

Skeletons 371

Chapter 371

That was a bad habit.

While eating breakfast, Gale proposed, "I'm going to the company today, and I'm going back to work normally."

"Okay, but there is one request."

"What?"

"Take my car."

Gale replied, "I can take the bus."

"Then I will follow the bus."

Gale was speechless.

Shawn took a sip of coffee slowly. "Of course, there is a second choice."

She asked, "What?"

"Let Pearton send you off."

"Do you really want to arrange a shadow bodyguard for me?"

"Yes. You don't need to worry about him. He will come out naturally when needed."

Gale had a headache.

She was pregnant again, and she would have to leave Sea City sooner or later. She had to leave before her belly showed signs of pregnancy.

What about Pearton?

Was he really going to be implicated, punished, and endured Shawn's thunderous wrath?

"I will take your car," Gale said helplessly.

Shawn smiled.

Gale reached for her bag when going out, but Shawn was one step ahead of her.

Shocked, she quickly grabbed the bag and put it on her back. "What are you doing?"

"Huh? I want to help you."

"I have hands."

Shawn narrowed his eyes slightly. "You seem very nervous."

"No! How can there be! I just don't like people touching my things," Gale replied with a forced calm.

The medicine she was prescribed in the obstetrics and gynecology department of the hospital yesterday was still in her bag!

She did not have time to hide it!

Shawn must not discover this. Otherwise, it will be completely over.

To avoid making Shawn suspicious, Gale quickly got into the car and took the initiative to sit in the co-pilot seat.

Shawn raised his eyebrows deeply, very satisfied with her.

When he arrived at the company, the first thing Gale did was go straight to the bathroom.

She hid in the toilet and put all the pregnancy medicine prescribed by the doctor into vitamin bottles!

She then dumped the original vitamin tablets down the toilet and flushed them down the drain.

Gale breathed a sigh of relief after all this was done.

Now, even if someone saw her taking medicine, they would only think she was taking vitamins.

No one would be suspicious anymore.

“Baby, this time, Mommy will definitely protect you and let you come to this world safely.”

Gale’s current situation was much better than that of her previous pregnancy.

She had good food and slept well. Her nutrition can keep up..

As long as she took good care of the fetus and recuperated her body, the baby would definitely be healthy.

At noon, Gale sent a message to Sam.

“Is it convenient to meet?”

Soon, Sam replied, “Yes, I have something important to tell you.”

“Okay.”

After deciding on the location, Gale left through the company’s back door. It was during the lunch hour, so no one would notice her.

Chapter 372

In a private room in the Tea house.

“Long time no see. Gale, how are you doing all this time? Sam looked at her.

“Oh, that’s old news... let’s just move on.”

“Why did you and Shawn show up at the airport that day?”

“Lucas sent me away, and Shawn personally went to get me back. It just so happened that I met you and Zach,” Gale replied simply.

“The conflict between you and the Wood family has reached such a deep level.”

“Yes.”

The entire Wood family could not tolerate her, but Shawn loved her deeply.

“The way Shawn looks at you is completely different from before. Gale, he seems to be in love with you,” Sam said.

Gale was startled. Can even Sam notice it?

Is Shawn’s love for her so obvious?

Sam could see what she was thinking. “Gale, I’m a man, and men understand men. Besides, Shawn didn’t hide it at all, and I could spot it at a glance.”

Gale smiled bitterly. “What’s the use of his love?”

“If the truth is revealed, there is no hatred between you and Shawn for killing your father. At that time, what do you think will happen?”

Shawn would only love her more!

Without a blood feud and deep hatred, love would be purer and more passionate.

There would be no hindrance!

Gale looked directly into Sam’s eyes. “The day I found out the truth will be the day I leave.”

“You want to leave?”

“Yes. I have to go.”

Gale had already planned her future.

After uncovering the truth and letting her father regain his freedom, she would take the child in her belly and fly far away to an unknown place, give birth to the child, and live her life normally.

Sam nodded. “I support all your decisions.”

“I hope you keep the matter of my departure a secret, and I hope you don’t help me. Otherwise, Shawn will definitely find you when the time comes. Sam, I don’t want to involve you,” Gale said.

