

Skeletons 401

Chapter 401

It seems to be the first time Shawn told her he loved her.

Unfortunately, it was under such circumstances.

Gale brushed his hand away. "It doesn't matter if you love me or not. The truth has hit you hard, so take it easy and think about how to solve it. I will take my leave."

She turned around and walked toward the door without looking back.

There was a faint fragrance in the air, and now it hurt so much to smell it.

Even after a candlelight dinner, there was only bitterness in his mouth.

It was even more impossible to lie on that big bed covered with rose petals...

Just half an hour ago, Shawn was still imagining falling into the petals with her.

At this moment, Shawn could only stand where he was, watching her walk away from him, step by step.

He wanted to catch her and stop her, but the logical part of him told him that he could not do that.

The more he tried to hold on, the more he would lose.

She walked past the door and closed it, cutting herself off from Shawn's sight.

He was inside, and she was outside.

Gale walked toward the elevator, suddenly raised her lips, and laughed as tears fell.

She raised her hand to wipe, but the more she wiped, the more tears fell.

"Dad, Mom, I finally did something for you. I finally cleared up the Warm family's name..."

However, she was very tired.

Back at the Temperley Hall, the housekeeper greeted her and looked behind her. "Ma'am, you came back alone?"

Where is Mr. Wood?"

Gale shook her head. "I don't know."

Maybe he went to Wood Mansion.

Maybe he needed time to calm down.

After all, the person who killed his father was his half-brother and his stepmother...

He hated and punished the wrong person.

"Ma'am, you don't look right." The housekeeper asked intimately, "Did something happen to you?"

"Well, it's a good thing..."

"A good thing?"

Gale looked at the housekeeper. "Yes, the murderer who killed Alex Wood has been found."

The housekeeper was surprised. "And?"

Gale replied, "It was Paula and Zach who changed the injection vial. The injection caused Alex Wood's death, but they blamed my father!"

After hearing this, the housekeeper sighed and clasped his hands together. "There is no impenetrable wall in the world, and our master's spirit in the heavens can also rest in peace..."

Over the years, the housekeeper has suffered a lot.

He realized that Dr. Warm might be wrongly blamed, but he had no evidence, and he had no identity or status, so no one would believe what he said.

Therefore, when Gale lived in Temperley Hall, the housekeeper tried his best to protect Gale to ease his conscience.

The housekeeper said, "Ma'am, I'm sorry. I couldn't help you, even knowing that you were a victim, and..."

Gale interrupted him. "No need to apologize. I don't blame you. You didn't do anything wrong. The reason why Zach's mother and son were able to be found out is also thanks to the clues you provided."

Then, she closed her eyes. "I'll go back to my room to rest first."

"Okay."

Back in the bedroom, Gale almost fell asleep as soon as her head touched the pillow.

Sleeping in a daze, half dreaming and half awake, she felt that it was always dark outside the window.
It was still dark.

She did not know how long it took, but she felt a warm current slowly flowing from her body...

Was it her period?

Gale subconsciously thought so.

However, after a few seconds, Gale suddenly sat up from the bed.

She was pregnant. How could it be her period?

Chapter 402

She looked down and saw a smear of bright red blood on the bed sheet.

Blood!

Gale gasped. Her heart almost stopped in fright!

She grabbed the bed sheet suddenly and hurriedly got up, wanting to go to the hospital. However, she could not stand firmly because her legs were weak, and she fell back on the bed.

Her two children must be saved!

Gale grabbed the phone and dialed Dr. Lighton with trembling hands. "It's me, Gale..."

"Hello, Mrs. Wood."

"Help me. I'm bleeding... what should I do?" Gale said.

Dr. Lighton quickly became nervous. "Mrs. Wood, lie down now and don't move. Call an ambulance!

"I can't hide my pregnancy if I go to a hospital!"

Gale gripped the phone vigorously, and her fingertips turned white.

There was a burst of pain in the lower abdomen, and the blood flowed even more.

She was so scared.

It seemed that the children were slowly leaving her body.

"I understand. Wait a moment. Lie down first, and I'll make arrangements!" Dr. Lighton said.

"Okay."

This was the only way.

Gale lay down again, not daring to move. A few rays of light slowly leaked out from the window.

