Chapter 141 Defiant Alex

Leon called back, and Tabitha's tone was clearly angry.

"Leonard! I've called you so many times, why didn't you answer?"

"I'm in a meeting." Leon said.

"A meeting? Are you a big boss or something? Is there such a thing as one-day meeting?"

"It was really a one-day meeting." Leon knew that Tabitha doesn't believe him, but it's true.

"Don't make excuses. My grandfather thinks highly of you and gives you a chance to start a business. How nice of you to slip away, leaving me in an antique shop for a whole day. You're pissing me off!" Tabitha said sarcastically.

"What, you haven't seen me for only one day, and you already miss me?" Leon made a joke.

"I think you're such a big-headed ghost that you won't talk about absenteeism for a day. Go to Beverly Hills and pick me up in my house as soon as possible. It's important!"

"What's the matter?" Leon asked curiously.

"Don't ask so many questions. Just come as soon as you want. It's good for you anyway!"

After saying those words, Tabitha hung up angrily.

Leon, shook his head gently and said to himself, “After a busy day, I just wanted to go back to have a rest.”

Half an hour later, Leon came to the gate of Williams family in Beverly Hills.

Ring the doorbell. Tabitha came to open the door.

When the gate opened, he saw Tabitha wearing a uniform, Japanese college style.

A white shirt, with a black knee skirt and lovely long curly hair, which made her look like a graceful high school girl.

It's the same uniform style, but today's skirt was longer than the short skirt she wore few days ago.

Leon does not know, but this unruly daughter, with her kind of style, unexpectedly has become a lady.

In such a dress, Tabitha's looked more feminine, but the strong girly style made her shine in front of his eyes.

Seeing Tabitha dressed like a college girl and her manner becoming more dignified, Leon guessed that they might have an important guest tonight.

“Come on in, go to the teahouse and sit, and remember not to say anything inappropriate, let alone rush to say it, and be polite in front of your elders.” Tabitha suddenly warned.

“Oh.” Leon nodded.

Leon knew all about etiquette, and usually didn't fall behind. He felt that this sentence should be told to Tabitha. However, it was Tabitha who told him to come.

Next, Leon came to Williams family's teahouse.

At this time, Carlo was having tea and chatting with a man who was younger than him.

The man, who also seemed to be in his sixties, has a standard Mediterranean haircut: a skating rink in the middle and a ring of barbed wire next to it.

In addition to baldness, there was also the hooked nose, which was particularly eye-catching.

"Mr. Williams, would you like some tea?" Leon said hello to Carlo.

Carlo was chatting vigorously just now when he heard his voice look up and saw Leon coming. He hurriedly said, "Leon, come and sit down over here. Let me introduce you to Mr. Carter. This is Mr. Carter, a veteran of the business community in Fairmont City."

Mr. Carter?

The elder of the local business community?

Although they do not know each other, but when he put all the information together, Leon immediately understood.

This was Alex!

Leon's eyes were slightly majestic, and his heart said he had met an enemy.

There were not only family conflicts with him, but also the grudges that have just been forged.

However, when he looked at Alex's reaction, he didn't know Leon, or he'll have to tear him up.

At that point, Alex narrowed his eyes, glanced lightly at Leon, and then said in an elder's tone, "Who is this kid?" Is he the driver of your family? "

Carlo shook his head gently and smiled and explained, "He's not the driver, Mr. Carter. Guess what he is to me?"

At that time, Carlo specially sold a son-in-law. He regarded Leon as a candidate for his grandson-in-law and paid special attention to Leon's move with a little show-off. After all, Leon is very capable and excellent in his eyes.

"Since he is not a driver, then he is a bodyguard assistant." Alex met Carlo's grandson, so he ruled it out.

"He is a little friend of mine, and we have a temper when we chat." Carlo did not say bluntly that Leon was his future grandson-in-law.

On the one hand, he can't reveal it yet, even his own granddaughter doesn't know about it. And at the same time, he was worried that Alex will rob him, because Alex has a granddaughter who was about the same age as Tabitha.

However, Alex does not have the discerning eyes of Carlo, and does not see that Leon has other outstanding features besides its appearance.

“Oh, well, I thought it was some of your cronies.” Alex said so, but disdained to think that Leon was just a brown-noser after Carlo, or how to chat and lose his temper.

“Leon is nice, and not an outsider.” Carlo said with a smile.

Speaking of which, he and Alex were not old friends for many years, but when they were in the provincial capital, they had some contact, and the relationship was not so good.

Later, he did not know why Alex came from the provincial capital to settle in Fairmont City, and they seldom see each other since then.

Recently, I heard that Alex has a son in his old age, and the whole business circle of Fairmont City has spread all over. Both of them were prominent figures in the city’s business community, so Carlo invited Alex to his home.

In terms of status, Alex was really poor. After all, Carlo is the real boss of the provincial capital, so it is impossible for Carlo to go to Alex’s home in person to congratulate him.

On the other hand, the reason why Carlo moved around with Alex was for Leon.

He used all the convenience to help Leon reborn, because he wanted him to be Williams family’s grandson-in-law.

Start with Fairmont City, and then he would definitely take Leon to the provincial capital if he had the opportunity in the future.

“Hello, Mr. Carter.”

Leon pretended not to know Alex, and greeted him.

On the other hand, Alex, did not bother to raise his eyelids and did not take a look at Leon, and nodded.

In Alex’s eyes, Leon, such a humble small role, cannot be seen by him at all. He usually met young man like Leon and is often dismissive.

When Carlo saw the embarrassing scene, he said, “Leon, make yourself at home, sit down and have tea and have a chat. In a few days, it will be the Chamber of Commerce. It’s a business event in Fairmont. I suggest you go and see the world, too.”

Fairmont Chamber of Commerce, Carlo was bound to be invited, and would even regard him as a guest, after all, he was a business mogul from the provincial capital.

In terms of popularity, Carlo was higher than Alex. Of course, Alex also had advantages, he was equivalent to the city of Fairmont, many local businessmen were planning how to curry favor with Alex in the chamber of commerce.

“All right.” Leon nodded.

Even if Carlo does not say, Leon will certainly go, the enterprises under his name can definitely be called the first giant in Fairmont City.

Even if they don’t fit together, taking out one of them alone could still occupy the first position in their respective industries.

However, at that time, Alex sneered: “Oh, as what Carlo said, it is a business event, a gathering for rich people, this is a high-class social communication. I am afraid he will have a stage fright!”

Alex said bluntly that he didn't took Leon seriously at all, and naturally he didn't care what Leon would think when he heard it.

