Face to face is face to face, this is not that big of a deal, this is how Master often punishes me, in his words, I am too smart, I can think of a lot of things, like making mistakes, I just have to face to know what's wrong with me.

That night, the senior brother carried Gu Junshan's slightly angry corpse back to the house. When Jia Wen saw that Gu Junshan was extremely excited and thought that Gu Junshan had come back to life, he asked worriedly, "Can he really come back to life?" The Grand Master's uncle said, "He has already returned today with one soul and one soul. This way, his body will be more complete and will attract more and more souls. The chances of him coming back alive are very high, but don't get too excited. I can't guarantee that."

Jia Wen gratefully thanked his Master and Grand Uncle. I said, "You're welcome. This is what we should do." Master gave me a glare and said, "Why are you still standing here? Hurry up and go face the wall for two hours." Master was really a method of punishing me. In reality, this is nothing to me, I have already trained to the point where I can fall asleep while standing up, and when Master and the rest were discussing what to eat for dinner, I was already drowsy.

If I were to say that sleeping while standing up isn't suitable for a normal person, it might be because I overdid it at night, or because I came in contact with ghosts, I can't sleep at all. Of course, my requirements are also quite high, so who would sleep peacefully while standing up?

I was still standing in the hallway when a gust of cold wind suddenly blew past me, jolting me awake. When I opened my eyes, I found myself standing in the corridor in a daze, wiping away my saliva that was about to come out, and headed back to my room.

Just as I was about to open the door and enter, I suddenly felt a pair of eyes looking at me. The eyes gave me a very strong feeling because of my sixth sense, and also because the owner of the eyes had a strong mental strength, a normal eye is a window to the soul, the light emitted from the eyes of a person can represent the strength of a person's body, and the gaze that shot out from those eyes was directed at my back. I felt uncomfortable all over.

My room is on the second floor. Uncle Master's house is taller than most people's house, and the second floor is almost comparable to the third floor of other people's house. The trees on the outside are so thick that this person is actually hiding inside the tree, and he also managed to avoid Uncle Master and Master, so his strength cannot be underestimated.

I opened the door and entered the room, leaving the door slightly ajar so that I could hear the sounds coming from outside through the crack. I sat on the bed and held my breath, the fox blood surging to the limit, especially in my ears. If someone were to look at me now, they would definitely be shocked, wondering why my ears were so red.

The leaves rustled in the wind. Other than that, I couldn't hear any other sounds, I could even clearly hear the shouts of my master in the room far away. That person on the tree didn't move at all, I didn't dare to be careless, the enemy didn't move, this person is not an ordinary person, I had to watch him carefully, who knows if he would do something that would endanger our safety.

But then he and I confronted each other from a distance, and for two hours he remained motionless on the tree. I did not dare to sleep, but listened to him, and looked at my watch and saw that it was already morning, and the next day it was already dawn. If he still stayed on the tree, I would definitely go out and see who he was.

Good boy, I couldn't hear anything until daybreak. Did this guy stay in the tree all night? How could he leave in broad daylight? It was six o'clock in the morning and the sky was bright. I had not slept a wink of confrontation with the kid, and after a night of fox blood, I relaxed. I wiped the sweat from my forehead as I opened the door and went out.

When I went downstairs, Grand Master and the others were already up. Grand Master was preparing for his morning practice, so I hastily walked to the tree. The tree was covered in leaves, but I couldn't tell if there was a person hiding inside or not.

Uncle Master followed me out. When he saw me staring blankly at the tree, he asked, "What happened, Haozi? Why did you climb up the tree so early in the morning?" I put my head down and said, "I'll go down and talk." Just as he was about to jump down, his hand came in contact with a tree branch. Suddenly, with a splash, the tree branch fell down along with several crisscrossing tree branches and leaves.

I hastily jumped down, and five branches fell to the ground, all about the same length, about the same length as my arm, with a large clump of leaves scattered on the ground. Uncle Master came over and picked up the branch, and carefully examined it, the branch was from this tree, but it was old and had obviously been broken for some time, so why did it stay on the tree, did someone throw it up on purpose?

I said to the Great Master, "Martial Uncle, last night, after you fell asleep, I saw someone watching us from the tree. I confronted that person for a whole night, but I could not hear that person descending from the tree, so I ran up early in the morning to take a look. There was no one there, not even a bird. The Grand Master looked at the tree branch in his hand and solemnly said, "Let's talk inside."

They were both cultivators who had been cultivating for many years, and their five senses were extremely sharp. Ordinary movements of the wind and grass wouldn't be able to escape from their ears and eyes, and when they heard that someone was peeping inside the house from a tree, they couldn't believe it, and I realized that that person was spying on us without any intention of hiding it. I didn't know that that person had gotten bold when he saw me alone, but he still didn't pay any attention to us, in short, his eyes were as sharp as knives, as if he wanted to tear open a hole to observe us.

Looking at the branch on the table, we all fell into deep thought. What did this branch represent, Master said, "I'm sure it was the people from the Hall of Longevity, I don't believe they fled overseas. Cui Xianle is an example.

Uncle Master did not say anything, but the First Senior Martial Brother said, "Junior Martial Brother said that after a whole night of fighting with that person, we could not hear him get down from the tree ... Did you hear wrongly? Did you not notice when he left?" I said, "No, I was afraid he'd come down to the house and concentrate, and the trees were so high he'd make a noise."

After a long silence, Uncle Master finally said, "Maybe that's him." After saying that, he pointed at the tree branches and leaves on the table.

We all looked at each other, not knowing what the Grand Master meant by that. He rummaged through a pile of leaves and pulled out two of the larger ones, two of which were hollow, with holes dug in the middle. The Grand Master placed five branches in a human shape, the leaves placed on the branches, and the two hollow leaves placed on top like two eyes.

Looking at the human figure on the table, I didn't know what Uncle Master meant. My Master said, "He really does look like a villain, but I can't just say that the tree leaves are peeping at us because of this."

The Great Master said, "If I am not mistaken, this is an evil technique, called 'Body Form Counterfeit Body Transformation'. Ordinary body avatars can only leave their minds outside of the body for a short period of time, and no one knows who created this evil technique, but based on the body avatars, they can strengthen their spiritual energy by attaching it to inanimate objects, controlling them to reach their goal. The Taoists believe that relying on dead objects and ghosts is similar, and most people who know this technique do not do good things, so it slowly disappears."

I said, "Great Master, you said that the tree was controlled by someone. Can they move it now?" The Great Master said, "Right now, you can't feel even the slightest bit of spirit on the branch of the tree, right? Presumably, the master behind the scenes controlled this thing to climb up the tree last night to hide and observe us, and it just so happened that he was noticed by you. His thoughts were quite thorough, the tree branches and leaves were hidden in the tree, the tree branches and leaves were originally part of the tree, the aura and aura of the tree melded together, even adding on his own breath, it's not that easy for people to detect them."

Just thinking about how he climbed up the tree in the middle of the night like a little human being made of tree branches and leaves, the scene made him shudder. With these eyes, no wonder he called this technique an evil art, just thinking about it was terrifying enough.

I picked up the branches and examined them carefully. All five had been carefully selected, and each had a slight bend in its trunk, presumably to facilitate its movement, but there was no stickiness on the leaves. How did they come together without dispersing, said the Master, because the caster's mental strength was so great that he put his mind to every branch and leaf and controlled them to act in concert with each other.

I asked, "Great Master, do you know this technique?" Great Master said, "I can't do it, this technique requires profound cultivation experience that I've accumulated over the years. Even if I've studied it, I wouldn't be able to control so many objects to move simultaneously with my cultivation experience. This person's strength is terrifyingly strong."

His Master frowned, "Could it be Pei Hong Du himself?" Indeed, Grand Master's cultivation was already unfathomably high. If even he said no, then the only person stronger than him would be Pei Hong. He should be too busy to take care of himself right now. Master Uncle sneered, "Think about it, other than Pei Hong Du, who else has such profound cultivation experience?" I really couldn't think of anyone else. After thinking for a while, Senior Martial Brother Ju said in surprise, "Could it be Yuan Zhenhai?"

Master Bo nodded his head and said, "It's very possible. First of all, I can't see through his strength, and it's far above mine. I don't know if he's even comparable to Pei Hong, but at the moment, he's the only one I can think of. Even Pei Hong doesn't dare appear, much less here." His Master said angrily, "This Yuan Zuohai doesn't seem to be a simple person. It's just that I didn't expect him to be so sinister. We're on the same side now, and he's still monitoring us. Don't tell me he's not trusting us? I'm not trusting him at all."

It seemed like there was something on his mind. Indeed, if it was really Yuan Zuohai who did it, what was his goal? And now, he is teaming up with us? Does he have some kind of unspeakable secret?

"Master, can he know that we've already discovered that he's monitoring us?" "Normally not, but Haozi said last night that there was no intention of hiding anything from him. I can't think of this, isn't it that those who normally monitor others are afraid of being discovered? How could he not be worried?"

If he doesn't want to cooperate with us, then that's fine. I've already disliked him a long time ago, but the last time, he almost caused trouble for Haozi and the people in the department to not be able to come back, while his people all jumped around and died. Two people from our department died, and as you've seen, his people's clothes were all clean, is that right? "

Great Master said, "There's no need for us to have a falling out. I already told him last time that we have our own tasks, so we can't listen to his commands. If he has anything to do, we can contact the headquarters directly."

The four of us were uneasy because of this matter. We didn't want to believe that our fellow disciples actually didn't believe us, and of course, we didn't believe him either.

Ever since we caught him, he has always been locked up in the basement, eating and drinking on time. When he had nothing to do, senior sister would even go and tease him, perhaps seeing that he is rather cute, he is actually quite magnanimous. Ever since he was captured by us and brought back, he seems to have returned home to be safe, eating and drinking as if he were not nervous at all. At one point, I suspected that he had been scared silly, just like the handsome son of Gu Shan.

“Hey, stop sleeping.” If I was in someone else’s shoes and was locked up, I wouldn’t even have the mood to eat or sleep. I’m afraid that I would have already lost all my weight, but this fellow, after eating and sleeping everyday, he seems to have gotten even fatter.

“Ah ...” “What are you doing?” He woke up in a daze and rubbed his eyes. It took him a while to recognize me. Seeing him in such a state, I didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. Senior sister came over and tugged at his ear and said, “You damn fatty, after eating for every hour just now, you still want to eat. If I eat until you die, I’ll give you a pig’s ear.” Then she pinched his ears so hard that he cried out.