She kept praying, holding her lower abdomen. "Babies, don't go, don't leave Mommy... Soon we will be able to leave and live a free life. You must persevere. Stay with Mommy."

Gale bit her lip, waiting for the rescuers to arrive.

Finally, the sound of running footsteps came from outside.

'Someone is coming!'

"Bang!" The door was kicked open, and Summer's voice sounded. "Gale, I'm here!"

Summer ran to the bed quickly, sweating profusely. "How do you feel? Can you walk? Come on. I'll support you. The car is below!"

Gale struggled to get up, her face turning pale.

She wanted to persevere until she got in the car, but she was really weak.

As soon as she walked out of the door of the master bedroom, her eyes went dark.

Gale fainted.

"Gale!" The last thing that echoed in her ears was Summer's panicked voice.

The housekeeper hurried over. "Ma'am, what's wrong?"

Summer looked at him very warily but did not answer.

At this time, Dr. Lighton's figure appeared at the stairs, and he carried Gale on his back without saying a word and left quickly.

Summer followed behind.

The car sped away and soon disappeared from Temperley

Hall.

"Is there something going on with her tonight? Can the baby be kept? This time, she is pregnant with twins!" Summer asked worriedly.

Dr. Lighton pursed his lips. "I will do my best."

Summer clung to him. "You must do your best!"

Dr. Lighton looked down at her hand and nodded.

When he arrived at the hospital, Gale was pushed directly into the operating room, where Dr. Lighton performed the surgery himself.

Summer was so anxious that she walked around the door, talking non-stop...

“What should I do? If she loses her child again, Gale will definitely go crazy!”

“How can she bear such a big trauma again.”

“Shawn is really a scumbag, a huge scumbag. Doesn’t he know how to take preventive measures?”

“She just had a miscarriage, and now she is pregnant again. It hurts her body.”

“Ah!”

Summer turned around and bumped into someone. The buttons on his suit jacket pressed hard into her forehead, causing her to yell out in pain subconsciously.

Chapter 403

When she looked up and saw that the person in front of her was Shawn, she screamed again.

“Ah!!!”

Shawn just glanced at her coldly.

“When did you arrive? Why don’t you make a sound as you walk?!” Summer asked.

As long as Shawn heard a word she just muttered just now, it would be over!

Summer waited in fear for Shawn’s answer.

Fortunately, Shawn just asked, “How is Gale?”

He looked haggard, with blue stubble on his chin, and his voice was very hoarse.

He looked like he stayed up all night and did not sleep all night.

“In... in the operating room. No... no news yet,” Summer replied stammeringly.

Shawn frowned deeply and looked at the two closed doors with worried eyes.

As soon as he got the news, he rushed over immediately.

That night, he stayed in the hotel, watching the surveillance cameras of the house repeatedly.

He did not rush here until he heard that Gale had entered the hospital.

How did she have an accident?

Seeing Shawn's deep silence and calm expression,

Summer was furious.

Gale and the babies are suffering inside!

Why was this man so calm?

As long as he showed a little sadness, he could get most of the sympathy and understanding! That was all it took!

"Mr. Wood, can you let Gale go? Since you appeared in her world, she hasn't had a good day! It's becoming a habit of hers to go into the hospital!" she said.

"Can you act like a man? If you can't protect her, then leave her. Most men are willing to protect her!"

"It doesn't matter whether Sam is a childhood sweetheart or Aurum is her first love. They are all gentle and considerate, always giving selflessly... What about you? What have you done? You have done nothing good besides controlling Gale and causing her to suffer continuously!"

"If this continues, will her body be able to bear it? You're only in your twenties, and you're in your prime!"

Summer kept talking, and Shawn did not refute nor even show a trace of hostility. Nothing.

He was pretty docile.

It made Summer feel that what she said was boring, so she stopped.

Finally, the door of the operating room opened, and Dr. Lighton came out.

Shawn and Summer stepped forward at the same time.

"How is Gale?" both of them said in unison.

Dr. Lighton looked at the two of them.

"Speak up. I'm so anxious. Is it good or not?" Summer spoke in her usual quick temper.

She kept winking at Dr. Lighton.

Dr. Lighton understood.

"Fortunately, she came to the hospital in time. There is nothing serious as of now. However, she needs to stay in the hospital for half a month to recuperate," Dr. Lighton said.

Summer breathed a sigh of relief.

