Chapter 351

Dr. William nodded in agreement. "That's right. Usually we kiss on the cheek."

Shawn was speechless.

No one can touch her hand, let alone her cheeks.

"Mr. Wood, you are too possessive. Is this your friend?"

William said.

"She is my wife."

Hearing Shawn introduced herself, Gale's heart trembled slightly..

It would be great if he could introduce her like this before.

It's too late.

Dr. William looked at Gale in surprise. "So this is your wife. Sorry for disrespecting you."

Gale smiled and said, "You speak English well."

"Thank you for your praise. Mrs. Wood, may I ask what is wrong?" Dr. William asked.

"I..."

Gale suddenly had no idea how to explain it.

She could not mention how she recalled the intimate relationship between her and Shawn last night, panicked and retched?

Besides, it was not the first time Shawn had touched her. She had never felt nauseous before.

After thinking about it, Gale said, "My stomach felt a little uncomfortable, and I retched for a while. How ever, I didn't vomit."

Dr. William began to examine her carefully.

Shawn was standing beside him.

Five minutes later, Dr. William said, "Mrs. Wood, your body is a little weak. You need to keep a close eye on your nutrition. Don't people in your country pay attention to health? You really lack nutrition and blood."

Gale replied with lowered eyes, "I ... had a miscarriage."

Although it has been almost a month, it has always been a pain in her heart.

She could not get over the pain of losing her child. She lost her appetite and depressed mood, which affected her body.

“Miscarriage?” Dr. William looked at Shawn in surprise. Is it your child?”

“Yes.”

“Wow, Mr. Wood and Mrs. Wood, although the child is gone, you both are quite lucky.”

Gale did not understand and asked, “Lucky?”

Obviously...after she got pregnant, it was the beginning of her misfortune.

“That’s right, Mr. Wood’s Asthenozoospermia was only just cured. During his illness, you were able to conceive a child. It’s really rare. It means that you two have good luck as a husband and wife!”

Gale did not understand.

Asthenozoospermia?

What kind of disease is this? From the literal meaning, it seems that as a man, Shawn has some problems...

She looked at him and said, “You... can’t?”

Shawn’s expression darkened instantly. “Didn’t you just experience it last night?”

Dr. William said it without any attempt to protect Shawn’s privacy or feelings.

“Dr. William, I brought her here to see a doctor, not to gossip.” Shawn gave Dr. William a hard look. “Stop talking about irrelevant things!”

Gale was very curious. “Doctor, please don’t listen to him. I want to know.”

Dr. William coughed and replied, “After Mr. Wood’s diagnosis, you can still conceive a child, which shows that you can easily get pregnant. Don’t worry, Mr. Wood. Now that you have recovered, it will be very easy for you and Mrs. Wood to try for another child, so don’t worry.”

What? Easy to conceive?

Gale subconsciously touched her lower abdomen.

She could conceive a child even when Shawn was weak.

Now that they have not taken precautions, would she be bound to be pregnant again?

However, Gale comforted herself. 'No, it won't be that simple...'

Chapter 352

She has only had a miscarriage for a few months, and her body is still weak, so it was only a small probability of pregnancy.

"Really?" Shawn raised his eyebrows, and the corners of his mouth curled up. "Then I'll take your word."

"Of course, I will cure your illness."

After Dr. William prescribed some medicine, he left.

Shawn poured a glass of warm water and watched Gale take the medicine. Her complexion eased up a lot.

"Are you feeling better?"

Gale nodded and said, "Yeah. What's up with that illness Dr. William said you had?"

Shawn pursed his lips deeply.

For men, discussing this matter felt shameful.

However, thinking about it carefully, it also verified the fate between him and Gale.

"You want to hear?" Shawn asked deeply.

"Yes, I think."

"It's a long story." Shawn sat down beside her. "Do you still remember that Paula used to deliver soups to Temperley Hall every day?"

"Yes. You forced me to drink it. You only stopped forcing me when I drank and vomited once."

Shawn's eyes looked apologetic, and he put his arms around her waist.

Gale realized that something was wrong. "There is something wrong with the soup?"

"Yes."

She was startled. "And you still allowed me to drink it!"