He thought he can stab a small potato like Leon with one finger, so what if he teases him? He should have to accept it even if he won't believe it.

“No, Leon is calm and even if something happens. I'm sure he won't have stage fright.” Carlo gave a high evaluation.

“Is that so? Carlo, you really think highly of him. It won't hurt to let him go with you. After all, it's OK to run errands.” Alex continues to tease.

Super Rich Man by kiang Chapter 142

Chapter 142 I am stronger!

Alex did not specifically aimed at Leon; instead he just generally looked down on people like Leon at heart.

However, some people are just too old and should be given respect. But it does not mean that they could be arrogant.

“The reason why I respect you, is just because of your age and not because of your background or talent.” Leon also spoke bluntly.

‘Since you don't respect me, why should I respect you back? You keep on putting airs on me, but I also have the right whether to give you face or not!’ Leon thought.

When Alex heard this, he frowned and his expression turned cold and gloomy.

“You are just a nobody! You dare challenge me?” Alex bellowed.

“If you don’t respect me, for what reason should I respect you?” Leon replied calmly.

“Because I’m Alex! I am one of the pillars of business community of Fairmont City!” Alex was furious at Leon.

“The pillar of the business community? What proof do you have? The industry you have in Fairmont City is just of average size and doesn’t have any influence. If it’s not for your family background, do you think someone would still sucked up to you?” Leon sneered.

What Leon said was true.

Today’s event have really nothing to do with Alex; the reason why the Family Carter still had a great influence in Fairmont City was because they are a distinguished family from the capital.

It was normal to curry favor with the rich and powerful, especially in the business industry.

“Nonsense! What do you know?! In any case, I am still a person who has great experience, You are nothing!”

Alex was so angry that veins were popping on his forehead; and his expression, coupled with his hooked nose was rather unpleasant.

Compared with Alex, Leon was calmer.

As if what had happened was unrelated to him, he picked up a cup of tea and tasted it carefully; it exuded the faint fragrance and have sweet taste that pervaded his mouth.

At this time, Carlo shook his head helplessly and was disappointed with Leon.

He originally wanted Leon to have a good relationship with Alex; he did not expect that Leon would be arrogant and would create conflict with Alex instead.

He was a little confused; how could Leon, who was usually calm and composed would get angry with Alex Carter today ?

‘Ignoring other people’s criticism does not mean you’re a coward’ Carlo sighed inwardly.

Some people can be provoked, but people like Alex are not in that category!

Coupled with the fact that there are past conflicts between his family and Family Carter, was it inappropriate for Leon to box to Alex ?

“Drink tea, let’s not allow it to affect our friendship. Leon is young and careless. I hope you can forgive him, Mr. Carter. Who wasn’t young once ? I ask Mr. Carter to please pardon him.”

Carlo hastened to smooth things out; and although he was disappointed with Leon’s behavior, he felt that if he were in Leon’s shoes, He would also have an argument with Alex. After all, Alex’s words are really ugly.

But when he thought about it, he felt that his status as the master of the Williams Family was different from Leon; so what if he scolded Alex severely, he had the strength to back his words.

He looked at Leon helplessly.

“Leon, quickly apologized.”

With those words, Carlo winked at Leon and signaled that Leon would take it compromised for now. There would be chances in the future to get revenge.

However, Alex was not an easy person to easily let things go; even if Leon apologized, it was impossible for him to forgive Leon.

Of course, Leon would also not going to apologize to Alex.

Carlo thought that Leon would do what he told him to do; but doing that was not something a son of the Danielle’s Family would do.

“I apologize to Mr. Williams for interrupting your tea. but if you will ask me to apologize to Mr. Carter, it’s not going to happen!” Leon’s eyes were unwavering.

“Oh, young man, you will regret what you did today for the rest of your life!” Alex sneered and said with a domineering look on his face.

“It’s made things hard for yourself. You don’t know to give face to others. If you ask me, you’re not qualified to join the Chamber of Commerce in Fairmont at all!”

Then Alex turned to Carlo and said, “Carlo, are you really going to take this kid to the chamber of commerce? Don’t you think it’s embarrassing?”

It's better to bring a pet dog than bring someone who doesn't want to make progress."

'I can't believe that a son of Danielle's Family was compared to a dog!' Carlo exclaimed inwardly.

Leon's eyes suddenly became sharp, and he made a formal decision in his mind that he would never let Alex's old age be peaceful.

"You don't have to worry about this Mr. Carter. I have my own plans." Carlo's eyes narrowed slightly, with a hidden meaning in his tone.

Even if Leon was in the wrong, Carlo would not be instigated by Alex; he could not disregard Leon's other abilities just because of this matter that happened today.

Just one fact that Leon was a skilled doctor versed in Chinese medicine alone, made it difficult for Carlo to give up Leon so easily.

"Is that so? Carlo, as a veteran in the business community, you no longer see the overall situation any more. A disciple is like a facade. Once you let this boy become your disciple and take him to the chamber of commerce, he will only disgrace you, and you Williams Family!" Alex mocked.

Alex saw that Carlo maintained his stance on Leon; he knew that their relationship was special, and he guessed that Leon was probably a disciple of Carlo.

Compared with a son-in-law, A disciple meant that they were just students that the masters were proud of but they would not inherit their mentor's surname; while a son-in-law could let their future children carry the surname Family Williams instead.

Carlo certainly knew who he would be close to, and it would never be Alex. If Alex's brother were sitting in front of Leon, he would have a different attitude.

“He is not a disciple of mine; my disciple is in the provincial capital. But Mr. Carter, don't you think it's embarrassing to argue with a young man about this? Is it worthy of your identity?”

Carlo's attitude was already very clear.

And Alex's face flushed at that time.

“It's getting late. I have to go to the hospital to pick someone up. Besides, this tea is a little different with my liking. I like black tea, and I don't like green tea. I'll see you at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow.”

Alex put down the teacup, stood up and was made his way to leave.

His old face was pulled long; he angrily walked out of Carlo's house.

Carlo saw Alex made an excuse and left; he did not get angry. He had no direct feud with Alex, so there was no need for him to spoil tomorrow's chamber of commerce conference.

As soon as Alex left, Carlo stared solemnly at Leon and said, “It's understandable that you are still young, Leon. But do you know how big is Alex's influence in Fairmont? Do you know how many local businessmen wants to take advantage of the Chamber of Commerce to curry favor with him? You should understand that influential people can put pressure on the lives of normal people!”