“Then how do you go by yourself?”

“I will plan slowly.” Gale changed the subject. “During this time, you were by Zach’s side... Is there anything unusual?”

Sam frowned.

“After I became friends with him, I found that he was basically eating, drinking and having fun, picking up girls in nightclubs, and not doing his job properly. There are a lot of friends who care about what the Wood family thinks of them, and they basically don’t bring up the Wood family,” Sam said.

Gale frowned. “What should we do?”

“But after returning to Sea City, Zach changed a lot, and he began to invite me to work on projects together. I pretended to mention Alex’s death when I was drinking with him two days ago.”

“How did he answer?”

Sam replied truthfully, “Zach said that his father didn’t think highly of him at all, and he left everything to Shawn. Moreover, in a fit of anger, his father said he would not give him a single share of Wood Group, which made him very angry.”

What?

Gale clearly remembered that Shawn said Alex had offered to give half of the shares to Zach!

She immediately grasped the key point and asked, “Did Zach tell you when Alex said he would not give shares?”

Sam replied, “Yes. It was the night before Alex passed away in a car accident. Zach said that at that time, he happened to be with a woman.”

Gale’s mind was running fast.

‘No, that’s not right at all.’

Shawn and Zach’s rhetoric did not match up at all!

One said that Alex would give half of the shares.

One said that Alex would not give him any shares!

Seeing Gale’s serious face, Sam asked, “What’s the matter?”

She expressed her doubts. “Why are the two of them saying the opposite? Who lied?”

Could it be that Shawn was lying to her?

He had no reason to lie to her about it.

The death of Alex was the source of hatred between him and her.

Chapter 373

After a long silence, Sam said, “Maybe, none of them lied. The one who lied... is Alex.”

Gale was startled. “Alex?”

“If I guessed correctly, Alex found Shawn and asked him to give half of the shares to Zach to support his half-brother. However, Shawn is not willing. Alex understands this son’s character and knows this matter needs to be negotiated slowly, and it won’t work out in a while.”

“So Alex planned to approach Shawn first, express his ideas, and then discuss them. Who knew, that night, Zach’s girlfriend was pregnant and got him into trouble. When he told his father, Alex was very angry, and in a fit of anger, he said that he would not give any shares to him, which made Zach feel dissatisfied. Alex’s words made Zach feel ashamed and hopeless.”

“Then the next day... Alex was seriously injured in a car accident. Peter went to the emergency room for treatment, but a medication error hastened Alex’s death.” Sam’s expression was solemn.

After finishing speaking, the whole box fell silent.

After a long while, Gale said, “Is there a possibility that even the car accident was a conspiracy?”

Sam shook his head. “It’s unlikely.”

“Why?”

“How could he fool everyone by causing a car accident? After Alex passed away, Shawn must have sent someone to conduct a careful investigation to make sure it was an accident so that he can pin the fault on Peter.”

Gale digested Sam’s words. “So, the car accident was a sudden event. But Paula and Zach thought it was an opportunity, so they simply became cruel and changed Alex’s medicine, letting him... die.”

“Very likely, the truth is what you just said.”

Gale closed her eyes and sighed. “But...there is no evidence.

“How do I look for evidence?”

Alex had passed away more than two years ago, and there were not many traces of anything.

The doctors and nurses in the hospital had already changed several times.

“You can’t find evidence, Gale. If Zach had left any clues, Shawn would have found out.”

“Then what should we do...”

After a lot of hard work, it was finally becoming clearer.

They were close to the truth, but because there is no evidence. Was their only choice to give up?

“There will be a way. If you want others to be ignorant, you have to do nothing. Gale, don’t be discouraged, * Sam comforted her.

Gale lowered her head. “I was just thinking, even Shawn couldn’t find any evidence, so we...”

“He didn’t expect Zach to go to him, nor did he expect them to have the courage to kill their husband and father. However, we know the two of them are up to something.”

Gale sighed and nodded. “I hope to find a breakthrough.”

“I will continue to probe Zach and contact you at any time if I have any clues.”

