

Special Forces 1841

Chapter 1841 Forced Mountaineering

Lin Kai opened his eyes, only to find that Tang Ying was waiting anxiously.

Tang Ying saw Lin Kai wake up, overjoyed, and hurriedly said, "Something happened!"

Lin Kai frowned and asked softly, "What happened?"

Tang Ying looked at Lin Kai in surprise, and said, "You caused it yourself. When you set up the formation just now, it burst into light."

"Now I am afraid that all the ancient warriors in the East China Sea are rushing here."

At this moment, there was a loud noise and even screams from the bottom of the mountain.

Tang Ying's complexion changed, showing a frightened expression: "My man was attacked."

Lin Kai's expression was solemn, and he said solemnly: "Go and see."

Lin Xinli also showed a trace of anger, although he was protected by the five great kings secretly, he was not afraid of someone attacking him.

However, people in the Tang family were injured because of him, and Lin Kai was gracious.

Lin Kai turned around and said, "Disperse in all directions and stop those who are going up the mountain. The first warning, if you don't listen to advice, just kill!"

"Yes!"

Five figures appeared in the void, and they scattered and left.

"Another powerful guard?"

Tang Ying looked at the figure running to the distance like lightning, and couldn't help being surprised.

This body technique is much stronger than that of Uncle, and I'm afraid it's no match for the second uncle.

However, Tang Ying could feel that the aura of that thin figure was not much stronger than her.

Lin Kai and Tang Ying sullen their faces and rushed to the noisy place.

To the east of the summit of Dongxian Mountain, the Tang family's guards were blocking the intersection of the mountain, facing a group of people.

That group of people is not a group of people, but divided into several forces.

However, looking at the current situation, they have all united and threatened the Tang family to give way.

The Tang family guards here, as if facing a big enemy, extremely vigilant and angry.

Behind him, there is a guard with a face like golden paper, blood spilling from the corner of his mouth, and his back leaning on a boulder.

Many of the Tang family's guards looked firm, and said angrily: "Again, this is a private domain. Entry is forbidden!"

"Fuck your mother's shit! This is Dongxian Mountain in our Donghai Province. It has a * relationship with your overseas Tang family!"

"Yes, you are just outsiders. Do you want to dominate our East China Sea?"

"I advise you to get out of the way, or he will be your fate!"

On the opposite side, many ancient warriors who went up the mountain sneered and went back.

If it was normal, they really wouldn't dare to provoke the Tang family.

But now, there are many forces going up the mountain, and they don't believe that the Tang family dares to fight everyone!

A young man stood at the forefront of the crowd. He shook a folding fan and looked like a gentleman.

However, that pretentious action is very shameless.

The young man slapped the fan a few times, stepped forward, and said indifferently: "I am Hu Haosong from the Hu family, so please give me a face to the Hu family and let me go. Don't force me to do it anymore."

The Tang family's guard looked angry, with a trace of contempt in his eyes, and sneered, "What is the Hu family! If it wasn't for you to attack Tang Niu, it's you, and you still want to hurt him?"

Just now, when the Tang family guards were blocking the crowd, Hu Haosong unexpectedly made a move and wounded Tang Niu.

If it were not for fear of causing greater chaos, the Tang family would never forgive Hu Haosong.

"Tsk, Mr. Hu, the people of the Tang family despise you."

Someone laughed secretly, watching Hu Haosong's joke.

Hu Haosong's face was flushed. He came in but wanted to show off, so he couldn't be suppressed like that.

Hu Haosong said loudly: "Everyone, since the Tang family refuses to let go, then we will rush forward!"

"Dare you?"

The people of the Tang family immediately widened their eyes and looked at them fiercely.

The people on the other side were a little hairy when they saw them, and suddenly hesitated.

"Fuck, a bunch of trash!"

Hu Haosong cursed secretly and continued to bewitched: "The Tang family is so nervous, there must be treasures present on the mountain. If they don't pass, the treasures will be stolen by the Tang family!"

"Everyone, this is our treasure in the East China Sea. You can't let the overseas Tang family take it away!"

After hearing Hu Haosong's words, everyone thought of the bright golden light again, and a greedy look appeared on their faces.

Everyone was ready to move again.

"Give you another fire!"

Hu Haosong sneered, then suddenly slapped the Tang family guard with a palm of his hand.

The Tang family's guards had already guarded against the villain Hu Haosong, how could it be possible for him to succeed in a sneak attack again.

He ran the exercises and blasted Hu Haosong with a punch.

"boom"

Unexpectedly, when the two of them had just touched, Hu Haosong's expression changed and he screamed loudly.

Hu Haosong screamed and flew out, as if he was punched out of the crowd by the guard.

"Damn it, the Tang family actually hurt Young Master Hu. Come on, everyone!"

When everyone saw Hu Haosong's miserable appearance, they thought he had been seriously injured by the Tang family's guards.

He rushed forward with a face full of anger, and fought with the people of the Tang family.

In an instant, the scene was completely out of control and a war broke out.

Outside the crowd, Hu Haosong lay on the ground, and saw that the two sides finally started fighting, showing a dark smile.

He looked at the Tang family guard who was embarrassed to resist everyone, and sneered in his heart, "Do you dare to look down on me?"

There were too many people present, and after a moment of confrontation, some people began to bleed and injured.

The Tang family's guards only resisted at first, but after seeing their own people injured, they finally became angry.

"Brothers, give some color to the mob!"

When the Tang family guards heard this, they finally no longer tolerated and fully displayed their strength.

At this moment, the people were shocked to discover that all the Tang family's guards turned out to be martial artists.

It was the turn of the people to go up the mountain to cry for their fathers and mothers, and they were so terribly beaten.

After seeing this scene, Hu Haosong was not only not nervous, but very excited.

"Hey, hit it, it's better to kill someone!"

Hu Haosong smiled sinisterly, showing a smile of conspiracy.

Just when everyone was defeated by the Tang family guards, there were forces under the mountain to rush over.

"What's the situation, how did the fight start?"

The people who just came up were a little confused.

Hu Haosong narrowed his eyes, took a bite of blood, and shouted:

"It's from the Tang family. They look down on our people in Donghai Province, saying that we are all rubbish. They also injured our people. They want to monopolize the treasure on the top of Dongxian Mountain."

When they heard the first few sentences, those people could still keep calm.

But when he heard that the Tang family wanted to monopolize the treasure, everyone was not calm now.

"Huh, the mere Tang family dare to fight our entire Donghai Province?"

"His grandma, * them to death!"

The Tang family's guards can only cry without tears. When did they say that they would fight the entire Donghai Province?

As more and more opponents went up the mountain, the Tang family's guards gradually couldn't stand it.

At this time, a loud shout came.

"Stop it all!"

Chapter 1842

Lin Kai let out a clear howl, like a big bird leaping over.

He uses his spiritual power, his hands are like playing a pipa, and silk threads are wrapped around the crowd, pulling toward both sides.

"what?"

Before everyone could react, they felt a huge force and pulled them back.

Amidst bursts of exclamation, Lin Kai fell between the two forces.

Lin Kai first glanced at the Tang family's guards and found that they were only slightly injured, and then he was relieved.

Lin Kai turned around, looked at the crowd with sharp eyes, and said coldly, "Do you really think I dare not kill people?"

"Huh, why say this is your villa." Someone whispered.

Lin Kai smirked and sneered: "Why, do I still have to prove that my home is my home?"

"Stop talking nonsense, I only know that there are treasures born on the mountain, I think you want to swallow it alone!" The voice sounded again.

"Who is talking, hide your head and show your tail." Lin Kai's expression changed and he shouted angrily: "Come out for me!"

"Haha, are you angry from embarrassment?"

That voice flickered in the crowd, making it impossible to tell who was speaking.

"Do you think I can't do anything about it like this?"

A golden light flashed through Lin Kai's eyes, and he pushed out in one direction.

An explosive force suddenly appeared, separating the crowd violently, revealing a young man, this person is Hu Haosong.

"How can it be?"

Hu Haosong was dumbfounded. His unique sound transmission technique could not allow people to locate the direction of his voice.

Lin Kai locked him in an instant.

"Mouse, come over to me!"

