Chapter 1461: There Is Evil Here

Chapter 1461 There is evil here!

Jiang Enyi seemed to think of something, and then said: "Besides, Brother Wan, don't do anything excessive. This is the first time your young master used the Internet to offer a reward to Lin Kai. This led to our Leiyuan Group being targeted by the state organization. I had to do this the second time. In short, I can't do that kind of thing anymore, otherwise, whether it is your young master or my boss, it will be finished."

The middle-aged man nodded: "Understood."

The car did not drive in behind the mountains, but stopped at a place in the middle of the mountains.

Jiang Enyi went to the front of the mountain range to find out if there were dragon veins or traces of dragon veins. According to the news of the group, the mountain range was a dragon vein.

I don't know if it still exists. If it exists, I will bring the news back and Lin Yuan will come and fetch it. If it does not exist, forget it. Of course, if there are traces of dragon veins, they are not there, which means that Lin Kai must have taken them away.

If there is a dragon vein, Lin Yuan is bound to have it.

As for the middle-aged man, he went behind the mountains.

It was just that the middle-aged man had just arrived, and in the range behind the mountain range, he felt as if he was being stared at by something.

The middle-aged man was puzzled. He looked around, but he didn't feel any breath.

Then he walked and observed and found nothing unusual, so he quickly went behind the mountain range.

The moment he entered, the figure of the hidden * appeared on the spot.

Two days ago, Yinshen was arranged by Lin Kai to be near the Leiyuan Group to investigate and track some members of the Leiyuan Group.

Today, I just followed Jiang Enyi, and after following along, I also heard the plan of the two.

The Yinshen went to solve the middle-aged man first, so the Yinshen became invisible again and continued to follow the middle-aged man.

"That Jiang Enyi, what kind of thing! I also know that I am an errand! Leiyuan Group is nothing! If it were not for the young master, let me follow Leiyuan Group Lin Yuan to get some useful information, otherwise I won't help. Leiyuan Group makes a move!"

The middle-aged man went deep behind the mountain range, and at the same time he became angry, especially when he was warned by Jiang Enyi not long ago, he was quite upset.

“Hey! You tell me not to do too much, I will do too much! Not only do I have to ruin the architectural drawings, but I have to label Li Yaer and the engineer as well. Severely injured! Out of evil spirit!”

The middle-aged man showed a cruel smile, and then accelerated in the direction of the ancient building.

On the way, a few workers were going to carry the timber from here.

The middle-aged man immediately asked one of the workers: “Man, where is the engineer responsible for this project?”

Although this place is remote, some local people already know that development is going on here, and it is daytime, these workers are not wary of it.

The worker pointed to a nearby hillside, built a small temporary house, and said: “The engineer is studying the specific ancient building plan over there.”

Hearing this, the middle-aged man didn’t take a few workers astonished, he went straight to the hillside over there.

It’s just that he had just walked on the hillside, the middle-aged man seemed to be hit by something and fell heavily to the ground.

Those workers were all stunned, and could fall down even when they walked.

The middle-aged man was also stunned, his dignified martial arts master, how can he fall down even if he walks?

He got up with a sullen face, ready to continue walking up the hillside. Unexpectedly, there was an air wall in front of him. When he walked over, he was blasted down the hillside by an inexplicable force.

It kept rolling and fell heavily in front of the workers.

Naturally, the hidden * made a move in secret, because there are a few workers here, so he can’t directly show up to kill him, and can only hinder the middle-aged man first.

The workers were shocked again this time. What happened?

As for the person involved, the gloomy face of the middle-aged man was even more terrifying.

He stood up, facing the workers, said coldly: “Say! Are you guys doing ghosts?”

“what did you say?”

“What the * can we do?”

“Obviously you didn’t walk steadily on your own, and rolled down the hillside. Is this to blame us?”

When these workers said so, the middle-aged man’s complexion was earthy.

“Looking for death! You ordinary people, dare to finish saying this! Give me death!”

The anger in the middle-aged man’s heart was already there. When these workers said that, the anger was even greater, and he immediately blasted one of the workers with his fist.

In his opinion, under his own punch, this worker, including several other workers, suffered either death or injury.

However, what made him stunned was that the punch hit him inexplicably, and the middle-aged man was seriously injured in an instant.

The workers were puzzled, and they all looked at the middle-aged man with idiotic eyes. It seems that he wants to understand whether this person is a fool who beat himself and beat himself so badly.

The workers were kind, and when they were about to support the middle-aged man, the middle-aged man stood up again.

The middle-aged man was very unbelieving and punched again, but what was waiting for him was that his fist struck him inexplicably.

The injuries were more serious, and it was extremely difficult even to get up.

“Brother, are you ill?”

“How about I call 129, if you beat yourself down like this, you will be beaten to death by yourself sooner or later.”

A few workers really can't stand it.

Hearing what these workers said, the middle-aged man became angry and spit out blood. He became even more angry. When did he encounter such insults?

A magnificent master of martial arts, but inexplicably become like this.

Could it be that these workers are masters? Or is it evil here?

The middle-aged man stood up swayingly and stretched out his hand tentatively, but just as soon as he stretched it out, he was shaky, his hand was completely uncontrollable, and he hit himself again.

The internal organs of the middle-aged man were almost displaced by himself.

At this moment, he felt horrified. He didn't care about anything. While running away from the mountains, he shouted in horror: “There is evil here! There is evil here!”

In the shout, with infinite horror, there is no such thing as a martial arts-level ancient martial artist.

The hidden * is originally at the master level, and coupled with being good at stealth, dealing with a martial sage is naturally easy.

Had it not been for the presence of a few workers, the middle-aged man would have been killed.

Yinshen didn't chase after him, he already knew Lin Kai, he had arrived here, and headed in Lin Kai's direction.

at this time.

Lin Kai came to the middle of the mountain range, he rushed here at the fastest speed.

Although there was a hidden god, he was still worried about what Lin Yuan would have.

Its nothing if the architectural drawings are destroyed, but Li Yaer and others will be injured.

Chapter 1462: Knock On The Mountain

Chapter 1462

After all, with Lin Qianqian and Dong Shu's lessons learned, Lin Kai didn't want to hurt others anymore.

Therefore, Lin Kai came decisively.

As soon as he arrived, he sensed a middle-aged man with a frightened expression on his side and fled.

And Jiang Enyi also happened to be here.

Nothing happened to Jiang Enyi in front of the mountain range. In fact, he couldn't find the hole where the dragon veins were born, and the place where the evil spirit was sealed.

Inside that cave, it was very hidden, not professional, and there was no way to find that place.

Jiang Enyi returned without success.

Lin Kai saw the two people coming, and he was slightly hidden in a corner.

When the two will get together, he will come out again.

He wanted to see what the specific purpose of these two people was to do.

Yinshen only knew the purpose of the middle-aged man.

At this moment, Jiang Enyi saw the middle-aged man with a serious injury and was very surprised, so he asked.

The middle-aged man told himself, all the strange experiences that happened there.

Lin Kai was nearby, when he heard the middle-aged man's words, he smiled slightly, without even thinking about it, it was the hands and feet of Yinshen moving.

And at this time, he also sensed the hidden god, he had already come here, he secretly transmitted to the hidden god, don't act rashly.

Sure enough, the next moment Jiang Enyi stated his purpose, not only to come to find Longmai, but also to send the news here.

In addition to looking for the dragon veins, he also came to explore the topography of the mountain range, and he would send someone to blow up the mountain range.

As if, Leiyuan Group noticed this mountain range.

Lin Yuan definitely didn't want this mountain range to be developed by Li Shengxian and become a scenic spot.

In fact, this was what Lin Kai expected, but he didn't expect that Lin Yuan would notice this place so quickly.

It seems that it is him who has recently hit Leiyuan Group in a series of attacks, making Lin Yuan more urgent, wanting to make Leiyuan Group dominate the East China Sea.

And the biggest obstacle to the dominance of one family is the Li family.

As the unshakable overlord of the East China Sea, the Li family naturally did not fall so easily.