“It shouldn’t affect you because Paula drugged the soup with medicine to affect male fertility.”

Shawn said, “I didn’t know about it before, and I didn’t drink much of it. I just took a few sips. However, the medicine was too strong, and Paula succeeded.”

“So...you got this even on the night you and I were in the hotel?”

“Hmm.”

Asthenozoospermia will lead to a decrease in vitality and make it difficult for the woman to conceive.

It never occurred to Paula that Shawn and Gale would get pregnant that very night.

No wonder Dr. William said they were fated as ‘husband and wife fate’.

However, so what if there was fate and luck in play? In such a difficult situation, she still could not even keep the child she was pregnant with.

Shawn said, “On the day we got married, Dr. William told me and prescribed medicine for me. From that day on, I stopped drinking soup and have recovered.”

Gale listened sullenly.

Knowing there was something wrong with the soup, he still made her drink it.

What if it affects her?

Shawn knew what she was thinking and felt guilty but could not apologize.

At that time, he did not know that she was the woman that night, and he did many things that hurt her.

He wanted her to suffer.

Fate turned the other way around.

Gale made him suffer heavier and deeper than before.

“Gale, the Wood family... is far less beautiful than it appears on the surface. The relationship between the Wood family is also quite complicated. When you are with me, you are in the middle of a wealthy family’s struggle,”

Shawn said.

“I know that although you are the current head of the Wood family, you are also facing unimaginable pressure.”

Paula fanned the flames from time to time.

His half-brother wants to fight him.

Alex Wood has passed away, and Lucas Wood is old...

"It's okay, I will protect you. You just need to stand behind me," Shawn promised.

Gale smiled. "How about I just leave you directly and stay away from these dramas?"

He could not answer but just put his hand around her waist and pressed her waist hard.

After thinking about it, Gale still could not hold back and said, "Perhaps, Shawn, your biggest enemy is not my father, but..." 1

It was Paula.

It was his stepbrother.

Chapter 353

During the few months Gale stayed in Shawn's place, it became more and more obvious that Paula's mother and son were the most vicious people in his life.

They were also the most motivated...the ones who wanted Alex Wood to die!

"I know who it is. Be it Paula or her son. I will solve it sooner or later. They have no chance to hurt you," Shawn replied.

Gale looked at him. "You have always acted vigorously and without mercy, but you let Paula and her son go repeatedly and didn't settle accounts with them. Is it out of respect to Alex?"

"No."

"Then why?"

Shawn looked unwilling to mention more.

Gale sweated, and her palms were very moist.

Talking about these issues in front of him was risky, and if she was not careful, she would bring up Alex.

Alex's death had always been taboo for Shawn.

After a while, Shawn calmed down and said, "It's because my father specifically told me to treat them kindly before he died."

That was why!

What did Alex Wood say?

Gale was curious, but...she did not ask.

If Shawn wanted to speak, he would. If he did not want to say it, he would not mention a word even if she pushed him.

"These are all past events. Gale, do you want to hear it?" Shawn rested his chin on her shoulder and buried it in her neck.

Gale pretended to be indifferent. "... Up to you."

"Y... You clearly want to hear it, but you're playing hard to get."

Shawn's breath brushed against her neck, causing her to itch, and she subconsciously wanted to escape. He tightened his grip on her.

"I've never told anyone about this, not even my grandfather. Not only was my father telling me this before he died, but even the day before the car accident, my father talked to me," Shawn said in a low voice.

"Talk?"

"Yes. He wants me to transfer half of the shares in my hand to Paula and her son," Shawn said.

Gale was a little surprised. "Half? So much."

"Yes, but I didn't agree, but my father's attitude was very firm, and we fought about it."

Gale felt as if she could not breathe, and she realized that she was getting closer to the truth bit by bit.

In the struggle of wealthy families, they are fighting for power and money!

She asked cautiously, "Then... Do they know about this?"

"Only my father and I know. He usually has no hope for Paula's son, who is not that sharp, and often reprimands him."

“Grandpa always protects him, saying that everyone has their own fate, and I was enough for the Wood family. As long as Paula’s son is safe and sound and doesn’t go out to cause trouble, that’s enough.”

“Who knew that my father got in a car accident the next day. The world is impermanent.

