Chapter 61 My Name Remains Unchanged

“Now that I am at the Essence Realm, I can easily kill those low-level cultivators. I don’t even need to set up the Soul Convergence Formation to blow up their souls. It’s much more convenient.”

As he muttered, Lu Xiaoran used his divine sense to analyze the array formation disc.

“Hmph, a low-grade Saint Realm should just be referred to as a low-grade Saint Realm. Did he really have to say it’s at the Saint Realm?”

In an instant, his divine sense analyzed the array formation disc and activated it. An array formation appeared on it. It was very small and was only the size of a palm, but the power emitted from it could not be ignored.

“Not bad. This array formation is considered to be at the mid-grade Saint Realm. Moreover, it’s concentrated in this small array formation disc. Looks like the other party’s attainments in array formations are also not ordinary.”

The higher the level of the array formation, the stronger it was. However, how powerful it was mainly depended on the level of the array master.

For example, an array master that has a higher level will be able to do more with the same array formation.

For array patterns of the same level, the smaller the array formation, the higher the level that is required of the array master. This was because small array formations were more difficult to operate.

For example, during Lu Xiaoran’s competition, everyone’s specifications were uniform. The array formation was of the same type. It was purely a competition of engraving strength.

The reason why the rankings of each match were different was also due to another problem... which was the type of array formation.

An array master might be familiar with the illusion array but not the defensive array formation. He might be familiar with the attack array but not the healing array formationâ€

He could tell from the array formation that the array master who made it was very good. He was even a little stronger than that Xiao Bei, but it was not much stronger.

Both of them had only reached 60% of Lu Xiaoran's level.

However, it would be wrong to think that this gap could be easily breached.

Formation masters emphasized talent and not hard work. Hard work was secondary. After all, talent was the most important. It was far more important in array formation than in martial cultivation.

Without talent, even if you were given ten thousand years, you still wouldn't be able to master that 10%.

In Xiao Bei's previous life, he had already cultivated to the Martial Monarch Realm. Despite this, his array formation strength was still only 60% of Lu Xiaoran's.

Lu Xiaoran's array formation level could already be said to be the peak of the peak.

If not for this, he would not have dared to destroy the White Bone Demon Sect on his own.

For example, if Xiao Bei were to set up the Purple Heaven Divine Lightning Formation and destroy the White Bone Demon Sect, he would also be able to do so. After all, the Purple Heaven Divine Lightning Formation was a Martial Monarch Realm formation. The attack power it could unleash was already comparable to an attack from a Martial Monarch Realm expert. The White Bone Demon Sect simply could not withstand it.

However, he would be unable to do what Lu Xiaoran did. He would not be able to rely on a Heaven Realm formation to suppress the White Bone Demon Sect's members' cultivation by one level.

Even if he recovered to the Martial Monarch Realm, he would still not be able to do so!

If he couldn't do that, then it would still be wishful thinking for him to build the Purple Heaven Divine Lightning Formation.

The array formation below the Martial Monarch Realm did not require time to accumulate strength. Without putting in the spirit stones, it would not emit any aura. It would only emit an aura when spirit stones were used to activate it. Therefore, it would not be discovered.

However, array formations at the Martial Monarch Realm would easily attract attention.

As he looked at the array formation in his hand, Lu Xiaoran's eyes flickered. Suddenly, he thought of something.

Then, the corners of his mouth suddenly curled up inexplicably.

"Time to mess around."

Lu Xiaoran immediately began to attack and tamper with the array formation.

This array formation was a teleportation formation to begin with. It could transmit the strength of the Demon Sect's experts over. Likewise, it could also transfer Lu Xiaoran's strength to the other side.

Lu Xiaoran first changed the structure of the array formation and changed the direction of the teleportation. This way, the other side could not transfer anything over here, but he could transfer to the other side.

After changing the structure, Lu Xiaoran took out materials on the spot and used his spirit energy to scrape many thin stone slabs on the ground. He engraved all of them into an attack formation and embedded them with spirit stones.

Then, he used spirit stones to activate the other party's teleportation formation. Then, he teleported all the formations he had prepared.

At the same time, an array formation suddenly lit up in a mountain hundreds of thousands of kilometers away.

Seeing this array formation light up, several extremely powerful figures flew out of the cave quickly and stood in midair with excited expressions.

"The array formation has lit up! It's time to save Lord Demon Venerable and help him leave the Demon Suppression Tower."

However, an elder could not help but frown and hesitate.

"If I remember correctly, the Black Tortoise True Sect's array formation has only started for a few days, right? The competition is already over, and they're already starting to reforge the Demon Suppression Tower's formation? Isn't this speed a little fast?"

The other elders explained, "Perhaps it's because they ended early? If the Demon Venerable himself is breaking out of the Demon Suppression Tower, they would have no choice but to start building the grand array early. Who knows?" "Or perhaps the array formation meeting is not over yet, but our people have already arrived beside the Demon Suppression Tower and placed the array formation disc on it."

"Don't hesitate. The opportunity to save Lord Demon Venerable is rare. We definitely can't let it go. Open the array formation and release our evil aura."

"Alright!"

However!

Just as everyone opened the teleportation formation here, countless stone slabs surged out from the array formation in the next second. "What's this?"

Everyone was stunned. However, when they saw the array formation on the stone slab, their expressions instantly changed.

"Not good! These are all attack formations. Quickly disperse!" Unfortunately, they were still a step slower. In the next second, the entire valley was lit up by light. Explosions sounded endlessly, shocking birds and beasts to the point of flying and fleeing. The mountain trembled non-stop as countless huge rocks rolled down.

The entire mountain seemed to have experienced the end of the world.

"No!"

"Damn bastard, who is it? I'll definitely hack him into pieces and skin him alive! I'll burn his bones and scatter his ashes!"

The screams and explosions lasted for more than a hundred breaths before gradually stopping. Moreover, even then, the rocks on the mountain slope continued to roll down, emitting a loud bang.

Looking at the entire Demon Sect, although not many big shots had died, most of them were injured. Moreover, some of them were even seriously injured.

At this moment, a cold laugh suddenly sounded from the teleportation formation.

"You demon sects don't know what's good for you and have gone against the heavens! You still want to save your Demon Venerable? Dream on!"

The voice was like surging thunder that reverberated in the valley. It angered the experts of the Demon Sect until the veins on their foreheads bulged and their anger surged!

“Bastard, who is it? Who the hell are you? If you have the guts, tell me your name! Stop hiding behind and acting suspiciously!”

“Heheâ€ Why? Do you want to take revenge on me?”

“Are you afraid?”

“If I was, I wouldn’t have come to deal with you idiots. You idiots, listen up!”

“My name remains unchanged. I’m Xiao Bei from Jiang City!”

Chapter 62 Martial Monarch Blood Pill

“Xiao Bei?”

“That’s right! By the way, I’ve already won first place in the array formation meeting. In a few days, I’ll lead the righteous path array masters in the world to rebuild the Demon Suppression Tower’s Demon Sealing Formation. It’s best for you guys to hide as early as possible to avoid being destroyed by our righteous path!” “You! Xiao Bei, our holy Demon Sect has nothing to do with you. Why are you doing this to us?”

The array formation was silent for a moment before a disdainful smile sounded.

“Hehe... why would I need to explain to you what I’ve done in my life?”

With that said, the light of the teleportation formation directly disappeared. This was because Lu Xiaoran had closed the teleportation formation on the other side and completely ignored them.

“Xiao Bei! You bastard! My holy Demon Sect will fight you to the death!”

“Relay my orders. All teams that went out to intercept the sects of the Great Zhou, do not return for the time being. All of you, go and kill Xiao Bei for me!”

“We have to burn Xiao Bei’s bones and scatter his ashes!”

“Yes!”

On Lu Xiaoran’s side, after arranging for someone to do the dirty work for him, he directly wiped away the array formation in his hand and casually put the array formation disc away in his storage bag.

Although he did not care much, this material was still a material of a Saint-level item. In the future, he could still give it to his precious disciples.

Then, he returned to the camp and began to prepare to deal with Xiao Bei.

Xiao Bei's current strength was at the perfected tenth level of the Mountain Sea Realm. He was only a step away from reaching the Soul Refinement Realm.