Although the scale of the Leiyuan Group is now frantically expanded under continuous acquisition or investment, it far exceeds that of the Li family.

But the Li family is still there after all, no matter what, it can sustain its dominance for several years.

Leiyuan Group is definitely not willing to wait for several years, or even a few months.

From what Lin Yuan wanted, and the big groups and big families in several nearby cities, the alliance would know that Lin Yuan wanted to make the Leiyuan Group extremely big in a short time.

Then he swallowed the Li family and became the true ruler of the East China Sea.

And now the Li family has no emerging industries, and can only wait to be slowly swallowed by Leiyuan Group.

But Li Shengxian is an odd number here because of Lin Kai's help.

The most important thing is that in the past few days, Leiyuan Group has also heard that Li Shengxian purchased it in the suburbs of the west of the city and began to develop it into a scenic spot.

Under investigation, we knew the reason.

Once Li Shengxian succeeds, Li Shengxian will not only secure his position as the heir of the Li family, but also inject new industries into the Li family. This kind of industry may even bring the Li family's market value several times higher.

Because Lin Yuan also learned that Lin Kai took the film crew starring Yin Suyan to the mountains over there to shoot.

In addition, it is directed by Pan Ligu, and this movie must be very popular.

That's why Lin Yuan sent people in such anxiousness. First, he wanted to destroy the architectural drawings, so that the filming could be delayed for a period of time.

At the same time, send someone to figure out the topography of the mountain range and find a suitable time to destroy some of the beautiful places in this mountain range.

As a result, the scenic spot developed by Li Shengxian would naturally not be possible.

When I heard Jiang Enyi spit out there, saying that there are beautiful scenery everywhere, it is obviously impossible to destroy all the places.

He and the middle-aged man began to think of ways to find the key beauty.

But when the two were about to leave, Lin Kai appeared.

Lin Kai had to admit that Lin Yuan was still the same Lin Yuan, and the plan he thought could indeed bring certain dangers.

Unfortunately, Lin Yuan still underestimated him.

When Jiang Enyi and the middle-aged man saw Lin Kai appear, they were all surprised.

Especially Jiang Enyi, he knew that Lin Kai was great, the man who made Lin Yuan fear.

On the contrary, it was a middle-aged man who was holding back a lot of grievances. He almost died in that evil place not long ago.

Now that he recovered most of his strength, he saw a young guy intercepting him.

The middle-aged man knew that this man was Lin Kai and that Lin Kai was quite strong, but he didn't think that no matter how strong he was, could he and Jiang Enyi join forces?

Ever since, the middle-aged man yelled extremely: "Boy, seek your own death! It just so happens that I want to find you too. Since I'm in the trap, don't blame me!"

He said, looked at Jiang Enyi, and smiled: "Brother Jiang, this kid came to the door by himself. With the two of us, we will definitely catch this kid. But why are you so weird, I..."

Before the middle-aged man finished speaking, Jiang Enyi turned around and ran out of the mountains, running faster than a rabbit!

Jiang Enyi secretly scolded this middle-aged man as an idiot. This is a headache even for his boss. Not to mention that he and the middle-aged man join forces. Ten more martial arts masters will not necessarily win!

So how dare he go! As for why he didn't make it clear with the middle-aged man, of course, it was for the middle-aged man to delay going down to Lin Kai so as not to catch up with him.

The middle-aged man saw Jiang Enyi running away in panic and was stunned. He didn't seem to understand why Jiang Enyi fled like this.

Only soon, he understood.

Because Lin Kai let out a sneer, it was just a move that severely injured the middle-aged man to the ground, worse than the previous severe injury!

At this moment, the middle-aged man knew instantly! The strength of this kid is entirely because he and Jiang Enyi joined forces, and it is impossible to defeat them! too strong!

The middle-aged man was terrified.

Lin Kai glanced at the middle-aged man, then looked towards Jiang Enyi's side, and said lightly: "Yinshen, shoot, let him go first."

After speaking, Lin Kai decisively used the truth to extract his abilities and asked the middle-aged man to explain something honestly.

Just now through the conversation between the two, he knew that the middle-aged man was not from the Leiyuan Group.

This question indeed revealed that this middle-aged man belonged to a certain hidden family. The first assassination was offered as a reward. The young master of the Cain family also issued the assassination reward.

Lin Kai sneered even more, and after asking, he decisively dismissed the middle-aged man.

It happened that on the side of the hidden god, Jiang Enyi was also abolished, and both of them lost the martial arts and became ordinary people.

Moreover, Lin Kai asked Yinshen to bring these two wastes to the door of Leiyuan Group. The purpose of this was to kill chickens and monkeys!

Let Lin Yuan take a look, if he does this kind of sneaky thing, it will end like this!

Chapter 1463: Nine You Grass

Chapter 1463 Nine You Grass

At three or four in the afternoon, Lin Kai returned to Lin Qianqian's company.

He went to the outskirts of the west of the city, and after solving Jiang Enyi and the middle-aged man, he went to the back of the mountain to see how the construction was progressing.

By the way, Gao Zhengsheng, the engineer responsible for the construction of ancient buildings, gave some pointers.

After all, he drew this architectural drawing, so there are many key issues that need to be explained by Gao Zhengsheng.

Originally, Lin Kai planned to find a time within today to go to the suburbs of the west of the city.

Only after Yinshen sent him a message, he came to the suburbs of the west of the city in advance.

However, Goldman's attitude towards him has changed drastically.

Hearing Lin Kai's guidance, he was like a well-behaved student. He listened carefully to the lecture nearby. When in doubt, he raised it to Lin Kai and Lin Kai patiently explained it.

In this way, after a few hours, Gao Zhengsheng fully understood. For the rest, there is no need for Lin Kai to come back behind the mountain range.

On the way back to Lin Qianqian's company, Yinshen returned the news, saying that Jiang Enyi and the middle-aged man had been thrown at the door of Leiyuan Group.

In accordance with Lin Kai's words, Yinshen said directly, if Lin Yuan dares to use these three indiscriminate methods next time, he will not mind, and he will use the same method to deal with the high level of Leiyuan Group.

Lin Kai knew that Lin Yuan didn't care about the people around him. To be precise, Lin Yuan was a cold-blooded and ruthless person who didn't care about the lives of others at all.

Lin Kai really recognized this and said that he would target the senior leaders of Leiyuan Group.

Lin Yuan may not care about others, but he must not care about Leiyuan Group.

Leiyuan Group can now be said to be Lin Yuan's capital.

Of course, it was impossible for Lin Kai to really act on the Leiyuan Group. That would kill the net, but let the hidden * throw Jiang Enyi and the middle-aged man over to deter Lin Yuan and play a role in killing the chicken and the monkey.

Moreover, Lin Kai deliberately let it go, after the Yinshen finished speaking, he went into hiding to disrupt the Leiyuan Group.

When the master master from Leiyuan Group arrived, Yinshen had already left Leiyuan Group's scope.

In this way, the Leiyuan Group must consider it carefully and use some tricks behind it next time, and the consequences will be at your own risk.

After that, Lin Kai arranged the Yinshen to return to the back of the mountain to ensure the safety of the workers and Gao Zhengsheng.

Lin Kai didn't know whether Lin Yuan would retaliate. Although he guessed with a high probability that Lin Yuan would bear it for the time being, he was not afraid of anything but ten thousand.

at this time.

Lin drove up in the parking lot of Lin Qianqian's company.

Several cars from the crew are not here. Obviously, the shooting of the endorsement commercial has been filmed.

On the way, Lin Kai received a call from Yin Suyan. She said that she had returned to the hotel to rest.

Originally, Lin Kai thought, and drove home directly. After a while, he received a call from Lin Qianqian.

Lin Qianqian asked him to come to the company and said that he was a shareholder of the company. At least the edited advertisement must be read. She was dissatisfied.

Lin Kai had no choice but to come over.

At this time, Lin Kai walked towards Lin Qianqian's office.

When Lin Qianqian saw Lin Kai coming, she immediately greeted Lin Kai and watched the endorsement advertisement of the film. There were two advertisements.

