Chapter 1451: Not Moving

Chapter 1451

For Gao Zhengsheng, he was very confident and took a group of workers to start building simple houses on drawing paper.

Everyone looked different.

Lin Kai's face was still calm, and it was because he used the extraction ability to check the information about this ancient building structure.

Five thousand years in the Huaxia Kingdom, the ancient buildings left by many craftsmen in ancient times have survived thousands of years and have stood firm.

The structure of many ancient buildings was studied.

Some structures can't even grasp the essence.

This ancient building structure of Lin Kai belonged to that group of experts, and there was no way to grasp the essence.

But this kind of ancient building structure, even if there is no way to understand it, if you want to learn engineering well, you must learn it.

However, this Gao Zhengsheng was very proud, thinking that he was the first in the country in terms of ancient architectural structure, and he didn't even study the ancient architectural structure painted by Lin Kai.

As a result, Gao Zhengsheng completely did not recognize this ancient building structure.

If Gao Zhengsheng's teacher were here, he would definitely be shocked by the ancient architectural structure painted by Lin Kai.

Lin Kai understood this and didn't explain too much. It's better to practice it, this is the truth.

After the simple small house with this structure is built, we will practice whether it is firm.

At that time, no matter if you are an expert or a layman, everyone will be able to see if the structure is really useful.

Often seeing is believing in order to convince other doubters.

The construction team hired by Li Shengxian is of course the best in the country.

Although the land and mountains here, Lin Kai took the lead in buying them at very cheap prices under prompt reminders after Lin Kai solved the evil spirits.

But in the construction of scenic spots and healthy city projects, it is still willing to spend money.

To be willing to be willing, to be willing to have a reward.

Therefore, the most professional ones are requested, the materials are also the best, and the investment is large. If you do it, correspondingly, the higher the profit will be.

Therefore, the construction speed of these workers was very fast, especially Lin Kai, who also went to direct these workers.

He saw Gao Zhengsheng directing blindly there, and didn't understand the structure at all, so he had to direct the group of workers himself to build a simple small house.

It was mainly this group of workers, and it was the first time to build a house with this structure.

For other structures, a simple small house can be done in ten minutes. But with this structure, it took 30 to 40 minutes.

Of course, if you build another one, the speed will definitely be much faster than the first time.

But it is not necessary to build another one.

Under Lin Kai's command, a simple wooden house appeared in front of everyone.

Although it is very simple, the details, structure and other aspects are exactly the same as those drawn by Lin Kai.

It can be said that it is an ancient building on a low-profile version.

This wooden house is also full of the charm of ancient buildings.

Lin Kai nodded with satisfaction when he saw the wooden house, and then said to Gao Zheng, "Senior engineer, you have seen the process of building this wooden house with your own eyes. All the details and structures are also on the drawings I drew. There is no difference. Now you can use any method to test the sturdiness of this wooden house. See if it collapses so easily as you said."

"Oh, this kind of simple wooden house still needs to be tried? I think, just send a slightly strong person to the opposite place of the support, push it down, and then it can be pushed down."

Gao Zhengsheng said disdainfully, and then asked a strong worker to stand on the side of the simple wooden house and push there hard.

In Gao Zhengsheng's eyes, this simple wooden house used that kind of weird structure, and if the worker pushed it down hard, it would shake badly.

If it lasts for a while, the simple wooden house can be pushed down.

However, the worker did not tear down the simple wooden house no matter how hard he tried.

Not to mention being pulled down, the simple wooden house didn't even shake.

We must know that this worker is the most muscular and strongest among this group of workers.

If you change it to a simple wooden house with other structures, pushing it so hard will definitely shake it a bit. After all, the simple wooden house is just a frame and cannot withstand multiple forces.

But what Lin Kai drew was a wooden house with a simple structure, but it didn't move at all.

This embarrassed Gao Zhengsheng, especially the strange gaze that everyone looked at him.

But soon, he snorted coldly: "How to say, it can barely be regarded as a house. It is simple and simple. Human power should not be able to push it. It is better to go to the machine to push it."

Ever since, Goldman Sachs arranged another excavator, obviously trying to use the power of the excavator to knock down this simple wooden house.

This made Pan Ligu and others frowned.

Even the simple wooden houses of other structures can definitely be pushed down by the excavator, not to mention the simple wooden houses of this structure.

Before everyone could react, Gao Zhengsheng had commanded the excavator and pushed it towards the simple wooden house.

boom!

The crash sound was very loud.

Everyone thought that the simple wooden house would collapse in an instant.

However, this simple wooden house is still immovable! Even the excavator pushed it, but it didn't push down this simple wooden house!

what happened!

Not to mention Gao Zhengsheng, Li Yaer, Pan Ligu and others were stunned.

Even the hundreds of workers were startled and began to talk.

"What's the situation? Why can this simple wooden house resist even the power of an excavator!"

"Yeah, let alone the wooden house, this kind of simple brick house will be knocked down instantly by this excavator."

"Doesn't it mean that ancient buildings with this structure are much stronger than those with other structures?"

Many workers are naturally more professional than Pan Ligu and others.

They are all discussing, the ancient buildings of this kind of result are indeed very solid.

This made Gao Zhengsheng's complexion. He didn't know how ugly it was. He shouted at the master on the excavator: "Let's dig again! Increase your efforts this time!"

The master on the excavator couldn't help asking: "Senior engineer, should you just use the excavator to rush the whole thing?"

The excavator rushed over, not to mention the simple wooden houses, even the concrete houses may be torn down.

The excavator master said this, in fact, with some jokes.

The other workers could hear the excavator masters humor, and they all laughed and rushed over. Of course, this simple wooden house would collapse, but this would have no practical significance.

What everyone didn't expect was that Lin Kai looked into the excavator cab and said lightly: "Master, just let the whole excavator rush over according to your wishes. If you don't rush over like this, this Practice can't explain much."

Chapter 1452: Please Advise Mr. Lin

Chapter 1452

Everyone was stunned when Lin Kai said, including the master driving the excavator.

After a while, the excavator master came back to his senses and couldn't help looking at Gao Zhengsheng, his eyes were questioning. After all, Gao Zhengsheng was a person who wanted to practice this structure and was not strong.

Gao Zhengsheng looked at Lin Kai and sneered: "I don't know if you are arrogant or ignorant and stupid! Okay, please excavator master, let the whole excavator rush up. If this simple wooden house can block the excavator A collision! Then, of course I will admit that the ancient structure you painted is very strong! If it collapses, IMHO, this ancient structure is rubbish!"

Lin Kai didn't say anything, but just nodded to the master excavator.

The master excavator saw the two of them and agreed, then operated the excavator and slammed into the simple wooden house.

The tall excavator, like a beast, carrying dust all the way, has hit the simple wooden house at this moment.

The simple wooden house is a simple wooden house after all, this time the impact was naturally damaged.

But only in that part of the planks on the wall that was hit broke apart.

Although this wooden board is also a high-grade material, it can't stand the excavator.

But these are not the points!

The point is that there is no damage except for the simple wooden house! Still motionless!

"What? Impossible!"

When Goldman Sachs saw this scene, his eyes were full of incredible colors, and he never expected that this would be the case!

Lin Kai ignored Gao Zhengsheng's expression, but smiled at him: "Gao Engineer, how about the structure of this ancient building? Does it feel shocking?"

Gao Zhengsheng was relieved from the shock, but still had a stunned expression, muttering to himself: "This can't be done! How can there be such a strong ancient building structure!"

Lin Kai shook his head and responded, "There is nothing impossible, because this ancient architectural structure is also the result of the wisdom of our ancestors. So it is so strong, it is completely possible."

Hearing this, Gao Zhengsheng seemed to think of something, and he gradually became a little ashamed.

Then he looked at Lin Kai with a trace of apology: "Mr. Lin, I was arrogant before."

