Chapter 1691: Important Words

Chapter 1691: Important Words

Naturally, Master Zhicheng did not say to the pajamas woman, but to the baby.

In fact, in the eyes of Master Zhicheng, although the evil spirit on the pajamas woman is also very amazing.

But in contrast, the baby is the real one, and the whole body is full of extremely strong evil spirits.

Based on the experience of Master Zhicheng over the years, he still understands that under this situation, the baby is the dominant behind the scenes, and the pajamas woman is only infected by this strong evil spirit for a long time, and it has also become more and more intense.

To put it simply, it was the baby who turned into an evil first, and then let the soul of the woman in the pajamas stay in this world forcibly.

The girl in the pajamas is actually normal, without any thoughts of transforming evil, completely because the evil spirit on this baby is very strong.

Over time, it affected the pajamas woman, making the pajamas woman a very powerful evil.

In other words, the root is in the baby.

But at this time, the woman in the pajamas heard Master Zhicheng say so, and immediately turned to Master Zhicheng with a terrifying expression, and said angrily: "I treat you with tea when you are a guest, but you talk like this, noisy! It's my baby's sleep! Damn you!"

After the pajama woman finished speaking, the baby in the stroller couldn't help crying like a baby.

However, compared with the cry of a normal baby, the baby's crying sound is unusually harsh. After listening to it for a long time, the eardrum seems to be about to burst.

Not only that, but it was also accompanied by this harsh baby crying.

The strong evil spirit in this living room began to diffuse. Even the walls on all sides were no longer white, but were stained with scarlet blood, as if they had been stained with blood for many days!

Even on the blood-colored walls, roots began to emerge, like tentacles made of blood, and they went directly to Master Zhicheng and An Xiaoran.

Whether it is Master Zhicheng or An Xiaoran, at this moment, the nerves are instantly tense.

The flame on the blue lamp in Master Zhicheng's hand, immediately under his control, turned the original blue flame into a white flame.

Then, from the string of beads in his hand, he pierced through the white flames from the blue lamp one after another. In a blink of an eye, those buddha beads turned into small * of white flames, and the tentacles that came over were wiped out from those that fell.

But the blood-colored tentacles on the blood-colored walls of this living room seemed endless. Let Master Zhicheng use white flames to blast down those tentacles, and new tentacles will attack.

Seeing this scene, An Xiaoran was not idle, immediately holding the blue long sword in his hand, first stabbed the woman in pajamas sitting on the sofa directly.

She knew that those shots made of blood would still be difficult to eliminate in a short time.

As the saying goes, catch the thieves first and catch the king first, but if these two powerful evils are solved, then this place will naturally become normal.

An Xiaoran has also improved a lot these days, especially when it comes to dealing with this powerful evil. Now he is even more familiar with the blue sword in his hand.

The extremely sharp sword light flickered, and it stabbed the pajamas woman.

The woman in the pajamas suffered an instant pain. She was stabbed until her arm, and that arm turned into a burst of suffocation on the spot and disappeared.

And in the stroller, it's not a real baby, it's an old rag doll.

The look of the old rag doll is quite permeating, it is the kind of look that makes people feel that who would dare to buy this kind of doll.

In addition, at this time, the whole body of the old rag doll was filled with a thick and evil spirit, like a thick black mist, covering the whole body of the old rag doll.

The old ragdoll, with blood-red eyes that were about to fall out, looked at An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng, with a hoarse voice, with a weird smile: "Hey, hey, hey, to death!"

As the words fell, the strong sullen air that permeated the living room immediately gathered in all directions towards An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng.

Even An Xiaoran could feel that there was an extremely terrifying power in the strong gloomy atmosphere that hit.

As if under this extremely terrifying power, she appeared very small, so small that she might die at any time.

It's like a flat boat.

As An Xiaoran had such thoughts, her whole body was extremely cold in vain. She seemed to have fallen into water dozens of degrees below zero, and she could also feel that her breathing became more and more difficult.

I... Am I going to die?

An Xiaoran was about to feel suffocated, she wanted to make a sound, but she couldn't speak at all, as if she had a pair of invisible hands clinging to her neck.

And she didn't see anything before her eyes, plunged into darkness.

This darkness made her despair gradually.

But she doesn't want to die yet!

It's not that she is afraid of death, but there are still some things that she hasn't finished!

For example, a task she completed two days ago has not been submitted to the Pihua Mansion in time to redeem reward points!

After finally going home, she didn't go to accompany her once, a lonely old grandma near her home!

The most important thing is that she still wants to say something very important to the big pervert in Lin Kai!

She doesn't want to die like this!

Amazingly, while she was thinking about it, breathing was no longer so difficult.

...

At the same time, Lin Kai taxi also came to this old community.

Originally, the driver of this car didn't want to come to this old community, but then Lin Kai gave too much money, it was really fragrant, and he brought Lin Kaizhi to it, 500 meters away from the old community.

The driver of this car said that he had to stop and go on his own after being 500 meters away from the old community.

Lin Kai didn't mind, he got out of the car when he saw the car stopped.

He had just got out of the car, and the driver of that car, as if fleeing a famine, immediately turned around, stepped on the accelerator and accelerated away, as if he didn't want to stop again for a second.

Lin Kai couldn't help shook his head. He had received news from An Xiaoran not long ago.

An Xiaoran said that she and Master Zhicheng received the task of washing it again, and the task location was in Shenling City.

I also talked about the evil spirit I sensed this time. It is very powerful. If half an hour later, she and Master Zhicheng, no matter which one they are, have no news or contact with Lin Kaifa.

So it means that she and Master Zhicheng are very likely to be trapped by a powerful evil.

At that time, I hope Lin Kai will come to rescue him and send the address.

Chapter 1692: Powerful Evil

Chapter 1692: Powerful Evil

An Xiaoran also specifically noted that he would not trouble Lin Kai too much, so he said that if he didn't contact Lin Kai after half an hour, something might happen.

If Lin Kai is contacted within half an hour, it means that everything is fine.

However, Lin Kai was still worried about An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng.

Both of them are working for the country, so naturally they are doing harm to the people and protecting the people's safety.

Since Lin Kai already knew, how could he stand by and watch.

What's more, the location of this old community is actually not far from that scenic spot.

After dealing with Yuan Dongdong and Wang Dali's affairs, the two went to find a place to drink with each other.

Originally, the two of them also invited Lin Kai to drink together so that they would not be drunk or return.

Naturally, Lin Kai didn't have much interest. He happened to receive a message from An Xiaoran, so he directly called a car to go there.

But there was a delay when calling a car.

At this time, even if Lin Kai was 500 meters away from this old community, he could clearly feel the soaring aura, indeed very strong.

Lin Kai didn't hesitate anymore, but swiftly headed towards the old community.

And in the old community, under that building.

The young man in plain robes and the young woman all looked up at the fourth floor of this building.

The young man in the plain robe and the young woman, although they also sensed a burst of evil spirits. But that evil spirit came quickly and disappeared quickly.

The two brothers and sisters are also young, and they are not as good as Master An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng in reducing demons.

