Chapter 191 Peter slammed his head into the housekeeper's body.

The huge impact distorted the housekeeper, and he bent down in pain, kneeling on the ground for a long time without getting up.

Although Peter did not hit the pillar, he stepped back several steps and stood dizzy for a while, before finally falling to the ground and passing out. Years of prison life made Peter's physical fitness very poor.

Gale rushed over. "Dad...Dad, wake up, don't scare me. I can't lose you!"

Peter slowly opened his eyes, his lips trembling, and he wanted to say something, but in the end, he could not make a sound.

LLI

Gale was terrified.

11

"Ma'am, don't...don't worry." The housekeeper got up with difficulty. "Peter is fine. It should be a slight concussion. He just needs to rest for two days."

She breathed a sigh of relief. "Housekeeper, thank you, thank you so much..."

She did not know how to express her gratitude. The housekeeper saved her father's life.

"You're welcome. It is fine."

Gale wiped the corners of her eyes, only to realize that she had already burst into tears.

She raised her head and looked at Shawn, who had been standing beside him from beginning to end, like an audience member, watching the whole farce.

He was tall and straight with a noble temperament.

Gale was a clown in front of him.

She said, "Send my dad back. I promise you. I'll go and apologize to Susan...until she forgives me!"

Shawn looked at the housekeeper deeply. "Do you hear her? Go."

"Yes, Mr. Wood."

Several bodyguards carried Peter into the car and sent him back to the prison.

Watching the car disappear from sight, Gale's heart was tightly gripped, unable to calm down.

“You must suffer every time, and you will be willing to bow when you hit the wall and bleed your head. Gale, why bother?” Shawn said lightly.

LA

She turned her head and looked at him standing beside her.

“Why? Could it be that under oppression, a person never resists and is submissive like a puppet? Resistance may have no results, but if you don’t resist, there will definitely be no results! People have to fight for themselves!” Gale replied.

Shawn raised the corners of her mouth mockingly. “What have you won after trying so many times? Huh?”

She bit her lip heavily.

Shawn said, “Won more torture. Gale, you are terrific.”

He turned and walked toward the sports car parked in the garden. “Get in the car.”

In the hospital.

As soon as she heard the familiar footsteps outside the door, Susan immediately changed her leisurely appearance, messed up her hair, and pretended to be weak and passive.

Soon, Shawn pushed the door and walked in.

LLLL

“Mr. Wood...” Susan slowly sat up from the hospital bed, and when she saw Gale behind him, she became agitated. “Why is she here!”

Gale said nothing.

Susan pointed her finger at her. “Go out, I don’t want to see you! Gale, you are the murderer of my child. You will be punished! Go!”

Shawn frowned slightly.

“Mr. Wood, I have nightmares every night now. I dreamt of our child, he cried and asked me why I didn’t protect him. Every time I woke up, my pillow was wet with tears.

“Thinking of Gale’s child staying safely in her womb, I’m not reconciled...” The ward was filled with Susan’s cries.

Gale said blankly, “Yes, you are innocent. You are sad. I will apologize.”

Susan was stunned.

She would like to apologize? Gale was reluctant to kneel at the start!

Chapter 192 What’s the matter with her now?

Susan quickly reacted. If Gale apologized, would she accept it?

No way!

“I don’t accept your apology. Gale, I don’t want to see you. Take your bastard and go out!” Susan said.

She also grabbed the things around her and smashed them on Gale.

It started with pillows, clothes, and stuff like that.

Seeing that they were not lethal, Susan looked around and picked up the glass on the bedside table.

“Gale, you should die and never appear in front of me!”

She smashed it hard.

Gale hurriedly dodged.

The glass flew past her with a thud, smashed against the wall, and shattered into pieces.

When the cup broke, many small fragments splashed across Gale’s cheek, leaving small, thin cuts on her face.

Blood slowly seeping out.

Gale raised her hand and covered her face.

It hurt a bit.

However, Susan did not stop there and still kept throwing things at her. “Gale, you return my child, I hate you, I hate you!”

What a shrew.