As he said that, he looked quite serious and said: "Please Mr. Lin's advice, how can this ancient building structure be so strong and stable?"

Seeing this, Lin Kai glanced at Gao Zhengsheng unexpectedly, but he didn't expect Gao Zhengsheng to ask for advice so humbly.

Since Gao Zhengsheng knew his mistake and corrected it, Lin Kai couldn't say anything more, so he said: "Daleis ancient architectural structure, you should be familiar with it? Daleis ancient architecture is the mainstream of ancient architecture. Ancient buildings that have been preserved for hundreds of thousands of years are of this kind of structure. The Daleis ancient buildings were actually absorbed from a rare Jiangs ancient building structure.

At this point, as long as you read more ancient books, or teach your teacher, you will know the structure of this ancient building. I just happen to know the composition, but in terms of research, I am naturally inferior to your teacher. So I want to know the specific reasons, and I still have time to ask your teacher for advice. "

Lin Kai is not humble, but it is true. He only relied on the extraction ability of the system to describe the ancient architecture of this structure.

In terms of specific theory, although Lin Kai knows a little bit, if he really explains it, he is still inferior to Gao Zhengsheng's teacher.

Therefore, under comprehensive consideration, Gao Zhengsheng wanted to study this aspect, so he asked his teacher for advice.

When Gao Zhengsheng heard this, he became more ashamed, and said to Lin Kai: "Mr. Lin is humble, such a good ancient building structure, as one of the top ancient architectural engineers in China, I don't know everything. I am also ashamed. I want to thank Mr. Lin a lot today, if it weren't for Mr. Lin to wake me up, I would still be in that kind of airy state, there is really no end to learning!"

Gao Zhengsheng said, feeling a while.

Lin Kai shook his head and said with a smile: "You don't have to thank you. You can build all the scenes on the drawings within ten days, which is the greatest gratitude to me."

Goldman Sachs immediately patted his chest and promised: "Mr. Lin, don't worry! With your perfect blueprint plans, you can definitely build all the scenes within ten days!"

Lin Kai felt relieved after hearing this.

Without waiting for Lin Kai to say anything, Gao Zhengsheng started to direct the hundreds of workers while holding the drawings.

For a time, the building began to be organized here in an orderly manner.

At this time, Li Ya'er came to Lin Kai with joy and smiled: "Mr. Lin, I didn't expect that the ancient building structure you drew is so solid, it can also be used as a shopping spot for a scenic spot. Mr. Lin, President Li Let me also talk to you, and then carefully discuss the development of the following scenic spots, and how to build them."

In addition to these scenes to be built, as a scenic spot, of course, there must be corresponding facilities and other construction aspects.

Otherwise, it is only an ancient building with beautiful scenery, although it is not bad, but it is easy to get tired after watching for a long time, so other construction facilities are needed.

Lin Kai nodded, and he responded: "The chief engineer of Shengxian, should he have designed all the other drawings to be built?"

Li Ya'er said: "Yes, it was designed not long ago, just waiting for you to look at it."

Yesterday afternoon, Lin Kai and Li Shengxian discussed the construction of the back of the mountain range, and Li Shengxian also asked the super engineer specializing in the construction of the scenic spot, that is, the general project of the mountain scenic spot and the healthy city, to plan other construction drawings.

Lin Kai thought for a while and said, "Okay, then if you have time, you can send me the construction drawings."

He mainly went to see whether these construction drawings conflict with the ancient buildings he painted.

Where there is a conflict, it must be corrected.

Li Yaer smiled and said, "Mr. Lin, I'll do it right away."

Lin Kai shook his head: "This matter is still not in a hurry. You should first fix the ancient buildings here before you talk."

Then, there was a few more conversations.

Lin Kai checked the time and was about to go back to his home. He hadn't been back to his home for several days.

Yinshen was arranged by him to be near Leiyuan Group to investigate the trajectory of some Leiyuan Group personnel.

People in the Leiyuan Group have always made small moves in secret during this period. Lin Kai is not a saint, and he does not have any kindness to the enemy.

Therefore, let the Yinshen make the Leiyuan Group "unlucky" and some people "unlucky".

To put it simply, it is to let the hidden * secretly attack some people in the Leiyuan Group.

Chapter 1453: Jealous Lin Qianqian

Chapter 1453 the jealous Lin Qianqian

It is half past nine in the morning.

Many people in the crew started to leave one by one.

They came here mainly to get acquainted with the scene, and in the next few months, they will have to stay here to film.

And now the construction has begun to set up the scenes in the movie, director Pan Liguo and deputy director Wang Xiaoliang are also relieved.

So there is no need to stay here for the time being, wait for ten days and then come back after finishing the work.

However, among this group of people on the crew, the only thing that didn't want these scenes to be completed in ten days was Lu Qingfeng.

After all, he and Lin Kai bet that if these scenes are set up within ten days, then he will change from the first male to the second male!

This is the arrogant Refining Peak, which cannot be endured! So, I was in a hurry early in the morning and wanted to see how Lin Kai's drawings were

Because of these drawing plans, it is the key to decide whether to complete the scene construction within ten days.

Not long ago, he saw that Lin Kai's drawings were so detailed, it was extraordinary at first glance, and he knew it was over.

As a result, the engineer pointed out the problem, and Lu Qingfeng went from * to heaven all at once.

But now, after some practice, the structure of Lin Kai's painting is actually no problem, and it can even make engineers humbly ask Lin Kai for advice!

Now Lu Qingfeng's mood has instantly fallen from heaven to hell!

Especially when he saw that the engineer started moving there with the hundred workers and various construction vehicles, his mood was even worse. "

"It's better to have an accident! For example, during the construction process, an engineer died, or several workers died accidentally! In this case, within ten days, there is no way to build these!"

At this time, Lu Qingfeng prayed viciously.

He had no face to stay any longer, and drove away first.

The opposite of Lu Qingfeng's mood was Wu Feifan. He was very excited when he first saw Lin Kai's drawings so good.

After the engineer pointed out the problem, his mood was like a roller coaster, and his mood fell instantly.

Fortunately, after all the twists and turns, the construction of the scene was finally officially started. As long as there are no accidents, the construction will definitely be completed within ten days.

Wu Feifan quickly followed Pan Liguó's off-road vehicle and went back. He planned to polish the script lines as soon as he went back.

As for Yin Suyan, Lin Kai originally wanted her to go back in Pan Liguó's car.

However, Yin Suyan insisted on asking Lin Kai to send her back to the hotel.

The crew has all moved to Donghai, so Pan Liguó booked many rooms in the hotel last night.

Under Lin Kai's proposal, the location of the hotel is not so far away from Lin Kai's home, and it must be Li's hotel.

Lin Kai was afraid that Leiyuan Group would do something.

Nowadays, near Lin Kai's home, people from the state department are watching.

After all, his family suffered two attacks, and even the last time Lin Qianqian and Dong Shu were injured.

Jiang Shu transferred more people to protect the neighborhood of Lin Kai's house.

The hotel is close enough to protect the personal safety of the crew.

So Lin Kai first sent Yin Suyan back to the hotel.

He did not go home immediately, but went to Lin Qianqian's company to pick up Lin Qianqian.

In fact, Lin Qianqian's injury was not completely healed, but because of the company's affairs, she had to go to the company to deal with it, so she could not drive, so she asked Lin Kai to pick him up.

Dong Shu has been recovering from injuries in Lin Kai's home. Of course, although the two girls have not been injured yet, they have almost recovered.

The two women knew Lin Kai, and now they are free, so they let Lin Kai have a meal together.

Both women complained that it was so difficult to have a meal at home with Lin Kai.

Regarding this, Lin Kai could only smile wryly, he didn't want to, but unexpectedly.

But he happened to be going home, so he did not refuse the two women's request for a meal.

Before long, Lin Kai came to Lin Qianqian's company door.