The babies were saved, and hospitalization should be good care of the fetus.

However, Shawn did not know what had happened.

He asked, "What's wrong with her? Why was there... blood on the sheet she was sleeping on before going to the hospital?"

Summer started winking again.

"Eh..."

Dr. Lighton rolled his eyes and started to make up a story.

"Mrs. Wood... she is... well, it's her menstrual period. She was getting severe cramps."

Shawn's expression was startled. "It was only her period. Why did she need to go to the hospital for surgery?"

"She has severe dysmenorrhea. Maybe it's because she had a miscarriage before, and there are more complications. This time I suggested that she be hospitalized in the hopes, she would rest and recuperate well. Otherwise, every menstrual period in the future will cause her to die of pain."

Shawn, being a man, had little knowledge of this aspect.

Chapter 404

Dr. Lighton was really convincing.

Moreover, it was because of a miscarriage that Gale was so weak physically, and he blamed himself even more.

The nurse pushed the hospital bed out. Shawn was about to step forward, but Summer hurriedly stopped him. "Hey, don't get close. You are a family member. Go and complete the hospitalization paperwork. What are you standing around for?"

Shawn could only look at Gale from a distance.

He would need to complete the paperwork before coming to accompany her.

Seeing Shawn's figure disappear at the end of the corridor, Summer hurriedly asked, "Is the child safe?"

"Well, I'm here, don't worry."

"Of course, with my senior's superb medical skills, even a barren woman can become pregnant!"

Dr. Lighton could not laugh or cry. "Stop praising me so much.”

Summer laughed. “Anyway, it’s right to praise you. Will Gale’s child be born smoothly?”

Dr. Lighton’s expression suddenly became serious.

He lowered his voice, “The situation is a bit complicated.

It is possible to keep it, but it’s a very slim chance. The pregnant woman needs to be positive and happy, and not suffer any kind of psychological pressure, and at the same time receive medical assistance...”

“So basically, there can’t be any accidents during the nine months of pregnancy?”

“Yes.”

Summer was worried. “I’m afraid that Shawn will do something which will make Gale emotionally unstable... Forget it. I’ll go to the ward to see her first.”

As soon as she arrived at the ward, Shawn came in before she could sit down.

“Mr. Wood, don’t you need to go to the company? Today is a work day,” Summer said.

“Aren’t you going to the company?”

Summer had an idea. “I... um, I’m asking for leave!”

“Who did you ask for leave from?”

“Joe!”

Shawn said flatly, “I disapprove of your leave. You go back to the company now.”

Summer had question marks all over her head.

“Leave this to me. I’ll wait for her to wake up,” he said.

“She doesn’t want to see you when she wakes up.”

Shawn pulled out a chair and sat down. “She still wants me to watch her for the rest of her life.”

Summer was speechless.

“Get out. I want to stay with her quietly for a while,”

Shawn said.

Summer was reluctant, but Shawn’s eyes were sharp, and she could not bear it. In addition, she still had lots of work.

She sent a message to Dr. Lighton and gave a lot of advice. before leaving.

Shawn just quietly stood by the bedside.

Gale woke up slowly and gradually regained consciousness.

She thought about red, blood, and children...

“My child!” She sat up suddenly, gasping for breath, pressing her hands on her lower abdomen, and kept chanting, “My child... ..”

Gale stared at the white wall with empty eyes.

“Gale, Gale, what child?” Shawn’s deep magnetic voice sounded.

Gale froze and slowly turned to look at the man beside him.

Shawn!

Why was he here!

“Gale, what were you talking about just now?” Shawn asked.

Gale’s heart skipped a beat, and she quickly explained, No, I... I didn’t say anything.”

“I heard it.”

She gritted her teeth. “I dreamed about the aborted child.

I feel upset. The child has come into my dream several times.”

Chapter 405

This explanation convinced Shawn, and he did not continue to ask.

Gale breathed a sigh of relief and quickly changed the subject, “Why are you here? Where is Summer?”

“She’s back to the company, and I’ll be with you. Is there anything else you feel uncomfortable about?
Call Dr.

Lighton,” Shawn replied.

He rang the bell.

Dr. Lighton came in in a white coat, elegantly.

