

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang

Chapter 21 As soon as Gale arrived at work, she heard hurried footsteps coming from the door.

When she looked up, it turned out to be Susan!

Why was she trying to find fault in her again?

Susan shouted arrogantly, "Gale, come here! Don't be a tortoise!"

Gale stood up and asked, "What's the matter?"

Susan shouted, "Oh, you'll find out later. Take her away!"

Two big men rushed out and went straight to Gale. One grabbed her and forcibly dragged her out.

Gale immediately struggled and protested, "What .. let go! Let go! You are kidnapping me in broad daylight."

When the colleagues next to her saw this, they were all stunned. Gale looked at them for help. "Call the police or call the security guard, please!"

Susan said, "You are not allowed to help her! Otherwise, I will make you lose your jobs!"

Gale was dragged away.

She could not believe that Susan was so bold that she came to the company to kidnap her in public!

How much power did Shawn give Susan?

Susan looked at her viciously and said, "Gale, don't waste your energy. No one will come to save you. You are a lowlife!"

"What the hell are you doing!"

"I'm just in a bad mood, and I want to vent my anger at you."

Susan took Gale to a small alley and sent people to guard the front and back intersections.

This way, Gale could not escape, and no passers-by would peek in.

Gale sneered, "Excuse me? Susan, who do you think you are!"

"How dare you talk to me like this? It seems that those whips weren't painful enough, and your belly was so strong yesterday!"

Susan got angry.

She thought she had gotten rid of her child, but she had not expected it to survive in the end!

After thinking about it, Susan was still not satisfied.

If she failed the first time, then she would try it a second time, and this time she would definitely succeed!

After all, how many times could Gale get lucky?

Gale spat at her.

Susan screamed, "Ah! It's so dirty!"

LLLLL

Gale snorted again. "I don't know what method you used to get Shawn to condone your behavior like this. However, just because Shawn can humiliate and torture me doesn't mean you can do the same!"

"Of course, I can! I'm his future wife!"

"I am his current wife!"

LLL LL LLL.

Susan was furious. "You'll be gone soon!" Gale said, "Hehe, you don't know Shawn at all. You'd better let me go now.

"If Shawn found out about this, you won't escape so easily. Do you truly think he believed you when you lied about me tripping you?!"

Susan replied, "Believe it or not, he's on my side and won't help you! So, today is the same. I won't leave wounds on your body. Shawn won't be able to find out..."

She began to approach, and Gale quickly backed away.

She could withstand the pain on a normal day, but there was new life in her belly!

She wanted to protect the child, and she could not let Susan succeed!

Gale clutched her lower abdomen and looked left and right, trying to find an escape.

LI

Susan grabbed her hair and pulled it back. "Stand still and don't move! It will be over soon."

She kicked Gale's stomach suddenly.

Seeing this, Gale tried his best to push Susan away, then turned around and ran away.

Susan shouted at the person guarding the intersection, "Quick, stop her! Stop!"

Gale ran without looking back. She would take every opportunity to escape. Otherwise, if Susan attacked her again, her child would be in danger!

"Quick! What are you doing standing there!" Susan shouted while chasing, "What a bunch of useless gooks!"

Gale also felt a little strange. Why had they slowed down?

She rushed out of the alley with all that she got. Susan yelled while chasing after her. "Gale, you bitch... President Wood?"

Seeing Shawn, Susan was dumbfounded.

Outside the alley.

Shawn placed his hands in the pockets of his trousers and

Gale clutched her lower abdomen and looked left and right, trying to find an escape.

Susan

grabbed her hair and pulled it back. "Stand still and don't move! It will be over soon."

She kicked Gale's stomach suddenly.

Seeing this, Gale tried his best to push Susan away, then turned around and ran away.

Susan shouted at the person guarding the intersection, "Quick, stop her! Stop!"

Gale ran without looking back. She would take every opportunity to escape.

Otherwise, if Susan attacked her again, her child would be in danger!

“Quick! What are you doing standing there!” Susan shouted while chasing, “What a bunch of useless goons!”

Gale also felt a little strange. Why had they slowed down?

She rushed out of the alley with all that she got.

Susan yelled while chasing after her. “Gale, you b*tch... President Wood?”