Lin Qianqian was already standing on the side of the road, waiting for Lin to drive the car.

Lin Qianqian dressed very delicately today. She wore a light yellow long skirt to perfectly set off her figure.

At this moment, Lin Qianqian directly got into the co-pilot of Lin's car.

She closed the car door and fastened her seat belt, and then looked at Lin Kai bitterly: "Humph! Where have you been these days! Don't tell me and Dong Shu."

Lin Kai laughed and said: "It's nothing, just invested in a movie, just to help Li Shengxian to build his suburban development in the west of the city."

The look on Lin Qianqian's pretty face eased.

It's just that she frowned slightly, and then seemed to say casually: "Lin Kai, in your car, if I smell it right, there seems to be the latest Dior limited edition perfume?"

Lin Kai glanced at Lin Qianqian suspiciously, and said curiously: "Isn't it coming from you?"

What Dior's latest limited edition perfume, Lin Kai naturally did not understand these, only knew that as soon as Lin Qianqian entered the car, he smelled the fragrance of Lin Qianqian's body.

Lin Qianqian couldn't help rolling her eyes, and then she looked through the rearview mirror above and saw a brand-name ladies bag and a pair of ladies glasses on the back seat.

Lin Qianqian asked immediately: "Lin Kai, was there a young, fashionable and rich girl sitting in your car not long ago? Look at the bag, which starts at least 100,000 yuan, or the one with a price but no market. Its limited to one hundred in the world. That pair of sunglasses is also a limited edition, and its the latest fashion womens sunglasses."

When Lin Kai heard the words, he was taken aback for a moment, then followed Lin Qianqian's gaze and looked to the back seat, and found Yin Suyan's bag and sunglasses on it.

When Yin Suyan got out of the car, she happened to receive a call. She was sitting in the co-pilot again, probably because she had forgotten to take the bag and sunglasses left behind.

Lin Kai shook her head helplessly. It's no wonder that Lin Qianqian just smelled the perfume, which seemed to be Yin Suyan's perfume.

And at this moment, Lin Qianqian put on a pose, breaking the casserole's posture to the end.

Lin Kai had no choice but to respond: "Yes, not long ago, it was indeed a very young, fashionable, and young girl."

Yin Suyan has been the most popular super-first-line actress in China over the past few months. Not to mention China, many countries in Southeast Asia have great influence.

Therefore, it is of course the most fashionable in trendy brands, shot by various fashion magazines, and endorsed by various fashionable brands.

The money earned in the past few months is a sky-high price.

Therefore, Lin Kai has nothing to hide, and directly admits that she is a young, fashionable and rich girl.

After listening, Lin Qianqian pursed her little mouth, with a strong jealousy, and hummed: "I also said that I was going to invest in movies these days. I clearly found a young and fashionable rich woman. I and Dong Shu were injured In a few days, you wont come to see it, just know that youre good and stay with you."

Chapter 1454: Repel

Chapter 1454

Lin Kai reluctantly shook his head for Lin Qianqian's jealousy. He had no choice but to say: "It's not what you think. Of course, don't ask me who I am. Anyway, after you, you will meet."

"Oh?" This made Lin Qianqian curious.

Lin Kai just smiled and didn't say much, but waited until Yin Suyan and Lin Qianqian met.

After all, the new product launched by Lin Qianqian's company is cosmetic skin care products, and Yin Suyan needs to be endorsed.

He had already told Yin Suyan about the matter in the past few days, and it happened that Yin Suyan had also come to the East China Sea, so it was convenient.

Before long, Lin Kai took Lin Qianqian and returned home.

On the way back, Lin Kai also bought a birthday cake and presents.

Last time Dong Shu's birthday, such an accident happened, now it is natural to compensate.

at home.

Although it is almost noon now, Dong Shu has already cooked the food and almost finished, and Lin Qianqian also cooked a few dishes in the end.

This meal was finally complete and happy.

I had an accident the first two times, and I had an appointment to eat together, but I didn't eat it.

At the same time, Lin Kai used True Qi to treat Lin Qianqian and Dong Shu some of the last injuries.

And he gave a lot of amulets to the two women so as not to be involved again.

After the meal, Lin Qianqian and Lin Kai talked about business.

When it comes to new products, it is mainly because the new products have encountered some problems.

The skin care effect is very good, but the taste is not so good. Although the spices are added, it still feels a little worse.

When new products are launched, it is natural to strive for the best.

The reason why Lin Qianqian told Lin Kai was to ask Lin Kai if she knew him, an expert in this field.

Lin Qianqian knows that Lin Kai has a lot of contacts.

Lin Kai originally planned to recommend an expert in this area, but after seeing Lin Qianqian give him skin care products, he immediately had a solution.

That is the tricolor sapling!

He didn't study the three-color sapling thoroughly, but he knew that he had researched the three-color sapling, which has a very perfect aroma. Just extract the liquid from it and use a lot of weight.

Lin Kai didn't even think about it. He took out the three-color sapling and extracted a drop of liquid, then put it on the skin care product, and the effect was excellent!

Not only that, but the effect of skin care is amazing!

Lin Qianqian was surprised and delighted to see this. After she said hello to Dong Shu, she called Lin Kai to visit a factory in her company that produces skin care products.

Lin Kai didn't have any objections, he also had shares in Lin Qianqian's company.

Previously, the hands of Leiyuan Group also wanted to acquire Lin Qianqian Company. He also helped him and resolved the matter.

After half an hour.

Came to the place where Lin Qianqian's company produces skin care products.

As soon as she entered the company, Lin Qianqian called, the technical staff of the skin care product, and the technical director responsible for the entire process.

The technical director's name was Xia Dongluo, and he brought a group of technicians to Lin Qianqian.

Both Xia Dongluo and the group of technicians are a little curious. They just had a meal this afternoon, and they rushed to make new technical solutions there, trying to make skin care products more perfect.

I just don't know what the reason for the sudden visit of the boss was.

At this time, Lin Qianqian pointed to Lin Kai beside her and introduced: "He is a shareholder of our company, his name is Lin Kai, Mr. Lin."

This group of people is naturally not interested in shareholders or anything, but since they are the shareholders of the company, they are also employees, and they can only reluctantly applaud.

Lin Qianqian went on to say: "Mr. Lin is here to provide you with the same technology that can make skin care products more perfect. In various aspects, it is much better than the skin care products we are making now."

Although Lin Qianqian understood that it was the reason for the tri-color sapling that Lin Kai carried, the tri-color sapling could not be exposed, so Lin Kai extracted a dozen drops of liquid from the tri-color sapling.

If you want a more perfect integration into skin care products, just separate a drop of liquid, add a little bit of ingredients, and then add it.

One drop of the liquid of the tri-color sapling can produce a large number of skin care products.

The group of technicians were very happy when they heard this. They tried to make skin care products more perfect these days, but they had racked their brains and didn't think of it.

Even the technical director has nothing to do.

Besides, I have worked overtime for a long time. Now that there are shareholders who have brought technology over, that would be great.

A technician said curiously: "Mr. Lin, will you be, give us the formula?"

Lin Kai shook his head: "Naturally not, just provide materials, and then you can add them in."

The three-color sapling is a rare treasure, and I definitely cannot tell this group of strangers.

When those technicians heard the words, they were all puzzled and only provided materials? What do you mean?

At this moment, the technical director Xia Dongluo said unsatisfactorily: "Mr. Lin, with all due respect, I don't believe that skin care products can be made more perfect only by providing materials. Any kind of material, let alone the ones on the market, even many exclusive secret recipes, I have gotten them, and the results do not match our skin care products. So I don't believe that the material will be useful."

As Xia Dongluo said, he couldn't help looking at Lin Kai, with a touch of unkindness in his eyes.

In fact, he didn't believe it, so he said this.

I am worried that if this shareholder really brings good technology, then his position as technical director may not be maintained.