Lin Kai's palm was in the shape of a dragon's claw, and a suction force was generated, slamming Hu Haosong's body.

Hu Haosong looked panicked and was sucked in by the powerful suction.

"Go on, why don't you say it?"

Lin Kai grabbed Hu Haosong's neck and looked at him coldly.

Hu Haosong's face flushed red, and he struggled constantly, but he couldn't fight Lin Kai's powerful force at all.

"Mr. Lin, it was he who attacked us just now, and then provoked us, and then the battle broke out!"

The Tang family guard pointed at Hu Haosong and said angrily.

Lin Kai narrowed his eyes and asked in a cold voice, "Why are you doing this?"

Hu Haosong looked dejected and said dejectedly: "I just want to get the treasure on the top of the mountain. Only by gathering the power of everyone can we defeat the obstacle of the Tang family."

Lin Kai frowned. There was no problem at first hearing what Hu Haosong said, but Lin Kai always felt something was wrong.

Lin Kai wanted to say something more, suddenly the mountain shook, and violent waves of terror came from another direction.

"A great master has taken action!"

Lin Kai's pupils shrank, and he felt strange.

"It's my second uncle!"

Tang Ying looked panicked, she could feel her second uncle actually dealing with two great masters.

Her second uncle's breath clearly fell in the wind.

"Even the great master came, why did you hand it over?"

Everyone looked blank and looked in that direction.

Those terrible fluctuations made them frightened.

The clouds in the sky seemed to be torn apart.

Hu Haosong's mouth showed a weird smile, and when Lin Kai seemed to notice it, his expression turned bitter.

"Brother Lin, you should let me go. Don't intensify the conflict anymore. Are you going to fight the entire Donghai Province?"

Hu Haosong seemed to be exhorting, but there was a faint threat in his tone.

"Just because you are worthy to represent Donghae Province?"

Lin Kai's eyes showed a trace of disdain, and a burst of spiritual power hit Hu Haosong's dantian.

Hu Haosong's eyes bulged suddenly, and a mouthful of blood spurted out.

Hu Haosong slumped on the ground, incredible, and said desperately: "My dantian is broken?"

Hu Haosong looked resentful and shouted: "Lin Kai, you are so cruel! You broke my dantian!"

Lin Kai looked at him indifferently, and said coldly: "Dare to confuse people and attack my villa. This is what you deserve."

Lin Kai turned his head and ordered: "Tie him!"

Lin Kai held down the anxious Tang Ying and said in a deep voice, "Don't go over there, it's too dangerous over there. I'll go over by myself!"

Tang Ying bit her red lips and begged: "Lin Kai, you must save my second uncle."

Lin Kai said solemnly: "Don't worry!"

"Also...you have to be careful too!" Tang Ying said softly.

Lin Kai smiled slightly, then sprinted away.

At this time, everyone on the scene stopped climbing forcibly.

They also realized something was wrong and seemed to be used as guns.

The timid, he secretly went down the mountain.

The courageous, they also went to the place of horrible fluctuations.

As soon as Lin Kai just approached the place of battle, waves of terror spread.

The raging Qi machine wiped out layers of powder on the stone walls of Dongxian Mountain.

Lin Kai turned his eyesight and looked at the battlefield.

The scene was divided into two battlefields, one of which was a battle between Tang Shui and three master-level masters.

One of them turned out to be the second child of the Lin family, Lin Hu.

The other two are middle-aged men.

Lin Kai had never seen him before, and he was also a master of the pinnacle.

Tang Shui faced off against three master pinnacle masters alone, already showing defeat.

It is estimated that before long, he will be killed.

Compared to the battlefield on the other side, their battles are like children fighting.

There was thick smoke billowing, flying sand and rocks, and powerful qi burst out wantonly, causing the surrounding space to vibrate.

The fighting situation inside couldn't be seen clearly, Lin Kai turned his eyesight to discover that one of them was Tang Feng, and the other was not surprisingly Lin Hong, the head of the Lin family, and a great master-level old man.

At this time, they were teaming up to fight Tang Feng, with murderous faces and deadly moves.

There were more than a dozen people watching the battle beside them, but they didn't make a move.

At this time, the five great * kings also rushed over.

Lin Kai breathed a sigh of relief, and said in a deep voice, "You go and help Tang's uncle."

"Yes, son!"

The five * kings moved and rushed over.

"It's Lin Kai's guard!"

Tang Shui's eyes saw the arrival of the five great kings, and finally heaved a sigh of relief.

When the three of them saw the arrival of the five great kings, their offensive became more intense.

Even paid some price and released powerful moves.

They seemed to have to kill Tang Shui.

Tang Shui lost to the enemy immediately, spouting a few mouthfuls of blood, and was severely injured.

Tang Shui was frightened and angered, a little puzzled in his eyes.

Why do these people have to put him to death?

"Huh, want to kill in front of me?"

Shushen Shi Xiaoqian let out a cold snort and directly activated the power of the Rabbit Charm.

The speed that was already amazing, suddenly became several times faster.

He directly surpassed the Four Great God Kings and came to Tang Shui's side.

He picked up Tang Shui and rushed to the outside of the battlefield.

However, the opponents are three master-level pinnacle masters after all.

The aftermath of the move still hit the body of Speed God.

"puff"

Sushen's face flushed, and he spit out a mouthful of blood.

For the first time, the four great kings exploded with strong anger.

"Do you want to die!"

Chapter 1843 Black Dragon Suit Appears

Under the anger of the four great gods, they directly cast the power of the spell, besieging the three masters of the pinnacle.

This is a power that is different from the ancient martial arts in this world. They are stronger and weirder.

As soon as he handed over, the three pinnacle masters fell into a disadvantage.

"These are Lin Kai's four major guards. I didn't expect to be so strong, even fighting against the three pinnacle grandmasters, and not falling into the wind."

"I don't know what internal skills these people have cultivated, they are curious about their special power."

The onlookers were amazed.

After Lin Kai saw that the situation was under control, he rushed directly to another battlefield.

Lin Kai flickered twice before reaching the edge of the battlefield.

The Qi machine here is already very terrifying, ordinary pinnacle masters standing here will be injured.

The wind howled, making Lin Kai's clothes hunt and hunt.

Lin Kai stood by, watching the Tang Feng defeated by Lin Hong and a great master elder.

Fortunately, Tang Feng's techniques seemed to be good at defense. For a while, the two of them couldn't completely defeat Tang Feng.

Lin Kai frowned and shouted coldly: "Uncle Lin, and this senior, please stop!"

Lin Hong just glanced at Lin Kai, not only did not stop, but the shot became sharper.

The old man even sneered, "Where's the little baby, go away!"

Lin Kai's eyes darkened slightly, a trace of anger appeared in his eyes, and he said coldly: "Since you don't stop, don't blame me for disrespecting the elders!"

"Huntian Jue!"

Lin Kai turned his hands in the void, and the strong spirit on the mountain fell into his hands like a bird returning to the forest.

A terrifying wave slowly formed between Lin Kai's hands, as if it were an invisible big ball.

Lin Kai pushed with both hands, the invisible giant ball swayed and flew over Lin Hong and the old man's head.

"What is this?"

The pupils of the two great masters shrank, and at the same time they violently retreated behind.

They all felt the tremendous power of the energy ball.

"Humph."

Lin Kai's expression was cold, since he had already made a move, it was impossible to give up halfway.

The energy ball flew to the top of their heads at a faster speed, and slammed their heads down.

This smash looked light and fluttering on the surface, but Lin Hong and the old man's complexion changed wildly, and they felt that the energy ball seemed to be as thick as a mountain.

The falling of the energy ball was like a mountain falling down and hitting them.

"Can't hide it!"

Lin Hong and the old man glanced at each other and slapped them at the same time.

A violent air current blasted out of their palms, like the breath of a jet.

Several powerful energies collided with each other, and with a bang, a loud thunder exploded directly on the ground.

The entire Dongxian Mountain seemed to tremble, huge rocks billowed, and thick smoke filled it.

Several cracks spread out for dozens of meters from the feet of the two great masters.

“Damn, you can’t fight anymore. Otherwise, my home will be gone!”