“Of course I understand. But Mr. Williams, I want to tell you that if a person respects me, I will give all the courtesy he deserves; but if the other person doesn't respect me, I have no reason to respect him. I will never bow to anyone, no matter who he is!"

Leon stared at Carlo seriously.

He remembered Carlo's kindness to him, but that was no reason for him to grovel and bow to Alex!

At that moment, Carlo was stunned and looked at Leon with complicated eyes.

And since Leon did it, he would never regret it.

"He will know that he meets his match, the market is not decided by him. He is strong, but I am stronger!"

"Even if I have offend more than half of the business community in Fairmont, it doesn't matter!"

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 143

Chapter 143 He's not really that great!

Carlo was shocked by the Leon's arrogance.

"This boy, he's really young and doesn't know fear! I really did not expect him to make Alex angry!"

He also saw that even though Leon was somewhat arrogant, he was extremely principled.

Although it doesn't seem wise to him, it's not wrong for a man to be proud and unyielding.

After slightly calming down, Carlo warned Leon, “Leon, we are not going to argue if what you did is right or wrong. Since you have offended Alex, then you must be careful on tomorrow’s Chamber of Commerce. If he wants to mess with you, most businessmen in Fairmont will target you just to suck up on him!”

“I know very well about that, I thought it through before I offend him. Anyway, Mr. Williams, you will be on my side, right?” Leon smiled faintly.

“Well, that’s natural” Carlo nodded. Even he said so, he still doesn’t intend to have a conflict with Alex unless he would really going to provoke them.

Then Carlo added: “After all, I am originally from the provincial capital; and I am going to leave Fairmont in a few days’ time. In terms of prestige in the hearts of local businessmen, I am slightly inferior to Alex. If I am the only one on your side, I will not be able to turn things around.”

“The Chamber of Business Conference is a big business event in Fairmont City, will Alex really make a big fuss for such a small fry like me?” Leon asked.

“As far as I know about Alex, he is a man of vengeance regardless if it’s big or small grudges. In the past, someone stepped on him in the supermarket accidentally, he made that person pay. Alex is very small-minded person. I guess he will make things difficult for you during the conference in the Chamber of Commerce, and he will make give you a hard time in Fairmont City.” Carlo anxiously said.

“There’s no other choice? I don’t think so.” Leon was not even bit worried; instead, there’s a faint smile on the corner of his mouth.

“Of course! In the future, you will be strongly restricted from doing business in Fairmont, even looking for a job, hospitalization, staying in a hotel, and so on. This is the result when you offend someone you shouldn’t. As long as Alex sends a word to the bosses of various industries, can they not give face to him? Those dogs are eager to find a chance to curry favor with Alex. I think you understand everything now. You’ve got yourself a big problem this time!” Carlo’s expression was grave when explained to Leon what was at stake.

Although Carlo usually looked down on Alex, but this is in Fairmont City; the influence of Alex is really great here compared to him.

“It doesn’t matter. It’s impossible for all the businessmen in the city to target me. There are always people who doesn’t like Alex.” Leon remained calm.

“Naive! You’re still too young! Alex only needs to say a word to several leading companies in Fairmont City, and then these companies will inform their affiliated small enterprises in the same industry, and they will be able to put you into a desperate situation. There is no need for him to talk to all the enterprises in the city one by one!”

Carlo wanted Leon to remember this lesson and realize the seriousness of the problem. And since it can’t be undone, he could avoid making the same mistake next time.

“I see. Who do you think are the leading enterprises in Fairmont City, Mr. Williams?” Leon asked calmly.

“Starlight Club, Grand Prince Hotel, Parker Group, Michelin Real Estate, Bertholdt Real Estate, Dannielle Family Group, that’s all. I don’t know the others. Anyway, what I have listed above are all the leaders in various industries in Fairmont City.” Carlo said.

Leon nodded, the corners of his mouth curled slightly.

He had contacts with all the enterprises mentioned by Carlo just now.

The city of Fairmont was too small. I thought Carlo would talk about some other unfamiliar enterprises, but they all turned out to be his “old acquaintances.”

However, Bertholdt Real State and Parker Group are about to disappear from the history of business; but Carlo does not need know that.

“What’s the matter? Is Leon freaking out now?” Carlo sneered.

“A little bit.” Leon nodded.

“Don’t be afraid. I’ll take you to the provincial capital when there’s a chance. But you’ll have to work hard then. You should also be more careful at the chamber of commerce tomorrow. Don’t embarrass me, and the Williams Family!” Carlo said solemnly.

“What does Mr. Williams mean?” Leon doesn’t really care whether Williams Family would be humiliated or not.

“Ahem, I don’t really mean anything. Now that we know each other very well, I won’t ask you to give me credit. Otherwise, people will think that I am shameless.”

Carlo naturally hoped that Leon would shine in the chamber of commerce; so that he would be in the limelight too. After all, Leon had been nurtured by him as a future grandson-in-law.

However, Carlo could also recognized the reality that Leon at that stage was still too young and lacks of backing. And the point that he offended Alex, it would be lucky if he would not make a fool of himself at the chamber of commerce.

“If Mr. Williams is worried that I will just humiliate you, then you don’t have to take me to the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow. I can go by myself.”

Leon did not want to be restrained, so he is more comfortable if he would come on his own.

“It doesn’t matter. I will leave Fairmont City soon, and I don’t care much about face anymore. After entering the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow morning, we will meet in the conference hall.”

Carlo have not forgotten to expand Leon’s social relationship, so he brought Leon to meet some people from the business circle.

“All right then.” Leon saw that Carlo was so attentive, and he was embarrassed to refuse.

“Leon, I want to rest now and get some energy for the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow. Go and talk to Tabitha. If you are hungry, you two can go out to buy something to eat.” Carlo said tiredly.

“No, I’ll go back and get rest too.” Leon doesn’t want to have another argument Tabitha.

“Leon, sometimes boys should take the initiative.”

Carlo was very depressed

“What do you mean?” Leon really did not think about it that way. After all, he had no feelings for Tabitha.

“The opportunity to change your destiny is right in front of you, and you should strive for it.” Carlo hinted again.

“I know, the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow, right? I’ll do my best.” Leon nodded in response.

At that time, Carlo felt anxious for Leon. He did not know whether to laugh or cry because of Alex’s naivety.

He believed that Leon might have felt that he was not worthy of his precious granddaughter, so he did not think that way; this kind of thing cannot be forced, but could only slowly create opportunities for the two. Feelings can be cultivated slowly.

After bidding goodbye to Carlo, Leon walked out of the tea room and saw Tabitha in the living room holding her cat and said, “Tabitha, I’m going back now. I’ll see you tomorrow.”