“What are you doing? Why are you twisting my ears?” He shook off Senior Sister’s hand and furiously covered his ears as he looked at me. I said, “Is this fellow stupid or not?” The Senior Martial Sister said, “I’m not stupid yet. I know how much is $1 + 1 + 3$. I should be able to get some information from him.”

When he heard the conversation between me and Senior Sister, he walked over curiously and asked, “What the heck? How much is one plus one?” Looking at his innocent eyes, I couldn’t help but wonder how good it would be if all of Pei Hong Du’s men were like this. I said, “You sit over there, I have something to ask you.” He sat obediently on the chair with his hands on his knees. His head was lowered as if he were a primary school student. His senior sister said, “How was it? My teaching these past few days wasn’t bad. But you should be obedient. Ask whatever you want.”

“Really ask what?” I found it hard to believe. After all, this fellow had met Pei Hong Du before, and due to his work, he needed to visit Pei Hong Du often. He had a lot of information about Pei Hong Du, and this was considered an important person. I saw that the people who were caught in the movies and TV dramas were all stubborn, and did not reveal a single thing despite the various tortures the enemy had inflicted on them.

“If you really want to ask, just say it. Just give me something to eat.” His Senior Sister slapped him on the head, “It’s your turn to speak, and you’re still making demands. You’re getting bolder and bolder.”

I said, “That damn fatty has finished. Let me ask you, do you know what the Longevity Hall is like? You’re not allowed to lie at all, lest I torture you.” I’ve been in the hall for many years and haven’t had anything big to do with him, so I just have to help him find people, find people like me. The hall master said that I have plenty of spirit energy, he gives me a lot of money every month, and he even sent people to be my lackeys. Hehe, they all listen to me, I’m really mighty, I’m quite famous in this area, and many people have come to find me for difficult problems, so I can find people but I can't do anything else. I've relied entirely on my lackeys to fool me. Don't forget to give it something to eat ... "It can eat ..." Enough, what nonsense are you talking about? Are you trying to use punishment?" the Senior Sister shouted.

Cui Xinle was scared witless by her senior sister's shout. She trembled as she looked at her senior sister and said, "What are you doing? Didn't you tell me to do it?" Whatever you said about the Longevity Hall and Pei Hong Du, leave out." I told him. Cui Xinle didn't dare to retort when he saw how fiendish my senior sister and I were. He swallowed his saliva and said, "Let me think about it ..." The hall master told me to find someone like him, and I didn't do anything else for him. "

"I am naturally sensitive to people with abundant Spiritual Qi. Whenever I meet someone like that, I will react and let my subordinates capture him. They are the ones who capture him, it has nothing to do with me. "No, it's an old man, the old man asked me to come visit him, he said that he's an acquaintance of mine, I don't know him, how would I know him, I don't even know him, this old man also lent me a single strand of hair, but this was purposely shaved, they told me to pretend to be a master, saying that a master must be bald in order to deceive people, you don't even know, I wasn't willing to do that when I cut off my hair ..."

Seeing that he started to speak nonsense again, Senior Sister and I looked at each other and shook our heads. It seems that this fellow is not faking it, there is something wrong with his intelligence, and I don't feel any spiritual energy from him.

I don't know how that old baldy found me, I don't drink with outsiders, they say that outsiders easily lie to me, they say that this old man appeared in my room at night, they say that he's an acquaintance of mine from my house, he's dead now, plus how did he find me, I just know that he's a liar, hehe hehe, he even wants to lie to me, when I've been lying to others, I think that he's crazy, why are you trying to steal from me.

"Recitation? "What scripture is it?" I asked him, and he said, "I don't know what to read, anyway he just mumbles with his eyes closed, it's about the same as when I go out to lie, I'm just lying, I don't know, after a while, my ancestor woke up, his ancestor ran to his feet, he touched his head and talked to his ancestor for a while, and then he left, and before he left he even told me not to hurt anyone, I didn't think anything of it, and the next day Gu Li went to find me to kill his father, I wasn't interested, so I agreed to whatever he gave me, and after that my father isn't my father, he died too ..."

While he was muttering to himself, his Master and Senior Martial Brother Ju entered. The Senior Martial Brother said, "Can you ask me something?" I shook my head. "This guy seems a little stupid. He can't even speak clearly.” His Master humphed and said in a loud voice, “If you don’t want to say it properly, just say it. Beat it until you say it.”

Cui Xinle’s eyes widened in fright when she heard her master say she would hit him.” What are you doing? I’ve told you everything I know, and you’re still hitting me. I’m afraid of pain ... ” Tie him up. ” Senior Ju and I used ropes to tie his arms and legs to the chair. He struggled desperately and kept on howling like a pig that was being butchered. His Master slowly said, “Hit him for half an hour, or you can tell us anything if you beat him up.” “Why did you hit me? I already said everything, yet you still hit me wuu ...

Cui Xinle looked at her senior sister in fear and didn’t know what she wanted to do. I also didn’t know what she wanted to do, but senior sister shakily walked over to him and used the colored brush to draw on his face, “Damn fatty, I’ll let you speak nonsense. I’ll teach you a lesson.”

As she finished her sentence, her senior apprentice-sister drew random drawings on his face, causing Cui Xianle to groan in pain. A moment later, the senior apprentice sister stopped, her face covered in confusion. “I’ll give you a blush.” The Senior Sister then used a red colored pen to draw two red circles on his face. His appearance was as funny as it could get.

“Hey hey, I don’t want to live anymore ...” “Wu, wu, wu.” The senior sister held a mirror in front of Cui Xinle. Seeing how ugly he was in the mirror, Cui Xinle could not help but cry. He had not expected this fellow to care so much about his face. It seemed that this was better than hitting him.

Master, from what I see, he doesn’t look like a person with spiritual energy, but more like a person who is cut off from spiritual energy. He can’t act like this just because he has a sliver of spiritual energy.” I looked at Cui Xinle, whose face was covered in snot from crying, and said to my master, “That is not necessarily true. This person looks good, and is destined to be a blessed person. His eyes are clear and clear. Only a person with abundant spiritual energy would have such clear eyes.” “Then his current appearance is...” “Haha, you said that the wolf would not eat a piece of fat meat if you placed it next to the wolf?

The First Senior Brother said, “If that’s the case, it should be because Pei Hong sucked all of his spiritual energy dry that he became such a fool.” His Master walked over, put her hand on his head and pinched it. “Ai, my skull is already empty. After a while, I will become a real fool.” The majority of the spiritual energy was concentrated in the three acupuncture points on the Star River, which were also channels where spiritual energy flowed back and forth. Under the nourishment of spiritual energy, people’s minds would grow active, so people who had sufficient spiritual energy would grow more active, and only then, they would become smarter, and people who had less spiritual energy would become more stupid. Without the nourishment of spiritual energy, people's brains would slowly shrink, and their spiritual energy would completely dry up.

Looking at how Cui Xile was crying in the mirror, I suddenly realised that this person was a little pitiful. Even though he was working hard for a demon like Pei Hongdu, he was also a victim.

"Hey, Fatty, are you scared?" The Senior Sister giggled as she looked at Cui Xile, "I'm afraid of me, alright? Whatever you want me to do, as long as I don't starve to death." Cui Xile said obediently. Seems like to this guy, starving to death was the biggest punishment in the world.

His Master walked forward and asked: "Cui Xile, aside from helping Gu Li, what other wicked things have you done? Also, what medicine did you feed Gu Li? Is there something wrong with his mind after he took the medicine?" When Gu Li was plotting with Cui Xile, they had discussed about it. Gu Li had given him a lot of money, but Cui Xile had even given him that kind of medicine, which seemed to have an extremely magical effect. 's craziness was also related to that medicine, otherwise, how could a normal person go crazy so easily.

"That medicine, it wasn't mine. It was given to me by the authorities. They told me to give it to those who have yet to finish it. Once you've consumed it, you'll be obedient." Cui Xile said softly, his master said, "What is an incomplete product?" Cui Xile said: It's those people that I found, we call those who did not take the pills as incomplete, those who took the pills as completed, that medicine is really effective, sometimes I get unwell and also take that medicine, and also, whoever comes to look for me, I will also give them the pill, they will not feel uncomfortable eating it, it's really comfortable.

He actually treated people like goods and even finished them. He said that he would listen to them once he took the medicine, and this medicine even seemed to be a little strange. His Master asked, "Then tell me, how many pills do you have now? Where are they?" Cui Xile said: "I still have a little on me, I want to give what to Gu Li. The rest are all at home."

I rummaged through his body and found a small bag in my back pocket. Inside was some black powder. He said, "Yes, I don't usually carry it with me."

Cui Xile's house is his old nest. We asked around and went straight to it on the second day, it was even a rich district, it seems like Cui Xile had spent quite a bit of money these years, but he had already empty-handed and had everything in his house, but they were all useless things. He flipped through the entire floor and did not manage to find anything, it seems like Cui Xile's underlings acted really quickly, and brought everything along when they found out that Cui Xile disappeared.

"Damn it, we're a bit late." I kicked the tea table angrily. Senior brother Ju Yi said, "These people have done all kinds of bad things, they are like birds who get frightened every day. How can they not be sensitive? He bent down and picked up a black box that had appeared under the coffee table I had kicked over.

The senior apprentice brother shook his head. When he opened it, he saw dense red and blue wires and a few tubes. After opening them, they made a beeping sound. I went over to take a look. "What is this ..." The senior brother suddenly opened his eyes widely and pushed me away, throwing the black box towards the window. I didn't know why senior brother was so excited, but he used so much strength, so much that when the black box broke through the window, the window was not completely broken, and only a hole that was not much bigger than the box itself was opened. The senior brother's action scared me, and before I could ask, a loud 'boom' sound came from the outside.

I even saw a huge piece of broken glass flying straight towards my face. It was extremely fast, but in this moment of crisis, the Fox Blood in my body started to surge out, and time suddenly slowed down. I twisted my body to avoid the broken glass while covering my head with my jacket.

"Senior Brother, are you alright?" The senior brother laid on the ground motionlessly. I thought he was knocked unconscious and asked worriedly. The senior brother slowly got up and rubbed his ears as he looked at me and said, "You ..." Why aren't you lying down, standing there foolishly? " I took off my outer garment, and the white shirt inside turned into streaks of red, especially on both sides of my body. I counted about a dozen or so cuts, some of them long and some of them short.

