Chapter 1741: Very Suspicious

The staff at the auction continued to sneer again and again.

He Shiyun trembled with anger, there were suspicious points everywhere in this auction house, but she just couldn't produce any evidence to prove it. This led to the arrogant attitude of this auction house.

He even robbed the Pisces Golden Lock in her hand directly, saying it was used as a mortgage. Still talking, this is that the auction house is already showing compassion and so on, as if it is really showing compassion.

If the blue and white porcelain vase is really worth three million, He Shiyun doesn't believe it and just let her go.

Moreover, the blue and white porcelain bottles are so expensive, and they are so casually moved by a staff member.

Naturally, He Shiyun didn't want to be kicked out like this. He really wanted to leave like this. Wouldn't it be like this that made the auction house proud. At that time, it is estimated that the Pisces Golden Lock will not be available.

The staff of those auction houses, when they saw He Shiyun, were still standing at this door.

The staff member who just spoke, then sneered: "Oh, this thing is your fault, you still stay here? Is this forced me to do it? Originally, I still I don't want to beat women, but for a shameless woman like you, I can't blame me!"

The staff member was a greasy man in his thirties. While talking, he was about to approach He Shiyun.

Although He Shiyun still had some fear in her heart, she still gritted her teeth and said: "You have the ability to hit me at this door?"

After all, this door is already standing on the street. It is now in the morning. Although this place is a bit biased, people still come and go.

He Shiyun still underestimated the arrogance of this auction house.

Even if it was in broad daylight, it was here on the street, but the male staff member of the auction house sneered unscrupulously: "You really don't dare to be an old man?"

This male staff member was talking, just wanting to slap He Shiyun.

He Shiyun was so frightened that he wanted to go backwards, originally thinking that she would be slapped by the male staff member.

Only at this moment, a figure flashed by, and immediately heard a pop again, soon.

He Shiyun didn't feel the pain on her face, and then forgot to go forward, she saw a familiar figure standing in front of her.

Not only that, He Shiyun could still see that the male staff member was slapped and his face was fiery. Obviously, that slap made the male staff very uncomfortable.

“Boy! Looking for death!”

The male staff member suddenly became furious. He did not expect that a kid suddenly appeared and dared to beat him!

Ever since, the male staff member wanted to fist and hit the person in front of him.

The person who came was naturally Lin Kai. He glanced faintly, and the male staff member’s punch struck the male staff member’s wrist with ease.

Just let the male staff member scream.

“Just do you still say you don’t hit women? Just like you, you can see the pleasure of hitting women often.” Lin Kai said lightly.

The male staff member wanted to withdraw his hand, but he found that no matter how hard he tried, his hand seemed to be clamped by an iron clip, and he couldn’t move it at all.

The male staff member yelled angrily: “Boy! You are nosy! Let go of Laozi! Don’t let go, believe it or not, don’t want to live today and leave here!”

Lin Kai slapped another slap just waiting for the male staff member to answer.

With this slap, Lin Kai also used a bit of strength, and the male staff member who directly hit was dizzy, and his teeth also dropped a few bites.

If it hadn’t been for Lin Kai to twist it, the male staff member’s hand would have long been unknown how far he flew.

The male staff member was stunned by this blow, and when he came back to his senses, the male staff member’s face was embarrassed because of the pain.

At the same time, the male staff member, with blood in his mouth, said to Lin Kai extremely grimly: “Good, good! Boy, you came to our auction house to cause trouble, then according to our auction house’s regulations, you don’t want to leave today. Brothers are still there watching what they are doing, come on!”

Following this male staff member’s words, several other auction house staff members immediately attacked Lin Kai.

This is nothing like ordinary staff, it’s clearly a group of gangsters who were taken in by this auction house.

From this point of view, this auction house is obviously not a good thing.

After all, in a normal enterprise or company, whoever wants this kind of messy employees can’t accept it, let alone this group of messy employees.

Lin Kai squinted his eyes, and immediately gave the male staff member a hand, shaking it up, and then throwing it away. Several staff members of the auction were about to surround Lin Kai.

It's just that after being thrown by Lin Kai like this, the male staff member ran into those few people.

Lin Kai slightly used his strength. Even so, under this strength, the staff member still slammed into those people.

Suddenly, those people, all of them turned their backs on their backs, and all fell to the ground severely, screaming one by one.

Lin Kai looked at it faintly, and the staff of these auctions calmly said, "I am also a reasonable person. If the blue and white porcelain vase in your auction house is genuine, I will pay if I should pay. , If it's not the genuine product, you just wait for the consequences."

Lin Kai was not polite at all, He Shiyun could feel the strangeness in it, and Lin Kai could naturally smell it, which was still very suspicious.

It is very possible that this auction house colluded to pit He Shiyun.

Even now, I still want to fight He Shiyun.

If Lin Kai hadn't arrived in time, He Shiyun would really have an accident.

Lin Kai doesn't need to be polite to this kind of auction house.

At this time, there was a middle-aged man in a suit. He looked at the management of the auction house and walked out of the auction house.

Hearing Lin Kai's words, the middle-aged man in the suit sneered and said, "Boy, it's up to you? What consequences can we have? You are quite arrogant when you beat us?"

Lin Kai glanced at him indifferently. The middle-aged man in the suit said lightly, "Are you the management of this auction house?"

The middle-aged man in the suit said with a proud face: "Can't you see this? No one in Shenling knows my name. I am the manager here, and that girl is your friend.

Your friend broke the blue and white porcelain vase worth three million. We are nothing more than taking a Pisces gold lock worth 1.5 million yuan to mortgage. Our auction house is already showing great kindness. "

Chapter 1742

It was the middle-aged man in the suit, and then immediately said: "So, your friend not only broke my blue and white porcelain vase, which is worth as much as three million. I was kind to your friend, your friend. That Pisces golden lock is not necessarily true. Even if it is true, it is far from the compensation price of the blue and white porcelain vase.

Our auction house has exhausted our kindness and righteousness, but you came here. Not only didn't apologize to us, but even beat my staff, you said this behavior? If you don't give me an explanation today, you and your friends, don't even think about leaving! "

Lin Kai said indifferently, "Is it? But I really don't want to leave before this matter is clear."

Lin Kai ignored the reaction of the middle-aged man in the suit.

He tilted his head slightly, looked at He Shiyun behind him, and said, "Come with me, the fragments of the blue and white porcelain vase have not been processed yet. Go there and have a look."

He Shiyun nodded immediately after hearing Lin Kai's words, and she was no longer afraid. With Lin Kai by her side, she felt relieved, so she led the way and entered the auction house together.

At the same time, He Shiyun also embarrassedly said to Lin Kai: "Mr. Lin, this time I am acting like this without authorization... It has caused you a lot of trouble. I'm really sorry, I..."

Before He Shiyun finished speaking, Lin Kai smiled and said, "It's okay, I know what you are thinking. And, it's not your fault."

Lin Kai could see that He Shiyun liked Pisces Golden Lock very much. In He Shiyun's room last night, Lin Kai had already noticed that He Shiyun showed great dissatisfaction and affection for the Pisces Golden Lock from time to time.

Lin Kai was still wondering at the time, but now that he knew, He Shiyun felt that he owed Lin Kai too much, and wanted to give Lin Kai all the money that Pisces Golden Lock had sold.

Actually, Lin Kai didn't lack that little money. Of course, He Shiyun thought that the money he sold could bring some help to Lin Kai.

