Chapter 414

Had Shawn cooked her medicine?

She thought he was mad at her and left.

Unexpectedly, he went to prepare the medicine for her...

“Such a tall man, squatting next to the stove, sweating profusely, looking like someone who doesn’t know how to do housework. But for you, Mr. Wood is willing. We all feel that you saved the world in your previous life, just by looking at it!” the nurse enviously said.

Saved the world?

Heh, if they really believed in karma, that would mean she actually caused the world to collapse, and that was how she met Shawn in this life.

After Gale pinched her nose and finished drinking the medicine, the nurse handed her a fruit jelly candy.

However, the nurse was as considerate and did not tear off the candy wrapper. After Gale finished drinking, her mouth was so bitter, and her mouth felt dry. The more anxious she was to eat candy, the more she could not tear off the candy wrapper.

When she finally managed to eat the candy, she felt the bitter taste in her mouth had already faded.

Suddenly, Gale froze.

It seemed that she had gotten used to Shawn’s carefulness...

He treated her with care that had never been seen before beyond ordinary people!

In the next few days, Shawn did not appear.

Gale took care of her body with peace of mind, took medicine, and chatted with Dr. Lighton about the situation of the two children from time to time and learned some knowledge about pregnancy.

Until Dr. Lighton announced that she could be discharged from the hospital.

“Mrs. Wood, don’t think I’m long-winded. After you leave the hospital, you have to be careful to avoid miscarriage. Not only can you not bear it mentally, but your body can’t stand the miscarriage either...”

“This time, if you have another miscarriage, you will never have children.”

Gale remembered it in her heart. “I know.”

She walked out of the hospital and saw Shawn standing in front of the car at a glance.

He came to pick her up.

After not seeing him for a few days, he had lost a lot of weight, his shoulders appeared to be narrower, and the outline of his jaw was sharper.

However, Gale became a little rounder, with flesh on her face.

Shawn was very satisfied. “Dr. Lightons medical skills are good, and Joe’s introduction is good. He finally did a reliable job.”

Then, he went to hold her hand. “I will try not to come to the hospital anymore. I know you don’t like this place.”

Gale avoided it. “I can go back to Temperley Hall by myself. Do you think I will run away?” she said this deliberately, testing Shawn’s reaction.

Is he still as determined as before not to let her go?

“You can’t run away. Even if you run away, I will find you,” Shawn replied.

She frowned.

“If you run once, I’ll look for you once. If you run ninety-nine times, I’ll look for you ninety-nine times.

“Are you still refusing to let go? We’ve come to this point,” Gale asked softly.

Shawn sighed in a low voice. “Gale, I owe you so much.”

She bent down and got into the car with Shawn beside her.

They had not seen each other these days, and the two seemed to be strangers.

They had nothing to say.

There was no hatred but more strangeness.

“I’ve already made arrangements for Sam. Mr. Carson and Lucas have signed a contract, and they will be close cooperative allies in the future,” Shawn said.

“I won’t see him again.”

In the future, it should be difficult to see again.

The farther Sam was from her world, the more peaceful and safe he would be after she left.

Gale raised her eyes to look out of the car window but found that this was not the way back to Temperley Hall.

“Where are you taking me?” She was a little uneasy.

“To go pick up your father from prison.”

Gale blinked, her eyes a little sore.