"Seriously, he doesn't have any common sense at all." While inspecting my wounds, he asked with a tone full of reproach and concern, "Senior Brother, was that black box a bomb?" I asked, "You just found out. Alright, let's hurry up and leave. The explosion must have attracted a lot of people over. It would be troublesome if someone saw it."

After we went back, we told Master about this matter. Master said, "I had long guessed that those people would run away. Their organization is strict, so they wouldn't be so careless as to leave us with some information." Senior Brother Ju Yi said: "Moreover, he even left us with a huge gift. Fortunately, I was the one who discovered the bomb, Hao Zi ... Oh right, Hao Zi, how are your injuries? "

On the way back, I was worried that someone would notice that I was wearing my coat. I also remembered what my senior brother had said and hurriedly took off my coat, causing the blood vessels on my white shirt to dry up. Senior sister was shocked and exclaimed, "What's going on? Quickly take it off and let me have a look."

I took off my shirt as well, and strangely discovered that all of those big and small wounds had healed, leaving behind only faint scars. Senior sister and Master and Senior brother surrounded me and looked at me in surprise, occasionally letting out surprised sounds, and Master said, "Hao Zi, the Fox Blood on your body is really a good thing. Looks like the Fox Blood and you are fusing more and more, awesome, really strong." The Senior Martial Brother patted his wound and said, "How is that possible? We only went back and forth for twenty minutes, and in such a short period of time, they all healed. This is unbelievable. Junior Martial Brother, please teach me."

"Alright, alright, stop looking. I feel embarrassed watching it." I wasn't used to others looking at my nakedness up close. Even though I was very close to them, I still couldn't stand being surrounded like this. Just as I was about to put on my shirt, my senior sister snatched it over and said, "I'll wash you first before wearing it ..." Forget it, just throw it away. Its surface is full of holes. "

It wasn't that he was stubborn, it was just that he was stupid, and had to think of everything for a long time. He struggled so much that he couldn't explain it clearly, angry that his Senior Sister had just used up all the information in his mouth, while Cui Xile looked at the fat cat on his stomach and cried for a whole day.

"It's really meat. The meat died." Looking at the crying Cui Xile, Senior Sister was so angry that she threw away the colored brush and looked at Cui Xile angrily. Cui Xile was only concerned with shouting and howling, as though Senior Sister had done something to him that would harm the heavens and the earth. I sat to the side and looked at the two of them as if they were watching a crosstalk.

"Let me ask you, little fatty, have you ever taken this medicine before?" The senior sister held the colored pen in front of him and threatened, "I ..." I... I eat, I've eaten quite a bit. " Cui Xile cried as he spoke.

"Oh? "What reaction will there be from this pill? Will it transform into a big bad wolf and howl under the moon?" "I haven't become a big bad wolf, nor have I shouted at the moon. Once I'm in a bad mood, I will eat some, or if my appetite is not good, and when I'm not sleeping well ..." "You also have times when you're in a bad mood, and times when you have a bad appetite and sleep?" "Yes, if I can't find the finished product for the hall master, then the hall master will scold me if he's in a bad mood, then my mood will be very bad, and also, that Little Flower who looked for me to treat that time looked for me once, and I won't look for her again. My mood is also bad, if I'm not in a good mood I won't be able to eat anything, so I'll take some medicine myself, and after eating ..." "What happens after you eat it?" After eating, your mood will be better. You will also be able to sleep, and you will still be able to fly in your dreams. "

Thinking of this, I touched the small bag in my pocket and made up my mind. I decided to test the medicine by myself, stood up, and said to my senior sister, "Senior sister, I'm going to sleep first." Just as I was about to leave, Senior Sister pulled me back and said, "I'm also tired. Please accompany me for a walk. This room is too stuffy." With that, he pulled me out.

"Senior sister, I'm really tired. After wasting so much time with him, aren't you tired? Hurry up and go rest." I said. Senior sister mysteriously pulled me to the backyard and whispered after looking around, "Listen to me. I have an idea. Can you give me that pill? I'll take a sip and see what the consequences are. What do you think?"

Senior sister was actually thinking the same thing as me. I said, "We were thinking the same thing. I was thinking the same thing. He said that this pill would be very obedient after eating it. Why wouldn't I believe him?" "Well, I'll have a bite to eat, and you can watch me from the side."

After I escaped from the medicine, my senior sister dipped her index finger in the liquid and placed it in her mouth. She tasted it and said, "It's not very tasty, it's a little sweet." I said, "Do you feel anything unusual? Do you feel the world spinning around you?" The Senior Sister shook her head and said, "No, I don't feel anything. Did I eat less?" After saying that, he put some more into his mouth.

Seeing how her senior sister was still enjoying the food, it seemed that the food was quite tasty. After five minutes, the senior sister stood up and said, "Is this medicine out of date? Why is it not effective at all?"

I said, "Maybe I ate too little. How about I eat a bit? Watch over me." I took out a handful and put it in my mouth. It tasted sweet and melted in my mouth. I waited for a while.

The senior sister said, "Even after you eat it, you still won't have any reaction. This medicine is really not very effective ..." "Hey, who is that person?" With that, she pointed at the wall and asked, "Which family's child is squatting on the wall and isn't afraid of falling?" I said, "Who's there? You're still a child? Senior sister, you must have drunk too much. Ah ..." Whose child is that? "

Not too long ago, a few children suddenly appeared on the wall, squatting steadily on it. The distance between them was the same, they were all girls, some even had ponytails, and one of them was smiling at me, "Are those girls from nearby? Why haven't I seen them before?" What little girl? She's clearly a few mischievous little boys. What's wrong with your eyes? Why are your eyes so red? "

The senior sister tilted her head and looked at me strangely. I asked, "My eyes are red?" The senior sister nodded and said with certainty, "Red, could it be that you didn't sleep well last night?" No, I slept pretty well last night. "

"Come come come, let me wash your face. Why is it that your face is so dirty? Red and white?" Senior sister said as she looked at me with a frown. She pulled me to the side of the pool and we finished doing the dishes. "Come, let me wash your face." Senior Sister stretched out her hand and entered the pool, wetting it. However, I saw that the pool water was extremely muddy, and Senior Sister's hand was also dirty from the water, so she still needed to use this dirty hand to wash my face.

"Senior sister, your hands are so dirty, why is this water so dirty?" When I saw that my senior sister was going to use that dirty water to wash my face, I quickly pushed her away.

The Senior Sister said, "What are you dirty for? Hurry up and come over." He grabbed me by the collar and put his other black hand on my face. The smell of earth entered my nose and my mouth was filled with something dry that made me retch.

"Why is it that the more I wash, the dirtier it becomes." Senior Sister was still earnestly helping me wipe my face. I pulled her back and said, "Stop wiping it, stop wiping it. Look at this ..." Before I could finish, a rope suddenly appeared in Senior Sister's hand. I was wondering where she had pulled out the rope, and while I was staring at it, the rope suddenly stood up and turned into a green snake with a triangular head.

“Motherf * cker.” I was so scared that I grabbed the snake by its seven inches and threw it out. The moment I threw the snake out, I took a bite out of my hand. When I first got bitten, it didn’t hurt too much, but soon, pain started spreading up my arm.

“Ai ai ai ai ...” “It hurts.” I held onto my wrist with my other hand, slowing down the flow of blood, slightly controlling the flow of the poison, but the pain didn’t diminish at all, instead, it became more and more intense. My arm swelled bigger and bigger, and it looked as if it was about to explode. What are you doing?”

I said, “Hurry up and call... “Shout ...” After yelling for a long time, she couldn’t remember who she was supposed to call. In my subconscious, there was someone I relied on the most, and every time I met with difficulties, he would always be the one helping me. He was someone close to me. “I ...” She didn’t know where to go or what to do. Under the excruciating pain, I suddenly felt unfamiliar with this woman in front of me. Who is she?

The pain in my arm became worse and worse, as if something inside was trying to squeeze my arm out, as if dozens of little bugs were crawling under the skin on my left arm, and as I was barely able to contend with the pain, suddenly, a little bug bit into my bone, and all of a sudden I felt like I had been struck by lightning. It was an unbearable pain, a pain that almost made me cry out in pain, but calmed down the next second, and just when I thought it was just an accident, the overwhelming pain came from the depths of my bone.

I was in a completely crazed state, I almost wanted to pull my arm off right now. I crazily tore at my left arm, trying to peel it off my body, if there was a knife by my side, I would not hesitate to cut off my arm, the pain was unrelenting, I crazily waved my arm, venting out all of the pain and resentment in my heart. I didn’t even know what I had grabbed, I didn’t know what I had done to tear it off.

I could no longer see what was around me, only the blur of the world, the constant shifting of day and night, the voices of different people in my ears, the screams, the laughter, the weeping, the whispering, the shouting, men and women, young and old, even in languages I didn’t understand, and there was an old woman’s muttering that made me feel like a magic spell, the voices all around me, but I knew they were voices I could never touch, they seemed to come from another space.

All of a sudden, a sharp whistle streaked across the top of my head, and along with this loud roar, the noise disappeared. Following that, the scene in front of me cleared up, and it seemed that someone had taken away the black curtain in front of my eyes, and the pain in my arm also disappeared in an instant. I don't know why, but I did not rush to check my left arm, but raised my head to follow the direction of the sharp cry.

Looking at the giant bird flying away in the dark clouds, I suddenly felt a burst of exhaustion. The fatigue caused me to close my eyes, and I almost immediately fell asleep.

A feeling of extreme comfort and lightness came from my body. I slowly woke up from my sleep, but I couldn't bear to open my eyes, so I wanted to experience more of this refreshing feeling, this feeling as if there was nothing in my body that obstructed me, as if my entire body was filled with vitality, as if every pore in my body was fully opened, as if a cold sensation was entering my body through my pores and flowing through my body.

"Sigh ..." This feeling persisted for a long time. I couldn't help but open my mouth to express the joy in my heart, but I didn't know how to say it or what to say, so I could only let out a sigh.

"He's awake." I still don't open my eyes. I have a feeling that once I do, the coolness will dissipate, and I don't know why, but this is instinct, a kind of instinct, and very soon, I hear the sound of hurried footsteps. "Really? Let me see."

This voice was very familiar, it was my senior sister's voice. I was very curious, was I sleeping just now? Why was senior sister so excited when she heard that I was awake?

