

Still Loving You Nonetheless Chapter 1499

Siena's adoptive parents looked at each other and smiled.

The kitchen was calling them to take their seats.

Liam got up and said, "Come, let's eat and talk."

Then, he said to Siena, "Siena, go get Daddy and Mommy to eat. They must be hungry."

Siena happily brought her adoptive parents to take their seats. The dinner was in the garden. They ate and talked at the same time. The entire process was pleasant.

Toward the end, Siena's adoptive mother suddenly got up and walked over to Ivy. she looked at her deeply and said after a while, "Ivy, there is a secret I have been hiding from you for a very long time."

"What is it?" Ivy saw how serious she was. she could not help but feel the severity of it.

Siena's adoptive father chimed in, "Back when Mrs. Shelby handed the child to US, she told us to raise the child up. she even gave US a fund to raise her up. she also got US to move next door to you."

"What? Mrs. Shelby?"

"Yes," Siena's adoptive mother said, "Ivy, Mrs. Shelby still has some good in her. She did not want to give you the child, but she did not want the child to be too far away from you, so she came up with this solution."

"I'm sorry, Ivy, back then, we signed a deal with Mrs. Shelby that we cannot reveal Siena's identity to you, which is why we have never told you about this."

"Yes, later, you all went back. We lost touch with you. We did not know what happened. It was until the last time Mister Liam found us and told US about what happened to you, then only we decided to tell you the truth."

Ivy was already crying so badly she was gasping for air.

She never thought that she would be able to meet her daughter in this life, let alone the daughter being Siena, whom she had always liked.

She never thought that she would receive such a huge gift so suddenly, she was elated!

Liam hugged her and ruffled her hair while saying to Siena's adoptive parents, "V is just too happy, please don't laugh at her."