Gale was too lazy to argue with her, so she ducked behind Shawn.

Shawn was about 1.8 meters tall and could completely cover her up.

“Ahhh!” Seeing this scene, Susan screamed in anger.

I

Shawn said, “Okay, you just miscarried. You need to take good care of your body. Gale already knew she was wrong, so she came to apologize.”

“Apologize? My dad held her, and she refused to kneel. Bend down now! Why did you suddenly get enlightened today?”

Gale poked his head out from behind Shawn. “Because your child is gone, mine is still there. From this point of view, it doesn’t matter if I admit my mistake.”

“You!”

12

Gale said, “I’m sorry. When I fell, you kindly wanted to help me but ended up rolling down the steps with me.

It’s all my bad, you are kind, pure, innocent, and helpful, and you shouldn’t suffer.”

“Why are you apologizing? You have no sincerity at all!”

“I told the story in detail and recounted where I went wrong. Are you still not satisfied?” Gale asked.

“I fell. At that time, the strength was uncontrollable. How did I know that you would come to help me? It was just a matter of that second.”

Susan gritted her teeth. “You have no sincerity in your apology at all!”

“I’m here, don’t doubt my sincerity.”

“Hmph, I didn’t see it!”

Gale cleared her throat.

“I’m sorry, Susan, I was wrong. It’s my fault. You are innocent. You and Shawn are both still so young. It’s not a problem to have three or five more children if you take care of your body.”

“You can have ten or eight if you want. The more children you have, the more you will be blessed. In fact, now is not a good time for you to get pregnant. After all, you haven’t married into the Wood family, you have no name or position, and it doesn’t sound good if it spreads out.”

“Anyway, Mrs. Wood’s position will be yours sooner or later. Be gracious with your noble position. Let me go. Forgive me.”

Susan’s face turned ugly.

Even Shawn pursed the corners of his lips.

Gale really came here to apologize. Well, it was indeed an apology, but it did not sound right, and it was awkward. It was hard to pinpoint an exact fault with it.

Chapter 193

Susan glared at her. “I don’t accept it! I don’t accept it! It’s like you never said anything!”

Since Shawn threatened her father, Gale could only obey.

“Then what do you want from me? Kneel down?”

Then she would kneel.

Where could there be any dignity left?

Susan’s eyes showed viciousness. “Haha, Kneeling was a requirement before. Now...it’s not that simple!”

Gale frowned.

She heard Susan say, “One life for another. Gale, I will forgive you only if your child is gone! Otherwise, don’t talk about it!”

Gale covered her lower abdomen subconsciously.

This was absolutely impossible!

However...

Shawn’s voice rang out softly, “It makes sense.”

Gale’s heart was alarmed!

Seeing Shawn standing on her side, Susan immediately felt confident. “Mr. Wood, you think so too? Our children can’t just die in vain, not to mention that Gale was pregnant with a bastard child. So hurry up. Let her kill it and bury it with our child!”

Susan could not help but think Shawn would be more than happy to kill the child in Gale’s womb with his own hands.

She could not wait to see this scene! Mr. Wood will never know that he killed his own child with his own hands!

Gale shook her head firmly. “You can’t do this... Susan, your child miscarried by accident, but you asked me to abort the child on purpose. You are no different from a murderer!”

“You killed my child too. It’s dead!”

“That was an accident! I fell down the steps too!”

Susan hummed, “You deliberately pulled my hand and dragged me down before you fell!”

Gale was trembling This disgusting woman will always turn white to black, framing her endlessly! She began to step back toward the door. “Susan, I will never agree to the way you want me to apologize!”

Shawn’s eyes fell on her lower abdomen. “Gale, this child should never have stayed. Take advantage of this time and destroy it.”

He has disliked it for a long time.

This bastard reminds him all the time that Gale had another man in his heart!

She was willing to have children and give everything to that man!

Shawn was so jealous that he wanted to go crazy!

LI

Susan immediately echoed, "Yes!"

"No, impossible!" Gale was firm.

The atmosphere was so thick.

The melodious mobile phone ringtone broke the tension.

Shawn accepted the call. "Hello?"