Senior sister came over and sat beside me, patting my face. "Ai, wake up. Why are you still sleeping? Weren't you already awake?" "Just now, he let out a sigh and then he stopped moving." Then a finger came to my nose. "Breathe." Then the hand went to my wrist and gave me my pulse, "Hiss ..." "Why is it so slow ..." "He can't be sick, right?" No way ... I just need to get some sleep... "No way, he hasn't been sick for many years ..."

The hand that gave me my pulse was slender and powerful, it must be senior sister's hand. I suddenly grabbed her hand and laughed out loud, scaring her, "You're scaring me to death!" Senior sister complained as I slowly opened my eyes. The comfort I felt made my body feel was incomparably light. I couldn't help but stretch my body. Senior sister stared at me angrily. After I finished stretching, she said, "Are you alright?"

I replied, "It's fine, Senior Sister." The Senior Sister pointed at the woman beside her and said, "When Auntie Jia saw you lying on the ground without moving, she thought something was wrong with you. That's why she called me here." "No, did you forget that you were lying here?" Jia Wen said.

The Senior Sister thought back for a moment and then said, "That seems to be the case. I also lost consciousness here. What happened next?" Then I woke you up, but I couldn't wake him. When you wake up, go to the house and get some water. "

"Right, right, I'll give you some water." Senior sister passed her hand to me, but I didn't feel the slightest bit of thirst. I shook my head and said, "I'm not thirsty. It's just that my mind is a little messy ..." Me too, forget about entering the house, it's almost dark. "

When the three of us entered the room, I didn't know if it was due to the confusion in my mind or what was going on, but I felt that I was very sensitive to everything around me, even the slightest fluctuation in the air. Although I used to be sensitive to six senses, that was something that required a lot of concentration in order to be able to accomplish.

"Whew." I sat on the sofa and exhaled a deep breath. Feeling the sensation of being pressed to the bottom of the sofa until it started to deform and slowly recover, Senior Sister and Jia Wen chatted, "Auntie Jia, did you see me fall down in the courtyard just now?" Yeah, you're lying by the flower pond, I thought you were asleep at first, so I went out to wake you up. But when I went out, I saw Sun Hao lying on the ground, which scared me, and then I woke you up, but he couldn't wake you up. "

The Senior Sister seemed to have thought of something and said, "Oh, I seem to remember. Um, Auntie Jia, when my master and the others come back, please don't tell them. Junior Brother and I are actually secretly training. When we're tired, we fall asleep." "It's so dangerous. Then I won't tell anyone else. It's better that you don't train like this in the future. It's too scary. Say, if you have a Qi deviation, like in a martial arts novel, how scary would that be?" "Hmm, I won't practice anymore. It's so scary, I'm scared now."

I silently listened to their conversation and gradually recalled the matter of me and senior sister secretly consuming medicine. I remembered that after we ate the medicine, everything in our surroundings slowly changed and I unconsciously fell into immense pain. When I woke up again, the sky was already about to turn dark.

I don't know if this is a good thing or a bad thing, but so far, I don't feel that there's anything out of place. Very quickly, Senior Sister felt hungry, and it's no wonder that she didn't feel hungry after lying in the courtyard for an entire afternoon. She invited Jia Wen and I to go eat.

Lying in bed, I tried to remember what I experienced in my coma, but I couldn't think of anything at all. All my memories were fragmented, and I thought of that cry, that dark red blackened bird, the black clouds, the sound, the pain.

For some reason, I couldn't sleep at all. An unknown feeling made me feel uncomfortable, as if something very important had been left behind. I got up and tried to recall, but to my surprise, as I looked at the walls surrounding the house, I suddenly felt a little stuffy.

The First Martial Uncle's house is very big, and my room is not small either. Furthermore, I open the windows every day to air myself, so I definitely won't feel dejected, and have never felt dejected before either. But now, I actually feel dejected, and this kind of depressing feeling caused me to involuntarily walk out and climb to the top of the building.

When I stood on the second floor, I felt that the First Martial Uncle's house was too short and not tall enough. Looking at the house, I could see that there was a tall building several tens of floors in the distance that was brightly lit, I was ecstatic, this is it, I jumped down from the second floor, flipped out of the courtyard wall, and headed straight for the tall building.

I ran more and more excitedly, faster and faster. I had forgotten that I had only had lunch and a few sips of water, and it had been ten hours since then.

But I was not at all hungry or tired, and I did not even want to drink water. If I had been more careful, I would have realized that this state of affairs was unusual, even dangerous.

Below the building was a residential building. Below the building was a night market, which was bustling with noise and activity. I looked up and saw that I couldn't see the building, but the lights on the roof definitely didn't reach it. No one would notice how long I climbed up there.

I circled around the building in search of a way to climb the stairs. At the back of the building were rows of ladders, about two or three meters off the ground. I took a few steps back and sprinted forward, my feet on the wall, reaching the ladders with a single hand. There were dozens of floors in the building, and I was so excited that I forgot about my fear of heights that without any security measures, I climbed the stairs all the way up to the top floor.

"Whew", the wind was so strong that I felt a strong gust of wind when I stood on the roof. I wasn't afraid, I only felt comfortable, the night wind was cooler than the day, I opened my arms, walked slowly in the wind, slowly closed my eyes, relaxed my entire body, and felt the comfort that came from within.

As I stood on the rooftop, I suddenly felt a familiar feeling, that cool air filled my entire body, taking away all the dirt in my body, I became more and more excited, I realized something, that feeling like when I was half asleep and half awake, every pore on my body opened up, my body felt light, thinking of this, I unconsciously drew a circle with my hands in the air, my hands placed on my lower abdomen, I slowly sat down, slightly closed my eyes, all my consciousness concentrated on my lower abdomen, my lower abdomen slowly produced a suction force, countless cold air were drawn into my body through each pore.

In this realm, I didn't realize where my body was. My mind wandered everywhere but I didn't feel as if there was nowhere to place it, as if everywhere was my destination. I knew that this was a reaction that only when my spirit was extremely calm would I be able to react.

Could it be that this is my spiritual world, or perhaps this is the illusion created by me when I'm in this realm? Master once told me, everyone has their own spiritual world, but it is very difficult for ordinary people to enter it, only through long-term cultivation, when one's mental strength reaches a certain level, it is possible to enter it, and everyone's spiritual world is different. It is said that the formation of this kind of space is related to all the previous lives.

It was as if I had never been so calm and tranquil before, allowing myself to float on the sea of clouds as I looked at the pillar that supported the sky. I thought of something, and floated towards the pillar, slowly approaching, only to see that the pillar was extremely thick, and that it was deep into the sea of clouds, and above the pillar was a distant horizon, and on the pillar, there were all kinds of beautiful engravings. I touched the pillar, but I didn't feel any sense of emotion or surprise, as if I was already familiar with everything here.

With both hands on the pillar, I slide down through the thick clouds, feeling the cool wind on my face, all so familiar, and suddenly I feel like I'm home, and as I slide down, I feel like I'm expecting something. When I reach the ground, I step on solid ground, and I look around me, and I see an endless expanse of flat ground, with short grass or tall trees, and I see endless green, but the vegetation is dense but lifeless, and it takes me a moment to realize that there are no animals here.

Or it could be said that there were no other creatures here, not even ants. There were also no birds flying in the sky. In the endless sky, there was only me here.

I stood there silently, looking into the distance, where the sun was nowhere to be seen, but where the sky was bright, and from time to time there were endless clouds drifting past in the sky, and I raised my head to look at them, and it was beautiful, and high up in the sky I did not feel the least bit of dizziness, because everything here was my own, and just as I was lost in the beauty of this fantasy world, a loud roar cut across the sky. In this empty world, this roar was so striking that even when I was calm inside, I could not help but look back into the distance.

I even heard the sound produced by the friction between its huge body and the air. As the huge bird slowly disappeared into the distance, I suddenly felt a little reluctant to part with it as I looked at its back, this kind of huge being that I would definitely not be able to see in the human world, I actually didn't feel any fear when I was alone, I only saw that there seemed to be some kind of connection between us, the feeling it brought me was as familiar as the feeling the world gave me. Where have I seen it before?

It seemed to be looking at me, and I could feel its sharp gaze, accompanied by a sharp screech. I remembered that in my extreme pain, it was this screech that had awakened me, and also, I had seen it in my dreams countless times. The two birds in my dreams were exactly the same as it was, especially this screech, which clearly belonged to it.

I looked up at it. It was no longer flying, but was hovering above my head, slowly drifting down and landing in front of me, its enormous wings retracted, this bird was enormous, its feathers were almost entirely red, the feathers at its back were dark red and black, the two claws were strong and forceful, as if they were made of diamond, the tips of its fingers were sharp, and there was a round ball on its head. With undisguised eyes, it appeared in front of me, but the pressure only stopped for a moment, and soon I could feel it looking at me as if it had not seen me in a long time.

I walked slowly towards it, it lowered its huge head, I reached out to stroke its mouth and head, every inch of its body was so familiar to me, I had seen every feather in its body a thousand times, I could even feel what it was like when it was flying through the air, it was like it was me, I was it, I motioned for it to lower its head, in fact I didn't have any movement or language, I only wished it would lower its head, I wanted it to touch the sarcoma on its head, it knew my thoughts, it did, I lowered my almost trembling hands to the top of its head, just as I was about to touch its sarcomas, I suddenly raised my head and roared.

As I watched it fly away, my heart was filled with disappointment. I didn't know why, but I was filled with reluctance to let it go. It was as if a part of me had been pulled out of me.

With a sharp intake of breath, I opened my eyes. In front of me were innumerable tall buildings, some bright and some dark, and as the wind blew against my body, my consciousness completely returned. Only then did I remember that I was still on top of the building, standing up and moving my stiff body, unable to remember how long I had been there, and how I had entered that illusory realm.

I suddenly heard a noise coming from downstairs and realized that my ears had temporarily lost their function. I stood on the edge of the top floor and looked down, but to my surprise, my fear of heights had disappeared. I climbed down the ladder once more.

For several days in a row, I wanted to enter that realm again, but there was no more, not to mention entering the Spiritual World. Even if I tried to enter a different high ground, it would be useless, I seemed to have forgotten the method of entering that realm, no matter how strong the wind was, it would only make me bored, and I wouldn't feel the coolness from it. However, the last time I entered that realm, I didn't eat for two days and only drank a little water between them.

"Master, the Qi Testing Room's master said that this medicine can open a person's spiritual energy acupoints. In addition, it also has a magical effect." Senior brother Ju Yi took the medicine and went to the headquarters to have it examined. The First Martial Uncle said: "En, it's pretty much as I expected, opening the Spirit Qi acupoint can let the Spirit Qi leak out, probably to make people listen to him, although this type of medicine is not good, but it would not take a person's life. Ju Yi, find a place to bury it."