“Sam, I was thinking, this matter is too important. It would take a lot of work to find out. I have been thinking about it for the past few days about how I can get the evidence.”

The truth was close at hand, and the murderer had also been identified.

However, they had no evidence....

Gale was very depressed as she left the Tea house.

However, after thinking about it, at least she had made progress, and she was no longer blind.

When Gale was about to wave for a taxi, Pearton suddenly appeared. “Ma’am, I will take you back to the company.”

She was shocked. “You...”

“Ma’am, I’m always here.”

Gale covered her heart, staring at Pearton blankly.

This was the person arranged by Shawn, so she could not hide the fact that she had met Sam today.

“You... have been following me? Staying outside the room? Did you ever leave?” Gale asked.

Then, had Pearton heard the conversation between her and Sam?

Chapter 374

Pearton was like an emotionless robot. “Don’t worry, ma’am. I’m only responsible for your safety, and I won’t intrude on your privacy.”

Gale heaved a sigh of relief.

After thinking about it, she tentatively asked, “Can you not tell Shawn who I met?”

Pearton shook his head. “No.”

“You are my bodyguard, and you should obey me. As long as I am safe, you don’t have to report everything to Shawn,” Gale said.

Pearton replied, “Mr. Wood asked me to report everything.”

This guy was such a hard head.

“Are you sure you want to be on Shawn’s side? Not on my side? I have to find a way to save...” Gale asked.

She covered her mouth.

Pearton’s safety had to be added into her escape plan now.

Gale did not want Pearton’s life to be completely ruined because of her after she left.

The results of it? Pearton still did not listen to her!

"I don't understand. You still want to leave," Pearton replied.

"I didn't say that!"

Pearton looked at her and said, "Ma'am, just follow your own heart, don't worry about mine."

Gale asked, "Aren't you afraid of punishment?"

"Punishment is because I didn't do good deeds, and I should bear it." Well, this person was really stubborn.

Gale walked to the car. "Okay, take me back to the company."

On the way, she inquired about Pearton's personal situation.

She discovered... Pearton was actually quite miserable.

Both of his parents died when he was a child, and he lived with his grandmother. Later, his grandmother also passed away, and he came to Sea City alone to wander.

He lived under the overpass, turned over trash cans, and moved bricks on the construction site.

Finally, because he was tall and strong, he was recruited by the Wood family's bodyguard team, so he had food, drink, and shelter.

What happened to Pearton reminded Gale of the time when she was down and out.

She suddenly felt a little more sympathetic.

Such a person had to do his best just to live. How could she let him be punished?

Gale also understood that Shawn deliberately chose a person with a miserable life experience to arouse her sympathy.

He could always count on her to be soft-hearted.

When getting out of the car, Gale asked, "If one day I really ran away under your nose, would you hate me?"

Chaite

Well, Gale thought, on the day she ran away, she might as well knock Pearton into a coma or stun him and let him stay out of it completely.

She returned to the office, and as soon as she sat down, she received a call from Paula.

Hesitating for a few seconds, Gale answered, "Hello?"

"Gale, I'm at the coffee shop opposite your company. Do you dare to come and see me?" Paula said.

"Are you using aggressive tactics?"

Chapter 375

“Hehe, it’s just to meet and chat. Now you are the treasure of Shawn’s heart. Even if I have a hundred guts, I won’t touch you.”

Gale replied, “Alright, I’ll be right over.”

Although she knew what Paula’s purpose was, as the saying goes, “If you don’t enter the tiger’s den, you won’t catch the tiger’s cub.”

If she wanted to find the truth, she would have to get in close contact with Paula and Zach.

Only after talking a lot can she find a breakthrough this way!

Gale was late for the appointment.

Before entering the coffee shop, Gale called tentatively, “Pearton?”

In the corner, Pearton quickly appeared. “Ma’am.”

“It’s nothing. It’s good that you are here.” she smiled.

By the window, Paula and Zach were both there.

Zach’s eyes kept looking at her from head to toe, which was very uncomfortable.

Gale sat down opposite. “I’m here. What do you guys want to talk to me about? Just be direct and don’t beat around the bush.”