After all, for so many days, he hasn't made any progress, and he can get everything done with the technology brought by a shareholder. What use is he?

As a result, Xia Dongluo repelled Lin Kai very much and wanted to drive Lin Kai away.

Although it is a shareholder, the actual control is in the hands of Lin Qianqian.

When he said so, he wanted Lin Qianqian to drive away Lin Kai.

Lin Kai glanced at Xia Dongluo faintly when he heard the words, he could clearly detect that Xia Dongluo was very hostile to him.

He didn't know why, but he didn't care about it, let alone Xia Dongluo, even if Lin Yuan stood in front of him, he wouldn't be afraid of showing hostility.

On the contrary, Lin Yuan would be afraid of him.

Lin Kaichao Xia Dongluo calmly said, "Is it useful? The facts speak."

Before Xia Dongluo could speak, Lin Kai asked Lin Qianqian to take him to the place of birth.

Under the onlookers of this group of technicians, Lin Kai took out a small porcelain bottle, which contained more than a dozen drops of three-color sapling liquid.

Then through the instrument, a little bit of essence was extracted and put into the skin care products produced.

The skin care product was produced by a machine, and then let these technicians try the effect of the skin care product.

This skin care product is suitable for both men and women.

Under the expectation of this group of technicians, the skin care products after adding the materials are really effective!

Chapter 1455: Please Star

Chapter 1455

“The material Mr. Lin brought is too powerful!”

“Yes, just a little bit is needed to make the skin care products more effective than before, at least double that!”

“The skin care products we are making now barely squeeze into the ranks of first-class skin care products. If there are big celebrities endorsements, sales should be possible, but if it is big, it will be far away. Now with the technology provided by Mr. Lin, our skin care products will be on the market. After that, it will definitely become a hot product! Dominate the now highly competitive skin care industry!”

A group of technicians are discussing with excitement. After all, the company is strong here, and their core technicians will also be upgraded in terms of salary.

Only Xia Dongluo couldn't be happy. On the contrary, his face was a little gloomy. What he worried most was that it happened.

But he stared at the small porcelain bottle with a different color in his eyes.

Several technicians also stared at the small porcelain bottle.

Lin Kai looked at it, and then he asked a technician to extract the liquid of the three-color sapling in the porcelain bottle according to his previous method.

As a result, although the effect of skin care products has increased a bit, the increase is not much.

Everyone understands that although materials are provided, there are also technologies in it.

Obviously, this technology is not intended to inform them.

Even if they get the liquid in the small porcelain bottle, it is useless.

Let some technical personnel with bad intentions dismissed the idea.

Especially Xia Dongluo, he still thought that he knew the formula of the current skin care product. If he got this small porcelain bottle, wouldn't he be able to start a skin care company by himself.

Unfortunately, getting a small porcelain bottle is useless.

The reason why Lin Kai asked a technician to do this was to get rid of those who harbor ghosts.

As a cultivator of immortality, what he extracted is naturally the essence of the essence.

But ordinary people can't, so in the future, he will hand over the refined to Lin Qianqian for safekeeping.

Lin Qianqian then distributes it personally based on how many skin care products she wants to produce.

In this way, it is ensured that the liquid of the three-color saplings will not leak out.

Lin Kai and Lin Qianqian discussed it before, and this three-color sapling liquid can be regarded as a trade secret.

At this time Xia Dongluo knew that the general situation was over, and there was no hostility towards Lin Kai.

He moved other thoughts, so he immediately spoke to Lin Qianqian: "Mr. Lin, I have a college classmate. She sings well. She recently participated in a music talent show. Because she sings well, she has always been popular among the contestants. Ranked in the top three. It happens that this music talent show is also one of the most popular programs recently.

Coupled with the popularity of my classmate, I can consider inviting it as the spokesperson of our company's skin care products. With her help, and with the help of this music talent show, it will definitely open up the market soon! "

Xia Dongluo said confidently.

Lin Qianqian shook her head and said, "Director Xia, you don't need to bother about this matter. Besides, Mr. Lin Kailin has already made an appointment with a celebrity about this matter to speak for our company's skin care product. You can come over at any time."

Xia Dongluo looked at Lin Kai and said with a slight disdain: "Mr. Lin, I admit that as a shareholder of Mr. Lin, you can invite stars. But can you invite famous stars? And like that kind of first-line stars, with us The size of the company, but I can't afford it. I am different. Although I am not a star at the moment, it is also very popular recently.

I also signed an economic company, but it is not so well-known, so the endorsement advertising costs are definitely lower than the second-tier stars, or even the third-tier stars. There is another key point. Since this is a skin care product, it is definitely more suitable for girls with good skin. My classmate is well maintained, so she is the most suitable choice.

What's more, what month is the time for film and television dramas and concerts to get together. Whether it is a first-tier star or a second-tier star, they are either busy making movies and TV shows, or busy holding concerts, and various variety shows. The company is not unavailable, specifically to understand. First- and second-tier stars have to catch up with various announcements. We invite them to the past, but they all refuse. Mr. Lin said that the one he invited can come at any time, and it must be a star below the second line. "

What Lin Qianqian said was a little moved, but it was not that she did not trust Lin Kai, but that she had done investigations in this area.

First-tier stars or second-tier stars are very busy.

She also believes that Lin Kai must be the kind of first-line stars.

But to let a first-line star say that he can be called at any time, presumably Lin Kai has accepted the great favor of that star.

As a result, she thought for a while and still refused to let Lin Kai accept the favor of others.

She asked, "Director Xia, is your classmate free?"

When Xia Dongluo heard this sentence, she understood that there was a play, and responded with a smile: "When she is free, she just finished recording the show some time ago, and it's pretty idle now. And her hometown is in the next city, and she is now in her hometown. I invite you. Her words will be available soon."

Lin Qianqian nodded: "Okay, let's say this first, and invite her first. Of course, whether to invite her to endorse in the end, we have to wait for detailed discussion. I don't guarantee that she will be able to endorse. After all, there is no discussion yet. , You should be clear about this."

"I know, I'll please come here."

Xia Dongluo had a look of excitement. In fact, he had a normal relationship with this female classmate and was not familiar with it. He saw the female classmate suddenly become angry.

While he is not so famous now, he provided this female classmate with a good opportunity.

Although the company is not that big, it is considered medium, and the skin care products endorsed are very effective. If endorsements are made, it will make a lot of money.

He asked this female classmate to thank him and owe him a great favor.

In this way, he can approach this female classmate.

Thinking of this, Xia Dongluo looked fiery, went out without thinking, and went to call the female classmate.

Lin Qianqian frowned when she saw Xia Dongluo's wretched look, thinking that Xia Dongluo was a little unreliable.

She walked over to Lin Kai.

Lin Kai was refining the liquid of the three-color sapling.

Lin Kai saw Lin Qianqian always come and stopped to refine.

Lin Qianqian said at this time: "Lin Kai, the mysterious star you mentioned, can you come over now? Of course, if you don't have time, just forget it. Or if you are busy, don't call over. "

She suspected that Xia Dongluo had a problem, and she had to talk to Lin Kai.

Of course, she originally had no purpose, but didn't want Lin Kai to accept the favor of others, so she asked like this.

If you can come over now and you are too busy in your hands, don't come over, then you will be a first- and second-tier star.

If you are not busy and have time to come over, you should be a star below the second line, and that's fine.

Chapter 1456: Big Joke

Chapter 1456

Lin Qianqian suspects Xia Dongluo, but she knows that Xia Dongluo is calling there, so she can stop it.

Then she asked Lin Kai, if it is a first- and second-tier celebrity invited, let it be used. If it is a celebrity below the second-tier, use it.

Lin Kai glanced at Lin Qianqian curiously, shook her head and smiled: "Isn't it a good idea to wait a few days? Why do you need it now?"