Therefore, even if the two brothers and sisters, Bian Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng, have to enter this old community in advance.

However, the young man in the plain-clothed robe and the young woman still have little experience, and it is difficult to judge where the soaring evil spirit is.

Until just now, the evil spirit appeared again. However, this time the appearance did not dissipate immediately, but always existed.

The young man in the plain robe and the young woman were locked in position.

At this time, the young man in the plain robe couldn't help asking the young woman, and said with a smile, "Little Junior Sister, I can be sure that it is on the fourth floor."

The young woman also responded with a smile: "I can also be sure that it is the fourth floor."

The young man in the plain robe immediately got up a little impatiently, and said with a smile: "I didn't expect to encounter this evil soon after going down the mountain. When I was on the mountain, the master also said that it is difficult to encounter any evil now. Don't Thinking of using the method of suppressing evil spirits to make a breakthrough for oneself.

I still have to go out. Master also rarely goes down the mountain himself, a little bit closed. Did you encounter such evil ones? Let's hurry up and solve the evil spirit so as to accumulate merit! "

The young woman continued to smile and nodded: "Indeed, if you take this evil spirit, you can exchange merit points with Master. With this merit point, you can also exchange something that is useful to us. On the contrary, this evil spirit can be sensed from downstairs. When it comes to a strong evil spirit, it must not be a bad evil. Brother, I think we still have to be more careful."

Regarding the young woman, the young man in the plain robe originally wanted to say something, but his face suddenly changed, as if he had sensed something.

It's not just the young man in the plain robe who has undergone such emotional changes, and the young woman's complexion also suddenly changed at this time.

"That evil evildoer, seems to be showing off!"

The young man in a plain robe was shocked.

The young woman felt it too.

So, the young man in the plain robes and the young woman glanced at each other, and immediately the two seniors jumped off a floor directly from the exterior wall of the building.

In this way, I pedaled several times in succession. Therefore, soon came to the fourth floor.

The young men in plain robes and young women were about to walk down the stairs.

Although the two brothers and sisters can use a faster way, they don't want to disturb the residents here, or start to frighten evil spirits.

As a result, I didn't expect that the young man in plain robes and the young woman sensed that that powerful evil is harming people.

The two brothers and sisters didn't care about that much, and they went directly to the outer wall of this building, like flying over the wall, and quickly reached the fourth floor.

As soon as the young man in the plain robes and the young woman reached the fourth floor, they saw the last resident, whose appearance was infiltrated with scarlet like blood.

Now there is still a silver moon hidden in the sky. In the light of the faint silver moon, it still seemed very permeating.

At the same time, young men and young women in plain robes immediately came to the door of the last household.

Even though the window curtains were not drawn down, the two brothers and sisters, if they looked inside the window, couldn't see what was inside.

I felt it was pitch black inside, the kind of darkness that I could not see my fingers.

The young man in the plain robe naturally does not think that there is no one in it, or that there is no other evil.

He immediately pinched a magic trick in his hand, and then faced the door of the last household, with a burst of white light, and pressed it.

boom!

When the handprint of Baimang fell on the door.

The strong evil spirit on the door immediately dissipated, and the door was also blasted open.

In this room, it can be said that the evil spirit is flooded everywhere, and the scarlet blood is mixed together.

From the outside, you can also vaguely see two figures, surrounded by those evil spirits and scarlet blood.

“Two more guests! Hey, hey, that’s okay! Come in for me!”

Amidst the harsh laughter, the man in plain clothes and the young woman at the door had not had time to react, they were drawn directly into the living room by the evil spirit.

With another sound, the door closed tightly.

Whether it was the young man in the plain robes or the young woman, their expressions were shocked. The two seniors thought it was just a very powerful evil. But now it seems that it is more than a very powerful evil monster, it is clearly the kind that has reached the level of the evil king!

When the two brothers and sisters came in like this, they saw that there was a famous old monk and a young girl not far away, with their eyes closed, as if they were experiencing something.

And on the sofa, the arm of the woman in pajamas, which was severed by An Xiaoran, grew again.

While pushing the stroller, he looked at the young man in plain robes and the young woman.

The young man in a plain robe didn’t hesitate anymore, took out a few yellow talisman papers from his body, and pinched the magic trick in his hand.

Chapter 1693: Lin Kai Arrived

Chapter 1693 Lin Kai Arrives

Several yellow talisman papers immediately formed a circle, turned into a circle of fire, and headed towards the woman in pajamas.

At the same time, the young man in the plain robe also shouted loudly. The man in the pajamas shouted: “Wonderful! What crime should you do to bully such a cute girl! Get it fast!”

The young woman gave a weird look. The young man in a plain robe, she found that her senior, seemed to have been looking at An Xiaoran.

Although she also felt that An Xiaoran was indeed very beautiful, but at this time, she was still saying this, which made her speechless.

The young woman was not idle either, there was a purple bamboo ruler in her hand.

This purple bamboo ruler is made of bamboo struck by lightning.

The probability of the bamboo struck by lightning is inherently small, and the bamboo can be preserved intact, which is even more rare.

Plus, Lei has that kind of exorcism.

Therefore, this purple bamboo ruler is comparable to the peach wood sword.

The young woman held the purple bamboo ruler and moved towards the woman in the pajamas.

Therefore, under the attack of the two brothers and sisters, the woman in pajamas was difficult to resist.

The woman in pajamas stood in front of the stroller, and then snarled at the young man in plain robes and the young woman: "You disturbed my baby! Damn!"

The woman in the pajamas said, the black hair with long hair that was waist-long turned into blood-colored hair in an instant.

Not only that, but the scarlet hair on his head swept away towards the young man in the plain robe and the young woman.

First, the ring of fire was destroyed, but at a very serious price, the scarlet hair was also burned a lot.

And the purple bamboo ruler in the young woman's hand was cut on the blood-colored hair, very relaxed, she could not help but sneered: "It's not too powerful."

However, just as she had just finished speaking, there was a strong suffocation, which contained the * smell, and began to envelop the young woman.

The young man in plain robes at the back saw this scene, and hurriedly exclaimed to the young woman: "Little Junior Sister! Hurry up! Come back!"

The strong suffocation was displayed by the doll on the stroller.

The young man in plain robes only noticed that the source here was the old rag doll, and that old rag doll was the real one, that powerful evil!

And that woman in pajamas can only be counted as a vassal of the old doll.

While shouting to the young woman, the young man in the plain robe didn't stop the movement of his hands, which was directly toward the old rag doll in the stroller to suppress it.

The old rag doll in the stroller was suddenly angry. Someone came over tonight, and the old rag doll has lost patience.

After uttering a sharp scream, not only the young man in the plain robes was stunned, but the strong suffocation was even turned into a palm and slapped on the young woman.

The young woman wowed, stepped back ten steps, spit out a mouthful of black blood, and fell into a coma.

The young man in a plain robe hurriedly shouted, "Little Junior Sister!"

He also quickly ran to the young woman and helped the young woman up, feeling that his junior sister was extremely injured, almost dying.

He immediately felt very self-blame, and quickly took out a small porcelain bottle from his arms. The small porcelain bottle was filled with medicinal pills, hoping to have an effect on the young woman.