The most important point is that this matter is very strange. It is very possible that He Shiyun is the victim. Even if the blue and white porcelain vase is genuine, he cannot rest all the responsibility on He Shiyun.

Especially this auction, at first glance, it is the kind of auction that is not very good, and it is more likely that He Shiyun has entered the trap of this auction house.

When Lin Kai thought of this, he happened to walk to the middle-aged man in the suit, that is, the manager of the auction house. He couldn't help but say, "Didn't you say that if you don't give you an explanation, don't you want to let us go? Why? I take the initiative to go in with my friend, but you still can't stop at this door?"

Hearing Lin Kai's words, the middle-aged man in this suit was taken aback for a moment. He didn't expect that this kid really dared to go in.

It seems that this kid should have some identity, but the middle-aged man in this suit has no fear.

There are two auctions in Shenling, and one of them is here.

It is enough to see that he must have a background in this auction, otherwise he will not survive to this day.

As for Lin Kai's initiative to go in, the middle-aged man in this suit is of course very desirable.

Ever since, a sneer appeared on the face of the middle-aged man in this suit, and he said, "Then go inside."

While talking, the middle-aged man in this suit stepped aside.

Then Lin Kai and He Shiyun walked into this auction.

Just as he stepped into this auction, the male staff member who was the first to deal with He Shiyun was still screaming and rolling on the ground.

Just now, Lin Kai used a few miles to get the male staff member to hit him directly. Several other staff members who hit the ground also fell to the ground and could hardly stand up. We can know how serious the injury of the male staff member is at this time.

As a result, the male staff member saw Lin Kai and He Shiyun entering the auction for the first time, and immediately said to the middle-aged man in the suit, "Boss Wang, this kid is too arrogant! You must be ruthless! Teach him hard! Let him know that we..."

Before waiting for the male staff member to speak in an extremely spiteful tone, he quickly stopped abruptly, and even made another scream that was more painful than before.

The screams like killing a pig kept resounding at the door of this auction house.

Just because the male staff member happened to be passed by Lin Kai, when he spoke, Lin Kai was casual.

Under this foot, the male staff member slammed into the wall next to him, and the ribs on the entire side were broken.

Lin Kai glanced faintly, the male staff member, not salty and not salty, said: "I am ashamed to say that, why? I just hit a girl, so hard, now I give you face? Noisy."

Lin Kai didn't bother to talk nonsense. For this kind of underworld auction house, it was naturally more violent than it was to make it obedient.

Sure enough, following Lin Kai's footsteps, neither the male staff nor the other staff dared to say anything to Lin Kai. For fear of Lin Kai, he would just pass it with one foot and hurt them again.

Even the middle-aged man in the suit was embarrassed and followed Lin Kai and He Shiyun with a gloomy expression.

It didn't take long for Lin Kai and He Shiyun to arrive in the parlor of the auction house.

This living room is dedicated to receiving guests and auctioning guests' antiques.

The auction will charge a small fee for the auctioned money.

Of course, even if it's a little expense, that's a lot. In particular, the higher the value of the auction, the higher you can get.

And He Shiyun turned around and bumped into the blue and white porcelain vase in the hands of the auction staff, which was at the front desk of the parlor.

It stands to reason that the staff of the auction would not take such valuable things in this living room at will.

Even if it's a guest's thing, it will be carefully fixed.

At this time, Lin Kai and He Shiyun arrived in the living room, and the ground was clean. Obviously, the fragments of the blue and white porcelain vase have been processed by the auctioneer.

Lin Kai looked at the following, the middle-aged man in the suit, and said lightly, "Show me the fragments of the blue and white porcelain vase."

"Isn't it just the fragments of the blue and white porcelain vase? Let alone the fragments, there are also antique certificates and so on, so I will show you all together! The heart that made you die!"

The middle-aged man in the suit responded without fear.

After speaking, the middle-aged man in the suit turned towards him again, and a staff member inside ordered that the fragments of the blue and white porcelain vase and other things were brought over to Lin Kai to see.

The appearance of the middle-aged man in the suit is very confident, as if he is holding the winning ticket.

Chapter 1743

But for a while, the middle-aged man in a suit ordered the staff of the auction house. So I took the fragments of the blue and white porcelain vase and any certified items.

The middle-aged man in the suit immediately pointed to the fragments of the blue and white porcelain vase and the certified items, and said with a sneer: "The things and they are brought to you. Take a good look at yourself! If you can't judge by yourself, you can take it. Go to a professional place and appraise it!"

Lin Kai squinted his eyes slightly, his gaze fell on the fragment of the blue and white porcelain vase and the certified object.

Just a glance, Lin Kai said lightly: "No wonder you are so confident, no matter this blue and white porcelain vase or this certified thing, there is indeed no fraud."

Hearing Lin Kai's words, the middle-aged man in the suit suddenly sneered again: "It seems that you still have some eyesight, since this thing of mine is real. Your friend broke it. Originally, our auction house has been merciful and righteous. , Just use your friend's Pisces Golden Lock as a mortgage.

But now that you ran over to make trouble, I can't blame us! The other 1.5 million will not only be returned to us! I also paid the medical expenses and mental damage expenses of the staff of our auction house together! Everyone said less than one hundred thousand! So two million in total! "

While talking, the middle-aged man in this suit commanded the auction house, and other staff gathered around him.

The staff here are basically men, some with tattoos and some with dyed hair. At first glance, it was originally a gangster, and then transformed into a staff member of this auction house.

There were about twenty, and they gathered directly.

Look at this posture, if Lin Kai didn't hand over the two million, he would take action against Lin together.

Although the middle-aged man in this suit not long ago saw the male staff member who Lin Kai kicked and hit the wall.

He also thinks that Lin Kai still has some strength, but how can he beat so many people alone.

Even those who have studied martial arts, his group of staff members do not know how many fights they have fought, which is much harder than ordinary people.

At this time, He Shiyun looked ashamed. She never expected that the blue and white porcelain vase was real.

She thought that the blue and white porcelain vase was fake, after all, everything was very unreasonable.

But Lin Kai said so, she knew Lin Kai's ability to appraise antiques.

Since Lin Kai said that the blue and white porcelain vase is real, it must be real.

She had known it a long time ago and would not answer Lin Kai's call. Because of that, Lin Kaizi would not be implicated in it. Now that Lin Kaizi was implicated in it again, she was very guilty and ashamed, and felt very sorry for Lin Kai.

However, Lin Kai had a calm expression on his face. He looked at the middle-aged man in the suit and said faintly: "I haven't finished my words yet, you are eager to get the staff to surround you, are you guilty of something?"

"Joke! What can I have a guilty conscience? Lose money quickly, otherwise, you have already said it, don't think about leaving!"

The middle-aged man in the suit said coldly.

Lin Kai glanced at it. The middle-aged man in the suit shook his head slightly and said: "The blue and white porcelain vase is real. It's true. However, whether my friend broke the blue and white porcelain vase is still unknown."

The middle-aged man in the suit immediately yelled at Lin Kai, "Boy! What are you talking about! How could it not be broken by your friend! At that time, your friend turned around and happened to hit the blue and white porcelain bottle.

As a result, the employees under my hands were not able to hold them firmly, and this caused the blue and white porcelain vase to fall to the ground and break to the ground! If you don't believe me, ask your friend if it's like this! Under such circumstances, why didn't your friend smash this blue and white porcelain vase!"

A playful smile appeared at the corner of Lin Kai's mouth. He picked up a fragment of a blue and white porcelain bottle, and then said, not salty but not salty, "You have been there to avoid the heavy, even if my friend hit it like this. My friend is completely to blame. It's like a traffic accident. You have to judge a problem of division of responsibility.