After hearing this, Gale suddenly felt sorry for Shawn.

However, she tried her best to suppress this emotion.

It was because she once saw a saying that the highest state of loving someone is to feel distressed.

She felt sorry for Shawn. This is not a good sign!

Gale bit her lips and said, “So... Paula’s mother and son like Lucas more and think that Lucas is the one who supports them and stands on their side.”

“Yes. Paula quarreled with Alex every now and then, and her son ran away when he saw his father,” Shawn replied deeply.

“Then, did you meet anyone before your father’s car accident?”

“No, he has been at home. Paula went back to her mother’s house for leisure.”

After listening to Shawn’s narration, Gale realized more and more that something was wrong.

Paula returned to her mother’s home the day before Alex Wood died.

Coincidentally, the day before the car accident, Alex asked Shawn to give up half of the shares!

More and more thoughts entangled in her mind.

Incomparably complicated.

The more she thought about it, the more Gale’s head hurt.

Chapter 354

Shawn’s lips seemed to be coming nearer to her.

“Don’t... “Shawn!” Gale shuddered.

He buried his head in her neck again. "I'm teasing you. I won't touch you." After romping around hard last night, he also wanted her to rest well.

He really felt a bit uncomfortable being able to look at her but not being able to touch her...

Gale was thinking about his father's case and was in a bad mood, so she slapped his hand away angrily. "If you are so energetic, find another woman."

Shawn said with a straight face, "What nonsense are you talking about?"

In his life, he would only want her and touch her.

No matter how difficult it was for other women to catch his eyes!

Gale looked at him and suddenly remembered something. "When you and Susan were together..."

Her heart suddenly began to feel astringent.

Just thinking about the intimate scene between him and Susan, she could not accept it.

Moreover, she also saw him lying on the bed with Susan.

Shawn's voice interrupted her thoughts. "Thinking wildly again. I never touched her. She was the mastermind behind what you saw when you came to River View Apartment that time. I was drunk and didn't do anything."

11

Gale knew that time was fake.

However...

Have they never kissed? Have they ever held hands?

Susan likes Shawn so much. She must have seduced him in private.

Was he able to hold back?

The more she thought about it, the more she felt uncomfortable and could not control her thoughts.

However, Gale did not want to ask him, just in case Shawn thought she cared. She only answered, "Oh."

"Gale, are you jealous?"

She immediately denied, "How is that possible? I am not."

Shawn chuckled deeply, seeing through her petty thoughts.

"We haven't kissed, held hands, or done anything beyond the boundaries.”

“I don’t care what you have done!”

After speaking, Gale was about to get up, but Shawn held her down.

When she moved, he pressed harder.

Gale felt like a mouse, squeaking under his pressure.

He was addicted to playing with her.

Gale said, “Shawn! You are never done!”

She did not dare to push him too hard for fear of hurting his hand.

Shawn hugged her hard.

Back in those days, how could Gale let him hug him so obediently without moving?

“By the way, when are we going back to Sea City? What time was the flight?” Gale asked.

Shawn had chased her here, so she thought he would take her back.

“Anytime. Gale, have you ever been to Aneria?”

Gale shook his head. “I planned to come here again after graduating from university, but then...”

Later, everything in life was changed.

“Then, I’ll accompany you around the city. We will only go back to Sea City after touring around here for a few days,” Shawn suggested.

“Touring?”

In her mind, Shawn was a workaholic who worked overtime, even on weekends.

Now, he wanted to have a vacation together?

It was really surprising...

Chapter 355

Before she agreed, Shawn had already started planning.

There is a beach nearby, let's go. Can you surf? Dive? Forget it. You'd better sunbathe obediently with your fragile body..."

Shawn was a man of action, and he did what he said.

For the next three or four days, he took Gale traveling around the mountains and rivers.

Joe made more than a dozen phone calls a day. "I say, Shawn, can you come back as soon as you find your wife? I can't take care of the company's affairs alone!"

"You are the president of the Wood Group, remember your position. Thousands of employees are waiting for you to come back and take charge of the overall situation!"

"Hey, hey, Gale, please persuade him. What is there to do in the Aneria? Come back early..."

Shawn found this annoying and directly blocked Joe on his phone.