Unexpectedly, Tabitha threw out a sentence: “Leon ah Leon, sometimes I think you are a wise man, but I think sometimes you aren’t. My grandfather asked you to come here to pave a way for you, but you made Alex walk out. You take care of yourself!”

“I appreciate Mr. Williams’s intention, but I will never give in to the matter of principle!”

With those words, Leon walked out from the door of Williams Family.

“Wealth and longevity are up to God to decide; but being right or wrong is up to me!”

“Tabitha have not experienced the world’s indifference, so she doesn’t really understand how the world works.”

The brief visit to the neighbor’s house came to an end.

The next day would be the business event in Fairmont City, and Leon had nothing to prepare. He just went home and ate something before sleeping until dawn.

Leon was more worried on which car he would use travel on the going to the chamber of commerce the next day, than any other things.

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 144

Chapter 144 Porcelain Vase

The Viper, which was limited to three people who owned in the country was still in his garage accumulating dust.

“If I don’t drive that car, won’t I be a little wasteful? The more the car are not used, the more easily it breaks down, so why don’t I go out for a ride with it today? Let’s just take it as I’m testing it for maintenance”

Leon was lying on a large bathtub, taking a bath while preparing for today’s event.

Although Viper was too high-profile, Leon was not a wasteful person.

He decided to drive Viper to the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow.

Just then, the mobile phone above the bathtub kept ringing.

Tabitha sent a video chat request.

“Well, what’s this girl wants now? Can’t she just stops?”

After some times, Leon finally accepted the video call; sitting in the bathtub naked, his lower body covered with bubbles.

The moment that video chat was connected, Tabitha was startled by the large muscles in the screen.

Leon’s broad chest appeared in the picture, emitting strong masculinity.

Tabitha accidentally touched Leon’s chest before, but today she saw it with her own eyes; and her face turned red.

“Big. It’s so big!”

Even though Tabitha was not a perve, but she could still not resist it when she was directly hit in the face by hormones. So, she could not stop the drool escaped her mouth.

“What’s big?” Leon looked down, and made sure that his family jewel was safely covered with foam and could not be seen by the other person.

Tabitha reacted quickly, pouting her little mouth and pretending to be disgusted,

“What are you thinking? I only mean that you have big muscles. I’ve never seen you go to the gym that why I was a little surprised that you are quite fit.”

“I never work out.” Leon never deliberately goes to the gym, nor does he work out in order to get in shape.

The reason why he had such a good figure was because he practiced martial arts, and not because he was taking protein powder.

While practicing kung fu, he underwent a rigorous training.

He once underwent training with Master Candra in the mountains for a period of time. It was really a tough training, and he was secluded from worldly affairs during that period.

Even he was already living in the city, he was still not idle. He hit wooden stakes and sandbags every day.

“Cut the crap! How can you have such big chest muscles if you don’t work out? Forget it. Reason I called you is that, my grandfather asked me to lend you my car.” Tabitha said.

“What do you mean?” Leon asked confusedly.

“Oh, to put it bluntly, my grandfather thinks that it would be better for you to drive a high-grade car to the chamber of commerce. Driving is a facade for a businessman, and people will think highly of you if you drive a luxury car.” Tabitha explained.

Leon understood.

Tabitha was right, luxury cars do reflect a person’s identity.

However, Leon does not need Carlo to provide him a luxury car.

“Convey my thanks to Mr. Williams for intending to provide me with a luxury car, but I can’t accept it. I’ll figure it out on my own.”

Leon’s Viper was still in the garage to and accumulating dust, it would be good to put it on use.

“Leon, I’m telling you, it’s a top-of-the-line Porsche 911. Are you sure you don’t need it? Driving this car to attend the chamber of commerce will definitely give you some face!” When Tabitha said this, she specially mentioned the model.

“I know your Williams Family owned a lot of luxury cars, but this time I want to do it on my own.” Leon still refused.

“Hmp! You have some guts, but I still think you’re a little stupid; and it’s right to rely on yourself, but this kind of occasion is very important. Do you think you can get a better car than a Porsche 911 on your own?” Tabitha sneered.

“Don’t worry, Miss Tabitha. I’ll do my best.” Leon responded.

“You really don’t know what’s good for you. Anyway, I’ve already said what I have to say. Take care of yourself. Don’t ride an electric bike then!”

Tabitha hung up the video call and shook her head.

She thought that Leon was a little ignorant; there was already a car readily available for him to use, but he did not want to accept it. He was just asking for humiliation!

After all, the top Porsche 911 was even better than the chamber president’s Maserati. If it were anyone else, they would not refuse it.

When Leon saw the video suddenly turned black, he did not take Tabitha’s complaint to heart.

Carlo’s kindness was appreciated, but he doesn’t want to be indebted and restrained.

It was impossible for him to listen to Carlo's arrangement every time. If he would have accepted Carlo's good intentions, he would be bound to follow Carlo's words.

Why would he have to listen to other people's arrangements for everything?

Besides, the Viper parked in the garage should really be put to use.

The next day, Leon got up early; he had breakfast and then drove to Grand Prince Hotel.

There was no doubt that if you would ask, which hotel was leading in hotel industry, it is naturally the five-star hotel, Grand Prince Hotel.

In Fairmont City, Grand Prince Hotel was the absolute leader in the industry because there is no second hotel whose scale and grandeur could surpassed Grand Prince Hotel.

And Fairmont City Chamber of Commerce, as the largest business event in the city, it was only natural to held it in such a grand and high-end venue; so, Grand Prince Hotel was the best choice.

"Consider it as an inspection. By the way, I will take a look at Grand Prince Hotel's financial statement for this month." Leon reminded himself.

Leon was holding the steering wheel, and drove his way to the venue.

Half an hour later, Leon arrived at Grand Prince Hotel.

After parking the car, Leon walked in.

As he came early and the others did not arrive yet, he got off without a crowd surrounding him.

Whenever people see his “viper”, they will stop and watch.

At that point in time, not many people have arrived yet.

Grand Prince Hotel were setup and was arranged the day before the event.

The Chamber of Commerce meeting was divided into parts; the first part, in which a meeting was held in the conference hall, presided over by the Chamber president.

After the meeting, there will be a lot of free time for businessmen to meet new friends, greet old acquaintances, expand their social circle, and even open up business projects.

This was the original meaning of the Chamber of Commerce, which was equivalent to creating a platform for businessmen to seek new business opportunities.

In the past years, however, the chamber of commerce had gradually changed.