Fiona

said, "Mr. Wood, the jewelry department is going to have a meeting, but I can't get in touch with your wife...Are you and your wife together?"

"Yes."

"A new season of design is coming out. Your wife is the chief designer and she can't be absent."

Gale seemed to grab a life-saving straw. "I'm going to the company! The season has just started, and my workload is heavy!"

She turned around and left immediately.

"Hey, Gale..." Susan lifted the quilt and wanted to get out of bed to catch her.

However, remembering that she is now an 'abortion recuperator', she can only lie back.

She began to act like a spoiled child again. "Mr. Wood, Gale didn't come to apologize but to anger me."

"I'll give you an explanation for this matter." Shawn walked out without looking at her.

Chapter 194

"Mr. Wood..."

"Have a good rest."

As soon as he finished speaking, Shawn was nowhere to be seen.

Gale had never had a moment when she wanted to return to the company so much.

The jewelry department needed her, and Lovito also needed her. She was a valuable working woman, not like Susan!

Meetings, discussing plans... Busyness gave Gale no time to think about those messy things.

By the time she finished, it was already night.

Her stomach growled with hunger.

Summer came over with a lunch box. "Hey, I knew you were starving my godson again."

"Summer, it's good to have you." Gale took it and ate happily.

"Shawn didn't bully you, did he? If so, you have to tell me."

"No, it's quite calm."

Summer looked at her. "You must not be embarrassed to speak, given our friendship."

"I know, I know."

However, Gale did not dare to tell Summer.

Best friends are thinking about each other.

Summer wanted to help her, and she also wanted Summer to stay out of trouble.

"Yo, you are all here." Joe returned to the jewelry department and saw the two of them with a mysterious look on his face. "Come to my office, and I'll show you something. I just got it."

Summer asked, "What is it?"

"You'll know when you see it." Joe opened his briefcase in the office and took out a red velvet brocade box.

He opened it, and he said, "Open your eyes and take a good look, don't blink. You will be blinded in a while..." The layers were wrapped, and the moment when he finally opened it, Joe said happily, "How is it? Is it bright enough?"

Summer and Gale were speechless.

Isn't this Susan's wedding ring? Gale coughed and said, "I drew the design, and I thought it was something else."

Summer pouted, "The ring is made. To be honest, it's a bit tacky and jeweled, but it is gorgeous and shiny, has a strong sense of wealth, and is very luxurious at a glance."

The ring is made inlaid with diamonds in the center, surrounded by a circle of rare red gemstones, and even the ring setting is made of white gold.

IL

Not luxurious enough to stand up to close scrutiny by learned crowds, but sparkling enough to fool the lower and middle class.

IL 1

That was what Susan wanted.

Joe replied, "It was shipped from abroad. I happened to be at the airport, so I went to pick it up. I have to give it to Shawn when I go back. This is the wedding ring he gave to... whoever."

He knew that Summer hated Susan so much, so he did not even mention her name.

Summer cut him off. "If I get married in the future, I won't want a ring of this style. It's vulgar!"

Gale smiled, picked up the ring, and looked at it carefully.

The ring is very large, and it is quite eye-catching when worn on the hand. The diamond in the middle was brilliant, with a full ten carats.

It was done very finely. After all, it's worth a lot of money.

Seeing that Gale had been looking at the ring, Summer stabbed Joe with his elbow. "It's all your fault. Why show off this thing!"

"I'm not showing off, it's your work, so I wanted to show you as soon as possible." Joe is still a man, after all, and his mind is not as delicate as a woman's.

Gale suddenly asked, "When will the ring be given to Shawn?"

Joe replied, "Tomorrow. Today is too late, and he went home early."

"Then when will he give it to Susan?"

"I don't know..."

Gale looked at him. "Mr. Joe, can you lend me the ring for two days?"

Chapter 195

Joe was stunned. "Lend it to you?"

"Yes, after all, this is a ring I designed. I want to do more research, and it's my first experience with high-end custom jewelry." Gale smiled.

Joe thought about it and agreed, "Of course."

