Chapter 1391: An Xiaoran

Chapter 1391 the big-hearted An Xiaoran

“This young lady is the only inheritor of the Lingnan Qiankun School, huh! Lin Kai! You don’t need you to deal with a young man!”

An Xiaoran looked at the Rolls-Royce Phantom again, his back further and further away, stomped his feet, and kept muttering.

In fact, she was not afraid, the most important thing was Lin Kai, who had used these two martial artists to abolish their combat power, otherwise she would give her a hundred courage and would not dare to follow along.

In addition, she was attacked sneakily. If these two martial artists and ancient martial artists were confronted with her head-on, she would confidently use the means of exterminating evil spirits to deal with the ancient martial artists.

Although it may not be defeated so quickly, he will remain invincible.

So even if there is an ancient warrior at the level of a martial artist next to what Hao Shao, she is not afraid.

So An Xiaoran grabbed the wretched fat man, kicked him into the car, and asked the wretched fat man to take her to Hao Shaos place. She had to teach Hao Shao a lesson, but she had never suffered this. Wait for grievances!

As for the bald man and the man with dirty pigtails, they were left where they were. They were scrapped by Lin Kai and suffered severe injuries to their hands and feet. It was difficult to recover within a month or two.

Lin Kai didn’t know how to be merciful when dealing with this kind of work for the dude disciple, and he didn’t directly abolish the meridians, it was considered good.

It’s because An Xiaoran didn’t suffer any injuries. If there was any injury, Lin Kai would definitely strike hard.

at this time.

The most prosperous hotel in Jinyuan City, the second and third floors of the basement, is also the largest casino in the entire Jinyuan City, including several neighboring cities nearby.

Those who can enter this casino are only in a few nearby cities, with a little reputation or a little money, to be eligible to enter.

Even if it is three o’clock in the morning.

But in the largest casino underground of this hotel, the lights are bright and the noise is extraordinary. The number of people on the two floors adds up to at least five or six hundred people, which can be said to be an extremely scary number.

On the third basement floor, in the luxurious innermost room, there was a young man who was hollowed out by alcohol. He sat on a tiger-skin sofa with a cigar in his mouth. He mumbled very gloomily. Saying: "Okay, today is the most unlucky day for this young man. Not only did he lose in business, he was also badly dealt with by a bitch, and he was even slapped!"

But immediately, the young man's sickly pale face showed a very hideous smile, as if he had encountered something very happy.

The young man immediately said excitedly: "Okay! Okay! I didn't think that a waste that I had raised for so many years has finally become a good thing for Ben Shao! That **** has already gone to Ben Shao! Hey, Ben Shao is in business. I lost a lot of money, and I was not in the mood to find any beautiful women to accompany."

"That bastard's piece is pretty good. I didn't expect to take the initiative to deliver it, so don't run, stay with me all night!"

The more I thought about this young man, the more excited he was. He was the so-called Hao Shao, Zhou Tianhao.

In front of Zhou Tianhao, there was a strong man who looked like a personal bodyguard. He looked at Zhou Tianhao and smiled: "Hao Shao, or I will go and take a shot. I will tie that **** to you first and let you be early. Enjoy it."

Zhou Tianhao waved his hand and said, "Anyway, that **** took the initiative to deliver it, and it is almost at my casino, it doesn't have to be so troublesome. What's more, I will make her live better than die when dealing with this bastard! However, it is the kind that makes her It is better to live willingly than to die, let her stay by my side forever, and then continue to torment her!"

Zhou Tianhao showed another cruel smile, and Sen said coldly: "I will let the rules of the casino, let the **** lose not only the money that is mine, but also the money that she will never end her life! Including her body. , She will lose and post me! Let her betray her body willingly!"

Hearing Zhou Tianhao's words, the strong man instantly understood, he laughed and said: "Hao Shao, get it, leave it to me, it's no problem!"

It seems that Zhou Tianhao has done this kind of thing not once or twice, but many times.

Before long, the strong man left Zhou Tianhao's room and went to the casino to make arrangements.

About ten minutes later.

An Xiaoran was bold enough to break into the second basement of the hotel.

When he first arrived on the second floor, An Xiaoran looked at people everywhere in front of him, and directly shouted: "Where is Young Master Hao? Get out for this lady!"

A man who resembled a male waiter said: "Miss, if you want to go in, you have to change some betting coins before you can get here, otherwise, according to the rules, you are not allowed to go in."

Beside this male waiter, there are many security guards on guard staring at An Xiaoran.

An Xiaoran frowned and her eyebrows were frowned. She just wanted to teach that young man, she didn't want to have more branches, so that she said indifferently: "Okay! Then give this lady some bet coins!"

An Xiaoran didn't seem to realize that, in fact, this casino belongs to Hao Shao.

It was the male waiter who heard An Xiaoran's words and laughed: "This lady, a bet coin is one hundred yuan, at least one hundred bet coins start, how many bet coins do you want to change?"

"Just one hundred!"

Of course An Xiaoran changed the lowest, anyway, she didn't come in to gamble, just came in to teach Hao Shao.

And one hundred is only ten thousand yuan, for her, it is just a small amount of money.

Soon, An Xiaoran swiped his card to exchange for a hundred bet coins, and walked in.

At first she was just at the door and saw many people, but she really walked in, secretly surprised by the excitement inside.

Unexpectedly, this seemingly inconspicuous place would have such a hidden casino.

She temporarily ignored the casino, who made it, her first goal now is Zhou Tianhao.

But An Xiaoran swept around and didn't see Zhou Tianhao's figure, so she shouted again: "Who puts that thing on, please come over for this lady!"

A waiter came next to An Xiaoran and said with a smile: "This lady, Hao Shao is on the next floor, and the next floor is dedicated to those who have won more than 5,000 bet coins before they are eligible to enter."

An Xiaoran immediately looked at the waiter and said coldly: "It means, can't you invite Hao Shao?"

The waiter continued: "It's not that we can't invite you, but we don't have the authority. You have to go personally, so you must win more than 5,000 coins to enter the third floor. You can see Hao Shao. "

Hearing this, An Xiaoran raised her eyebrows and sneered: "This lady doesn't have much time to gamble. Hurry up and inform Hao Shao and let him come to the first floor! Otherwise, his end will be even worse, so please inform! The man who slapped him in the morning is here, I believe he will definitely come to this first floor!"

Chapter 1392: Ten Bets And Ten Loses

Chapter 1392

The waiter was quite tough: "To tell you the truth, Hao Shao is the boss behind this scene. If you think you can meet, you can see it? According to the rules here, you must win more than 5,000 bet coins to enter the third floor. , Otherwise you will either stay on the first floor, or leave if you dont gamble, dont delay our casino business."

Another waiter also ridiculed: "What else is this lady? At first glance, she didn't have money to gamble, and deliberately said that she didn't have time. Hehe, I see a lot of people like this, so I must come to Hao Shao for money, and Xiang Hao Shao There are too many women with money to count."

Hearing what these two waiters said, An Xiaoran was shocked and angry: "What? Do you still dare to question this lady?"

Since childhood, except for Lin Kai who had questioned her before, no one dared to question her.

Lin Kai that is really capable, and indeed much better than her.

Therefore, when Lin Kai questioned her ability, although she was angry, she did not dare to refute too much.

Unexpectedly, in this casino now, I was looked down upon and questioned by two waiters.

An Xiaoran patted a nearby gambling table with a small hand, and sneered: "Isn't it just winning more than 5,000 bet coins? Who is this lady afraid of? I tell you, this lady is a very short time person, Win these five thousand bet coins!"