As soon as senior brother Ji had just left, a person came in from the outside. The person looked to be in a hurry as he was very familiar with grandpa, so he passed a letter to grandpa and left without saying anything else. grandpa opened the letter with a serious expression and after looking at it for a while, he stuffed the letter back into his pocket and sat down heavily on the sofa.

The First Martial Uncle said: "Something has happened to Ju E, but it probably isn't a big deal. The higher ups asked if I want to go to the front lines, I don't know how to reply." What? Something happened to Senior Brother Ju E? My heart tightened, although Senior Brother Ju E cannot speak, my relationship with him did not alienate in the slightest. After hearing that something happened to him, I was immediately excited, "First Martial Uncle, let's go together, I'm worried about Senior Brother Ju E."

That night, First Martial Uncle and Master discussed things for a long time, but didn't let me and Senior Brother Ju Yi hear about it. When Senior Brother Ju Yi heard that something had happened to Senior Brother Ju E, his reaction was even stronger than mine, after all, they grew up together from a young age, and the depth of their emotions couldn't be compared to mine, "Those people really didn't know how to take care of him. Senior brother Ju Yi said vexedly.

"You two, pack up and come with me. Qian Zhen, accompany First Martial Uncle to look after the house. We will be back soon." My master called me and my senior brother, my master and First Martial Uncle decided to act separately.

Looking at him, it seems that he is still very anxious towards Senior Brother Ju E, but he seems to be able to suppress his anxious mood. That night, when the moon has just risen, we were prepared to give Gu Junshan a final call to the spirit.

"The soul summoning for the past few days has been going smoothly. There shouldn't be any accidents this time, right? It all depends on the will of the heavens." Master and First Martial Uncle lit up seven lamps, and sat down to call out Gu Junshan's soul. Senior Brother Ju Yi and I stood to the left and right of the protectors.

After carrying on for more than half an hour until the last remnant soul entered Gu Junshan's body, Gu Junshan's pale white face suddenly had a change, and the change was indescribable, but the feeling it gave people was extremely obvious. When his soul was not complete, Gu Junshan's face looked like an empty leather bag, and even though there was no change in his facial features, it looked like it was made out of plastic, and even though his eyes were still tightly shut, the kind of life that was being emitted internally and externally was actually so real.

When he was carrying her back, Jia Wen was so excited that he couldn't control himself. If it wasn't for his Senior Sister supporting him, watching her excited fight between the two sides, he couldn't even seem to be able to stand steadily.

"Master, he ... How is he? Isn't today the last time? Why hasn't he woken up yet?" Jia Wen asked anxiously, the First Martial Uncle said: "Calm down, he is fine, I think he will wake up tonight or tomorrow. Go and prepare some wormwood and hot water for him, his soul has just returned, he is not yet warm, and can run out at any time to smoke and calm down. Also, Hao Zi and Ju Yi will help him bathe."

Jia Wen was younger than Gu Junshan by a few years, so back then, when Gu Junshan didn't believe her, and only thought that she had done something that defied the law and chased her out of the house, not only did Jia Wen not blame him, he even went back to his side secretly to help him. Even though he had lost a thousand gold and his family members had all perished, he did not abandon him.

Senior Brother Ju Yi and I went back to our own rooms to pack up our luggage and prepared to set off early tomorrow. That night, just as I was about to sleep, I suddenly felt a strong wave go straight to my head.

In the middle of the night, with no one around me being quiet, I suddenly woke up. My six senses had been stimulated by the fluctuations, and I could immediately hear every single movement around me clearly. I could even see the particles on the wall clearly.

I touched my waist, but there was no change in it. I stared around me, and the girl's voice never came out again, Damn it, could it be that someone else was watching us, to be so daring? I couldn't hold it in any longer, so I got out of bed and prepared to leave. Just as I opened the blanket, the dizziness in my head started again, and this time I couldn't help but fall asleep on the bed.

“Hahaha.” In front of me was a series of bell-like laughter. I followed the laughter and walked forward. The blue sky grass in front of me was so beautiful that it made me feel better. My burning heart also quieted down.

After we passed a hillside, the scenery ahead was even better. The stream gurgled with red flowers and green grass, and there were birds chirping from time to time. I couldn't help but laugh as I looked at the birds flying towards me from time to time.

“What are you laughing at?” A girl walked over slowly and looked at me with a slightly angry expression. I looked at the girl who had suddenly appeared and wondered.

“Who are you?” I asked, “How rude, why are you so stiff? I came here before you. Should I ask who you are first?”

Indeed, she was already here, perhaps this was her home. I was an intruder, but for some reason, I had a feeling that this place belonged to me, which was why I couldn't help but have the consciousness of a master. It was normal for strangers to suddenly appear.

“Ah ...” “You're right, your home is around here, right?” I said, and she said, “You... You really don't know?” What are you talking about? I don't even know you so there seems to be something wrong with this little girl. I said, “Little girl, we've never met before, right?” She giggled. “I've never met her, but even if I had, I'd have forgotten.”

I looked carefully at the person in front of me, and after looking from head to toe, I couldn't remember anything, so I said, “That one. Little girl, do you know me?” She shook her head and said slowly, “No, okay.” After saying that, he turned around and skipped away.

This person was really strange. I looked at the endless green grass around me, and I didn't know why, but I felt really good. I followed her footsteps and said, “Little girl, if your home is nearby, then you should go home. Look at the sky ...” After saying that, I looked up at the sky. Suddenly, I realized that there was no sun, no moon, and there was nothing. However, the light was still so bright. I really didn't know what was illuminating this place.

She turned her head and looked at me with astonishment as she looked at the expression in the sky. “What, is it really that strange? This is your home, so what's so strange about it?” My home. After hearing her words and adding on the unique feeling I got from this place, I suddenly felt as though I had caught onto the tail of my mind. I kept saying to myself, "My home, my home ..."

I remember now. This is my Spiritual World. I entered here last time, and that giant bird also came. This is my personal space. Then, who is this girl and why would she appear here?

"Just who are you? Why are you in my spiritual world?" My master once said that a person's spiritual world belongs entirely to their personal and absolute privacy. No matter what, no one can enter, because this is a brand engraved on the soul. "Speak, who are you really?" I knew it was not good, and my tone turned cold.

She looked at me in fear and quickly said, "Why are you so angry? I'm not a bad person." I said, "Tell me who you are and how you got in." I don't know how I got in. A few days ago, the light here attracted me, so I came in. It's so bright here.

The more she spoke, the softer her voice got, as though she's been caught stealing something. Hearing her words, I was a little confused, she just came in so muddle-headedly, how could that be possible, unless ... Thinking of this, I suddenly remembered, could she be the twin souls within my body?

Grandma Liu had said that my mother's womb was twins, meaning that there were two souls in the womb, two bodies. But for some reason, as the two bodies merged into one, the souls were unable to merge and thus were squeezed into one body, which is my current body, my spiritual energy is stronger than hers, holding her down, she stayed in my body for so many years, until I almost forgot about her existence.

That is to say, this girl in front of me is my unborn sister, and I remember her as a twin. At the thought of this, my doubts towards her were dispelled.

"Then where were you before?" I asked, and she said, "I don't know. I was confused all the time, as if it were a very dark place with nothing. I stayed there for a long time ..." I touched her head pitifully and said, "Then you can stay here from now on. You like it here."

She was startled by my sudden action, and as soon as my hand touched her head, she flinched and stared at me with innocent eyes, as if wondering why my attitude had changed so quickly, and why I was smiling now with a ferocious look.

“What are you doing?” I was about to tell her about my twin souls, but then I suddenly shut my mouth again. This girl originally had a body that should be as healthy as mine, but after her body disappeared, she could only live in someone else’s body. Furthermore, she has been in an unknown space for so many years.

“Then, have you always been here before?” When I said this, she lowered her head and said, “No, I can sleep. When I wake up, my surroundings will change a bit. But it’s still very boring. Everything is dark and there’s nothing.” The more she spoke, the quieter her voice became. Listening to her words, I also felt a little depressed.

“Then in the future ...” “Do you like it here?” “I like it, it used to be much stronger here.” “Fine, you can stay here forever.” “However, there is no one here. I am always alone.” I know that she is too lonely, I can’t imagine how she has been here for so long. I just hope that the state of her soul in someone else’s body is different from that of a normal person. Perhaps she doesn’t feel this sad, or perhaps she doesn’t notice the passage of time.

“Yeah, there’s no one here either ...” “Then how about I come and accompany you more often in the future?” “Is it really okay? Is this your home? You asked me just now, is my home here? It seems that your home is here?”

I smiled and said, “This is my home. I’m not always at home. If you’re alone, I’ll come and accompany you, okay?” “Alone ...” “She silently chewed on the word, as if she didn’t really understand its meaning.” Being alone is always alone. If you don’t like it, you’re always alone, right? ” “I don’t like it.” “I don’t like it either. How about we be friends? My name is Sun Hao, what’s your name?” I don’t know my name either. ” I saw a small flower blooming at my feet. I pointed at it and said, “Look at this flower. You are called Little Flower.” After saying that, I squatted down and was about to give the flower to her. She hurriedly said, “Don’t catch it.

Her reaction was fast, and before I could place my hand on Little Flower, she had already grabbed my wrist. Don’t underestimate her size, her strength is quite strong.

“What’s wrong?” I asked curiously. She said, “If you take it off, it dies.” Just because of this, I wondered why. I said, “Alright, alright, alright. I won’t take it off. Let go of me.” As I spoke, she held on to my wrist so tightly that I could feel the ache in my veins. Where did this little girl get so much strength from? It was scary.

Hearing my words, she slowly let go of my hand, but still looked at me. I smiled as I shook my wrist. “Why are you so tired? Also, what’s wrong with these flowers?” She lowered her head to look at Little Flower without saying a word, as if blaming me for my actions just now. Actually, when I thought about it, strictly speaking, there was something wrong with me as well.

When Brother Liang asked me about plants and souls, Brother Liang told me that all living things have souls, and plants are no exception, but even families who come from the same clan have to eat to maintain their lives, why can’t they eat meat and eat plants? Brother Liang said that the living beings of the world can be divided into two types: emotionless and heartless, and this refers to plants that have no memory, have no understanding of their own suffering and happiness, and do not know their relationship with the outside world. This kind of life is called emotionless.