Gale said again, "By the way, Mr. Joe, in order to avoid unnecessary trouble, please don't tell Shawn I'm holding the ring... I want to make some changes."

"Understood. I will just tell him I haven't got the ring yet.

"Thank you, Mr. Joe."

Joe replied, "You're welcome. You can take it and give it to me when you're done studying it."

Gale carefully put the ring into the box and joked, "I have to keep it well. If I lose it... I can't afford to replace it."

After walking out of the office, Summer could not help but ask, "Gale, are you okay?"

"Huh?"

"What are you doing with the ring?" Summer pointed. "Careful with her things."

Gale replied, "I have use for it."

“You really need to study...”

“Shh.” Gale pulled her, seeing no one around, and said in a low voice, “Summer, I really need your help.”

“Speak.” Gale held the brocade box. “Susan’s child is gone. Shawn asked me to apologize until she forgive me. So far, Susan does not accept the apology and even said that unless I also have a miscarriage, she will not forgive me.”

LE

“F*ck that b*tch!”

“There is only one way to resolve this crisis. That is to prove Susan’s miscarriage has nothing to do with me.”

Summer asked, “How to prove it? It has something to do with this ring?”

Gale lowered her eyes. “The whole thing has no evidence. It’s very tricky. The only breakthrough is Susan herself. So...”

She

whispered to Summer’s ear and said softly, “I just saw this ring. It’s big enough to hide some small things.” “Things? Like...” “A bug.” Summer’s eyes lit up. “Gale, so you are thinking of this! You are too smart!”

LIL

Gale said, “So I want to come to the ring, take advantage of these two days as soon as possible. Install a hearing bug. When the time comes, Susan will definitely wear the ring to show off, or she will carry it with her if she doesn’t wear it... Her words will be recorded by the hearing bug. It will be strong evidence!”

Gale got creative under pressure.

Since Susan was so aggressive, she must find a way to protect herself and fight back.

As long as Susan was there, she would not have a peaceful life for a day!

Gale opened the brocade box and looked at the shining ring. “As long as Susan has a miscarriage on purpose and wants to frame me, she will definitely mention it to someone close at some point!” “I support you with both hands and feet. I will get on it!”

LLLLL

LII

“Yeah!”

Gale hoped that this time, Susan would be completely defeated.

Never let her have a chance to redeem herself!

Once she turned over, Gale herself would be miserable!

Therefore, she can only win, not lose. She had to press Susan under her feet, so she would never be able to get up!

Summer has a wide network of contacts, and she found the person to take the job of installing the bug the next day.

Gale went with the ring.

She watched the technicians put a bug the size of a fingernail into the ring, which was placed firmly and would not fall off, no matter how much it was shaken.

“It’s only valid for one month. After one month, the bug will power off and stop working.”

“Okay. I’ll hurry up.” Gale looked at the ring with firm and powerful eyes.

Chapter

196 Summer said, “I’ll help you keep an eye on Susan too. Try to grab her pigtails as soon as possible!”

“You’ve already helped me a lot.”

“Why are you being polite?” Summer was a little excited. “I can’t wait to see Susan’s face in distress!”

LL

LL

Gale put the ring into the brocade box. “There will be such a day. Let’s go.”

Back at the company, Gale went to find Joe to return the ring to him.

Unexpectedly, as soon as she got out of the elevator, she ran into Duphine head-on.

LI

Gale gave way to the side, motioning her to pass.

Duphine stopped and yelled, “What time is it? Gale, you are late! Does the company have no rules and regulations?”

“Oh, then deduct my salary according to the rules.”

“You...”

Gale was about to leave, so there was no time to get involved with her.

“Wait!” Duphine said, “Is there anything valuable in your bag that you have been guarding tightly for fear of being discovered?”

“The bag is mine. Does it have anything to do with you?”

“The bag is yours, but is everything inside yours?”

Gale did not expect Duphine to be so troublesome and frowned. “What do you want to do?”

Duphine stared at her. “Just to check. What if...you stole gems and diamonds from the jewelry department and caused losses?”

“You are accusing me!”

“You are so nervous, did I tell you?”