Ask your heart, in this case, don't the employees under your hand have no responsibility? I didn't notice that my friend was about to turn around and leave, and he was so careless. ”

Hearing Lin Kai's words, the middle-aged man in the suit was taken aback for a moment, and then sneered: “Indeed, I admit that the employees under my hands also have certain responsibilities, then 30% of the responsibility. The employees under my hands bear 30% Responsibility, your friend has to pay 70% of the responsibility. After all, your friend is the one who broke the blue and white porcelain vase. So, after all, you have to give me 1.6 million.”

The playful smile at the corner of Lin Kai's mouth grew stronger and stronger. Soon he raised the porcelain piece of the blue and white porcelain vase in his hand, and said faintly, “It looks like my friend hit the blue and white porcelain vase and then fell to the ground and smashed it. Actually. Above, this blue and white porcelain vase has long been broken. The reason why it looks complete is because you glued it together with special glue.

Then you ordered the employees under your hand to put the glued blue and white porcelain vase and deliberately walk to my friend's side. You did it on purpose, so my friend happened to hit the blue and white porcelain vase. It seemed that it was the false impression that a friend hit the blue and white porcelain vase, and asked my friend to compensate. Simply put, you are touching porcelain. ”

What Lin Kai said, whether it was the middle-aged man in the suit or the other auction house staff, their expressions were constantly changing and changing.

Especially the middle-aged man in the suit, whose mood fluctuates greatly. He immediately pointed at Lin Kai and yelled, “Fuck you! It's just nonsense! Our auction house is the only auction house in Shenling.” , There are more than ten years! If we dared to do this, we would not be able to continue!

Boy, you are completely slandering our auction house now! Obviously it was your friend's fault, you even beat our people, we let you lose some money, it is already pretty good! It's kindness and righteousness if you are not elevated! Unexpectedly, you still slander our auction house so much! I will never spare you! ”

“Am I talking nonsense?”

The playful smile at the corner of Lin Kai's mouth narrowed, then he looked at He Shiyun, and said, “Shiyun, who was the staff member who held this blue and white porcelain vase before?”

After He Shiyun heard Lin Kai's words, he immediately pointed to a staff member in front and said, “It's him!”

Lin Kai couldn't help but looked at the staff member and said faintly, “You haven't had time to wash your hands? You should still have that special glue on your hands.”

When Lin Kai said this, the staff member appeared panicked.

Chapter 1744

The staff of the auction house seemed to want to quibble something.

Lin Kai didn't bother to waste any more words, he had already judged the specific situation.

So he directly used the ability to extract the truth and let the staff of the auction house begin to honestly tell the truth.

After finishing this, Lin Kai continued to ask the staff of the auction house, and said, "I ask you, is it what I said just now? This blue and white porcelain bottle is broken. Is it reattached? You passed by my friend holding that glued blue and white porcelain bottle because you were planning to touch the porcelain, right?"

Lin Kai asked several key questions one after another.

The staff member of the auction house immediately responded: "What you just said is correct. The blue and white porcelain vase was originally broken..."

Hearing the answer from the staff of the auction house, the middle-aged man in the suit immediately changed his expression again. He scolded the staff and said, "What nonsense are you talking about! Shut up Laozi!"

However, the staff did not seem to hear what the middle-aged man in the suit said, and continued to answer Lin Kai's questions.

"The blue and white porcelain vase was actually bought by a customer yesterday, and it was brought to our auction house for auction. It's just that this blue and white porcelain vase was accidentally broken by our manager, so it's not easy to explain. It just happened that your friend came, let us The manager came up with such a way to make your friend lose money to make up for this loss.

So I asked me and the others to glue the blue and white porcelain bottle first, and then pass by your friend, waiting for your friend to turn around and leave. Just holding the blue and white porcelain bottle, stand there, waiting for your friend to hit the blue and white porcelain bottle. Then it looks like your friend smashed the blue and white porcelain vase. "

The staff member, with the ability to tell the truth, also told many details about the experience.

After listening to the staff member's words, Lin Kai had a cold look in his eyes. It was obviously the middle-aged man in the suit who broke the blue and white porcelain vase of his customer.

However, instead of taking responsibility for this responsibility, he wants to pass it on to others.

It happened that He Shiyun came here with the Pisces golden lock. In fact, the middle-aged man in the suit knew that the Pisces golden lock was genuine and could be auctioned for at least two million.

The middle-aged man in the suit kept saying that He Shiyun's Pisces Golden Lock was probably fake, and he talked with He Shiyun there just to delay time.

Allow a certain amount of time for the employees under their hands to glue up the broken blue and white porcelain vase.

This is what happened, it looks like He Shiyun broke the blue and white porcelain vase.

At this time, the middle-aged man in the suit looked at the staff member extremely angrily, and shouted again: "Liu Jia! Do you want to do it here? So slander me!"

Lin Kai looked at the furious middle-aged man in a suit, and sneered slightly, "Despicable? By this time, you are still arguing, whether it's slander, you know in your heart."

Hearing Lin Kai said so directly, the face of the middle-aged man in this suit was so gloomy and terrible that he didn't even pretend to say anything, and said directly: "Boy, even if what he said is true, so what? How can it not? Anyway, there is no monitoring here. If your friend broke it, then your friend broke it.

My auction house has been able to survive in Shenling City for so many years, naturally, it has some background. If you still want to make trouble, don't even think about going out. So, you honestly hand over the 1.6 million to Lao Tzu! If you don't pay anymore, don't blame Lao Tzu for his harsh methods!"

The middle-aged man in this suit stopped pretending, so he simply forced money directly.

When Lin Kai saw the middle-aged man in the suit, he tore his face, and a sneer appeared at the corner of his mouth.

Immediately after that small piece of blue and white porcelain vase in his hand, with a light flick of his finger, it quickly went to the face of the middle-aged man in the suit.

In an instant, the middle-aged man in the suit had no time to react. A small piece of porcelain from the blue and white porcelain vase slashed across the face of the middle-aged man in the suit.

The middle-aged man in the suit immediately let out a scream, and then blood began to bleed on his face.

A small piece of blue and white porcelain vase cut a long wound on the face of the middle-aged man in the suit.

While the middle-aged man in the suit screamed, he looked at Lin Kai with very bitter eyes. He didn't seem to think that this kid in front of him even dared to take the initiative.

At this moment, the middle-aged man in the suit was completely annoyed, and then shouted in extreme anger: "Go! You all go! What a special thing! This kid is looking for death! If anyone messes this kid first, One hundred thousand bonuses this month!"

Hearing the words of the middle-aged man in the suit, the close to twenty auction house staff members immediately rushed towards Lin Kai viciously.

A few months ago, this group of staff were indeed gangsters. However, this auction changed a boss a few months ago.

The new boss was originally the boss of the gangsters, so the staff members who were invited were all the gangsters under his own hands.

As a result, the atmosphere of this auction house has become like this.

All these staff members looked at Lin Kai with a grinning face. In their eyes, Lin Kai was sweet and sweet.

He Shiyun didn't have any fear. She already knew that these people were not enough for Lin Kai to fight.

After all, yesterday morning, that Huang Qilang took hundreds of people with him. And among the hundreds of people, all of them are tall and magnificent, and most of them have practiced Kung Fu.

It's not like this group of gangsters can compare.