After An Xiaoran finished speaking, she became more confident when she saw that the gaming table was simply bigger than a pip. This competition was completely luck. She was confident that her luck would not be bad.

However, after a while, An Xiaoran couldn't feel confident anymore, because she didn't know what was going on, her luck was extremely bad, and the cards she touched were very bad every time.

On the contrary, the other gamblers are all lucky.

That's all. For the hand just now, she finally got a good deck of cards, with a lot of ideas, and only one point was bigger than the one she got.

As a result, An Xiaoran raised his full bet without hesitation. If this one wins, he would definitely win more than 5,000 bet coins.

Unexpectedly, there is one, which is bigger than her point, and that point is the largest point!

An Xiaoran just took it, and all her bet coins were gone.

At this moment, the two waiters laughed and moved all An Xiaoran's bet coins to the gambler.

Then a waiter with a smile on his face: "Miss, didn't you say that you will be able to bet more than 5,000 coins soon? Why are they all gone? Would you like to get some more coins? How good are you?"

An Xiaoran had already forgotten what had been taught Zhou Tianhao, she could not bear the doubts of others.

Besides, she doesn't believe in her luck, it's really that bad!

So An Xiaoran swiped his card again, and this time changed a thousand bet coins!

After a while, An Xiaoran was at the gaming table again and continued to compare ideas.

Sure enough, as An Xiaoran thought, her luck gradually returned, and after a few starts, she won very smoothly.

At this time, she has more than 3,000 coins, and if you come two more, you will win more than 5,000 coins!

However, she lost the next hand, losing a thousand bet coins directly.

This made An Xiaoran a bet, and when he played, luck came back again and the points were the greatest!

An Xiaoran did not hesitate to increase all his bets.

If you win, at least five or six thousand bet coins, you will be eligible to go to the third floor!

To An Xiaoran's astonishment, one of the gamblers also made a full raise.

Not only that, when the cards are opened, the gambler has the highest points.

Most importantly, that gambler is a flush! Cards of the same color! And hers is not!

In other words, An Xiaoran lost, and lost again!

Suddenly, An Xiaoran was indignant, why his luck was so bad.

When the waiter took away An Xiaoran's 2,000-plus coins, he didn't wait for the waiter to send a message.

An Xiaoran patted the gaming table and snorted coldly: "It's too bad luck than the idea. I'll change the gameplay. This lady doesn't believe in that evil!"

An Xiaoran changed another thousand bet coins and ran to the next gambling table, where he played dice.

The result is almost the same as the way of playing the game. She won a few rounds and won four thousand bet coins, and then she lost all the way.

An Xiaoran almost lost her sanity, she continued to swipe her card to exchange betting coins.

But every time I was almost a bit close, when I was able to win more than 5,000 bet coins, I lost everything, as if I had been manipulated.

In the end, An Xiaoran lost the millions on this card.

She only brought this card.

"Hehe, lady, I think you have no money on your card. Do you need to borrow some bets from our casino? If you don't need it, then please leave. You have no bets."

The waiter still said with a smile.

An Xiaoran gritted her silver teeth. She really wanted to borrow some. She was very dissatisfied. Every time she was a little bit worse, she always thought that she would be able to double and win back next time!

As for mobile phones, everyone who enters here must be placed in a separate cabinet at the door, and An Xiaoran is no exception, and put it in the cabinet.

So at present, we can only rely on the casino.

An Xiaoran was thinking. A waiter seemed to have noticed that she was a little bit interested, so he sent a bunch of bet coins to An Xiaoran's eyes, and said: "This lady, according to the funds flow in your card, we The casino allows you to borrow some betting coins. You can borrow as much as you want. No additional mortgage is required. It is returned within half a day and no interest is required. However, if it is half a day later, it will be charged at 1% interest."

"May I ask this lady, do you need to borrow? If you need it, just write an IOU and you can borrow it."

"Borrow! Naturally borrow!"

An Xiaoran wrote down the IOU without hesitation, and then borrowed some betting coins.

At the same time, in a VIP room on this floor, it was full of surveillance. Zhou Tianhao was in it at this time. He saw An Xiaoran writing an IOU with a smile on his face.

Ten minutes later, An Xiaoran didn't even know that this was the first few times that he had lost everything.

In a short period of time, she also wrote down several IOUs.

The amount of each debit note is greater than each time.

Ten minutes later, the amount An Xiaoran borrowed far exceeded the amount she had previously credited!

An Xiaoran now doesn't just want to win five thousand bet coins, but wants to win back all the money from these IOUs and then return it to the casino.

In this way, An Xiaoran fell into this endless loop.

It was close to four o'clock in the morning.

An Xiaoran owed the casino close to tens of millions. When he was about to borrow again, he was told by the waiter that he could no longer borrow.

Chapter 1393: Hard Lesson

Chapter 1393

Not only that, the strong man also came forward.

He came to An Xiaoran's side and said lightly: "Listen to the staff under my hand, you have made an IOU from our casino, amounting to tens of millions. You still want to borrow now, there should always be something to be mortgaged. Right? I dont think you brought any valuables. You can use yourself as a collateral so that we can continue to provide you with gambling coins."

“Otherwise, if you don’t have a mortgage, would you treat me as a casino for charity? In case you lose completely, you can’t afford it, then you will naturally pay the mortgage. You should understand this principle?”

While talking, the strong man pointed to a gambler at the gaming table and said, “That beautiful gambler, do you remember? I lost all my bets with you not long ago. She just pledged herself to me. The casino borrowed some betting coins. You see, your betting coins have exceeded 50,000. This is what she has left after paying back our casino.”

Seeing An Xiaoran, the strong man hesitated and continued to tempt him: “That beautiful gambler also lost one night. You see, she is now lucky and won another 10,000 bet coins, completely defeating her today. All won back.”

With that said, let An Xiaoran go and see.

An Xiaoran saw that beautiful gambler and won again.

This is the strong man who handed a mortgage contract to An Xiaoran, and did not wait for An Xiaoran to answer.

Seeing this mortgage contract, An Xiaoran didn’t even think about it, so he picked up the pen and prepared to sign it. There was no content in it. This was completely a red eye.

Now in her mind, there is nothing more than gambling to win money!

An Xiaoran was about to sign the contract. When signing the contract, a person suddenly appeared next to him and snatched the pen from An Xiaoran’s hand.

The person who came was naturally Lin Kai. He looked at An Xiaoran, who was betting on the red-eyed. He was quite speechless: “Miss An, fortunately I am here. If I didn’t come, maybe you were sold. I don’t know.

After Lin Kai finished speaking, with a wave of his hand, both the pen in his hand and the mortgage contract in An Xiaoran’s hand were shattered.

Especially the pen broken into several pieces, heading towards the strong man.

Suddenly, the strong man was scratched by the broken pen.

Naturally, Lin Kai did it deliberately, and immediately he turned his qi and patted An Xiaoran on the back.

Let the dizzy An Xiaoran finally regain his consciousness.

Casino people are the easiest to grab the gambler’s heart, keep tempting, and then brainwash the gambler, after making the gambler’s gambling red eye, they can control the gambler at will.

An Xiaoran was in this state before. When she regained her consciousness, she suddenly realized that after entering the casino and losing a few hands, she seemed to have become another person, completely losing her mind.

I even forgot my goal.

Nowadays, she keeps thinking about it, and the more she thinks about it, the more she gets scared. This is a bet, it is deadly!

What ten bets and nine loses, this is ten bets and ten loses! No matter how you win, you will have to lose it all in the end, and even ruin your own family. It is an extremely simple matter!