The business exchange meeting became a meeting of flattery and showing off wealth.

This was the first time that Leon had joined the Chamber of Commerce in Fairmont City, and he have not yet witnessed how these businessmen kiss ass.

Now that the Fairmont Chamber of Commerce had become a flattery conference led by Alex.

Leon was about to go to his office in Grand Prince Hotel, he was standing across the reception hall on the first floor, waiting for the elevator.

Suddenly, he heard a sound of object breaking.

Leon turned around and found that a hotel employee had broken the vase in the reception hall. It seemed that it was an accident and even the vase almost hit the employee.

The vase was about 1.5 meters high and was used to decorate the scene and played a decorative role in the reception area.

Without hesitation, Leon hurried over to have a look and was relieved to find that the employee was not hurt.

At present, the broken pieces of porcelain need to be cleaned up as soon as possible.

Otherwise, not to say about affecting the ambiance, it might even scratch the guests.

So, Leon decided to help the employee clean up.

But at this moment, the employee suddenly changed his face and pretended to be innocent.

“Sir, you need to pay for breaking the vase. Please follow me to the front desk and pay the compensation!”

How dare an employee like you, framed the boss of the hotel.

“Brother, don’t worry about this pot. I saw it was an accident.”

Leon patted the employee on the shoulder with a faint sneer on the corner of his mouth.

“What kind of nonsense are you spouting? Why don’t I understand? You obviously broke this vase. What does it have to do if it’s an accident or not? Hurry to the front desk and pay the compensation!”

The employee pretended to know nothing and continued to urge Leon to go to the front desk to pay for the vase.

“I saw you break the vase with my own eyes. I was worried that you would get hurt, so I came to help. I didn’t expect that you would turn the blame on me.”

Leon was certainly not cold-hearted, and neither he’s a soft one that easy to bully. He did not expect that his goodwill would be paid by evil.

“You’re talking nonsense! I didn’t break the vase! I think you just want to deny it!”

It seems that the other party really wanted to deny it.

“The quality of the staff of Grand Prince Hotel is worrying, so it is necessary to carry out another wave of rectification.”

Leon had seen bigger problems since he was a child.

However, when the employee heard what Leon said, he couldn’t help laughing.

“Oh, who do you think you are? Whether Grand Prince Hotel is in order or not, is that really what you can say casually? This vase is worth a lot of money. Why don't you give me five thousand dollars and I'll take care of it for you? Otherwise, you will be affecting the appreciation of today's chamber of commerce, and you can't afford it!"

Leon really felt sorry for this man.

'It's disgusting! To turn the blame to others, and even threatening to take money!'

"Did this guy know that the person he threatened to blackmail was the big boss of Grand Prince Hotel?"

Leon was silent for a moment.

Fortunately, it was only an isolated case. If most of the hotel staff are like this one, How could the Grand Prince Hotel be the leading position in the hotel service industry in Fairmont City?

"What's the matter? You're scared! As soon as we get to know each other, we can get to a private location so you could give me the money. I can definitely take care of it for you!" There was a look of greed in the employee's eyes.

Seeing this, Leon shook his head: "You will lose your job."

"Bah! My uncle is the manager of the logistics department of the hotel. As long as he stays in the hotel, I will never lose my job!"

"The manager of the logistics support department, right? What's his name?" Leon asked.

"Harber, why are you asking so many questions? Give me the money! Five thousand dollars!"

“All right, Harber. I’ll keep that in mind.”

Leon knew better than this employee, how much the vase was worth.

It’s not an antique vase, it’s just a modern handicraft for decoration. Even if Grand Prince Hotel was a five-star hotel, it won’t cost more than a thousand dollars.

“If you won’t give me five thousand dollars, I’ll call the security!”

“A broken bottle is worth five thousand? You are so greedy!”

“You have never seen the world. Is it your first-time coming on a five-star hotel? I’m telling you; the five-star class is like this. If you don’t pay, I’ll call my uncle!”

The face of that boy was so disgusting that Grand Prince Hotel would never allow such a person to exist!

Besides, was Leon the type of person who would allow racketeers on his company? Of course not!

“You don’t have to call your uncle. The name Harber is easy to remember.”

Then, Leon pulled out his cell phone and called Gerald.

Gerald got up early and was already waiting in the hotel. Today, not only the chamber of commerce but also him, heard that his billionaire boss was coming, he dared not be negligent.

He got up at four O’clock in the morning, had a quick breakfast and came to Grand Prince Hotel to wait.

As soon as he got a call from Mr. Millers, Gerald felt nervous.

“What can I do for you, Sir?”

“Fire Harber and his nephew together, get them out of here immediately!”

After giving the order, Leon hung up the phone.

“All right, Mr. Millers. I will do it right away!”

Listening to the “beep” sound coming from the mobile phone, Gerald’s face was pale.

The shorter the call, the more serious the situation was.

It was not too late to save the situation, he would immediately let the logistics support manager Harber, together with his nephew, pack up and get out of here!

At that time, Harber’s nephew did not realize the seriousness his action.

He sneered at Leon: “You’re so funny, you are so good at acting. You should have an Oscar!”

“Take care of yourself!”

Leon turned away; his eyes were cold.

Although this was only a small matter, it cannot be ignored.

If it was not him, other customers might be the one who would be blackmailed, then the reputation of Grand Prince Hotel would seriously be affected.

Gerald came over with a security guard, and forked out the employee who blackmailed Leon.

“What’s the matter, Mr. Crow?”

“Mr. Crow, what are you doing?”

“Take it easy, Mr. Crow!”

Behind Leon, there was a sound of exclamations, which gradually disappeared.

Even if the man was forked out of the hotel, he would never understand why.

It was really a pity for that kid’s uncle’s; he was fired from Grand Prince Hotel, and all hotels in Fairmont would no longer employ them.

The that had happened was not enough to affect the Leon’s mood.

It was not so bad to be able to find and correct a problem on time; and he would never allow that incident to ever happen again in the future.

Taking the elevator, Leon arrived at his office.

It wasn’t long before Gerald followed.

Leon asked Gerald to bring the month’s financial statements.

In order to keep a low profile, he came early that day, when the Chamber of Commerce have not been officially started yet.

Taking advantage of the free time, Leon carried on the office to check on the financial statement.

He, the big boss behind the scenes, have not been there for some time. The last time he came, when he brought Tabitha with him. At that time, he couldn't accomplish work since it was already night.

Gerald brewed a cup of tea and brought it to Leon respectfully.

Leon turned the chair and held the cup of tea while facing the glass window.

It rained the previous night. After raining, the sky was clear and blue that day.