Humans and animals could be considered creatures of love, humans knew about honor, humiliation, joy, gratitude, and hatred, although animals were not as good as humans, but they also had relatively simple thoughts and feelings, so humans could interact with animals and produce feelings, and no matter what people did, they would not be able to produce the slightest bit of emotional entanglement with any kind of plant. Even so, when a plant was harmed, it would still cause resentment, even though this resentment was very small.

Even if we look at it with the naked eye, it seems clear and transparent, as if there’s nothing else, because they can’t think, they don’t feel pain, so they won’t feel resentment, the cause of resentment is because they feel pain and fear before they die, and the reason for that is because they can’t feel the negative emotions, the experts would clear away the resentment before they eat the meat, so eating the meat again would be no different from eating the vegetarian food, so eating the meat without any resentment would also decrease the taste, it’s just that no one’s cultivation can’t detect it.

I looked at the spirited little girl in front of me and suddenly had an idea. “Don’t you have no name? Let me give you one. Look at how beautiful this little flower is. You’re called Little Flower, right?” She happily said, “Okay, Little Flower, this is a good name.” Little Flower and I are having fun here. I don’t know how long it has been since I have felt so happy. This place is far from the suffering of the human world, so I almost don’t want to leave.

“Hey, Hao Zi, get up.” I was woken up by my master and sat up in a daze. “The car is waiting outside. Hurry up and wash up. What happened to your eyes?” I blinked a few times as I didn’t feel that anything was wrong. “What’s wrong, Master?”

Master carefully looked at my eyes and said, “It seems a little red, didn’t you rest well last night?” I said, “Maybe.” “Hurry up, don’t let others wait too long.”

The person who sent us off was a middle-aged man, and upon seeing us, he was slightly surprised. After greeting Master, he looked at me and Senior Brother Ju Yi and asked: “Which is Senior Brother Ju Yi?” His master was from the same generation as the First Martial Uncle, so he was also from the same generation as Senior Brother Ju Yi. On the other hand, it seemed that he was slightly older than Senior Brother Ju Yi, so he did not know why he called him Senior Brother Ju Yi.

After we got in the car, he chatted with us while driving, his tone filled with admiration for Senior Brother Ju Yi. It was only later on that I found out that most of the people in the same generation in the department called Senior Brother Ju Yi Senior Brother, on one hand because of politeness, and also because of the contributions that Senior Brother Ju Yi had rendered to the department in the recent years, making him famous, which was why he was acknowledged and respected by the people in the same generation. It could be said that this time, First Martial Uncle did not let Senior Brother Ju Yi go to the front line was also because of the higher ups’ suggestions.

This person was called Liu Heng and had been in the department for ten years, and was considered an old man in the department. However, due to his limited abilities, he could only do some errands, and how could such a person enter the department in a short time, and even stay there for ten years, it had something to do with his master. His master’s name was Xie Tiandu, and was someone who entered the department earlier than Pei Hongdu, and it was exactly this Xie Tiandu who was able to tell that Pei Hongdu was an Asura who had reincarnated, and the Asura Qi on his body was too strong, causing him to almost appear as an Asura.

Speaking of his master, Xie Tiandu, Liu Heng let out a bitter laugh. So it turned out that Xie Tian had taken in quite a few disciples in his entire life, Liu Heng was his last generation disciple, his personality was unstable and his movements were mysterious, he had always been impure when he proposed to the department. When Pei Hongdu had left the department, he claimed that he had offended Pei Hongdu, and thus, he never heard of Pei Hongdu taking revenge on him, and he only taught Liu Heng a few sentences. Then, he shamelessly asked the department to give Liu Heng a job driving.

At night, we finally arrived at the place, and the four of us anxiously went to find Senior Brother Ju E. Although this was in the hospital, Senior Brother Ju E’s entire body was not bandaged at all, so we were finally able to relax. The person who received us was the person in charge here, and after hearing his words, we realized that the things that happened to Senior Brother Ju E were much more serious than his injuries.

In the operation a few days ago, Senior Brother Ju E was ambushed and injured by poisonous needles from members of the Longevity Hall. After being poisoned, Senior Brother Ju E's spirit energy was released continuously through the three major acupoints on his head, even a person with a lot of spirit energy like Senior Brother Ju E would not be able to withstand it, once there was spirit energy, he would become a fool.

I said why did Senior Brother Ju E look at us with empty eyes when he sealed his spiritual energy? So that's the case, when I thought about this, I suddenly felt like laughing, sealed spiritual energy is an extremely dangerous thing, it requires the user to use his full strength to communicate with the world, the sealed spiritual energy had also cut off this person's communication with the world. Not only would the reaction of the person's spiritual energy be greatly reduced, the person without proper memory would not be able to recognize the person for a long period of time, causing irreversible brain atrophy. In this way, even if the three acupoints on the head were opened and spiritual energy was communicated, the nature of the human soul would not recover. In other words, it would become a different person, a completely different soul with the same memory.

Looking at the stupefied person in front of us, the three of us fell into depression. No wonder they said they hoped that First Martial Uncle would come, it was probably because they hoped that First Martial Uncle would be able to save their own disciple. Senior Brother Ju Yi said: "If it really isn't possible, let my master come. His Master disagreed, "No, we can't let him come. He has something to do." I really don't know why First Martial Uncle couldn't come. According to what I know, First Martial Uncle has always doted on Senior Brother Ju E, his youngest disciple, and ever since Ju E couldn't speak, First Martial Uncle has always cared for him, afraid that he might get hurt. This time, I really don't understand First Martial Uncle.

"If Master knew that Junior Brother was like this, he would definitely come." Senior Brother Ju Yi insisted on coming to First Martial Uncle, and his master said: "You don't know, he really has something very important that he cannot leave home without."

Senior Brother Ju Yi sighed heavily, I looked at the dazed Senior Brother Ju E, and thought of the Senior Brother Ju Ming who was lying on the bed at home. Why is it that everyone around me is so unlucky, at this moment, I would rather that Senior Brother Ju E lost an arm or a leg, than to sit there foolishly without moving my eyes at all.

For a moment, we couldn't think of any countermeasures, and could only give Senior Brother Ju E a simple wipe to feed him some porridge, but that wouldn't solve any of the practical problems, especially with Senior Brother Ju E's abundant spirit energy, the rebound of spirit energy would be even stronger, and we don't know what would happen when that happens.

During the day, looking at my master's appearance, it seemed that there was something hard going on in the First Martial Uncle, but it seemed like there were some things that couldn't be explained to us, and even Senior Brother Ju Yi couldn't be told. Thinking about it, I couldn't help but have a strange feeling in my heart, that kind of feeling was very uncomfortable, but I couldn't shake it off.

The hospital was at the edge of the city, and at night there was nothing to see. Everything was dark except for the hospital building, and the surrounding trees rustled in the night wind. I was bored by the sight of them and was about to turn around and lie down when I saw something wrong with the tree.

C158

There was the sound of something flowing on the tree. I didn't know if it was the liquid or something, but I listened attentively. The thing on the tree seemed to have sensed something and didn't react for a long time.

Could it be the same as the guy First Martial Uncle met, when I thought of the few tree branches stuck together and staring at me, I immediately felt uncomfortable, cursing in my heart, looking at my senior brother who was lying on the bed, he was staring at the ceiling with his two lifeless eyes, I knew that I cannot mess around, my senior brother is in need of me now, it's better to not cause trouble, I looked at the big tree outside and closed the curtains.

After a long time, the things around me became even more chaotic. This place is a few hundred kilometers away from First Martial Uncle's home, my intuition tells me that the avatar that appeared outside of First Martial Uncle's house appeared once again, could it be that it had been following us this whole time? Which side does it come from? First Martial Uncle guessed that it was monitoring us and the main target was the Great First Martial Uncle.

Just as I was about to leave, something outside didn't seem to be stopping. Just as I was about to force myself to close my eyes and sleep, a burst of cold suddenly came over, and it was getting stronger and stronger, and there was definitely something unclean coming over. I hurriedly got up and put the Evil

Breaking Symbol that I brought with me between my index and middle fingers, it was also said, a human's index and middle fingers are all the exit points of Yang Qi, the Talisman paper's surface had a rune person's telekinesis, and the deeper they went, the stronger the meditation technique was.

Pressing the Talisman paper to my forehead, I immediately felt a warm feeling flowing down from my forehead and spread across my entire body, causing me to shiver. This is the self-protection mechanism of my body, when my energy is insufficient to resist the outside world, any assistance I encounter will be absorbed and used to expel the bad parts of my body. The power of the Evil Breaking Talisman continued to flow down from my forehead, causing me to no longer feel the cold anymore.

In fact, there is a certain amount of risk to doing this. All runes have a certain amount of suppression and destruction power, and the forehead is the center of the soul gathering, so the Talisman paper's power will be completely channeled into the forehead, and even if it does not cause any obvious harm to the body, it will still have an impact on the soul. Especially since I used a rune drawn by the First Martial Uncle, other people's psychokinesis is not familiar with the user's aura, so the two things will be rejected.

If I were to use the power of Fox Blood and Talisman paper to balance out the energy, then the Talisman paper's power would become a little softer. I would be able to borrow the Talisman paper's pure psychokinesis and also resist the outside world's interference. This Fox Blood is considered unorthodox, and there is a difference between this kind of pure Daoist magic and the Talisman paper's power.

Pressing on the Talisman paper, I secretly took a deep breath to calm my mind, and then suddenly pulled open the curtains. It was pitch black outside, and there was nothing abnormal with it, but I could still feel the bursts of cold yin aura, and furthermore, I could feel it nearby. The yin aura was constantly hitting the aura around me, and it was fortunate that I had the Evil Breaking Talisman protecting me, and my physique was special.

Just when I was looking around with my eyes wide open, two lights suddenly lit up from above. The lights seemed to be very far away, not too big, and they were flashing and floating around regularly. I was puzzled as to when these lights came out and suddenly, I thought of something and when I looked at these two lights again, I immediately felt my breathing quicken.

Forcing myself to take a step back, I grabbed the curtain with both hands and slammed it shut, my back pressed against the window, gasping for breath, my heart pounding in my chest, a great fear looming over me, I didn't know what to do, I felt a little safe leaning against the window.

Why am I so scared, because I just realized that those two shiny things are not lamps at all, but two eyes. That is to say, there is now a giant being appearing in the darkness, and those two lamps are its eyes. And this thing is obviously not a kind person.