“Mrs. Wood, your menstrual period is usually irregular, isn’t it? Fortunately, you were sent to the hospital in time. Before the next menstrual period, remember to take medicine in advance to relieve the pain,” Dr. Lighton said.

Gale blinked and understood Dr. Lighton’s meaning almost immediately.

“Yes, every time I have it, it hurts like hell. In addition, the miscarriage hurt my body, and now the pain is even worse.”

“This is not curable. Yes, it can only be relieved. Try both Eastern and Western medicine. However, Eastern medicine is very bitter. Can you take it?”

Gale replied, “No matter how bitter it is, I will drink it for the sake of my body.”

“Okay. Then I’m going to prescribe medicine. You’ll be hospitalized for half a month to recuperate and continue to take medicine after you’ve adjusted well.”

After Dr. Lighton finished speaking, he gave the nurse next to him some orders.

Shawn frowned tightly beside him.

Her body was worse than he imagined.

The two years of dark life in the mental hospital have already ruined her body, plus the miscarriage...

He would need at least a year and a half to take good care of her.

“Shawn.” Gale suddenly called his name.

“Huh? I’m here,” he replied.

“You go and get the medicine for me. The Eastern medicine needs to be cooked, so make sure it’s not burned.”

She ordered him around very naturally.

Shawn was not impatient at all. On the contrary, he was quite useful.

He was happy to be able to do something for her!

Shawn immediately followed the nurse and left the ward.

Dr. Lighton could not help but sigh. “It’s rare to see. Not everyone can order Mr. Wood to do things.”

“If I don’t send him away, how can I ask about my child’s condition?”

Gale gently stroked her belly in her hands. Her whole body exuded the light of maternal love.

“Both children are here, so they are saved.”

“Thank you, Dr. Lighton.”

“You should not rush to thank me.” Dr. Lighton flipped through the medical records. “Mrs. Wood, your situation is not ideal.”

Gale’s heart raised again. “What’s the matter?”

“I think we can definitely take care of you and your children in this period of time. But in the future, you need to come to the hospital once a week because your pregnancy is very unstable. There is a possibility of miscarriage at any time.”

“You must be very careful not to be overly happy or sad, not to fluctuate emotionally too much, and to keep your movements as small as possible when walking and going up and down stairs. You’ll be lying on the bed for months.

“Only in this way can the child be kept. Otherwise, in the slightest accident, the child may be lost.”

Gale’s lips turned pale, and she bit her lips tightly. She could not accept it for a while.

“I need to lie in bed for half a year... Is my body that weak?”

Dr. Lighton replied, “It is not suitable for you to have another child in the next two years to begin with. Not only that, you are pregnant with twins, so you must be more cautious.”

“I understand.”

“I will continue to help you keep it a secret. But, I don’t think Mr. Wood can be kept in the dark for long.”

Gale bitterly twitched the corners of her mouth. “Yes, I need to lie in bed for half a year to protect my pregnancy. How could I hide it?”

Dr. Lighton pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose. “Let’s think.”

Half an hour later, Shawn came back.

Chapter 406

He was holding a bowl of Eastern medicine.

As soon as he entered the door, Gale smelled the smell of medicine, and her stomach suddenly churned.

She immediately bent over and leaned over the bedside to retch.

Shawn walked quickly to her side and patted her on the back.

After two or three minutes, Gale slowly stopped retching.

When she looked up, she found that Shawn's eyes were looking at him... somewhat complicatedly.

She felt guilty, dared not look back at him for long, and immediately moved away.

"Gale, your appearance reminds me of when you were pregnant. At that time, you would retch like this almost every day," Shawn said.

Gale immediately explained, "Every time I smell that medicine, I feel sick."

"I know you are still on your period. How could you possibly have a child."

After a few seconds of pause, Shawn added in a low voice, "Although I really hope that you are already pregnant."

Gale just pretended she did not hear it.

Shawn picked up a spoonful of the medicine and blew at it lightly. "It's cooling down. Hold your nose and finish it in one gulp."

She frowned. "It's so bitter..."

"I'm going to put some candy in your mouth after you drink it."

"It's not easy being a woman. I want to be a man in my next life. No period, no pregnancy, no children, no medicine." Gale sighed.

As soon as she ended, suddenly, Shawn raised his head deeply and took a sip of the medicine.

Gale was startled. "You..."

"I drank it too, and it was really bitter. Do you feel better now?" Shawn said.

