

Skeletons 341

Chapter 341

“Mobilize everyone. Find Gale!”

Joe was immediately wide awake. “What? Gale is missing?”

“Yes.”

“How did she go missing again?”

Shawn did not answer the question as he hung up the phone immediately. After that, he went right to the three bodyguards he had sent to protect Gale in secret.

The imperious aura coming out of his body made everyone tremble.

“I asked you to protect her. Where is she?! Is this how you complete your job?!” Shawn said fiercely.

“M...Mr. Wood, we were following orders. We followed her the whole time. She came to the hospital today and went in the car to go back to Temperley Hall after that...”

“Then? You didn’t follow her?”

“We were noticed by your grandfather’s men. They said that they would be responsible for sending her back to Temperley Hall. They told us not to worry since we were on the same team... Ah!” the guard said.

Right after he said that, Shawn kicked him!

Trash! A useless piece of trash!

It meant that the bodyguards let their guard down after Gale got in the car. They thought that the car would send her straight to Temperley Hall, so they did not follow her.

At that moment, no one knew where she was!

The only clue was that car! The car his grandfather made arrangements for!

Shawn stood straight up, and his left hand hung by his side. Any movement would send jolts of pain up his body, but he did not care.

He was just about to get in the car when he heard

Aurum’s voice. “Mr. Wood?”

Shawn looked back.

Aurum had a suit on and looked like he had come over from the company. "Mr. Wood, I heard you were recovering here, so I came to visit you."

"No need."

"I actually had another intention. I haven't seen Gale in a long time. I wanted to see how she was doing," Aurum said.

Shawn's expression sank, "She's missing."

"What?!"

"I'll find her. She will never be able to escape me!" Shawn said in, full of confidence.

Aurum looked at him and suddenly said, "Did she run away from you instead of going missing?"

"Impossible!"

In truth, that was what Shawn was most afraid of.

From the moment he found out that Gale had gone missing, he refused to think about the worst possibility, which was...

Gale had left herself. She had wanted to leave him.

Shawn did not want to face that possibility.

He would rather believe that his grandfather had forcefully sent her away!

Aurum said, "I've always been able to tell that your relationship with Gale is very strange. You seem like lovers but seem like strangers as well. If she wants to leave, let her. It's her choice."

"I won't let her go. She can't leave him!"

Aurum looked at him. "Mr. Wood, holding someone who wants to leave you hostage is something incredibly tragic.

Shawn said coldly, "Are you lecturing me?"

"I just want the best for Gale. I feel like she wants to leave you. Only by leaving you will she be able to leave everything and live a better life."

"You don't know anything about us!"

Shawn walked to the car and said coldly, "Aurum, if you really want what's best for her, then do everything you can to help me find her! No one knows where she is right now. It's really bad!"

He had some spies among Lucas' men, but they might not be able to find Gale. It might even end up messing things up and delaying matters.

Chapter 342

So, if Aurum would help him, they would have a bigger chance of finding her.

"Okay. I'm doing this to make sure she's safe and not to help you," Aurum answered.

Shawn had already gone right into the back of the Rells

Reyce.

Aurum looked over to the assistant next to him. "Use all our connections to look into where Gale is. Be discreet.

Tell me if you find anything."

"Yes, Mr. Lefting."

The Rells Reyce was on the road, and Shawn constantly urged, "Drive faster."

"Mr. Wood, it's already very..."

"Faster!"

The journey to the Wood Mansion usually took up half an hour, but it had been cut short to fifteen minutes.

When Lucas saw him, he jumped up in fright. "Shawn, why are you running around? Do you not want your left arm anymore?"

Shawn went straight to the point and said, "Where is Gale?"

"What are you..."

"Where is she?!" Shawn raised his voice even higher. 'Speak!"

At that moment, he was like a lion that had lost its mind.

He was angry, frustrated, worried, and unsettled.

His voice echoed around the living room.

Lucas was surprised, "Y...You're talking to me like this because of a woman?"

"Grandpa, I've told you again and again that Gale is my bottom line! You kept on ignoring what I said, so don't blame me for ignoring the Wood family!"