An advertisement lasts about nineteen seconds. This advertisement is placed on a TV advertisement or a membership advertisement on a video website.

Another advertisement lasts more than five minutes, which is equivalent to a short commercial. This short commercial is the top priority.

At that time, it will be published on the whole network, and will be published through Yin Suyan's online account.

Lin Kai and Lin Qianqian watched these two commercials together. The first 19-second commercial was more brilliant, and it was also top-notch in TV commercials.

However, the time given to Pan Liguo is too short, otherwise, he can still shoot better.

But the second one, the five-minute short film commercial is different.

It can be said that this advertisement is the highlight, and if it is released, it will definitely be the one that will instantly hit the whole network.

Lin Kai had to be surprised that Pan Liguo's professional strength was indeed very strong.

And Yin Suyan, whose performance in the short film is worthy of being a queen.

In particular, skin care product advertisements do not appear so obtrusive, but should have the same feeling as skin care products.

Lin Qianqian saw Lin Kai, staring at the advertisement in front of the computer screen, and snorted: "Lin Kai, I see that you see Miss Yin Suyan in the advertisement, and you can't move your eyes all the time. Are you and her, it's really just good? The relationship of friends?"

Lin Kai kept looking at Yin Suyan, in fact, because he admired Yin Suyan's performance in commercials very much. I didn't expect Lin Qianqian to ask that way.

He reluctantly responded: "Naturally it is a good friend relationship."

This made Lin Qianqian stare at Lin Kai suspiciously, and Lin Kai was even more helpless. He had no choice but to find a reason and left Lin Qianqian's company.

The endorsement advertisement has been filmed, and Lin Kai is relieved.

As for the release and placement of the advertisement, it is up to Lin Qianqian herself.

Lin Kai returned to his home.

Dong Shu went back after he healed his injury.

So now there is only Lin Kai left at home.

Lin Kai was not idle, he sat directly on the sofa in the living room and began to practice.

He had a hunch that it was the calm before the storm.

Because of his actions today, Lin Yuan would definitely be angered. Although Lin Yuan might not fight back immediately, he was definitely thinking of a way there to find an opportunity to cause a fatal blow to him.

Lin Yuan thought so, but Lin Kai didn't think so.

Calculating the time, three days later is the day with the worst fortune of the Leiyuan Group.

In order to prevent any accidents, Lin Kai still worked hard to improve his cultivation base. At present, he has touched the bottleneck of his cultivation base.

Once a breakthrough, the strength will go further.

The stronger one's own strength, the kingly way. No matter what conspiracy and tricks come, they are not afraid, but can be solved one by one.

“At the current Golden Core period, I want to make a breakthrough. The true energy between heaven and earth is still not enough. Therefore, if you want a better breakthrough, you must find a kind of heaven and earth treasure to use as a primer to make a breakthrough. “

Lin Kai thought, he had Dragon Vein Liquid, but it was only when he prepared to break through from the Golden Core Stage to the Nascent Soul Stage.

It would be too wasteful to use it to break through now, so just ignore it.

Three-color saplings have only studied part of their effects, and some of them are not used to break through.

As a result, Lin Kai had to look for a similar kind of treasure.

Just as Lin Kai was thinking about it, the system released a task that turned out to be a reward for demigod extraction ability.

The system must know what he is thinking, so the task of the system is to find a treasure named 'Nine Youcao'.

Nine You Grass grows in a very gloomy place, and it also contains the essence of heaven and earth's true energy. It is a rare treasure of heaven and earth.

Chapter 1464: Dispute

Chapter 1464

According to the system mission, the description of Nine Youcao is indeed very suitable. Lin Kai is in the Golden Core Period and wants to break through a small realm.

What excites Lin Kai most is that the rewarded demigod extraction ability, called the monkey extraction ability, can extract the soul, and even attach his own soul to others!

To know that if the cultivator's soul is out of his body, he can only do it at the stage of transforming the spirit!

He is currently in the Golden Elixir Period, the Nascent Soul Period in the future, and the God Transformation Period!

In other words, this extraction ability can allow him to get two realms in advance!

After the soul-changing stage, the soul is very useful, let alone the current Jin Dan stage!

Whether he wants to break through a small realm, or for this extraction ability, Lin Kai must complete this system task quickly.

However, this Nine You Grass should grow in a place where the Yin Sha is very dense.

Lin Kai still doesn't know much about this aspect.

After thinking for a while, he called Master Zhicheng.

Master Zhicheng, who deals with evil every day, may know some.

Somewhat disappointed was that Master Zhicheng had never heard of Jiuyou Grass.

However, Master Zhicheng said that maybe the other members of the Bihua Mansion knew about this Jiuyoucao and would help Lin Kai ask.

Lin Kai thanked him, and hung up the phone with Master Zhicheng.

He continued to immerse himself in practice.

But after a while, Master Zhicheng called.

Lin Kai was curious, did you ask so soon?

However, as soon as he answered the phone, he heard a voice from the other side.

The voice is not Master Zhicheng, but An Xiaoran.

"Lin Kai, Lin Kai, the Jiuyoucao you are looking for. Let me tell you this. The others in the Pihua Mansion must not know, but I have a way to know. You only ask me and I will tell you." Xiao Ran's humming voice came.

Lin Kai smiled and responded: "An Xiaoran, it's not too late now. I didn't hear Master Zhicheng say just now, what mission are you performing. What do you mean by staying with a monk this night?"

An Xiaoran immediately said angrily: "What are you talking about! Apart from Master Zhicheng next to me, there are several other people, all from the Bihua Mansion! We are having a meeting!"

At the same time, An Xiaoran was in a conference hall with several people sitting at the conference table.

In addition to An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng, there are two others that Lin Kai knows, and it is accurate to say that Lin Kai rescued them by name.

The Xianning Taoist of Xuan Taoism and Chen Guang, the head of the Chen family in Beijing.

In the western suburbs of Donghai City, Lin Kai finally saved the lives of three people in that evil spirit place. Master Zhicheng can also be said to have been saved by Lin Kai.

The people present were extraordinary people. Although the mobile phone did not have the hands-free function, they could hear Lin Kai's jokes.

Upon hearing Lin Kai, Master Zhicheng made fun of him, an old monk, and An Xiaoran, and he couldn't help but said helplessly to everyone: "Lin Shizhu was forced to say this on purpose. You didn't see An Xiaoran proud of it. Dont blame Lin Donor for the yangyang look."

Taoist Xianning is an old man in his sixties, dressed in a Taoist robe, with a fairy style and bones. At this time, he stroked his long white beard and said with a smile: "Although I only met Lin Daoyou, I dont know much about Lin Daoyou. Now that you see Fellow Daoist Lin letting Fellow Dao Ann so deflated, he must have a great demeanor.”

After Taoist Xianning laughed, he looked solemnly again: “The place where the Nine Youcao was born is a very dangerous place. If you tell Lin Daoyou so rashly, you may put Lin Daoyou in danger.”

Chen Guangdao: “Just tell Lin Daoyou the danger. Let Lin Daoyou judge for himself. Maybe these nine you grasses are very important to Lin Daoyou. Moreover, Lin Daoyou’s strength is really powerful. In that place, it may not be a threat. He. It happens that that place is almost the destination of our trip. I am waiting with Fellow Lin Daoist, at least not to put Fellow Lin Dao in danger.”

Taoist Xianning nodded when he heard this, “Yes, you can’t let Lin Daoyou be in danger. After all, he is kind to me, and he has also helped Pihua Mansion several times. I have to help Lin Daoyou if I am in love with reason. Won the Nine You Grass.”

“Seniors, the goal of our trip must not be exposed to outsiders. If Lin Kai, what is called, follow us, wouldn’t it be good?”

In a corner of the conference table, a young man in his twenties frowned and spoke.

This young man is also handsome, not worse than Lu Qingfeng.

Lu Qingfeng is that feminine and beautiful, more feminine than a woman.

And this young man is similar. The only difference is that the clothes this young man wears are also feminine, that kind of fancy.