At the same time, An Xiaoran was also very grateful to Lin Kai. If Lin Kai hadn't appeared to save her in time, she would have to pay for herself as a person, and the end would be terrible!

And the strong man at this time, seeing Lin Kai ruin his original plan, was furious, pointed at Lin Kai, and shouted coldly: "Who are you? Dare to stop me from doing business in this casino? Don't want your life. Up?"

Seeing that the plan was about to succeed, I didn't expect to be stopped by a kid who suddenly appeared.

More importantly, Hao Shao has been watching here.

After he got it right, Hao Shao would definitely give him a generous reward, but now, it is destroyed, let alone the reward, it is good if he is not punished!

Therefore, the strong man naturally concentrated all his anger on Lin Kai.

Lin Kaizi would not expose his identity so easily, so he took out some betting coins and said: "I am a gambler here too, but I think this little girl is not too sensible. You are so anxious. Little girl, its still not very good. I can use these bets directly for this little girl instead of borrowing from you."

After Lin Kai returned to the barbecue restaurant quickly, he saw Alice returning to the hotel safely. He pulled the Rolls-Royce Phantom to its full speed and quickly caught up with the black business car driven by the wretched fat man. .

Of course, after he caught up, he deliberately slowed down to avoid the obscene fat man from discovering him.

Lin Kai didn't worry about this big-hearted An Xiaoran, even if An Xiaoran didn't reveal his specific identity.

He can also infer one or two, they are definitely the jewels in the hands of big powers and big families.

Sure enough, while on the road, the wretched fat man secretly sent a message to Hao Shao. An Xiaoran didn't notice it, and rushed into the casino stupidly and started gambling.

Lin Kai watched all those scenes.

The reason why An Xiaoran was not stopped at the beginning was mainly because he wanted to see what methods Hao Shao wanted to use and what tricks he was playing with.

Just now, that strong man took out the mortgage contract, and Lin Kai used the golden pupil to see the above agreement clearly, what kind of mortgage contract is! Obviously it is a bargain!

Seeing this, Lin Kai ran out to stop An Xiaoran from signing the mortgage contract.

In addition to this reason, there is one more thing. I hope that this lesson will give An Xiaoran a deep impression, so that in her future life, don't be so mindless. This is even more serious.

If Lin Kai hadn't looked at him, he wouldn't help An Xiaoran like that.

"Huh! Boy, since you are here to gamble, follow the rules of our casino and don't hinder our casino, otherwise, gamblers like you are not welcome here!"

The strong man gave a cold snort, and immediately took out another mortgage contract that was exactly the same as the one just now, obviously backed up in advance.

Not only that, he took out a pen and handed it to An Xiaoran, indicating that An Xiaoran should continue to sign the mortgage contract.

An Xiaoran has already been run by Lin Kai, and the infuriating spirit has regained consciousness. Where did she dare to sign this kind of mortgage contract, so she sneered: "Is this lady really a fool? Look at the treaty above. Did anyone sign it? If you want this lady to sign this mortgage contract, you just dream!"

"Huh? You still don't want to sign? Don't sign? Then you will pay the money you owe our casino, and now pay me all, otherwise it's not that you didn't want to sign without signing!" The strong man yelled in a threatening tone Sounded.

Chapter 1394: Can't Win?

Chapter 1394 Can't Win?

When An Xiaoran heard this, she knew that she was at a loss, but she could afford tens of millions of dollars. She only brought one card and the phone was put in the cabinet.

However, the attitude of this strong man made An Xiaoran very upset, and he coldly snorted: "What kind of fierce, are you afraid that this lady can't afford it? I will pay the money back this morning!"

Tens of millions is not a small amount, and it takes a lot of time to transfer money, so An Xiaoran said that the morning is actually quite fast.

"Heh! Tens of millions? It's still in the morning? Do you really think you can afford it?" The strong man showed sarcasm in his eyes. He naturally didn't believe that An Xiaoran could afford it. After all, no matter how old An Xiaoran looked Very small.

What's more, if An Xiaoran's background is really extraordinary, how can there be no bodyguards to protect him.

As a result, the strong man didn't think An Xiaoran could really afford tens of millions.

The most important point is that his original purpose was not to make An Xiaoran repay the money, but to make An Xiaoran sign the mortgage contract.

Once signed, the contract becomes effective, and An Xiaoran must follow the treaty in the contract!

Thinking of this, the strong man replied sternly: "It's okay to pay back the money! But I'll pay you back two hours, that is, you must pay back the tens of millions to me before six o'clock in the morning! Don't even think about going to your cell phone. Take it, you can only find a way to repay the money here, you can choose to borrow from others, or you can gamble again, otherwise you can only sign a mortgage contract! If you don't pay back..."

The strong man sneered, he immediately patted his hand gently, and a dozen security guards in suits surrounded him.

An Xiaoran originally felt that she was a bit wrong, but the aggressive attitude of the strong man made her furious.

How can she pay back the money in two hours without using her mobile phone?

borrow? From whom? Apart from the casino itself, who would dare to lend tens of millions to a stranger?

And gambling, An Xiaoran always feels weird. In short, she can't think that she won't say she won tens of millions in gambling, and she can win a bet of more than half a million, she feels very remarkable.

After all, she hadn't bet before, and she still lost miserably, as if she had been manipulated.

Isn't such an unreasonable request by a strong man asking her to sign a mortgage contract in disguise?

Especially the strong man, he also commanded the security staff of this casino and threatened her! This is really outrageous!

An Xiaoran became more and more angry as she thought about it. Seeing the skillful appearance of the strong man, she could guess that this casino must have used the same tricks, and she didn't know how many ignorant girls were killed.

She couldn't help it anymore, took out the blue long sword she was carrying, held it in her hand, and said in a cold voice: "You not only made unreasonable demands, but also sent security personnel to threaten this lady? You really are this lady. Soft persimmon? This lady is not angry yet, you are forcing this lady to get angry!"

After speaking, An Xiaoran was about to make a move.

"Miss, what you said is wrong, you should be owed money to pay off debts."

Lin Kai walked in front of An Xiaoran, blocked it, and immediately stopped An Xiaoran from doing it. Then he looked at the strong man, smiled and said, "Do you have to pay all the money back within two hours? Okay, I'll help this young lady pay it back, you don't have to do something with a little girl."

"Hehe, boy, you only have a few hundred dollars all over your body, and you don't even have a fast watch. Just like you, can you get tens of millions?"

Not to mention, this strong man is also a casino player, he can see what he wears at a glance, so as to analyze whether the gambler is really rich or pretend to have no money.

Of course, there are also rich people who don't care about their appearance.

But those kinds of people are rare, even old people.

A young man like Lin Kai, if he is so rich, how can he be willing to keep a low profile, and he wears local food.

The strong man naturally did not believe that Lin Kai was the kind of low-key young man, more like an ordinary gambler with no money.

Although this casino needs a certain identity to enter.

But those with identities can also bring in some miscellaneous people.

This is why, the casino is divided into two levels.

In the casino on the second floor, as long as you win 5,000 bet coins, you can enter the third floor.

The service on the third layer is better, the gameplay is more, and at the same time the weight of the bet is sufficient. It is often the real rich who play on the third layer.

This made the strong man believe that the young boy in front of him was just bragging, and the sarcasm in his eyes was even worse.

Lin Kai smiled disapprovingly, and first said, "I do not have tens of millions of funds in my body at the moment."