How could Yin Suyan have no time? When she first picked up the film female number one, she started to spend time every day to practice the script of the female role.

Within a month and a half, the script lines of the female one had already been polished. Not to mention the script lines of the female one, the whole script has been read many times to try to figure out the dialogue with other characters.

Yin Suyan is so serious about polishing, because he wants to play this role well.

The last time Yin Suyan was unreasonably asked to change roles, he seemed very wronged.

Therefore, it takes ten days to set up the filming scene.

In these ten days, Yin Suyan was equivalent to a paid vacation. She polished the script lines and didn't need a lot of time to talk about the script.

In addition, it happened to be in the East China Sea, Lin Kai said that he could invite him at any time.

Lin Qianqian said at this time: "The main reason is that you have fixed the effect of this skin care product. If the star is busy, don't call it over."

Lin chuckled: "I'm not busy, just have time. Or if necessary, I will ask them to come together."

"They? Together?"

Lin Qianqian was stunned, not understanding what it meant.

Lin joked, "Didn't I say that in the morning, I'm busy investing in movies these days. It happens to be filming in Donghai, and the entire crew is temporarily free. If you ask professional crew members to help shoot commercials, it's better than you. The photography team is too professional."

Without waiting for Lin Qianqian's response, Lin Kai first dialed Yin Suyan's phone. Yin Suyan must have agreed, saying that he would come right away.

Lin Kai called Pan Liguang again, and Pan Liguang agreed with Lin Kai without thinking about it. How could Lin Kai be the largest investor, and he also provided such a good shooting location and even built such a beautiful ancient building.

This is something he couldn't even think of before.

More importantly, Lin Kai is still his lifesaver, how could he not agree, and started to rush over.

After half an hour.

The people invited by Xia Dongluo have arrived, and there is a high-speed rail in the neighboring city, which can be reached within 20 minutes.

The female classmate Xia Dongluo invited was a young girl with darker skin. The girl was more beautiful, but her hair style was a strange explosive head.

This kind of weird hairstyle, as long as you have watched the recent hot music talent show, you must know her, named Xu Mochou.

Outside Lin Qianqian's company, some people saw Xu Mochou about to walk into the company. Some passers-by recognized her, and they all stepped forward to ask for a signature.

Xu Mochou had an indifferent attitude that turned away from people thousands of miles away, as well as a superb appearance. It seemed that she suddenly became famous, which made her abnormally swell.

Xu Mochou saw it all, those passers-by walked directly into Lin Qianqian's company.

Several employees also recognized Xu Mochou and wanted to ask for an autograph.

But Xu Mochou still has a high-minded posture. He looked at the surrounding people and said in a cold voice: "Your company boss, invite me to endorse the advertisement. If it weren't for my old classmate, ask me to come and endorse this advertisement. I still look down on small companies like yours. Also, I'll let you know who is in charge of the endorsement. If you don't have five million, I definitely won't shoot."

The employees of Lin Qianqian's company were all embarrassed when they heard Xu Mochou's sentence. They didn't think that Xu Mochou was just a little famous, and he went off. Obviously not even a star, so he put on a big-name score.

A famous employee couldn't help but murmured: "It's nothing more than her own style and the gimmick created by the show that made her enter the finals. Although the rap is pretty good, it's only good. The contestants in the finals are still far away. What kind of arrogance is that they make themselves even bigger stars than big stars."

"Yeah, I don't know what Lin always thinks, let her endorse our skin care products. Don't say I discriminate against me, look at the skin, endorsement of skin care products is over."

Several employees were talking quietly there.

When Xu Mochou heard these employees speaking like this, her expression was very ugly. She looked at Xia Dongluo next to her and said, "Xia Dongluo, didn't you say that this company asked me to come? Why? A small employee, such an attitude?"

Hearing Xu Mochou's icy voice, Xia Dongluo was startled, for fear that Xu Mochou would just leave.

He immediately pointed to the employees and scolded, "Why shouldn't you go! In addition, every episode of Xu Mochou's current program has a hot search, which is enough to prove Xu Mochou's traffic! In my opinion, Xu Mochou's endorsement fee of 5 million is not too much! 5 million is also a relatively weak level among second-tier stars!

It can be said that if you ask Xu Mochou to endorse five million yuan, it is a big profit! If you leave Xu Mochou angrily, I see how to deal with you! “

Although these employees do not belong to Xia Dongluo’s department, Xia Dongluo also belongs to their leadership. If they file a complaint in front of Lin Qianqian, it will be troublesome.

Therefore, these employees dare not speak any more, they can only feel aggrieved in their hearts.

They really want to say, what is the hot search, it is clearly that the program group used Xu Mochou’s speech to create conflicts in order to increase the ratings.

To put it simply, it is to sacrifice a person, let the netizens scold the person, and then increase the attention.

Xu Mochou is such a role.

However, the more black it is, it is indeed a kind of traffic, but there is no way to realize this kind of traffic.

When these employees were about to leave, suddenly an employee seemed to think of something and suddenly said: “Wait, when I passed by the technical department before, I heard Mr. Lin talking with a young man, Mr. Lin, and seemed to say Invite a crew to speak for our skin care products. I don’t know if it is true or not? What is the director’s name, Director Pan.”

When Xia Dongluo heard this, he seemed to have heard some big joke: “Haha! What’s a joke? All the crew is here? I admit that Mr. Lin, he has the ability to invite a third-tier star, but if he wants to invite one The crew, it’s too much! What’s the director of Pan, what are you kidding about! You will know when you listen to it. It is an influential director. It is estimated that it is casual. From any media company, you can get a person and act as a director!”

The employee didn’t quite understand this, but when he heard Xia Dongluo say this, he looked embarrassed and thought he had said something wrong.

Chapter 1457: None Of Your Business

Chapter 1457

Xia Dongluo looked embarrassed when he saw this employee, and he even sneered again and again. It seems that this employee also recognized his words.

He ignored the group of employees, and immediately took his female classmate Xu Mochou to the technical department.

In the office of the technical department, Lin Qianqian knew that Xu Mochou was coming, so she came to the office first.

As for Lin Kai, where he is still producing skin care products, he continues to refine the liquid of the three-color saplings.

Lin Qianqian and Xu Mochou first discuss, if Xu Mochou’s request is not excessive, or in terms of image, then they will also use the endorsement advertisement.

After all, Xia Dongluo was called, and if the negotiation was good, he would naturally have to sign the contract.

Of course, if Lin Kai invited it, he must also endorse it.

In other words, a skin care product, two spokespersons, this kind of at least a large group of large enterprises, dare to do so.

Only when Xia Dongluo came with Xu Mochou, Xu Mochou asked for five million advertising endorsement fees.

You know, this price is the price of a second-tier star. With Xu Mochou's current traffic, the maximum is one million, which is the most. The asking price has doubled five times.

No matter what came to discuss, Lin Qianqian was clearly taken as a victim.

The market price is based on the market price, which is a little more than the market price, and it is understandable. After all, this can cut the price.

But if it is directly mentioned that it is several times higher than the market price, it is not a simple bargaining, but an explicit price starting on the spot.

Seeing Lin Qianqian's expression, Xia Dongluo was a little wrong, and said quickly: "Mr. Lin, five million is a bit expensive for Xu Mochou's current popularity, but not so outrageous? She can come over to shoot the endorsement commercial today. Not only will she have a lot of time, but afterwards, her personal account on the Internet will also help promote the endorsement of skin care products. So this price is worthy of Xu Mochou."

"Within 1.5 million, I can still accept it, but for 5 million, I think it's fine."

Lin Qianqian was not a fool, so she spoke.

However, Xu Mochou didn't know where he was emboldened, and continued to say that she would not shoot without 5 million endorsement fees.

Now Xia Dongluo was anxious and said again: "Mr. Lin thinks twice! It will be the finals of the show soon. I heard from Xu Mochou that she is the fourth in the competition! Don't look at the fourth. First place, but the difference between the number of votes and the third place is only one vote! So controversial, there must be a wave of traffic until the program is broadcast.