The young man in the plain robes also sensed that the old rag doll did not stop attacking and came towards him.

He quickly helped the young woman aside, and then quickly opened the baggage tied behind his back.

Among the burden, there is a red umbrella full of runes.

The young man in plain robes didn't hesitate to open up the rune red umbrella with runes engraved on the outside.

Suddenly, a jingle of crisp bells rang in vain in this living room.

Because after the red umbrella is opened, there is a small bell hanging on the edge of each red umbrella, and on the small bell, there is a piece of yellow rune paper, which corresponds to the rune on the outside. The.

The young man in a plain robe began to turn the red umbrella in his hand. At the same time the crisp bell rang, the rune on the outside also exploded with golden light, and went towards the old rag doll.

I have to say that this red umbrella is indeed a treasure that is very aimed at evil.

At the beginning, the old rag doll was constantly reduced by the golden glow from the red umbrella.

But it didn't take long for the strong evil spirit on that old doll to increase instead of decreasing, becoming more and more intense!

The young man in plain robes thought he had sacrificed himself. His last resort could easily deal with this old rag doll.

How did you know that this old rag doll became even stronger after being slightly suppressed by him!

The young man in a plain robe showed shocked expression: "How is it possible! This magic weapon can even be controlled by the evil king! How can it not be possible to suppress you!"

The old rag doll suddenly sneered: "I take the initiative to pull you in, how can you not know your strength? So, you are all dead! I haven't tasted the taste of fresh blood for a long time, and I still miss it! Today is just the hundredth day. You can eat people when you break the taboo!"

The words of the old rag doll immediately made the young man in the plain-clothed robe a chill.

Listening to the words of this old rag doll, it seems that he has been restricted for a hundred days, waiting for a hundred days to be unscrupulous.

The young man in plain robes didn't have time to think about it, because the old doll came back again.

This time, the surging evil spirit of the old rag doll was so strong that it seemed to want to solve the young man in the plain robe with one move.

But the young man in plain robes was extremely frightened. He could sense that this surging evil force could directly kill him!

The young man in a plain robe could only bite the bullet and used the red umbrella in his hand again, ready to resist the old rag doll.

Although he also understood that the red umbrella in his hand was right and that old rag doll was invalid, he had no other choice.

Just when the young man in plain robes felt desperate, the attack of the old rag doll was about to come.

A figure appeared silently between the young man in a plain robe and the old rag doll.

The person who came was naturally Lin Kai. With a wave of his hand, he immediately dispelled the strong evil spirit that the old doll had unfolded.

The young man in the plain robe had his eyes wide open, and he saw that Lin Kai easily dispelled the strong suffocation displayed by the old rag doll.

He looked incredible, but the old rag doll started to attack Lin Kai.

Chapter 1694: Black Rune Paper

Chapter 1694 Black Talisman Paper

The rag doll, which was full of evil spirits all over her body, was also surprised at how Lin Kai could easily break his evil spirit attacks.

But this old rag doll has a humane vicious look in his eyes: "Another one comes in! Okay! Then you all have to die!"

This old doll immediately moved towards Lin Kai and rushed forward fiercely, especially with the overwhelming and overwhelming gloomy air, it was even more terrifying than the evil king in the mountains on the outskirts of the city!

But for Lin Kai now, his face was calm, and he had extracted a new talisman from his ability to extract talisman.

This new Fulu was also made by Lin Kai accidentally.

The main reason is that he mastered the weird black flame, and then used the system's ability to extract the talisman to make a new talisman to deal with evil.

Lin Kai discovered it accidentally, and saw that the black flame has a special effect bonus on evil, so he researched it out.

So at this time, Lin Kai threw a piece of black talisman paper in his hand directly at the old rag doll that had struck.

The old ragdoll said with disdain and cold voice: “Hey, whether it is the monk or the Taoist priest, the talisman thrown by me has no substantial harm to me! You really think that what you throw is right. I am useful?”

The old ragdoll naturally refers to Master Zhicheng and the young man in plain robe.

Previously, both Master Zhicheng and the young man in plain robes used their own rune papers, but they had no effect on the old rag dolls.

So that the old rag dolls thought that these rune papers were useless, and held an attitude of disdain, even without avoiding it, and continued to move towards Lin Kai.

The young man in the plain-clothed robe saw Lin Kai still standing on the spot with a very indifferent appearance. He couldn't help but eagerly said: “This fellow Taoist, the thing you threw out is impossible. What harm did you do to this powerful evil! Hurry up and avoid it!”

If it weren't for the young man in the plain robe, who was some distance away from Lin Kai, he couldn't keep up and push Lin Kai away, otherwise he would have gone forward to push Lin Kai away.

He can only remind Lin Kai in a hurry now.

It was just that the young man in a plain robe was stunned as soon as he finished speaking.

Not only him, but the old rag doll who was still very disdainful at first, also looked very surprised.

Because of the black rune paper thrown by Lin Kai, a circle of black flames ignited on the surrounding surface, but the black flame that appeared did not burn the black rune paper.

On the contrary, the black rune paper is like the one that cannot be burnt no matter how the flame burns. In short, the black flame stays around the black rune paper, exuding a very terrifying atmosphere!

This horrible aura was suppressed, and the strong suffocating aura permeated by that old rag doll!

Lin Kai didn't pay attention to the shocking appearance of each of them. This was a combination of the effect of the talisman and the effect of the black flame, and then dealt with the power of evil.

So Lin Kai immediately said indifferently, “Fen!”

When Lin Kai finished speaking, the horror aura of that black talisman paper had reached the extreme!

And under his control, the black flames burning with black talisman paper, like a giant beast, swallowed towards the old rag doll!

Chi Chi!

I saw all the strong evil spirits around the old rag doll, the black rune paper and the black flame on it, burned those strong evil spirits clean, and there was not a little left!

The old rag doll naturally suffered a great deal of damage, the suffocation in his body was not much, and it was very weak and became very transparent.

If you make another move, this old ragdoll will surely fall apart.

In fact, this old rag doll is a baby's resentful spirit, possessed by this old rag doll.

But at this time, the old doll was extremely weak, and begged Lin Kai for mercy: "Brother! Brother! Forgive me! I live here forever with my mother! I haven't harmed anyone. , So just spare me! I promise not to harm people! Really!"

With a sneer at the corner of Lin Kai's mouth, he directly stretched out his hand and took this old doll in his hand. He was not afraid of any tricks for this old doll.

Lin Kai looked at the old rag doll indifferently, and said coldly: "I haven't harmed anyone? If you haven't harmed anyone, how can you get such a heavy evil spirit? Are you really a fool? "

The old rag doll was still very scared of Lin Kai. He didn't expect that any black talisman paper would be so powerful.

But the old rag doll still opened his mouth and said: "I really didn't harm anyone, I just killed the neighbors next to me!"

"Ok?"

Lin Kai glanced at the old doll.

The old doll was frightened, and quickly explained: "The neighbors next to the house are all dead! These people killed my mother first. My mother has been pregnant with me for seven months, and I am about to be born. As a result, the neighbor's family next to him killed my mother, killing two!