Therefore, under He Shiyun's beautiful eyes, it didn't take long before Lin Kai took a few random shots and beat all the staff members to the ground.

There was no way to stand up anymore, and immediately lost combat effectiveness.

After all squatting, Lin Kai's eyes fell on the middle-aged man in the suit, and he faintly said: "What did you say just now, I didn't hear it, you say it again."

At this time, the middle-aged man in the suit was pale and sweating. He never expected that Lin Kai could fight like this.

Although he was terrified in his heart, he still bit the bullet and said to Lin Kai: "Boy! You are over! Do you know who the real boss of our auction house is? I tell you! You have a kind of don't treat my opponents, I'll call people over now! It's pretty to have you!"

Lin Kai said indifferently: "You call someone, just so I don't waste any time. It's best to call everyone who can talk. After that, this auction house will not be able to do it. I said, who of you? Don't blame me if you dare to drive again."

"Good, good! Kid, arrogant enough! Just wait for Laozi!"

Hearing Lin Kai's words, the middle-aged man in the suit became even more furious.

Chapter 1745: Angry Patriarch

The middle-aged man in this suit was even more annoyed when he saw Lin Kai's arrogant appearance. He made a call and said harshly towards Lin Kai: "Okay! This is what you said! Just stand if you can. Don't move here!"

Lin Kai just didn't care about this. Since the auction had become a kind of scam, he didn't mind letting it rectify.

at the same time.

Among the martial arts halls in Shenling, the top various forces in Shenling here have not completely dispersed.

Although today's competition did not take place as scheduled, it was also a rare time for Shenling to gather.

Zhao Yajue left early because his wife was seriously ill and needed Lin Kai and Ye Muqi to treat him.

Otherwise, Zhao Yajue would stay in Shenling Martial Arts Hall for a while longer.

After all, everyone is usually very busy, and only this rare opportunity can we get together and communicate.

At this time, the Patriarch of the Qian family had a lot of money. He seemed to have heard some news. He shook his head and sighed, "It is said that Patriarch Zhao will join forces with the Qin family in the provincial capital. He belonged to the hidden family. The strong man in the hidden family was said to be able to easily defeat Ye Muqi before breaking through. Now he is about to break through and will become even more powerful.

Although Lin Kai is also very powerful, there is not only one person from the Hidden Family over there, there are several others, all of whom are very powerful. When the time comes, if the Qin family, the provincial capital, takes away the victory, we will have no soup at all. "

Hearing Qian Yiduo's sigh, some people echoed: "Yes, if the other province wins, we can barely drink the remaining soup. But if the provincial capital Qin's win, we drink all the soup. If it fails, it will even cost a lot."

Qian Yiduo sighed again and said: "But there is no hope, Lin Kai's strength has not been fully demonstrated. We have just heard about how powerful the people invited by the provincial capital Qin family are. We haven't seen the details. .

The most important thing is that even if we lose, you are better. I was unlucky. I had offended Lin Kaizi before. If Lin Kaizhen treats Patriarch Zhao's wife well. I'm in Shenling, it may be more difficult. "

Qian Yiduo looked bitter, after all, Shenling was in charge of the Zhao family.

Lin Kairuo cured Zhao Yajue's wife, and Zhao Yajue was naturally grateful to Lin Kai.

In the morning, although Qian Yiduo and Zhao Yajue ridiculed Lin Kai together, Zhao Yajue at least slightly understood something with Lin Kai afterwards.

And he didn't have that chance, if Lin Kaizhen got better, he wouldn't be so good in Shenling.

Everyone knew what Qian Yiduo was talking about, and they all looked at Qian Yiduo sympathetically.

Qian Yiduo secretly made up his mind at this time that when he left, he had to go to Zhao's house, mainly to see Lin Kai, ask Lin Kai to forgive or something, and then give him compensation.

Just as Qian thought about it, his cell phone rang suddenly.

Qian Yiduo picked up the phone and saw that it was a call from the auction house he had just taken over a few months ago.

For that auction house, he put his own brother in charge.

His younger brother was sentenced to prison for many years because he fought with people when he was young.

When it came out, it was already derailed from society.

No matter how much money he has, he can't let his own younger brother have anything to do, so let him take over the auction house.

He didn't pay much attention to the auction house. Let his brother to toss, anyway, this is in his turf.

But now, the manager of the auction house is calling.

This made Qian curious. Basically, the manager of the auction house did not find him much.

As soon as Qian was curious, he answered the phone.

I didn't wait for the other person to say anything. As soon as the money got too much, he calmed his face and said: "If you have something to say, don't be haggling, I have other things. If it's something big and small, come to me, You'd better hang up directly from the peak. Don't come to the auction if you get the chance."

Hearing what Qian Yiduo said, the middle-aged man in the suit on the other end of the phone was shocked. He never expected that Qian Yiduo was in a bad mood.

The middle-aged man in this suit, on second thought, was smashed by the sign of the auction and beat most of the staff at the auction.

Such a bad thing will have a big impact on this auction.

And this will have a great negative effect on auction houses.

Although this auction house is inferior to another auction house in Shenling, its annual income is still considerable, otherwise it will not take over this auction house if the money is too much.

This matter should, not be regarded as

Ever since, the middle-aged man in the suit bit his head and said: "Money... Patriarch Qian, this is how things are. Not long ago, a kid injured all of our auction houses and broke them forcibly. Come in. Even let me talk, our auction house won't open again in the future, and it's very clamoring for you to come over. It's useless to say you're here. So..."

Before the middle-aged man in the suit could finish talking, he was furious as soon as he got too much money. He was in a very bad mood. Never thought that someone would provoke him on his head.

Although his Qian family is incomparable to the Zhao family, he is still one of the three major families in Shenling. How can he be a casual person who can provoke?

If you don't teach that person, wouldn't it be that the Qian family is afraid that the person will not succeed?

If it spreads out, his Qian family will lose face.

The most important thing is that he still has to go to Zhao's house and forgive Lin Kai.

If Lin Kai hears that his Qian family is so stubborn, it is estimated that he will look down on him, let alone ask for any understanding.

As a result, Qian became very angry when he heard more, and he must first teach that kid.

Therefore, Qian Yiduo quickly asked the middle-aged man in the suit, and asked, "How many people did that man bring over to make trouble? Are they still there?"

“Patriarch Qian, he is the only one. And he is particularly arrogant, saying that he will not leave, and he is waiting for you in this auction house!”

The middle-aged man in the suit would naturally not tell what happened to him. Instead, he told Lin Kai all his side, and then added his jealousy.

Sure enough, Qian Yiduo got even more angry, and kept scolding the middle-aged man in the suit, coldly snorting, “It’s really a bunch of trash, I can’t beat even one person!”

Qian Yiduo answered the phone while heading outside the Shenling Martial Arts Hall. He immediately spoke to the middle-aged man in the suit and said, “In any case, don’t let that person leave the auction. I will take it now. People go over! Let that person know what happened to me!”

Chapter 1746

The amount of money was already in anger, and this time, he became even more angry.

After he hung up the phone of the middle-aged man in a suit, he quickly turned to a man in a cyclops next to him and said in a cold voice: “Old wolf, all the people you can call right away, call me. Just let some people know. Although my Qian family is no better than the Zhao family and the Shi family, no one can mess with it!”

Qian Yiduo thinks that this time is also an opportunity. It happened that the other party provoked him. He had reasons to keep calling people over and supporting the scene, so that people in Shenling knew that his Qian family had not completely fallen, and the deadly camel was bigger than a horse!

