

Still Loving You Nonetheless Chapter 1451

"What are you talking about?" With his brows arched, Josiah asked, "Liam, are you trying to start a fight again? "

Back then in this study, both of them had a fight because of Meredith.

But Meredith was not the person that he cared for the most at that time, hence Liam did not go all in during the fight with Josiah.

"I'm not going to do that," Liam smiled and went on, "and seeing how you've been good to me lately, I will not try to take Edith away from you."

"Liam is only not fighting with you because all he cares about right now is Ivy, there's no space in his heart for me." Meredith shot a glare at Josiah and said, "Can you please use that brain of yours to think before getting all jealous?"

Josiah ruffled her hair and said, "What can I do? Men and women are the same when it comes to love. In front of the person that they love, they just lose all of their rationality."

Liam handed the empty bowl to them and winced, "Oh stop it will the both of you? Go back to your house if you want to act all lovey-dovey, stop rubbing it in my face."

Meredith glanced at the ICU room and asked, "Has Miss Ivy not been transferred to the normal wards yet? I wish to see her."

"But God took mercy on me and you. He allowed you to live." Looking at her pale face, Liam said softly, "V, you hear me, don't you?"

Ivy though, slowly closed her eyes.

Liam suddenly felt nervous. "V, do you not want to hear me talk? Am I annoying you?"

"It's okay, if you think that I'm being noisy, I'll stop talking and just stay by your side quietly." He stroked her cheek with his hand and went on, "Get some sleep if you're tired."

Ivy still had her eyes closed.

When night came, Ivy still had her eyes closed.

In the end, Liam could not stand it anymore and went to ask about her condition.

Looking through her medical charts, the doctor explained, "It is normal for the patient to behave this way as she had a history of mental illness. Let's see how she is tomorrow."

"But back then when she was mentally ill, she would still interact with me. She loved to talk to me."

"Miss Ivy is still drowsy and talking would just trigger her wounds. Perhaps that is why she is choosing to stay silent."