By eight o'clock, the Chamber of Commerce would be officially open.

As a local business event, it must be quite lively.

"I don't know if I should talk about it or not, but there's something I want to tell Mr. Miller." Gerald said hesitantly.

"Come on, as long as you have a reasonable basis, you can rest assured that I will not be too arrogant like earlier, and I will try to help you. Don't be too stiff around me."

Leon doesn't want his staff to be disrespectful to him, but he doesn't want them to be like robots either.

Boss, of course we must have, but like Gerald, if you were as timid as a mouse, how can you take charge of Grand Prince Hotel in the future?

With these words, Gerald would have to open up.

"Recently, Alex often goes to the hospital. He must have a relative in hospital. I think this news may be useful to Mr. Millers."

Gerald was pleased to be able to take the initiative to investigate and track Alex, but Leon already knew about it.

Because Alex's relatives are hospitalized, which was related to him.

"I already know the news, but I have been discharged from the hospital, presumably in order to participate in today's Chamber of Commerce, Carter family as the most famous family in Fairmont City, the whole family will be present today." Leon nodded faintly and then took a sip of tea.

When he put down the teacup, he told him, "Today's Chamber of Commerce, Grand Prince Hotel will play a very important role. You only need to do your part. The Grand Prince Hotel people's elegant demeanor should be seen by those businessmen!"

Leon's vision, and the stability of the situation, was sincerely admired by Gerald.

Through this chamber of commerce, Grand Prince Hotel can be made more outstanding, like other five-star hotels, in fact, the biggest source of visitors were these businessmen who came to the conference.

"You go ahead. I'll continue to review the recent revenue of the hotel."

Leon waved to Gerald and let him out of the office.

.....

Now, the bosses of various enterprises were also coming to Grand Prince Hotel one after another.

Looking ahead, there were more and more luxury cars parked outside the hotel.

Some ordinary people who were unable to participate in the chamber of commerce also came to join the fun in front of the hotel early.

Short videos were hot now, and that kind of occasion was a good place for material.

Just then, a red Ferrari F12 was speeding towards the hotel.

This scene, undoubtedly caught the attention of many people, one by one holding their mobile phone and took pictures.

The roar resounded through the crowd, and the Ferrari was so fast that it showed no sign of slowing down even in front of the hotel.

Wow—

Rain Water, accumulated by the side of the road, was suddenly splashed up.

There was a guy in tight trousers and bean shoes, who was busy patting Tik Tok.

He wasn't able to avoid it and was splashed with water.

Seeing the pants and bean shoes being splashed mercilessly; he clenched his fists and clenched his teeth at that moment.

“Hard work, struggle, success, become a superior person.” these words, over and over again, flashed through his mind.

“One day, when I have money, I will buy one. Buy a Paradise raincoat!”

A few seconds later, the red Ferrari F12 slammed on the brakes and nearly hit the wall.

At that time, people finally saw the true face of the car owner!

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 146

Chapter 146 Cannot keep a low profile!

It's a young woman who was wearing a Burberry plaid cotton shirt and blended with a Burberry bucket hat.

She seemed to be about twenty years old.

This famous brand showed off her extraordinary origins.

As soon as she got out of the car, she was watched and photographed by people.

Some are professional photo maker, others would upload it to Tik Tok and other Social Media platforms.

"This Ferrari is so cool. If you can get a girl like this, you'll be lucky."

"I'm telling you, this is the car of Alex's granddaughter. Carter Family is a distinguished family, so you're not that lucky!"

"This is a side branch of the provincial capital of Carter Family, not the real Michaelis Group."

"It's not like that ordinary people like us can covet. This Michaelis daughter is very wayward. If she hears you, it's over!"

“Yes, Alexa will let you die. If you live through the first year of junior high school, you won’t live past fifteen!”

This daughter of a billionaire had almost become the focus of this chamber of commerce. At least so far, her car is the most attractive and popular.

However, Alexa didn’t bother to pay attention to people who was staring at her. She let them talked about her more.

In her thought, these people were at the bottom of society, and their lives were as cheap as dirt.

Not to mention she was splashing mud ideas, she didn’t care if she bumped into them.

She was walking on her high heels, she was escorted by her bodyguard, and went straight into the hotel.

She was followed by Alex and his wife, with their daughter and son-in-law.

Four people and two luxury cars. Alex car was one of the top lines of famous car brands Bentley.

His daughter and son-in-law had a Mercedes-Benz Maybach.

The sight of Alex family undoubtedly brought excitement and amazement to the people.

In particular, the top-equipped Bentley is the envy of every men in the world.

“This is the model thing for rich and successful people. It is my biggest dream to have a Bentley in my whole life!”

“A private car is like a man’s 2nd wife. To be honest, I really envy it!”

“Excuse me, I just had my tooth pulled out, does it affect my driving a Bentley?”

“It doesn’t affect it, but it leaks when you brag!”

Alex’s family got out of their car, and his wife was the most eye-catching, because his lovely wife was only 30 years old and she was really beautiful.

They knew, Alex was over sixty years old.

As the original mate did not give him a boy, he always had mixed feelings. He found another lover in his sixties and had just given birth to a baby boy some time ago.

Of course, like Alex an old pervert. There was usually no less flirting, but now the woman who had just given birth to his son was the most favored by him.

People knew very well that today, on the spot light was Alex, and even many businessmen have prepared gifts for him.

Alex walked through the crowded people and went into the Grand Prince Hotel with a strong and powerful aura.

Behind him, the media, professional photographer and passers-by audiences were all snapping pictures.

After that, Danielle Family and Walker Family they also arrived at the hotel one after another.

It was not inferior to Family Carter's luxury car, the Danielle Family.

The head of the Danielle Family came by Bentley Mulsanne.

While Jerry and Tommy shared in a BMW X7, they were proud enough to drive that car, but their behavior were much lower than that last chamber of commerce.

They were influenced by Leon. The two brothers became low-key and introverted.

Mr. Walker was also a key figure that people were very concerned about. Compared to wealth of Mr. Walker and Mr. Danielle they were both business leaders in Fairmont City. Both were standing firmly in the top of their positions.

His son Liam was the president of the local supercar club, but instead of driving a supercar, he drove a range Rover, in line with his temperament.

As for his son Liam, he was so different that it surprised people.

This guy unexpectedly rode a small electric car and followed.

That scene surprised passers-by.

“Oh, my God, what is Mr. Walker doing?”

“This stupid electric is so unconformable, at least a Lamborghini at his level!”