Although Gale had never found a way to get along with Shawn, her mood had indeed improved a lot in the past.

few days.

Vacations are relaxing.

If it was not for Gale's urging to go back, Shawn could stay for a few more days.

He seemed so content to stay here, but she was embarrassed. Joe had secretly sent her countless messages.

Besides, Shawn was still a sick man. He could not move his left hand yet!

On the private jet, Gale was so tired that she fell asleep right after boarding the plane.

Shawn sat next to her, actively resting her head on his arm.

He liked the way she filled his arms.

After about a ten hour's flight, the plane finally landed in Sea City.

Gale knew that she would return because her departure this time was not voluntary at all, and she was not well prepared.

Unexpectedly, it was so fast.

Shawn came so fast.

They were about to leave the airport. Gale suddenly heard an extremely familiar voice. "Gale..."

Sam was standing not far away, looking at her.

Next to Sam stood a man about his height, with a bare face and a body covered in luxury brands. He almost had 'new money' engraved on his face.

"Sam?" Gale was startled.

Why was he here?

Did he just come back home too?!

Then, the person standing next to him was...

Paula's son, the second young master of the Wood family!

Zach Wood!

This was the first time Gale saw Zach Wood.

He looked like a dandy young master, a rich second generation, who only knew how to eat, drink and play.

Unexpectedly, they met Zach upon returning to Sea City!

Shawn stopped in his tracks and narrowed his eyes slightly.

Be it Sam or Zach Wood, these two people... were not the people he wanted to see now!

"Shawn!" On the contrary, Zach walked over with a happy expression on his face,

"What a coincidence. I didn't expect to meet you so soon!

As he spoke, he sized Gale up. "This is my sister-in-law, right? I finally met you today."

He stretched out his hand very enthusiastically, and his eyes shone brightly.

Gale did not have a good impression of Zach. How could she shake his hands?

Shawn took a step forward, his expression was indifferent. and unhappy. "Why have you returned?"

Chapter 356

"I graduated, Shawn. I can't stay abroad all the time, cant I? My grandfather and mother are both in Sea City, so I have to be filial in front of them," Zach replied.

Shawn sneered. "It was Paula who asked you to come back quickly."

He could see through the intentions of the mother and son at a glance.

It was because of Gale's incident that he almost broke off relations with Lucas. Paula must be hiding in some corner to watch the fun and immediately notify Zach to return to the country.

Zach replied hesitantly, "It's normal for Mom to ask me to return to the country. Don't tell me that you want me to stay away all the time?"

Shawn raised his chin slightly, his tone full of sarcasm and disdain. "You will soon know that it is better to wander outside than to come back."

Immediately afterward, he turned his eyes and looked at

Sam.

When did Sam and Zach get together?

"The two of you... are good friends?" Shawn raised his eyebrows deeply.

"Yeah, Mr. Carson and I met abroad. We hit it off right away, and we got along very well. I believe you already know each other, so I won't introduce you."

Shawn glanced at the two of them coldly and held Gale's hand as he left.

Before leaving, Gale looked back at Sam.

She had not seen him for a while and felt that Sam had somehow... aged a lot, and there held many secrets and stories in his eyes.

He looked very mature, standing next to Zach.

Sam gave Gale an affirmative look.

It seemed that events were about to unfold back home.

He had always kept Gale's promise in his heart.

"Hmph, what's the deal? Sam, look, this is my half-brother, who stands tall like an emperor, and doesn't care about me at all!" Zach said.

Sam smiled kindly. "You are the second young master of the Wood Family. With your status here, no matter how much he doesn't like you, he can't do anything to you."

"That's right. I still have my mother, who has plans for me, and Grandpa misses me too. No matter how much. Shawn doesn't want to see me, I still have my share in Wood Family!" Zach said triumphantly.

"Don't talk about these unhappy things. Let's go find a fun place."

Zach nodded and said, "Okay, you are familiar with Sea City, you have to be the host."

"I must. Today will be on me."

Zach was very satisfied.

He had checked Sam's background. The young master of the Carson family has a good educational background and ability. It was good to be friends with someone with a lot of connections.

Sam was a decent young master, so Paula could not keep scolding him for always hanging out with his usual friends.