Even his current strongest disciple, Fang Tianyuan, had not reached this cultivation level.

He had just swept his gaze over when Fang Tianyuan was already at the fifth level of the Mountain Sea Realm, and Ji Wuxia had already broken through to the second level of the Mountain Sea Realm and was about to reach the third level.

Yun Lige's cultivation had only just broken through to the first level of the Mountain Sea Realm.

Moreover, the other party was Yun Lige's enemy. This matter definitely had to be handled by Yun Lige.

If he did not let Yun Lige be the main attacker, his grudge would not be resolved. In the future, when he cultivated more, it would be inevitable that he would have mental demons.

This was not good. Lu Xiaoran still hoped that he could cultivate for tens of thousands of years and help him accumulate more experience points.

How could he increase Li Ge's cultivation by an entire realm?

His talent was the worst among the three of them. Although he also had the talent to reach the Martial Monarch Realm, the Martial Monarch Realm was still divided into grades. Moreover, Martial Monarch Realm cultivators were not Martial Monarch Realm experts.

If he could not cultivate well, he would be no different from a passerby.

Lu Xiaoran rubbed his temples and felt a headache.

At this moment, he casually received the gift bags that the few of them had obtained from advancing. He first opened a few small gift bags.

Mid-grade Saint Realm Meru Disk x1.

Top-grade Heaven Realm Essence Dry Pill X1000.

High-grade Saint Realm Purple Gold Dragon Lock Armor x?.

Low-grade Saint Realm Sea Splitting Palm x1.

The few small gifts were all very good. Then, Lu Xiaoran opened the huge gift bag again.

Low-grade Martial Monarch Realm medicinal pill—Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill x10.

“Damn, a Martial Monarch Realm medicinal pill. This medicinal pill is awesome!”

This was the first time Lu Xiaoran had received a Martial Monarch Realm medicinal pill. Although it was only a low-grade medicinal pill, it was still an extremely rare existence.

It had to be known that the value of a Martial Monarch Realm medicinal pill had already surpassed the mortal world.

Even in the ancient times, when there were many Martial Monarch Realm experts, not everyone could easily refine a Martial Monarch Realm medicinal pill.

As for now, even Martial Monarch Realm experts were rare, let alone the so-called Martial Monarch Realm pills.

Now, it was already fortunate for him that he had found a Saint Pill in the Great Zhou.

There were many Heaven Realm medicinal pills, but there was a huge gap that could not be crossed between the Heaven Realm and the Saint Realm. However, Lu Xiaoran had obtained a Martial Monarch Realm medicinal pill this time!

He immediately checked out the effects of the Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill.

The Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill was developed by using the blood essence of a Martial Monarch Realm expert. Every pill contained a powerful and pure energy. It could allow people below the Martial Monarch Realm to increase their cultivation. The lower their cultivation, the higher their cultivation level would increase. Moreover, there were no toxic side effects. However, each person could only take one pill. Ordinary medicinal pills might cause damage to the meridians. Or perhaps, it might make the cultivator rely too much on medicinal pills and the cultivation technique not be exhausted enough to accumulate in the body, forming a defect.

As for the Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill, he was not worried at all.

It was refined from the blood essence of a Martial Monarch Realm expert.

Not only was the energy inside this blood essence pure, but it could also help people with poor constitutions wash their marrow. Moreover, it contained the martial comprehension of a Martial Monarch Realm expert, so it definitely wouldn't let a martial artist only increase their cultivation without increasing their realm.

This was the reason why the Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill was considered a low-grade Martial Monarch Realm pill!

Unfortunately, a person could only take one pill in their life.

However, that was also good.

If he could consume it indefinitely, then this medicinal pill would be too overpowered. If any family clan had more Martial Monarch Realm experts, they could casually capture an itinerant cultivator Martial Monarch Realm expert and forcefully suck their blood to refine the Martial Monarch Blood Pill for their descendants. If that happened, wouldn't the world be in chaos?

Lu Xiaoran could not be bothered to think further. He directly took out a Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill.

Opening his palm, the medicinal pill was golden in color and engraved with deep purple patterns. Although it was a small medicinal pill, it also emitted an extremely huge dignity that made people not dare to underestimate.

If one's cultivation was too low, they would probably not dare to casually eat this medicinal pill.

Fortunately, Lu Xiaoran was powerful enough to directly swallow a Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill.

However, just as he placed it in his mouth, before he could swallow it, the Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill suddenly transformed into a golden beam of light that escaped from his mouth. "Damn, this medicinal pill has developed sentience!"

Lu Xiaoran could not help but be somewhat dumbfounded. He did not expect this medicinal pill to actually have its own consciousness. It was indeed worthy of being a Martial Monarch Realm pill.

Unfortunately, it was simply a fool's dream to escape in front of Lu Xiaoran.

After activating the Great Void Chaos Steps, he instantly chased after the Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill and directly threw it into his mouth to chew.

The moment the medicinal pill shattered, a huge spirit energy suddenly rushed into Lu Xiaoran's meridians and dantian. An extremely warm blood aura washed his body, as well as an unprecedented comprehension of the martial path, strengthening his divine sense realm.

In the next moment, the cultivation in Lu Xiaoran's body suddenly began to rise violently.

Breakthrough!

Fifth level Essence Realm! Sixth level Essence Realm! He broke through two realm levels in a row before finally stopping.

Lu Xiaoran heaved a sigh of relief, feeling extremely happy.

This increase in cultivation was too satisfying. He did not need to cultivate to directly increase his cultivation.

Moreover, it would not affect his realm at all, causing his realm to be insufficient and causing him to suffer from qi deviation.

"With this thing, wouldn't their cultivation immediately increase? In that case, Li Ge should be able to fight that Xiao Bei."

"Moreover, if the three of them consume these pills to increase their cultivation, my cultivation will also increase again. Isn't this equivalent to eating multiple Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pills?"

"By the way, speaking of which, can't I eat two Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pills? I still have so many. Let's try one more."

Chapter 63 So Your Name Is Lu Xiaoran

After consuming the second Martial Monarch Blood Pill, boundless spirit energy immediately erupted.

Lu Xiaoran's body began to absorb crazily again. The cultivation in his body soared again, but the speed of the increase was far inferior to before. Many spirit energy scattered by themselves.

However, in the end, it still forced Lu Xiaoran to break through to the seventh level of the Essence Realm.

"It turns out that the Martial Monarch Blood Pill is not something a person can only consume once in their life. Instead, it's because if one continues to consume it, the effect will gradually decrease. After consuming a few, it becomes no different from consuming ordinary medicinal pills."

"This is probably because the Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill has already transformed a person's body. Eating more Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pills will only be a waste."

Lu Xiaoran rubbed his eyebrows.

If he had known earlier, he would have been more obedient and not eaten a second medicinal pill. If he had found a disciple and let him eat it, the other party would definitely be able to perfectly refine the medicinal strength of the Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill.

Then, as the other party increased his cultivation, his cultivation would rise as well.

Hai!

He had suffered a loss.

“Wang Cai, can you put more Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pills in the gift bag next time? Or medicinal pills like the Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill that can increase one’s cultivation?”

“No, Master. Everything is random. I can pick and choose what goes in there. This is my rule.”

“I’ll help you kill another hot shot.” “Master, you’re making things very difficult for me.”

“Two.”

“Forget it, it’s useless to count on you. If you really have the ability, you can directly promote me to a peak invincible big shot.”

Lu Xiaoran stopped thinking about the Martial Monarch Realm Blood Pill and began to cultivate by himself.

In the next few days, his basic schedule was to go out and participate in a competition to get a fixed ranking of 30. Then, he would return to his room to cultivate. This cycle repeated again and again. Ten days later, Lu Xiaoran’s cultivation increased again, reaching the eighth level of the Essence Realm.

It should be because his disciples had worked hard to cultivate again.

However, Lu Xiaoran did not have any arrogance and still remained calm.

In these ten days, the array formation meeting finally came to a perfect end.

As expected, it was naturally Xiao Bei who obtained the first place in the array formation competition.

Lu Xiaoran did not have any feelings about this.