Duphine was an old veteran in the workplace. She could tell that Gale was hiding something.

Gale was really nervous.

She had no intention of stealing anything, but at this moment, the wedding ring was in her bag.

Once Duphine sees it... she will let the whole company know!

“I’m going to see Mr. Joe, I’m sorry.” Gale did not want to dwell too much, so she turned around and left.

Duphine grabbed her and said, “I want to check your bag!”

“You don’t have the right!”

“I have to check today!”

Duphine pulled at her bag.

Gale was desperately guarding it.

The two of them wanted to grab the bag but only heard the sound of something falling as the strap of the bag broke.

All the stuff inside fell out, including that prominent velvet box.

Gale went to pick it up immediately. However, Duphine moved faster than her and quickly bent down to pick up the box first.

“Gale, I’m really right. You really stole the company’s jewelry! Let me see what you stole!”

Duphine opened the brocade box with great interest and was dumbfounded when she saw the wedding ring inside.

She was also frightened, and she could not speak clearly. “Gale...how dare you steal the wedding ring that Mr. Wood made for Mrs. Wood?”

Everyone in the Wood Group knew of this ring.

Especially the jewelry department. They have seen the design drawings and even wrote the marketing plan and manuscript.

This wedding ring costs eight figures and is worth a fortune!

Chapter 197 Duphine exclaimed, “You are so courageous! Do you want to go to jail! This ring cost so much money!”

Gale calmed down after panicking.

TI

LLLLL

She replied, “Although the wedding ring is in my bag, does that mean I stole it? You can’t frame me like that.”

“Why are you allowed to hold the ring? Who do you think you are?”

“I want to give Joe the wedding ring...”

Duphine ignored her explanation and said, “Don’t use Mr. Joe as a shield. Come, come with me to see Mr. Wood! He needs to decide for himself!”

Going to see Shawn?

That was even worse!

Gale turned around and wanted to run, but Duphine grabbed her clothes and dragged her directly into the elevator. “Go!”

She did not dare to struggle too violently for fear of hurting the child in her stomach.

Shawn raised her eyes deeply and looked at Gale, who was a little frazzled and embarrassed in his office.

“What’s the matter?” he said quietly.

Duphine immediately made the report. “Mr. Wood, Gale stole something! It’s your wedding ring!”

“...Wedding ring?”

TL

“Yes. I saw her coming out of the elevator, sneaking out with her bag, and I felt that something was wrong with her. I stepped forward to question her and actually found a ring in her bag!”

Duphine handed over the golden box. “Mr. Wood, look!”

Shawn took a glance.

It was indeed the ring he was going to give Susan.

Why is it in Gale’s bag? She obviously did not want to admit that she designed the ring

“Mr. Wood, this is a big deal. Stealing such a valuable thing will result in jail time! Let’s call the police and let the police handle it!” she said righteously.

Shawn tapped his fingertips on the table.

“Gale, do you have anything to explain?” he said. “I didn’t steal the wedding ring, and there’s no need for it.”

“But why is it in your bag?”

Gale could not say that she took it to install a bug!

“I want to give it to Mr. Joe. If you don’t believe me, you can now ask Mr. Joe to come over and ask him,” Gale replied.

Joe came quickly.

After hearing what happened, although he did not understand what Gale was doing, he still stood by her

Joe nodded and said, “Yes, that’s right. I gave the ring to Gale.”

Shawn asked, “Why?”

“Uh, she...she thinks that the workmanship of the ring is very delicate, and it is rare to see it.”

Joe was able to lie with his eyes open. “She wants to see if there is any way to apply this kind of top-level workmanship to the production process of Lovito. He turned his head to look at Gale. “Right?”

Gale answered immediately, “Yes! It’s like what Mr. Joe said.”

She might have been killed if she had not played along!

Duphine was dumbfounded. “Mr. Wood, Joe, this...”

Joe reprimanded, "You must focus on your work. If you make some mistakes, it will affect the company!"

"I ...I didn't know you gave the ring to Gale..."

"Get out."

Duphine thought she had caught Gale by the hair, but unexpectedly, she was scolded.