Lin Kai’s brows trembled, feeling that if he fought a few more times, the entire hill would be leveled.

The people around also recovered from this shaking. They couldn’t help taking a breath as they watched the scene.

“Is this something humans can do?”

The crowd looked at Lin Kai in amazement.

A very gloomy look appeared in the eyes of several people. Why is Lin Kai so strong?

They didn’t know that this was the biggest trick Lin Kai could play now.

If you try again, his fake pill is in danger of exploding.

Fortunately, his shot finally stopped the two great masters.

“Boy, you are very strong.”

The great master looked at Lin Kai with scorching eyes, and there was a hint of war intent in his eyes.

Lin Kai’s eyes were cold, and he said coldly, “Everyone, do you want to live with me?”

The old man didn’t care about Lin Kai’s threat at all, he laughed and said, “I’m not going to die? That’s a good way to fight.”

Lin Kai raised his eyebrows and asked faintly: “It seems that Senior is a martial idiot?”

The old man stroked his beard, exuding arrogance, and said loudly: “Old Master Lei Qiankuang, who has been fighting for decades, can he become a master of martial arts!”

Lin Kai said coldly: “The so-called fighting to raise a war is to join forces with others and fight one person?”

At this moment, Tang Feng also swept to Lin Kai’s side, cooperating with Lin Kai and said, “But so!”

Lei Qiankuang’s face blushed, and he didn’t know what to say.

At this time, Lin Hong stood up and said slightly, “Nephew, you can’t say that. We just want to go up the mountain and he blocks us, so don’t blame us for doing it!”

Lin Kai’s eyes were cold, and he said coldly: “I don’t know Uncle Lin, the mountain is my private domain. Entering without notice is for a thief!”

“Uncle Lin, is this a habit that the branch Lin’s family got only when they came to the East China Sea?”

“Your territory?” Lin Hong frowned.

Lin Kai pointed to the villa on the mountain and said lightly: “That is my villa.”

Lin Hong also fell silent this time, not knowing what to say.

Lin Yun shook his folding fan and walked up, smiling slightly: "It turned out to be the private domain of Brother Lin Kai. If I had known it a long time ago, there would be no misunderstanding."

Lin Yun asked curiously: "Everyone is attracted because of the golden light in the sky. I don't know what happened?"

Everyone at the scene flashed their eyes and looked at Lin Kai one after another.

Lin Kai said lightly, "It's just fireworks, are you all making a fuss?"

"..."

Everyone was speechless, the bright golden light carried a very mysterious atmosphere, how could it be fireworks.

Lin Yun shook his head embarrassedly, and sighed, "Brother Lin Kai, I'm afraid you can't convince everyone with this statement!"

Lin Kai opened his eyes slightly, glanced at everyone, and said lightly: "You are all villains, what qualifications do I have to convince you?"

Lin Yun pointed his fan and said softly, "Brother Lin Kai, there are so many masters in the East China Sea here, don't you give them an explanation?"

Lin Kaisui looked all around, with a trace of disdain in his eyes, he sneered: "The people of the chickens and dogs, what do you want to explain."

Lin Yun was stunned. He didn't expect Lin Kai to be so merciless.

At this time, everyone present could no longer stand.

There were dozens of people present, and the ancient martial artists with the weakest cultivation base were all peak martial sages.

Which one is not the overlord of one party.

Now Lin Kai actually said that they were chicken dogs.

"Lin Kai, what are you talking about?"

"Do you look down on our martial arts world in Donghae Province?"

The crowd was filled with indignation, and one after another angrily denounced.

"Shut up all to me!"

Lin Kai took a step forward, and his whole body exploded wantonly, stunned everyone except the great masters present.

Even Lin Yun couldn't bear the pressure on Lin Kai's body, and he took a step back with flushing face.

"hateful!"

Lin Yun's face flushed, and extreme unwillingness and jealousy emerged in the depths of his eyes.

"Seven days later, the underground martial arts conference." Lin Kai scolded angrily: "Whoever refuses to accept it, just come to me."

"Now, get out of my territory!"

Chapter 1844

"It's really unreasonable!"

The crowd was furious, but after seeing Lin Kai's terrifying power just now, they didn't dare to step forward.

They could only look at Lin Hong and Lei Qiankang.

Lin Hong frowned, his body motionless.

Lei Qiankuang also sneered and looked at Lin Kai.

When everyone saw that the two great masters did not leave, they seemed to have confidence and stood still.

Lin Hong said calmly: "Lin Kai, if you don't give us an explanation today, we will not leave."

Lin Kai nodded, his eyes were already indifferent.

"The black dragon suit is out!"

Lin Kai let out a soft groan, and a brilliant golden light burst out from his body.

A set of black dragon armor appeared out of thin air, draped on his body.

Lin Kai seemed to be an ancient heavy cavalry, armed to the teeth.

He took a black dragon's chopping knife in his hand.

After Lin Kai was fully equipped, he slowly raised his long knife.

"Om"

Between heaven and earth, there was a roar.

The endless aura in the void swarmed.

They rushed into the long knife in Lin Kai's hand like a tide.

"boom"

The void shook violently, and Lin Kai seemed to have become a god, ignoring them in the void.

"Since you are not leaving, then you all stay."

Waves of strong spiritual power fluctuated like waves, rushing to everyone one after another.

The first wave made all Wu Sheng Qi back;

The second wave made all the masters retreat together;

In the third wave, the expressions of the two great masters changed wildly, and they took a step back.

Seeing that the long knife in Lin Kai's hand was raised higher and higher, it would be cut down at any time.

This time, all the faces changed.

Those Martial Saints turned around and ran away without saying a word.

They couldn't even bear the aftermath of the power of this knife.

The grand masters also changed wildly, and their hearts retreated.

Lei Qiankuang couldn't get up anymore, his expression changed a few times, and he exclaimed: "Kid Lin Kai, underground martial arts conference, the old man is waiting for you to fight!"

After speaking, he turned into a ghostly light and left directly along the mountain road.

Lin Hong took a deep look at Lin Kai and said in a deep voice, "Let's go too!"

Since the two great masters had both retreated, the remaining masters naturally did not dare to stay, and left one after another in embarrassment.

Lin Kai breathed a sigh of relief when everyone was leaving.

He put away the black dragon suit and wiped a handful of non-existent sweat.

"Lin Kai, you are so strong!"

Tang Feng stepped forward, his face full of shock.

Just now, Lin Kai's aura surpassed all the great masters and faintly touched the edge of Tao.

Lin Kai smiled bitterly, did not hide Tang Feng, and said, "Uncle Tang, I couldn't cut it out with the knife just now."

"It turned out to be so."

Tang Feng suddenly felt that when he recalled now, he could also feel that Lin Kai's momentum was insufficient.

Tang Feng frowned and said, "In this way, those two great masters will also know that you are bluffing."

Lin Kai smiled and said, "It's okay, they are now faceless and come back. Seven days later, I have my own way to deal with them."

Tang Feng frowned and asked, "Lin Kai, have you noticed something wrong?"

Just now, I just blocked it a little bit, and the two great masters went to death without saying a word. I asked myself if I had not offended them, which is somewhat unreasonable."

Lin Kai's eyes were deep, and he muttered to himself: "The mountains and rain are coming and the wind is full!"

Tang Feng's expression was condensed, and his heart was very heavy.

The Tang family is not so much about returning to China for development, it is more about fleeing.

If in the country, they are all enemies of the world, is there still a place for the Tang family to live in that day and earth?

Tang Feng swept his eyes slightly and looked at the young man in front of him.

He sighed in his heart, and it seemed that the Tang family was about to completely tie up this young man.

"Uncle, Lin Kai. Are you all right?"

At this moment, Tang Ying led his subordinates running over.

She first looked at Tang Feng and found that he was not injured, and those beautiful eyes fell on Lin Kai, showing a worried look.

Tang Feng opened his mouth, just about to say that it was okay, only to find that Tang Ying didn't care about him.

Tang Ying's thoughts were completely put on Lin Kai's body.

"Smelly girl, they are fine. It is the old man who is in trouble!"

Tang Shui's face was a little pale, and he walked over slowly.

"Aber, are you hurt?"