Zach was going to make a bang in the Sea City social scene on his return!

In the Wood Group.

After a week, Shawn finally appeared in the company, and everyone seemed to be reassured.

He was still the all-powerful president of the Wood Group, wearing a suit, tall with an outstanding temperament.

Shawn's hand was hanging by his side so naturally that most people would not be able to tell that his left hand was seriously injured and almost disabled.

"You're back." Joe rushed into the office. "I have been so busy, and I want to take a vacation!"

"I'm afraid no can't do for now."

Joe suddenly became unhappy. "Why?"

Shawn raised his eyes at him. "Zach is back."

"Your stepbrother? Did he graduate? That's really a bit tricky..." Joe said.

Zach is Paula's son and also a member of the Wood Family.

The day before Alex's car accident, he was still negotiating with Shawn to give Zach half of the shares, and Lucas also wanted Zach to join the Wood Group.

Chapter 357

However, Shawn is in power. How could he let Zach participate?

Joe was clear about this.

He rubbed his chin. "Buddy, what are you going to do? Do you follow your father's last wish, or..."

Joe made a gesture of wiping his neck.

Rich and powerful families grabbing power have always ended in life-and-death situations. It is impossible to coexist.

The winner takes all.

The one who fails would have the worst outcomes.

“If they are honest, I can accommodate their mother and child. But if they are greedy and want more, then they get nothing,” Shawn said lightly.

Joe replied, “Paula and Zach’s IQ combined are not enough to defeat you. If it weren’t for the Wood family, they would have disappeared from Sea City long ago. In my opinion, the most troublesome thing for you is your little wife.”

When Gale was mentioned, Shawn had a headache.

He reached out and pressed his forehead.

“You chased your wife for thousands of miles this time, and you’re so happy that you don’t want to leave, right?” Joe folded his arms. “It’s hard for us brick-and-mortar workers.”

Shawn gave him a deep sideways look. “I get it.”

“When will Gale come back to work later? She is the chief designer of our line.”

“Let her rest at home for two days. Wait until the gauze on her face is removed before returning to the company.”

He was concerned that she would feel embarrassed by the scars. He had gotten used to the scars and did not find it unpleasant, but it just made him feel bad.

“Okay. I wish you success in wooing your wife as soon as possible,” Joe said.

Shawn did not answer.

Success?

There was still a long way to go, and he could not see the end of it.

What’s more...Sam was back.

He was jealous of Sam because Sam and she were childhood sweethearts. They grew up together and were part of her life.

Shawn was never sure what Gale’s feelings for Sam were.

Hurrying around the airport, he saw Sam's worry and longing for Gale.

Seeing Shawn's deep silence, Joe wanted to be mean again. "Well, Shawn, I'm going to gossip..."

"Say it."

"How much do you like Gale?"

"Like?"

Joe nodded. "That's right. Otherwise, what else could it be."

Shawn replied, "I can't describe her... as liking."

"Is it...love?"

"Yeah."

It was the love that drew moths to the flame.

It was the love that would cross oceans.

Moreover, Shawn knew that he had fallen in love with her twice.

He was already attracted to her without knowing that she was the woman of that night.

Knowing this, his love became stronger.

No one can replace Gale's position in Shawn's heart.

"It's messed up. It's all messed up. It's clear to me looking in from the outside. From my point of view, the relationship between the two of you is too rough. Shawn, what you gave to Gale is not just love," Joe said with a sigh.

"I know."

Joe reminded, "The hatred of killing your father...is. always there. This is a knot that has no solution."

"How do you solve this? Unless your father's death was not caused by Dr. Warm. However, you have already checked and sent Dr. Warm to prison."

Shawn fell silent again.

Love was so unreasonable. He can love anyone, but he just fell in love with the most unlikely person. He waved his hand. "Don't be annoying."

Chapter 358

Joe shrugged and left.

Shawn took the phone and opened the photo album.

On the plane back to Sea City, he secretly took many pictures of Gale.

There are pictures of her asleep, pictures of her looking confused when she just woke up, and pictures of her having a little sauce on the corner of her mouth when eating...

He had never thought before that he would love someone so deeply.

It was already noon when Gale woke up.

Shawn was no longer around.