It was mainly because he did not want to be famous. Otherwise, even if Xiao Bei won a few rounds first, Lu Xiaoran's total score would still be higher.

This was true strength.

After participating in the array formation competition, the only thing left was the award ceremony. Lu Xiaoran was even less in the mood to watch this thing. He continued to cultivate in the Heaven Demon Sect's residence.

At the same time, this morning, a beautiful figure also welcomed the Black Tortoise True Sect.

Her status seemed to be very noble. No one dared to stop her from entering.

Everyone bowed.

Soon, she arrived at the hall of the Black Tortoise True Sect, and she was still not being stopped by anyone.

When she arrived at the hall, an extremely dignified figure also teleported out at the same time.

He had a square face and was eight feet tall. He was dressed in a black robe with golden threads. He looked extremely noble.

Seeing this person, his solemn face also relaxed a lot and he revealed a smile.

"Zimo, you're finally back."

Qin Zimo cupped her hands and said,

"Master, I'm useless. I was ambushed by the survivors of the Demon Sect and was severely injured. I've been healing and was unable to return to the sect in time. Please forgive me, Master."

"A few days ago, I sensed that the protective array formation I gave you had been detonated by you. I already expected that you must have been attacked by the Demon Sect since you were unable to return to the sect in time. However, I didn't expect it to be so serious."

"Actually, I almost couldn't come back alive to see Master this time. However, I was relatively lucky and encountered a kind fellow Dao friend who helped me. Therefore, I was lucky to survive and recover from my injuries before returning to see Master." "Oh?"

Which sect is he from? Do you know his name? My Black Tortoise Sect has to thank him for saving your life.”

Qin Zimo thought of that handsome face and her face could not help but burn slightly.

“Disciple... Disciple doesn't know who he is. He never said his name or his background. In fact, after I detonated the defensive formation, I've been in a coma the entire time. The moment I woke up, I knew that he had left. Presumably, he saved me and never left me. He took care of me until the spirit energy in my body circulated normally.”

“I see. Then if you have the chance to encounter him in the future, thank him again. You've also returned just in time. The array formation meeting has already ended and the award ceremony is about to begin. Take a look at the name list. In a while, go and hold the award ceremony with me.”

“Yes.”

Qin Zimo answered and took the name list from her master's hand. She began to scan it gradually. She had not been here for the past few days and did not know many people. If she got the wrong person at the awards ceremony, it would be awkward.

Therefore, she had to look at the name list in advance.

The Black Tortoise Sect Master said with interest,

“The array formation this time is much more exciting than in the previous years. An array formation genius has actually appeared. His talent in array formations is extremely powerful, and his attainments are rather deep. His array formation strength can almost be said to be not inferior to yours. If he is given some more time to cultivate, he might even have a chance to catch up to my level.”

“Oh?”

Qin Zimo raised her eyebrows slightly in surprise.

She knew her master's array formation strength the best. Since her master had given the other party such a high evaluation, he must have true talent.

She swept her gaze over Xiao Bei.

However, she only swept her gaze over it before flipping through it.

If he had not met Lu Xiaoran and did not see the Spirit Convergence Formation he had set up, Qin Zimo might have really taken a second look at him.

Unfortunately, Qin Zimo had already seen Lu Xiaoran's array formation and would naturally not look at him again.

As Qin Zimo flipped the page, she swept her gaze over and quickly remembered the names and appearances of these people.

However!

When she flipped to page 32, her breathing instantly froze, and her heart gradually began to beat faster.

"It's him! It's really him!"

"Lu Xiaoran, Heaven Demon Sect. So your name is Lu Xiaoran. What a good name. Your name is just as carefree and natural as you are."

Qin Zimo pursed her lips and smiled. Then, she was somewhat puzzled. "But how can you be ranked 32? With your strength, it shouldn't be a problem for you to get first place!"

In fact, Lu Xiaoran was originally supposed to be ranked 30th. However, in the previous two rounds, Elder Tie had competed. He had lost miserably in those two rounds, so on average, Lu Xiaoran's total score fell to 32nd.

Chapter 64 Every dog has its day

The Black Tortoise Sect Master looked at his disciple's expression and could not help but be somewhat puzzled.

"Zimo, what are you looking at?"

Qin Zimo pointed at Lu Xiaoran's picture and said,

"Master, why is this person ranked 32nd?" The Black Tortoise Sect Master frowned. "Is he very powerful?" "Very powerful!" Qin Zimo replied with a solemn expression. "You... know him?"

"That's right. To be honest, Master, he's my benefactor."

"Oh?"

"He was the one who saved me from the hands of the demon cultivators and allowed me to survive. However, after he saved me, he hurriedly chased me away. I think his sect has also been ambushed previously, so they got separated from the sect. After saving me, he hurriedly came to participate in the array formation meeting.”

“I see. However, what has this got to do with his results? It was a fair competition.”

“He...”

Qin Zimo was about to say something when he recalled that without Lu Xiaoran’s permission, wouldn’t he be very unhappy if she revealed his array formation strength like this?

Thinking of this, she immediately changed her words.

“I was only lucky to have seen him use an array formation and know his strength.”

“Oh? Is that so?”

Qin Zimo nodded with a serious expression.

“Although I don’t know why he wants to hide his array formation strength, his attainments in array formations are definitely not limited to this.”

“Since you say so, I really want to see how good he is.”

After saying this, the Black Tortoise Sect Master immediately ordered people to bring Lu Xiaoran’s array formation over.

When he first saw the array formation, he was also somewhat puzzled. This array formation was ordinary and was not special at all!

However, after taking a few more glances, he had an abnormal feeling. The contempt on his face gradually disappeared and gradually became solemn.

As the saying went, an expert could easily tell the difference.

There was naturally no need to mention the Black Tortoise Sect Master’s attainments in array formations. After all, the Black Tortoise True Sect mainly focused on array formations. If he lacked attainments in array formations and only relied on his cultivation, it was definitely impossible for him to be the sect master.

His array formation strength could be said to be top-notch in the entire Great Zhou.

Therefore, array masters at his level naturally saw different things.

Top-notch array masters all had their own spirit when setting up array formations. Just like a calligrapher, no matter how much they wanted to put on an act and deliberately not show their best strength, they could not hide the writing habits and feelings that had already been engraved into their bones over the years.

Lu Xiaoran's array formation was also the same.

His attainments in the path of array formations were really too outstanding. As a result, even if he deliberately suppressed his strength to create mediocre array formation, there was still an aura that could not be hidden. It was a unique aura that belonged to a top-notch array master.

It was even to the extent that he was so outstanding even when he faked it. As a result, if not for his disciple's reminder and taking a few more glances, a super high-level array master like the Black Tortoise Sect's sect master would definitely not be able to tell anything.

Rubbing his eyebrows, the Black Tortoise Sect Master was shocked and fearful.

"Looks like this brat is really hiding. If not for my strength, I'm afraid even I wouldn't be able to sense anything."

"Originally, I thought that Xiao Bei was already a rare genius in the Great Zhou for the past few hundred years. However, compared to this Lu Xiaoran, Xiao Bei is simply not enough. It can even be said that even Xiao Bei might not be able to compare to him. His attainments in array formations might even be worthy of this in the entire Great Zhou."

As he spoke, the Black Tortoise Sect Master raised his thumb.

The corner of Qin Zimo's mouth curled up slightly and her face was slightly red. She was in a very happy mood as if she was the one being praised.

However, she still deliberately pretended to not know and asked,

"Master, is it that exaggerated?"

The Black Tortoise Sect Master shook his head.

"It's really not an exaggeration. Even I almost couldn't tell that he faked his array formation skills. Isn't such strength above mine? And how many people in the entire Great Zhou have attainments in array formations that surpass mine?"

Lu Xiaoran's attainments in array formations should be the number one in the Great Zhou Empire.

After being repeatedly confirmed by her master, Qin Zimo was even more happy. However, she did not forget to remind him.

“However, Master, he probably doesn’t want others to know his attainments in array formations. You must not tell anyone. Otherwise, I won’t forgive you.”

The Black Tortoise Sect Master was slightly stunned when he heard his precious disciple’s tone. He did not know whether to laugh or cry. “Girl, you think so highly of him. Could it be that you’ve fallen for him?”

