

Skeletons 180

Chapter 180 Shawn picked her up and strode out.

People came and went to the hospital, and Shawn was extremely handsome and powerful, which drew attention.

Gale was in his arms and was embarrassed to look up at those people's eyes.

She said, "Let me down. I can go by myself."

"Are you sure?"

"I will crawl out of the hospital if I need to."

Shawn said coldly, "Save the strength for Susan to admit your mistake."

"Admit?" Gale's heart trembled. "You want me to admit it?"

"Yes!"

"What did I do wrong!" "You are the one who killed the child. It was you who pulled her down the steps and caused her to miscarry!" Shawn's adam's apple rolled, and his voice was hoarse. "Gale, you are a murderer!"

Murderer?

Ridiculous...

At that time, Gale remembered clearly. It was Susan who was approaching step by step. Susan was provoking her, and she went to the hospital to aggravate Wendy...

She turned her back to the steps and had not noticed the steps behind her, but Susan could definitely see them.

The most important thing was that when she was about to fall down the steps, Susan would be merciful if she did not push her down. Why would she still stretch out her hand to pull her?

There was absolutely no way Susan wanted to save her.

So why do it?

Gale racked her brains and could not think of Susan's purpose.

Once, Susan kidnapped her from the company; the dean pretended to be sick and asked her to draw blood to save people...their father and daughter always wanted to get rid of the child in her stomach.

Gale's face turned pale. She followed behind Shawn and walked to the VIP ward.

She walked slowly and protected her lower abdomen, but she did not ask for mercy or say anything.

“Come on here.” The dean stood by the window and saw the figures of Shawn and Gale and immediately said, “Susan, it depends on your performance!”

Susan was half-leaning on the hospital bed. “Got it, Dad. Just cross your fingers for me.”

“Susan, I really want to praise you. You did a great job last night!”

“Hmph, Gale

wants to fight with me? No way. I just provoked her with a few words, and she became emotional, so I took advantage of the situation.” The dean gave thumbs up again and again. “When you came out of the operating room, Shawn’s expression was clear. He pitied you.”

Susan looked at her flat belly. “I just hope that I can get pregnant sooner so that I can sit back and relax.”

“Sure, now Gale’s child is gone, we can all relax. Otherwise, we will always worry.”

Only their father and daughter knew that Gale was pregnant with Shawn’s child.

This was a ticking time bomb. Once it blows up, they’re done.

Once they get rid of it, they do not need to worry anymore. Before Gale reached the door of the ward, she heard Susan’s heart-wrenching cry.

“Dad, how can I live... child, that is the child of me and Mr. Wood... I look forward to him coming to this world!”

“Now? No, There’s nothing left...Mr. Wood must be very sad. I’m really useless!”

“I might as well die. I can’t even protect a child!”

Gale was expressionless.

Shawn quickened his pace and pushed open the door of the ward.

“Mr. Wood, you have come. Come and persuade Susan. She is going to jump off the building!” the dean said anxiously.