She had no idea if it was because she went to the United States for a few days and needed to fight the jet lag or because she was too tired and became extremely lethargic these days.

“Ma’am, you are awake. Do you want breakfast now?” the housekeeper said.

She nodded. “The company...”

11

“Mr. Wood approved your leave. He said to allow you to rest. Then go back to the company to work.”

Gale thought, finally a little freedom.

She would feel useful and lively if she could go to the company, draw pictures, and design jewelry.

Gale said, “Okay. I’m going to the hospital in the afternoon. The stitches are going to be removed.”

“Ma’am, I’ll arrange a driver.”

Gale did not pay much attention to her face, but Shawn was very nervous.

She can see a brand new scar cream on the bedside table every day.

Every day was a different brand.

She did not even know which ointment she was going to apply.

Moreover, sometimes she forgot to put it on before going to bed, and the next day she would find that Shawn had done it for her.

This man... was quite thoughtful.

In the hospital, the smell of disinfectant was pungent.

The doctor praised, "The wound on your neck has healed well. The scar has faded a lot and is almost invisible. It seems that you don't have any permanent scars."

Gale replied, "I... I apply scar cream every day, so it heals quickly."

"The scars on the cheeks should also get some cream persistently. Don't give up."

"Okay."

Gale looked at herself in the mirror.

There was a three to four-centimeter-long flesh pink scar on her white and delicate skin.

It was like a caterpillar, staring at her cheek near the chin.

The nurse thought she was sad and quickly comforted her, "It's okay. It will fade away in two months and become less obvious."

Gale smiled and said, "It's okay. I can cover it with a mask."

She got up and left the hospital.

Gale still wanted to go to the company. She had not designed for a long time, and she was itching to draw again.

She also felt a sense of accomplishment, seeing the sales of Lovito booming.

In order not to scare her colleagues, Gale decided to wear a mask every day from now on.

She was about to take the elevator to leave when someone walked by carrying a box of lunch smelling like fresh chicken soup.

Gale's first reaction when she smelled it was... disgust!

Covering her mouth, she walked quickly to the trash can and retched.

After vomiting for a long time, she stopped.

However, Gale's face turned pale at this moment.

It was because this feeling... was no stranger to her! It can even be said to be terrifyingly familiar!

Morning sickness!

When she was pregnant before, she was like this for period of time. She could not smell any greasy smell, and she would throw up when she smelled it. She felt nauseous and could not eat anything.

Her symptoms now are exactly the same as back then!

Moreover, Gale was always tired.

One of the characteristics of pregnancy was lethargy!

“How... no, it’s impossible.” Gale rubbed her belly and muttered to herself.

Chapter 359

“How can it be so fast, the probability of one in ten million...”

“I must be thinking wildly! Definitely!”

However, when she was in Aleria, Dr. William’s words echoed in her ears.

“Mrs. Wood can get pregnant easily.”

“Don’t worry. You will have children.”

“Mr. Wood can conceive even if he is weak, and it should be easier now.”

Gale’s body was shaking. After shaking, she leaned on the wall, feeling weak.

She wanted to stop thinking about it, so she resolved to go to the obstetrics and gynecology department and have an examination soon!

Pregnant women can be seen everywhere in obstetrics. and gynecology.

Those who are about to give birth with a big belly, those who are just pregnant and happy, and those who are accompanied by their husbands...

Gale sat quietly in the corner by herself, looking a little withdrawn.

She did not enter the examination room until the nurse called her name.

The result came quickly.

The doctor looked at her and said, “You’re pregnant. It’s less than a month, and your physical condition is weak. The baby is very likely to die.”

Less than a month...

That was the time when she and Shawn were in the car.

At that time, she had just had a miscarriage.

William really hit the spot. She really can get pregnant easily!

Gale was dumbfounded and distracted.

As she had just lost a child, God gave her another child.

However, she did not want it... She did not want to give Shawn a child!

"Are you going to have this child? You should be careful if you want it. Come to the hospital once a week, and take medicine regularly," the doctor said.

"I..."

Gale opened her mouth but did not know what to say.

She did not want to. Once she had a child, she and Shawn would be inseparable for the rest of their lives!

However, she could not say it.