“Ah?”

Qin Zimo’s face instantly turned red as she shook her head repeatedly.

“Master, don’t talk nonsense. I... I just wanted to repay him for saving my life.”

“Oh, I see.”

The Black Tortoise Sect Master felt bitter. Looking at his precious disciple’s expression, how could it be just repayment for saving her life?

Sigh, girls should not be kept when they were older.

Qin Zimo was somewhat guilty and did not dare to look into her master’s eyes. It was naturally unrealistic to say that she did not like Lu Xiaoran.

This was because to her, Lu Xiaoran was not only a hero who saved her, but he was also an extremely powerful genius in array formations.

Just like how men liked beautiful women, women also liked powerful men.

This was a principle that had never changed.

The Black Tortoise Sect Master continued, “However, this child is a top-grade array formation genius. Even though such a figure is unknown now, his name will sooner or later shake the world. You still have to befriend him well. It has to be known that the wheel of fortune changes. Don’t bully a poor youth.”

“Hiss, the wheel of fortune turns. Don’t bully the poor! Master, what you said is very meaningful.”

The Black Tortoise Sect Master shook his head and did not know whether to laugh or cry.

“These aren’t my words. I just borrowed it.”

“It’s said that this is the princess of the Purple Peace Imperial Palace, Ji Wuxia. When she was living among the commoners, she was once engaged to a man. At that time, Ji Wuxia had been found by the Imperial Palace. The difference in their identities was like the difference between the heavens and the earth. The Imperial Palace naturally could not let her continue the engagement, so they chose to give her a heavy gift and ask her to cancel the engagement.

In the end, the youth felt that he had been humiliated and shouted angrily.

Later, in a short three years, he really defeated Ji Wuxia and became famous. This saying has also spread widely. Many young people like to refer to it as their motto.”

“Hiss, I see.”

At this moment, a bell sounded from afar. The awards ceremony was about to begin.

Qin Zimo immediately said, “Master, I’ll go and change first. The ceremony is about to begin.” “Yeah, go on.”

Chapter 65 I Want to Propose

Seeing his precious disciple leave, the Black Tortoise Sect Master muttered to himself,

“Zimo has already grown up. It’s also time to talk about marriage. This Lu Xiaoran is indeed not bad. At such a young age, his attainments in array formations are already so deep. Even I can’t compare to him.”

“What’s even more terrifying is that he’s still young. His future development is limitless! I still don’t know how terrifying he will become in the future. If Zimo can marry him, it won’t be bad for her.”

“However, this child’s current status is indeed a little low. Heaven Demon Sect Elder...”

After thinking about it, he felt a headache and couldn’t help but rub his temples.

“Forget it, I’ll deal with this award ceremony first.”

A large number of cultivators had already gathered on the competition ground.

Although everyone already knew the final outcome and had seen the rankings, they were still filled with anticipation towards the upcoming awards.

Various discussions continued in the crowd.

Countless gazes and comments were gathered around the square.

“Then Xiao Bei will definitely be famous throughout the world this time.”

“Definitely. He got first place in twenty matches and obtained first place in this competition in an absolutely crushing manner. He’s really too powerful.”

“Most importantly, he’s only a young man now. In the future, if we let him cultivate for dozens of years, I wonder how much he will improve?”

“Too terrifying. Unfortunately, I didn’t get to know him before. Otherwise, if I could get some guidance from him in the future, it would definitely be enough for me to brag for 200

Hearing these voices, the Black Tortoise Sect Master, who had just arrived, could not help but sigh.

These people really had low standards. Just a small Xiao Bei was already so shocking to them.

However, he did not know that Xiao Bei was not even qualified to carry Lu Xiaoran’s shoes.

If they knew how monstrous Lu Xiaoran’s strength was, their jaws might drop from shock.

With a pitiful expression, he did not think at all how shocked he was when he learned of Lu Xiaoran’s array formation strength.

He glanced at Xiao Bei from the corner of his eye and could not help but shake his head, his eyes revealing a disappointed expression. Previously, he felt that Xiao Bei was perfect.

Be it his cultivation or his attainments in array formations, they were both far from what ordinary people could compare to. He could already tell that Xiao Bei had hidden his cultivation and that his true cultivation had already reached the tenth level of the Mountain Sea Realm.

At that time, he even had the thought of taking Xiao Bei in as his second disciple.

However, now, for some reason, he immediately felt that Xiao Bei was not as good as Lu Xiaoran.

Lu Xiaoran's true strength was so monstrous, but he was so low-key. He did not compete and focused on learning in a low profile. Only a person like him could become a top-notch genius that could not be surpassed, right? Looking at this Xiao Bei again, he was alright in every aspect. The only problem was his temper. It was as if he couldn't be bothered to care about the entire world.

In fact, sometimes, his expression did not seem to have much respect. If not for his love for talent and his special status as the sect master of the Black Tortoise True Sect and the top-notch figure of the righteous sects, he really would have wanted to slap him in the face.

At this moment, someone in the crowd shouted.

"Look, it's the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect, Qin Zimo."

As soon as he said this, everyone's gaze turned to Qin Zimo.

Beautiful!

A breathtaking beauty!

In the Martial Dao World, every woman was fair and beautiful. There were rarely any funny or dark scars on their faces. The impurities in their bodies were expelled from their bodies as they cultivated. They could be said to be as beautiful as fairies.

However, there were still some top-notch beauties who could capture everyone's attention the moment they appeared.

It was as if these female cultivators were only like those beautiful web celebrities. They looked beautiful, but if they stood beside a rich missy of a top-notch society, they would be completely destroyed. The main difference was the aura.

It was a unique aura that could crush all living beings!

The moment Qin Zimo came out, Xiao Bei also opened his eyes.

There was no sharp gaze, only a gentle glow.

There was nostalgia, adoration, guilt, infatuation... and a trace of... possessiveness!

He took a deep breath and spoke slowly with a choked voice.

"Master... It's been 3,000 years. Xiao Bei, I've finally seen you again!"

His eyes were somewhat red, but his gaze gradually became especially firm.

“In this life, Bei'er must accompany Master and let Master live with me. Bei'er will definitely not let anyone attack Master again!”

“Also, I'll definitely help you protect the Black Tortoise True Sect. Just wait and see.”

At this moment, on the high platform, an elder of the Black Tortoise True Sect had already begun to give a speech. There were a lot of official words, but it had to be said that many people really listened seriously. For example, Sect Master Chen of the Heaven Demon Sect and the few elders stood up and listened carefully.

“Fortunately, Xiaoran, we got 32nd place and the top 50 spots will all be rewarded by the Black Tortoise True Sect. Our Heaven Demon Sect will also be going on stage to receive the award later.”

The few elders held hands excitedly.

They were about to receive an award in front of almost all the sects in the entire Great Zhou. Its meaning was definitely not ordinary.

They had already decided in a special meeting last night that they would definitely frame Xiaoran's certificate when they returned and specially place it in the Heaven Demon Sect's hall. In this way, when the elders of the other sects visited in the future, they would be able to see this certificate.

As he was feeling excited, the elder of the Black Tortoise True Sect had already finished speaking and began to officially present the award.

“Next, I announce that the awards ceremony has officially begun. Let's welcome Xiao Bei from Jiang City, the first place winner of this Array Formation Conference, to the stage to receive the award.”

Xiao Bei clenched his fists and heaved a sigh of relief before stepping onto the high platform.

The Black Tortoise Sect Master took the initiative to congratulate him.

“Xiao Bei, congratulations on obtaining the first place in this array formation meeting. Our Black Tortoise True Sect will reward you with a top-grade Heaven Realm array, a top-grade Heaven Realm cultivation technique, and a top-grade Heaven Realm weapon.”

Hiss!

Hearing the Black Tortoise Sect Master mention the reward, everyone's scalps went numb!

This reward was simply too generous, and it made everyone envious and envious to the point of almost drooling.

However, Xiao Bei's expression was calm and indifferent.

He was once a Martial Monarch Realm expert, so why would he care about such things?

Seeing that he did not answer, the Black Tortoise Sect Master could not help but raise his eyebrows.

"Xiao Bei, why aren't you saying anything? Could it be that you don't like these?"