So I hate it! I asked my mother to stay and go with me to kill the neighbor's house! But other than that, it really didn't harm anyone! "

"The neighbors, what's the matter?"

Lin Kai spoke lightly, and other people couldn't tell what was wrong with other residents on this floor. However, he was able to sense all of a sudden that the other neighbors homes were more or less ill-informed.

Even if this old ragdoll didn't take the initiative to harm the neighbors nearby, in the long run, those evil spirits will affect the thinking of these neighbors. For example, it becomes more irritable, more sluggish, loses energy, and is easily controlled by evil.

If this continues, sooner or later those neighbors will collapse at this spiritual level, and then they will become inhumane.

Hearing Lin Kai's questioning, the old doll immediately said: "My mother and I just want to stay here and live. In order to prevent people from discovering us, I took some measures to prevent people nearby. Leak us out, but I did not harm them!"

Lin Kai said indifferently: "I sympathize with you mother and son, but since your revenge has been avenged, you shouldn't stay in this world. Moreover, staying here with your mother will also have a great impact on the neighbors. If this goes on, you will become, no different from the neighbor next door before you. I think you don't want to become a neighbor of your mother, right?"

Chapter 1695: Strong Suppression

Chapter 1695 Strong Suppression

Lin Kai's words silenced the old doll.

Then, the old rag doll said, "Then, can you keep my mother here? Speaking of which, I just haven't officially born a life. For this world, except for my mother, there is no nostalgia. Yes. But my mother has lived in this world for so many years, she should still want to stay."

Lin Kai said indifferently, "This is your own idea. In fact, your mother didn't want to be in this world at first, because she knew it would be bad. But if it was because of revenge, it would be fine to stay, but the revenge succeeded. Later, she insisted on staying, and even affected other innocent people. It was your fault. Therefore, she naturally couldn't let them stay."

The old rag doll, the evil spirit on his body resurfaced again, although it is not as much as before, but it is still very strong, and the humanized expression is grim and said: "You really want to plan to solve my mother.?"

It seems to be saying that, but in fact, judging from the current behavior of this old doll, he intends to fight Lin Kai.

Lin Kai's expression remained unchanged, and he still calmly said, "Naturally, what's the problem?"

"Then you die for me!"

As soon as the words fell, the whole body of that old doll turned blood red in an instant.

It seemed to this old rag doll that as long as Lin Kai was killed, he and his mother could stay together completely!

Since Lin Kai did not loosen him and his mother in any way, it was destroyed!

Therefore, this old rag doll intends to use his last strength! Fight with Lin Kai!

The reason why he can have so much evil spirit is not only because of killing, the neighbors next to him. It was also because when he finished killing the neighbor's family, there happened to be a powerful evil, who seemed to be chased by some expert, and almost lost his soul.

This old ragdoll didn't know what it was at the time, but he knew that if he swallowed that powerful evil, he would become stronger.

In this way, he can let himself and his mother stay together.

So at that time, this old rag doll swallowed the powerful evil without hesitation.

Not only got a powerful force, but also got some attack methods from that powerful evil.

What is currently being displayed is that powerful evil attack method.

I saw this old rag doll, at the moment of incarnation, the whole building seemed to be shrouded by something.

The sight and perception in front of him have all changed, becoming very ethereal, as if in a silent and ignorant world.

I can't sense anything, but what I see is like the feeling of being very close in front of my eyes and far away.

In short, it is like an enchantment, making people fall into another world.

Lin Kai was secretly surprised that he could actually feel a faint threat from the means used by this old doll.

Of course, it is only a slight threat, but it is also insignificant.

However, this method can make him produce a slight threat, which shows that this method is very amazing.

Lin Kai thought for a moment, but didn't think much about it. This method, the old doll, obviously wanted to kill the people in this building.

He naturally wouldn't let this old ragdoll go on like this.

However, the most important thing for this old rag doll to use this method is to kill Lin Kai first.

So before Lin Kai made a move, the blood of this old rag doll turned into a * mouth, and he swallowed it towards Lin Kai.

Lin Kai's eyes narrowed slightly, and he didn't use any other means. He still threw out a few talismans. Any mysterious thunder talisman and fireball talisman, including the new talisman, were all thrown over.

It was just that this blood mouth swallowed, except for the new talisman seal, everything else was instantly annihilated.

Even if it was the new talisman seal, the black talisman paper could not withstand its power, and it was obliterated. But the black flame that was left behind made the blood mouth burn.

Lin Kai was surprised again. He knew that the black flame he had accidentally had had a great effect on dealing with evil spirits. He hadn't expected such a great effect.

After all, he just used a trace of black flame to merge with Fulu.

However, this black flame is still less, only to stop this old rag doll slightly, and also to get some injuries.

Seeing this, Lin Kai went backhand to display a black flame, and went directly towards the old doll!

This black flame immediately burned the old rag doll to become more and more transparent, and it may be frightened all the time.

"baby!"

Seeing this scene, the woman in the pajamas hugged the old rag doll like a moth into a fire.

Therefore, black flames started to burn on the woman in the pajamas.

Seeing the mother and child, in the black flame, became more and more transparent.

Lin Kai shook his head slightly, and said to the mother and son: "You were killed, and I sympathize with you. You have also taken revenge, so you should have reincarnated on your own, but you still stay in the world. Fortunately, you didn't. Make even bigger mistakes, watching your mother and son like this, I will save you, let your souls be preserved, and then go to reincarnation."

As Lin Kai spoke, he began to recite a statute.

For the immortal cultivator, naturally there are some means to carry out such a supernatural degree.

Therefore, the mother and son were not dissipated by the black flames, completely burned, but under Lin Kai's magic arts, the mother and son only turned into a burst of evil spirits and dissipated by themselves.

The young man in a plain robe not far away saw this scene in front of him, always in a state of stunned.

This young man in a plain robe was completely shocked by the methods Lin Kai displayed.

He even suspected that his master might not be able to suppress this powerful evil so quickly.

But the one in front of him, who looked younger than him, did it!

Lin Kai ignored the young man in a plain robe, he went straight to An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng.

An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng fell into a special coma when they were surrounded by the strong evil spirit before.

To be precise, he was caught in an illusion.

The main thing is that at the time, An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng far underestimated the strength of the old doll, resulting in no defense, and instead took the initiative to attack the old doll.

This was a surprise, and they were all directly hit.

Chapter 1696: I Can't Catch Up In This Life

Chapter 1696 I can't catch up in this life

Otherwise, if An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng joined forces to resist, they could still last a while.

Just never thought that the evil here would be so powerful.

Not to mention An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng, the young men and young women in plain robes who arrived later did not expect the same.

Even Lin Kai was surprised.

Fortunately, Lin Kai didn't worry about An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng, so they came by themselves.

Otherwise, the consequences are really unimaginable.

At this time, the old rag doll and the woman in pajamas had already been overwhelmed by Lin Kai.

Therefore, An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng are deeply trapped in the illusion, and naturally they will not attack themselves.

