

Skeletons 177

Chapter 177 In an instant, the aura of Shawn's whole body was as chilling as the cold.

How dare someone take Gale away under his nose?

Who was it?

Where did the rescuers come from?

"Find out what happened to me within five minutes!" Shawn roared deeply.

"Yes...!"

He threw the phone on the seat with a gloomy expression on his face.

Shawn looked down at his watch, counting the minutes and seconds of the time. His patience was about to run out!

Just ten seconds away from five minutes, the phone rang again.

"Speak."

"Mr. Wood, it was Aurum who picked up your wife!"

"Was it him?"

"Yes. Also, Aurum sent your wife to a private hospital under the Lefting Group!" the subordinate replied. Shawn immediately ordered, "Turn around!"

This change was completely unexpected.

Gale was really smart. She could still think under desperate circumstances and save the child in her belly!