Xiao Bei shook his head.

"That's not true. Actually, I didn't come here for these rewards. Instead, I came for another matter."

"Oh? What is it?"

Xiao Bei looked at Qin Zimo and smiled gently.

"I'm here to propose. I want to ask the Black Tortoise Sect to marry Holy Maiden Qin Zimo to me."

Chapter 66 Xiao Bei's Grievance

"What?!"

When Xiao Bei said this, it immediately caused a commotion! "Xiao Bei actually wants to marry the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect? Is that true?"

"No wonder he worked so hard and won first place in every match. It turns out that he wants to win the beauty."

"However, Xiao Bei's talent is so high that even the Black Tortoise True Sect might not reject him, right?"

Everyone knew very well that in the world of martial artists, talent was an extremely rare wealth.

Xiao Bei's attainments in array formations were simply godlike and looked down on everyone. Basically, no one in the younger generation could compare to him.

In the future, it was very likely that he would become the most famous array master in the entire Great Zhou.

Therefore, it was not a fool's dream for him to marry Qin Zimo.

Qin Zimo, his master, and the Black Tortoise Sect Master could not help but be somewhat surprised.

The master and disciple did not expect Xiao Bei to make such a request.

However, it had to be said that if the Black Tortoise Sect Master did not know Lu Xiaoran's attainments in array formations, he might really consider Xiao Bei.

He might take Xiao Bei in and make him his disciple before marrying him to his disciple. This would be even more joyous and also ensure that the Black Tortoise True Sect could obtain a powerful array formation heir in the future.

As for Qin Zimo, if she did not see Lu Xiaoran, her heart would not be stirred and she would not like any man. Since her master asked her to marry him, she would also definitely do so. After all, she had to listen to her parental figure.

Zon

However, now, not to mention her, even the Black Tortoise Sect Master looked down on Xiao Bei. How could he let his precious disciple marry Xiao Bei?

Therefore, after taking a deep breath, the Black Tortoise Sect Master said seriously,

"Zimo is still young and is obsessed with martial arts and array formation cultivation. She doesn't want to get married for the time being. Therefore, I won't agree to your request for the time being."

At this moment, Xiao Bei and everyone present could not help but be somewhat stunned.

No one expected the Black Tortoise Sect Master to actually refuse Xiao Bei's request.

It had to be known that it would be extremely rare to come across a genius like Xiao Bei.

Xiao Bei was silent for a moment before pleading again.

"I'm sincerely in my proposal to marry Holy Maiden Zimo. Sect Master, please give me this chance. I'm willing to join the Black Tortoise True Sect."

Unfortunately, the answer he received was still rejected.

“It’s not a problem if you want to join the Black Tortoise True Sect. Your attainments in the path of array formations are very powerful. I can give you this chance and even let you pick an elder, regiment commander, or elder to be your master. However, regarding matters like marrying Zimo, I still have to say that she doesn’t want to get married right now.”

After being rejected by the sect master twice in a row, a cold expression flashed in Xiao Bei’s eyes.

He was the reincarnation of a Martial Monarch Realm expert. Even though he was no longer a Martial Monarch Realm expert, his dignity as a Martial Monarch Realm expert was still there.

However, this Black Tortoise Sect Master had refused him again and again, making him somewhat furious.

However, he was no longer a Martial Monarch Realm expert. His cultivation level was only at the tenth level of the Mountain Sea Realm. It was still a little too rash to resist the other party.

If he were a Martial Monarch Realm expert, he wouldn’t care if the other party was Zimo’s master or not. He would have long killed the other party with a single slap. However, even so, Xiao Bei would not let the matter rest. He was determined to obtain Zimo. He also had other methods.

The next moment, another white figure stepped on the wind. Before he arrived, he had already chuckled. “Hehehehe... Sect Master, there’s no need to be so anxious to refuse. Actually, Zimo has also been cultivating for thirty to forty years. Speaking of which, it’s also time for him to find a Dao mate.” “Who is he? How dare he speak to the sect master in such a manner?”

In the crowd, someone could not help but ask. The next moment, someone tugged at his sleeve.

“Don’t interrupt. This is the First Elder of the Black Tortoise True Sect. He’s also a very powerful figure.”

“Hiss ~! I didn’t expect Xiao Bei to have the First Elder as his matchmaker.”

“Looks like Xiao Bei is going to get his hands on the beauty this time.”

The First Elder arrived at the high platform as everyone discussed.

The Black Tortoise Sect Master narrowed his eyes.

“First Elder? What do you mean?”

The First Elder smiled and said,

“Sect Master, I’m already prepared to take Xiao Bei in as my disciple. You know Xiao Bei’s attainments in array formations. If he can work with Zimo, he will definitely promote our Black Tortoise True Sect in the future.”

“Moreover, not only that, once the two of them get married and become partners, it won’t affect Zimo’s cultivation at all in the sect. What do you think?”

The Black Tortoise Sect Master looked at him and wanted to see from this old fox’s eyes why he was speaking up for Xiao Bei.

However, it was very difficult. He had no idea what ability Xiao Bei had to bewitch this old fox.

However, he would definitely not agree to let him ruin his disciple’s happiness like this.

“I think I’ve already made it very clear. Zimo needs to cultivate now and doesn’t need to get married.”

After another forceful rejection, both the First Elder and Xiao Bei could not help but narrow their eyes.

This was already the third attempt. The three rejections were enough to prove the sect master’s intention.

The two of them could not understand why the sect master would reject Xiao Bei again and again.

No matter what, he was an excellent choice!

The audience below were also stunned.

The First Elder looked at Xiao Bei and sighed slightly.

“Since Sect Master is unwilling, then we can only let it go. I was too rude.”

The Black Tortoise Sect Master snorted.

“Alright, the awards ceremony still needs to continue. Quickly leave and don’t delay.”

“Yes.”

The First Elder obediently retreated to the side. Then, the Black Tortoise Sect Master looked at Xiao Bei coldly and said,

“Xiao Bei, do you still want your reward? If you don’t, I’ll consider you as an automatic forfeit. Your reward will no longer be distributed.”

Xiao Bei’s face could not help but twitch fiercely.

He really wanted to kill someone. He had never thought that he would one day be humiliated like this.

The shame today was simply about to be nailed to the pillar of shame of his life!

However, he was also helpless. This was because the current him was only reborn and was only a small Mountain Sea Realm cultivator.

He needed these resources to help him increase his strength.

Therefore, although he was unwilling, he could only shake his head and sigh.

“I choose to accept the reward.”

The Black Tortoise Sect Master handed over the rewards one by one to him. After completing the rewards, he directly let him go without giving him any face.

“You can go down now.”

Chapter 67 If You Come Across a Difficult Decision, You Just Have To Give It Up

Hearing the Black Tortoise Sect Master’s words, a cold glint flashed in Xiao Bei’s eyes.

He did not answer the Black Tortoise Sect Master and directly turned around to leave and walk away.

With his temper, he would not flatter the Black Tortoise Sect Master. He was once a Martial Monarch Realm expert. Even though he was no longer a Martial Monarch Realm expert, his dignity was still there.

The Black Tortoise Sect Master looked at his back as he left and could not help but shake his head.

For a proud and arrogant guy like him, it was really the right choice for him to not accept Xiao Bei’s proposal to marry his disciple.

If he married her to Xiao Bei, who knew what he would do to her in the future.

The subsequent awards continued. Xiao Bei walked to a corner that no one could see. The First Elder looked around and saw that no one was paying attention, so he quietly followed and stood behind Xiao Bei.

“What’s going on?”

Xiao Bei asked coldly, his tone filled with a high and mighty tone.

The First Elder’s eyebrows raised slightly, but he still responded.

“I don’t know either. Logically speaking, the sect master should have agreed when you proposed to get married. There’s no doubt about your attainments in array formations, so he shouldn’t have refused. I didn’t expect that even I would have to step in in the end. Moreover, even if I did, I actually didn’t manage to change his mind.”

“Looks like something went wrong that led to this.”

The First Elder sighed and said,

“We can’t do much for the time being. You also saw that our sect master is already somewhat unhappy. Although I also have some dignity usually, I’ll still be at a disadvantage if we really fight.” “That’s the only way. Looks like I have to carry out the second plan.”