She left sadly.

However... Shawn was not so easy to fool.

He played with the ring. "What are you both playing at?" "Shawn, we are both working in earnest."

Chapter 198 "Who allowed you to give the ring to Gale without my consent?"

Joe coughed. "You two are married. Wouldn't it be the same for you..."

Shawn chuckled, "Joe, are you busy?"

"Well, I've been alright."

"There is a project in Africa. I think you are quite..."

"I suddenly remembered, wait... There is still a meeting. Oh, look at my memory," Joe said while walking out

He scurried away.

Gale was left standing alone.

"Mr. Wood, since the misunderstanding has been explained clearly, I should go back to work," she said politely.

"What do you call me?"

"Mr. Wood."

Shawn leaned back in the chair. "I haven't seen you be so respectful to me that you call me that. You often call me by my name." There are not many people in Sea City who dare to call him by his name.

LLL11

Gale said, "I was wrong. Mr. Wood, I'll..."

"Stay." Shawn looked at her deeply. "You designed the wedding ring, so you should witness the handover to the owner."

This was to make her a spectator.

Gale would definitely turn around and leave if it was under normal circumstances.

When she thought about the bug in the ring... she was looking forward to seeing Susan wearing it.

“Okay, my honor,” Gale responded with a sigh.

Shawn raised his eyebrows slightly, somewhat surprised.

Gale also asked kindly, “Do you need me to call Susan for you?”

11

He hummed, “No need.” “Okay, Mr. Wood, I’ll work on the side so I won’t disturb

TL

you.”

Gale sat on the sofa in the reception area in the evening, holding her mobile phone. She did not even look at Shawn.

She heard Shawn calling Susan.

“Come over to the company, the wedding ring is here.”

Susan’s voice was extremely excited. “Okay, I’ll come right away!” Gale was also excited.

Chap

The first step in her plan was about to succeed.

Shawn put the ring aside, ready to go to work, but his eyes always looked at Gale involuntarily.

LLL

She sat there with her back straight and temperamental, her whole body shrouded in sunlight, gentle and quiet. He watched quietly, unable to look away. Gale always felt that someone was looking at her, but she and Shawn were the only ones in the office. Could it be possible...

She looked up and saw Shawn staring intently at the computer, holding his mouse.

She was thinking too much.

“Mr. Wood! Where is the ring? I’m looking forward to it!”

She had a smile all over her face, and her voice was so coy that it made one’s bones brittle.

Gale shook off the goosebumps on her body.

Seeing the open brocade box on the table, Susan’s eyes lit up. “Wow, it’s so big and shiny. If I wear this, it will definitely become everyone’s focus! Mr. Wood, you are so good to me!”

After speaking, she wanted to give Shawn a kiss.

Chapter

199 Only then did Susan understand, and she smiled tenderly. "It makes sense... This ring belongs to the real Mrs. Wood, who deserves it."

She was so happy. She picked up the ring, deliberately showing it off to Gale.

Susan said, "It's so beautiful. Ordinary people can't afford it even if they work hard for years. It's so beautiful. If I wear it, women in Sea City will envy me..."

The ring was worn on her finger and flashed in the sun. She constantly admired it.

It was so beautiful.

Susan likes this gaudy, over-the-top style. She walked up to Gale. "Look, how is it? Thanks to your design."

Gale smiled and said, "Oh, I forgot to tell you, I hope that when you wear it out in the future, don't tell anyone I designed it."

"Why? Because you can't get it?"

Gale replied, "Because it's a stain on my design career. I don't want to admit that something so gaudy and vulgar came from me."

"Hmph, you still can't get it! You're just jealous of me!" Gale stood up. "Yes, yes, women all over the world are jealous of you. I won't disturb your slice of paradise here with Shawn. Farewell."

Susan stopped her. "Wait, you killed my child. I haven't forgiven you! Don't think I forgot about this matter!"

Gale gritted her teeth and tried her best to answer calmly, "Now is the busiest time for the jewelry department. I have no time for new models and marketing. Unless... you want to destroy Lovito's progress and sales achievement!"