In fact, tens of millions, for Lin Kai, is naturally a small amount of money. Just because he is a shareholder of Li Shengxians company, he can easily take out tens of millions, not to mention the shares of other companies and his own company. .

He didn't bring any cards, even if he brought them, he would not use them.

The strong man was very surprised. He glanced at Lin Kai. He didn't seem to expect that Lin Shanxiong told the truth. He thought that Lin Kai would still take care of his face and would continue to pretend to be rich.

"Haha, boy, you are quite self-aware. After being seen through by me, you can still admit that you have no money. That's not bad, the boy is acquainted, so don't hinder our casino from doing things! Otherwise, even you will clean up! "The strong man seemed impatient, and immediately threatened Lin Kai.

Lin Kai's expression remained unchanged, and while throwing the bet coins in his hand, he responded in a very leisurely manner: "I don't have any money right now. I really can't afford it. Don't I have two hours? Within these two hours, could it be me Can't you win tens of millions?"

Let alone win back all the money this lady owes. I have to win another tens of millions, and then let your casino owner take a bet with me. If I win another tens of millions, I am always qualified to gamble with your casino owner, right? "

Lin Kai said leisurely.

But what he said, whether it was the strong man, the security personnel who surrounded him, and the attendants nearby, they all laughed unceremoniously as if they had heard the funniest joke in the world.

While they laughed, they did not forget to look at Lin Kai with idiotic eyes.

What an international joke is this kid!

Not only want to win back the tens of millions owed by An Xiaoran, but also tens of millions more? How can it be!

They are doing things for the casino themselves, how can they not know the truth about it!

When An Xiaoran heard Lin Kai say this, her pretty face changed slightly. She had experienced the lesson of gambling. This lesson has been deeply imprinted in her mind, and quickly persuaded: "Lin Kai, don't gamble, you can't win. of!"

Chapter 1395: All Pressed

Chapter 1395

An Xiaoran recalled that her previous gambling scenes always felt weird, but she couldn't tell what was weird.

But whether it was her or Lin Kai, they would definitely not win.

Where is this casino with ten bets and nine losses, it is clearly ten bets and ten losses!

Therefore, An Xiaoran persuaded Lin Kai not to gamble without even thinking about it! Otherwise she will end up the same!

Lin Kai smiled secretly when he saw An Xiaoran like this. It seems that this lesson really made An Xiaoran's memory up, which is a good thing.

He naturally didn't listen to An Xiaoran's words, but instead smiled confidently: "Miss, it's because of your bad luck. I have been watching it all the time. When it was midnight, I was looking for a fortune teller online. Master, fortune to yourself, saying that today is the best day in my life."

"That's why I came to the casino to see how good my luck is. Maybe, maybe I can win tens of millions, then I won't worry about eating and drinking in my life."

What Lin Kai said must be false, only to confuse the strong men and others.

His words made the strong man laugh even more and laughed at Lin Kai's brain again.

Even An Xiaoran was speechless, and gave Lin Kai angrily.

Lin Kai ignored other reactions, and walked to the next gaming table casually, shrugged, and said casually, "You can get the tens of millions of cash in your casino? Today, yes. The best day of my life, then I will earn tens of millions from your casino."

"Arrogant! I want to see what you can do to allow our casino to post money! Hey, don't you lose your money when the time comes. People like you, our casino dare not provide IOU services. Anyway, after two hours, that lady, you must sign the mortgage contract, otherwise don't want to leave!"

The strong man said with a sneer, and then winked at the dealer at the gaming table without moving his eyes.

The dealer immediately understood and responded with a look at the strong man.

How could Lin Kai not notice the seemingly secret eye contact between the two.

He smiled to himself without paying any attention.

This gambling table is quite big and there are many gamblers. The gameplay at this table is also the simplest and rude, that is, it's a pip.

Take three cards and see who has the largest number of points added together, and that is who wins.

It's pure luck and doesn't require so many skills to attract many gamblers to play.

At this time, the dealer at the gaming table looked at Lin Kai and said: "Newcomers, please press at least ten betting coins at a time. You can raise unlimited bets."

Lin chuckled and threw ten betting coins on the gaming table where he was standing.

Other gamblers also placed their bets. Some of them, like Lin Kai, had the lowest ten coins, and some directly placed hundreds of coins.

When betting, the more you place, the more you earn.

As all the gamblers on the gaming table have finished placing their bets, the special dealers begin to deal cards for each gambler.

Everyone has three cards.

Some gamblers picked it up and looked at it, while others wanted to bet on their luck.

The gamblers who watched the cards either gave up the raise or were confident that the deck could win and raised.

Lin Kai didn't choose to look at the cards either. To be precise, he didn't need to look at it by himself, urging the golden pupils, and then he could buy the cards in the hands of those present, and they could see clearly.

The points of the three cards in Lin Kai's hand are quite small, but not the smallest.

He noticed that the person who hadn't looked at the cards had higher points than him, but he realized that the person was actually a support, and he secretly urged his anger.

Then Lin Kai didn't fold. Although this kind of comparison doesn't look at any skills, there are still some skills.

So he called fifty betting coins.

Other gamblers on the crowd sneered when they saw that Lin Kai did not raise but instead called.

"Isn't this a newbie? In this case, to bet with that not looking at the cards, I really don't think I have too much money!" The onlookers couldn't help but laugh.

Lin laughed and said nothing.

But An Xiaoran was a little anxious: "I said, you don't need to see the cards yourself, why call the one who didn't see the cards? Are you giving money to the casino?"

Lin Kai responded with a smile: "Is it a gift? I won't know in a moment."

At this moment, the person who had added fifty bet coins without looking at the cards gave Lin Kai a very surprised look, and then his eyes fell on the dealer.

In fact, his support at this table is to trick the gamblers into calling, not to raise.

The dealer saw this immediately, and the dealer winked at him.

This support quickly followed one hundred bet coins quietly.

Gamblers who have not yet folded have two choices. They can either play with a hundred coins or fold.

As for Lin Kai, he had to follow at least two hundred betting coins.

It didn't take long for Lin Kai and this support to remain on the table without folds, but kept calling each other.

In this way, the bet on this gaming table has reached as high as 1,500 betting coins.

The trustee looked at Lin Kai at this moment and snorted coldly: "Boy, neither of us looked at the cards. We were all gamble on luck. You call at will. I will follow as many as you follow! I want to see, you pay How much can you follow!"

Lin Kai smiled upon hearing this, "I still have 600 bet coins left, so let's follow it all. You have to play 1,200 bet coins, and then all cards are opened, how about?"

"Okay!" This chest support said well. As a casino support, how could the cards in his hand be bad! Naturally confident!

When Lin Kai and this trust decided to open the cards.

The strong man walked behind the croupier secretly. He was a little worried, so he asked quietly, "What's the card for that kid?"

The dealer smiled and responded in a low voice: "Don't worry, that kid's card is a three, a four, and a six, and the point is three. And he has three threes, and the point is nine, which is much larger than that kid's card."

The croupier said that he was very confident. The licensing is professional. It is not just a simple licensing. You have to record the cards and use some methods to conduct targeted licensing.

Therefore, the croupier knows all the cards in the hands of every gambler at the scene.

When he heard the croupier say this, the strong man instantly relieved his heart. After all, Lin Kai's calm appearance made him feel uncomfortable in his heart before asking the croupier.

Now that he got this answer, the strong man left with satisfaction, and then he looked at Lin Kai with a calm face, with a rich sarcasm at the corners of his mouth, let's see how you lose when you wait!

Chapter 1396: Good Luck

Chapter 1396

When the strong man thought that Lin Kai would lose immediately, he felt relieved for a while.

