hands in the pockets of his trousers.

He wanted to see what Paula wanted to do.

Before, she forced Gale to come to the hospital for a check with great fanfare, but today, she dragged him to the doctor to get the results. Paula was so excited that she could not sit still, and her eyes followed the doctor. At this moment, the phone rang.

Chapter 158 “I’m going out to answer a call.” Shawn turned around and left.

Paula nodded. “Okay, come back early, don’t go too far.”

Shawn left. She immediately walked to the doctor’s side and lowered her voice, “The rest is not important. What is the outcome of the paternity test? Is the child really Shawn’s?”

“Following the result of the test?” “Yes! Let me know!”

The doctor pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose. “According to results, the child in the womb is indeed Mr. Wood’s.”

“What?!” Paula was stunned. “Did I make a mistake? Did something happen? It’s impossible!”

She could not accept the result!

"It's absolutely true." The doctor replied, "You told me before to be vigilant, so I did it myself, and there was nothing wrong." Paula was dumbfounded. This was really maddening! Then, why would someone steal the test tube and try to destroy the identification? However, the doctor was the one she chose, and she hid the real test tube early in the morning so it could not be wrong. "How could this be..." Paula murmured, "Why..." The doctor wanted to say something, and Shawn returned after answering the phone. Paula quickly shook his head, signaling the doctor to keep it secret. "What's the result?" Shawn looked at Paula.

"Uh... everything is fine," the doctor said, Shawn raised his eyebrows. "That's it?" She purposely wanted him to hear that? "Hehehe, Shawn, the child is all well. Isn't it a good thing? Do you still hope something will happen and try to anger Lucas?" Paula smiled.

"You are usually dramatic, and are you sure there is no other purpose or anything in the test you want to tell me?" Paula could not express her bitterness. If Shawn knew that she was actually doing a paternity test, he would definitely be furious.

She was just his stepmother and could not afford to offend him. Paula waved her hand. "No, I am welcoming a new life. As the mother-in-law, I have to do my responsibilities well, and I hope my grandson is healthy."

Shawn turned around and left.

What a waste of time.

Of course, the child is healthy. Gale cared for it so carefully, for fear of making a mistake, more than protecting her life. As soon as Shawn left, Paula collapsed. She snatched the identification report, looked at it carefully, and finally sighed helplessly.

What the h*ll is going on here...

Wrong...

However, the facts were before her, so she could only accept them. "Hey, Gale, you are lucky!" Paula became angrier and angrier, tore the identification results to shreds, and left the hospital in anger.

In the evening Temperley Hall, study room. Shawn lowered her eyes, looking at the divorce agreement in front of him. This was planned before, and he and Gale also signed.

It was only a matter of time before they went to the Civil Affairs Bureau and went through the divorce procedures. He thought three months would be just right, but he never thought that Susan would get pregnant. There were light footsteps outside the door, and Shawn said in a deep voice,

Gale, come in."

The door was pushed open. "What's the matter?" Gale was still wearing professional clothes. "I've been working overtime until now. If you don't believe me, go check." She was just passing by and was suddenly called in by Shawn.

"Today, Paula's examination for you has come out." Shawn said deeply, "Did she mention it to you?"

Chapter 159 Gale's heart sank. Although she knew that Summer had stolen the test, she was still a little uneasy. "She didn't mention it." Gale shook hands nervously. "Did she tell you?"

"Yeah."

She became even more nervous. "What did she say?"

Shawn looked into her eyes deeply. "Everything is fine." "Anything else?" "What else?"

Gale breathed a sigh of relief. "No. I... I'm worried that the child will have problems." If Paula knew that the child was not Shawn's, she would turn the world upside down!

She really would not be able to save the baby!

Shawn leaned back on the chair and said, "The bastard you are carrying will be checked every now and then. Speaking of which, I should arrange for Susan to do a comprehensive pregnancy check." "Oh, I wish you a smooth delivery." Gale did not care at all. "Is there anything else?"

She worked a day's work and was so tired that she just wanted to take a bath and lie down.

Shawn raised his eyebrows deeply. "Yes. Tomorrow morning, Aurum will come to my office. You have to be there." "Why?"

"Didn't you say that I seduced him?" "Just attend" "Okay." When Gale was about to leave, she caught a glimpse of the divorce agreement on his desk.

She tried to ask, "How about... We get divorced as soon as possible?" Shawn's face sank. "It's not your turn to call the shots!"

She pouted. "Then just follow the agreed time. It's almost time anyway." Before closing the door of the study, she added, "Be less angry. You'll get sick easier."