Tang Feng and Tang Shui looked at Tang Shui worriedly.

Tang Shui smiled and shook his head, and said to Lin Kai with a fist, "Thank you today for Mr. Lin's guards for your rescue, otherwise my old life will be confessed."

Lin Kai looked apologetic, and said apologetically, "It was all the trouble that caused me today. That caused the two seniors to be injured."

Lin Kai looked serious and said solemnly: "Don't worry, I will definitely seek justice in this matter!"

Lin Kai talked a few more words with a few people, and then sent them away.

Lin Kai returned to the villa with a determined look on his face.

In these seven days, he must truly enter the Golden Core Realm.

Lin Kai played a decisive battle on the Chuanguo Yuxi,

"Om"

The Jade Seal of the Chuan Kingdom once again bloomed with golden light, and the jade stones placed in the formation also lit up one after another.

Lin Kai has maximized the effectiveness of the Spirit Gathering Array.

At a speed of absorption of spiritual energy ten times faster than before, it started to move.

Lin Kai felt the wisps of spiritual energy converge, and his face showed satisfaction.

The effect of the Spirit Gathering Array was much better than he had imagined.

This is all due to the core of the formation of Chuan Guo Yu Xi.

Of course, Lin Kai maximized the effectiveness of the formation in this way, and the burden on the formation has also increased a lot.

Lin Kai calculated it, and running the formation at this speed can only run for ten days.

Ten days later, all the jade will be shattered under the powerful spiritual power.

“enough!”

Lin Kai had a sense of crisis, and he couldn't care about the jade.

He sat cross-legged in the very center of the Great Spirit Gathering Formation and began to practice.

When Lin Kai closed his eyes and practiced, a hint of white mist gathered almost at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Lin Kai's body seemed to be a bottomless pit, absorbing the aura that came up to his heart's content.

Tints of white mist gathered and piled up into clouds.

A day later, the whole room was filled with white mist.

Two days later, white mist appeared throughout the villa.

Three days later, the entire top of Dongxian Mountain was shrouded in this white mist.

People throughout Donghai Province have noticed the vision of Dongxian Mountain at this time.

Everyone, including those great masters, looked deeply at the top of Dongxian Mountain.

They all knew that the owner on the top of the mountain was the young man named Lin Kai.

He is a young man with great master combat power.

Of course, according to Lin Yun, Lin Kai didn't have the combat effectiveness of a great master.

His strong coercion that day was formed entirely by virtue of that mysterious suit bonus.

He couldn't cut out that earth-shattering knife at all.

As another great master named Lei Qiankuang who was on the scene at the time admitted this in person.

The people of Dongxianshan only then regained some confidence.

They looked at the cloud with a greedy look in their eyes.

Whether it's that terrible suit or this mysterious cloud.

It all showed that Lin Kai had many secrets.

Since Lin Kai didn't have the realm of a great master, maybe they could get a share.

Lei Qian let out the words:

"On the day of the underground martial arts conference, I will make Lin Kai kneel and tell the secret of Yunwu."

Chapter 1845 Tianqing Town

It's not just Lei Qian who covets the secret of the mist on the top of Lin Kaidong Immortal Mountain.

There are many more people who have hit Lin Kai's black dragon suit with their abacus.

Everyone on the scene that day felt that Lin Kai's aura had at least doubled after putting on that black dragon suit.

The two great masters were like ants in front of him.

If they get this set of equipment, they believe that they can also get more powerful strength.

Lin Kai has no time to pay attention to everything outside.

Sitting cross-legged in the villa, he was surrounded by white mist, his chest undulating rhythmically.

Lin Kai seemed to be in the celestial palace where the fairy qi was fluttering. With every breath he took, the pure and rich spiritual qi was sucked into his body, and every cell in his body cheered and jumped for joy.

Lin Kai's face had the purest smile ever.

Since he cultivated immortality, he walked in the mortal world like a fish in the desert, unable to breathe, very painful.

Now, the environment here finally gives him the feeling that the fish are returning to the sea, free and fun.

"Breathe...breath..."

Every time Lin Kai breathed, it was like a giant exhaling, breathing long and profound.

A puff of spiritual energy formed a cyclone, swept across and was inhaled into the body by Lin Kai.

In the Lin Kai Dantian, there is a group of pale golden entrapment, that is Lin Kai's fake Dan, it blooms with a faint golden light, greedily absorbing the aura of the outside world.

Lin Kai will truly enter the Golden Core Realm after it has been condensed and completely transformed into a golden core.

Donghai Province, Tianqing Town.

This is a small town with less than a hundred households, and all the residents are official forces under the jurisdiction of Jiulong Mountain.

They live here all year round for the annual Tokai Underground Budo Tournament.

They will not interfere with anything that happens in the small town.

Even if they killed someone, they would ignore it.

However, once things go beyond the scope of the town, they have the power to push a button.

That is the button to apply for missile bombing.

In an instant, the entire town would be razed to the ground.

No more than ten people know about this matter in the entire Donghai Province.

On this day, these dozens of households all opened their doors.

They set up a variety of small stalls in a familiar way.

Some residents temporarily opened hotels.

No matter who it is, as long as you pay enough money, you can rent a small villa.

They are full of enthusiasm, and their faces are harmless to humans and animals.

At this time, a variety of luxury cars also drove into the small town of Tianqing.

Some powerful families have already chosen villas and moved in directly.

Some small families searched for a place temporarily and lived there.

The Qian family is a family with assets of only 100 million yuan.

Ten years ago, Qian Ming, the second son of the Qian family, was a concubine and was not taken seriously in the family.

When he went out once, he accidentally got an ancient martial arts secret book.

Qian Mingru won the treasure, studied hard and practiced hard.

In just a few short years, he was trained to become a martial artist.

On the day Qian Ming succeeded in his cultivation, he appeared in front of the family forcefully.

He directly subdued all the family members with strong force and became the Patriarch smoothly.

After Qian Ming became the Patriarch, all the forces in the East China Sea Province also knew about the existence of Qian Ming, a martial artist.

Since then, the power of the Qian family has rapidly expanded, and the family property has directly increased tenfold.

Everyone in the Qian family knew how convenient it was to have an ancient warrior in the family.

It was at this time that Qian Ming received an invitation to the underground martial arts conference.

In this conference, the winner can get more resources.

The loser needs to give up most of the resources in the family and distribute it to the triumphant family. Of course, this conference is also the time to resolve the past grievances of various martial arts families. Qian Ming has clashed with another martial arts family Wang Clan during the expansion of his power in the past few years.

This time, Qian Ming wanted to resolve grievances with the Wang family in this conference.

Qian Ming led eight of his subordinates, and a little girl who was fifteen or sixteen years old followed by his side.

Those eight subordinates were all new martial artists, which was cultivated by Qian Ming after spending countless resources in the family.

On the contrary, his daughter Qian Lian'er has a very strong martial arts aptitude.

At a young age, he became a warrior.

Qian Ming also hesitated for a long time before he gritted his teeth and brought her to gain a long experience.

Qian Ming spent one million to rent a villa for one day.

Qian Lian'er almost fainted after hearing this.

Qian Ming smiled bitterly, and explained to Qian Lian'er: "This million is money for life. Fighting is not allowed in the villa. We are safe for the time being."

Qian Lian'er couldn't believe it. In her heart, her father was very powerful.

However, her father was very humble.

After arriving in the small town, Qian Ming was very nervous.

He has heard of this small town.

There will be many powerful martial arts families, and master-level masters above all are very common here.

Even the legendary great master will appear here.

Qian Ming is just a small martial artist. If he encounters a bad master and is killed by others, he will have nowhere to cry.

It was not until after spending a million to rent a villa that Qian Ming was completely relieved.

Qian Ming stayed in, so he didn't plan to go out.

He will not enter the venue until the beginning of the underground martial arts conference to resolve past grievances with the Wang Family Patriarch.

However, after half a day passed, Qian Lian'er couldn't sit still.

She held Qian Ming's arm and pleaded: "Father, take me out for a walk. I am very curious about this small town. Don't you want to meet the legendary master?"

Qian Ming hesitated, but he really wanted to see it.

