Still Loving You Nonetheless Chapter 1459

suddenly and grabbed her by the wrist, demanding, "is it Josiah? Tell me, is it him?"

"Liam, can you please just stop mentioning Josiah's name?" Ivy felt helpless. She went on, "He is doing great with Meredith and we shouldn't drag either of them into our mess anymore."

"I won't. I just want to know if you still love him and that is why you're not willing to be together with me."

"Liam, can you stop forcing me to answer these sorts of questions?"

"Why?" Liam was confused.

"Because liking someone else or not doesn't have anything to do with whether I like you or not."

Liam was silent.

He nodded and said, "Alright, I get it."

He turned around and walked out of the door, looking disoriented. It was clear that Liam was heartbroken.

It was when the doors were closed that Ivy murmured softly under her breath, "I'm sorry, Liam..."

"What did you say?" Yanne's face went pale right away. Staring at him in disbelief, she said, "Liam, how could you say such a thing? The baby can hear you and what would he think if he knows that his birth father doesn't want him?"

"Yanna, I'm serious."

"Why?" Looking at his perfectly sculptured face, Yanne was devastated yet angry at the same time. "Why don't you want our baby?"

"Because I didn't want to sleep with you in the first place that night. Because I don't love you at all. Are these reasons good enough for you?"

Yanne's eyes reddened immediately as tears started to rush out of her eyes.

Liam inhaled softly and said, "Yanne, I know it might sound a bit harsh but I really don't want this kid."

"Is it because of Ivy?"

Liam hesitated before nodding. "I don't want to lie to you. It is because of her and because I love her. I can't seem to leave her."

''Liam, you're being too harsh!" Yanne turned around and started running away.

Because she was in a rush, Yanne ended up tripping over the leg of a desk.

"Ah-" Yanne let out a painful cry as she covered her belly with both her hands.
