

Substitute wife: mysterious husband, good evening

Chapter 8

After dinner, Su Xiaowan had some support. Originally, she was going to take a walk, but she didn't expect to be lost in the big villa. Thinking about the terrible cry she heard last night, she was afraid.

Can walk around, shuttle in the corridor, or do not know where to go, all of a sudden do not know where to go.

When the housekeeper found her, he hurriedly pulled her, "young granny, this ancient castle is no more dangerous than outside. There are dangers everywhere. Don't walk blindly in the future."

Su Xiaowan nodded, and she would never dare to walk blindly again.

The housekeeper didn't expect that the little girl didn't run away after seeing her young master. However, he clearly remembered that the little girl's face was white yesterday, and now there are many black spots on her face. What's the reason for her good face? Is it just to balance the young master's mind?

"Young granny, what's the matter with your face?"

Su Xiaowan was a little shy. "Uncle housekeeper, am I ugly like this?"

"The young granny's mold is very good, and it's lovely with many spots."

Su Xiaowan frowned, which was not the effect he wanted, but young master Feng didn't think much of her just now. He thought she was ugly. "That, uncle housekeeper, can I go out?"

Su Qiqi is half a year older than her, and she goes to the same school with her. But Su Qiqi is an idle lady. She haunts all kinds of social occasions for a long time. She doesn't need to work, so Su Zheng will give her the best treatment.

But she's different. She's a student with no background. Although Su Zheng took her to Su's home, she doesn't treat her as a daughter. She will go to practice in a few days. She certainly can't stay in this place all the time and accompany the man who is not sure.

"You have to ask the young master about that!"

"Ask him these little things." Su Xiaowan's eyes fell down and fell into trouble. "Master Feng is very busy all day long. Can't you make the decision?"

"I'm just a housekeeper. You're a young woman. Of course you have to listen to the young master."

Looking at her frown, the housekeeper could see that he was afraid. After all, he met once, and he continued to say, "don't worry, young granny. The young master has a good temper. If you treat him sincerely, he will treat you sincerely. The young master is now in the hot spring. You are his wife, so you should help him."

"Hot spring?"

Seeing her ignorant appearance, she kindly reminded her, "young granny, men are very helpful to women. There are no women around the young master. It's good for you to play coquetry more often. The old castle of nuota is all his own. He is in a good mood and will promise you anything. Young master, he has passed for a long time. I'm afraid he will feel dizzy, Young granny, why don't you go in and have a look? "

Please him more, he can promise him anything?

With this in mind, Su Xiaowan asked the housekeeper about Feng Yan's bathing place.

"By the way, the young master has just gone to take a bath, and the clothes haven't been sent to him yet. Why don't you take them with you?"

"Give it to me."

It's an indoor hot spring pool. It's not far from the villa, but it's close to the bamboo forest outside. There are lots of bamboo and flowers. It's a place for self-cultivation.

All kinds of temperatures rose up in the air and covered the whole hot spring pool. Before she went in, Su Xiaowan was too hot to breathe.

"Feng..."

As soon as she stepped in, she saw the man in the hot spring pool, his upper body naked.