Qian Ming's face was solemn, and he repeatedly asked: "You must follow me closely. Don't take the initiative to cause trouble."

Qian Lian'er agreed with a smile.

The two left the villa and entered the center of the town.

The two of them were in a trance, as if they had come to ancient times.

The buildings here turned out to be what they looked like in ancient times.

Even on the street, there are many men and women in ancient costumes.

In addition, there are many people holding long swords, or carrying long knives, all holding weapons.

On the street, those small vendors are even more dressed up as ancient people.

This made Qian Lian'er wonder if he had crossed.

Not only that, there are many street performers that are no longer available in modern times.

Qian Lian'er looked at a juggling place and was lost for a moment.

Suddenly, there was a fierce fighting sound on the street.

Along with the sound of fighting, there were bursts of screams.

The crowd on the street suddenly rioted, some of them were bold and wanted to move forward; others were timid and wanted to get away quickly.

For a time, the whole street was in a mess.

The crowd made Qian Ming panic.

What made him even more alarmed was that he and his daughter were separated.

"my daughter..."

Qian Mingru fell into the ice cellar, and his mind sank into the bottom of the valley.

Chapter 1846

In a corner of the street, two clan forces that have always been hated happened to meet.

When they didn't agree, they couldn't bear the anger in their hearts and moved their hands.

With this shot, both sides made a deadly move.

All moves are towards the other side's vitals.

In an instant, blood dripped and screamed again and again.

The broken arms and limbs were scattered all over the streets, and there were even heads rolling, and the deaths were extremely tragic.

Qian Lian'er looked at the horrible situation in front of him, stunned in shock, and lost the ability to think.

Although she was bullied when she was a child, she had never seen such a miserable situation.

Qian Lian'er screamed and ran out in a panic, completely forgetting her father.

When Qian Lian'er came back to his senses, she found out that her father had disappeared in a very strange place.

“father...”

Qian Lian'er's pink face was panicked, and a layer of mist overflowed from his bright big eyes.

She didn't dare to talk to passers-by, she could only rely on her memory to walk in one direction.

As he was walking, a large group of people greeted him on the opposite side.

They are different from other cautious people, but walk in the middle of the street swaggeringly.

Some people are very upset, but seeing so many people can only endure it.

There are also forces who know this group of people, and their complexion changed drastically, hiding on the side of the street, looking very humble and waiting for this group of people to pass first.

This group of people is luxuriously dressed, with extraordinary bearing.

The bodyguards behind them had sharp eyes and bulging temples, and at first glance they were powerful ancient warriors.

Walking in the center is a young man. Although he is handsome, his look is somewhat frivolous.

A group of princes from the martial arts family hugged him and walked forward, with an expression on everyone's face.

Only him, his face looked boring and boring.

The young man sighed boredly: “Tsk, this broken town is such a big name. What is the difference from the outside world?”

The princes who accompanied him could only laugh.

For this existence, this place is very boring.

But for the children of their families, it is a very glorious thing to be able to enter here and to walk in the streets with a sway.

Not to mention, as long as they tell this dogfuck thing, not only will it not be ashamed, but it will be of great benefit to their family.

Seeing the appearance of the group of young men next to him, the young man was even more boring.

He is not going to go shopping anymore, very boring!

In the group of elder brothers who were all very far behind, the inconspicuous elder brother glanced at the side of the street and was slightly taken aback.

He rolled his eyes, a trace of reluctance in his eyes, but was quickly replaced by a trace of cruelty and greed.

He stepped forward and said respectfully to the young man: "Master Lei, you think this small town is no different from the outside, it's a big mistake!"

"Hey...this kid is dying, how dare to talk to Lei Gongzi like this?"

The elder brothers took a deep breath and looked at this person in horror.

Young Master Lei glanced at him in surprise, and asked lazily: "What's wrong?"

The man laughed a few times, and suddenly his figure moved, and he grabbed a man who was hiding from the street tremblingly.

"Prince Prince, what are you doing with me?" The man struggled and shouted.

This person is a casual cultivator, just the cultivation base of a newcomer.

He and the prince once had a fate.

The prince pinched his neck and said respectfully to Mr. Lei: "Mr. Lei, you can do things you can't do outside here. For example..."

At the same time as he said, there was a trace of fierceness in his eyes, and he broke the loose repair neck directly.

He threw it away, like a trash, and threw it to the side of the street.

The prince spread his hands and said with a smile: "You can kill people on the street at will. No government will arrest you."

Master Lei's eyes lit up and he muttered to himself: "It's interesting."

Wang Gongzi was even more shocked when he saw Lei Gongzi raised his interest.

He took a deep breath, stretched out his hand in one direction, and whispered softly: "Master Lei, how do you think that girl looks like?"

Young Master Lei followed his fingers and couldn't help but his eyes lit up.

This is a pretty girl about sixteen years old.

She doesn't use Fendai, but she is naturally beautiful and full of youthfulness.

A delicate face seemed to be able to pinch water out, and the figure of Xiaohe with pointed horns, coupled with the look of helplessness, really made me feel pity.

Young Master Lei looked straight. He likes such an innocent student girl the most.

The girl in front of me is surprisingly in line with his aesthetics.

Young Master Lei sighed: "It's not bad!"

The prince smiled and said, "Since it's good. Lord Lei, you can take her back to the villa and please her."

Master Lei blinked and said, "Will she agree?"

The prince said in a puzzled manner: "Why do you have to agree with Lord Lei if she is acting?"

Wang Gongzi said meaningfully: "This is Tianqing Town, and all behaviors are reasonable."

Young Master Lei seemed to have opened the door to the world in an instant.

He looked at the prince and asked admiringly: "What is your name?"

The prince was overjoyed. He did all this for the sake of what Lei said?

The prince resisted the trembling, and said excitedly: "The villain Wang Shitao, from the Wang family of East China Sea, Pennsylvania."

Young Master Lei nodded and said seriously: "I remember you, you are very good."

The prince said in surprise, "Thank you, Lord Lei!"

Many young masters behind him saw this scene, and envy, jealousy and hatred suddenly appeared in their eyes.

Why didn't they think of this, come to give Son Lei what they like.

Most of their families are much stronger than the little Wang family.

However, the Wang family was tied to Lord Lei's chariot, and it was only a matter of minutes to surpass their family.

Wang Shitao smiled and asked for instructions: "Master Lei, let's talk to the little girl. If she refuses to go with you, it won't be too late to take it away by force."

Young Master Lei nodded in satisfaction, this kid is really good!

The group of people swaggered to Qian Lian'er.

When Qian Lian'er saw everyone avoiding Lei Gongzi and the group, she also hid on the side of the street.

Suddenly, she only felt that her eyes were dark, and when she looked up, she saw that the group of elder brothers were all standing in front of her.

This group of elder brothers had wretched smiles on their faces, and their naked eyes seemed to be a group of big bad wolves staring at a little white rabbit.

Qian Lian'er trembled and asked tremblingly, "What are you going to do?"

Lei's eyes were obsessed, and the * in his body was already burning fiercely.

He took a step forward, grabbed Qian Lian'er's delicate little hand, and said with a squint:

"Beauty, what's your name?"

Chapter 1847: Two Great Masters

"Ah, what are you doing!"

Qian Lian'er hurriedly took out his small hand, and subconsciously slapped Lei's face with a slap.

Unexpectedly, a hand stretched out from the side and grabbed Qian Lian'er's arm.

"Qian Lian'er, Lord Lei asks you, how can you do it."

The voice said faintly.

Qian Lian'er turned his head and saw that he was a young man with a gloomy expression.

Qian Lian'er said in shock: "Wang Shitao, it's you!"

Young Master Lei asked in surprise: "Xiao Wang, you know Mei Ren Er."

Wang Shitao said respectfully: "We are all families from Pennsylvania, and her father is..."

Young Master Lei waved his hand impatiently and said, "I am not interested in her father."

Wang Shitao paused and looked at Qian Lian'er and said lightly: "Qian Lian'er, your luck is coming. Lord Lei is interested in you, as long as you serve Lord Lei well. It is great for you and your family. Good!"

Qian Lian'er looked at Wang Shitao with an incredible expression.

The Qian family and the Wang family belong to the Guwu family in Pennsylvania.