Those words had been too harsh.

Shawn would never have talked to his grandfather like that before.

However, at that moment, he was not just shouting but was incredibly fierce with his words as well!

Lucas looked at him in shock. "Y...You're trying to rebel?!"

"That's because you forced me to do it!"

Since Shawn was there, Lucas admitted, "Yes, you're right! I was the one who sent Gale away. You won't see her again during this lifetime!"

Shawn was there far sooner than Lucas expected.

He had planned on a softer approach, giving Shawn some advice and trying to reason with Shawn.

Since Shawn was coming at him like that, he decided that he needed to be forceful!

Lucas did not believe that Shawn would actually cut their family ties just for Gale!

Shawn was absolutely furious. "Grandpa, you clearly know that I can't live without her. Why did you have to do that?!"

"Because she is Peter Warm's daughter. Peter killed your father! Because she had your child but didn't protect it! Because you were almost killed by Susan because of her!"

Lucas gave reason after reason.

"So, Shawn, how could I be able to tolerate her?! For the sake of the Warm family and the company, Gale has to leave you!"

"When I was training you to be my heir, I told you that if you want to be successful and stand at the peak, you can't have any weaknesses or likes! Anything can be replaced. You don't have to be stuck on one person!"

"What have you learned from it? Shawn, do you even remember what I told you?"

Shawn looked at Lucas calmly. "Grandpa, what if I told you I was the one who killed that child?"

Lucas staggered. "What did you say?"

"I was the one who killed our child. The blame was always on me. It had nothing to do with Gale. She gave up so much to protect that child," Shawn said. Lucas could not accept that fact.

He had always thought that it was because Gale had a miscarriage due to her not taking care of the baby well...

Chapter 343

Why was Shawn the culprit?

"Also, Grandpa, I've told you repeatedly that I can't live without Gale, but you keep trying to break the two of us up! Have you thought about my feelings?!"

It took a moment for Lucas to snap back to reality.

"Even... if the child was not Gale's fault, her father still killed yours. This is a blood grudge that can never go away! How could the two of you be together?"

"This is between the two of us. You don't have to worry about that. As for my hand, I crippled myself for her. It has nothing to do with her. She tried her best to stop me back then too."

Lucas looked at his left hand.

The doctor said that Shawn could not move his hand for at least a month, but Shawn was standing right in front of him.

That was how important Gale was!

"Very well, Shawn. Let me ask you right now. It's me or Gale. You can only choose one. If you choose me, you can't have her. If you choose her, you can't have me. Who will you choose?!" Lucas said.

That question was incredibly serious!

Paula hid in the corner, watching the show.

She was smiling, wanting them to fight even harder!

The best thing that could happen would be for Shawn and Lucas to cross the point of no return. That would be great for her and her son!

"Choose Gale then. Quickly. Shawn, don't you love her so much?"

"You want the girl over your fortune."

"You need to thoroughly anger Lucas for Lucas to consider giving his shares to my son!"

Lucas still had twenty percent of the Wood Group's shares with him.

Anyone who got them would immediately become the Wood Group's biggest shareholder! Even the board of directors would have to respect them!

The living room was incredibly quiet. Only the howling wind outside could be heard.

Shawn looked right into Lucas' eyes. "Grandpa, if you insist on dragging things to this point, then I can give you an answer."

"Speak!"

"I choose Gale."

Lucas' face was completely red as he pointed at him with a trembling finger. "Y...You're absolutely..."

"I love her. I know very well that I can't live without her. You're the most important person in my life, Grandpa. I don't want to do this," Shawn said.

After saying that, Shawn suddenly knelt down.

He kowtowed right in front of Lucas. "I'm sorry."

"Y...You..."

Shawn's stance was clear.

His resolve far exceeded Lucas' expectations!

"Please tell me where Gale is. I'll go get her," Shawn asked.

He was not only looking for her, but he was getting her back.

He would do it! He would definitely have her back by his side!

Lucas took a deep breath. "Let me ask you. If Gale doesn't love you, would you still do all this for her?!"

"I would."

Lucas shut his eyes and turned away, not looking at

Shawn anymore.