However, they were still in a slightly comatose state, after all, the two of them had stayed for a while in the strong suffocation.

Lin Kai moved his true energy, and between his fingers, he flicked a ray of true energy to An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng.

In an instant, An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng both regained consciousness.

When seeing Lin Kai in front of them, An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng were both taken aback.

Especially An Xiaoran, surprised: "Lin Kai, why are you here?"

Lin Kai was a little strange seeing An Xiaoran in this state, and asked, "It should be said that with your temperament, you should wake up soon after falling into this illusion. Master Zhicheng is not in the illusion, but in a special state, the reason why he didn't wake up was because he was infected with a strong evil spirit, which was several times more than yours. Did you encounter something in the illusion?"

At first, Lin Kai also thought that Master Zhicheng was also in that kind of illusion, but when he used a ray of true energy to fall to Master Zhicheng, he found that Master Zhicheng was not in the illusion at all.

It was because there was still a lot of strong evil spirit remaining on his body, so he used another wisp of true energy to completely remove the strong evil spirit remaining on Master Zhicheng.

As a result, Master Zhicheng had to take An Xiaoran a little slower to wake up.

When Lin Kai said this, An Xiaoran's face blushed inexplicably, and then hummed to Lin Kai: "It's nothing, just waiting to say something very important...Anyway, don't say something very important. ."

Lin Kai saw An Xiaoran's reaction, and also saw An Xiaoran's inexplicable shyness. He shook his head speechlessly, completely unable to understand what the girl was thinking about.

He ignored An Xiaoran, then looked at Master Zhicheng, and said, "Master Zhicheng, the evil spirit has been solved, in fact, when you encounter such troublesome things in the future, don't rush. As long as the evil spirit doesn't kill people first."

Lin Kai knew that it was not because Master Zhicheng and An Xiaoran were so reckless, but because they were holding evil spirits as much as possible to eliminate them, so that other people would not be harmed.

Master Zhicheng nodded and responded with a smile: "Sister Lin, thank you again for your help and solve this powerful evil. If you encounter this kind of thing that you know is a bit invincible in the future, you will wait until the manpower is enough. Do it."

It's not that I haven't encountered this kind of situation before, mainly because I can encounter this powerful evil, which is actually equivalent to the probability of winning the lottery.

Before encountering the evil king in the mountains on the outskirts of the city, Master Zhicheng and the others, the evil horrors encountered were at most ordinary evil kings, and they could barely deal with them.

But it was the second time that the powerful evil queen had encountered such a powerful evil queen in the mountains on the outskirts of Yujia's west.

Master Zhicheng always felt that it was strange. Although there had been such a powerful evil before, he had never encountered it once in decades.

But recently, I can meet one after another.

Master Zhicheng's years of experience told him instinctively that there must be a problem here, and he was going to report the matter to the people above and check it carefully.

Lin Kai naturally didn't know the doubts in Master Zhicheng's heart. After all, he did not have the experience and intuition of Master Zhicheng for decades.

What's more, these powerful evil spirits are quite strong, but Lin Kai can easily suppress them with the means of a cultivator.

At this time, the man in the plain-clothed robe was also seeing if there was anything wrong with his junior sister, and found that her junior sister was not in danger, and he woke up and he was relieved immediately.

Then the young man in the plain robes was not rude, and said to Lin Kai, "Thank you fellow Daoist for saving his life!"

Lin Kai couldn't help but look at the young man in a plain robe, this is a Taoist priest, and the means are good.

In fact, what made him curious was that this young man in plain robes was a master-level powerhouse on the surface, but he actually seemed to be practicing something. In short, it is stronger than a normal master-level ancient warrior.

Before Lin Kai could say anything, this young man in a plain robe smiled at An Xiaoran: "This fellow Taoist, what is your name?"

An Xiaoran was stunned, she noticed that she didn't know this young man in a plain robe, and she planned to bother to pay attention.

But at this moment, the young woman walked up to her brother, and then directly spoke to An Xiaoran: "Not long ago, brother and I also sensed the evil here. I just saw you and the master in danger. , I shot with my brother, I didn't expect the evil spirit to be so powerful.

Wait, I seem to have forgotten the point. I suspect that if my brother asked you so directly, he definitely liked you, otherwise it wouldn't be the case. "

Hearing such direct words from the young woman, whether it was the young man in the plain robe, An Xiaoran or Lin Kai, they looked at the young woman speechlessly, it was too direct.

The young man in the plain-clothed robe was so frightened that he glared at the young woman for an instant, and then said in a shame: "My little junior sister and I have just gone down the mountain.

An Xiaoran was even more speechless, and she didn't bother to pay attention to the young man in the plain robe, anyway, she didn't like the young man in the plain robe.

She asked Lin Kai, "Lin Kai, that powerful evil, really you solved it?"

Lin Kai glanced at An Xiaoran, knowing that the little girl's mind was definitely not so simple to ask, but he still responded: "Yes, I can solve it easily. Seeing that the mother and son are also poor, they are all over. "

Immediately, An Xiaoran shrugged her face and muttered to herself: "I can't catch up with you in this life..."

An Xiaoran was also thinking that after many years, he would learn a more powerful method of exterminating evil spirits, to catch up with Lin Kai's methods of demons and demons.

But the powerful evil he encountered this time made her feel desperate. Especially Lin Kai said that it was a very easy and casual solution to this powerful evil. Only in this life, he could not catch up with Lin Kai's desperate thoughts.

Chapter 1697: An Xiaoran

Chapter 1697: Twisted An Xiaoran

It was the young man in the plain-clothed robe, who suddenly inserted a word, and said to An Xiaoran, "This fellow Taoist, in fact, not only did he save us, but I also counted the one who saved you."

In order to convince An Xiaoran, this young man in plain robes showed Lin Kai a look that you know, and said, "Friend Lin? Am I right?"

Obviously, the young man in the plain robe wanted Lin Kai to say something nice to him.

When Lin Kaimie was the powerful evil, the young man in the plain robe stood aside watching.

Therefore, this young man in a plain robe grasped this point, hoping that Lin Kai could help him, saying that he was not afraid of life and death to save An Xiaoran.

This made An Xiaoran, very grateful to him, and even very moved, actively adding his contact information.

The young man in the plain robe thought very well.

Forget it, Lin Kai didn't help the young man in the plain robe, but An Xiaoran's temperament, how could he be so easily moved.

When Lin Kai and An Xiaoran met for the first time, Lin Kai rescued An Xiaoran. An Xiaoran thanked Lin Kai, but was not moved.

On the contrary, some are eager to win, and are very dissatisfied with Lin Kai.

Until just now, An Xiaoran heard Lin Kai, so he easily solved the powerful evil, and gave up competing with Lin Kai to win.

Even if it was Lin Kaiwei, this young man in a plain robe spoke, An Xiaoran would not be touched.

What's more, Lin Kai didn't have much interest. He went to cooperate with the young man in the plain robe, and said casually: "When I first came, I didn't think too much. When I saw the evil rushing, I raised my hand to suppress it. It happened to rescue him. Otherwise, he is probably also very badly injured."