Zach stared at her. “I really don’t know why Shawn is so taken with you. You’re not even that pretty. Why is Shawn so obsessed with you?”

Gale choked back, “What is it to you? Mind your own business.”

“Yo, you’re fiery. Maybe Shawn just likes it.”

Zach’s face was full of contempt.

He could easily find a prettier woman than Gale in the nightclub.

Shawn must not have met a woman for a long time. That was why he was fascinated by this fiery woman.

Paula said, “Let’s get down to business. Gale, tell me, what can I do to get you to divorce Shawn?”

Gale raised her eyebrows. “Are you here to persuade me to divorce? Are you sure?”

Did she hear correctly?

Paula and her son should hope that she would not divorce. In this case, they can use this to make a big fuss, saying that Shawn had wronged the ancestors of the Wood family and was obsessed with beauty.

“Yes, we are all thinking about the Wood family. You are an enemy of the Wood family. You can charm. Shawn, but not us!” Zach said.

“Heh, what is your endgame here!”

Zach insisted, "For the sake of the Wood family, we must drive you away!"

Gale corrected him, "Wrong, you are trying to force me away, and then Shawn will definitely go around crazy looking for me. He will completely tear you apart and turn the world upside down. At that time, you can take the opportunity to say that Shawn has lost his mind because of me and is not suitable to be the head of the Wood family!"

Gale saw through them.

Full of benevolence, righteousness, and morality, they are actually planning for themselves!

Zach was stunned. He did not expect Gale to guess it so quickly.

Gale sneered, "I'm right. This is your purpose!"

"Yes... so what?" Zach did not hide it and simply admitted, "Gale, you'd better be sensible! Although Shawn loves you, you are nothing!"

"Yes. Besides, you are still the Wood family's father-killing enemy, and there will always be a blood feud between you," Paula said.

"Why don't we cooperate, Gale? We'll give you a sum of money, and you take the money and fly away and never come back. No matter what happens after the Wood family, it has nothing to do with you!"

"How much do you want? Let me make a price, and I will not treat you badly. It is definitely an amount that you will never earn in your life!"

"This is your best way out, and you must be content as a human being. You can't really hold on to the position of the young mistress of the Wood family.

Paula and Zach cooperated very well.

Looking at them, Gale just thought it was funny. They really looked like two clowns.

Chapter 376

She thought about it and deliberately asked, "How much are you willing to fork out?"

Paula and Zach looked at each other.

After a while, Zach asked, "How much do you want? Say the number."

Gale spread seven fingers.

"Seven million?" Zach stood up suddenly. "Gale, you really are a shark!"

"Wrong."

"Fifty million?"

Gale smiled slightly. "Seven hundred million."

Zach's face changed drastically. "You... you're such a thief!"

He was a little agitated, and his voice raised unconsciously, causing the people next to him to look this way.

Paula was also shocked. "Gale, you really dare to ask for it."

Seven hundred million was an astronomical figure that they could not imagine.

That was wealth that only Shawn and Lucas possessed!

Seeing everyone looking at this side, Gale simply started acting.

Gale looked aggrieved and pitiful, with tears in his eyes. "My husband and I really love each other. I don't know what offended you that you insist on breaking us up..."

"I can leave, you can transfer the money to my account, and I will leave as soon as I get it, and I promise. not to look back!"

"After all, my husband and I are in love, and I can't live without him..." The surrounding crowd all looked like they were watching a show.

"Is this filming, or is it real?"

"It seems to be true. The mother-in-law paid this woman to leave her son."

"How much?"

"Do you think this woman will agree?"

Paula and Zach did not expect Gale to behave like this, and they were dumbfounded.

After a while, it was Paula who came to his senses first. "Gale, you... don't be hypocritical!"

Gale shrugged. "Anyway, that is my price. Can you give it to me?"

"Seven hundred million, you're dreaming!"

Gale asked, "Isn't Shawn worth more? You want me to leave him. How can I do it without bleeding? Don't you think that the position of the head of the Wood family is not worth more than that?"

She knew that Paula could not possibly have so much money.

Even if there were, they would be absolutely reluctant to take it out.

"You guys are funny. Brought a pen to a knife fight. It's okay, I can give you time to think about it.