How could the Wood family have such a blind romantic?!

Shawn could have loved anyone. Why did he have to love the daughter of their enemy?!

“Shawn, remember what you said today. I sent her overseas. You won’t find her. Also, she left willingly, understand?” Lucas slowly said.

Shawn felt a stab in his heart.

Hearing that she left willingly had truly hurt him!

“You can’t make her stay. Even if you find her, her heart will not be with you.”

Shawn slowly got up. “Yes, Grandpa. I’m leaving.”

He did not want to say anything anymore.

Overseas?

Chapter 344

Very well, he would look for her overseas!

He would go there himself!

Shawn left in a huff. His shoes clacked on the floor as he slowly disappeared.

Lucas sat on the sofa, looking old and alone.

Paula quietly went back to her room. She locked the door and called an overseas number.

“Hey, Mom. What is it?” The sound of loud club music could be heard on the other end.

“Are you playing outside again?”

“I’m drinking with a few friends.”

Paula said excitedly, “Let me tell you some good news. Shawn had a really big fight with Lucas! You should hurry back after your graduation. Make sure you do well in front of your grandpa. Do you hear me?!”

“Okay, Mom.”

“This is an incredibly rare chance for you, and you better seize it! Our chances of turning the tables and becoming the hamsters of the family hinges on this!” 1

Paula’s own child was where she had put all her hopes on!

Paula had been trying to figure out ways to deal with Shawn, but she never expected that Gale would be able to cause so many waves in the Wood family...

Hahaha, fate was on her side!

At Sea City International Airport, Shawn sat in the VIP room with a meaningful look on his face.

Next to him, a doctor knelt down and tried to secure his left arm to stop it from aggravating the wound.

“Shawn, are you really going to chase your wife over thousands of miles? Can’t you just send someone over?”

Joe said lazily as he crossed his arms.

“I want to go myself.”

“Do you not want your arm anymore?”

Shawn looked at him. “You want me to cripple myself so much?”

Joe shrugged. “I just feel like you’re really not taking care of your body. No matter what, you should focus on recovering first.”

“I want to get her back.”

“It sure sounds nice. A man in love is truly unreasonable,” Joe lamented.

“It’s better than being loveless like you.”

“That’s just because I don’t want to dig my own grave. It’s so much nicer being free. Hey, why are you leaving?”

Shawn got up and walked toward the boarding entrance. He adjusted the gauze with his right hand casually as he walked steadily but quickly.

The doctor was stunned, looking at his empty hands.

Joe shook his head. “I never expected that Shawn would ever be like this.”

Going overseas to go after his wife...

That sounded so romantic.

The moment Joe walked out of the airport, a beautiful figure hurriedly ran over, running right into his arms.

He held her with his hands. “Hello, Summer. I know I’m very handsome and the target of many secret crushes, but you don’t have to run into my arms like that.”

“No one’s running into your arms! Where’s Gale?!”

How would I know? I'm not her bodyguard."

Summer looked at him. "Is Shawn going to look for her?"

"That's right. Lucas got angry and sent Gale away. Shawn's going overseas to get her back," Joe said.

"Ah, how frustrating!" Summer stamped her foot and looked incredibly anxious.

If Gale managed to escape, then it was good. She would be completely free from Shawn!

"Why are you so anxious? Don't you want to see Gale anymore?" Joe said.

"Rather than seeing her again, I'd rather she have her freedom! Is Shawn going straight to her because he knows where she is? Or is he just going to keep looking?"

Summer answered.

Chapter 345

He might not even find Gale then if he still wanted to.

"Lucas was the one who sent her away. Wouldn't it be incredibly easy for Shawn to find out where she is?"

Summer sighed.

The plane took off and slowly went further away.

At a manor in Aneria, Gale stood by the window.

It was during the day, and the skies were clear, but she knew that it was nighttime in Sea City.

She did not even know where she was. She could not go out anyway. She was confined to the manor.

The servants were all foreigners who were very careful. She had nothing to say to them.

"Is this really escaping? No...I've just jumped from one cage to another," Gale mumbled to herself.