The young man’s name was Liu Jiacheng. He saw that An Xiaoran grabbed Master Zhicheng’s mobile phone, and then talked with Lin Kai on the other side of the phone with excitement, which made Liu Jiacheng very upset.

Especially now, when I heard Taoist Xianning and Chen Guang discussing and asked Lin Kai to go with them, Liu Jiacheng was extremely upset.

Therefore, he couldn’t help but ran out and said something.

There was another person on the conference table. She was a young girl. She was pretty and dressed up with ethnic characteristics.

Such a young girl looks more mature than An Xiaoran.

But this young girl, sitting opposite Liu Jiacheng, held her chin, and stared at Liu Jiacheng with nympholy eyes.

Obviously, this young girl admires Liu Jiacheng.

When she heard Liu Jiacheng say this, she couldn’t help but echo Liu Jiacheng: “Yes, Liu Jiacheng was right. The purpose of our trip is not to be exposed. It is not good to let an outsider join our team.”

In fact, young girls don’t care about this problem.

But Liu Jiacheng said so, and she said so too, just to get Liu Jiacheng’s favor.

Sure enough, Liu Jiacheng smiled slightly when he heard the young girl supporting him.

And the young girl saw Liu Jiacheng's smile with an idiotic and brainless look, and said to herself: "So handsome!"

Master Zhicheng looked at Liu Jiacheng and the young girl. They gave each other a look and smiled kindly: "Lin Daoyou is not an outsider. Although he is not a member of the Bihua Mansion, he is also a national organization. What's more, the purpose of this trip, it is also in the depths of the mountain range of Xianning donor Xuandao Temple. The deep mountain in the center of Lushan in Xunyang City.

The Jiuyou Grass that Lin Daoyou was looking for was also in that place, so it happened to be on the way. So Liu Jiacheng's donor, and Xinruan donor, you two can rest assured. No mission objectives will be exposed. We naturally waited to complete our task, and then went to help Fellow Lin. "

It is impossible for Master Zhicheng to tell Lin Kai's true identity.

After all, Lin Kai's true identity is absolutely confidential.

Chapter 1465: Go To Lushan

Chapter 1465

At this time, An Xiaoran originally wanted to give Lin Kai's appetite again and ask Lin Kai to say a few good things to her, so that she would provide Lin Kai where the Jiuyou Grass is.

It's just that Lin Kai should have heard the voice of Master Zhicheng, and quickly said: "Miss An, thank you, it turned out to be in the Lushan uninhabited area of Xunyang City."

Before An Xiaoran could say anything, she heard the beeping sound of the phone hanging up.

"Huh! Old bald donkey!"

An Xiaoran blanked his eyes and became a master of wisdom, and curled his lips: "Why are you so honest? Even if you say such a detailed address, you have to say it. After Lin Kai has said something nice to me, let's talk about it!"

Master Zhicheng smiled bitterly and shook his head. He really broke An Xiaoran's good deeds, and immediately folded his hands together: "Donor An, poor monk from now on, when you are talking with Donor Lin, if the poor monk is by the side, never interrupt!"

Liu Jiacheng smiled at An Xiaoran and said, "Xiao Ran, for a kid who doesn't know what is good or bad, go to blame Master Zhicheng. It shouldn't be the case."

Liu Jiacheng seems to be here, speaking for Master Zhicheng.

In fact, it was Liu Jiacheng who mocked Lin Kai overtly and secretly, thinking that Lin Kai was a kid who didn't know good or bad.

An Xiaoran glanced at Liu Jiacheng and said lightly: "What does it have to do with you."

After she finished speaking, she returned her mobile phone to Master Zhicheng, hummed, and immediately left the conference hall.

Seeing An Xiaoran's appearance, Liu Jiacheng hurried forward and chased after him: "Xiao Ran, where are you going? We haven't finished the discussion yet!"

An Xiaoran said without looking back: "You are discussing yours. After all, I am only responsible for leading the way in this mission. As for you, don't follow me."

Early the next morning.

Lin Kai took a taxi on his own and went to Donghai International Airport and flew to the neighboring province of Xunyang.

Since ancient times, Xunyang City has been a part of Jiangnan, a typical Jiangnan water town. And the largest freshwater lake in China, more than 70% of the area, runs through the entire Xunyang City.

There is even a mountain called Deer Mountain which was highly respected by ancient poets.

It is equivalent to the modern Internet celebrity mountain, and the Internet celebrity check-in place. From ancient times to the present, there have been thousands of poets, leaving hundreds of thousands of poems or articles.

There are many poems in the textbook, which can be said to be a hit.

In addition, the scenery of Lushan Mountain is indeed very beautiful, attracting more tourists every year.

Not only that, but Lushan Mountain itself has the source of the Southern Shaolin Temple and a branch of Taoism.

The Taoist Temple Xianning created himself, although it was created less than a few decades ago, the Taoist Temple was the branch address of the previous Taoist school. It has a very deep foundation, so it is still a bit famous.

At this time, outside the airport in Xunyang City.

Taoist Xianning smiled at Master Zhicheng and said with a smile: "Friends of Taoism, I'm sorry. My ineffective disciples seem to have been delayed on the road and did not come to pick us up in time. Wait, if it doesn't. Come, poor Dao can only call others over."

As a person here, Dao Xianning was naturally the one who came to entertain Master Zhicheng and other people from all over the world.

Master Zhicheng and Chen Guang both showed an understanding smile.

An Xiaoran wears a sun hat and sunglasses, and wears earphones for a long time, listening to the song, she just vaguely heard what Taoist Xianning said, she didn't care much.

The Liu Jiacheng shook his head and said, "Senior Xianning, it seems that some of your disciples are still negligent. They are about to come at the agreed time soon, but they are not here now."

Liu Jiacheng naturally didn't dare to say anything too much, he was still very angry, and let him be in such a big sun, he still has a temperament.

He didn't dare to provoke the Taoist Xianning, so he had to get angry with the disciples of Taoist Xianning.

Xinru looked at Liu Jiacheng like this, and also echoed: "Yes, a few of Senior Xiannings apprentices are too untrustworthy. It's almost the agreed time. They haven't come yet, so they really don't look at us. In the eyes! I suggest..."

Before she finished speaking, a commercial car drove not far in front of everyone.

I saw two Taoist priests in Taoist robes at the front of the commercial vehicle.

One of the Taoist priests got down from the co-pilot and bowed to the Taoist Xianning: "Master, I was delayed on the road. Fortunately, it just arrived at the agreed time. Let the master and several guests of the master wait. Now, I hope I am sorry."

Taoist Xianning shook his head and laughed: "You just happened to be there, there is nothing to apologize."

"Yes, it's normal to be delayed on the road for a while." Chen Guang also continued.

Master Zhicheng also said nothing.

The expressions of several elders made Liu Jiacheng and Xinru's faces hot. Just now the two continued to blame, the disciples of Taoist Xianning had a bad attitude and were almost late.

I didn't know that the face slap came so quickly, and I was not late, but just happened to step on the spot.

Especially Liu Jiacheng, his face was gloomy and terrible.

The next few people all got on this commercial vehicle.

According to the plan of Taoist Xianning, instead of going directly to Lushan, he found a hotel in the city to stay first.

Since he took Master Zhicheng, first take a tour in Xunyang City.

Anyway, this task is not urgent, it is rare to have free time, so it is natural to have fun and stroll around.

Everyone has no opinion. With the host of the Xianning Taoist, it will definitely be fun.

Only Liu Jiacheng made a suggestion: "Senior Xianning, there is an antique market in Xunyang that is very famous. I happen to be very interested in antiques. Wait for Senior Xianning, it's better to take us to the antique market. How is it?"

Taoist Xianning didn't refuse the junior's proposal, but just nodded: "OK."

Around two o'clock in the afternoon.

Lin Kai took a three-and-a-half-hour flight to Xunyang City in the neighboring province.

He took a taxi directly outside the airport. He was preparing to get to know Lushan first, so he didn't go to Lushan right away, so he decided to study it.

Because when I called last night, Lin Kai, as an immortal cultivator, could still hear everyone there, knowing that there seemed to be a certain danger.

So that he is not in a hurry to go.