“You don’t understand, it’s called advanced thinking. Great energy!”

“It is said that it was some big guy who personally lit up Mr. Walker. That made Mr. Walker fascinated by small electric games.”

“The person who can make Mr. Walker make such earth-shaking changes is at least an old-timer who has experienced the ups and downs of the business world.”

In the opinion of the people, and their strange eyes, Liam no longer took it seriously.

He braked skillfully with his feet, and then clicked to lock a big lock.

“As soon as you know the ruthless man life as deep as the sea, the luxury car has changed into two wheels, but you don’t know that this small electric car is full of traces of the struggle of the ruthless man, and my son’s car is more meaningful than you!”

If one day Leon returns to Italy to inherit money, then Liam will also be regarded as an elder of the family.

Now it seemed that Liam’s behavior may be silly, but he was very forward-looking.

People were still in the middle of being stunned by Liam when another famous from the Chamber of Commerce who could beat Alex, also arrived at the hotel.

That’s Carlo. That’s him!

Compared with the comprehensive strength. Carlo can definitely stabilize Alex, but Carlo was not a native of Fairmont City, and may not had more prestige in people's minds than Alex.

However, with the incredible strength of Carlo, no one in Fairmont dared to offend.

Carlo came with his granddaughter Tabitha Williams, and the two shared a Rolls-Royce Phantom with license plate number WBW A66666.

The car of the provincial capital boss was really different, and even the license plate number had its own noble temperament of the provincial capital family.

However, the fact that Carlo did not let her granddaughter drove a Maserati alone, the old man did not want to show off.

A licensed plate was enough to deter you on the spot. So there is no need to arrange a luxury motorcade.

The parking lot in front of Grand Prince Hotel was already filled of luxury cars, large and small.

The mid-range configuration of Mercedes-Benz, BMW, and Audi were accounted for the majority, and the cars of those bosses in Fairmont were undoubtedly high-end.

When you saw the rich people entered the hotel one by one, and those civilians who were turned away didn't disperse. They gathered together to talk with relish about which boss who was proud and arrogant to drove with their luxury car.

“Alex's Bentley was top match, it should be the first!”

“The Carter Family’s Ferrari F12 was the most dazzling in the supercar!”

“Mr. Danielle’s Bentley Mulsanne was quite a king!”

“Mr. Walker’s range Rover showing domineering!”

“The Phantom of Carlo’s Rolls-Royce was supreme and elegant!”

“Liam small broken electric, with foot brakes, blinded dog eyes.”

Civilians waved their flags and shouted for the boss they admired. They were arguing endlessly and blushing as if it were their own car.

At that time, someone found an inconspicuous corner in the parking lot, there was a top luxury car low-key parked in the corner.

A large number of people didn’t recognize what brand or model this car was.

However, that cool car owner, he was destined to be the king of the car!

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 147

Chapter 147 asks you to get out!

The silvery smooth body lines and the visual impact of the exterior design make it impossible to keep a low profile.

That car used to be 435. The 31km/h was world-famous for its speed, breaking the record set by Bugatti ENT Airlines.

Its acceleration time of 100 kilometers was only 2.4 seconds.

That was because the overall appearance of the car, was using a large number of carbon fiber and aluminium alloy mixed materials, so the quality of the car was only 1300kg.

In addition, the car's body was installed a retractable rear spoiler. Bottom diffuser and other components. Coupled with the well-designed bottom of the car body, it can further reduce the vehicle wind resistance coefficient to 0. Under 40.

In terms of power, it carries a V8 7. The 0L twin-turbo charged engine had a maximum power of more than 1400 horsepower, which was more powerful than Koenigsegg.

The transmission was six-speed manual transmission, which accelerates from 0 to 96 kilometers per hour in 2 seconds.

Most men did not know the data of this car, but there were still people who knew how to do it. They knew that Hennessy Viper GT was one of the top ten supercars in the world.

“That car was the one that caught fire in Tik Tok last week!”

“You mean the god of the back?”

“Apart from who else he could be, that car shouldn't be in Fairmont!”

“Yes! The limited number of top luxury cars in the country is exclusive to metropolises!”

“It seems that the car owner has also joined the chamber of commerce. I wonder who the car owner is.”

“That’s impossible. The identity of the car owner obviously surpasses Alex and Carlo. People don’t think highly of our chamber of commerce. I guess they came to Fairmont for a trip, and it has nothing to do with the chamber of commerce!”

“I guess it’s some super giant from the provincial capital or it’s the Scott Family, but it’s a pity that I didn’t get a glimpse of the giant’s elegant demeanor!”

In fact, the identity of the car owner was close at hand.

All they had to do was look up at the French window on the sixth floor of the hotel and saw Leon in the office.

Of course, now that everyone was attracted by the dazzling luxury cars, few people noticed the office area of Grand Prince Hotel.

Leon took a break and looked downstairs through the large window, he saw a group of people took a couple of pictures frantically around his car.

“I told you that this car is still too high-profile. After all, this is the city of Fairmont, not the Conrad City financial circle. Even if this car is placed in the wealthy area of Conrad City, it will be very conspicuous. I hope the next family reward will not be too conspicuous. Otherwise, my trial task is really fraught with difficulties!”

Leon was sighing.

If it was someone else, it would be too late to be happy. It was a rare reward than Hennessy Viper GT. He didn’t know what it was.

It’s almost time for Leon to leave the office area, and the bosses of all the companies who had come to attend the Chamber of Commerce were arriving one after another, and it was his time for him to sign in.

He took the elevator to the reception hall on the first floor, because there was no family, and there was no bodyguard or assistant to accompany. So Leon was soon submerged in the crowded area.

The Chamber of Commerce was a social platform, but no one noticed Leon.

Leon was not surprised and didn't care at all. After all, he was alone and young, and there was no ostentation of tycoons.

While he was waiting in line to sign in, Leon was suddenly cut in line.

The man who jumped the queue was a fat-bellied middle-aged man in a suit and tie with a small leather bag under his arm.

After he jumped the queue, the middle-aged man began to talk to a man of the same age in front of him.

Leon did not know which company's boss in Fairmont City was he, but Leon did not know it. Which means that the identity of the man was not very honourable in the local area.

It was impossible for the rich who can rank in Fairmont City to jump the queue, because they needed to pay attention to their image all the time so as not to be photographed by the media.

Leon looked down at the back of the creature's head, fat head and big ears. So fat that the back of his head was wrinkled.

"Mr. Arturo, I came behind you and bought a lighter for Sun. the manager took me some time."

"Mr. Arturo, why did you cut in line?"