She did not want to live her whole life there.

She should probably talk to Lucas.

Gale turned around and had just walked to the phone when a figure appeared outside the window.

"Who?" She looked out in alarm but saw no one.

Gale was shocked as she stared out the window.

She slowly walked over. Just as she was about to lock the window, someone quickly covered her mouth.

She widened her eyes.

“Shush, Ms. Warm, I mean no harm. I was sent by Mr.

Lefting,” the dexterous, black-clothed man said.

Aurum?

“Don’t shout and attract the guards. If you can do that, please blink.”

Gale immediately did so.

The man let go and took two steps back. “I’m really sorry.

“How did Aurum find out that I’m here? Did he say anything else?” Gale asked.

“Aurum wants me to help you. If you have any problems, please tell me. I’ll do my best to help you.”

Aurum always appeared during important moments. He had helped her over and over.

The man said, “Mr. Lefting said that you could think of anything. If you want to leave this place, I will figure out a way to get you out. If you want to stay, he’ll respect your choice.”

Gale said without any hesitation, “I want to leave.”

“There are a lot of people keeping guard outside. Let me figure it out.” The man started to frown in thought.

“Can you let me call Aurum?” Gale asked.

“Of course.”

The man took out a phone, and Gale suddenly felt like it was all real.

Very quickly, Aurum’s voice was heard from the phone. “Hello?”

“It’s me. I can’t believe you’re the first person to find me.

“Shawn asked me to help look for you.”

“What?”

“Don’t worry, I won’t tell him where you are. Do you want to stay here or return to Sea City?” Aurum answered.

Gale clutched her phone. “I just can’t leave my mother behind. She’s still unconscious in the nursing home.”

After a short silence, Aurum said, “I can try to figure out the way to send your mother to you.”

She was a bit emotional as she said, “Really?”

“I can’t guarantee it. Shawn isn’t an idiot, after all. I will still try my best.”

Gale said, “As long as my mother is by my side, I won’t want to return to sea City anymore.”

She wanted to find Sam. She wanted to meet Shawn’s brother and collect proof about the past!

Aurum asked, “Do you have no more feelings for Shawn?”

Gale was stunned.

Feelings?

She probably did, but she would slowly forget him as time passed.

Shawn only brought her pain.

Gale was about to answer when a sports car was heard downstairs.

Someone was at the manor!

Chapter 346

The black-clothed man exchanged a look with Gale before they both looked down.

It was a Lamborghini.

The door opened, and the man who walked down...was Shawn!

How could it be him?!

“Shawn found me so quickly...” Gale paled as well.

Even though she was not the one who escaped willingly, Lucas’ methods and arrangements should have been better than anything she could plan. Yet, Shawn had still found her so quickly.

Gale could not help but wonder if it would be impossible for her to escape Shawn alone.

Was she never going to escape his net?

Shawn arrived too quickly.

“Ms. Warm, I’ll take my leave for now. I can’t be exposed,

| | the man said.

“Okay.”

Gale helped the man leave, pulling the curtains as she acted as if nothing had happened.

From the bottom, Shawn’s footsteps could be heard.

Every single step he took felt like it was stepping on her heart.

Shawn was incredibly quick, moving two steps at a time. He went right upstairs, wanting to see Gale as soon as possible!

He had been on a plane for over ten hours and had driven for two hours to reach this place.

Shawn pursed his lips, getting closer and closer to the door to the bedroom.

Just as he was about to reach the door, the door suddenly opened from the inside.

Gale appeared in front of him.

Their gazes met.

“Gale, I finally found you.” Shawn reached out and forcibly pulled her into his arms.

A long-lost sense of stability filled Shawn’s body.

At that moment, all his exhaustion left him.

It was because of the feeling of satisfaction with her in his arms.

Thankfully, she was still there. He had found her.

Gale smelled Shawn’s odor and saw the stubble on his chin.

It was rare for him to look so haggard.

Shawn had traveled across the world just to find her.

“Shawn... You came just to find me?” Gale asked.

“Yes, I came to get you.”

She leaned into his arms, not knowing what to say.