When he was just taking a taxi, he didn't know where to go, so he casually said to the driver: "Just go to a hotel in the city."

The driver was sincere. After driving for half an hour, he went to the city and found a hotel with the best location and a very good environment in all aspects.

If you change to a dishonest driver, listening to Lin Kai say this, you will definitely want to make a few laps and find a hotel at will.

After that, Lin Kai paid and got out of the car.

This hotel is in Xunyang City, not luxurious, but it is the hotel with the most Xunyang characteristics.

Lin Kaidor was also satisfied. It was almost three o'clock in the afternoon, and he would go back to the hotel to rest for a while.

Chapter 1466: You Have A Vision

Chapter 1466: You Really Have Insight

Lin Kai also knew that there was an antique market near this hotel, which was the largest and most popular antique market in several nearby provinces.

It is said that some people have found good treasures from thousands of years ago in this antique market.

Lin Kai is somewhat interested. Others may just pick up some antique treasures for collection or sell them at high prices.

Lin Kai was different. He looked at the magic weapons left by the cultivators.

He already knew that there were still immortal cultivators in China in ancient times. Although there is only one immortal cultivator left on the earth now, he must have left behind, many magic weapons.

As a result, Lin Kai took a short rest in the hotel and went to the largest antique market nearby.

The antique market has several ancient streets, one of which is the most prosperous, named Tianxing Antique Street.

At that time, Tianxing Antique Street, in a certain shop.

The Taoist Xian Ning waited for a few people and then strolled around the shop at will.

As if to show something, Liu Jiacheng pointed to a yellowed copper coin placed on the cabinet in the shop, and sneered: "Boss, your shop is too low in price. Even a copper coin is displayed on the counter.

Isn't copper coin the most common type in the antique market? What's so strange about it, and its there."

Hearing Liu Jiacheng, Daoist Xianning, Master Zhicheng and others couldn't help but look at the yellowed coin. Except for the words engraved on the coin, it seemed to be special, it was no different from other coins.

The shop owner is a shrewd man in his fifties, dressed in a robe of the Republic of China, holding two walnuts in his hand, turning around.

The shrewd man smiled at Liu Jiacheng's words: "This little brother, you don't know this. The copper coin can be placed on a wooden cabinet and displayed separately, and naturally has its unique value. This copper coin is from five generations to ten. Kingdom, the copper coin in the mouth of a king's body was specially created. As you know, copper coins are usually stuffed into the body's mouth to prevent resurrection.

But at the level of the king, it is naturally impossible to put ordinary copper coins. This copper coin is made of pure gold. You can see it by looking at its yellowing. Because of the age, the color is dim. Not to mention other things, just because it came from the period of the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms, it is eligible. It is here, can't you deny it? "

Hearing what the shop owner said, Liu Jiacheng's eyes lit up and asked: "Indeed, there are still too few ancient artifacts unearthed in the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms, and the history is not that detailed. I don't know the owner, what is the price of this coin. ?"

The shop owner continued to turn the two walnuts in his hand, and then extended * with his other hand, and said with a smile: "Two million, a price. In fact, I have discounted the two million, otherwise the market price, At least another 500,000 yuan. But 2.5 million, that would not sound good."

Master Zhicheng saw the pan-brass coin and asked the Taoist Xianning next to him: "Xianning donor, is this true or false?"

Taoist Xianning is not wearing a robes, but ordinary clothes.

After all, this is in the urban area of Xunyang City, and the Xuan Taoist Temple is quite famous in Xunyang City. If you see him in a robe, you will definitely recognize him.

So now the Taoist Xianning looks like an ordinary old man.

Taoist Xianning shook his head and responded: "Master Zhicheng, to be honest, the poor Taoist still doesn't quite understand this aspect."

When Chen Guang heard the two discussing there, he laughed and said: "The two Taoists are all devoted to cultivating there. It is normal for them to understand this aspect. As a person in the capital, the capital itself has a Panjiayuan, the largest antiques market in China, decades ago, I was keen on shopping for some treasures there.

According to my previous experience, this copper coin does have a certain age and is also made of gold. However, it is hard to say whether it was unearthed in the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms. If it were not for the period of the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms, at most 200,000. If yes, two million is indeed the same. “

Master Zhicheng and Taoist Xianning both nodded when they heard this.

The three of them did not speak out directly, but used voice transmission.

The three of them are powerful ancient warriors, and in addition to Buddhism and Taoism, they have also studied deeply in each, and naturally they will have some sound transmission methods.

Therefore, no one else could hear the conversation between the three of Master Zhicheng.

After the shop owner said the price, his expression was quite calm, and he didn't seem to care about whether this group of people would buy the copper coin, and was leisurely turning the two walnuts in their hands.

When Liu Jiacheng saw this, he moved in his heart and immediately asked the shop owner, “Boss, can you get it in my hand and take a closer look?”

The shop owner smiled: “Naturally, but because it is an antique, naturally you have to wear gloves to see. There are gloves on the table. You can wear them yourself before holding them.”

Liu Jiacheng immediately put on the gloves on the table, and took the pan-brass coins on the cabinet into his hands and observed for a while.

Immediately, he raised the pan-brass coin in his hand and smiled and asked An Xiaoran: “Xiao Ran, do you think this coin is worth buying?”

An Xiaoran glanced at Liu Jiacheng faintly, and said, “Liu Jiacheng, do you buy it or not, don't ask me anything.”

Xinru, but hurriedly responded to Liu Jiacheng: “Jiacheng, isn't it just a broken copper coin? Two million is not worth buying it. Speaking of which, I have a lot of such broken copper coins. If you like it, next time I will bring you a pile of copper coins of this kind.”

Liu Jiacheng glanced at Xinru indifferently: “You are not me, you can save me a bunch of coins.”

Liu Jiacheng was trying to separate his relationship with Xinru, so that An Xiaoran would not be misunderstood, so that he went on to the shop owner and said: “I bought it for two million. Pack it for me.”

“Go!” When the shop owner heard Liu Jiacheng's words, he was not as calm as before, but laughed: “This little brother, you have a foresight! To be honest, I am a little bit reluctant to go with these two million. Sell! It's cheaper for you!

After all, the value of this collection is much greater than its own value! But I am not a collector, I am a businessman, so I sell it to you cheaply! “

Upon hearing this, Liu Jiacheng felt that the shop owner's words were a bit strange, but he didn't know what was strange.

Afterwards, the shop owner packed the pan-brass money, and also had an antiques appraisal.

At this time, Liu Jiacheng felt relieved and paid the money readily.

After he finished buying, Master Zhicheng walked out of the shop.

Liu Jiacheng cautiously took the wrapped pan-brass coin while walking out of the shop.

Chapter 1467: Be Cheated

Chapter 1467

At this moment, Liu Jiacheng was still very proud.

After all, after spending 2 million, I bought a special copper coin made of gold in the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms. The significance is very extraordinary.

If you resell it, you can make a fortune. Collecting it is also extremely valuable.

In short, he bought this pan-brass money without losing money.

Master Zhicheng and his group of six people, all of them have different ages.

So walk around and see, a few people walked and scattered.

The main reason is that their hobbies are not the same. Master Zhicheng and Taoist Xianning have no interest in these antiques at all, so the two walked together and went around at will.

Chen Guang was interested in things from the Republic of China period, and would specifically go around shops or street stalls in that period.

An Xiaoran is also not interested in these antiquities, but walks up and down the street alone while wearing headphones and listening to songs.

But Liu Jiacheng saw An Xiaoran walking alone, so he was busy following An Xiaoran, because An Xiaoran was listening to the song.

Liu Jiacheng didn't know how loud An Xiaoran's headphones were. Anyway, how he talked to An Xiaoran, An Xiaoran just ignored him.

Xinru looked at Liu Jiacheng, following An Xiaoran, so she also ran to Liu Jiacheng's side, with a look of admiration: "Jiacheng, you..."

Before she finished speaking, I saw a middle-aged fat man who looked like a nouveau riche in the shop not far in front of him. He was pushed directly out of the shop.