There are still six days before the finals show, we just finished shooting the commercial. Waiting for that day, the effect of promoting a good advertisement is absolutely good. This 5 million endorsement fee is worth it"

Lin Qianqian frowned. She did not answer the question immediately. Instead, she said: "Mr. Lin Kailin's side, the celebrity invited will also be there. When the celebrity from Mr. Lin comes, I will consider and decide. How about?"

She actually had a plan in her heart, but if she refused directly like this, it would not be good. Let Xia Dongluo see that the conditions for the star Lin Kai invited were better than those invited by Xia Dongluo.

Although Lin Kai didn't tell her specifically which star he invited, it was definitely better than the Xu Mochou in front of him.

After all, she is not doing charity, she is starting a company. There are hundreds of people in the company waiting for her to eat. Naturally, she has to choose carefully.

But when Xia Dongluo heard this, his expression was very unhappy, but he didn't dare to show it too much. He just said: "Mr. Lin, what do you mean, we have to wait? Isn't it right?"

Before Lin Qianqian could respond, Xu Moshou, who was sitting next to Xia Dongluo, first lit a cigarette very skillfully, and even smoked a cigarette despite the fact that smoking was prohibited in the office.

Then Xu Mochou smoked while looking at Lin Qianqian on the opposite side, and said coldly: "Mr. Lin, I only agreed to give my old classmate's face. Otherwise, I really thought that five million would be enough. Can you please me? Haha, it's still a face to old classmates. At present, there is no time for first- and second-tier stars to come.

I want to see what kind of celebrities you can invite to this small company. At that time, when the so-called Mr. Lin Kailin, the invited celebrity comes, you will definitely beg me to sign an endorsement advertisement. "

Xu Mochou sneered. She can say that half of her foot walked into the entertainment circle.

For those first- and second-tier celebrities in the entertainment industry, I still have some understanding.

Especially after Xia Dongluo called, she immediately called the brokerage company to help her check. There were no first- and second-tier stars in the nearby urban areas.

Even if there is, it is the kind of coffee with a high rank, and it is definitely unaffordable.

Ignore this point directly, the rest is completely inferior to her.

The most important thing is that the 5 million endorsement fee advertisement is so high because she and Xia Dongluo have discussed it in advance.

When the 5 million endorsement fee advertisement arrives, Xia Dongluo will be allocated 2 million.

At that time, Xia Dongluo will operate and replace the contract advertising expenses with 500,000.

Xu Mochou signed a brokerage company, so her endorsement was split with the economic company.

In addition, it was Xia Dongluo who took the initiative to ask for a high endorsement fee.

Of these five million, two million were allocated to Xia Dongluo.

If the contract replaces 500,000, the company takes 80%, which means the company takes 400,000.

She can only get one hundred thousand. With such a high percentage, she can't get any money at all, so telling the economic company that way is entirely for the economic company.

According to the discussion with Xia Dongluo, she can get 2.6 million!

How could such a good opportunity be let go!

At this time Xia Dongluo heard that Xu Mochou had said so, and he had to wait for the star Lin Kai called.

In his opinion, Lin Qianqian will definitely sign an endorsement advertising contract with Xu Mochou.

He and Xu Mochou colluded, in fact, they also wanted to use this to cheat the company's money. Anyway, such a good opportunity will not cheat.

Lin Qianqian shook her head slightly when she saw the expressions of the two. How could she be the boss of a company without any insight.

She could vaguely see the strangeness between Xia Dongluo and Xu Mochou.

After almost ten minutes passed.

Xia Dongluo was the first to wait and was a little impatient. He happened to see Lin Kai coming to the office and asked indifferently: "Mr. Lin, why are you alone? Where is the star you called? It's been an hour. , Why haven't you come? You just let my old classmates keep waiting like this?"

Lin Kai wanted to ignore Xia Dongluo, but seeing Xia Dongluo's arrogant appearance, he only glanced at him: "It's your shit."

Now Xia Dongluo was angry: "Mr. Lin, I mean you as a shareholder. I respect you, but don't let my old classmate wait, and you don't see who my old classmate is!"

Chapter 1458: A Crew Is Here

Chapter 1458 A Crew Is Here

Lin Kai's face was calm when he heard the words, and he glanced at it playfully, Xu Mo sorrow beside Xia Dongluo.

Not long ago, he really didn't know Xu Mochou.

It was just that while refining the three-color sapling liquid, I heard the surrounding group of technicians discussing who Xia Dongluo invited.

Only then did he know who Xu Mochou was.

Especially when Lin Kai now saw Xu Mochou smoking unscrupulously, he smiled: "Speaking of which, I just knew who your old classmate is. Isn't it just that you participated in a talent show, or that kind of relying? Speaking with a strange flower, and the Xu Moshou who was sacrificed by the show? I heard that singing is fine, but his character is not good."

Xu Mochou's face was dark when she heard this, but now it's a bit darker, she couldn't help but speak in a cold voice: "Speaking of which, you don't know me yet. Look, how famous I am now. I don't know. , Is the celebrity you called me famous?"

"Your fame?"

Lin Kai shook his head and laughed. This so-called fame was nothing more than speculation by the program group, and it was just a fame.

As for the Yin Suyan he invited, he is really famous. After all, he starred in a national-level TV drama heroine. The TV drama has been seen by children in their 80s and down to several years old.

In addition, in the past few months, all kinds of things have appeared in front of the screen, let alone on the Internet, even on TV, newspapers, and so on. There are Yin Suyan's shadows.

And just in time for the Spring Festival Gala, the Spring Festival Gala is both a performer and a host of a very important branch of the Spring Festival Gala.

It can be said that this is unprecedented.

Yin Suyan is a national-level actress, is Xu Mochou comparable?

Therefore, Lin Kai said unceremoniously: "Nature is more famous than you."

Lin Kai didn't bother to say who it was, and didn't bother to say it.

Xu Mochou thought that Lin Kai was dying, and he said, "Really? I want to see if you invite me, is it more famous than me!"

She had just finished talking, many unexpected vehicles flooded into Lin Qianqian's company, first a few luxury cars in front, two commercial vehicles in the back, and then the last pickup truck.

On the pickup truck, at a glance, there are a lot of valuable shooting machines and the like.

A total of seven cars were parked in the parking lot of Lin Qianqian's company.

The science and technology department of Lin Qianqian's company is on the first floor, and the office is next to the parking lot.

The windows of the office are facing the parking lot.

A dozen or twenty people came down in seven cars quickly.

Lin Kai had already told Yin Suyan and others that he was in the office next to the parking lot.

Yin Suyan wore an elegant blue dress and sunglasses. She walked into the office Lin Kai said for the first time.

As soon as she entered the office, she took off her sunglasses, and said hello to Lin Kai: "Mr. Lin, I made you wait a long time. It was a bit slow because I wanted the crew to come."

After Yin Suyan's words fell, Pan Ligu's command voice came from outside the office: "You first move all the shooting equipment, and then find a good location, wait to start shooting, move faster."

Immediately, I heard bursts of exclamation from employees outside the office.

"Oh my God! Am I right? This is Director Pan Ligu!"

"What? He is the director Pan Ligu? Why did you bring the crew into our company?"

"What is Director Pan Ligu? You didn't see it just now. Did the national goddess Yin Suyan walk into the office of the Ministry of Science and Technology? Mr. Lin is inside."

“Isn’t it? President Lin invited both the goddess Yin Suyan and director Pan Ligu! What the * is going on! Moreover, a crew is here!”

The employees outside were shocked.

At this moment, in the office, Xia Dongluo and Xu Mochou, after seeing Yin Suyan, heard the words of the employees outside, they both had big mouths and were dumbfounded.