This kid had ruined the plan, which made him very unhappy, but he represented the casino, and Lin Kai didn't do anything, and he couldn't directly attack Lin.

When I see Lin Kai deflated in a moment, how can a strong man be unhappy?

The smile on the face of the strong man gradually appeared.

But at this time, the prop immediately followed one thousand two hundred bet coins, and then opened the card without hesitation. After seeing his card, he laughed: "Three cards of three! The biggest nine points! Hehe, Boy, I don't believe you are lucky enough to make it to ten o'clock! Except ten o'clock, none of your points can beat me!"

This support seemed to be victorious, stretched out his hand, ready to take away all the betting coins in this game of the casino.

Lin Kai said in a hurry: "Who loses and who wins is not always certain. Are you in a hurry to take betting coins?"

Lin Kai said that he turned over the first two cards, a three and a six.

"Haha, one three and one six! Unless your last card is an A! There are three Aces in the discardable cards. I don't believe that your last card will be Aces!" Endless.

Even if he is not a trustee, he does not believe Lin Kai's luck is so good.

We must know that this probability is very small, only one A is left, even if it is a ten, although the number of points is nine, but it is three three, which is the maximum nine points.

Therefore, Lin opened his third card and only had an Ace to win him.

Besides, he is a trust! When the dealer deals the cards, he naturally gives him the biggest card!

Other gamblers also nodded their heads with deep approval, unless Lin Kai's luck was against the sky, but the probability was too small and too small.

Lin Kai didn't care, knowing that he looked down at the third card that hadn't been revealed yet, he pretended to think: "If you want to beat you, you really only have an Ace. But I found it online. The fortune-teller, told me fortunes, saying that today is the best day of my life. So, I think this third card will be an A."

As soon as the words came out, everyone around laughed, some thought it was funny, some were mocking, and basically no one was optimistic that the third card was an A.

"This kid is really interesting. He told his fortune before entering the casino. I really thought those so-called fortune-telling masters could be accurate!"

"When I saw that this kid was a newcomer, I thought I also trusted the fortune-telling master very much at the beginning. I didn't even look at the cards. I just went to the end and ended up going bankrupt instantly!"

“Hey, it seems that this kid will be taught a lesson this time. If he loses, all his more than 1,000 bet coins will be gone.”

The gamblers onlookers nearby were watching a good show.

Aside from these people, An Xiaoran thought that when Lin opened the third card, it could not be an Ace.

The strong man even sneered, looking at Lin Kai with a fool’s eyes.

Lin Kai ignored everyone’s gaze, stretched out his hand to hold the third card, immediately opened it, put it on the table, and then chuckled softly: “God bless me, give me an A!”

With a snap, the third card that was opened was indeed an Ace!

One three, one six, and this one A! Ten o’clock! A little more than the three sheets of support!

“Damn! Isn’t it? The fortune-telling master this kid is looking for is so accurate! The luck is really good!”

“Yes, the last A was also taken by this kid! This luck!”

The other gamblers showed envy one by one, wishing Lin’s good luck would be transferred to them.

Compared with these gamblers, there is nothing more incredible than the casino side.

What strong men, dealers and the like, especially croupiers! That was the card he handed!

He clearly gave Lin Kai a three, a six, and a four. Why is the four now an A?

Could it be that he missed it?

Although I have missed my hand before, but now I am skilled, and I haven’t made any mistakes for a long time, let alone such a big mistake!

Then it’s not that I missed it, so how to explain it!

The strong man’s complexion was very ugly. He thought that Lin had a terrible loss at the meeting, but he didn’t expect such an accident to happen! This makes it difficult for him to accept, what the **** is going on!

The strong man stared at Lin Kai gloomily, especially seeing Lin Kai taking away all the betting coins on the gaming table.

Naturally, the croupier did not miss, but who is Lin Kai?

As a cultivator, it’s not a matter of minutes to exchange real energy for a card.

Lin Kai glanced at the dealer and smiled: “Are you still opening the dealer?”

The dealer secretly looked at the croupier, and the croupier gave an affirmative look.

The dealer said: “Continue to open the dealer!”

And the strong man ran behind the croupier secretly and asked the croupier to pay attention this time, and this time let Lin Kai go bankrupt!

Soon, at this gaming table, people from the casino came to be the banker.

Lin Kai let the casino players continue to be the bankers, naturally, to win the casino.

It didn't take long to start another round.

This time the croupier sent a three-ten ten to the dealer and developed two nine-one two for Lin.

Although other gamblers also have big names, they do not have as many points as the dealer and Lin Kai.

The reason for this is to let Lin Kai call with the dealer.

This time perhaps it was stimulated by the good luck of the superior, Lin Kai, so most of the gamblers chose not to look at the cards and called one after another, which made the bet coins more and more in this round.

Naturally, Lin Kai didn't look at the cards either. He didn't call the bet for the first time, but directly added a thousand bet coins.

Many gamblers have to follow at least 1,500 per bet currency, which is quite a lot. Most gamblers are afraid to follow and fold their cards.

But some of the bold, gritted their teeth.

As a result, at the beginning, the bet on this gaming table exceeded tens of thousands!

At present, apart from Lin Kai and the dealer, there are four others who have not folded.

Both Lin Kai and the banker kept raising, and those four kept calling.

After a while, Lin Kai raised all the 6,000 coins he won in his last hand.

Lin Kai simply said: "You can keep calling like this, it's no way. I don't have much money to bet on, so I'll look at the cards. If the points are bad, I just give up."

With that said, Lin Kai picked up the card and went to see it secretly.

An Xiaoran also looked closer, and when he saw that Lin Kai was two nine and one two, he almost couldn't help but yell.

It's ten o'clock again! It's the second largest ten points! Unless it is three tens, Lin Kai's cards can be suppressed!

But An Xiaoran was not so happy, because she thought the casino was very problematic, and she thought she was very lucky before. In the end, she was always overwhelmed by the dealer, as if she was being manipulated.

An Xiaoran wanted to remind Lin Kai now.

Chapter 1397: Gamble

Chapter 1397

Therefore, An Xiaoran was about to say something to Lin Kai at this time.

But before she could speak, Lin Kai frowned and looked at the cards in his hand, showing a dilemma, as if hesitating.

Then Lin Kai kept shook his head and sighed and asked, "I'm not afraid of you, my card has a lot of points. It seems that the fortune teller is right. Today is indeed the luckiest day in my life! But the fortune teller Thousands are counted, but the details are not counted.

I have lost a bet coin, and I don't have enough money to exchange for the lowest 100 bet coins. Therefore, I have no capital to raise. But I raised and fold now, which is really a pity. You guys, how can I continue to raise? Instead of choosing to fold. "

Before everyone could respond to Lin Kai, Lin Kai thought about it for a while, then suddenly realized that he patted the table: "Yes!"

Then Lin Kai looked at the strong man, pointed at An Xiaoran with his finger, and at the same time asked the strong man: "Anyway, I am helping this young lady to gamble. I will use this young lady to mortgage your casino. You lend me millions. Yuan, exchange it into equivalent betting coins. I want a stud. If I win, I will definitely have money. Help this lady and pay back the casino money."

Of course An Xiaoran was the first one, so he was very unhappy. He glared at Lin Kai and hummed, "Take this lady as a mortgage? Didn't you sell me in disguise!"

Lin Kai smiled faintly: "I didn't see the casino party saying that if you don't pay off the tens of millions you owe within two hours, you have to sign a mortgage contract. Now there is one and a half hours left, anyway You have to sign a mortgage contract. What's more, you have seen the cards in my hand. The points are big enough? You can definitely win. You might as well give it a try. If you do it right, you can pay back the casino money, even You can still make money from the casino!"