The Wang family belongs to the old-fashioned ancient martial arts family, but the ancient martial artists of the Wang family are now withered.

The only real masters are Wang Family Patriarch and Wang Shitao two martial artists.

Therefore, the Wang family faced the challenge of the Qian family, a new family of ancient warriors.

The two families became enemies, even to the point of endless death.

This time, the two families have met and will have a life and death in this underground martial arts conference.

Although the two families became enemies, Wang Shitao admired Qian Lian'er very much.

He also secretly confessed Qian Lian'er several times.

Although Qian Lian'er did not agree with Wang Shitao's courtship, she also had a good impression of Wang Shitao.

However, now Wang Shitao betrayed her!

Wang Shitao looked at Qian Lian'er's expression, but there was no trace of guilt.

If Qian Lian'er had agreed to his courtship early, then today would not have happened.

The most important thing is that Qian Lian'er's qualifications are much better than him.

Qian Lian'er is only sixteen years old now, but she is already the pinnacle of martial arts, and she will soon be a martial artist.

At that time, the Qian family completely surpassed the Wang family.

This is not allowed by Wang Shitao!

Qian Lian'er's pink face flushed with anger, she resolutely said: "You wishful thinking, I can't agree to it!"

Wang Shitao frowned, but sneered in his heart.

He had known Qian Lian'er's character a long time ago, and she would not agree to follow Master Lei on the basis of no emotion.

Otherwise, he would not dare to bring Master Lei over.

Otherwise, if Qian Lian'er took advantage of the situation to please Lei's son, it would be a disaster for the Wang family!

Wang Shitao kindly persuaded: "Qian Lian'er, don't be obsessed with it. Lord Lei's origin is beyond your imagination. It's no good for you to reject him!"

Qian Lian'er glanced at Young Master Lei and said firmly, "I don't want it. He is so ugly!"

The princes around were watching the show, but after hearing Qian Lian'er's words, they looked weird.

They looked at Lord Lei's appearance and couldn't help nodding secretly in their hearts.

At least, they look better than Son Lei!

Lord Lei had a faint smile on his face, a calm look.

After hearing Qian Lian'er's words, Young Master Lei's expression suddenly became gloomy.

"Snapped"

He slapped Qian Lian'er's face with a backhand slap.

"Bitch!"

Young Master Lei looked angry and ordered: "Take her back to the villa, and let her know how good this Young Master is today!"

Two bodyguards immediately stepped forward,

"It's too much, why is this man like this?"

"Damn, I can't bear it anymore. To bully a girl like this, I want to teach him a lesson!"

The crowd onlookers was filled with outrage and looked at Lei Gongzi angrily.

The son of Lei raised his eyebrows, his face was cold.

A dogleg, observing his words and expressions, quickly stepped forward and shouted:

“What is the noise of your trash, do you know who Lei is?”

“Master Lei is the grandson of Grand Master Lei Qiankuang!”

He glanced around, majestic, as if the person with a special identity was him.

However, his words clearly worked very well.

The surrounding crowd immediately calmed down.

Their eyes were erratic, and they didn't dare to look at Son Lei.

Outside the crowd, a handsome man passing by here stopped.

He turned around and said politely: “Thank you, let me go in.”

The crowd involuntarily stepped aside and let him in.

Lin Kai's eyes turned, looking at everything in front of him.

A group of princes from the ancient martial arts family stood there with lewd smiles.

Behind them, followed by a group of tyrannical bodyguards.

There are two bodyguards standing in the front, holding a little girl about sixteen years old.

The little girl looked panicked, her big bright eyes became dull, and a look of despair appeared.

Lin Kai stepped forward and said lightly, “Excuse me, can you let this girl go.”

Everyone looked at Lin Kai like a fool.

One of the young men sneered and said, “Where's the idiot, get away.”

Lord Lei didn't even look at it, but waved his hand and said, “Kill it.”

Young Master Lei had completely adapted to the laws of the town.

He found that it was not bound by any rules, it was simply his paradise.

A bodyguard took out a gun directly and fired a shot at Lin.

“boom”

Lin Kai stretched out * and directly caught the bullet.

He shot it casually, and the bullet flew back at a faster speed, passing directly through the brows of the bodyguard.

Everyone was taken aback and looked at the calm man in shock.

“It turned out to be the Grand Master!”

An ancient warrior who can play with a hand grip can at least be done by a master master.

Young Master Lei showed a trace of jealousy. As the grandson of the Great Master, the realm of the Grand Master is very far away for him.

However, he was not afraid of the master master in front of him.

Young Master Lei looked at Lin Kai coldly, and said coldly, "Do you know who my grandfather is? You dare to kill my guard, do you want to die?"

Lin Kai tilted his head and asked curiously: "I was afraid I had heard it wrong, can you tell me in person now?"

Young Master Lei looked proud, and said proudly: "My grandfather is famous throughout China, the famous great master Lei Qiankang!"

Lin Kai nodded and said lightly: "That's right."

Lin Kai glanced at it and said majestically: "The robbing of civilian girls in the street, and let the guards kill innocent people at will. You are sentenced to death, right?"

"Fart, I am the grandson of Great Master. What's wrong with killing someone? What qualifications do you have to judge me?" Young Master Lei shouted angrily.

The princes around him even sneered, and a mere grandmaster dared to judge Mr. Lei.

Young Master Lei's face was distorted, as if he was completely offended by Lin Kai's words.

He turned his head and said with a slight respect: "Two uncles, please kill Xiao Xiaoxiao!"

The two elders slowly walked out from behind Lord Lei, with a bang, releasing a grandmaster-level aura.

Chapter 1848

Except for Lord Lei, who was deliberately taken care of, everyone faced the momentum released by these two masters.

They staggered and turned pale.

Only Lin Kai seemed to be blown by a breeze, his face remained unchanged, and his sleeves did not even move.

The two elders said hoarsely: "Boy, knock your head to Lord Lei, and you will be left with a corpse."

Lin Kai said in amazement, "I've kowtow, and I can't spare my life."

An old man shook his head and said lightly: "If you offend Son Lei, you will surely wash your sins with blood."

Another old man went on to say: "You'd better do what we said, otherwise your end will be miserable, and even your family will suffer the disaster of destruction."

"Really overbearing!"

Lin Kai said with emotion: "Then I will give you a knock, a very loud head!"

Young Master Lei looked triumphant, and his twisted heart was greatly satisfied.

Even if you are a master, is life and death still between my thoughts?

Lin Kai stretched out his hand, the aura in the void swarmed, forming an invisible giant palm.

The many princes and guards under the giant palm only felt that the sky was about to collapse, and they could no longer breathe out.

The two old men looked at the giant palm in the sky, with a look of despair on their faces, and roared: "It's a great master!"

Lin Kai's expression was cold and indifferent, and said lightly: "You chops, there is no need to exist in this world."

Lin Kai flipped his palm and gently pressed it down.

The invisible giant palm fell directly.

"boom"

The two elders only resisted for a moment, before bursting with blood all over, they lost consciousness.

All the other people didn't react even more, and they felt black before their eyes, and their bodies exploded into blood mist.

The onlookers looked at the huge palm print on the street, their faces dull.

Among the palm prints that dented in, there was not a single body, only a pool of blood mixed in the mud.

"Master Lei is dead..."

"The two grandmasters are also dead..."

"There are other princes from the ancient martial arts family who are also dead..."

They murmured to themselves, and then they shook their bodies.

They know something big has happened!

Lin Kai didn't care about all this, he waved his sleeves and turned away.

At this time, Qian Lian'er also suddenly woke up from the nightmare.

Her expression was a little dazed at first, and then she showed a firm look.

Qian Lian'er trot all the way, closely following Lin Kai.

Lin Kai walked through two streets and finally turned around.

He looked at Qian Lian'er and said calmly, "Little girl, go back. Don't follow me."

Lin Kai just walked too fast, and now Qian Lian'er is out of breath.

The delicate little face was flushed with red, and a thin layer of sweat came out on the smooth forehead.

Qian Lian'er looked at Lin Kai cautiously, both scared and curious.

It was the elegant man in front of him who killed more than a dozen people with just one palm, without even frowning.