Suddenly, this young man in a plain robe flushed with shame, because this was indeed a fact, and he was unable to refute anything.

At this moment, whether it was An Xiaoran, Master Zhicheng, or even the young woman, they couldn't help but smile more or less.

The main reason is that Lin Kai really didn't give any face, especially Lin Kai didn't think too much about that sentence, and happened to be saved.

The young man in the plain robes, seeing the appearance of several people, became more ashamed, and then couldn't help but Kai Kai, and said, "Friend Lin, I didn't give you any face. Take a million steps and say, you are indeed You just saved me. But before you came, didn't these two fellow daoists were in danger? It was me and my junior sister who stopped them a little."

Lin Kai smiled secretly and shook his head. In fact, the young man in the plain robe and the young woman, even if they didn't attack the evil.

The powerful evil will not kill An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng in a short time.

Because although An Xiaoran had fallen into the illusion, he was not lost in the illusion. In this state, the powerful evil could not kill An Xiaoran.

Unless An Xiaoran is either lost in the illusion, he will die soon. Either it was that he quit the illusion and was personally killed by a powerful evil.

As for Master Zhicheng, although he did not enter the illusion, he was surrounded by a large amount of evil spirits. In the eyes of the powerful evil, it was possible to kill Master Zhicheng sooner or later without spending more time and energy.

During this period, Lin Kai was able to get here to rescue An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng.

However, Lin Kai saw that the young man in the plain robe said so, and he couldn't say much.

Besides, the young man in the plain-clothed robe and the young woman are indeed embracing the mentality of saving others to deal with the powerful evil.

As a result, Lin Kai nodded slightly and said, "In this way, you are indeed delaying time, which can be regarded as indirect, and saved two people."

Hearing what Lin Kai said, the expression on the face of the young man in plain robes gradually returned to normal. He immediately turned to An Xiaoran and smiled: "Friends, you have also heard it. This is also an indirect rescue. about you."

An Xiaoran rolled her eyes, she was in the illusion, how could she not know her own state, she is a powerful evil who is very dangerous, and stayed in the illusion.

Of course, there are other reasons.

But she didn't bother to explain anything to the young man in the plain robe. She also knew that the young man in the plain robe was also a companion, helping the people. She said, "Thank you."

An Xiaoran said, and turned to Master Zhicheng next to him, and said, "Master Zhicheng, you can talk to these two daoists first. I have something to say to Lin Kai alone."

After speaking, An Xiaoran didn't wait for any reaction from everyone, so An Xiaoran directly took Lin Kai and went to a corner of the room.

The young man in a plain robe originally wanted to follow.

But Master Zhicheng stood in front of the young man in the plain-clothed robe, and thanked him, "Two donors, I really have to thank you for delaying time."

Seeing that An Xiaoran had already taken Lin Kaizi away, the young man in the plain robe reluctantly gave up chasing after him. Instead, he looked at Master Zhicheng and responded, "Master, you don't have to thank you. "

In fact, the young man in plain robes also knew that he and his junior sister did not delay much time.

As soon as he and his junior sister came in, they rashly fought with the powerful evil, and they were beaten by the powerful evil in a few moments, without any backhand strength.

If Lin Kai hadn't appeared soon, he would have been seriously injured. The reason why I still said that was because I wanted An Xiaoran to appreciate him.

At this time, An Xiaoran and Lin Kai had arrived, on the balcony of this room.

Lin Kai was very curious, what happened to An Xiaoran, and he had to say anything alone.

With an inexplicable tone, An Xiaoran snorted towards Lin Kai: "Lin Kai, did you care about my safety and came by yourself?"

Lin Kai was even more curious, how did he feel that An Xiaoran was weird now, and to be precise, she was still squeezing, which was quite novel.

Regarding An Xiaoran's words, Lin Kai smiled and said, "Being close, and I really care about the safety of you and Master Zhicheng, here comes."

An Xiaoran glared at Lin Kai, seemingly dissatisfied with Lin Kai's answer.

But An Xiaoran didn't say much, and then immediately said, "Lin Kai, there is one more thing I want to ask you for help, of course, if you have time. The evil here is an urgent task. Actually, I With Master Zhicheng, Hu Xinru, Liu Jiacheng, and the others, go to an ancient city. The evil spirits in the ancient city are said to be very strong, so I am worried that I will trouble you in the situation like today.”

Chapter 1698: Mystery Mission

Chapter 1698 Mysterious Mission

With that, An Xiaoran quickly added: “I know that you will have a competition tomorrow morning, probably after the competition, so I will set off. That ancient city also belongs to Guangling Province, so it won’t be too far away.

The premise is that you are free, and that this mission is a special mission. If you really solve the task, the generous rewards will go to you. I also know that you do not lack this reward, but if something happens in the future, Pihua Mansion will definitely help. “

Lin Kai just smiled at what An Xiaoran said. In fact, when An Xiaoran was talking, the system really released a task to assist An Xiaoran in completing the task of solving the evil.

This mission is also interesting and very mysterious. Because the system did not give any information, nor did it give specific rewards, it simply released a title task. As for whether to do it or not, it depends on Lin Kai himself.

Instead, Lin Kai nodded to An Xiaoran and said, “Yes, if I have time, I will be with you.”

While An Xiaoran and Lin Kai were talking on the balcony.

Master Zhicheng was also chatting with the young man in the plain robe and the young woman, embarrassingly there.

Master Zhicheng himself is not good at talking, let alone talk to strangers forcibly.

Mainly, An Xiaoran asked Zhicheng to act for her, that young man in plain robes.

Otherwise, Master Zhicheng will directly, just like an old monk enters concentration.

Now that An Xiaoran got Lin Kai’s affirmative reply, her mood improved a lot, and she and Lin Kai returned to Master Zhicheng.

An Xiaoran said to Master Zhicheng, “Master Zhicheng, you can withdraw.”

Master Zhicheng was relieved and said goodbye to Lin Kai, the young man in plain robes, and the young woman.

An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng are going to meet with other members of the Bihua Mansion first, and then report the situation here.

Lin Kaizi would not follow.

So An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng left here soon.

The young man in the plain robe was still a little disappointed to see An Xiaoran gone.

Until An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng walked away, the young man in plain robes seemed to think of something, and immediately looked regretful: "Why did I forget and ask for a contact information. Anyway, leave a contact information." The main reason is that I have been in the mountains for too long, and I forgot to have this kind of mobile phone connection."

The young woman couldn't help but said, "I haven't gone far enough yet, so I can chase it."

The young man in a plain robe suddenly shook his head and said, "Isn't it too bad to chase like that. Moreover, Lin Daoyou seems to know that young lady very well, and Lin Daoyou must know it."

Speaking of this, the young man in a plain robe looked at Lin Kai, first approached Lin Kai, and smiled: "Friends of Lin Daoists method of destroying demons and demons is really rare among his peers. Many older generations are not. You must be able to have the strength of Lin Daoyou. I really admire him. I don't know, where does Lin Daoyou come from? How can I have never seen a person like Lin Daoyou who is so powerful."