It was because she could not abort her own child with her own hands.

While waiting for her answer, the doctor flipped through her examination report again. "Did you have a miscarriage?"

"Yes."

"You can't have another miscarriage. If you do so, you may not be able to have another child ever in your life."

"That is to say, if I have another miscarriage, I won't be able to conceive in the future, right?"

"Yes. This in itself is very harmful to the woman's body. You should think about it carefully."

Gale smiled bitterly.

"Don't think about it. I will have this child. No matter what, I will," she said.

Shawn succeeded in impregnating her and tied her down with the child.

He counted on her being soft-hearted and her being decisive in her words. She was indeed reluctant to kill the child in her heart.

Gale bit her lower lip, making a deep mark.

The doctor nodded and said, "Okay. Then you have to remember these precautions...Your situation is very dangerous, and you will have a spontaneous miscarriage if you are not careful."

Gale listened carefully, crossing her hands on her belly.

Inside, a new life was born.

Gale said before leaving, "Doctor, can you do me a favor?"

"What?"

"Keep it a secret for me. I don't want others to know about my pregnancy because...I'm a single mother," Gale said.

The doctor was stunned for a moment, with pity in his eyes. "Okay."

Chapter 360

"Thank you."

Gale clutched the pregnancy test form tightly and walked out.

Fate played a trick on her again.

If she had bought the contraceptive pill and taken it without bumping into Susan that day, she would not have conceived the child.

Although she vaguely guessed that under Shawn's careless touch, she would get pregnant sooner or later.

She had a little bit of luck because she had just had a miscarriage, and her body was weak, so it was not so easy to conceive again.

However, this day came so fast, and the child came so suddenly.

She was pregnant twice, and both times she was pregnant with Shawn's child.

However, this time, she knew exactly who the father of the child was, and she also knew how to protect the child.

She would not let Shawn know that she was pregnant!

Otherwise, she would never even think of escaping from his palm in this life!

At this moment, Gale's thoughts are very clear. She wants to run and leave with the child and depend on each other for life!

Thinking about it from another angle, the arrival of this child was a kind of compensation from God for her.

"Baby, Mommy lost you, and now you are back. You are a gift, the most precious..."

Gale walked on the sidewalk in a daze as she tore up the pregnancy test report and threw it into the trash can. Thoughts were flying through her mind.

"Gale? Gale?"

"Gale?"

The voice rang several times before Gale came back to her senses and looked around.

Who was calling her?

Aurum got down from the back seat of the car and walked in front of her. "It's me."

"Mr. Lefting."

"What's wrong with you? You look absentminded. What did you encounter? Are you in trouble?" Aurum asked with concern.

Gale shook her head. "It's nothing."

She knew that she was not good at lying, and he could see through it at a glance, but that was all she could say.

Aurum has always been considerate and did not push further. "When did you come back from abroad?"

"Yesterday."

"I heard from my subordinates. It's a pity that I could not help you leave," Aurum said.

Gale raised a smile, "It's okay. I'm already very grateful, thank you for your help all the time."

"You're welcome. If you need me later, just ask."

Gale thought of the pregnancy checklist.

She replied, "Okay. I really need Mr. Lefting... to help me leave Sea City and Shawn!"

Aurum did not show any surprise or shock, and he just nodded his head lightly. "Okay."

Gale knew that Aurum was the only one who could help her.

Lucas would not be able to do it, and she did not want to implicate Sam anymore, so Aurum was the best candidate.

Although she never understood why Aurum was willing to help her unconditionally again and again.

Just because she looked like his friend?

Is that all?

Aurum

smiled and eased the atmosphere. "I know you have been wondering why I would unconditionally help you because of your looks... Actually, this is a very long story."

"If you are willing, I will always listen to what you want to say."

Aurum showed a trace of sadness on his face.

"I said before that I want to help you because you look like my friend. In fact, this statement is not accurate. I don't even know what my friend looks like now. Because the last time I saw her, she was only four years old," Aurum said.

Gale was very surprised. "Four years old?"

"Yes, she was four years old at that time, and I was eight. Our two families got together and ordained her to be my future wife. She is very cute, with big eyes and snowy skin. She smiles very sweetly every time she sees me."