Contact

me anytime you are done thinking about it. By the way, I'll give you my bank account number," Gale said.

She spoke casually and picked up a pen, scribbling down a string of bank card numbers. "I will wait for your news. I'll leave right away when the money is in place. You can't even get me to slow down."

Let's see who can beat who.

The pair's behavior was lowly. They thought about the position of the head of the Wood family all day long, and wanted to be in charge of the Wood group so much!

In particular, Gale hated them even more when he thought that they might be the ones who killed Alex and planted the blame on his own father!

Paula's face changed. "Wait."

Gale smiled. "Huh? Is there anything else?"

Chapter 377

"Are you sure, as long as I get seven hundred million, you will leave? Do you not regret it?"

"Yes."

"Didn't you keep saying that you and Shawn really love each other? Can it be measured by money?"

Gale replied, "We really love each other, but if you offer too much money, I can't refuse."

After finishing speaking, she turned around gracefully.

After taking two steps, Gale stopped and froze in place.

She saw Shawn standing there. His eyes fell on her. His face was very ugly.

How long was he standing there?

Had he heard the whole conversation?

"Seven hundred million?" Shawn took a step forward and walked in front of her. "In your heart, I'm worth seven hundred million?"

Well, he had heard it.

Gale swallowed her saliva. "This is a lot of money... Paula can't even get it out."

Shawn narrowed his eyes deeply. "So, if someone can get it out, you will agree to leave?"

"I want to leave even if I don't get any money, let alone that amount."

His face instantly became terribly gloomy.

Shawn raised his hand, pulled Gale to his side, and cast a hard look at Zach.

Most people simply cannot bear this glance.

Shawn, I..."

"Stop playing such shady tricks. You can't even get seven hundred million, yet you had the guts to try to bribe her to leave?" Shawn said.

“You defend her so much, but she is willing to get the money and leave. Shawn, I am helping you to test her. This kind of woman loves vanity and only has money in her eyes, so she is not worthy at all.”

*F*ck you!”

“Yes, that’s right. We are here for the Wood family, and we will also help you see Gale’s true colors...” Paula also said immediately.

Shawn said coldly, “I have tolerated you playing this kind of trick twice. If there is a third time, you two will disappear from Sea City completely!”

He had a strong aura, and his eyes were full of hostility and hatred.

After spitting the cruel words, Shawn dragged Gale deeply and left the coffee shop.

Paula and Zach dared not to say a word and walked away in despair.

Shawn walked fast without looking back. Gale had to trot to keep up with him.

She struggled a few times. “Let me go. I will walk by myself.”

However, he tightened the grip instead.

When he returned to his office, Shawn kicked the door open with such a loud bang that the whole floor seemed to shake.

Fiona came forward and carefully closed the door.

It’s over. It’s over. Mr. Wood and his wife are in another world war!

“Shawn, what are you doing!” Gale finally shook off him, looking at her red wrist. “Why are you so aggressive!”

Looking at the red mark on her wrist, Shawn knew that he had done it.

Distressed emotions flashed by.

However, he was angry and could not calm down.

“Why are you going to see them? Huh? Seven hundred million, I’m worth seven hundred million in your heart?” Shawn asked.

Gale looked at him. “Mr. Wood, you may feel it’s a small sum, but for 99.9% of the people in the world. This is a huge sum of money, an astronomical figure!”

Chapter 378

“So? You can leave me without hesitation for money?”

Gale laughed angrily. “Why are you losing your temper, and why are you jealous? I just said that I don’t need money to leave you.”

“Gale!”

She continued, “Besides, Paula and her son can’t afford it. I’m just teasing them and acting. Why take it so seriously?”

Yes.

Of course, Shawn was serious.

When he watched her say those words lightly, his heart ached.

Although he knew that her greatest wish was to get a divorce and then fly away, he was still unwilling to face it and admit it.

Gale bit her lips. “Taking a step back, even if I really leave you for seven hundred million dollars, it’s only human. How many women can refuse such a huge sum of money? Or do you think that love is more important than money?”