She blinked and was stunned.

"From now on, every time you drink medicine, I will take a sip and suffer with you."

Shawn wiped the corner of his mouth and handed the medicine to her mouth.

He did not know what to do to relieve her pain, and he could only use this stupid way.

In love, no matter how wise, clever, and resourceful

Shawn was, there was nothing he could do.

Gale pinched her nose and drank the medicine in one gulp. As she swallowed it, a strawberry -flavored candy was stuffed into her mouth.

Shawn had already gotten up and taken the medicine bowl away, fearing the smell would infect her.

How thoughtful.

Unfortunately, she was not blessed to enjoy it.

“Have you gone home?” Gale looked at his back. “Have you seen Zach?”

“You still don’t know how to deal with it? You can procrastinate and wait, but I don’t have the time. Every day has been torture for the past two years. I want to end it quickly and take my dad out of prison,” Gale said.

“I’ll make arrangements.

“I want my dad to come out of prison in a dignified way. It’s your family who owes him an apology and an explanation. His career as a doctor and his reputation are all ruined in the hands of the Wood family!”

Gale was a little agitated and felt a little pain in her stomach.

She bit her lip and suppressed her temper abruptly.

‘For the sake of the child, calm down, calm down...’

Shawn turned his back to her and tilted his head slightly. “Gale, what kind of compensation do you want?”

“No compensation will work.”

“But you have to give the Wood family a chance to make up for it.”

Gale replied slowly, “What I want has always been justice.

Chapter 407

“Okay, I’ll give it to you,” Shawn replied deeply.

“The sooner, the better.”

She really could not afford to wait.

She must leave Sea City as soon as possible, find a place with beautiful mountains and rivers, and take care of her baby.

Once Shawn found out that she was pregnant, not only would she not be able to leave, but the child would be left in the Wood family to be raised as an heir.

Gale did not want glory and wealth, and she only wanted her child to be safe and happy!

How terrible was the idea of miscarriage?

In Wood Mansion.

Paula was still drinking tea leisurely when Zach ran in with a panicked face.

Zach pulled her up. “Mom, something has happened, something has happened, hurry up. Let’s run away together. We can’t stay here any longer!”

Paula said inexplicably, “What’s the matter? Hey hey, slow down. My old bones can’t take it!”

“If you slow down, you won’t be able to walk!”

“Why are you leaving? Where are you going?” Paula asked.

Zach walked hastily. “Don’t ask. I’ll tell you later! I’ve already arranged the car!”

Paula did not know what had happened.

She said, “Wait, my money and jewelry are all in the bedroom. Even if I leave, I have to take it with me.”

Paula turned around and wanted to go back.

“It’s too late!” Zach pulled her back. “No matter how important money is, your life is more important!”

“What’s the matter Zach?”

A black car drove in slowly.

When Zach saw it, his face changed drastically, and he quickly turned around. “Mom, let’s go through the back door!”

Unfortunately, when they reached the back door, two bodyguards were already guarding it.

They could not get out.

Zach's expression turned pale. "It's over. It's over. Now, it's really too late!"

Paula was still confused when she heard Shawn's voice. "

Even if you can leave Wood Mansion, do you think you can leave Sea City?"

Zach shuddered for a while. "S...Shawn..."

He knelt down without saying a word. "I was wrong. I will never dare to do it again. Anyway, I am a descendant of the Wood family, and I have the blood of the Wood family, so please let me go!"

Seeing this, Paula said, quickly pulling him up, "Zach, what are you doing! Why are you kneeling to Shawn? Get up!"

"Mom, we...we're done!"

"Why are we done? Don't talk nonsense!"

Zach burst into tears. "Shawn knows the truth about his father's death..."

As soon as the words came out, Paula's face changed drastically.

She completely understood Zach's panic.

However, Paula was still stubborn when death was imminent, "What is the truth? The murderer who killed your father is locked up in prison. What has it to do with us!"

Zach cried with a mournful face, "I told you, I accidentally let it slip on tape..."

Paula took two steps back when she heard this, her eyes darkened, and she almost fainted!

Chapter 408

What an idiot son she raised!

Paula screamed, "Zach! You can casually say something so important? Didn't I warn you before that you must never say anything until death with the knife resting on your neck?"