Qian Lian'er said softly: "I'm lost, and I'm afraid those families will retaliate against me, even my family."

Lin Kai frowned and said lightly: "This is not a long-term solution, you can't always follow me."

Qian Lian'er raised his head and said quickly: "Why not, I want to follow you all the time."

Lin Kai raised his eyebrows and looked at Qian Lian'er.

She has delicate skin and big eyes, which makes her look cute.

People can't help but want to hold her in their arms and take good care of her.

Seeing that Lin Kai was looking at her, Qian Lian'er lowered her head shyly.

Immediately afterwards, she took a deep breath and greeted Lin Kai's gaze boldly.

Lin Kai shook his head and muttered, "I'm not interested in a little kid. You can go back."

Qian Lian'er Shui Lingling's big eyes overflowed with tears, and she shouted: "If you don't care about me, I will be dead."

Lin Kai turned his head, smiling but not smiling, and said, "You think I'm a good person, so do you coerce me?"

Qian Lian'er shook his head and said softly: "No, I am asking you. I will never meet a big man like you in my life, so I don't want to let this opportunity pass."

Qian Lian'er remembered what had happened just now, and became scared again.

She firmly said: "I don't want to happen again, and my destiny will never be so miserable!"

Lin Kai rubbed his chin, admiring Qian Lian'er's disposition.

Lin Kai said indifferently: "My villa still lacks a cleaning house, you can follow me if you like."

Qian Lian'er said loudly: "I am willing."

Lin Kai nodded and continued to walk forward.

Qian Lian'er hurriedly stepped forward, following him like a little maid.

Lin Kai brought Qian Lian'er to a local resident's house. He knocked on the table and said lightly, "Prepare a villa for me."

Qian Lian'er whispered: "My son, a villa costs one million a day. My father has already rented a villa, do you want to live together?"

Lin Kai shook his head and smiled: "I live and don't need to spend money."

The shopkeeper walked over and looked at Lin Kai seriously, with a trace of awe in his eyes.

The shopkeeper respectfully said: "My son, please follow me."

The shopkeeper took the two to a large villa and respectfully said: "My son, I can only wrong you to live here for the time being."

Qian Lian'er opened his mouth wide as he looked at this one thousand meters in a radius, as if it were a villa in a manor.

Lin Kai nodded in satisfaction and said, "Yes, you can go down."

After Lin Kai and the two entered the villa, Qian Lian'er took out the rag and wanted to clean it.

After turning around for a long time, she realized to her frustration that the place had been cleaned very clean.

She went to clean again, it was a little redundant.

Lin Kai ordered: "You can move around freely by yourself. It's up to you whether you leave or not. I'm going to rest first."

After Lin Kai finished speaking, he went to the bedroom on the second floor.

Qian Lian'er sat blankly in the living room, feeling a little at a loss.

Lin Kai said to let her move around freely, but she did not dare to leave at will.

She worried that Lin Kai would not want her after she left.

However, Qian Lian'er was very worried about her father.

If his father can't find her, he must be anxious.

"Really, there is no signal in such a big town."

Qian Lian'er took out his mobile phone and looked at the signal from the blank space with an anxious expression on his face.

Qian Lian'er was fidgeting in the living room, and finally she seemed to make up her mind.

She gently walked upstairs and knelt at the door of Lin Kai's bedroom.

Qian Lian'er bit her lip lightly and begged: "My son, can I go out and look for my father?"

In the bedroom, it was quiet.

With a look of disappointment in Qian Lian'er's eyes, he knocked his head at the bedroom and said firmly:

"My son, please forgive me for making my own claim. When I find my father and tell him that I am safe, I will definitely be back. At that time, I hope you can forgive me."

After Qian Lian'er finished speaking, he stood up and walked firmly outside the villa.

Chapter 1849

"Squeak"

The bedroom door was opened from the inside, and Lin Kai stood at the door and asked faintly:

"Where are you going, have you got my permission?"

Qian Lian'er was taken aback, turned around, knelt in front of Lin Kai and said:

"Sorry, son. I'm really worried about Daddy, so..."

Lin Kai nodded and asked, "Since I am worried about him, I will accompany you to find him."

Qian Lian'er looked at Lin Kai in surprise, showing a bewildered expression.

Lin Kai smiled slightly and said, "I'm your son, so how can I not help you with this matter?"

Qian Lian'er happily followed Lin Kai and walked out, thinking happily, this young man, she really recognized it.

The two went out of the villa and first came to the place where the Qian family rented the villa.

However, Qian Ming only came back once, took away most of his subordinates, and went out again to find Qian Lian'er.

The subordinate who stayed behind suggested: "Miss, don't go out. It's too dangerous outside. Feel relieved and wait for the Patriarch to come back."

Qian Lian'er shook his head and looked at Lin Kai standing in the distance. There was a hint of dependence in his eyes, and said: "It's okay, I have the son to protect me. I won't have any trouble. Si, when my father comes back, don't let it go. He is going out again. He must wait for me to come back."

A Si glanced at Lin Kai vigilantly, and there was a hint of worry in his eyes.

This young man came out from nowhere. It seems that the eldest lady is fascinated by him. What should I do?

But he didn't dare to stop the young lady, so he could only watch her leave with Lin Kai.

A Si looked worried and muttered to herself: "Patriarch, come back soon. Miss seems to have been cheated!"

After the two entered the town again, they found that most of them were heading in one direction.

"It seems that the martial arts conference has already begun." Lin Kai said with a smile on his mouth, "Let's go and take a look. Maybe your father is there."

The two came to the center of Tianqing Town, where there was a huge square.

The square has long been crowded and overcrowded.

This place is different from other places, it is very harmonious.

On the periphery, there is a patrol team composed of powerful families patrolling around.

They maintain order on the scene, and if anyone dares to make trouble, they will directly kill them.

After a few heads rolled, the people at the scene were very well-behaved, and no one dared to make trouble.

In front of the square, two huge platforms were erected.

One of the high platforms is a place where the family power and the friends of the ancient warriors can learn from each other.

In their discussions, the pursuit is complete, and the winners and losers can be determined.

Here, ancient warriors have already come to the stage and began to engage in discussions.

So far, the atmosphere is still very harmonious, and the people watching below cheered up from time to time.

But there were less than one-tenth of the people around here, and most of the crowd gathered around another high platform.

Even if the water surrounding this high platform is blocked, it is very crowded.

However, everyone's enthusiasm is very high.

Their complexion was flushed red, and when they looked closely, they still snarled with a trace of distortion.

This high platform is where family forces resolve conflicts and fight life and death between ancient warriors.

As long as you are in this ring, you will not only decide the outcome, but also see life and death!

The battle between the two sides must end with the complete fall of one side.

When Lin Kai and the other two arrived, it happened that an ancient warrior blasted the head of the other with a punch, leaving that ancient warrior bathed in blood.

He yelled up to the sky, and the surrounding audience roared louder to vent the excitement of seeing the blood.

Qian Lian'er turned pale when she saw this terrible scene.

Of course, not everyone is surrounded by the high platform.

Right in front of the high platform, there are rows of seats.

Only strong families and forces can do the above.

The stronger the family, the higher their seats.

It seems to be stepping under the feet of those families who are inferior to them.

If there is a family that is not convinced, you can challenge the family ranked above, regardless of life or death!

At this time, on the high platform, there are already big men from various families sitting on it.

Those who can achieve the above, the lowest cultivation base is the realm of Martial Saint.

At the highest level, a total of five people were sitting there.

Their breath is thick and thick, and it seems that the surrounding space is distorted.

When everyone looked at them, there was a deep awe in their eyes.

These five people are all legendary masters.

Everyone can suppress a territory.

Among them, the second old man on the left is Lei Qiankang.

He sat on it and looked at the fighting below like a child, a little boring.

Lei Qiankuang turned his head to look at Lin Hong and asked, "Is that kid Lin Kai afraid to come?"

Lin Hong said indifferently: "If he doesn't come, we can hit Dongxian Mountain. At that time, don't blame us for being unreasonable!"

"Hehe." Lei Qiankuang laughed: "That kid is your own family. You are too ruthless!"

