

Still Loving You Nonetheless Chapter 1482

Liam smiled and grabbed Ivy's small hand. "V, even if I dare to lie to you, I won't dare to lie to a child, like Siena."

"But how could Siena's parents be so generous?"

"I had to beg them. I said that my wife liked Siena a lot, so they agreed to it," Liam leaned in and said in Ivy's ears, "Ivy, there are things we can't say in front of Siena. I'll explain it to you in detail later, alright?"

Ivy was stunned for a while before nodding. "Okay..."

"No matter what, just trust me."

"Okay, I'll trust you."

"Come on, Siena, call us Daddy and Mommy," Liam coaxed her.

Siena, who was initially happy, suddenly had a serious expression. She looked at them and said, "But, if I call you Daddy and Mommy and live with you. How about my Daddy and Mommy?"

Ivy and Liam were stunned for a while, but they were also relieved that Siena was such a kind person.

"No, I just noticed how Daddy likes Mommy, and just so that you don't know what to give him, so I thought of that."

"Siena, just admit that you've been watching too much television." Liam chuckled and raised his thumbs at her, "But you're right, I do indeed quite like this present."

"See, I knew it," Siena giggled, "Mommy, go on and give Daddy a present."

Ivy had no choice but to approach Liam and plant a kiss on his face.

Siena immediately applauded. "Yay, amazing. Mommy and Daddy each have a present."

"Thankyou for helping me with my present. Let's go. I'll reward you with a huge drumstick." Liam held Siena's hand and walked to the dining table.

After taking their seats as a family of three, Liam gave Siena and Ivy a drumstick each.

Ivy returned the drumstick to him. she said, "You know that I don't like drumsticks."

"Is that so? I thought you just didn't like fast food." Liam chuckled and said, "No worries, have other food then, what about this?"

Liam gave her a lobster.

Ivy loved it.