If they hadn’t seen it with their own eyes, Yin Suyan would be right in front of them, and the two of them couldn’t believe that the goddess of the nation and director Pan Ligu were here! Still a crew is here!

Can Lin Kai invite the crew directed by Pan Ligu, or even the national goddess Yin Suyan?

what’s the situation! impossible!

Both Xia Dongluo and Xu Mochou had some doubts.

After Xia Dongluo was shocked, he thought about it and mocked: “Let’s not talk about Yin Suyan. If director Pan Ligu is bringing a crew to shoot the commercial, it would have to be at least millions of dollars. Not to mention Yin Suyan. An endorsement advertisement is tens of millions of dollars, but big-name brands have endorsement fees of tens of millions or even hundreds of millions. With the current financial resources of the company, Mr. Lin would not even consider spending so much money to sign an endorsement with Yin Suyan. . In other words, its useless if you invite it!”

As Xia Dongluo spoke, the smile on his face became even worse.

Xu Mochou, who was sitting next to him, returned to his previous indifference and continued to smoke.

After Lin Qianqian heard Xia Dongluo’s words, she couldn’t help but nodded. The size of her current company really couldn’t afford Yin Suyan, so she asked Lin Kai: “Lin Kai, you...this favor is too heavy, right? . It turned out to have invited all the goddesses of the nation, but you also know the current company’s operating funds, I’m afraid...”

Before Lin Qianqian could finish, Lin Kai smiled faintly: “Since Im here, theres no problem. Miss Yin is free to endorse the advertisement for skin care products. In Director Pan, I originally paid for some advertising expenses. But Director Pan, for the sake of my face, will not charge any fees.”

Xu Mochou immediately said with disdain: “What are you kidding? What kind of coffee is Yin Suyan? How can such a big celebrity come to endorse any product for free? If she really endorses your product for free, I will be there to smoke in reverse. !”

Xu Mochou said with a confident expression, she stepped into the entertainment circle half-footed, thinking that she was already a person in the entertainment circle, but she knew better than the others present.

What’s more, Yin Suyan, a national actress, is what she dreams of, and she knows the price in the industry!

No matter what, it is impossible for Yin Suyan to endorse products for free!

Even if there is, it may have happened to the large corporations of the world's top hundreds of companies, because that would owe personal love.

Xia Dongluo was also full of disbelief, and sneered: "Lin Kai, Miss Yin didn't say anything, you are talking nonsense there! Are you not afraid of being beaten!"

Lin Kai glanced at Xia Dongluo and said lightly: "Since you said that, would you dare to bet?"

Of course, this is not Lin Kai's bet, but the system just randomly released a task, asking him to bet with Xia Dongluo now that he will have the silver extraction ability after the task is completed.

better than nothing.

In addition, the system showed that Xia Dongluo had a bad heart and had colluded with Xu Mochou to get Lin Qianqian's company for a sum of money.

Chapter 1459: Best Friend

Chapter 1459

So, Lin Kaicai said directly, betting with Xia Dongluo.

Otherwise, he didn't bother to pay attention to Xia Dongluo, let alone any bets.

Xia Dongluo didn't expect that Lin Kai still dared to make a bet, so he continued to sneer, "Oh? What to bet on?"

Lin Kai casually said: "Didn't you say that Ms. Yin and Director Pan must pay for the endorsement fee? If you want the endorsement fee, you will win. I can tell you the technology of extracting that material, and you will be completely Take control of material technology. Haven't you been greedy for this material technology?"

But dont endorse, you resign yourself. Originally I didn't want to worry about anything more, but you and Xu Mochou colluded and deliberately said that the endorsement fee was five million, and then you two shared it equally. Doing so is to pit the company's money so that you can succeed. What I said, right? "

"Nonsense! Nonsense!" Xia Dongluo was shocked in his heart and didn't understand how Lin Kai knew such a secret thing. His face changed and changed, he naturally denied it.

Lin Kai said indifferently: "You just treat me as nonsense. As for what it looks like, you two definitely understand better than me. Now I'm talking about betting with you, whether you bet or not. If you win, you can get it. Five million endorsement fees. You lose the bet, please leave this company."

Lin Qianqian didn't have any objection, of course she trusted Lin Kai, not to mention that she also found out that there was a mess between Xia Dongluo and Xu Mochou.

Even if Lin Kai didn't say anything, she wouldn't sign a contract with Xu Mochou for five million endorsement fees.

Xia Dongluo didn't understand how Lin Kai knew it, which caused him to feel a little nervous now, and then he wondered whether to gamble or not.

Because this is related to his job, he finally got mixed with the department director of a medium-sized company, and this skin care product will definitely be a hot product in the future.

For all the reasons, his current position is still very good.

But he was still very dissatisfied and wanted to cheat the company's money.

Xia Dongluo became more and more tangled.

Xu Mo said indifferently, "Xia Dongluo, what are you afraid of? If you really don't want the endorsement fee, why would President Lin ask you to call me over? So, what's not to bet on! Be me, just bet!"

In fact, Xu Mochou is not sure. The reason why she said this is of course that it didn't hurt her.

If she wins the bet, she can get a high amount of endorsement advertising fees. If the bet loses, the loss is on Xia Dongluo anyway, and she will not be affected in any way.

Xia Dongluo's mind was too confused at this time, did not want to understand this, he immediately bit and hummed: "That's right! There is nothing to bet on! I bet!"

Lin Kai smiled lightly when he heard the words, and then called Pan Ligu into the office.

Lin Kai first introduced Yin Suyan and Pan Ligu to Lin Qianqian.

He said to Lin Qianqian again: "Qianqian, you should ask."

Lin Qianqian knew that neither Yin Suyan nor Pan Ligu would charge endorsement fees because Lin Kai personally said it.

If she changed to anyone, she would never believe it.

Lin Qianqian was moved in her heart. She never expected that Lin Kai invited Yin Suyan as an endorsement, as well as director Pan Ligu, who filmed the commercials. That would be a strong alliance and the effect would be better.

Yin Suyan is the goddess of the nation, and director Pan Ligu is not only good at making movies, he has also made several short film commercials, which is also a benchmark advertisement in the advertising industry of China.

So this skincare advertisement will definitely become a milestone in the advertising industry!

However, in order to convince Xia Dongluo and Xu Mochou, Lin Qianqian smiled and asked: "Ms. Yin, how much endorsement fee do you need to endorse skin care products for our company?"

"Mr. Lin." Yin Suyan smiled politely: "I have spoken to Mr. Lin before, this time I will endorse this product without any charge, and I will endorse skin care products for your company for free."

free?

Isn't it? !

Xia Dongluo and Xu Mochou were all dumbfounded, and they looked incredible.

Xu Mochou couldn't help but said to Yin Suyan: "Miss Yin, you are a national goddess-level star anyway, why do you want to bow down and speak for a small business for free?"

Yin Suyan looked at Xu Mochou, seemed to recognize it, and said lightly, "I know you and I have watched some of your videos."

She didn't say much in this regard, and did not comment on Xu Mo's worry.

However, Lin Kai understood that Yin Suyan was polite, and Yin Suyan didn't comment so much because he didn't want to hurt Xu Moshou.

But when Xu Mochou heard Yin Suyan know her, his expression instantly became extremely proud, as if he was saying, you see, even the goddess of the nation knows me, you can see how popular my popularity is.

Yin Suyan went on to say: "Free endorsements are not endorsements. This is my own business. Even the brokerage company cannot control me. In addition, I was invited by Mr. Lin Kailin, who is my best friend. He invited me, so naturally he wouldn't talk about money."

Lin Qianqian couldn't help feeling jealous when she heard the word 'best friend'. After glaring at Lin Kai, she asked Pan Liguoguo again and asked respectfully: "Director Pan, you won't charge any fees, right? Whether its received or not, Ive provided the food for the entire crew tonight. You, a professional, came to shoot the commercial. Its really a little frightened. This commercial is perfect with the endorsement of Miss Yin!"

