

Skeletons 283

Chapter 283

"Gale, you're taking advantage of the fact that I love you, that I can't bear to hit you!"

She met his gaze, "Shawn, you can hit me. Come on, hit me! Do it!"

Shawn clenched his teeth and forced his hand down.

He grabbed her chin and suddenly smiled.

It was a smile of anger.

"Alright, Gale, the less you want a child, the more I want to make you have it," Shawn's lips met hers, and his tone was harsh, "You can have those pills today, but can you have them tomorrow? What about the day after? Are you going to have those pills every day?"

"You'll eventually have my child... The day will come!"

"Don't even think about hiding. You'll do whatever I want you to do! You can't go against my wishes!"

"From now on, every night will be like clockwork. I'll have you once. At least once!"

Gale paled, "You're humiliating me like that."

"You could have prepared for pregnancy comfortably, but you insisted on using something like this to anger me," Shawn smiled coldly, "You asked for it!"

"Shawn, do you insist on making me hate you even more?"

He clenched his teeth, "Since you already hate me, there's no reason not to hate me more!"

Gale was a little desperate.

She really did not want to get pregnant again, especially with Shawn's child.

"Why do you insist on making me do this?" She asked, Susan just said that she was willing. Go ask her! You treat her so well. She relies on you so much and is so obedient. Why are you trying to force me?!" 1

"That's exactly what I want to do!"

Shawn pulled back and stood in front of the window. Even his back exuded a cold and arrogant aura.

He threw the pills into the trash, and got more and more frustrated as he looked at it. He gave it another kick.

"Get out," he said, "Get out!"

If Gale continued to stay there, he would not be able to control his temper. He might end up choking her!

Shawn did not want to hurt her, but she went too far!

Gale looked at the pills in that box.

She would not need to eat them anymore.

It was because it would be pointless.

Those pills could be eaten twice a year at most. They were incredibly harmful to the body.

Shawn was adamant against taking precautions, insisting on getting her pregnant. Anything she did was pointless.

Gale had just walked out of the office when he heard a lot of clamor from the inside.

Shawn was throwing things around.

"Mr. Wood..." Fiona sighed, "This is bad. Things will be bad again today."

Gale apologized, "I'm sorry. This is Shawn and I's private affair, but we burdened all of you with it."

"Oh, ma'am. Actually, it's quite easy to make men happy, especially straightforward and masculine men like Mr. Wood. He's someone without much experience with love.

"Make him happy? I'm supposed to do that?"

"Yes, otherwise the whole company will have to act incredibly carefully around him so we don't get shouted at."

Gale pursed her lips, "He's the one at fault, why am I supposed to make him happy?"

Fiona was speechless.

He coughed and said softly, "Ma'am, why don't I buy a small present for Mr. Wood in your name? You don't have to do anything. Just acknowledge it silently."

Gale wanted to reject it, but when she saw Fiona's pleading expression, she relented.

She could bear with Shawn's anger, but these people were innocents who were dragged in.

"Fine," She nodded and agreed. After that, she got into the elevator and went back to the jewelry department.

With Gale's agreement, Fiona immediately got it done.

Since it was already noon, it was the perfect time for lunch. Fiona ordered a meal and even wrote a card. He pretended it was from Gale.