“Don’t think too highly of yourself, Shawn. How good are you to me? How sincere are you to me? Have you loved me unreservedly from the very beginning? If you can actually do that and love me sincerely and truly, I, Gale, don’t need money to be with you. I’d even live a hard life with you.”

“But you’re not worth it...you hurt me so deeply. You’re not worth it!”

Shawn stared at her, his hands hanging by his sides and could not help but clench tightly into fists.

“Gale, I know that you deliberately made things difficult for Zach, and you didn’t want to take the money. Why can’t you be softer and explain to me patiently, okay...coax me?”

Men also needed coaxing.

The same goes for Shawn.

Although he understood that the emotional entanglement between him and Gale would not cause a rift because of the so-called ‘seven hundred million’, he hoped she could coax him and say it was just a joke.

However, Gale did not.

Every word and every word of hers was so tough that it turned into a sharp knife, cutting into his heart!

Gale turned her head away, not looking at him. “I don’t know how to coax, and I never coax anyone.”

Shawn tugged on his tie annoyedly, turned around, and did not look at her..

He was afraid that he would not be able to control himself and do things that would hurt her!

The office suddenly fell silent.

Gale also felt that she...was quite cheap.

Well done, talking about seven hundred million like they were in some TV drama plot. It’s a complete waste of saliva and time with Zach.

If she had known earlier, she might as well have steered the topic to Alex's death.

Maybe she could have found new clues and had unexpected gains.

After thinking for a while, Gale muffled, "Zach's ultimate goal is to know that after I leave you, you will definitely look for my whereabouts everywhere, thus making the conflict with Lucas even worse. At that time, he will take advantage of the chaos, infiltrate the Wood Group and gain support."

"Shawn, I want to remind you that you must guard against them. Don't be used by them because of me and take advantage of their loopholes."

"Leaving aside our personal grievances, you are a very successful entrepreneur, and no one is more suitable than you to be in charge of the Wood Group."

"You...shouldn't and can't lose at the hands of that kind of person."

After saying that, she walked to the door.

Shawn's voice came, "Since you know that once you leave, I will frantically look for you at all costs, regardless of everyone's obstruction... Then, Gale, can you not leave?"

Gale's footsteps stopped.

"As long as you don't leave, no one or anything can threaten me. Gale, you are my one and only weakness."

The one and only..

How deadly.

Chapter 379

In the past, Paula and Zach could not find a way to deal with him.

It was because Shawn was so strong and invincible.

Gale did not make a sound, and after a few seconds, she continued to walk toward the door.

"The more you want to leave, the more impossible it is for me to let you go. No one can take you away from me," Shawn said. The door was gently closed, separating the two of them.

Shawn punched the table.

Elevator entrance.

"Pearton," Gale called softly.

"Ma'am."

"You informed Shawn, right?" she asked.

Pearton shook his head. "No."

Gale was a little surprised. "You did not say? Then how did he know?"

“Ma’am, I did not report to Mr. Wood, who you met. I am just here to ensure your safety,” Pearton replied.

Gale looked at him and felt that this person was quite reliable.

She nodded, walked into the elevator, and picked up her phone at the same time.

She sent Zach a message.

“I can leave Shawn, but I need to ask you one thing. As long as your answer satisfies me, I can cooperate with you to do whatever you want.”

Gale decided to focus on attacking Zach.

Mostly because Sam could help her.

Secondly, Zach was rather stupid, and not as strategic as Paula.

Paula was old and had seen a lot of the world, so it was not easy to fool her.

Soon, Zach replied, “Yes. What do you want to know?”

“Make an appointment. Let’s meet and chat.”

At the same time, Gale forwarded the message to Sam.

‘Let’s uncover the truth bit by bit from Zach!’

In her heart, she had already thought of a plan, but... this plan was quite risky and exciting!

In Temperley Hall.

The dinner was very sumptuous, but Gale had no appetite.

Pregnancy caused her to not want to eat anything, but occasionally there were some intense cravings!

“I’m done eating. I will go back to the room to catch up on the design draft.” She reluctantly ate a small bowl of rice.

She had delayed a lot of progress these days and wanted to make up for it quickly.