Gale's designs were best-sellers and flagship products within Lovito.

If she has a miscarriage, she will definitely not be able to work, and her mind and body will suffer a great blow. Susan did not expect that Gale would come up with such an irrefutable reason.

"Mr. Wood, this..."

"Mr. Wood should also think about the company. Why worry about affecting sales now!" Gale said.

Wait a minute.

Give it a little more time.

Susan had already put on the ring; the day she got the evidence was not far away!

Shawn looked at her with deep eyes. "Gale, you are truly talented at coming up with excuses." Let's see how long she can hold on.

Her belly was getting bigger and bigger every day! Gale did not answer him and left in a hurry.

Back in the jewelry department, she was a little uneasy and did not know whether the bug would work.

Just as she was worried, Summer called her into the office.

“Come on, come and listen.” Summer handed her the earphone for the bug. Gale hurriedly put it on. The sound is clear and not obstructed at all. Gale said, “Susan is wearing a ring, so she can hear it so clearly. I don’t know if it will have such an effect if she puts it in her bag or in her carry–on pocket.” “Definitely not. Otherwise, the money will be wasted. You know how much such a small thing costs... um...”

210

Summer covered her mouth quickly.

Gale blamed herself. “Is it very expensive? I’ll pay you back when the salary is paid.” “It’s not that important if you have money or not. The important thing is to be able to collect evidence!”

“Well!” The two gathered together and listened intently to the conversation coming from the earphones.

Susan was still in Shawn’s office.

“Mr. Wood, are you free tonight?” “...No.”

Susan asked again, “I asked the doctor, and my condition is getting better. Next week... we can have a normal intimate life.” Shawn remained silent.

“Mr. Wood, I really want to have a child for you... This miscarriage has brought me great psychological trauma, but for you, I can overcome it.”

Chapter 200 “Let’s talk about it later.”

Susan began to act coquettishly. “I still have to seize the moment now. We don’t have much time for the future. From tonight, I will move to the master bedroom to sleep with you.”

Hearing this, Gale was stunned for a moment. Susan did not live in the master bedroom? She always thought that Susan and Shawn would share the same bed after she moved to the servant’s room. Shawn rejected her directly, “No need. From tonight onward, you will live in the River View Apartment again.”

“Ah?!”

“You and Gale should be separated to avoid another accident.”

Susan stumbled.

She managed to move in but was kicked out again once the novelty had passed!

Susan felt upset.

She was pregnant and had a miscarriage. How could Shawn treat her like this?

After thinking about it, Susan's temper also came up. "Mr. Wood, do you...have feelings for Gale?" "What did you say?"

Susan complained, "You meet her every day, and you must have feelings for her. She's so good at seducing men. You're fascinated by her, right?"

Gale was speechless.

Susan thought that everyone was like her!

However, what surprised her, even more, was Shawn's answer.

"Maybe."

Gale's mind went blank.

Even Summer looked at her several times and pressed the earphones hard, thinking that he had heard it wrong.

Maybe?

Maybe Shawn was fascinated by her? What does this mean? Susan did not expect to get such an answer. "Mr. Wood, you really..." Shawn said, "You don't need to bother about her and me. You'd better stop messing with her." "But..."

"No. Susan, I always feel that night..." Shawn dragged his voice for a long time but did not speak. Gale waited anxiously. In the end, Shawn's words stopped here. Susan left, the sound of high-heeled footsteps echoing through the earphones.

"What did Shawn want to say?" Summer took off his earphones and asked curiously, "What do you think that night meant? Why didn't he say anything?" Gale shook his head.

That night? Has there been any memory of one night between him and Susan? Like...she and the father of the baby in the womb? "Susan is the vixen who can seduce men. Unfortunately, her methods are too inferior, and she can't fool ordinary men."

"Shawn is not an ordinary man."

"He... must have been tricked by Susan!"

Gale smiled.

Feelings in this world are incomprehensible.

Summer urged, "Go and study the function of the bug when you have time. It can also be played back. After all, you are not listening with headphones all the time."

“Okay.