"I thought I was going to die at the time, and my father came to claim my life..."

"What! You are suspicious of everything all day long! You are good for nothing!" Paula said fiercely. She slapped

Zach across the face.

She had always been soft on her precious son and was extremely angry to be willing to beat him.

Shawn watched coldly, watching the funny performance of the mother and son.

Lucas coughed and walked toward them, leaning on a cane. "What's the commotion? You guys are making a lot of noise here, and I can't sleep peacefully."

Paula also knelt down with a plop. "Lucas!"

"Grandpa, save me. You must save me!" Zach hurriedly crawled toward him. "I am your grandson!"

Lucas sighed.

He thought that Shawn was putting pressure on the mother and son again.

Lucas said, "Shawn, we are all one family. What a big deal. Why did you make such a fuss? Your younger brother just returned to the country, and Paula stayed at home. Did she offend you?"

Neither Paula nor Zach dared to say anything.

Shawn did not say anything. He just took out a USB flash drive and handed it to Lucas.

"What is this?"

"You will understand after seeing it."

Lucas handed it to the housekeeper. "Go get it."

"Yes, sir." The scene in the house appeared on the living room's huge screen.

Zach's ugly appearance was all videographed.

The words and sentences of the dialogue were quite clear, and their expression was visible.

Lucas's body trembled uncontrollably, and he coughed louder and louder. When he finally removed the handkerchief, there was a smear of bright red blood on it!

"The family is unlucky. The family is unlucky! There are two insane people!" Lucas shouted.

Paula rolled her eyes and suddenly bowed vigorously.

Her forehead was soon bruised, and blood was coming out, but she did not care, and knocked harder.

“Lucas, all of this... was my idea! I did it! Zach didn’t want to do this at first, but I forced him to do it. I’m his mother, so he can only listen to me!”

“It’s all my fault. If you want to kill, take revenge for our sins, come to me alone! It’s all my fault! I did it when I was in a daze... for years, I have been living in torment!”

“Kill me! Let me go down to accompany my husband and confess my mistakes to him...”

Now that the evidence was overwhelming, Paula knew that she was done for, so she tried to save Zach!

She wanted to take all the responsibility for herself!

Paula admitted her mistake with tears in her eyes.

Because of this matter, Zach and I have been living in guilt for a long time. It is difficult for me to be a father and mother to him... Don’t blame him. I did it!”

Lucas raised his head, and two streaks of tears slowly flowed from his cloudy eyes.

His son was actually killed by his daughter-in-law and grandson...

How could he accept this fact?

“You two, how did you manage to do it? Has our Wood family treated you badly? You made such a murderous move!” Lucas asked.

Paula replied, “When he was still alive, he always disliked Zach for not being smart enough and not as good as Shawn in every aspect. When he quarreled with him, he even said that he would not give Zach a share. So in a fit of anger, I...”

Chapter 409

“Ridiculous! He has been thinking about you two! The day before the car accident, he was still discussing giving you half of the shares of the Wood Group!”

Both Paula and Zach were shocked.

What?

“That’s right. Father called me into the study that night and asked me to give half of the shares to Zach,” Shawn said.

Zach was dumbfounded. “Dad... asked you to give the shares? Half?”

“Yes, it was for you. It’s a pity you killed him. You can’t get anything,” Shawn said.

“No, it’s impossible. You lied to me. That’s not the case...”

Paula shook his head again and again, “We all heard that he wouldn’t give it!”

Lucas tapped his cane vigorously. “He said it in a fit of anger! Who knew that you really believed it!”

The mother and son were like deflated balls and looked at each other.

After working so hard, they had not expected that they would lose more than they gained!

Shawn said lightly, “If our father didn’t die, with his insistence, Zach, you would get the shares you dreamed of. It’s a pity... you don’t deserve it.”

He lifted his foot and kicked Zach’s chest hard and then stepped on it hard.

You put the blame on Dr. Warm, caused the Warm family to suffer great injustice, and separated him from his wife and child. They have carried this blame for you for nearly three years!”

“The prison and mental hospital... should be your place!”

“Do you think you can be the head of the Wood family as long as you have the family name? Delusional!” 1

He continued beating Zach and pressing on him.

In the end, Zach’s face had turned purple, and he could not breathe. He waved his hands in the air indiscriminately.