Lin Qianqian is also particular about it, knowing that it is free, but the etiquette must not be forgotten. The staff is still very hard during the shooting, so please have a meal, that is the best choice.

Pan Liguoguo laughed: "Of course there is no charge, or even forcibly charged to me. I don't want it. Mr. Lin is my lifesaver and should be informed about it. What's more, it's just shooting an advertisement, not what it is. The big thing, compared to Mr. Lin saving me, and the entire crew, I have to be grateful to Mr. Lin, so this little thing is nothing at all."

Those crew members who came to shoot the commercials also came voluntarily, because Lin Kai's reinvestment made the welfare better.

In all aspects, it is much better than previous investors.

Therefore, the staff of this crew are also very grateful to Lin Kai, knowing that it is free, and they are all eager to come over.

Naturally, Pan Liguoguo didn't even think about it. Just on the road, he conceived how to shoot this advertisement, making this kind of advertisement even more popular.

When Lin Qianqian heard this, she smiled and said, "Then thank you Director Pan."

After that, Pan Liguoguo didn't say anything. He hurried out of the office and started preparing for the shooting of the advertisement.

As for Xia Dongluo and Xu Mochou, each of them looked very ugly.

Especially Xia Dongluo, his face was ashamed. He didn't expect that Yin Suyan and Pan Ligu would really come to work for free.

Chapter 1460: Pattern

Chapter 1460

Lin Kai heard the sound of system completion at this time, and the silver extraction ability awarded this time was of no use.

Although it may be used somewhere, but the probability of using it is too small, it can be regarded as tasteless.

But he didn't care about these, anyway, it was only the silver extraction ability, not to mention the extraction ability of these partial doors, at a certain critical moment, it was quite good.

The system task is completed, but Lin Kai saw that Xia Dongluo was very unwilling at this time, and couldn't help asking: "Director Xia, you heard it yourself and saw it with your own eyes. Miss Yin and Director Pan didn't need anything. The endorsement fee of the company. So you lose the bet. Is it time to honor your promise?"

Xia Dongluo's face was very gloomy, and he didn't say a word, and his expression was constantly changing.

Lin Qianqian saw this scene and said: "Director Xia, this is your own bet. You must resign automatically for the position of technical director, or I will force you to resign. Of course, it depends on you, the old company For employees sake, you can continue to stay in the company and can only be an ordinary technical employee."

"If you perform well in the future, you can still be promoted and your performance speaks. But if you are still dissatisfied with the company, as long as I find out, no matter how good your performance is, you will never be promoted."

At this time, Lin Qianqian played a pattern that a big corporate boss should have.

Xia Dongluo looked at Lin Qianqian in disbelief. He thought he would leave the company completely.

I was thinking about leaving with technology before, but now I see that even the goddess Yin Suyan and Pan Ligu, one of the top directors in China, work for them for free.

And it still depends on Lin Kai's face, Lin Kai is a shareholder of this company.

Xia Dongluo can see that the relationship between Lin Qianqian and Lin Kai is unusual, and more importantly, the relationship between Yin Suyan and Lin Kai is also unusual!

The company has a shareholder with this status, the company will definitely be able to do more and more in the future!

What's more, the company's skin care products are provided by Lin Kai's technology, plus Yin Suyan's endorsement, and Pan Ligu's shooting advertisement. It can be 100% sure that it will not take long for this skin care product to become a hit!

Of such a promising company, he certainly wants to stay, even if he loses the position of director.

He believes that with his own business capabilities, he can still return to the position of director.

Xia Dongluo was struggling before, it was because he wanted to stay and didn't know how to say it. Even if you stay, you may not be able to get a promotion.

He did not expect that Lin Qianqian took the initiative to speak out.

At this moment, Xia Dongluo was very grateful to Lin Qianqian, and decided to stay in this company well, without any ill-will.

After all, he already knew that this company has a great future!

Therefore, Xia Dongluo was extremely grateful and said, "Thank you, Mr. Lin! Thank you, Mr. Lin for giving me such a chance! In the future, I will honestly make a certain achievement in the company!"

Immediately, Lin Qianqian asked Xia Dongluo to go to the personnel department to go through the procedures for demotion.

She doesn't need to go to the demotion procedures in person.

As for Xia Dongluo's female classmate Xu Mochou, she had no face to stay here for a long time, and fled straight away. She didn't look so arrogant at first and her face was hot.

Lin Kai saw this, looked at Lin Qianqian, nodded secretly, Lin Qianqian's decision was indeed good, he smiled and walked out of the office.

Before that, Yin Suyan had followed Pan Liguang out. Yin Suyan was the protagonist of the commercials he shot, so naturally he had to participate in the shooting.

Before Lin Kai walked out of the office a few steps, Lin Qianqian quickly caught up with Lin Kai.

Lin Qianqian came to Lin Kai and whispered: "Lin Kai, the latest limited edition perfume from Dior I smelled from your car in the morning coincides with the perfume on Yin Suyan. Yin Suyan is the young and fashionable in your mouth. Another rich girl, right?"

Lin Kai nodded with an expression that he should have said, "It's her, why? Isn't she young, fashionable, or rich?"

Faced with Lin Kai's three rhetorical questions, Lin Qianqian was speechless.

Yin Suyan is a goddess in the country and well-known in Asia. How can he not be fashionable and have no money. A goddess or a national goddess, how can it not be beautiful?

Lin Qianqian was defeated. If she had better conditions than her, she would be able to compare it, but she didn't dare to compare with Yin Suyan. I thought that once they were compared, they would be ashamed.

This made Lin Qianqian more sulking, and she glanced at Lin Kai sullenly: "Humph! No wonder I haven't even answered the phone calls these days. It seems that I was fascinated by Yin Suyan."

"Didn't you return once two days ago?" Lin Kai corrected his mistake.

Lin Qianqian continued to cast a blank glance: "You know, just returned once."

While the two talked, they walked outside.

It was to go to Yin Suyan's place, to be precise, where the commercial was filmed.

With Pan Liguó's professional ability to shoot commercials, he found a good place in the company and started to build it.

Yin Suyan was carrying the advertising lines.

As for Lin Kai and Lin Qianqian, they wanted to see how they were filmed.

It's just that Lin Kai didn't get to the shooting location, he received a call from Yinshen.

After listening to Yinshen's words, Lin Kai's mouth curled up with a cold smile, then said goodbye to Lin Qianqian and drove to the western suburbs of the city.

at the same time.

On the outskirts of the west of the city, there was a car heading towards the back of the mountains.

There were three people in the car, and besides the driver, there were two others.

One was a middle-aged man with a stern face, and the other was a young man with dyed silver hair.

The silver-haired young man named Jiang Enyi was one of Lin Yuan's subordinates.

"Leiyuan Group is really talented people. I can't think of Brother Jiang, who is already Wu Sheng at a young age. It is really disrespectful. In Leiyuan Group, it is definitely a high-level man?" said the stern middle-aged man.

Jiang Enyi said: "I'm just joking, I'm just running errands. On the contrary, Brother Wan, you are the right arm of the Young Master of the Hidden Family, and you have a higher status than me."

The middle-aged man smiled and didn't say much. He then asked: "This time, the goal is only to come over and destroy what architectural drawings?"

Jiang Enyi responded: "Yes, our Leiyuan Group has been targeted recently, and we still can't do other serious things locally, so this time we can destroy the architectural drawings."

The middle-aged man clicked: "Okay, since your boss has formed an alliance with my young master. Plus, you have also spent money to do things. I will do this little thing."

"Okay, you go to destroy the architectural drawings, and I am investigating whether this mountain range really has dragon veins." Jiang Enyi immediately said, this place was spotted by the Leiyuan Group on the day when Li Shengxian invested and developed it.