Back in the room, Gale opened the bag and took out the pregnancy medicine.

Just as she was pouring it into her hand, Shawn’s voice suddenly rang out. “What are you taking?”

Gale shook her hand, and all the pills spilled out.

The small white pills fell to the feet.

Shawn walked over, bent down and picked up one, and squeezed it between his fingertips.

“I...I’m taking vitamins.” Gale quickly calmed down. “Is there a problem?” she said, shaking the bottle in her hand.

Fortunately, she had already swapped them out. Otherwise, she would have revealed her secrets now. "Vitamins?"

"Yes, the doctor said I have a vitamin deficiency, so I usually take some supplements."

"Then what are you afraid of?"

"You sprung up on me suddenly. I thought you were still eating."

Gale tried hard to keep calm, squatted down, and threw the pills into the trash can. "It's a pity. I have to buy it again."

Shawn glanced at the empty bottle in her hand. "I'll buy it for you tomorrow."

Chapter 380

"No, I can buy it myself."

"You really need to replenish your body. We are preparing for pregnancy after all," Shawn said.

Gale looked up at him.

"This weekend, I'll take you to the hospital for a comprehensive physical examination. Take care of yourself," Shawn said again.

Gale immediately objected, "I won't go."

"Why?"

"I...I don't like hospitals. I feel bad when I smell disinfectant," she replied.

"Just go for a physical examination."

Gale could not help becoming nervous.

If Shawn insisted on taking her for a checkup, then her pregnancy would definitely be exposed!

Knowing that she was pregnant, he would definitely keep her by his side, limit her possibility of escaping, and... the child would also belong to him!

Gritting her teeth, Gale turned her back to him. "Shawn, do you know that every time I go to the hospital, I always think of that dead child? Especially if you take me to the hospital yourself, it will remind me even more so. I feel scared! I have trauma!"

There was silence behind him.

"I know it myself. Now I have food and drink, much better than when I was in the mental hospital, and my body is recovering faster. Besides, I have survived such difficult days. I have these fine clothes and fine food now. I don't have a problem."

Gale did not know whether Shawn would believe it. She was not sure.

However, she could not say any more.

If she said too much, it would appear that she was covering up.

While she felt frightened, her back felt warm, and she fell into Shawn's arms.

"Gale, I really want to have a child with you."

Shawn's voice was hoarse and deep.

"You want to, and I don't want to. Don't always force your wishes on me!" Gale replied.

"But I only want your child."

Gale was surprised. "My child"

"Well, I will only have children with you. If you don't want to, then... I will never have children," Shawn said.

"Shawn, do you know what you are talking about?"

He continued, "I know, I have thought about it. Since you are so unwilling, then don't give birth. It's up to you. We are not just put on earth to reproduce anyway."

Gale bit her lower lip.

Ordinary men must have children to continue the incense and carry on the family line.

What more of Shawn, who lives in a wealthy family?

However, he told her personally that if she did not want a child, then don't!

He was able to compromise!

"Pregnancy is hard and tiring. It will cause great damage to the body and accelerate aging..."

Shawn rubbed against her neck lightly. "I will let you be young and beautiful forever so that you will suffer less."

Gale kept saying, "Shawn, you made a mistake. It's not that I don't want to have a baby. It's that I don't want to give birth to your baby!"

His breathing paused slightly, and his arms tightened unconsciously.

He felt a little hurt.

"You don't want to give birth to my baby. Others can't get what I can't have!" Shawn said.

Gale wanted to say something, but he sealed her lips tightly.

He kissed her so deeply and urgently that Gale was almost out of breath, her legs were weak, and she could not stand still, so she could only lean on him.

Shawn did not want to hear her hurtful words!

He will be sad, angry, and unable to restrain himself from doing things that hurt her!

He may not be able to stop himself from hurting her hard.

“Shawn...uh...”

Gale opened her mouth to speak, but it gave him an opportunity.

She was breathless from the kiss, and her cheeks were flushed.

When Shawn finally let go of her, her lips were even redder. 1

“Gale, Dr. William said that you can get pregnant easily.” He hooked his lips and smiled. “Maybe we will have good news in the near future.”