Seeing Shawn, Susan was dumbfounded.

Outside the alley.

Shawn placed his hands in the pockets of his trousers and stood up straight. Although he said nothing, his whole body exuded a chilling aura.

The two big professional bodyguards held a Swiss Army knife against their waists.

The knives were extremely sharp. No one dared to move.

“Shawn...” Gale ran toward him without any hesitation. She had never felt relief to see Shawn.

Although he hated her, he would keep her alive for a little while and not hurt her child!

Shawn pursed her lips and looked at her.

Gale’s legs softened as soon as she ran to him and fell straight to the ground.

LL

“Stupid woman.”

Shawn reached out his hand expressionlessly, picked her up, and took her into his arms.

Gale clutched his sleeve tightly and mumbled, “You’re here. Thank goodness, you’re here...”

Chapter 22 She smiled, wiping the tears from the corners of her eyes.

All

Gale could think about was escaping and protecting the child in her stomach. Now that she was safe, she realized her body was sore, her back soaked with sweat.

Her heart finally calmed down after seeing Shawn.

She was safe.

“Why do you run into trouble whenever you disappear from my sight?” Shawn lowered his head deeply and asked, “Can’t you just stay by my side?” When he returned to the office after the meeting, Fiona asked him what he wanted for lunch so that she could order food.

He thought of Gale.

As a result, Fiona went to the jewelry department and learned that Susan had brought someone into the company and had taken Gale away. Shawn came immediately.

Gale replied, “I am not at fault. I stayed at the office and worked.”

Shawn’s eyes were cold as he looked up at Susan.

Susan immediately changed her expression and pretended to be innocent. “Gale scolded me, saying that I was a junior, a lowly, and a watchman. I only wanted to teach her a lesson.”

It was the first time Gale had seen such an annoying, lying girl! How fake! What a liar! Gale explained, “I didn’t! Shawn, ...”

“Shut up.”

Gale bit her lips.

Those who are not loved are not valued.

ILI

Susan immediately became full of confidence. “Mr. Wood, she scolded me first. You would be angry too if you heard what she said to me!”

“Shut up too!”

“But...”

Shawn reprimanded, “You are the first person to have ever broken into someone’s company and kidnapped someone. If I had not rushed over, the ones standing here would have been the police!”

Susan said, “I know you won’t let me get caught.”

Gale lowered her head and looked at her toes.

Her heart sank.

She had no idea why it hurt... Obviously, she should have gotten used to it.

Shawn had never cared for her. What he had for her was only hatred and pain.

“Take these two people away and kick them out of Sea City,” Shawn instructed in a deep cold voice.

“Yes, Mr. Wood.”

Susan was still reluctant. “Don’t. I brought them here, so not dealing with them personally would be a loss of my pride.”

She still cared about her pride. Gale thought this woman was either vain or evil!

Sure enough, Shawn’s face also became ugly. “You can leave as well!”

He almost told her to get lost.

Susan walked over quickly and pulled at the corner of his shirt. “Ah? Mr. Wood, are you mad at me...”

Shawn frowned as he could not help but get angry. “Go home and think about what you have done.” Shawn shook her off.

Susan suddenly began to cry, “No, I don’t want it! You are accusing me of something I had not done. You’re biased. You had not even questioned what Gale had done! Do you think I would have gone to the company to kidnap her for no reason?”

Shawn’s brows furrowed.

The alarm bell rang loudly in Gale’s heart!

Just now, Susan attacked her stomach... Could it be that she found out about the pregnancy?

No, it's unlikely. How could Susan find out she was pregnant?

When Susan kicked her stomach... Maybe, it was just a coincidence.

Gale was still panicking. If the pregnancy were exposed, both she and the child would die without a place to be buried.

Shawn would be furious!

Shawn nodded. "Okay. Tell me, what did Gale do?" "S...she..."

Chapter 23

Susan had not expected that Shawn would really ask and was at a loss for words.

"Hm?"

Susan's eyes rolled quickly, and she finally decided not to reveal Gale's pregnancy.

It was because it would do her more harm than good. It would reveal that she had lied to Shawn!

'This time, I failed. It doesn't matter. There will be opportunities in the future!'