“Oh? What plan?”

“I’ll go out and train for a year. In a year, I’ll increase my cultivation to at least the Void Reversion Realm. At that time, I’ll come and propose again. In this year, you also have to cultivate diligently and strive to surpass him in cultivation. At that time, you will be able to help me.”

“Wait, didn’t you say that you would help me step into the King Realm first? If I reach the King Realm, I will have more say in the sect. I think I can also get Sect Master to marry Qin Zimo to you, right?”

“Hmph, your talent is so poor that it’s impossible for you to advance to the King Realm in a short period of time. It’s better for me to go out and train first. It’s more reliable.”

“You!”

The First Elder was vaguely furious.

“Xiao Bei, you went back on your word. I’ve already helped you. You said that as long as I help you, you’ll help me step into the King Realm.”

Xiao Bei glanced at him in extreme disdain.

“It’s true that you helped me, but you didn’t do well. Therefore, you didn’t complete this favor.”

“Also, don’t be so rash with your words in front of me. You secretly learned the cultivation technique of the Demon Sect’s Demon Venerable, causing the evil aura in your body to develop. Only I can save you. In the future, if you dare to be disrespectful in front of me again and make me unhappy... putting aside whether or not I’ll help you... I’ll directly announce your matter to the public. As the First Elder, you might even be instantly sentenced to death.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Xiao Bei slowly walked out.

“Help me look after Qin Zimo. If there are any abnormalities, let me know at any time.”

As he watched Xiao Bei’s figure gradually leave, the First Elder clenched his fists tightly, and killing intent gradually spread. “This damn Xiao Bei actually dares to threaten me and even orders me around like a dog! I’ll let you be arrogant for the time being. After I get rid of the evil aura in my body, it’ll be your death date.”

On Lu Xiaoran’s side, because he had been cultivating in the Heaven Demon Sect’s tent, he was completely unaware of what was happening outside.

The current him had already broken through to the eighth level of the Essence Realm. Because his breakthrough was very fast, he was full of energy every day and cultivated diligently. His disciples and him cultivated together. The cultivation in their bodies could be seen increasing at every moment.

However, just as he was meditating, a voice suddenly sounded from outside the tent.

“Excuse me, is this the Heaven Demon Sect’s tent? Is there anyone inside?”

Lu Xiaoran opened his eyes slightly and stopped cultivating. Then, he walked out of the tent and saw that the person who had arrived was a female disciple of the Black Tortoise True Sect.

“You are...?”

The other party smiled gently and said, “Hello, may I ask if you’re Lu Xiaoran, Cultivator Lu?”

Lu Xiaoran nodded.

The other party immediately took out an envelope from her shirt and handed it to him.

The smell of 'milk' was very strong.

"Someone asked me to pass this to you. I hope you can take a look."

"Who told you to give it to me?"

The other party smiled mysteriously.

"I can't tell you. If you want to know, open the envelope yourself."

Lu Xiaoran was silent for a moment before wrapping his hand with spirit energy and receiving the other party's envelope.

On the one hand, he was worried that the other party might smear poison on the envelope. On the other hand, he hated where the other party stored the envelope.

Seriously, couldn't she just put the letter in her sleeve? Why did she have to put it there? How disgusting. When he received the envelope, the other party immediately turned around and left. Lu Xiaoran did not even open the envelope and directly used his divine sense to scan it.

"Meet at the peak of the Northern Area. I'll wait for you until you arrive."

After seeing these words, Lu Xiaoran immediately could not help but begin to ponder.

"Who would ask me to meet at the peak of the Northern Area? I don't have many friends in this sect."

"Could it be that they want to ambush me? That's not right. This is the Black Tortoise True Sect. Who dares to cause trouble here?"

"But who is the other party? Is it a friend or foe? Is it a man or a woman...?"

After thinking about it, Lu Xiaoran realized that he was unable to figure it out. It only made his head hurt.

Therefore, after staring at the letter in his hand for a few seconds, Lu Xiaoran directly condensed a ball of flames and burned the envelope.

When one did not know how to choose, the best way was to give up choosing.

Now that he did not have the letter, it meant that he did not have to worry about it.

Lu Xiaoran couldn't help but feel that he was a genius.

Lu Xiaoran smiled smugly and turned around to enter the tent. He continued to meditate and study.

At the same time, the female disciple of the Black Tortoise True Sect immediately returned to the peak of the Northern Area of the Black Tortoise True Sect to report after sending the letter.

“Holy Maiden, the envelope has already been passed to Lu Xiaoran. At this moment, he should have already seen the contents of the envelope. He’s probably on his way here”

The corners of Qin Zimo’s mouth curled up slightly.

“Got it. You can leave. Without my orders, no one is allowed to step foot onto the peak of the Northern Area.”

“Yes!”

Chapter 68 Sect Master, Why Don’t You abdicate?

After her subordinate left, Qin Zimo finally cupped her face and sat on the grass as she looked at the moon in a daze.

At this moment, she was very much like a fool. She would laugh inexplicably and blush for no reason.

It was true that she was the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect, but she had never felt this way towards a man. And when she had this feeling, even she did not notice that her IQ was gradually decreasing.

“He doesn’t know who I am yet. I wonder if he’ll be surprised to see me here.”

“I wonder what color he likes? I’m wearing a white dress today. Will he not like white?”

“How should I greet him when we meet? Should I say ‘Hi, hello, I’m Qin Zimo’ or ‘we meet again. Hey, I’m Qin Zimo!’”

“The first one seems too old-fashioned, and the second one seems very frivolous. After all, I haven’t even spoken to him.”

Qin Zimo frowned and fell into a deep dilemma.

As the moonlight in the sky kept moving, time passed second by second.

Soon, two hours passed.

“Why isn’t he here yet? Is he busy? He should be. I’ll wait a little longer.”

Soon, another two hours passed. "He's not here yet. He should be too busy today. After all, the array formation meeting ended today."

After another two hours, Qin Zimo already had some doubts.

"Could it be that he doesn't want to come? Forget it, it's still early. I'll wait for you for another two hours. I hope you do your best and quickly appear in front of me."

"Lu Xiaoran, what are you doing? Even if you were socializing, shouldn't you be done?"

"It's almost dawn. Should I go back? But... if he comes and can't see me, then what? Forget it, I'll just wait."

By the time the moon set in the west, a sharp sword light had opened the curtain of the day in the east. Purple clouds rose from the east. Qin Zimo was still holding her little head and looking at the sky in a daze.

At this moment, there was suddenly movement in the grass behind her.

"Xiaoran, you're here."

Qin Zimo suddenly stood up and looked behind her. However, he only saw the disciple who had helped her send the message.

All the anticipation on her face instantly turned to disappointment.

She felt wronged... but she still held back her tears.

After all, if she cried in front of her subordinate, it would be too embarrassing. The other party looked at Qin Zimo's face that was as black as charcoal. Her heart could not help but beat faster. What had she done wrong? Why was the Holy Maiden's face so ugly?

Would the Holy Maiden kill her?

"Holy... Holy Maiden, let's go back. It's already morning."

Qin Zimo stared fixedly at her and said,

"Did you deliver my letter to Elder Lu of the Heaven Demon Sect or not?"

"Ah? Of course I did. I definitely have to do my best to carry out your orders, Holy Maiden. I handed it to him personally." Qin Zimo held her chin and frowned.

"That's strange. Since you gave him the letter, why didn't he come?"

“Forget it, I’ll go and take a look myself.”

Thinking of this, Qin Zimo tapped her foot lightly and immediately flew down the mountain.

Soon, she arrived at the Heaven Demon Sect’s tent.

At this moment, many people in the camp had already put away their tents and rushed back to their sect in the night.

Because the Heaven Demon Sect’s results this time were relatively good, they did not put away the tent so quickly.

After all, this was the first time in so many years that the Heaven Demon Sect had obtained the 32nd place in such a national meeting.

When Qin Zimo arrived, Elder Tie was outside wiping the Heaven Demon Sect’s signboard with his sleeve. “Hello, Elder.” “Hello.”