"This...but, but..."

An Xiaoran didn't know how to refute it. Indeed, the cards in Lin Kai's hand can be said to be very large, except for three tens, which can suppress the two nines and one ace in Lin Kai's hand.

But the point is, she always felt that the casino could control, deliberately let Lin Kai's cards do well, attracting Lin Kai's desperate raise.

It is also impossible for her to say that there is a problem with this casino without any basis.

Otherwise, the people in the casino would definitely be angry and ashamed, and detain both her and Lin Kai.

Although she is not afraid of the casino doing it, she does owe a lot of money to the casino. It is entirely because of her own heart that this result is caused.

An Xiaoran experienced this time, she already knows how to think about many aspects.

As a result, she was entangled, not knowing what to say to Lin Kai, her doubts.

But soon, An Xiaoran had no chance to talk.

Because the strong man was overjoyed when he heard Lin Kai's words, he naturally couldn't ask for it, so he immediately ordered his men to come over with a contract.

Now that he took it, the strong man immediately put the contract and a pen in front of Lin Kai's table, and said with a smile: "Our casino has been open for so many years, and no one does this. We have our own set of methods. Appraisal. This young lady can mortgage up to five million yuan, but if you are so interested, double it to ten million!"

Lin Kai also responded with a smile: "Thank you."

After speaking, let An Xiaoran quickly sign the words on the contract.

An Xiaoran was very resistant at first, and then due to the urgency of time, anyway, holding the mentality of getting a sign at the end, she bit her silver teeth and signed it.

It didn't take long for Lin Kai to get the same ten million bet coins.

Of course, betting coins also have denominations.

Ten million bet coins were converted into one hundred bet coins.

In other words, this bet coin is 100,000, which is the largest denomination bet coin.

This bet currency can also be seen on the third floor of the casino.

It was unprecedented on the second floor, which caused many gamblers on the second floor to be attracted to watch this big bet.

After getting the 100 bet coins, Lin Kai resolutely threw out ten bet coins, which are worth one million yuan, and calmly said, "Raise one million!"

The dealer smiled and called the bet currency worth millions.

As for the other four, seeing Lin Kai so confident, they were mortgaged by others, and without blinking their eyes, they raised millions of bet coins.

The dealer followed!

This makes the four gamblers feel like they are fighting. They actually have the money to call, but it is estimated that one million is just the beginning.

No matter how rich he is, he dare not follow along. After all, once he loses, he will immediately go bankrupt.

After some analysis, the four gamblers all fold.

In fact, the most important thing is that their cards are not good. If the cards are a little better, they will definitely have a brainstorm and call to the end.

Gamblers almost always have this mentality. A little better, they think they can kill the Quartet, but in reality, they slap their faces severely. When they regret it, it is too late.

Lin Kai just smiled when the four gamblers gave up, and then it was his turn to raise.

Lin Kai said to the dealer: "I still have ninety bet coins worth nine million. I'm all stud, will you follow? If you follow, just open the card."

"with!"

The dealer pretended to hesitate for a while before he made up his mind.

In fact, his heart sneered, how could he not follow!

He never looked at the cards because he wanted to induce Lin Kai to raise frantically.

Because once he saw the card, if he called like this, Lin Kai would never call.

As for Lin Kai now he saw the cards, the dealer didn't take it seriously. Although he didn't look at the cards, he already knew through his hidden headset device that his cards were three tens! The biggest point!

Even if you have any ten points, it is no more than three ten points!

So this time, this kid will definitely lose!

Ever since, Lin Kai and the banker each pushed nine million worth of bet coins forward to the middle of the gaming table.

The dealer couldn't wait, and took the lead to open the cards, and first revealed the first two tens. Instead of turning over the last one, he took a provocative look at Lin Kai.

It means that you should also flip out the first two cards first.

Lin Kai smiled faintly, and immediately turned over the first two cards, which were two nines.

This scene made the other gamblers stare. They were more nervous than Lin Kai and the dealer, the two parties!

The total value of the betting coins at this gaming table exceeded 20 million! It's definitely a gamble!

Not to mention the second layer of the casino, the third layer of this level of gamble, are somewhat rare! One round is more than ten million at most, but this is more than twenty million!

No wonder the gamblers onlookers were extremely nervous.

Chapter 1398: Really Won

Chapter 1398: Really Won

To say that the most tense scene was An Xiaoran.

After all, Lin Kai took a bet currency worth tens of millions of dollars and used her as collateral.

If this one loses, let alone pay back the casino money, even Lin Kai himself will have to pay it, let alone her.

Of course, if you really win, you won 20 to 30 million directly. Not only can you still owe money to the casino, you can also make 10 million from the casino!

But An Xiaoran didn't know what to do. Although he saw the cards in Lin Kai's hand, except for three tens, there was no bigger card than Lin Kai's hand.

Especially when she saw the dealer and turned over the first two tens, she became even more nervous, for fear that the dealer's third unrevealed card was a ten.

Under An Xiaoran's unusually nervous and nervous gaze, the dealer gradually revealed the third card.

"Hey, you said you found a fortune-telling master, and you did a fortune telling for you, saying that your luck today is very good. But unfortunately, I also found a fortune-telling master, do it for me, and say that my luck today is also The best! Even if you are lucky to meet someone, you can suppress it."

The dealer said with a smile, and then completely turned over the cards in his hand and slapped them on the table. He didn't even look at the third card, and then continued: "So, my third card is also a ten!"

But the scene was silent, and even stared at him very strangely.

This made the dealer very surprised, how many people at the scene stared at him with strange eyes.

He didn't care about the gambler's gaze. Whether it was a strong man or a croupier, the casinos themselves looked like they had seen a ghost, making him inexplicably uneasy.

The dealer's heart trembled, could it be...

He slowly lowered his eyes and saw that his third card was not a ten, but an Ace!

what! How is this possible! Isn't it three ten? Why are two eleven Aces! This adds up to only one point! The smallest points!

Not to mention the dealer's horror, the croupier was shivering. He obviously issued three tens, how could one ten become an A!

In other words, he missed again?

The croupier's mind was blank. He didn't know how many gamblers had been cheated for this casino, and he was a little proud of those gamblers who ruined their families and died.

After all, he helped the casino win, and even the other croupiers in the casino were taught by him.

In the past, even if you missed it, it was just the same, and it still allowed the casino to win.

But what is going on today!

Let alone miss two consecutive misses, the difference between these misses is too big!

The croupier also knew that no matter what the reason, his job would definitely be gone.

Contrary to the reactions of others, An Xiaoran was extremely excited and won! Really won!

No need for Lin Kai to flip, An Xiaoran helped Lin Kai flip his third card, which was a two!

Lin opened two cards, nine and one two, ten points! Naturally it is bigger than the dealer's two eleven Aces!

The gamblers who were onlookers opened their eyes wide and exclaimed. They all looked at Lin Kai with envy and hatred, wishing to replace Lin Kai!

This one made more than 20 million! How many people do not eat or drink all their lives without making such money!

“Sorry, I won. Haha, I said, today is my lucky day. Even if it is my lucky day, I am very cautious to look at the cards, but you are so careless, you dare to bet at all That’s so big. Since I won, then I will accept it.” Lin chuckled and was about to take away all the betting coins on the gaming table.

The dealer hurriedly shouted: “I suspect that you are out of business, you must cooperate with our casino investigation!”