The young man in the plain-clothed robe also spoke the truth. He had seen it with his own eyes, and Lin Kai had solved the powerful evil in two or two, and he was still very surprised now.

Lin Kai said casually: "This kind of method of demons and demons is a hermit expert who gives random guidance. After pointing, it disappears. I don't know who it is."

Lin Kai could see that the young man in the plain-clothed robe belonged to the hidden sects or families in the ancient martial world, and these hidden sects or families still had some background.

Of course, it's not what you are afraid of, just explain it at will. Avoid unnecessary trouble when you get it.

For Lin Kai, the young man in the plain robes chose to believe it, otherwise, he wouldn't know Lin Kai before then.

Not allowed to go down the mountain, just for not going to the secular, but still able to go in the ancient martial world.

The young man in plain robes thought for a moment, and then asked Lin Kai: "Friend Lin, you should be familiar with the lady just now? Is there any contact information for her? If so, can you Can't you give it to me?"

Lin Kai heard this and directly said a phone number.

The young man in the plain robe was stunned, but Lin Zhuan remembered so clearly.

"Friend Lin, do you remember so clearly?"

The young man in the plain robes looked at Lin Kai with some caution, and he remembered the familiarity, and the relationship was definitely very good.

Lin Kai didn't care about the gaze of the young man in the plain robe, and smiled: "I have always had the ability to remember."

The young man in a plain robe suddenly let out a sigh of relief when he heard Lin Kai's words.

Immediately, the young man in a plain robe said to Lin Kai: "Friend Lin, thank you very much. The junior sister and I also have important matters, so let's take a step forward."

After speaking, he took the young woman and left here together.

After leaving this room, the young woman looked at him in a puzzled manner. The young man in plain robes said, "That fellow Lin Daoist is so capable, why don't we discuss it with fellow Lin Daoist, but in such a hurry. Let's go. I still have some questions, and I'm going to ask Lin Daoyou."

The young man in the plain-clothed robe immediately stared at the young woman and said, "You have never seen it. Lin Daoyou's method of demonizing and eliminating demons is not at the same level as us. Only our master can we be able to fight. Fellow Lin Dao discusses exchanges, we still forget it."

The young man in the plain-clothed robe thought for a while, and then muttered to himself: "Don't say that when I came down the mountain, I met such a powerful evil. The three Taoist friends I met were also very strong. Lin Taoist was young, at least it is at the level of our master. And that lady, as well as the master, are not weak in their means. It seems that we have been on the mountain for too long, and many strong people have emerged in the world."

The young man in the plain robe seemed to think of something, and smiled like an idiot: "It's that lady, she's really beautiful, and she treats me very well."

The young woman next to her looked contemptuously. Empress her senior brother, she also stared at * stars and smiled: "Don't say, Lin Daoyou Zhang is also very handsome and strong."

When the two were talking, they quickly walked out of this community.

Outside the community, there is a public telephone booth.

Although there are fewer and fewer phone booths nowadays, there are still one or two in each large domain.

This is an old community, so it has not been demolished.

The young man in a plain robe couldn't help but step forward and dial the phone number that he wrote down.

Chapter 1699: Nothing To Do With You

Chapter 1699

Whether it's the young man in plain robes, or the young woman, just coming down from the mountain.

Naturally, there are no modern mobile phones or the like.

Otherwise, the two would have been contacted by the Zhao family in Shenling.

The Zhao family of Shenling directly sent a luxury car to personally take the two to the arranged five-star hotel.

Where would it be used to hurry up like this.

It was a young man without a mobile phone and a plain robe that came to this kind of public old telephone booth and began to dial the phone number Lin Kai told him.

Soon, the other end of the phone was picked up.

He actually doubted whether the number Lin Kai gave was true, and he couldn't wait to verify it.

As a result, the young man in the plain robe was greatly surprised. At the same time, he was very surprised that An Xiaoran's voice was indeed heard next moment!

"Hi, hello, are you?"

At this time, An Xiaoran was sitting in the back of the car, and Master Zhicheng was driving there.

"It's me, the Taoist priest who solved the evil spirit not long ago!" The young man in Su Yi's robe immediately introduced himself and said, "This Taoist friend, my name is Ye Muqi. I forgot to introduce it before. Now. Fellow Daoist, what is your name?"

An Xiaoran was in the back of the car, and she was stunned. She naturally knew that this person was the man in the plain robe, but how could this person know her mobile phone number?

An Xiaoran is not stupid. She suddenly thought that Lin Kai told the young man in plain clothes that she couldn't help gritting her teeth and snorted coldly: "Did Lin Kai tell you my mobile phone number?"

The young man in the plain robe, Ye Muqi, did not hear that there was something wrong in An Xiaoran's tone. He responded directly: "Yes, Lin Daoyou was kind. When I asked him for your mobile phone number He also kindly gave it. It's still the kind of blurt out. Although Lin Daoyou said he has the ability to remember, but the speed of blurting out just surprised me."

The speaker has no intention, the listener has the intention.

When An Xiaoran heard Ye Muqi say this, his face was still a little angry, but now it turned into a look of joy, he couldn't help asking, "Is that really the kind of blurting out?"

But Ye Muqi was very confused. He didn't understand how An Xiaoran's mood changed suddenly. Without thinking about it, he said, "Yes, anyway, he said he has the ability to remember, it's quite normal."

After An Xiaoran heard the affirmative words, he immediately said: "Okay, it's nothing to do with you."

Ye Muqi was stunned again. He was about to talk to An Xiaoran, but before he knew he had time to speak, the other party hung up the phone.

In the back of the car, An Xiaoran put down his mobile phone and happily said to Master Zhicheng, who was driving, "I used to say that although Lin Kai has a good memory, he will ignore what is not important. Unexpectedly, Lin Kai could still remember my mobile phone number and was still so proficient."

Master Zhicheng didn't understand why An Xiaoran was so happy, so he just nodded casually.

An Xiaoran felt boring at once, and immediately sent a message to Lin Kai, asking him why he told the person his cell phone number.

But Lin Kai was still in that room. After he received the news, he went back to the person and asked him, so he told him.

Suddenly, An Xiaoran's teeth were itchy.

The main thing Lin Kai saw was that the young man in the plain robe, if he really didn't tell, would definitely pester him.

Lin Kai didn't have so much time to entangle with the young man in the plain robe. He immediately called the young man in the plain robe and sent him away.

At this time, the black flame in Lin Kai's hand burned all over the room.

Although the powerful evil spirit has been eliminated, the strong evil spirit has accumulated in this room for a long time.

Normally, it takes several days to dissipate autonomously.

In order to make this residential building return to normal as soon as possible, the strong evil spirit in it was easily removed.

After doing this, Lin Kai also left this old community.

By tomorrow morning, that residential building will be completely restored to normal, and the residents living in it will be able to return to their normal lives.

Since it is not easy to call a car here, Lin Kai walked for a mile or two on foot.

Originally, he planned to call a car and return to the hotel to rest, but he saw that there was a stall at the intersection of the old alley nearby, which was a local specialty snack.

Often this kind of local specialty snacks are the most authentic.

Lin Kai was a little interested, so he came to the booth and ordered a special snack.