If Shawn had come just a few minutes later, she would have left with the black-clothed man.

She would have left the control of the Wood family.

Fate loved toying with her life.

Shawn came at precisely the right moment. She could not escape his grasp.

"I came to bring you home." Shawn tightened his arms and rested his chin on her shoulder. "Don't ever I leave my sight in the future."

After a few moments of silence, Gale asked, "What if that's what I want?"

"Ale, don't try to provoke me with those words."

"I'm not. Why would I be here if I didn't want to leave?"

"Grandpa already said that he forcibly sent you overseas. Don't lie to me," Shawn answered.

What? Lucas admitted to it?

He tried so hard to send her away but admitted everything to Shawn so quickly?

What was Lucas thinking?

"You always know how to hurt me with your words.

Galey, this time, you didn't run on purpose. I understand,
11 Shawn said.

"No, I was willing to do it," Gale said.

"I won't believe you."

Shawn was not willing to believe those words, nor did he dare to.

Gale smiled. "It's not like I've never run away before. It's just that you manage to catch me every time."

Chapter 347

"You can't run, Galey."

She shut her eyes and raised her hands to hug her. Her hands were on her back.

Shawn shuddered as he hugged her even more tightly.

He was very happy she responded to him.

However...

“Shawn, do you know? What I want is to leave you completely. The further away I go from you, the better,”

Gale said to him.

His heart hurt. Even his breathing felt painful.

“Why did you find me? It was so hard to get Lucas to help me escape, but you came so quickly. Do you not want your arm anymore? Do you want to become a cripple?”

“Shawn, how could a crippled man match up to me? I’ll toss you aside.”

“Don’t think I’ll be grateful because you lost a hand to save me, and I’ll love you immensely for it. You’re wrong. You hurt me so much more than you’ve been good to me!”

Everything Gale said was like a vicious stab into Shawn’s heart.

His breathing got erratic as he tried his best to hold back his anger.

“Gale, stop...”

“No, I want to continue. When Susan had me, you knelt down for me. You used yourself in exchange for me, and you almost crippled your arm. Honestly, I was very touched, but that was it,” Gale continued.

“Shawn, I don’t love you. Why can’t you accept the truth?”

“If I had known that it was you in the hotel that night, I would have been disgusted. I would have wanted to get rid of the child. I don’t want to have your child.”

Shawn felt some bile coming up in his throat.

Only Gale could easily infuriate him like that.

Her words were so cruel.

He had heard everything clearly.

In order to find Gale, Shawn broke his relationship with Lucas. He ran out of the hospital, flying here in his private jet. He had already gone twenty-four hours without sleeping before he finally saw her.

He came to get her back, but her words had hurt him so much!

“Shawn, let me go. Okay?” Gale looked at him.

He answered firmly, "No."

Gale smiled. "I knew it..."

Shawn grabbed her hand and put it against his chest.

His heart beat incredibly quickly.

"If I let you go, Gale, then who's going to let me go? Are you going to have me suffer the loneliness alone as I live a life without you?" Shawn asked.

"You're forcing me back to Sea City, but you're just bringing me back physically. Shawn, I'll still run away."

"I won't give you a chance."

Gale looked at him. "I can stop trying to run, and I can stay in Sea City. We just have to never see each other again. As long as we get a divorce and have nothing to do with each other, why would I leave my home?"

The word 'divorce' hurt Shawn greatly.

"Do you hate me that much? Do you not love me at all?" He grabbed her shoulders and asked, "I've done so much for you. I've done everything I could to make things up with you, to give you promises. You still can't accept it?"

Gale nodded. "Yes, I can't accept it. I still hate you."

Shawn stared right at her.

There was a lot of pressure in his gaze. Gale did not dare to look at him for a long time.

Shawn suddenly asked, "Did Grandpa tell you anything else?"

Gale was stunned. "No."

"Don't lie to me. That has to be it. He must have told you to be heartless with me and not give me any chances. That's why you said all that, right?" Shawn said.

"Shawn, stop lying to yourself."