Senior brother Ju E's sickroom was on the third floor, which meant that the big ghost outside the window was floating dozens of meters above. The so called ghost, did not just refer to the vengeful spirits, other harmful things could also become ghosts.

The larger the body of the ghost, the more resentful it is, and the more power it contains, I don't know how many ghosts there are out there, but according to the ratio of its eyes, its face is as big as a window, the moment I thought about how there was a giant ghost floating outside the window behind us, my legs immediately went soft, since the Fox Blood and I were merging together more and more, my courage grew by a lot, and facing this fellow alone, I really felt a sense of helplessness.

I took two deep breaths in a row, and tried to calm myself down to stop thinking about it. Master had told me before that when facing any situation, I had to stay calm, that calmness was the key, that controlling myself was very difficult, that indulging myself was very easy, but it would only bring me eternal disaster. At this moment, I kept telling myself not to think too much about it, and looked at Senior Brother Ju E who was lying on the bed.

I tried my best to hold my breath, otherwise, the Yang Qi would leak out, this way, I could avoid attracting the attention of the Great Ghosts. Gently, I walked over to Senior Brother Ju E's bed and gently carried him under the bed.

The light in the corridor was extremely dim, and the more I walked, the more my heart calmed down, because I saw that the wall did not have any moisture rise or fall off during the day, I did not expect that the resentment of this big ghost was actually this strong, ordinary people with yin qi could feel it, cold, irritable and other negative emotions are all manifestations of yin qi. At this moment, I have Fox Blood s and Evil Breaking Talismans protecting me, so I did not feel the cold sensation of yin qi, so I knew that the temperature of this corridor, and even the entire third floor has dropped a lot.

On the first floor, only the room of the nurse on duty was lit up. When I walked past the window, I saw a nurse concentrating on looking at the medical records on the table, she didn't even look at them as I passed by, she didn't seem to notice me at all, but that was because I was trying my best to hold my breath, the Yang Qi in my body barely leaking out, so that when she couldn't see me, she wouldn't be able to feel my presence. Normal people can sense that there were people behind them, not only because they heard the sounds, but also because they felt the fluctuations of the Yang Qi.

Just as I was about to go over, I suddenly remembered that on this floor, only this nurse didn't sleep. She was now the strongest person the Yang Qi had sent out, so maybe the big ghost would come looking for her later. Thinking of this, I walked towards the nurse.

She stood up in a panic. I smiled at her in a friendly way, and she came over to me through the window. "Doctor, I have something to tell you," she said. She said, "Are you the patient's relative? Where are you ... "AHH ..." She suddenly pointed at me in horror and screamed.

Her cry startled me, too, and I pushed the door open and covered her mouth. I squeezed her neck with my right hand, and she immediately fainted, a trick that stopped the blood from flowing through her cerebral arteries and made her faint. If I didn't make up my mind, it could easily hurt someone, which I had only heard from my master before, but I also knew that for the first time I was very nervous for fear of hurting her.

I put her carefully on the bed and closed the door. I knew why she shouted, probably because she saw the amulet on my forehead and her own imagination, thinking that I had come out of the morgue. I shook my head.

After I went out, I went around to the back of the building and raised my head to look up. Indeed, there was a large group of dark clouds on the third floor's window, and under the cover of the night, it was almost impossible for normal people to see the dark clouds.

The Heaven Punisher Formation was a type of formation that could be completely used to suppress and drive people away. Using the power of the caster and adding it to the formation would be a great threat to the surrounding evil beings, and the formation could choose to drive or suppress the evil beings whether they wanted to resist it or not. The strength of the formation depended on the caster's strength.

I sat down cross-legged on a branch and crossed my legs, using myself as the eye of the formation, and drew an array around my own ground. I chanted the incantation for Tiandin, and after chanting it, I gathered all of my mental energy into the branch on my right hand, pointing it straight up to the dark sky. At this moment, a simple branch acted as a bridge between me and the forces in the higher dimensional space, and as I focused all of my mental energy on this branch, I felt that the branch had become a lot heavier.

It felt like a few minutes had passed in my mind, but in reality, it had already been almost an hour. Fortunately, I could not feel the flow of time, otherwise I would have definitely suspected that there was something wrong with the array, or that I was not strong enough to communicate with Tian Ding.

After I had persisted on communicating with Tian Ding for an hour, my mental energy had almost dried up. Just as I was about to collapse, the tree branch in my hand suddenly trembled, and a large amount of energy from the upper level suddenly shot into the core of the formation. In that instant, I could almost hear the sound of the wind in my body, which was caused by the excessive power of the formation, causing me to feel the power that did not belong to me slowly radiate into the formation, filling my heart with a sense of accomplishment.

With me at the center of the formation, it has a radius of about one meter. With Tian Ding's unceasing energy, the formation's fluctuations became increasingly stronger, slowly spreading out in all directions.

At this moment, as the eye of the formation, I do not dare to move, because once I move, I lose the source of my power, the formation will be destroyed. At the same time, with my own psychokinesis as the link between me and the heavens, I will easily suffer the backlash from the Heavenly Energy, the power of the formation will slowly grow, and the power of upwards will continuously increase. I can feel my hair slowly floating upwards, huu, looks like the formation has found the big ghost itself, the big ghost's Yin energy is too strong.

I slowly opened my eyes and looked at the third floor. The power within the array had obviously caught its attention, and it was no longer floating in the windows of the third floor, but slowly descending, and now I could see its rough outline. This great ghost was floating in the air like a huge balloon, with a circle in front and a tail sticking out from behind, and as it slowly floated towards me, its lantern-like eyes became brighter, and I didn't know what it was, but I suddenly felt my hair stand on end.

The effect of the formation seemed to be just to remind it that there was someone here who was interested in it. I suddenly felt a little nervous, this is the first time I have used the formation in actual combat, and I am the only one here right now, how could I not be affected by someone who is commanding me. It seems like I was too reliant on my master in the past.

The magic array emitted a faint blue light. This blue light was not big, but it was still quite conspicuous in the dark, and I was sitting in the middle of this blue light, and I had the illusion that I was placed on a plate, waiting for the big ghost to eat me. Thinking about this, I immediately became flustered, my heart was no longer pure, my psychokinesis was no longer pure.

It slowly drifted towards me, and as it drifted in the air, the yin aura around me became more and more dense. I could almost feel the chill coming from my clothes, this won't do, if this goes on I will only be eroded by it, I can't sit still and wait for death.

I decided to give up on the formation, threw the dried up branch in my hand towards the Great Yin Ghost, and ran outside, but I forgot one thing, that when the formation ends, I have to chant the God's Gifting Curse, saying that it is easy to send a god away, my strength is already extremely difficult, and wanting to safely send away the Tian Ding's power is even more difficult, and under my impatience, I did not have any intentions of giving up the formation. As the eye of the formation, I gave up just like that, this is blasphemy towards gods.

Just as expected, I had just turned around and was about to run, while slowly stimulating the Fox Blood in my body, I felt the Fox Blood being stimulated throughout my entire body, but suddenly, a vast force suddenly rushed towards me from an unknown place, the power was completely punitive, without giving me any chance to resist, the Fox Blood that I just activated was scared off by the power, I immediately felt weak all over, and just as I was at a loss of what to do, the giant ghost pounced on me.

Two forces struck my body at the same time, the Great Ghosts surrounded me, countless resentments and evils filled my mind, I was almost forced to the point of collapse, just when I was in extreme pain, the unknown force also arrived. With a loud bang by my ear, I seemed to feel a burst of thunder striking right at my head, this force was like a huge steel pillar, following my head all the way to my feet, I felt like my body was being split in half.

Sob, sob, sob ..." "AHH" The purpose of this was to let me know how serious the consequences of disrespecting the gods were, without a shred of mercy. I felt as if there were little beads in my body that were stirring and then exploding, and in every part of my body, the pain was not only the pain that came from my nerves, but also the fear that my life force was slowly fading away, and with the great ghost constantly venting its resentment in my head, I suddenly felt as if I was in hell, on the verge of collapse.

Without the protection of the Fox Blood, I was just an ordinary person, how could I be a match for these two great powers. Slowly, I curled up into a ball, and felt that I was about to leave the driving shell and float away.

Just when half of the vitality in my body had been lost, and the three souls and seven souls were about to separate themselves from my body, suddenly, the Fox Blood that was originally curled up in a ball did not dare to resist anymore, and stood out to help me fight against the enemy. The Fox Blood was rushing about in my body, and had resisted the power of Tian Ding, which originally seemed endless, and did not seem to weaken even a little for a long time, but now that the Fox Blood had resisted, Tian Ding, the power that was left in my body had actually stopped.

I sat down cross-legged and endured the negative emotions in my mind as I recited the Tranquil Heart Incantation to stabilize my mind. Just as I felt the Great Yin Ghost was slowly leaving me, a rustling sound suddenly sounded out, and an object flew over very quickly, when it was on my head, it suddenly exploded. It was a Talisman Break, the Talisman paper's power was extremely strong, completely shattering the front aura that I had gathered up, causing the Great Yin Ghost to see that I no longer had any energy at all, and it immediately entangled me again.

For a moment, I felt that the whole world deserved to die. All the people who were close or close to me were the targets of my hatred, and even the nurse that I met just now, I had only met her once today. At this moment, I was filled with hatred towards her, and that inexplicable, monstrous hatred made me almost crazy. Fortunately, she was not in front of me right now, otherwise, I would have definitely killed her without any hesitation.

I wanted to vent my hatred towards the world. I thought of my master, the person who cared for me, and I thought of him. I only had boundless hatred towards him, so I clenched my fists against the darkness in front of me. I really wanted someone to appear and let me kill him.

"I met you again." Finally, someone came out to vent my anger. My resentment finally had a target to vent it on, and I turned to look at him. The fog in front of me was so thick that I couldn't see clearly, but the great ghost's resentment was so heavy that I couldn't see very far away.

My eyes slowly turned red. I crazily forced the Fox Blood to fill my eyes, and under my full strength pressure, the Fox Blood covered my entire eyes.

The man seemed surprised, but he didn't show any signs of panic. He walked towards me with steady steps. "You brat, what's going on?" The one who came was Lv Tianhe, his tall and imposing body was like a yaksha in the night, his eyes were flickering with light due to the abundance of Profound Spirit Qi, just as he finished speaking, another person walked out from behind him.

