

Still Loving You Nonetheless Chapter 1480

The couple stared at the amount and widened their eyes.

So much money!

Was Siena worth that much?

They both thought they were dreaming, and they stared at the contract and then at Liam with disbelief.

Seeing this, Liam added, "Don't worry. I won't lie to you."

After the couple recovered, the man asked tentatively, "Do you really like Siena so much? why? Siena is not worth the money you spend to adopt it back."

"Because my wife likes her, so I think it's worth the money," Liam said.

The woman could not help but be a little envious, "Your wife is so blessed."

"She'd be happier if she had Siena."

"You're still acting so mysterious." Then, seeing that he was not saying anything, Ivy gave up, walked over, and pulled Siena's little hand. "Are you hungry? I'll make dinner for you, okay?"

Before Siena could speak, Liam interrupted, "I've already arranged for our dinner, and a chef will come to make dinner in a while. If you're hungry, you can eat some fruit first."

"Why are you doing so much? You even hire a chef to prepare our dinner?" Ivy was confused.

They were just staying for a few days, and Ivy could handle those things.

"I don't want you to be exhausted," Liam said, "why don't we go for a walk first? Our dinner will be ready when we're back."

"Fine." Then, Ivy said to Siena, "Siena, go back and inform your nanny about this."

"There's no need to do that," Liam replied, "I told them."

"Oh." Ivy took off the schoolbag from Siena's back. "Then let's put the schoolbag in the house first."

"Aunt V, I'll do it myself." Siena was very obedient and put the schoolbag back into the house by herself.