He walked in and shut the door behind him, pushing Gale against the wall. "I refuse to believe it. I refuse to believe that your heart is made of stone. I refuse to believe you're not touched at all that I've traveled across the world for you."

Chapter 348

Shawn's words started to trail off toward the end.

Gale pursed her lips. "Will you find me no matter where I run to?"

"Yes."

"That's not love. Shawn, you're just being selfish and possessive!" Gale said.

"You can say whatever you want, Galey. I can be selfish if you say so."

Shawn never believed that love involved letting go or letting the other one be happy.

He loved her, so he had to have her!

Gale bit her lips, trying to push him away. "Since you found me, I can't run anyway. Do what you want."

She used a bit of force to make sure that she would be able to push him away. After that, she left without turning back.

After two steps, Gale did not hear anything behind her.

Strange, what was Shawn doing?

He did not chase after her and said nothing as well. How was he so quiet?

Thinking about it, Gale could not stop herself from turning back to look.

She saw Shawn against the wall, clutching the wound on his left hand with his right. His eyebrows were furrowed, looking like he was in incredible pain.

The white cloth had a bit of blood on it.

"Shawn!" Gale exclaimed, hurriedly running over to him.

The wound must have opened up when she pushed him. away!

Gale started to blame herself as she thought about it.

Shawn's arm had to rest, or it would end up being crippled!

He traveling overseas was already really bad for the wound, and she even stupidly pushed him like that...

"Are you okay? Should I call the doctor?" Gale asked anxiously.

Shawn's lips were pale. "I'm fine."

"How are you fine? You're bleeding again! I probably did it when I pushed you, I..." Gale said.

She started to stammer.

"Stupid. You're not to blame. I wasn't being careful,"

Shawn said.

Gale helped him up. "Go sit down for a moment. I'll get the doctor... Ah!"

Before she could even finish, Shawn pulled her into his arms and had her sit on his lap.

"Shawn, you..."

"You're not allowed to leave, I won't let you leave my sight," he said.

"But your wound needs to be tended to by a doctor."

"It's fine."

Gale was very worried. "How could it be fine?! Do you really want to become a cripple?!"

Looking at how anxious she was, Shawn's lips curled up.

"See, Gale? You say you hate me, but you're worried about me right now."

Gale was stunned. She said in a hurry, "I...I just don't want your hand to get crippled! Otherwise, it'd be my fault!"

Shawn merely looked at her with a smile.

A cunning look flashed in his eyes.

The wound did hurt, but it was something he could definitely bear with. He could even have acted as if nothing had happened.

However, he decided to act it out so Gale would be concerned.

Shawn felt like, no matter how heartless her words seemed earlier, Gale really was concerned for him at that moment.

Chapter 349

If that was the case, then Shawn was satisfied.

"Keep smiling!" Gale tried to get up as she said that, but Shawn forcefully held on to her waist.

"I'm not leaving. I'm going to call someone over."

"I just want to stay with you here quietly and be together. I don't want anyone interrupting us," Shawn said.

Gale did not know what to do with him.

She wanted to struggle but was worried that she would aggravate his wound.

The two of them looked at each other.

Slowly, Shawn's lips got closer to her.

Gale hurriedly avoided it. "Shawn, you..."

"Galey, let's have a kid." He spoke very slowly. His voice was raspy and sincere.

Gale's heart ached.

"I won't have another kid with you. Even if I end up getting pregnant, I won't hesitate to abort it!" she said very firmly.

Shawn shook his head. "You won't do that. You wouldn't be willing to."

"I will!"

"You haven't even gotten over losing that child. How could you bear to toss away a new one? Gale, stop talking like that."

Shawn sealed her lips with his.

On the plane, he had thought that he would properly own her when he saw her.

From her body to her heart.

Only by having her would Shawn feel like she was his and truly by his side.

Furthermore, Shawn longed for a child.

With a child, Gale would be tied up and would never leave.

Yes, Shawn never expected that a day would come when a child would be how he planned on tying Gale down.

He pushed Gale onto the sofa.

"Let me go. Shawn, d...don't touch me. I hate you..."

Gale was very scared. His lips felt magical, causing her body to writhe constantly.