“Oh? Out of the old one? How do I get out of the old one? Under all eyes, and I don’t believe it, your casino is not here, full of surveillance. These surveillances are 360 degrees without dead ends, don’t let this casino go A corner.”

Lin Kai calmly said: “I guess, in the monitoring room of your casino, all the monitoring of this layer of casino is concentrated on me. Many of the staff in your casino are definitely staring at me. In this state , How do I get to Lao Qian?”

Under Lin Kai’s series of rhetorical questions, the group of gamblers who were watching on the scene nodded, yeah, what a masterful skill is needed to be able to do so in this state.

These words also left the dealer speechless, but still bit the bullet and said: “We just suspect that you are paying a thousand dollars. You can’t take the bet coins here! You must wait for our investigation before you can take it! “

Lin sneered happily, investigating? Hundred% is to give you an unwarranted charge, even if you don’t, you will be deducted a charge.

At that time, you will definitely not be able to get the betting coins on this gaming table, and you may even be given the opportunity by the casino to take a lesson. This is the normal routine of this type of casino.

How could Lin Kai be frightened, but An Xiaoran looked nervous.

Afterwards, Lin Kai said, “Since you suspect that I am out of the house, why have you taken me away for investigation? Can’t the investigation work now? You can see if there is one more card or one less card in the whole deck? The cards are not enough.”

This time, the dealer finally closed his mouth.

Other gamblers urged the croupier to check this deck of cards quickly.

In full view, the croupier did not have the opportunity to use other techniques to get an extra deck of cards, so they had to investigate the deck of cards and there was no problem.

“So, I didn’t pay a lot of money.” Lin Kai laughed, and took away all the betting coins on the gaming table, and then continued: “I said, today is the luckiest day in my life. You still dont believe it! I won only 20 million, and its too slow to win. Why dont you go and play with the dice on the next table. Win faster.”

With that said, Lin Kai walked to the next gaming table, where his gameplay was to roll the dice and guess odds or evens.

It is also very simple and rude, and it is also a gambling method that has been passed down from ancient times to the present. It is very classic and there are many gamblers.

An Xiaoran was very surprised. She obviously made more than 20 million yuan. She didnt know why Lin Kai wanted to play. She wanted to stop Lin Kai from playing, but she didnt expect Lin Kai to hesitate. Already walked to the next gaming table.

In desperation, An Xiaoran had to follow Lin Kai to the side of Lin Kai.

The reason why Lin Kai continued to gamble was not only to save An Xiaoran, but also to destroy the casino.

Because on the way here, he asked the hidden **** to investigate the information of Zhou Tianhao, a young man from Jinyuan City.

To be precise, Lin Kai wanted to investigate the Zhou family behind Zhou Tianhao and what kind of cooperative relationship he had with Leiyuan Group.

Chapter 1399: Lin Kai's Purpose

Chapter 1399 Lin Kai's Purpose

Lin Kai didn't expect that after such an investigation by Yinshen, he really found some relations between Leiyuan Group and Zhou's family in Jinyuan City.

It is obviously a cooperative relationship. Leiyuan Group intends to unite large groups and large families in several nearby cities.

The Wanxin Group behind Shao Xin is one of them.

Of course, what Yinshen investigated was still a little rough, after all, the time given was short.

Lin Kai only learned some useful information from his mouth by chasing down the ancient martial artist who had sacrificed his life for Lin Yuan, and then using the ability to tell the truth.

This information was similar to the results of the Yinshen investigation, but he was more detailed than the Yinshen.

Therefore, when he heard Hao Shao Zhou Tianhao earlier, he felt that the Zhou family behind Zhou Tianhao was the big family to cooperate with Leiyuan Group.

The most important thing for him was to ask Yinshen to investigate the Zhou family.

Another amazing secret was discovered. This week, the family was actually the first to cooperate with Leiyuan Group.

Of course, it is secret cooperation.

The Leiyuan Group took a fancy to the big casino of Zhou's family and spent a lot of money to acquire half of the control of the casino.

However, Leiyuan Group will not manage it, and will still let the Zhou family manage it.

This is also Lin Yuan's cleverness and will not leave the handle there.

However, Yinshen could only investigate these temporarily, and did not know what Leiyuan Group wanted to do with this casino.

Lin Kai suspected that this casino was providing Leiyuan Group with a large amount of cash flow.

You know this big casino, it can be said that the whole province can be ranked in the top three big casinos, and the daily flow is scary.

For example, Lin Kai just got 20 to 30 million in flow.

Together with others, it is estimated that the daily flow of water can reach hundreds of millions.

Naturally, Leiyuan Group would not let go of such a terrifying flow.

Lin Kai also suspected that the reason why Leiyuan Group was able to make acquisitions so quickly, other people's companies or groups, might use the money from casinos to come so quickly.

Therefore, Lin Kaizi would not watch this casino open again.

His current goal is to make this casino collapse!

In this way, it can also cause a blow to the Leiyuan Group. Although it is not a fatal blow, it is not a small blow.

At this time, Lin Kai saw that the dealer at this gaming table was rolling the dice, and then the gambler placed a bet, guessing whether it was single or double.

If you guess wrong, your bet will be gone.

If it is wrong, double win.

Compared with the idea, this is simpler and cruder, and faster. It does not need to shuffle the cards and wait for the cards to be opened.

Since this gambling table was right there, next to the table where Lin Kai had bet before, everyone at this table naturally knew Lin Kai.

The gamblers looked at Lin Kai with envy and hatred, especially when they saw the large bet coins in Lin Kai's hand, they were extremely envious.

The dealer at this table, of course, also knew Lin Kai, not to mention that he also received instructions from the casino to give him.

So the dealer, looking at Lin Kai, smiled and said, "This gentleman, this is a plan. How many games are you going to play?"

Lin Kai responded lightly: "Just one hand, one hand is enough."

As he said, he did not hesitate to hold a bet coin worth close to 30 million, pushed it out, and pressed the word “double” on the gaming table. In other words, Lin Kai was betting on dice, Suppressed an even number.

But the point is that Lin Kai has already pressed the dice before the dealer shakes it!

This made other gamblers stunned, and An Xiaoran was the same. He wanted to break his head and didn't understand what Lin Kai thought!

Is this giving money to the casino?

However, in this scene, the strong man, the dealer at this gaming table, was so surprised that he looked at Lin Kai like a fool again. He had never seen a silly, he had never seen such a silly! That's close to 30 million! That's it all at once, it's pressured!

The dealer was most excited. The man at the casino had just issued an order to let him lose all Lin Kais money.

The dealer also thought that it would take a lot of hands at least to get Lin to close to thirty million before he could lose.

But he didn't expect that Lin opened up close to thirty million, and then pushed out! Didn't this give him a chance!

If he can help the casino and win back close to 30 million, he will definitely be a great reward! He may even be promoted and raise a salary, which is taken seriously by Hao Shao!

Thinking of this, the dealer was even more excited, and without hesitation, he shook the dice in his hand and shook it inside.

This dealer is naturally very professional in dice rolling.

He wants to roll what kind of dice he wants to roll.

What's more, he knew in advance, Lin Kai pressure's even number, he naturally had to shake it to an odd number!

Wow!

The two dice inside were shaken frantically, making noises constantly.

Lin Kai urged the golden pupil to check it out. Finally, the dealer fixed the dice, one is 1, and the other is 2, which adds up to the odd number.

However, how could Lin Kai make the casino do what he wanted, secretly running infuriating, flipped the dice showing 2 and turned it into 3.

In this way, 1 and 3 add up to be a double number.