Elder Tie greeted happily and turned around to take a look. It was fine if he did not look, but when he did, he was instantly shocked.

“Aren’t... aren’t you the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect?”

Qin Zimo smiled faintly.

“That’s right, I am indeed. What’s wrong?” “Oh, nothing. Why did you come to our Heaven Demon Sect’s tent?”

“It’s nothing. I just wanted to find your sect’s Elder Lu Xiaoran. May I ask if Elder Lu Xiaoran is in the tent now?”

“Oh, yes, yes. I’ll go get him for you now.”

With that said, Elder Tie quickly ran into the tent.

“Sect Master, big news.”

Sect Master Chen and the others were about to pack their things and return to the Heaven Demon Sect today. Seeing Elder Tie suddenly barge in and shout, they could not help but be somewhat surprised.

“Elder Tie, why are you so anxious?”

Elder Tie grabbed Sect Master Chen’s arm tightly and said, “Sect Master, there’s someone outside looking for Xiaoran. Guess who?”

“Who is it?”

“The Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect, Qin Zimo.” “What? Holy Maiden Qin?”

Everyone was shocked.

“Are you serious?”

“It’s true. It’s the absolute truth. She’s outside the door. If you don’t believe me, use your divine sense to see for yourself.”

Everyone immediately swept their divine senses over. After confirming it, they were immediately shocked.

Indeed, the other party was really Qin Zimo.

“Why would she come and find Xiaoran?”

“Could it be that she and Xiaoran have some secret?”

The First Elder’s eyes flickered incessantly.

“Let’s stop guessing here. Hurry and tell Xiaoran to go out and welcome her.” “Yes, quickly inform Xiaoran.”

The group of old men immediately went to Lu Xiaoran’s curtain and shouted.

The fabric on these tents were all set up with array formations. They were even harder than concrete. Every small room was actually rather hidden.

“Xiaoran, come out quickly.”

Lu Xiaoran had also sensed that they were at his door. The moment the elders shouted, he had already removed the array formation and opened the curtain.

“Sect Master, are we going back? I don’t have anything to pack. We can leave right away.”

Sect Master Chen coughed lightly.

“We’re not leaving. Someone’s outside looking for you.”

“Someone’s looking for me?”

Lu Xiaoran was somewhat puzzled.

“Who is it?”

“You’ll know after you go.”

Lu Xiaoran was even more puzzled. Why were the sect master and the others so mysterious?

However, he still walked out of the tent.

The Sect Master and the others immediately discussed behind him.

“I didn’t expect the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect to come and find Xiaoran personally. Looks like their relationship is extraordinary.”

“The Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect has an extraordinary status. It’s very likely that she will be the sect master of the Black Tortoise True Sect in the future. It’s a huge good thing for our Heaven Demon Sect for her to be friends with Xiaoran. However, Xiaoran’s status is too low and he will also be mocked by others. Looks like we should think of a way to increase Xiaoran’s status.”

“But now, he’s already a member of the Elder Group. There’s no other position higher than that.”

Just as everyone was frowning in thought, the First Elder seemed to have thought of an idea. He took a deep breath and said with a firm gaze,

“Sect Master, I have a presumptuous request.” “Oh? Please tell me, First Elder.”

“Sect Master, why don’t you abdicate!”

Chapter 69 So You Like Me?

Sect Master Chen was silent for a moment before saying,

“First Elder, could it be that you want Xiaoran to be the sect master of our Heaven Demon Sect?”

“That’s right, that’s what I meant.” The First Elder nodded and then analyzed for him.

“Although Xiaoran’s cultivation is poor, that’s because he’s young. Moreover, everyone has seen his attainments in array formations. Moreover, Xiaoran is currently a good friend of the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect. With this relationship, it’s not an insult to our Heaven Demon Sect to let him be the sect master.”

“As for you, Sect Master, why don’t you become a Grand Elder and focus on cultivation?”

The sect master’s eyes revealed a struggle.

“But I’m only a hundred years old and in the prime of my life. Do I have to retire now?”

“That’s fine. However, I think it would be a pity if Xiaoran can’t advance further with the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect because of his identity.”

Hearing this, the sect master’s expression changed and he immediately said seriously,

“After I return, I’ll directly abdicate the position of sect master and let Xiaoran become our Heaven Demon Sect’s sect master.” What a joke. If Xiaoran could advance to the next level with the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect, the value of our Heaven Demon Sect will simply be multiplied!

For the sake of the Heaven Demon Sect, why should he still be the sect master? He should just abdicate and become a Grand Elder.

Looks like he could finally see the rise of the Heaven Demon Sect in his life!

After Lu Xiaoran walked out of the tent, he naturally saw Qin Zimo.

He could not help but be somewhat stunned.

“It’s actually you?”

Lu Xiaoran did not expect the other party to be Qin Zimo.

He still had some impression of this girl.

Back then, she had almost died in front of his cave and then been dragged away by him. Every time, she would be sent back by the two black bears.

In the end, he buried her and she was even dug out by the black bears and sent to the entrance of the cave. In the end, he just left.

He did not expect this woman to appear here and even find him. Qin Zimo smiled playfully.

“Why? Are you surprised to see me here?”

Lu Xiaoran nodded.

“I’m somewhat surprised.”

At this moment, some people not far away were already looking over.

“Isn’t that the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect? Why is she here?”

“Who is she talking to?” “That seems to be Lu Xiaoran from the Heaven Demon Sect, right? His results in this competition were pretty good and he was basically ranked around 30th.” Lu Xiaoran frowned slightly. He did not expect the other party to be the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect. Now, he understood why she was able to find him.

However, women were really troublesome. As soon as she arrived, everyone looked at her. This could easily make him famous.

“What’s the matter? If there’s nothing else, please go back. I have to start packing. Our Heaven Demon Sect will be returning later.”

“Ah? Your Heaven Demon Sect is leaving so soon?”

Lu Xiaoran nodded.

“Of course. The competition is already over. Why wouldn’t we leave? What’s the point of staying? We’re not participating in the construction of the Demon Sealing Formation.”

The first twenty people in the rankings were enough for the construction of the Demon Sealing Formation. Of course, the elders of the Black Tortoise True Sect will be the ones that are in charge. They were the true main force.

However, if the Black Tortoise True Sect was to set up the array formation alone, it would be very dangerous. If the Demon Sect controlled an elder of the Black Tortoise True Sect, they might be able to destroy the array and release the Demon Venerable.

Therefore, gathering outstanding array masters from other sects and setting up array formations was like setting up an additional safety measure.

Even if the first place Xiao Bei had already left the Black Tortoise True Sect, Lu Xiaoran definitely would not be able to participate. After all, he was only ranked 32nd.

Qin Zimo was somewhat anxious. She did not know why, but she suddenly felt somewhat disappointed when she heard that Lu Xiaoran was leaving

After looking at Lu Xiaoran, she bit her lip and said,

“Elder Lu, can I spend some time with you alone?”

“There’s no need for that, right? We’re not that close. Moreover, I’m a man and you’re a woman. It’s not appropriate.”

“It won’t take long, just for a while.”

Qin Zimo’s somewhat pleading tone made Lu Xiaoran vaguely sense that something was wrong.

However, for a moment, he did not know what was wrong with Qin Zimo.

However, more and more gazes appeared in the surroundings. Lu Xiaoran was really afraid that these people would gossip and ruin his innocence, so he could only nod and agree.

“Alright, it’s only for a while. I’ll be back later to pack.” With that said, Lu Xiaoran tapped his foot lightly and immediately soared up, quickly leaving and flying towards a peak of the Black Tortoise True Sect.

Qin Zimo was overjoyed and hurriedly followed.

The two of them quickly arrived at the nearby mountain range.

“If you have anything to say, say it quickly. I don’t have much time.”

Lu Xiaoran said directly. Qin Zimo took a deep breath and cupped her hands towards him. “Zimo thanks Elder Lu for helping Zimo previously and not abandoning me for a month.”

“Ah?”

Lu Xiaoran was stunned and his mind was filled with question marks.

When did he save her? When did he stay by her side? When did he take care of her for a month?

Suddenly, an idea flashed in Lu Xiaoran’s mind, as if he had thought of something.

