Liam pulled her into his embrace and patted her shoulder. Then, she comforted her softly, "V, don't think about it. Let's eat."

Ivy watched in the direction Siena was leaving with a broken heart.

Due to Siena's appearance, Ivy was not in the mood to eat anymore. She simply took a few bites and made a fuss about going home.

"V, Siena is just right there, so you don't have to be in such a hurry," Liam coaxed patiently, "you might scare Siena if you're too eager."

"Hmm...I think Siena just came home from school, so she should be eating now. How about seeing her after she finishes her dinner?"

Siena and Ivy laughed happily.

"Siena, have you been waiting for me?"

"Yes," Siena answered, "my nanny went to bed. I was bored at home alone, so I came to find you."

"Okay, let's go in." Ivy led Siena into the house.

The servants would always clean Josiah's mansion. Just after Liam and Ivy moved in, Liam asked them to buy a lot of fruits and sweet pastries.