This middle-aged fat man, a big gold chain, a big gold watch, and a few big gold rings on his fingers.

But at this time, after the middle-aged fat man was pushed out, he yelled at the shop: "I am rich, but I am not stupid! You said that the copper coin was from the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms period, that is, from the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms period. During the period of the country? What is the first copper coin created during the founding period of a monarch? It is of extraordinary significance!

It is also said that the only one found in China is this copper coin! Five million is needed! Are you stupid? Fortunately, I visited, and all the shops on this street are also talking about copper coins unearthed from the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms period. Half of it said that the first copper coin created by the emperor found the country, and the other half was even more frantic. It was found in the mouth of the emperor's body to prevent its resurrection! Which king does not want to be resurrected?

As for what certification! The most ridiculous! There are a lot of such fake identification certificates on the Internet! This copper coin is considered to be feeding the dog! Let everyone remember that the copper coins sold in these shops are all fake, and people who don't understand it! Please don't be fooled! "

The middle-aged fat man said, and slammed the pan brass money into the shop.

After doing this, the middle-aged fat man went away cursing again.

The family relied on the demolition, he did not lack money, but no lack of money, it is impossible to be so wasteful. It took five million to buy this fake.

But there is no alternative. After all, in this antique market, there are many fakes. If you can't look at it, you have to think that you are unlucky.

This scene, Liu Jiacheng and the three were watching.

Especially the pan-brass coin that was thrown out casually is exactly the same as the pan-brass coin that Liu Jiacheng held carefully.

This made Liu Jiacheng feel like a bolt from the blue, stupefied on the spot.

"Jiacheng, you..."

How could Xinru fail to understand that Liu Jiacheng was fooled. Seeing Liu Jiacheng's appearance, I don't know how to comfort him.

An Xiaoran glanced at Liu Jiacheng, shook his head and said, "What is the situation in the antique market, you still don't know? At least nine out of ten so-called antiques are fake. And the owner of the shop or the owner of the street stall can say Tell the truth, you don't even have such a judgment. Two million copper coins like that are bought directly. If its five million like that person, wouldn't you lose even worse?"

Since the last lesson, An Xiaoran has already known the sinister in this world, so in all aspects, he has considered clearly.

More importantly, An Xiaoran inherited a martial art that still has a certain understanding of antiques.

Why didn't Liu Jiacheng be reminded not long ago? That's because Liu Jiacheng is not her person, let alone this Liu Jiacheng, who is next to her every day, she has long been bored.

Although Liu Jiacheng is also the young master of a hermit family, he was also spoiled and raised since childhood. Before he entered the Pihua Mansion, he had never tempered himself in society.

It's just that in terms of killing demons and demons, there are a little tricks, but other aspects are not enough.

As a result, the owner of the shop stepped in to lure Liu Jiacheng to buy. In the end he felt something was wrong, but he didn't know what was wrong, so he bought it directly.

Especially when Liu Jiacheng recalled now, the shop owner said that he had a good vision, but he was ridiculed by his lack of vision.

Liu Jiacheng's face at this time became more difficult to look.

And Xinru is still more powerful than Liu Jiacheng in terms of killing demons and eliminating demons. Naturally, I don't know much about antiques.

So I didn't understand the shop owner, there was something in the last words.

In fact, Master Zhicheng and Taoist Xianning finally understood that the coins were fake. Although the two of them don't know much about antiques, the experience is there. The reason why they didn't explain to Liu Jiacheng is because they still let Liu Jiacheng learn a lesson.

At this time, Xinru heard An Xiaoran's words and quickly spoke to Liu Jiacheng: "An Xiaoran, you have known for a long time that the copper coins are fake, why didn't you tell them directly? I don't think you know how to pretend. Understand, it's only now as an afterthought."

An Xiaoran said lightly: "You said other things, I may not understand, but I still know the antique market very well. Buyers make their own judgments and make judgments based on their own vision and knowledge. Interruptions are not allowed if they are not buyers. Otherwise, it will disrupt the market. After all, although 90% of the antiques market is fake, 10% is real. This percentage is because merchants attract buyers, and they have indeed reduced prices.

Therefore, whether you can get the goods that become genuine is based on your own judgment. If you don't understand this aspect well, those who have no vision can only pay the tuition fee by themselves first. If you have a long lesson next time, if you study this aspect more, you may be more likely to buy the genuine product. "

An Xiaoran talked eloquently. To be precise, this is the same as the stock market. A small part of the money is made, and most of it is still cut leek.

Most of those who cut leeks are determined that they will be lucky and become the small group of money-making.

Xinru heard that An Xiaoran said something reasonable, and didn't say anything, just hummed.

Liu Jiacheng was not angry with An Xiaoran's words, on the contrary, he was extremely happy.

This was him. The first time I saw him, An Xiaoran said so many things to him, which made him very excited, and smiled: "Xiao Ran, thank you, let me gain knowledge."

Chapter 1468: But So?

Chapter 1468

Liu Jiacheng said, looked at An Xiaoran, and continued to smile: "Unexpectedly, Xiao Ran still cares about me so much, to remind me that he said so much, it really makes me feel..."

At the end of the word, he stopped speaking suddenly.

Because he saw An Xiaoran's eyes light up, he quickly went to a young man with an expression of incomparable surprise.

The young man was actually Lin Kai. He was in front of a stall, looking at a pan-brass coin on the stall.

The stall owner saw Lin Kai and looked at the pan-brass coin. He couldn't move his eyes. He moved in his heart and smiled: "Little brother, good vision."

Then he deliberately lowered his voice, as if to prevent others from hearing it, and said, "Little brother, I see that you are a little bit interested in this copper coin, so I won't tell you the truth, although this coin says this There are a lot of streets, but my copper coin is real. It was really excavated from the tombs of kings in the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms."

Having said this, he saw Lin Kai's strange gaze, he was delighted, and continued: "Little brother, the reason why I say this is because on Lushan, a cemetery of the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms was discovered. For several months Earlier, a dead brother and I went to pick up the leak and only found this copper coin, so the authenticity is very great. All these days, other buyers thought it was fake, but it was actually true. , One million, I sell you cheaply, how?"

Lin Kai pretended to be a little bit happy, and then bargained: "Boss, you also know that this street is full of such copper coins. Even if you say that the sky is falling, I still have some doubts. You are really true. Its still fake. So, can you make it cheaper?"

"Lin Kai!"

Before the stall owner could finish speaking, An Xiaoran quickly came to Lin Kai's side, with a happy smile on her pretty face.

An Xiaoran was very pretty at first, and this smile surprised the passers-by.

Lin Kai was stunned, looking at An Xiaoran who suddenly appeared, a little depressed, and couldn't help asking, "Why are you also on this antique street?"

Naturally, Lin Kai knew that Master Zhicheng had tasks and the destination was also in Lushan. If he met An Xiaoran in the city or in Lushan, he would not be surprised, but on this antique street, he would run into it, which would be quite unexpected.

"The Bihua Mansion has a new mission, but this mission is quite special, and the destination is also at Lushan. Because the mission is not in a hurry, so I just wander around here." An Xiaoran said, she noticed that Liu Jiacheng and Xin Ru also came. Up.

Since then, An Xiaoran introduced him: "His name is Liu Jiacheng, and the girl is called Xinru, both of whom are from the Bihua Mansion, and are here to complete the task."

"Ok."

Lin Kai nodded, and after greeting the two of them slightly, he didn't care that much. He looked at the stall owner and said, "If it's not cheaper, I still consider not buying."

Liu Jiacheng and Xinru have arrived.

Especially Liu Jiacheng, seeing An Xiaoran being intimate with Lin Kai, no matter how stupid he was, he knew that this young man was Lin Kai!

Liu Jiacheng was even more puzzled. He knew of An Xiaoran's family background. With An Xiaoran's family background, how could he be attracted to this seemingly ordinary young man.

I didn't talk about An Xiaoran before, even Master Zhicheng, Taoist Xianning, and Chen Guang, these older generations, all admired Lin Kai, as if they were very powerful characters.

But now it's nothing more than that.