"Boss, who is this guy?" That person had a short stature and a shrill voice, especially standing beside the tall Lv Tianhe, who seemed like a monkey. Lv Tianhe laughed and said: "Although this is not a top quality item, it has some value. "That's good, it'll save us brothers the trouble of coming here for nothing."

"Your ghost seems to be making him uncomfortable." Lv Tianhe asked, and when the person heard this, he laughed sinisterly: "Of course, the grievances here are not dispersed, it is the best place to become a ghost. I thought that we would just have to retrieve the corpse once we came, I didn't think that this brat had some skills, it has been so long."

After hearing this, I finally understood that this Great Ghosts was caused by Lv Tianhe and his bunch. Right now, I have already thought too much into it, all I could think about was how to vent, to vent out my anger. That Lv Tianhe was extremely powerful, I was originally not his match, plus, he had a helper by his side, so I alone was not his match.

They were not far from me, and I charged towards them in a few steps. Lv Tianhe obviously did not expect me to be so bold, my eyes widened, and in the next second, my fist had already arrived in front of his face.

Although he is shocked, but his strength is just there. Even if I, the Fox Blood, were to release all my Profound Spirit Qi and release all of my energy, this punch is as fast as lightning and as powerful as lightning, but it was easily blocked by him. He immediately pushed aside the short man beside him and swung his long leg horizontally at me.

His leg came at me with a whistling sound, and I didn't try to dodge or evade it. I held my arms in front of my chest and tried my best to withstand it, but this kick was so powerful that it almost threw me horizontally. But now my whole body was extremely flexible, and every muscle in my body was filled with an inexhaustible amount of vitality.

Without waiting for me to stand still, he had already rushed over. When the two of us were fighting, based on past experience, even if he did not use his full strength, I would still not be his match, but right now, the resentment and anger in my head were nowhere to be vented out, it was practically driving me crazy. The Fox Blood in my body was pushed to the extreme by me, and under this state, I almost didn't feel any pain.

"F * ck, this little bastard is so fierce." Lv Tianhe cursed silently and retreated out of the battle. With one hand, he ripped open his outer robes, revealing his black and sturdy body, and the moment he took off his clothes, I could feel that the aura around him had changed, the person in front of me seemed to have turned from an ordinary person into an evil spirit, with waves of ghostly atmospheres that no one dared to look directly at.

"Hehehe, little bastard, forget about your grandfather's terror!" Lv Tianhe also saw it, but he stopped and did not continue his attack. The person behind him took out his dagger and stabbed towards the back of my heart, he thought that he was invisible, but I had already discovered that he was deliberately exposing a flaw to him. Just when he thought that he was about to get his hands on it, Lv Tianhe shouted "Dodge", but it was too late.

"Clang!" I thought there was a person behind me, but it felt like I hit steel instead. I suddenly felt a sharp pain coming from my right elbow.

"Hahaha, this kid is really silly." I suppressed my anger and looked behind me, only to see a few steel pipes standing there, taking the shape of a human figure. It turned out that the short figure I saw just now was actually these few steel pipes, the person standing a few meters away laughed out loud, holding a palm-sized disk in his hand. The human figure swayed left and right according to the movements of his hands, mimicking the movements of a human.

Lv Tianhe also sneered, right now I am like a turtle in a jar, allowing the two of them to play with me. I endured my anger and said to the man: "In my First Martial Uncle family, is it you who is spying on me?" The man smiled sinisterly and said, "Don't think too highly of yourself. You're not our main target." "Then who is your target?"

He did not speak, and Lv Tianhe said: "Brat, you should still care more about yourself." I looked at him strangely, not knowing what he meant. At that moment, a sound of wind came from the back of my head. I couldn't tell how I had forgotten about the person behind me, so I rolled on the ground, barely dodging the wind.

Behind me, this human figure was walking unsteadily towards me. The little man's sneaky smile made me feel nauseous to the extreme, and I really wanted to smash his glasses with a punch. The human figure in front of me was only made of four steel tubes, tied in the middle with a few ropes.

"Kid, I'll let you have a taste of my little darling's power. Hehehe." As he spoke, he manipulated the disc in his hand, and the human figure in front of him moved as he commanded, the four steel tubes danced like tigers and tigers, baring my fangs and brandishing my claws as I pounced towards him. I had to dodge left and right, trying my best to avoid the attacks of the steel tubes, but this human figure's speed was frightening, even with high concentration, he would still be hit.

After a few rounds, there was no part of my body that didn't hurt, but this kind of blow made the anger in my heart burn even hotter. "F * ck, are you done yet?" I cursed under my breath. Ignoring the fact that the humanoid figure was knocking on my door, I turned around and ran towards Lv Tianhe who was sitting on the floor watching the show. As I ran, I untied my belt and removed the whip from my waist.

The whip carried a whistling sound, Lv Tianhe did not expect me to suddenly charge at him, and the whip was even faster! He forcefully raised his arm to block, the whip still left a long mark on his forehead and arm, it was obvious that he was not very happy with this, but before he could sit up, the second and third whips had already lashed out at him, and the storm-like attack had forced him back several steps.

Just as I was about to turn around, I felt two black sticks hitting my head at the same time. Suddenly, I felt a dizziness and a sharp pain in my head, making me want to faint, but I knew that I couldn't do it now, so I resisted the pain and didn't fall down.

His black face had turned even darker, and was as dark as the bottom of a pot. He walked towards me in silence, and I struggled to stand up, not willing to show any weakness as I looked at him, and now I could no longer see clearly. The Lv Tianhe in front of me turned into two, then into three, and the little shorty ran over to Lv Tianhe and said: "Boss, something happened at home, the goods have escaped."

Lv Tianhe said with a face full of shock, "What? How is that possible?" "Really, the brothers at home can't take it anymore, let's hurry up and go back." Lv Tianhe looked at me hatefully and said, "Brat, consider yourself lucky. But don't worry, you won't be so lucky the next time you meet me."

I relaxed after seeing the two of them disappear into the night. I immediately felt the pain and exhaustion from my entire body. I sat down on the ground and breathed heavily. I suppressed the dizziness before me and walked towards the hospital.

In the ward, I moved Senior Brother Ju E up from under the bed. He had already closed his eyes, but his eyes were still rolling around, which meant that he still had the ability to think, and that he was probably still immersed in the world that came out from the illusion in his mind. This was a good thing, it meant that Senior Brother Ju E's spirit energy had yet to begin suppressing his soul, and I really could not hold it in any longer, and fainted on the bed.

When I woke up, I found that there were plaster cast all over my body. My left arm, ribs, and right calf were covered in plaster, and my head was also wrapped in a thick layer of gauze. Just as I was about to open my mouth to speak, I realized that my throat was so dry that I couldn't even speak.

Soon, Master and Senior Brother Ju Yi came in. The two of them excitedly ran over to my bed and asked me what was going on. I couldn't say anything even after trying a few times, so I could only point at my mouth. Master brought me water and drank two cups of water before I finally felt better.

Yesterday, the nurse found me lying on the bed with blood flowing from my mouth, and the blood flowing down from my body onto the floor. She scared the nurse and threw away the medicine for Senior Brother, and after checking, she found that there were many bruises on my body, three fractures, and serious internal bleeding. But even though I was injured to such an extent, my life was not in the slightest danger.

I told the matter of meeting Lv Tianhe and the little shorty to my master. My master said: "The troublesome guy that Group Leader Gao mentioned is him, right?" It was just that there were layers upon layers of mechanisms here. Originally, Team Leader Gao's mission was only to clean up the place, to clean up all the traps and things that couldn't be exposed to the public, but this time, he was stopped by a few mysterious people and had injured a few experts from various departments. The same was true for Senior Ju E, but it seemed like the person who could injure Senior Brother Ju E was actually Lv Tianhe.

"Damnable fellow, this person is really a disaster, if we don't get rid of him soon, it will become a huge disaster sooner or later. The three of you were all injured because of him, so this time, Ju E's life and death is even more unknown. "Sigh ..." I looked at Senior Brother Ju E who was on the bed beside us. His eyes were still looking at the ceiling, but the vitality in his eyes is weaker than yesterday, I don't know how much longer he can continue to hold on.

Before the doctor arrived, I had already taken off all the plaster and bandages on my body. Every time the Fox Blood was activated, it would make me feel sore and numb, as my body was recovering normally, and when the nurse on duty checked the room, she saw the plaster and bandages on the floor, and me stretching my waist, her mouth was wide open so that three eggs could have been stuffed inside. But since this hospital belongs to our department, I didn't think she would be too surprised.

When I found the nurse on the first floor, who had fainted because of my fright, her first reaction was to panic. After my constant explanation, she believed that the people she had met the night before hadn't run out of the morgue or been zombies, but when I reached out to shake hands with her as a gesture of goodwill, she was still trembling with fear.

"Hao Zi, are you sure that type of medicine can wake Ju E up?" When Senior Brother Ju Yi and I were on the way to the underground ruins of the Longevity Hall, Senior Brother Ju Yi asked. This time, Senior Brother Ju Yi and I took the initiative to volunteer to participate in the third clean-up of the departments.

It has a strong control over spirit energy. After giving Senior Brother Ju E the medicine, and adding the proper guidance, I believe that Senior Brother Ju E's spirit energy chaos and leakage will be alleviated, it's a pity that I found the medicine on Cui Xile's body last time and sent it to headquarters for research. Furthermore, the remaining pills are not enough, we can only find more medicine so we can experiment on Senior Brother Ju E's body bit by bit until he fully recovers.

Including Senior Brother and I, there are only four people who are really going to deal with those few mysterious people. Other than Senior Brother and I, there are only Group Leader Gao and an unknown young man, and since the establishment of this department, the period when the department was at its peak was only a few hundred people, and there are also many otherworldly experts whose knowledge is known throughout the department. Although they are always at the behest of the department, in reality, those almighty cultivators who came out of seclusion can't even be identified as the most basic of the times.

The location of the operation was a remote mountain area. Although this place looked like an ordinary little village, the people here had long since been controlled by the Longevity Hall, and all of the people in the village had their spirit energy sucked dry and became puppets under the control of the people in the village. Under the control of the medicine, the village also became a resting place for the Longevity Hall.

However, it was also a coincidence that the spiritual energy in the surrounding area was not there. In other words, a place with plenty of spiritual energy could change a person, while a talented person could change a place, and the spiritual energy in the surrounding area of the village could not be found within a few dozen miles. It was obvious that the spiritual energy in the area had been sucked dry by someone or something, and the center of this place where the spiritual energy was exhausted was this village.