Hearing the words, the one-eyed man nodded, immediately took out his mobile phone, and began to call and send messages.

Suddenly, because of the order of more money, some underground organizations in Shenling became active.

I have to say that Qian Yidu does have some skills and connections.

Within a few minutes, Shenling went to the same place from various places, either driving or taking a taxi.

That is where Lin Kai is currently, in that auction house!

This group of people also have their own characteristics. They all have a fierce look. In general, they are very uncomfortable, and they even seem to be hitting people.

Twenty minutes later, Qian Yiduo rode in his own luxury car with the tens of millions class and also came to this auction house.

At this time, the vicinity of the auction house was crowded with all kinds of cars.

Nearby stores have been closed for a long time, and no pedestrians dared to come here and were booked.

Moreover, outside the car, there are also dense crowds. At a glance, there are hundreds of people in the car. If you add the inside of the car, there are thousands of people gathering here!

These people saw the car with more money coming over, and then saw the car with more money got out of the car.

All the people in the car got off.

Then these thousands of people shouted at Qian Yiduo deafeningly: "Patriarch Zhao, what's your order?"

Thousands of people shouted together, and the momentum was quite amazing.

Qian Yiduo was very satisfied with the scene before him. Then he pointed to the auction house and said, "Something happened to me. Someone beat up all the staff in my industry. Not only that, but also clamoring in it. Waiting for me to pass. I have lived in this Shenling for more than 40 years, and I have never seen a kid who dare to provoke me so much!

I haven't called anyone for a long time, so I will call you over today. Supporting the scenes for my Qian family is not someone who can provoke my Qian family! "

Each of these thousands of people has an intricate relationship with the Qian family.

So if the Qian family is in trouble, they will not be better off.

What's more, now, if a kid dares to provoke the Qian family, they will lose face.

Therefore, everyone came over without hesitation.

Nowadays, when I hear the money is too much, these thousands of people are even more unkind, staring at the auction house.

Soon one by one, they began to walk into the auction house.

Fortunately, the area of this auction house is large enough. Otherwise, if there are thousands of people in it, it will really be too crowded.

Qian Yiduo followed behind. He couldn't see any happiness or anger on his face, but there was endless coldness in his eyes. No matter who came to provoke him, he would die today!

At this time, the staff member who had been used by Lin Kai and had used the ability to tell the truth had already recovered.

When the staff member saw themselves, they were all knocked to the ground by Lin Kai, and the middle-aged man in the suit was calling there, even staring at him.

The staff member had a hunch that he was going to finish.

Lin Kai wasn't in a bad mood, the staff member who had woken up was also a participant. Before I wanted to do something to deal with Lin Kai, it was obviously not a good bird.

At this time, the middle-aged man in the suit had already finished the phone call and put several band-aids on his face.

He also blocked some of the remaining staff at the door, lest Lin Kai took He Shiyun away.

If the money is too much, he will bring people over.

In the eyes of the middle-aged man in this suit, Lin Kai was already a dead man.

At this moment, the middle-aged man in a suit is far away from Lin Kai. Although Lin Kai was a dead person in his eyes, at least before the money came, he was still very afraid of Lin Kai.

I was afraid that Lin Kai would do anything to him again.

What made the middle-aged man in the suit feel very relieved was that a staff member who had been blocking the door immediately ran to him.

Then the staff member spoke to the middle-aged man in the suit and said, "Manager! Manager! Here are the people! Here are the people! A large number of people are coming outside, and Patriarch Qian also came here himself!"

Hearing this, the middle-aged man in the suit suddenly laughed, then looked at Lin Kai, sneered again and again: "Boy! You can't go anymore if you want to go! Patriarch Qian has personally brought a large number of people here! Let you Arrogant! You are going to die soon!"

Lin Kaiwei froze, Patriarch Qian?

He didn't think much, and he said casually: "A large number of people? It is of no use to me. You still tell you that Patriarch Qian, if I apologize to my friend, I might be in a good mood. You suffer less skin and flesh. Otherwise, don't blame me for doing anything."

Hearing Lin Kai's words, the middle-aged man in the suit was so angry that he smirked. He didn't expect that at this time, this kid still looked as if nothing had happened.

"Hehe, just wait! Remember what you say now!"

The middle-aged man in this suit ignored Lin Kai after he finished talking.

Wait a minute, let that kid know that the Qian family behind him is amazing!

As one of the three families of Shenling, the Qian family is not a joke!

At this time, a large number of people have begun to surge in the auction house.

This group of people came in from the outside, following Qianyidu.

In particular, there are so many footsteps that are constantly ringing. People have heard such dense footsteps before they even see it.

Enough to see how many people are here.

Under the excited gaze of the middle-aged man in the suit, finally the most advanced crowd appeared in his sight.

With the emergence of the first group of people, there is a dense crowd behind them!

By visual inspection, there are thousands of people!

He Shiyun, who was next to Lin Kai, couldn't help feeling nervous when seeing so many people.

Although He Shiyun had seen that Lin Kai fought very hard, but so many people and such a big battle also shocked her.

And at the end of this group of people, there was a big fat man who seemed to have an unusual identity, like a star holding the moon.

In addition to the thousands of people, all of them showed fierce expressions, making them all startled.

Even if it was a middle-aged man in a suit, even if he knew he was his own person, he was scared back a few steps by this big battle.

Chapter 1747

At this moment, He Shiyun watched very nervously, thousands of people coming over.

She leaned closer to Lin Kai and couldn't help but said nervously to Lin Kai: "Mr. Lin, with so many people, did I get into trouble? I'm really embarrassed that this hurts you."

Lin Kai shook his head and said, "It's not your fault in itself. Why do you need to get into trouble? Besides, it's okay. You sit on the sofa at the back, have a cup of tea, and just wait for me."

Seeing Lin Kai's calm face, He Shiyun still believed Lin Kai very much, but couldn't help but said, "Mr. Lin, there are at least a thousand people here, really nothing will happen, right?"

He Shiyun was also very worried about Lin Kai before continuing to ask.

Lin Kai shook his head and laughed: "You haven't had the ability to ask questions before. To be honest, this group of people were not on the Antique Street yesterday. It was close to hundreds of people. I easily beat the one in the Antique Street yesterday, not to mention this. Group of people?"

Lin Kai did not make a mistake. The thousands of people seem to be crowded, but most of them are ordinary people.

But yesterday in Antique Street, the group of Huang Qilang's men had at least practiced martial arts.

Huang Qilang has nearly a hundred people, and he can deal with thousands of people.

He Shiyun finally felt relieved when he heard Lin Kai say this, and according to Lin Kai's intention, he got on the sofa not far behind.

The one who came first was a one-eyed dragon man. He looked at the middle-aged man in a suit and couldn't help asking, "Is it the kid standing there?"

The middle-aged man in a suit also knows him. This one-eyed man is Qian Yiduo's right arm. To be precise, it is the money-rich man who is on hand.

He quickly said to the one-eyed dragon man, "Yes! That's the kid!"

Hearing the words, the one-eyed dragon man instantly showed a trace of hideousness. This one-eyed dragon man came to Shenling Martial Arts Hall afterwards.

It should be said that it was after Zhao Yajue took Lin Kai and Ye Muqi away that the one-eyed man came to Shenling Martial Arts Hall.

So this one-eyed dragon man did not know Lin Kai.

As a result, the Cyclops man saw Lin Kai's calm look and sneered: "Okay! Boy, you are so calm, I really admire you! But you dare to provoke our Qian family, don't you? Know that this auction house belongs to our Shenling Qian family?"