Qin Zimo had always been in a coma previously. She did not know what had happened that month and did not even know that she had buried her.

In the end, when he left, she might have sobered up and had a misunderstanding. She probably thought that he had saved her and that he had taken care of her for a month.

He now understood. After all, why would this chick look for him for no reason?

“I see. Then don’t worry. It was nothing.”

Lu Xiaoran’s face was not red and his heart did not skip a beat as he accepted this life-saving favor. If the other party was grateful to him, it was also not bad for him to receive a few million spirit stones from her.

After hearing him admit it, Qin Zimo was even more touched.

“How could it be nothing? You saved my life. I’ve always wanted to thank you.”

Lu Xiaoran felt a wave of contempt in his heart. Why was she only thanking him verbally? Where was the payment? Seriously, what’s up with the nonsense? How much is gratitude worth?

After a while, she suppressed the excitement in her heart and continued,

“Elder Lu, why didn’t you go to the peak of the Northern Area last night?”

“I see... that letter yesterday was yours.”

Qin Zimo nodded repeatedly.

“I waited for you the entire night at the peak of the Northern Area.”

Seeing her slightly shy and wronged expression, Lu Xiaoran’s face could not help but twitch fiercely.

He was not stupid. If he still did not understand that Qin Zimo liked him after seeing that expression, then he might as well kill himself with a tofu.

This made him pat his forehead speechlessly.

From the beginning to the end, he had never thought of saving her. In the end, she actually misinterpreted the situation and fell in love with him.

What a melodramatic plot.

Chapter 70 You Want to Get a Man With Your Cultivation?

“Something’s wrong.” Lu Xiaoran suddenly felt that something was wrong.

Last night, he seemed to have heard the sect master and the others discussing outside that Xiao Bei’s proposal to the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect had failed.

Didn’t that mean that Qin Zimo was Xiao Bei’s master in his previous life? Because of her, he had cultivated to the Martial Monarch Realm and was reborn to find her.

Because of a freak combination of factors, he made Qin Zimo think that he had saved her. Due to this, Qin Zimo ultimately refused Xiao Bei's proposal.

Hah!

Lu Xiaoran's breathing suddenly became somewhat rapid. He felt that he had somehow ruined the plan of a hot shot.

If not for her, Xiao Bei would definitely have a high chance of successfully proposing.

Did this mean that Xiao Bei's luck had been destroyed by him?

At this moment, Xiao Bei should have already left the Black Tortoise True Sect. The people from the Demon Sect would definitely look for him. With so many experts from the Demon Sect, even if they were unable to kill him, they would definitely be able to injure him slightly.

At this moment, as long as he made a plan, it would be the best opportunity to kill Xiao Bei.

Wang Cai's mission had said that killing Xiao Bei and absorbing his luck would cause him to receive a lot of rewards.

He wondered how many good things he would receive.

"Elder Lu, what's wrong?"

"It's nothing. I just thought of something private. By the way, do you have anything else? If not, I'm going back. I've already accepted your thanks."

Seeing that Lu Xiaoran was about to leave, Qin Zimo could not help but be somewhat anxious. She hurriedly stopped him and said,

"Elder Lu, wait. I... I..."

"What are you trying to say? Can you hurry up?"

Lu Xiaoran was already somewhat impatient.

Qin Zimo could not help but feel somewhat aggrieved.

Many men wanted to talk to her but did not have the chance. Why was it that in the eyes of Lu Xiaoran, she was not worth anything?

However, she also knew that with Lu Xiaoran gone, she might not have the chance to confess.

Therefore, she took a deep breath and said with a solemn expression,

“Elder Lu, actually, other than thanking you, there’s another reason why I invited you here this time. Ever since I learned that Elder Lu saved me from danger and took care of me without leaving me behind, I have had a good impression of you. After that, you even hid your achievements and reputation well and did not ask for any thanks from me. Your character makes Zimo very impressed. As the saying goes, this debt must be repaid. Zimo’s life will belong to Elder Lu.”

Lu Xiaoran was rather speechless. Was this girl trying to scam him?

He responded accordingly. “Don’t tell me you want to be my servant? That won’t do. You’re the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect. It’s fine if others take care of you, but you definitely can’t become my servant. I don’t want that.”

Qin Zimo’s face twitched and she hurriedly waved her hand.

“No, no, no, Elder Lu, don’t misunderstand. That’s not what I meant. What I meant was... do you want to... become my dual cultivation partner?”

“No.”

Lu Xiaoran refused decisively.

Qin Zimo: “???”

Countless question marks instantly appeared in her little head.

“Why?”

She could not help but ask.

She was the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect and had an extraordinary appearance. Her cultivation was not weak and her attainments in array formations were top-notch among the younger generation.

Someone with her appearance, talent, identity, and background had actually been mercilessly and decisively rejected. Lu Xiaoran shrugged.

“No means no. Why do I have to explain why?”

“But I really want to know... Am I not beautiful enough? Or am I not powerful enough? Or do you think that as the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect, I am not worthy of you?”

Lu Xiaoran rubbed his temples. Looking at Qin Zimo’s attitude, he could tell that the other party was determined to not let him leave if he did not tell her.

If he had known that she was so troublesome, he would have been more ruthless back then. “Alright, since you want to know why so badly, I’ll tell you.”

“I’m a proud person. I don’t want to casually give up my life like this.

First of all, if you want to be with me, you have to have a lot of dowry.

Our sect just had a wedding. The other party’s dowry was 200,000 high-grade spirit stones. However, the problem was that the other party was an ordinary person. Since you’re the Holy Maiden of the Black Tortoise True Sect, how could you not have a few hundred million high-grade spirit stones as your dowry? If you give too little, I will lose face. Even if I ask you to give more, you might not be able to afford it.

Secondly, I plan to make my own sect after getting married. Don’t tell me that you want me to stay in your Black Tortoise True Sect? Or do you want to live in our Heaven Demon Sect?

I have sworn that after I get married, I will definitely have my own sect. Moreover, it will be a large sect! What I want is not a small sect, nor a small palace in the Black Tortoise True Sect. I want to live in the largest palace in my own sect!

I don’t want my child to call others ‘Young Master’ after he’s born. I want others to call my child ‘Young Master’! Also, what’s your current cultivation level? You’re only at the Mountain Sea Realm. With such a low cultivation level, how are you going to protect me after we get married? In the future, if some Great Empress takes a fancy to me and she takes me away, you won’t even be able to protect me.

“Look at you. You don’t have a cultivation level or any dowry. You don’t even have your own sect. I don’t feel safe at all. How can I become your dual cultivation partner?”

After hearing this, Qin Zimo’s heart turned cold.

Her eyes were red as she bit her lips and said,

“Are you saying that without a high cultivation level, a rich dowry, and a sect of my own, I’m not qualified to love? But I really like you.”

“Who doesn’t know how to confess? If you want to repay me, show something practical. Love isn’t something that can be obtained with just words. Love needs to be nourished by materialistic things!”

“I…”

Qin Zimo was speechless by Lu Xiaoran. Her eyes were red and tears rolled in them, threatening to fall at any moment.

Lu Xiaoran waved his hand.

“Alright, alright, stop crying. You’re making it seem like I’m ruthless. How about this? Don’t say that I won’t give you a chance. In a hundred years, if you can cultivate to the Martial Monarch Realm and have your own sect, you can come find me. At that time, I’ll consider giving you a chance to pursue me.”

Qin Zimo’s eyes suddenly lit up and she hurriedly wiped her tears with her sleeve.

“Are you serious?”

Lu Xiaoran nodded.

“Absolutely.”

“Alright, I’ll go back and cultivate now. I’ll definitely find you in a hundred years.”

As soon as she finished speaking, Qin Zimo took a deep breath and immediately ran down the mountain. The fire in her heart had already been completely lit up by Lu Xiaoran.

Women sometimes needed such motivation.

Seeing her run far away, Lu Xiaoran finally rolled his eyes in disdain. “Idiot, how could you believe that?”

You want to cultivate to the Martial Monarch Realm in a hundred years? Are you kidding me? Do you think you’re a hot shot?

Even if you are a hot shot, who knows where hundred years. Can you find me?