Naturally, the dealer didnt know. The dice inside had changed. He looked at Lin Kai provocatively and smiled: “This gentleman, he has already suppressed the double, so I cant go back. Ill open it now. The dice, is it odd or double.”

Lin Kai shrugged: "If you want to open it, you can open it directly. There is so much nonsense."

This sentence makes other nearby gamblers speechless. Is this anxious to go bankrupt?

Even An Xiaoran couldn't stand it. He glared at Lin Kai, completely wondering what Lin Kai was doing, is it really addicted to gambling? That won't work!

While An Xiaoran was anxious, she stared at the dealer very nervously, because the dealer began to lift the wooden tube of dice.

"Open!" The dealer was extremely confident and opened it instantly, revealing the two dice inside.

I saw a 1, a 3, a double number!

"Double number! Haha, before entering the casino today, tell the fortune to the master, but that's right! Anyone who is blind can win! Sure enough, today is the best day of my life!" Lin Kai smiled and asked again Said: "I placed a total of 28.72 million worth of bet coins and doubled the win. Please give me the other half's 27.82 million worth of bet coins."

When the other gamblers heard Lin Kai's words, they were shocked one by one and won again!

Is there any reason for this? These gamblers are wondering whether they have to find a maestro to make a fortune for themselves when they enter the casino to make money!

As for An Xiaoran, he finally breathed a sigh of relief and was also extremely excited, looking at Lin Kai with incomparable admiration.

Chapter 1400: On Gambling

Chapter 1400

The dealer's face changed wildly, looking at the dice on the gaming table, his eyes were full of incredible colors, how could it be possible! I've never missed it when I shake a dice!

He is really the kind of dice that rolls whatever dice he wants!

Even if the kind of dice that often appears in film and television dramas, shake the dice to pieces, he can do it!

He played dice since he was young, and then he took the professional route. He confidently said that no one in this entire province knows how to roll dice better than him!

However, he clearly shakes the singular number, how can it become an even number!

The dealer could not accept this fact, and muttered crazy in his mouth: "Impossible! This is impossible! I shook two dice, one is 1, the other is 2, singular! Why become 1 and 3! "

Hearing what the dealer said, Lin Kai sneered at the corner of his mouth, and said lightly: "What? Do you suspect that I have moved my hands and feet? I am so far away from you, there is a table apart, but I did not touch the dice, it is impossible. Say, I'm out of a thousand dollars again, right? In addition, don't hesitate to take over all of the other halves 27,800,000 worth of bet coins. With such an attitude, don't you, the casino, can't afford to lose? "

Lin Kai's words can be said very straightforward, and it also blocked the words of the casino man, and later charged him with an inexplicable charge, suspecting of using his hands or feet.

In order to avoid such troubles, Lin Kaisuo took the lead in making it clear.

Sure enough, as soon as he said these words, whether it was the dealer, the strong man, or the staff of other casinos, they all kept silent, and their expressions were ugly.

I don't know what to do. I lost such a large sum of money, which adds up to more than 50 million.

This basically means winning money from the banker or trust, or to be precise, winning the casino.

But the staff of the casino, as Lin Kai first said, there is no way to find a reason to detain Lin Kai's charges.

If Lin Kai were to take it away, Shao Hao would definitely not let them go.

But it was also impossible for them, in full view, and there was no reason to stand, and they took Lin Kai away directly.

In other words, all the gamblers on the second floor are concentrated on Lin Kai.

If they really dared to take Lin Kai away by force, then these gamblers would not dare to come here to gamble in the future.

A gambler won a lot of money here, and he didn't pay a lot of money. He won normally. However, was taken away by the casino?

In this case, which gambler would dare to come to this casino to gamble?

After all, any gambler goes to the casino to gamble with the mentality of getting rich overnight. If he wins so many, in the end there is such a result, who dares to go?

Although these gamblers understand very well that they have no luck, what if?

Casinos are naturally not stupid. They cannot let these gamblers lose every day. There must be a few winners, and then attract other gamblers to continue to gamble.

The gambler's mentality is not to think that if he wins, he should stop in time.

Of course, often even the one who wins will not stop.

Therefore, it is a good thing that Lin Kai wants to bring down this casino.

Just when the staff of the casino were speechless.

There was a cold voice from not far away: "Who said that my casino can't afford to lose, isn't it more than 20 million? Small meaning."

Everyone couldn't help but look to the left.

On the left side is a luxurious single room, from which a sickly looking young man walked out. It was Hao Shao Zhou Tianhao and the owner of this casino.

At this time, Zhou Tianhao's pale face became even more embarrassing. Obviously, it was because Lin Kai had won his 50 million yuan in this casino. It would definitely be uncomfortable for anyone.

On the contrary, An Xiaoran was angry when she saw Zhou Tianhao. If it weren't for this kind of grandma, she would not have come to this casino, let alone owe money to the casino.

What's more, this young man, he sent someone to transfer her away, so An Xiaoran was naturally even more angry.

If it hadn't been for Lin Kai to stop An Xiaoran, An Xiaoran would have rushed forward and gave Zhou Tianhao a severe lesson.

Regardless of the dealer or the strong man, the staff of this group of casinos saw Zhou Tianhao approaching, and they hurriedly bowed to Zhou Tianhao, and then shouted in unparalleled respect: "Hao Shao!"

When Zhou Tianhao saw this scene, he felt better. These men were still quite sensible and gave him a lot of cards.

Of course, he still looked indifferent on the surface, and immediately he walked over to the dealer and signaled the dealer to come.

But after a while, the dealer left, and Zhou Tianhao took the place of the dealer.

Zhou Tianhao first glanced at An Xiaoran, his eyes showed a trace of undisguised heat, and then he turned his gaze to Lin Kai's body, which instantly changed into a cold look, but the corner of his mouth still smiled: "Brother, I heard you are Because, in order to win the money owed to our casino for this beauty, he came to gamble?"

"Why? No?" Lin Kai responded calmly: "No matter what reason I gambled, do I need to explain to the casino? Gamblers come to the casino to gamble, should there be no reason? If you really need any reason, I believe Your casino will not open long ago. Right?"

"You're right." Zhou Tianhao's eyes became colder and colder, but the smile on the corner of his mouth became stronger and stronger: "Brother, how about I come to give you a gamble? One will determine the outcome. If I lose, you Dont enter my casino anymore. That beauty will stay here. Dont you want to be a hero and save the beauty? Ben will give you a chance."

The beautiful woman mentioned by Zhou Tianhao naturally refers to An Xiaoran.

Lin Kai smiled faintly immediately: "Yes, but did you lose? You lose. Not only do you have to give me the doubled bet coins and exchange them for cash together, you must also let her slap you three times. Anyway, she has already If you slap you once, and then slap you three more slaps, you shouldn't mind? If you don't mind, then start betting."

Lin Kai offered one more condition, of course, to relieve An Xiaoran's anger.

Look at An Xiaoran's angry look right now, he was about to explode, if he hadn't pressed An Xiaoran's slender arm, he would have rushed to slap Zhou Tianhao's slap.

After hearing Lin Kai's words, An Xiaoran calmed down and felt that Lin Kai's proposal was very good.

As for Zhou Tianhao, his face was very ugly. He remembered that in the afternoon, An Xiaoran slapped him, and then he said cruelly: "Okay! Just bet on your terms! This is your significant other's bet. currency!"

As Zhou Tianhao said, he gave Lin Kai a large bet of nearly three hundred coins.

These large bets amounted to more than 27 million coins, no more, no less, and it was the superior Lin Kai who won.