Lin Hong looked indifferent and said indifferently: "He is not a member of the East China Sea after all, so I naturally want to put the interests of the East China Sea first!"

After listening to the other great masters, they couldn't help but nod their heads slightly.

As for what they think in their hearts, only they know it.

Suddenly, a middle-aged man rushed in.

He ran to Lei Qiankuang and knelt down.

His face was sad, and he shed tears before he spoke.

Lei Qiankang frowned, and said displeased: "Smelly boy, why are you crying? Don't you think it is embarrassing?"

The middle-aged man said sadly: "Father, Tong'er is dead!"

"what!"

Lei Qiankang stood up in shock, his hair and beard were wide, and he roared, "You say it again."

Lei Yin's heart is cut like a knife. Although Lei Qiankuang is a great master in the Lei family, the people are very thin, and it turns out to be a three-generation single.

Lei Tong's death this time, their main line of Lei Family was broken!

Lei Yin said sadly: "Just now, Tong'er was playing on the street with a team of entourage, but he didn't know which grandmaster had offended him. That demon actually slapped Tong'er and everyone present into blood mist!"

"Father, Tong'er died terribly. You must avenge him!"

Lei Qiankuang shouted angrily: "Fart, he has two masters to protect him, which master can kill them?"

Lei Qiankuang's complexion was distorted, his eyes were red, and he said in hatred, "Check it out! I want him to die!"

The faces of several great masters around are different. This is Lei Qiankuang's only grandson, and this old thing is probably going to kill him.

At this time, the patriarchs of other families also knew about it.

Their sons were also involved, and were photographed into a blood mist by the mysterious master.

Suddenly, the entire square became violent and slaughtered!

Chapter 1850: Kill Half First

The Patriarchs of these families were extremely angry, but they also knew that the mysterious master was able to destroy a group of ancient warriors including two grandmasters. With their strength, there was no revenge.

They can only help Lei Qiankang find the murderer and let Lei Qiankang take revenge for them!

Even, they were thinking gloomily in their hearts that the best ending would be to let Lei Qiankuang and that master die together!

The Patriarch of the Kings of Pennsylvania, Wang Lianfei, also had a look of grief. His most beloved son, Wang Shitao, was also brutally killed, and even the body was not left behind.

"Who the * is it, my son!"

Wang Lianfei screamed in grief and anger, and could only furious incompetently.

Suddenly, a guard came up sneakily.

He walked up to Wang Lianfei and said respectfully: "Patriarch, I may have a clue to the murderer!"

Wang Lianfei shot a bright light in his eyes, staring at the guard, and said in a deep voice, "Say!"

Under Wang Lianfei's gloomy gaze, the guard shivered and stood up a little regretful.

However, now he can only bite the bullet and say: "Patriarch, I met a fellow villager I knew well at the time, so I left the scene."

"However, I faintly saw the son and they surrounded a woman from a distance. That woman might be the eldest lady of the Qian family, Qian Lian'er!"

"It didn't take long for me to feel a violent air current from a distance. The son and the others have already been killed..."

Wang Lianfei looked deep and muttered to himself: "I just met Qian Ming. He seems to be looking for his daughter. It seems that this matter is likely to be true!"

A trace of greed flashed across the guard's face and asked, "Patriarch, I have reported such important information. Is there a reward?"

Wang Lianfei looked at the guard with a dull gaze, and whispered: "Your son is dead, why are you still alive?"

Uneasy flashed in the eyes of the guard, and quickly stepped back.

However, Wang Lianfei's speed was even faster, and he instantly came to the guard and crushed his throat.

"Go with my son!"

Wang Lianfei threw down the body of the guard casually, and his expression became firm.

If you want revenge, you must find Grandmaster Lei Qiankuang for help.

In order to prevent Wang Lianfei from ending up like his own guard, he did not rush to meet Lei Qiankuang who was in a frenzy.

He first went to find other Patriarchs who were also affected, and explained the situation to them.

Then, they united and walked together in front of Lei Qiankuang.

Lei Qian arrogantly released a violent aura, causing the entire space to be distorted.

Except for a few great masters, all of them were pale.

Several Patriarchs even faced Lei Qiankuang's gaze, and Dou Da's sweat dripped down.

Wang Lianfei couldn't bear the powerful momentum, and collapsed to the ground, like a fish leaving the water, unable to breathe with his mouth open, let alone talking.

Lei Qiankuang managed to endure the tyranny in his heart, and slightly put away some momentum.

Several Patriarchs breathed like a new life.

Lei Qiankuang said in a low voice, "Go ahead, I hope you can give me a satisfactory answer."

Wang Lianfei was lying on his stomach, not daring to raise his head, and tremblingly said, "Master Lei, our investigation found that there was a girl at the scene. We follow this clue and may find the whereabouts of the murderer."

Lei Qiankuang's eyes were blood-red, and he whispered: "This is nonsense to me. Do you think I can't find out there is a girl at the scene? If you don't have more information, then go to death!"

Several Patriarchs were shocked and already regretted coming to Lei Qiankuang.

The lives of their sons are not as important as their own. They are not three-generation singles, and there are other sons too!

Wang Lianfei ran out of dead souls, and said quickly, "I know. That girl is Qian Lian'er and belongs to the Qian family! Her father is Qian Ming!"

"Qian Ming?"

Lei Qiankuang didn't know such a small person at all. He whispered: "Go and bring all the money and family members in the town. Rebels, kill them!"

Eight Lei Qiankuang's wild guards knelt on one knee and replied in a low voice: "Yes, master!"

They stood up, and with a 'swish', they shot out of the high platform.

Many Patriarchs were shocked, these eight Mad Guards turned out to be masters at the peak of Martial Saint, and the leader was even a master!

Several other great masters also turned their heads and said, "The five great masters are in awe, you also help find the people from the Qian family!"

The five great masters issued orders at the same time to look for people from the Qian family.

This small town is not big, and after a while, all the Qian family members headed by Qian Ming were taken to the high platform.

Qian Ming looked dazed, watching the many patrons who were usually aloof before him kneeling there, and he didn't dare to come out.

At the highest level, there are five figures that he can't even look at sitting there.

Among them, the breath is like a depressed volcano, erupting at any time.

"I'm just looking for my daughter, why did you bring me here?"

Qian Ming looked blank and didn't understand what happened, so he was forcibly taken over.

Wang Lianfei glanced back secretly, a hint of pleasure flashed in his eyes.

The Qian family is really over now!

"Son, you didn't die in vain. You got rid of a great enemy for your father!"

Wang Lianfei showed a smirk at the corner of his mouth, but he became proud.

Lei Qiankuang glanced around with blood-red eyes, and said coldly: "Cut off half the head first!"

Several mad guards took out big knives and pressed ordinary Qian family members to the ground.

"puff....."

Bunches of blood spurted out, dyeing Qian Ming's eyes red.

Qian Ming's eyes were splitting, trying to desperately, but he was firmly suppressed, unable to move.

Qian Ming roared angrily: "Why, you demons!"

However, all people looked indifferent, and no one paid any attention to him.

Lei Qiankuang looked indifferent, with blood red eyes and asked, "Where is your daughter?"

Qian Ming was horrified. What happened during this period and what did his daughter do?

Seeing Qian Ming's face blank, Lei Qiankuang said, "Hang them up so that those who enter the square can see them at a glance."

"You continue to send out your subordinates, I don't believe I can't find a little girl film!"

After hearing Lei Qiankuang's instructions, someone immediately started to put up a few wooden sticks and hang Qian Ming and others on it.

At this time, a group of people came from outside the square.

On the way they walked, everyone couldn't help but looked at the team with different eyes.

"It's from the Tang family!"

"They really came!"

Everyone's eyes flickered, and they looked at the Tang Family's eyes with alert and excitement.

When a force with a great master enters the East China Sea, it is bound to shake the East China Sea.

They are bound to set off a battle engulfing the East China Sea to fully divide the territory.

This battle will cause many families to rise, and it will also cause many families to fall or even destroy!

The Tang family was like a sharp sword, directly inserted into the top of the high platform, where the flag of the Tang family was erected.

Tang Feng clasped his fists and said loudly:

"In Xia Tang Feng, I have met all great masters!"