Shawn's eyes glared at her in an instant.

Gale slipped away. As soon as she arrived at the company the next day, she was called by Fiona to the president's office. Not long after, Aurum came. When he saw Gale, he was a little surprised and then smiled kindly. "Ms. Gale, we meet again."

Aurum did not say hello to Shawn immediately but said hello to her. This made Gale a little flattered, so she quickly replied politely, "Hello, Mr. Aurum." "I have carefully looked at your design from back then and realized that you were already quite talented in college." "Thank you." Aurum looked at Shawn. "Mr. Wood, I am envious of you for having such an employee." Shawn raised his eyebrows. "You seem to be very interested in her." "I don't know why but she gave me a very familiar feeling." Aurum said, "It's like an old friend I've known for a long time and not seen for a long time, yet we met again."

"Oh?"

“Of course, it’s just a feeling.” Aurum replied, “Ms. Gale and I have never known each other before.” Gale also nodded. “Yes.” Shawn snorted deeply and instructed, “Why are you standing there? Get tea.” “Yes, immediately.” These things were usually done by someone from the secretary’s office, but today Shawn chose her.

It was just to belittle her in front of Aurum!

She had to be even more careful and make no mistakes! When Gale handed the teacup to Shawn, her hand shook uncontrollably, and the tea spilled on his trousers. “I’m sorry, Mr. Wood!” She immediately apologized. Shawn looked at her with cold eyes, “I’ll deal with it right away.”

Chapter 160 Gale took out a tissue and prepared to wipe it for him. “Mr. Wood, it’s just a small mistake.” Aurum said, “Besides, Gale is a designer, so she shouldn’t do this kind of thing.” Shawn sneered. “She’s only fit to do this kind of thing!”

Gale bit her lip and squatted in front of him, wiping the tea on her trousers attentively, annoyed that she did not hold her hand steady just now. Shawn’s eyes were always on the top of her head. She raised her head to look at him and found that he glanced at her knee.

She understood.

Squatting was not enough. She needed to kneel.

There was no way, people had to bow their heads under the eaves, and Gale could only do the same. Aurum was startled. “This...”

“It’s okay.” Gale said, “I’ve disturbed the two of you, so I’ll go make tea again.” Shawn said coldly, “It’s a small matter, and you can’t even get it done. Get out, don’t come in again!”

“Yes, sir.”

Anyway, his goal of humiliating her in front of Aurum had been achieved, and so he did not want to see her again.

Aurum looked at Gale and hesitated.

“Aurum, you don’t have to sympathize with her.” Shawn said with a deep smile, “She is a woman who is far from being as simple as she seems.” Aurum did not say anything else and began to discuss his work. Just after leaving the Wood Group, he told his assistant, “In the future, as long as Gale comes to me, give her the green light. No obstruction or notification is allowed.”

“Yes, Mr. Lefting. Why do you treat this Gale so well? Is it really just because of her design sense?” Aurum just smiled. “Well. It seems that her life is not easy. Just do good deeds.”

The real reason was only clear to him. Gale stood by the window, watching Aurum get into the car, and was very puzzled. What does Aurum think she is good at?

She touched her face... Was it because she looked like an old friend of his?

With a ding, she received an email that was sent from abroad.

Gale opened it...

"I have now approached the second young master of the Wood family and have become friends with him. I will slowly find out the truth. Don't worry, take care of yourself, wait for me to come back, read this and delete it."

It was Sam.

Although he was not in Sea City, his heart was always there.

He had not forgotten her. He was doing his best to help her. Looking at this email, Gale's heart filled with warmth. It was bitter and difficult. She did not know where the light and the exits were, but one day...s he will reach the end.

With tears in her eyes, Gale deleted the email without leaving any trace.

There was always someone fighting alongside her.

Suddenly she was no longer afraid. Gale went to work full of energy and still worked overtime until the evening before returning home.

As soon as she entered the living room, she found that Susan was also there! The table was full of nutritional supplements, desserts, tea, etc.

Susan was like a hostess, holding his arm proudly next to Shawn. "Yeah, Gale is back." Susan said, "It's just the right timing. I can't finish all of these. You can help me finish it." "If I'm not mistaken, these are my things." "Yours?" Susan covered her mouth and smiled. "Mr. Wood, she said it was hers. What should I do? I ate something from her stash." Shawn asked indifferently, "Gale, what's really yours?" She had nothing

She entered alone and would leave alone. "It was given to me by Mr. Wood," Gale replied. Shawn said, "Grandpa gave it to someone with the blood of the Wood family. What are you?"