Are you not good at hitting? I beat all the staff here. I want to see, there are thousands of people behind me, how are you going to fight! "

After the one-eyed dragon man finished speaking, he immediately ordered the group of people behind him to shout loudly: "Brothers, it's time for you to take action! Don't beat this kid to death! You have to take a few breaths and let Patriarch Qian come!"

Suddenly, when the words of the Cyclops man fell.

The first group of people rushed towards Lin Kai with fierce eyes.

When the people behind saw the people in front rush over, there was a chain reaction, and they rushed over.

The momentum of thousands of people is indeed amazing.

But the only calm, only Lin Kai.

Lin Kai looked at the thousands of people who rushed forward and shook his head slightly, all of which were unsuccessful.

Lin Kai didn't hesitate anymore, and immediately used the formation to extract power.

Some formations need to use their own materials to create a formation.

However, some offensive formations don't need any materials, just use True Qi.

Now what Lin Kai uses is an offensive formation.

His hands immediately condensed into a six-pointed star with a palm, and then moved forward.

The hundreds of people rushing in the front were the first to suffer, with the powerful force of the offensive formation!

I saw these people in the front, as if they were hit by a very fast car, and they all flew instantly.

This group of people not only took off, but also suffered a great shock wave, causing the people behind to be hit hard by those who took off in front.

As for the latter, the one further behind was also hit hard!

This crowd is so dense that there is no chance to even escape!

In an instant, there was a scream in the hall of this auction house, and the sound of falling down was also very loud.

Just at this time, the money from the last side came to the hall of this auction house.

He also thought, not only to give the kid a good color, but also to be afraid of the video, so that everyone can see, his Qian family is not something a cat or a dog can provoke.

He was thinking like this, and suddenly heard constant screams coming from ahead.

A lot of money is a little confused, isn't there only one person on the other side?

It stands to reason that there is only one person screaming, that is the kid's screaming.

Why are there so many screams now?

Qian Yiduo couldn't help but look forward. Because he was a big fat man, coupled with his short height, he was full of tall men in front of him.

Qian Yiduo couldn't help but turned to the people in front and said, "What's going on in front? Why is there such a big movement?"

In his opinion, dealing with a kid doesn't need such a big movement, right?

It's just that the person in front doesn't seem to have heard the words of money.

Instead, all of them turned around, fleeing towards the door of the auction house with a look of horror.

This escape didn't matter, the last group of people directly ran into Qian Yiduo.

The money was squeezed around and finally hit the wall.

Qian Yiduo felt the pain from his body, and he immediately said with a ferocious anger: "What's this! Are you rushing to reincarnate? Don't you know I'm behind!"

He was really angry. He was very angry at first, but now he is being squeezed around by someone on his side, all injured.

This is too much money, there is no way to bear it.

However, no one paid any attention to the increase in money, and the people behind were still fleeing there, as if something terrible had happened.

As soon as the money was over, I felt bad, just gloomy, and couldn't help but look ahead.

At this glance, he was shocked by the amount of money and almost lost his soul.

Because he saw the terrible things in front of him!

Thousands of people who had been good at it all fell into the lobby of this auction house, and even stacked several floors!

One by one cried out in pain, as if being shocked by a huge force!

Qian duo was dumbfounded, how long has it passed, not even half a minute, right? Why did thousands of people like him become like this?

Could it be that one person did it, with one enemy one thousand?

With endless perplexity and doubt, Qian Yiduo continued to look forward until he saw the back of the hall, only one person was standing there!

That figure, how much money is extremely familiar!

When he saw that figure, Qian Yiduo immediately showed a wry smile and fear, no wonder he was able to fight one thousand!

It turned out to be him!

The figure Qian Yiduo saw was naturally Lin Kai.

He had already seen Lin Kai's true strength at the Shenling Martial Arts Center this morning, and that kind of strength was beyond the reach of an extraordinary person.

Therefore, it is not surprising that Lin Kai quickly solved the thousands of people he brought.

Chapter 1748 The Auction Will Not Open

At the same time, Qian Yiduo couldn't figure out why Lin Kai came here.

Didn't Lin Kai follow Zhao Yajue and go to Zhao's house with Ye Muqi to treat Zhao Yajue's wife?

And how did his auction house offend Lin Kai?

Qian Yimu is really stunned. He wants to break his head, but he can't think of the reason.

He also regretted it very much, and would not come over if he knew it.

Even if Lin Kai destroyed his auction house, he didn't want to face Lin Kai himself.

When he had more money, he had offended Lin Kai before.

Now that so many people are brought here, I want to teach Lin Kai, isn't this offending more cruel!

Qian Yiduo is also secretly calling himself a fool!

He hadn't realized it before, but now that he thinks about it carefully, it is definitely not easy for one person to beat so many staff in the auction house without fighting back!

Qian Yiduo also knows that his own brother and the staff recruited are all thugs who can fight very well. In this matter, he actually closed one eye.

Just like this, one person can beat dozens of gangsters so badly, there is definitely a background.

At that time, I didn't think too much about the money, I was anxious to go to the auction house to teach.

Where did he think it was Lin Kai!

Qian felt regretful, and stood up quickly, enduring the pain. He ignored the thousands of subordinates who were screaming in pain.

He immediately confronted Lin Kai, pretending to be very surprised, and said with a smile to Lin Kai: "Mr. Lin, what wind brought you here? Aren't you at Zhao's house?"

Lin Kai said lightly: "I have cured Zhao Yajue's wife, and I just ran into my friend who was cheated by this auction. Therefore, I came. But you, could it be said that you are this auction? Okay boss?"

Hearing Lin Kai's words, Qian Yi Duo was shocked in a cold sweat, and his heart was crazy and secretly cursing, these idiots in the auction house, who is not good, they are going to pit Lin Kai's friends!

He also didn't want to admit that he was the real owner of this auction house.

But he has brought so many people here, no matter how stupid he can guess, he called it.

Therefore, Qian Yiduo had to admit embarrassingly, and said embarrassingly: "Lin... Mr. Lin, that one is my property, but it is not my management!"

Lin Kai glanced at Qian Yiduo, and continued to speak lightly, "Oh? That's fine. Since it's your property, you don't mind. I teach these people, right?"

Hearing that, as soon as Qian shook his head, he was like shaking a rattle: "Why don't you mind? It's my friends who want to cheat you. You are taught well! Let them dare to cheat!"

Lin Kai nodded slightly, but he didn't delve into it. The owner of this auction house is very easy to handle because he has a lot of money.

Lin Kai said, "I have already taught these people, as long as you bring my friend's golden Pisces lock, there will be nothing else."

Qian Yiduo immediately waited. The middle-aged man in the suit who fell on the ground snorted: "Hurry up and bring the Pisces golden lock mentioned by Mr. Lin and give it to Mr. Lin!"

The middle-aged man in the suit was also hit on the ground and fell very badly. He saw Qian Yiduo actually treat Lin Kai as politely, as if a mouse saw a cat.

This made the middle-aged man in the suit stunned for an instant, very dumbfounded. He had never seen Lin Kai in Shenling. I can't figure out who this Lin Kai is.

Even if someone from the Zhao family of Shenling came, it wouldn't be enough to make money so much.

Qian Yiduo saw the middle-aged man in the suit and didn't respond to him. Instead, he was so stunned that he was greatly annoyed. He immediately rushed forward and kicked the middle-aged man in the suit.