This old alley is located between several old communities, and the location is good.

Although it is late at night, it is quite lively here, equivalent to a small night market.

It didn't take long for the boss to make the special snacks, and he brought it to Lin Kai's small table, and said with a smile: "Usually I come to eat in the middle of the night. It's the first time I saw this little brother. Did you pass by here to eat?"

Lin Kai nodded: "Yes."

The boss is a fat middle-aged man with a nice face, so he enthusiastically introduced Lin Kai: "Since it's the first time to eat, it's best to add a little vinegar, stir it, and sprinkle some of me. Special sauce, it will taste better."

Lin smirked: "Okay."

In this way, according to the method taught by the boss, Lin Kai tasted really good.

When Lin Kai was eating, there was a girl who looked young and not very big, riding a kind of electric bike, and drove up to this stall.

This very young girl is dressed very mature, not at all her age.

This very young girl got off the scooter and reached out to the stall owner and said, "No money."

The stall owner sighed helplessly when he heard the words of this very young girl: "It's used up so soon? I didn't even care about it for a long time, you..."

Before the stall owner could finish talking, this very young girl, chewing gum in her mouth, said indifferently: "Stop talking nonsense, just take me four hundred."

The stall owner shook his head and took out a wooden box. The money paid by the customer would be put in it, and the total inside was estimated to be 300 or 400 yuan.

The stall owner said: "There were a few people who came to eat today, and there was only three to four hundred yuan inside."

The very young girl glanced disgustingly at the money in the wooden box, and said: "Give me the big money in it, don't let the money under fifty."

Inside the wooden box, there are one hundred and two fifty, all others are below fifty.

The stall owner shook his head helplessly again, and gave the two hundred in it to the young girl.

Chapter 1700: A Group Of Little Sisters

Chapter 1700

The very young girl took the money directly, then got on the scooter and was about to leave.

The stall owner sighed, and told the very young girl, "Don't play too late, go back early, lest you..."

"Are you annoying, you don't know how many times you have said it."

The very young girl looked very impatient when she heard the stall owner. She drove the scooter and left immediately.

Lin Kai saw that the stall owner was very worried and couldn't help asking, "Your daughter?"

The stall owner first sighed heavily, then nodded with a wry smile: "Yes."

Lin Kai said, "Boss, it's not good for you to let your daughter go like this. When you need to be strict, you should still be strict."

The stall owner sighed again and said: "Since my wife died in an accident, she has changed a lot. It happened to be in a rebellious period at the time, and I blamed me for killing my wife. But I love me so much. Wife, how could she be killed... alas..."

When the stall owner said this, he sighed.

You can see how helpless this stall owner is.

Lin Kai couldn't help but shook his head slightly. He didn't say much. After all, it was a family affair. The main reason was that he asked about the stall owner just now.

He could see that the stall owner owed his daughter a kind of debt.

After Lin Kai finished eating, he also paid, and said to the stall owner: "Boss, this snack is very good. I will come next time I have time."

The stall owner's mood calmed down, and he smiled at Lin and said, "Good Le! Go slow!"

Lin Kai left here soon, but there were no taxis nearby. He originally planned to order one on the Internet.

It's just that when he first took out his cell phone, he turned around at a corner of this street.

Suddenly he saw that the very young girl who had been riding a scooter was surrounded by several girls about the same age.

"Deng Jiajia! Hand over all the money soon!"

Those girls about the same age all spoke in a fierce tone to that very young girl, that is, Deng Jiajia.

Deng Jiajia didn't have the same impatient attitude as her father before. Instead, she looked at a few girls about the same age in front of her with a little fear, and then took out two hundred yuan from her pocket.

The two hundred yuan was from her father, the stall owner, who got one sheet, one white and two sheets of fifty, a total of two hundred yuan.

Then Deng Jiajia handed the two hundred dollars to one of the girls with a tattoo on her neck, then lowered her head slightly and said, "That's it."

The girl with a tattoo on her neck looked like the eldest sister of these girls. She took the two hundred yuan in Deng Jiajia's hand directly.

She seemed very dissatisfied. With just such a small amount of money, she sneered at Deng Jiajia: "Honor us, and you will take the money to pass it? I think you are still a bit charming, so you can follow us. Let's do it, tonight You just follow us, and you dont need to take the remaining money."

"Thank you, elder sister! Thank you, elder sister!" Deng Jiajia seemed very reluctant, but she seemed to be terrified of these girls and did not dare to refuse, so she immediately agreed.

The girl with a tattoo on her neck was very satisfied with Deng Jiajia's reaction.

The same goes for several other girls about the same age.

It didn't take long for the girls about the same age to look at the locomotives parked next to them.

Obviously, those locomotives belonged to those girls of about the same age.

Lin Kai was still a certain distance away from those people, separated by a road, but he could still clearly hear the conversation of the few people just now.

Those girls were obviously unkind, and Deng Jiajia, Lin Kai, the daughter of the stall owner, could still tell that Deng Jiajia was still very scared of the girls and was a little reluctant to go.

Lin Kai thought for a while, anyway, it was midnight, and he was not in a hurry to go back.

So Lin Kai followed the girls and Deng Jiajia to see what they were doing.

Although the girls and Deng Jiajia drove scooters or electric cars, Lin Kai still followed them easily.

In this way, about ten minutes have passed.

The girls and Deng Jiajia came to a nearby nightclub and stopped directly.

This nightclub looks a bit luxurious, and there are many luxury cars parked in the parking lot.

However, the girls and Deng Jiajia, such a small electric scooter of several thousand yuan, are still not eligible to park in the parking lot of this nightclub. They can only be parked near this nightclub.

After stopping the car, the girls took Deng Jiajia to the door of the nightclub.

When I went to the door, the girl with a tattoo on her neck said to Deng Jiajia: "Your luck is still very good. Tonight, there is one of the three young masters of Shenling City who has little money, so little money should always be known. If you can't get enough money, it's a blessing that you won't be able to cultivate in a few lifetimes. Any one you can do it will be worth what your father has made for several years."

The girl with the tattoo on her neck was talking, she took out a makeup mirror to see if her makeup had fallen off, and said confidently: "Of course, less money will come tonight. It's because of other things. What's more, Qian Shao may have taken a fancy to me, you don't have that chance."

Deng Jiajia was silent all the way, looking a little at a loss.

When the girl with a tattoo on her neck was talking, a few people walked directly in.

And Lin Kai also entered it afterwards.

It's the same as other nightclubs. All kinds of young men and women, drinking, dancing, dancing, and dancing with the best DJ.

Lin Kai's face was expressionless, he was still bored with these.

His sight has been on those girls and Deng Jiajia.

At this time, he saw the girls taking Deng Jiajia to a sofa in the nightclub that looked very unusual.

Lin Kai was just nearby, found an empty place, sat down, and paid attention to what was going on there.

The girl with a tattoo on her neck and several girls came to several people on the sofa.

She turned to a big man sitting on the edge and said, "Brother Long, I brought this classmate of mine. Who did you tell us during the day, who is Qian?"

The big man directly took the girl with the tattoo on his neck into his arms.