“The murderer, it’s you, Paula. The mother and son!”

“You two, don’t even try to escape!”

Paula rushed over like crazy. “I’m an outsider, and I married into the Wood family. You can treat me however you want! But Zach is a descendant of the Wood family! Shawn, you can’t kill your own blood!”

“Lucas, what do you say... Zach is your own grandson! Even if he did something wrong, do you really want to punish him?”

“The Wood family is already so small. Do you want to lose more children?”

Shawn directly swung her away heavily. “Get out!”

The back of Paula’s head hit the wall, making a loud bang.

“Yes, Zach is a descendant of the Wood family.” Shawn’s mouth curved into a bloodthirsty smile,

“Then save his life. I will let him live. I won’t let him die even if he wants to die!”

“As for you, Paula... I won’t let you die either.”

At this moment, Shawn was really like a demon coming from hell.

He was full of hostility and ruthless methods.

Just looking at them made his scalp tingle!

“You all have to bear what the Warm family has endured.” Shawn straightened his waist and put down his foot on Zach’s chest. “So, let’s start with prisons and mental hospitals.”

Zach seemed to see hope. “Shawn, will you let me go as long as I’m in prison?”

Shawn narrowed his eyes, and murderous intent suddenly appeared. “You’re so naive. Do you know that there is a punishment called bamboo shoot punishment?”

“Bamboo shoots punishment?”

“Bamboo shoots grow very fast in spring. Tie a person above the bamboo shoots, and the bamboo shoots will grow taller day by day. It will soon reach the person’s body. Then...” Shawn explained.

“The bamboo shoots will slowly penetrate the body, pushing into the body bit by bit, piercing a big hole. The whole process will make you miserable, but it won’t let you die!”

Zach’s face turned pale just listening to that.

Chapter 410

He collapsed on the ground, and soon, a puddle of water flowed out from where he was lying.

Zach was so frightened that he wet his pants.

Shawn snorted coldly. “The biggest mistake of the Wood family is having such an idiot like you!”

He was an embarrassment to the Wood family!

The Wood family, noble, proud, confident, and in control of everything, had always been superior!

What about Zach?

Useless, dandy, and only knew how to play with women!

“Are you scared? It’s just the beginning, Zach... There are new punishments waiting for you every month!” Shawn snorted coldly.

Zach was already motionless, and his eyes were empty.

Paula kept crying and shouting, “It’s all my fault. I ordered him to do it...you come at me, take my life, don’t blame Zach! I’m an evil woman. Kill me!”

“Noisy. It’s too noisy.”

Paula was still crying, and the sound of wailing spread throughout the old house.

Shawn directly ordered, "Cut her tongue."

Upon hearing this sentence, Paula immediately stopped talking.

However, it was too late.

Shawn waved his hand, and the bodyguard stepped forward, holding a sharp knife in his hand.

"Just cut it. Let Zach watch closely!" Shawn ordered without blinking.

"Yes, sir"

Zach seemed like a piece of rotten meat, and he had not moved. No matter how the bodyguards tried to drag him, his head was crooked, and his pants were soaked.

Paula kept backing away. "Don't come closer, I am the matriarch of the Wood family. You can't treat me like this! Ah!" The bodyguard pinched her chin and pulled out her tongue.

The hand rose, and the knife fell.

Zach was startled and suddenly shouted like crazy, then rolled his eyes and passed out.

"Mr. Wood..."

"Take them all away. Wake them up tomorrow morning with cold water," Shawn said.

"Yes!" The whole time, Lucas watched from the side.

He knew these methods because he taught Shawn himself.

Unexpectedly, one day, the cruelest method would be used on his closest person!

"It was a good home..." Lucas sat on the sofa, and his eyes became cloudier. "It's just ruined, completely ruined! The once huge Wood family had only you left."

"Grandpa, you are still here."

"My old bones will be gone one day. Shawn, the most important thing in a family is prosperity. However..."

Lucas covered his face, tears streaming from between his fingers.

How sad it must be to make an old man cry like this.

Lucas had also been through a lot of wind and waves.

However, he was just powerless.

“I also want to save Zach, but he is too unfilial! Unfilial to the extreme! His mother, Paula, instigated him, and he did it without any hesitation ! I knew he wanted shares, but I didn’t expect he could do something this mad for the sake of shares!”