The middle-aged man in the suit had suffered a serious injury. Even if the money was not strong enough, this step still caused the middle-aged man in the suit to scream.

Soon, the middle-aged man in a suit fully awoke.

However, he got up with difficulty and went to get the Pisces golden lock.

When the Pisces Golden Lock was taken by the middle-aged man in the suit.

Qian Yiduo first slapped and slapped the middle-aged man in a suit fiercely, and sneered coldly: "What eyes do you have! Even Mr. Lin's friends dare to cheat! And he did this kind of detrimental thing! It's impossible to find death??"

How can a middle-aged man in a suit dare to refute anything? After all, it was his fault from beginning to end. If he hadn't broken the blue and white porcelain vase, he didn't want to be responsible for the guests. Then he happened to see He Shiyun, took the Pisces Golden Lock and moved directly into greed.

I wanted to use the price of the Pisces Golden Lock to make up for the loss of the blue and white porcelain vase. If He Shiyun had money, he would lose more money. Isn't it beautiful that he has the extra money?

He did not expect that he kicked the real iron directly like this! Don't even dare to mess with too much money!

As a result, the middle-aged man in this suit, even if he was screamed by Qian Yiduo, he nodded and bowed his waist and said: "Patriarch Qian! Blame me! Blame me! I did something wrong! I dare not do it next time!"

"Next time? Get out!"

Qian Yiduo was really angry. While holding the Pisces gold lock in the hands of the middle-aged man in the suit, he slapped the middle-aged man in the suit and said coldly: "Hurry up and apologize to Mr. Lin and his friends!"

"Yes Yes Yes!"

Upon hearing this, the middle-aged man in this suit immediately apologized to Lin Kai and He Shiyun.

Qian Yiduo saw the middle-aged man in the suit and apologized dryly, saying: "Did you stand up and apologize like this?"

Hearing Qian Yimu's words, the middle-aged man in the suit was startled, and then he realized what he meant. He knelt down again and apologized to Lin Kai and He Shiyun again.

At the same time, Qian Yiduo personally delivered the Pisces Golden Lock to Lin Kai.

Lin Kai took the Pisces Golden Lock, then saw Qian Yiduo's panic and fear, and the apology of the middle-aged man in the suit.

Although he knew that the apology of the middle-aged man in the suit was hypocritical, but he didn't pursue any further, after all, the Pisces Golden Lock was still there.

He faintly said to the middle-aged man in the suit: "Get out!"

"Go away! Go away!"

The middle-aged man in the suit was already scared and soon disappeared here.

And as soon as the money left was too much, he was very embarrassed. He couldn't help but once again to Lin Kai, bowing his hands to see him: "Hehe, Mr. Lin, it happened that you came here, and I also apologize to you. In the morning at Shenlingwu When I was in the museum, I said that because of the competition, no wonder, no wonder!

In addition, this kind of thing is caused by my men. Well, it's almost noon. Can Mr. Lin move to the best hotel room here, so that I can apologize."

Lin Kai said lightly: “No, besides, what do you want from the auction house?”

“No! This auction house won’t open!” Qian Yiduo quickly responded.

Chapter 1749 Ancient City On Clouds

Lin Kai was very satisfied with Qian Yiduo’s answer, at least this shows that Qian Yiduo is the kind of person who can choose.

However, he has no interest in opening this auction house. He just said indifferently: “Where is Patriarch Qian, I’m just talking about it. This is your property, and you have the final say. But I want to remind you. , Your industry has to be reorganized, otherwise, don’t open it.”

Qian Yiduo naturally understood what Lin Kai meant by rectification.

In fact, as soon as you know how much money you have, something like this will happen. Because his younger brother, the staff of the auction house arranged by him, from top to bottom, are gangsters. How can these people do business?

Sure enough, something happened now, it’s not an ordinary thing!

Qian Yi thought about this, and quickly responded: “It will definitely be rectified!”

Lin Kai nodded and continued: “Okay, since Patriarch Qian is so enthusiastic, let’s have a meal together.”

Afterwards, Lin Kai handed the Pisces Golden Lock to He Shiyun, so that He Shiyun should not be so anxious to pay him back. He was not short of this money.

He Shiyun was very moved and said that he would not sell this Pisces gold lock, and would take it with him.

Then Lin Kai took He Shiyun and followed Qian Yi to go to the hotel for dinner.

Anyway, it’s already noon, and they all want to eat. Air tickets are booked in the afternoon. Since the money is too much to entertain guests, it is not worth going.

In this way, after eating a meal.

Lin Kai and He Shiyun returned to the hotel where they were staying and began to pack their luggage.

Then the plane ticket will fly to a city in Guangling City.

This city is quite partial, but it’s really close to Shenling, and it only takes an hour and a half to arrive by plane.

But if you want to go to Yunshang Ancient City, you have to transfer to a bus when you get to this city.

Because Yunshang Ancient City is an ancient city located in a remote mountainous area.

So it can be preserved, the ancient city is intact.

In recent years, it has only been developed into a tourist attraction. This ancient city of Yunshang has many tourists coming throughout the year.

At this time, Lin Kai and He Shiyun were in the bus to the ancient city of Yunshang.

On each bus, there is a tour guide who introduces the ancient city of Yunshang.

If you need a tour guide, just contact it in the car. When you wait for the place, the tour guide will lead you to play.

At this time, the tour guide on this bus introduced the people in the bus and said: "The ancient city of Yunshang was an ancient city in the Jin Dynasty two thousand years ago. The complete ancient city buildings are preserved here. At the same time, there are also various This kind of relics and all kinds of peculiar landscapes are breathtaking."

The tour guide in the car was talking endlessly about various attractions and the like.

But I didn't go into details, but gave a brief introduction. Then, after finishing speaking, add one sentence, if you want to get a better understanding, you can wait to get off the bus and contact the tour guide.

He Shiyun shook her head when she heard the tour guide's words. She was on the window seat next to Lin Kai.

He Shiyun took out his mobile phone, opened the map, and seemed to be marking something, and then said to Lin Kai: "The tour guides here are actually from the same company. They are very tricky. The first time I came, I was tricked. Afterwards. If you learn to be smart, you can study the various cheap and cost-effective routes in the ancient city of Yunshang.

Mr. Lin, I personally think that there are four places in Yunshang Ancient City that are worth visiting. One is the Fairy Cave. According to legend, there used to be fairies living there. Whether it was a place where immortals once lived, I don't know, but the scenery there is really amazing. What are the other four places on the horizon, Luoche Temple, and Tianyuan. In terms of eating, there are also unique cuisines.

I have to say that He Shiyun is more professional than the tour guide. Next, He Shiyun is constantly explaining this ancient city on Yunshang to Lin Kai.

Lin Kai listened with great interest, but he didn't come to Yunshang Ancient City to travel.

Not only to complete the mysterious task given by the system, but also to help An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng solve an urgent task here.

According to An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng, the evil spirits appearing in this ancient city on the cloud seemed very powerful.

Therefore, An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng wanted to let Lin Kai go there if he had time.

Of course, if it can be resolved smoothly, there is still extra time.

Lin Kai was also willing to walk around with He Shiyun in this ancient city on the clouds.

But He Shiyun continued to introduce Lin Kai.

He Shiyun was very grateful to Lin Kai for giving him such a detailed introduction. If it hadn't been for Lin Kai's help several times, she would not know what to do.

So naturally, with the most patient and detailed mentality, he will be a personal guide for Lin Kai.

