Still Loving You Nonetheless By Snow de Eira Chapter 1445

"Why? Are you still afraid that this little bastard will sue you?" Madam Sheldon wiped the tears from her face and grabbed her wrist. "You don't need to be afraid of him, I am here."

"Auntie, Liam dared to press the murderer's charge on our heads, it proves that he really hates US. If we continue to behave like this, Гт afraid that he will leave the house completely."

"Yanne, what do you mean? Are you going to give up on him?"

"How can I, I love Liam so much." Yanne smiled bitterly. "I just don't want to dislike him anymore, I just want to change our approach."

"Really?" Madam Sheldon remembered her son's fiery temper for being locked in.

"Well, don't worry, Auntie, I will never give up on Liam."

"That's fine, that's fine." Madam Sheldon nodded, took her hand and said, "You can do whatever you want, I'll listen to you."

"Then Auntie, I'll go back first, you can take good care of yourself. " Yanne said.

Because of her guilty conscience, she wished she could leave as soon as possible.

And Madam Sheldon agreed.

Liam rushed to the hospital and found that Ivy had not come out of the emergency room. He tapped Meredith and asked eagerly, " Didn't you say that Ivy is no longer in serious trouble? Why is she still inside?"

Meredith glanced at Josiah and was speechless for a while.

Liam became even more anxious, "what the hell is going on?"

"Let go of Meredith first." Josiah rescued Meredith from his hands and said, "Don't be anxious, Liam, she has no news about Ivy…"

"You lied to me?" Liam angrily threw a punch at Josiah.

Fortunately, Josiah was quick-witted and quickly avoided it.

When Meredith saw Liam raise his hand, he hurriedly stopped him. "Don't get excited, Liam, Josiah lied to you because he was worried that you would be too anxious and get into an accident on the road. II

"That's right, calm down quickly!" Josiah said to Liam, "shouting like this will only affect Ivy, understand?"

Liam shut up.

However, he still did not calm down, and kept pacing at the door.

After pacing around, he turned to Josiah and asked, "Why did Ivy have a car accident? why did she leave the villa? where were the people around her? Did you check for me?"

Josiah nodded. "I have already called someone to investigate. The car was involved in an accident with a medium-sized truck while turning a corner. The servant and driver who went out with her were also seriously injured, but their lives are no longer in danger. As for why they left the villa, we don't know until the servant and driver wake up."

Liam nodded.

Although he really wants to know these truths, the most important thing right now is for Ivy to survive.

With a blank mind, he came to the chair next to Josiah and sat down, burying his handsome face in his palm.

Seeing his remorse, Meredith said softly, "Liam, don't blame yourself, it's not your fault that Ivy's accident happened."

Although she did not know what happened between them, she could tell from Liam's expression that his feelings for Ivy were real, and his remorse was also real!

Liam still shook his head regretfully. "I shouldn't have left her last night, and I shouldn't have gone home. If I didn't go home, Ivy definitely wouldn't have an accident."

"I'm so stupid! Damn it!" Liam gave himself a slap in the face. "I knew that mom and the others were not at ease, so I went back."

"Don't be like this, Liam." Meredith hurriedly grabbed his wrist. " If you hurt yourself like this, Miss Ivy will definitely feel distressed to see it."

Liam shook his head. "Will she still feel distressed? I don't even know if she can survive."

"Most definitely."

Meredith knew that Liam was anxious and sad right now, but apart from these powerless comforting words, she didn't know what to do for him.

She raised her face to look at Josiah, sitting beside her.

Josiah patted her on the shoulder and motioned her not to worry.

After a long wait, someone finally came out of the emergency room.

Liam was still sitting on the chair, his whole body was stiff. He didn't dare to ask.

Meredith had to ask on behalf of him, "Doctor, how is Ivy?"

The doctor glanced at everyone and said, "The injured person is temporarily saved, but it's hard to say whether she can survive. It depends on the subsequent recovery."

Although the doctor could not guarantee whether Ivy would get better or not, everyone was relieved to hear that he had saved her life temporarily.

"Thank you doctor." Meredith turned around and came to Liam's side, patted him on the shoulder and said, "Don't worry Liam, Ivy's life has been saved for the time being, and she will be fine in the future."

Liam nodded.

Meredith looked at Josiah again and smiled at him.

Josiah pulled her into his arms, and finally teased her with affection. "Don't get too close to him, after all, you should maintain a respectful distance."

Meredith bumped his elbow against his chest and warned in a low voice, "You have to choose a better time to be jealous, okay?"

Besides, when she was in the most difficult time, Liam helped her.

Isn't she supposed to help him back now?

"Yes, I was careful, I was wrong." Josiah nodded and apologized.

"You two go back, I'll just wait here by myself." Liam said suddenly.

"Liam, let US wait with you. We don't have anything important going on anyway."

"Work is very important." Josiah said, "Didn't you just say that you had an appointment with a client at noon?"

"You…" Meredith said angrily, "Josiah, do you still have any humanity left in you?"

Josiah sighed helplessly and pinched her little face, "Meredith, at this time Liam just wants to be alone and quiet. We are really redundant here, do you understand?"

Meredith was silent.

"If you don't believe me, ask Liam." Josiah pointed at Liam with his chin, who looked like he was about to pull off his hair.

Meredith looked at Liam.

Liam shook his hand at the two of them without raising his head. " Josiah is right, hurry, please."

Meredith finally believed that he really didn't need anyone to accompany him.

She said a little worriedly, "Okay, if you are fine, remember to call us if you need help."

"Understood."

Only then did Meredith and Josiah leave the hospital.

Back in the car, Meredith looked at him and said, "How do you know he wants to be alone?"

"Well, it's experience, I just know."

After Josiah fastened the seat belt for her, he did not step away from her immediately, but looked at her from a close distance. " Meredith, the last time you fell, I experienced the same feelings as Liam. So I understand what he needs most right now."

Meredith looked at him and remembered what happened when she fell down.

At that time, she must have terrified him.