"Don't do this, Shawn. Don't make me hate you even more..."

Why was the first thing he did when he found her this?

Gale tried to push him away but stopped when she touched his arm.

She could push him away and run at that moment, Shawn's hand would get injured.

but

"Galey, look, you care about me. That's why you're not willing to push me away..."

Gale's relenting turned into Shawn's reason to attack her.

His breathing got heavier and heavier.

His uninjured right hand was on her body, while his left hand was not moving. He even deliberately moved it closer to her.

That was because Shawn knew that Gale would not dare to move recklessly like that, so she would not struggle.

He was using it against Gale!

Gale had no one to call for help.

Very quickly, Shawn undid her clothes...

She cried and said, "No, Shawn, I don't like this!"

"You'll like it."

In Gale's mind, she had done it with Shawn twice.

Only, the night at the hotel, neither of them knew who the other was. They could not see each other's faces, but he had been exceptionally gentle and careful.

Then the next time was in the car. Shawn had been so violent that her legs were sore the next day.

This time, Shawn was merging violence and gentleness.

Gale felt like she was just a small ship floating in the sea.

She was forced to cling to Shawn.

"Galey, don't try to leave me. Never have that thought. Wherever you go, I'll chase you..." Shawn whispered into her ear.

Chapter 350

She cried as she shouted at him, "Shawn, I hate you. I hate you so much!"

“Be good. I love you.” He kissed away her tears.

In the end, Gale had no more strength. She shut her eyes and fell asleep.

She felt her body move in a daze. Shawn had picked her

1. up.

She immediately woke up in shock. “Shawn, your hand..”

How could he still pick her up? The doctor said he could not use any strength!

“I can still pick you up with one hand. Don’t worry. Just sleep.” Shawn kissed her on the forehead.

It was true.

Shawn was muscular. He worked out every day. Picking her up with one arm was nothing.

Gale had been thoroughly tortured by him. She was completely exhausted, so she fell back asleep very quickly.

Shawn’s heart softened when he looked at her.

No matter how heartless her words were, he could still tell that she cared for him from her actions.

She hated him. That he knew, but there was definitely love as well.

Love and hate were better than just hate.

When Gale woke up again, the room was completely dark.

Thinking about how Shawn bullied her, her head went numb.

She could not fight back but could not accept it. Being so intimate with Shawn felt like torture to her.

Her body enjoyed it, but her heart rejected it violently.

She did not want another child from him...

Thinking about that, Gale suddenly felt a lurch in her stomach.

She covered her mouth and fled to the toilet, starting to retch loudly.

What was happening?

Was she disgusted after being intimate with Shawn?

Thinking about it, the disgust intensified. Gale only recovered after a long time.

Footsteps slowly got closer, and Shawn stood behind her. "Galey, what happened? Are you feeling sick?"

She had her hand against the basin as she looked at the mirror. "Yes, I feel sick. Just thinking about what you did to me disgusts me."

Shawn fell silent.

Gale heaved for a few more minutes before she slowly recovered.

"I'll call the doctor to check on you," Shawn said.

"No need."

However, Shawn still insisted on calling Dr. William over.

"Hi, Mr. Wood. We always talked through a screen before this. I finally met you!" Dr. William said.

He reached out to hug Shawn but was pushed away.

Why would two men hug each other?

Foreigners were really different.

William did not mind. He was still smiling. "Mr. Wood, who did you call me over to look at?"

"Her." Shawn looked at Gale on the sofa.

She had just vomited, and her face was quite pale. Her hair was disheveled, and there was a sense of faint weakness.

It was a weakness that made men want to protect her.

"Wow. What a beautiful girl. Hello, your black hair is so attractive!" William's eyes glinted.

William put down his box and bent down to take Gale's hand, moving to kiss the back of her hand.

Gale was stunned but did not react.

However, when Shawn saw that, he pushed Gale behind him, pushing William away. "What are you doing?"

"I want to kiss the beautiful lady."

"Dream on."

William looked like he was wronged.

Gale was a bit amused by this and could not help but say, Kissing the back of the hand is just a form of greeting here