On the opposite right, there was a man with braids. At first, he occasionally turned his head to look at He Shiyun, and then he squinted unscrupulously, staring at He Shiyun.

The man with braids has his hair dyed fancy, and beside the man with braids, there is a man with tattoos.

The two knew each other, and at first glance they were the kind of social gangsters.

When the two of them first got on the bus, they noticed He Shiyun. He Shiyun was the only one on the bus, which made them both shine.

So that, whether it is the man with braids or the man with tattoos, he is now looking at He Shiyun with a squint.

Moreover, Lin Kai sometimes got in there, making them very angry.

Especially when he was approaching the ancient city of Yunshang, the man with the braids was a little anxious, he still wanted to strike up a conversation with He Shiyun.

It's almost here, and he can't manage that much.

The braided man took the seat belt off his body. As soon as he stood up, he was reminded by the front guide, "This mountain road is quite curved, please take your seat."

The man with pigtails was immediately embarrassed, but he bit the bullet and said, "I want to change positions with someone."

After speaking, the man with braids walked directly to Lin Kai's side.

Then he said to Lin Kai, "Brother, I'll give you twenty yuan, how about changing positions with you?"

He Shiyun heard this man with braids say so, and didn't introduce Lin Kai anymore. How could she not know what the man with braids did?

After all, she has encountered it too many times.

In the past, He Shiyun would be very annoying, but now it is different. With Lin Kai by her side, she is very relieved.

Even He Shiyun wanted to remind this man with braids, don't irritate Lin Kai, once you provoke Lin Kai, the consequences will be very miserable.

Of course, for this kind of person, she naturally doesn't bother to remind anything.

Chapter 1750 You Can Give It A Try

At this time, Lin Kai didn't even want to lift his eyelids and looked at the man with the braids. He directly said, "Please go back."

The meaning is clear, and it doesn't change positions or anything.

The man with the braids reluctantly said: "Brother, for the sake of face, twenty yuan is not enough, only fifty yuan. And this is also about to reach the ancient city of Yunshang? Anyway, it will not be long, just Change location."

The man with pigtails is so anxious to change positions, mainly in the car, the beauty can't run, so good space to strike up a chat.

If you really arrive at the ancient city of Yunshang, let's not say that the beauty is gone soon. If he has been following the beauty, if the beauty says that he is a gangster or something, it will be finished.

As a result, the man with braids kept talking to Lin Kai about changing positions and so on.

The most important thing is that the braided man can see that Lin Kai and He Shiyun are not couples, which makes him so.

The braided man Jian Lin Kai didn't speak, gritted his teeth and then cruelly, took out a red banknote, handed it to Lin Kai, and said, "Brother, that's interesting. You will accept this one hundred dollars. , This is more than the ticket for this bus."

In the eyes of the man with pigtails, Lin Kai would definitely accept the money.

Because of the eyesight of the braided man, this kid was dressed up and down for only two to three hundred yuan. Naturally, he felt that Lin Hui took the money and changed positions with him.

Lin Kai didn't pay attention directly. The braided man first looked at He Shiyun, and then said to He Shiyun: "Shiyun, do you have cash in your bag? All you need is a red one."

Upon hearing Lin Kai's words, He Shiyun immediately took out a red banknote from his bag and gave it to Lin Kai.

After Lin Kai took over, he gave the red banknotes to the man with the braids, and said lightly: "I have one hundred. Please take the money back, please don't make noises in my ears."

This braided man looked very embarrassed for an instant, which was clearly provoking him.

The man with the braids naturally didn't ask for it. Lin Kai gave the hundred yuan. If he really took it, he wouldn't let the people nearby give a joke, how to strike up a conversation with He Shiyun.

On the contrary, the man with braids sneered at Lin Kai: "Boy, I am worthy of you for a hundred of you. You are so hard to talk. Believe it or not, I just shot you and beat you to the ground.

The passengers nearby saw the man with braids, and he was very uncomfortable at first sight, so they couldn't help but persuade Lin Kai.

"Young man, just change positions with him, lest you suffer."

"Yeah, I'll change my position in a big deal, and I'm almost there."

"That's it, it's okay to change positions."

Lin Kai looked at the passengers nearby, they were all the kind of men who were afraid of this braided man.

He shook his head and faintly said, "You still don't see the purpose of this person? You obviously want to disturb my friend. If you think about it, you want your friends to be disturbed like this?"

Hearing Lin Kai's words, most people were silent. Indeed, if they encountered this incident, they would definitely reject it like Lin Kai, even if they were facing someone who seemed to be unable to offend.

However, there was a middle-aged aunt who spoke very speechlessly and said: "Young man, you are afraid that you have not experienced the severe beatings of the society, this kind of person is still unattainable. What's more, in broad daylight, you can't do anything to your friends. You just give in and change positions without losing anything. On the contrary, if you refuse like this now, you will be miserable."

The words of this middle-aged aunt won the approval of some people.

Just at this time, the tour guide at the front had noticed the situation here.

The tour guide continued, and the man with braids said: "You are going to enter a tunnel ahead. The road is steep. Please sit back and fasten your seat belt to avoid accidents."

The man with braids, hearing this, was afraid that he would wait to enter the tunnel and then have an accident.

Therefore, the braided man stared at Lin Kai unwillingly, and then said cruelly: "Boy! You have a seed! Anyway, when you arrive at the ancient city of Yunshang, you will wait for me. You will be beautiful.!"

"Oh? Really?"

Lin Kai's expression was calm, and he faintly responded, "You can give it a try."

Hearing Lin Kai's expression and tone made the man with braids even more embarrassed.

The man with pigtailed ignored Lin Kai no longer, but with a fierce look, after staring at Lin Kai, he returned to his seat.

The passengers nearby, especially the middle-aged aunt, shook his head at Lin Kai, seeming to think that Lin Kai was completely ignorant of good and bad, and was just waiting for the consequences.

Before long, the bus entered the tunnel.

The tour guide said there, after passing through this tunnel, you can reach the ancient city of Yunshang for about one mile.

Sure enough, after a few minutes, the bus drove into the range of Yunshang Ancient City.

I have to say that this ancient city on Yunshang is indeed very shocking. The perfect preservation of the ancient buildings shows how powerful the wisdom of the ancients is.

This ancient city of Yunshang has also become an Internet celebrity attraction, and young people from all over the country also like to run here to check in.

So no matter what season, the ancient city of Yunshang is full of tourists.

In addition to tourists, there are also a large number of merchants and aborigines.

It can be said that although the ancient city of Yunshang is very remote, it is as prosperous as a third-tier city.

This is already very amazing. After all, the ancient city of Yunshang is in a remote mountainous area, and the ancient city of Yunshang is not that big. In fact, it feels like a big county.

After Lin Kai and He Shiyun got off the bus, they came to a famous street here called Changqing Ancient Street.

It is said that this ancient Changqing Street is the original street when this ancient city was just built.

To put it simply, before the construction of this ancient city, there was a small, more ancient city, which became a ruined wall.

Then on this ruined wall, this ancient city on Yunshang was built.

Of course, no one has ever verified this, because archaeologists can't find out which year the Changqing Ancient Street is.

Nowadays, Changqing Ancient Street is quite prosperous, with various shops selling special things or snacks here.

He Shiyun was very familiar with this place, so he led Lin Kai and started walking around this ancient Changqing Street.

Lin Kai began to contact An Xiaoran and Master Zhicheng.

Suddenly, He Shiyun whispered to Lin Kai: "Mr. Lin, the man in the car and his partner kept following us."