Moreover, Lin Kai seemed to be buying that pan-brass coin.

Liu Jiacheng and I know that the so-called copper coins are the most fake in this antique market.

He inquired clearly. It turned out that Lushan had recently unearthed a tomb from the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms.

This antique market took the opportunity to make a fortune.

As a result, many unscrupulous merchants, whether in shops or street stalls, have this kind of copper coins, which are used as copper coins in the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms period.

What's even more hateful is that many businesses do not collude, and the source of copper coins varies from version to version.

Anyway, it is the plan to pit a sum of money.

Therefore, Liu Jiacheng now sees Lin Kai wanting to buy this pan-brass coin, he is very gloating, and he even thinks that Lin Kai is just such an ordinary person.

Especially when you buy this at a street stall, you may be kicked by the donkey. At least there are some guarantees in the shop. If 90% of the things in the shop are fake and 10% real, then 90% of the items on the stall are fake and 10% are real.

So he became even more disdainful of Lin Kai.

Seeing Lin Kai's stupid appearance, Liu Jiacheng immediately felt relieved and didn't need to treat it as a love rival at all. Lin Kai was not qualified at all.

However, Liu Jiacheng was very interested and looked at An Xiaoran.

An Xiaoran also said before that when buying and selling antiques, he judges himself based on the eyes of the buyer, and I don't know if An Xiaoran will stop Lin Kai.

At this time, the stall owner heard Lin Kai say this, he was a little excited, and quickly suppressed his excitement, and said: "Little brother, one million is already the lowest price, so let's, nine hundred fifty thousand, can't be less!"

Lin Kai lowered his eyes, looked at the yellowed copper coin on the floor, and glanced at a small black bottle next to him, and said lightly: "Is the lowest price? Okay, then ninety-five thousand."

“Wait!”

An Xiaoran suddenly spoke, and immediately she leaned to Lin Kai's ear and whispered: “Lin Kai, when you were in Jinyuan City a few days ago, you also taught me that society is sinister, don't be fooled. You can do it now. I was fooled. This copper coin is actually plated with a layer of gold powder. On the surface, it seems to be old, but in fact, the current technology can make this kind of antique. This copper coin has no value at all. Don't buy it.”

Although it is quiet, everyone around can hear it.

The original excitement of the stall owner disappeared in an instant, staring at An Xiaoran, but he didn't dare to say anything.

But Liu Jiacheng couldn't see this scene, his eyes widened. Didn't An Xiaoran say before that he couldn't disturb the buyer and the seller during the transaction? Why did An Xiaoran still speak?

Liu Jiacheng was also very jealous, An Xiaoran even spoke to stop this kid, but he didn't!

Lin Kai shook his head and laughed, knowing that An Xiaoran was doing him well, and he didn't return to An Xiaoran. He just said to the stall owner, “Boss, you also heard my friend say this, then I won't buy it.”

The stall owner hurriedly said: “Little brother, this one of mine is really genuine! Trust me! 900,000! Just 900,000! 900,000 for you!”

A smile appeared on Lin Kai's face, but he still said calmly: “I don't dare to bet whether it is genuine, 900,000 or too expensive, the price range I can accept is 600,000.”

Chapter 1469: Buy One Get One Free

Chapter 1469: Buy One Get One Free

It is naturally impossible for the stall owner to let Lin Kai bargain so harshly. He shook his head decisively and said: “Six hundred thousand? No, I won't sell six hundred thousand.”

In fact, the stall owner wanted to sell 600,000, but this one-time price reduction was a bit too severe. If he really agreed, he would definitely suspect it was a fake. If you don't sell it then, you can cry without tears.

After all, it was hard to wait for one, a fool who wanted to buy this coin very much.

Even if someone told the fool to be fake, they insisted on buying it.

This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, but you can't act like you are too anxious.

The owner of the street stall can set up a stall in the antique street, naturally, he is also very smart, and he is almost the same as the owner in the shop, and the acting skills are first-class.

Liu Jiacheng sneered at Lin Kai and said, “I said, you directly bargained for a third. How can you bargain like this? The boss must not agree to sell it to you.”

“Then you can't buy it.”

Lin Kai shrugged, his face was indifferent, and he turned and was about to leave.

An Xiaoran smiled when he saw Lin Kai's appearance, as if he thought he had done meritorious service and successfully prevented Lin Kai from buying the pan-brass coin.

Liu Jiacheng was disappointed. He thought that Lin Kai was going to buy it stupidly. In that case, his heart would be balanced.

The stall owner was smarter at this time, but seeing Lin Kai left without a mess, he immediately became anxious and shouted: "Little brother! Little brother! I saw at a glance that you love this coin very much, although I As a businessman, you can earn points if you can earn points. But seeing the little brother loves so much, I reluctantly cut love, 600,000 to 600,000!"

Liu Jiacheng was dumbfounded: "Boss, have you bargained 300,000 yuan? Can you agree?"

On the one hand, Liu Jiacheng also wanted Lin Kai to buy, so that he could balance himself. On the other hand, he really saw that the stall owner promised to sell it for 600,000 yuan, and he didn't want the stall owner to sell Lin Kai so cheaply.

In other words, he spent two million to buy it. If he saw Lin Kai only spent 600,000 to buy it, the difference was more than three times.

Although 900,000 yuan is much cheaper to buy than him, it is still acceptable.

Six hundred thousand, but Liu Jiacheng could not accept it.

At this time, the stall owner put on a smile: "Six hundred thousand is actually losing money. However, this little brother and I have a good relationship. Since he likes it, then sell it to him cheaply."

When Lin Kai heard what the stall owner said, he turned around and came to the stall again. While picking up the pan brass money on the stall, Lin Kai pointed to the small black bottle next to it.

"Boss, you said that. Then 600,000 yuan, I'm bargaining for something. However, I buy this pan-brass money, there is a certain risk. So boss, can you buy one get one free? The bottle, can you give it to me."

The stall owner pretended to be very embarrassed when something happened: "Little brother, this little bottle is from the Ming Dynasty..."

Before the stall owner could finish, Lin Kai shook his head and said, "Boss, look at the lettering on it. Which is the text from the Ming Dynasty? It is obviously from the Tang Dynasty. You didn't do your homework at first glance. So. I bought the pan brass money, will you give me this little bottle?"

The implication is that your little bottle is also a fake.

How could the stall owner not hear it, and smiled awkwardly. As the owner of these goods, he naturally knows the origin of each item.

As a result, the stall owner could only say: "Little brother, all right, buy one get one free, buy one get one free! If you buy copper coins, I will give you this little bottle!"

Liu Jiacheng was stunned. He didn't expect that he could still bargain like this. Not only did he cut the price by one-third, he also asked the stall owner to give him something for free.

Not to mention, this thing is true or not, but compared to his own price of two million, Liu Jiacheng's face instantly became gloomy, and his heart was very upset.

Lin Kai then transferred 600,000 yuan to the stall owner.

The stall owner also packed the pan brass money and the small black bottle to Lin Kai, and handed it to Lin Kai happily.

It was indeed only sold for 600,000 yuan, but the stall owner knew that the combined price of these two items was only tens of thousands of yuan.

This profit has exceeded ten times, let alone other companies that sell millions, the profit is too big.

In this era, there are many poor people, but there are also many rich people who are being taken advantage of.

An Xiaoran saw Lin Kai, took the two things, and turned around to leave.

She couldn't help catching up and came to Lin Kai's side, depressed: "Lin Kai, I have already said that the pan-brass coin is fake and not worth a lot of money. You have to buy it. Don't It is said that six hundred thousand, six hundred thousand to buy it, it is very bloody. It is pure imitation and fools fools."

Lin Kai smiled, "Miss An, how did you know that this coin is an imitation?"

Liu Jiacheng also followed. Hearing Lin Kai's words, he became even more disdainful: "Boy, is it possible that you are so stupid that you think the copper coin you bought is genuine? Tell you, this antique street comes from five generations and ten countries. The copper coins of the period were not genuine, they were all fake, deliberately fooling people."