At this moment, Gale said, "Susan, you are the one who had done something evil and the one who brought the accomplices. What can I do to you alone?"

Gale was not sure what Susan would say, so she changed the subject altogether!

Susan glared at her unwillingly.

Shawn said with a livid face, "Okay, Susan, stay away from me for a while!"

"Ah, Mr. Wood..."

Susan wanted to say something. Shawn nodded toward the bodyguard next to him, and they stepped forward, stuffed Susan into the car, and took her away.

Gale breathed a sigh of relief.

She dodged a bullet. Only then had she realized that she was still snuggling in Shawn's arms.

Gale quickly stood up straight, away from Shawn.

"Why do you think you can push me aside when you're done?" Shawn stretched out his arms and pulled her back into his arms. "Gale, stop causing me trouble!"

"Do you think it's my fault?"

"It takes two hands to clap!" Gale bit her lip and replied, "Whether it's Jenny or Susan, they all came to me because of you. Without you, these things would never have happened."

She not only had to endure the torture from Shawn but also the attack of his woman.

Living was so tiring. "Do you think that the crown of Mrs. Wood is so easy to wear?"

Gale retorted. "I never thought of marrying you!"

Shawn said firmly, "I'll decide when you get married, and I'll decide when you sit down! You don't have a choice!"

"Then I, Gale, deserve to be targeted by those women and bullied again and again?"

She had not owed them anything!

Why were they bullying her?

Shawn raised her chin and stared at her deeply. "What are you afraid of? I will save you."

Gale was forced to look up. "Can you guarantee that you will always show up in time to ensure that I am not hurt?"

He looked into her eyes. "I can guarantee." Shawn's thin lips parted slightly. "In Sea City, there is nothing that I can't do."

He was extremely confident.

He was a dignitary standing at the top of the food chain in Sea City. There was really nothing he could not get, let alone nothing he could not do.

ELUL

Gale smiled softly. "Have you never lost your mind?"

“No.”

She replied, “I hope you never do. Otherwise, it only takes one second to destroy you.”

Shawn lowered his head and gradually approached.” There will never be such a day.”

Gale turned her head away, avoiding his hot breath.

At this time, the two of them would never have guessed that one day later...

It would come true.

By then, it would be too late to regret.

Shawn sat in the Rells Reyce, and Gale stood outside the car. 2

“Get in,” he said.

Gale was a little surprised ... Was he actually let into his car?

Does she never have to walk again? She asked again, full of uncertainty, “Are you talking to me?”

“I’m clearly not talking to the ghost.”

Chapter 24

Gale opened the car door and went in.

“Are you injured?”

She shook her head.

Shawn snorted coldly and said, “You are quite clever. You know how to protect yourself.”

“I was close to getting injured,” Gale said, subconsciously wanting to touch her lower abdomen.

When she thought that Shawn was beside her, her movements stopped abruptly.

“This is the end of the matter. Don’t think about going to trouble Susan,” he warned.

"You really look down on me. How can I have the courage.

Susan was his favorite and the woman he promised he would marry. How could she compare?

Only she would suffer.

Gale said, "However, you always hate others touching your things, and I am yours."

"Susan is different."

I

"Because you love her, don't you?"

Shawn did not answer.

Love? It does not seem to be.

More of a responsibility.

After all, Susan saved him with her body, which caused some emotions to stir in him.

Shawn pressed his eyebrows deeply, "I've already punished her. What else do you want?"

Gale smiled mockingly. "What can I do? Am I worthy?"

She knows her status. How dare she have other thoughts.

Shawn's fingers squeezed her jaw tightly till it hurt." Don't put such a sad expression in front of me!"

He had already supported her and asked Susan to go home and think about what she had done.

Gale still thought it was not enough and showed her temper.

Shawn became even more annoyed!

"Understood," Gale replied softly.

Then he let go and closed his eyes to rest. However, Shawn could not sleep at all. He was distracted, and his temples were aching.

Back in the office, he opened the bottom drawer and took out a sachet.

It was the sachet that Gale gave him, which he threw into the trash.

Shawn's heart gradually calmed down, and he fell asleep after smelling the faint fragrance of herbs.

After an unknown amount of time, Shawn opened his eyes and saw Joe standing opposite the desk. He was holding the sachet, tossing it around.