Lin Kai stopped his figure and raised the pan-brass coin in his hand, saying: "In the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms period, there was indeed a king of a country. In order to create his own unified domestic coin, he initially created a gilded copper coin. Speaking of it, the tomb of the kings of the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms discovered by Lushan happened to be the king of that country."

An Xiaoran frowned her eyebrows: "Is this copper coin to prevent the resurrection of the king, or to unify the coins and create a demonstration copper coin?"

There have been several versions circulating on this antique street, all of which are not the same. Lin Kai seems to know this knowledge.

Not to mention An Xiaoran, Liu Jiacheng and Xinru now know the specific situation.

Because what Lin Kai said is somewhat different from several versions.

If something is wrong, Liu Jiacheng will take the opportunity to laugh at Lin Kai, but out of caution, he is not in a hurry to taunt.

Lin Kai said indifferently: "You can read it a lot, and you will know about the history books describing the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms. Although there are few materials about the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms, there are also descriptions in this respect."

The reason why he knew was that when he was drawing plans for ancient architectural drawings last time, he went to the Internet to check the information. It happened to find the buildings of the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms, so he also found out this aspect.

When Lin Kai said that, An Xiaoran didn't doubt that he had him, after all, he could be found in one check.

An Xiaoran muttered to herself: "The owner of this antique street didn't understand, so he made up a few versions at will, just fooling the buyer."

Lin Kaishi smiled and shook his head: "No, these bosses know better than anyone else. They just want to pass the buyer's response, do you know this, and then judge whether you can sell."

Chapter 1470: Got It Wrong

Chapter 1470

Lin Kai didn't explain anything in detail, but An Xiaoran understood it instantly when he heard it.

The boss deliberately described the origin of the copper coins as fake.

If the buyer knew the origin of the copper coin, he would definitely not buy it.

But if you don't know, the boss can use various inducements to get the buyer to pay for it.

When the money is paid in one hand and the goods are delivered, the buyer later knows that the coin is fake and can only accept it himself.

This is the rule of the antique market.

When Liu Jiacheng heard Lin Kai's words, he thought of himself again, his face was as red as pig liver, he was ignorant of the origin of the copper coins, and was then taken aback by the shop owner.

Liu Jiacheng took the pan-brass coin in his hand, wishing to find a place to dig into it.

The main reason is that he lost someone in front of An Xiaoran, which is really a price drop for himself.

Especially now that Lin Kai still talks freely, it is almost impossible to open which pot to mention which pot.

He looked at Lin Kai and couldn't help but sneered: "Boy, do you know what's the use? You bought it, isn't it a genuine product? The copper coin in your hand is exactly the same as mine. It's just a mold. , It seems to be made by one person. If you are genuine, wouldn't the one in my hand be genuine?"

Lin Kai glanced at Liu Jiacheng faintly, and said, "When did I say that what I have in my hand is the real one?"

Liu Jiacheng was stunned for an instant, and after thinking about it carefully, it seemed that Lin Kai had never said from beginning to end that the copper coins he bought were genuine.

So why should I buy it if I know it is not genuine?

Liu Jiacheng couldn't understand, but Lin Kai asked him such a rhetorical question, which made him even more embarrassed, and his face immediately became gloomy, and there was no way to refute it.

On the contrary, An Xiaoran's eyes lit up suddenly, and he looked at the other thing in Lin Kai's hand, the small black bottle.

She hurriedly asked, "Lin Kai, you have to ask your boss to give you the little black bottle, what exactly is it?"

Based on her understanding of Lin Kai, since she knew that the copper coin was fake, she had to buy it, and the boss had to give it a small black bottle before buying it. There must be a big problem.

The more An Xiaoran thinks so, the more he feels that it might be because of the small black bottle. Is it possible that the small black bottle is a shareholder?

An Xiaoran began to earnestly, looking at the small black bottle, and with her eyes on antiques, she wanted to find out what was unusual.

Lin Kai held the small black bottle and smiled, "Well, it's purely beautiful."

Lin Kai actually saw that the small black bottle was an antique. More importantly, it is still a magic weapon for immortal cultivators, because he has sensed the fluctuation of true energy.

Naturally, it is impossible to tell others about this matter.

So Lin Kai put away the small black bottle at will.

"Huh, I'm not being taken advantage of!" Liu Jiacheng glanced at Lin Kai sarcastically, thinking that Lin Kai's little black bottle was really an antique, and almost frightened his heart convulsions.

If it was really antique, he would have no face to stay here.

"Xiao Ran, the sky is getting darker, and I have been strolling in this antique street for an hour or two. We hurriedly meet with Master Zhicheng and Taoist Xianning, lest we can't eat together during dinner.

As Liu Jiacheng said, he looked at Lin Kai specially. He didn't want An Xiaoran to continue to be close to Lin Kai. Only then did he say the words to make peace with Master Zhicheng.

Lin Kai naturally heard what Liu Jiacheng meant, and he said indifferently: "Miss An, you go, I have something to do, so I will leave."

Lin Kai took the lead without waiting for Liu Jiacheng to leave first.

at the same time.

At the stall where Lin Kai bought the copper coins, the owner of the stall was named Hu Jianmin.

He saw Lin Kai walking away, his faces no longer concealed, a smile full of excitement and joy, and they couldn't help rolling on the ground.

What is that copper coin? It came from the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms period! Obviously it was a fake that was made, and the cost was only 30,000 yuan. The main reason was that the copper coin was indeed gilded. Of course, only the surface was gilded, and the cost was a little higher.

Even so, Hu Jianmin never expected to sell 600,000.

Twenty times the net profit! Profiteering!

Hu Jianmin really laughed from ear to ear. Most of the products sold at ordinary times were not so profitable, mainly because of the huge profits brought by the tomb of Lushan this time.

He began to think that the young man understood this aspect and didn't report any hope. He didn't expect the young man to bargain all the way and actually bought it.

Young men think they are earning blood, but they are not!

More importantly, Hu Jianmin is different from other shop owners or stalls. He is really real. He found the ancient tomb on Lushan that day, so he boldly went there.

Nothing else, he found a similar copper coin, but the color of the coin should be dim, he can be sure that the coin he got is the real one!

When he thought of this, Hu Jianmin was happy. He sold the fake coins and found the real coins by himself. He was still at home.

So at this time, Hu Jianmin couldn't help but called his wife, and said: "Daughter-in-law, buy more food in the evening, including chicken, duck and fish, and then buy good liquor. I have to have a good meal tonight.

Hu Jianmin's daughter-in-law, knowing Hu Jianmin's character, asked, "Is this the buyer today?"

"Of course, I sold that fake copper coin for 600,000 yuan! Hey, enough for us to eat and drink for several months!" Hu Jianping whispered.

When Hu Jianmin's wife heard this, she responded excitedly: "Okay! I'll go out and buy chicken, duck and fish! Let's make a big meal for you!"

When Hu Jianmin's wife was about to hang up, she seemed to think of something and couldn't help but say: "Forgot to tell you that you took the wrong copper coins before you went out this morning. The copper coins you left at home yesterday, I looked very old. The appearance is all wiped. One color that was originally dim, after I wiped it, it was brighter than the other one that was originally bright. And you, you have a copper coin that is originally bright."

Hu Jianmin was stunned, and then hurriedly said: "What did you say?"

Hu Jianmin's wife responded: "I said you took the wrong copper coin. You originally took a very dim copper coin."

"Damn!" Hu Jianmin was dumbfounded and muttered to himself frantically: "I secretly used the crude copper from the ancient tomb for 600,000 yuan and sold it?"

At this moment, Hu Jianmin was heartbroken. His heart was dripping with blood. It was really copper money, let alone six hundred thousand, six million can be sold!

He didn't have time to scold his wife, so he was too busy to hang up the phone, ignoring his stall, and rushed to chase away Lin Kai.

At this moment, Lin Kai and An Xiaoran were not completely separated, only a few meters away.

A few people quickly saw the stall owner and rushed over.

They were all a little curious, especially Liu Jiacheng, who thought the boss regretted selling it for 600,000 yuan and looked like he was watching a good show.