LI

Joe asked, "It's good. Where did you buy it? Don't you have insomnia ? It's the first time I've seen you sleep so deeply. I couldn't bear to wake you up."

Shawn coughed deeply. "Bring it here."

"How can you keep something so wonderful to yourself?"

"I won't say it a second time."

"Okay, okay, I'll return it to you." Joe threw it at him. "The sachet is so precious. Why, which sweetheart gave it to you?"

Shawn's face darkened slightly.

Joe clapped his hands and said, "No, you are married. How can you accept gifts from other women? So, it must be Gale!"

Shawn's face darkened a bit.

He stuffed the sachet into the drawer, "Get out if you have nothing to say!"

"Looks like I guessed it right!" Joe laughed loudly. "Gale is so ingenious ... Would you mind letting her make one for me?"

"Why do you want one?"

"I don't know what's in it, but the smell is soothing and soothing."

Shawn suddenly smiled and said, "Do you want it so badly?"

"Yes."

He nodded and said, "Okay. Let Gale make one for everyone in the whole company." Joe was taken aback. "Are you trying to exhaust her to death?"

“Good things are meant to be shared.”

Joe shrugged and said, “Let’s get down to business. What do you plan to call the jewelry department?”

Chapter 25 “I had not thought of it yet.”

“Take your time but remember to set some money aside for the department.”

Shawn agreed, “Yes. However, I want to remind you one thing.”

“Say it.”

Joe was very serious, thinking he was going to say something very important, but...

Shawn warned, “Don’t cover for Gale. She’s just an employee I lent you, understand?”

Now that Gale was working for Joe, she was indeed much more relaxed and free.

Joe had worked abroad for several years, preferring free and humane management, only looking at performance but not attendance.

They can work anywhere as long as the work is done well.

Joe replied, “I’m not looking out for her because she’s your wife... Her skills are really top notch.”

Back in the jewelry department, Joe leaned over to Gale’s workstation.

“Mr. Joe.”

“The thing you gave to Shawn, make one for me too.”

Gale could not understand. “What?”

“The Sachet.” Joe gestured and said, “But the color is ugly. Change it to another color for me.”

L

Only then did she understand.

However... Didn’t Shawn throw it in the trash?

Did he pick it up again?!

Gale responded, "Oh, okay. "Mr. Joe, I'll make one for you after I get off work."

Joe

nodded and added, "By the way, Shawn said it worked wonders, and he asked you to make one for every staff member in the company."

UL

"Huh?"

Joe said, "Damn, everyone is under a lot of pressure now, and they are losing sleep. The money will come from the company, and I'll find some people to help you."

So...

That afternoon, Gale and a dozen colleagues sat in front of a pile of herbs, sorted them, tied them, and made them into sachets.

It was already eight o'clock in the evening when she finally finished the last one.

Gale moved her sore neck and clocked out to get off work.

On the way back to Temperley Hall, she picked up water bottles again.

The salary has not yet been paid, and now...

She still needed to make some money.

Gale remembered that the nurse said that the condition of the fetus was unstable and that further examination and treatment were needed.

She also needed extra nutrients.

Money was needed.

During the long journey back home, Gale was so focused that she had not noticed the car following her all the time.

The car window was half down, and Shawn stared at the petite figure with deep eyes.

She actually... was picking up trash!

LLL

Moreover, the movements are proficient, and she has done it many times!

Fiona asked in a low voice, "President Wood, how about I go down and call your wife?"

"No need!"

She really impressed him...

Work during the day and pick up trash at night!

If it were not for his meeting today, he would not have discovered it at all!

When he was about to arrive at Temperley Hall, Gale looked at the harvest tonight. It was a bit small.

She was thinking about whether to go pick up some more when suddenly a hand reached out and grabbed her. "Gale!"

She was startled, and when she saw it was Shawn, she was even more startled.

"Are you so lowly!" Shawn roared deeply.

LLLL

Gale replied, "I make money by working with my own hands! Give it back to me!"

She wanted to take it back, but Shawn threw it away.

There was a sound of mineral water bottles scattered all over the floor.

It was like Gale's dignity.

"What are you doing, Shawn? Do you know how long it took me to pick them? Why did you throw it away!"