“I want to cut in line, and no one is afraid to give me face.”

“Be careful, don’t run into a stubble.”

“It doesn’t matter. I can plug in if I want. The kid in the back is so timid that he doesn’t even dare to fart!”

“Anyway, you’d better be careful. You didn’t see him get off some luxury car before, did you?”

“Of course not, just him. He’s probably a small boss’s driver or something. Don’t worry about it.”

When he said those words, the fat middle-aged man did not restrain his tone and did not pay any attention on how Leon felt when he said those words.

This kind of person was really disgusting.

That fat middle aged man jumped the queue. They said it was useful for him to cut in a few more, but how much time can he saved by inserted only one person?

Cut in line also thought that their own behavior was very powerful, very social, and contempt for others in order to showed their superiority.

There were a lot of examples in life that treated the tolerance of others as pushy.

Leon did not intend to argue with this man, but he made progress by an inch, and since he was an adult, he had to be responsible for his words and deeds.

Leon silently took out his cell phone and sent a text message to Gerald.

Three minutes later, the man who chatted with the middle-aged man who jumped the queue didn't pay any attention. As soon as he looked back, he found that the man was gone.

“What is Arturo doing? Did he jump the queue again?”

In fact, the product had been dragged into the crowd by Gerald's people, then dragged out of the hotel, and then may be found on the kerb outside the hotel.

After they disposed of a piece of rubbish, Leon continued to wait in line to sign in as if nothing had happened.

Gerald was on standby 24 hours a day. As long as Leon had a word, he will do it immediately.

That was the hidden privilege of Leon, which even Alex and Carlo cannot enjoy!

After Leon signed, he went to the conference hall to take a seat.

As it was stated to the regulations of the Chamber of Commerce, prominent figures in the city's political and business circles, they had special seats. All of which would be arranged in the first three rows of the conference hall.

As for other seats, there was no mandatory requirement for those who came early and who was seated already.

As Leon was the hidden boss of many enterprises in the city, the Chamber of Commerce didn't know anything about it and they did not arrange a seat for Leon.

This was exactly what Leon wants to see. After all, he was in the family trial task, if the city was filled of wind, and rain was not conducive to work.

Leon was very casual and chose a middle seat to sit down.

The main seats for prominent figures had been seated by them, the meeting had already begun.

Those three rows of prominent figures seats were gradually being seated.

At that time, an old man in his sixties, sullen-faced, he stared at Leon from behind.

Suddenly, there was a sinister smile on the corner of his mouth, and then he whispered a word to his assistant.

“All right, Mr. Carter. I’m on it.”

“Be sure to convey my meaning to the staff.”

“Yes, Mr. Carter.”

It wasn’t long before a young man walked by and approached Leon.

The identity document was hanging on his chest showed that he was a staff member of the Chamber of Commerce and he was responsible for maintaining order in the Chamber.

“Sir, you can’t sit here. The meeting is about to be held, and idle people can’t attend the meeting. At least the department manager of the company is qualified to attend the meeting. Please wait outside for people who have nothing to do with it. Please cooperate with me in my work.”

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 148

Chapter 148 Remote Manipulation

Exclusion ?

Irrelevant ?

Leon asked himself in his mind that, if nothing else, he must not be irrelevant in the first place.

“I think you are mistaken. I am not idle, but I am like everyone else in the conference room.”

Leon was not angry, he said directly to the staff member.

When he received such a reply, the staff member raised the corners of his mouth slightly and looked a little contemptuous.

“The same ? Sir, do you really think so ? Those who can enter the conference hall are at least department managers of the company, not to mention those with high status. They are senior executives from various companies. Although it is not good for them to belittle themselves, it is rare for me to think highly of myself like my boss. ”

Even if a mouthful of a “sir” was shouted, but this staff member gave people a very uncomfortable situation.

In particular, the staff’s low attitude was detrimental to the image of the Chamber of Commerce.

In fact, there was no lack of Alex to get in the way.

If it were not for Alex, the staff would not dare to target Leon in this way.

“There are no hard and fast conditions for the middle seat. As a businessman, you can take a seat.” Leon understands the rules of the Chamber of Commerce.

“Excuse me, sir, which unit are you in? Since you call yourself a businessman, what position do you hold in the company?” The staff member asked again. His voice there was strange air of asking and doubting in his words.

In normal times, he would not dare to do so, but today was different. He was backed up by Alex.

Alex clearly told him that he deliberately made things difficult for Leon, and said that Leon had a mediocre status in Fairmont City and did not have to worry about offending Leon.

If Alex hadn't given him this reassurance, he wouldn't have made fun of his future boss in the Chamber of Commerce.

Moreover, now that Alex had opened his mouth, he dared not to do it. Not to mention that it was a rare opportunity for him to take the opportunity to curry favour with Alex.

“Oh, it's worth offending a small potato for Alex!”

He made a quick trade-off in his mind.

At this time, Leon said coldly, “Do I need to report to you where I work and what position I hold? You have no right to ask!”

At this time, there was no need for Leon to give in. He needed to hide his identity so that the family trial can proceed smoothly, but it does not mean that he wanted to become a pussy to be maltreated.

“Sir, my duty is to maintain order in the conference hall, so please cooperate with me.”

The appearance of a hypocrite staff was the most insidious.

“Is there a relationship between the two? You can continue to maintain your order. Am I sitting here interfering with your work?” “Leon’s face had gradually become serious.

The staff member with a work permit was not from Grand Prince Hotel, but he worked for the Chamber of Commerce.

If the staff wasn’t from the hotel, Leon must let him pack up and get out of here. He would not kept this kind of scourge.

“Of course, sir, it does matter. The people who come to the meeting are the backbone or even the core of various companies. It has a bearing on the business community in Fairmont City. If their status is affected because of you, I am afraid Mr. Li cannot afford this kind of responsibility and issue!”

The staff was determined to drive Leon out, although he did not swear, but the needle hidden in the cotton was the most hateful part.

“The backbone of the company, isn’t it? Well, I meet all these conditions. What reason do you have to kick me out?” It was impossible for Leon to leave the table angrily because of the different treatment of the staff. If so, it would be cheaper for the other party.

“Sir, please take my advice. You don’t have to stick it out, and it’s not a shame to leave. I know you want to gold-plated yourself by joining the Chamber of Commerce, but if you look around, which gentleman is no nobler than you? Don't you feel embarrassed that so many rich people put you behind? I'm so ashamed of you!"

At this time, the employee could no longer pretend and said more harshly words.

This guy certainly doesn't know that the man in front of him was worth enough to kill everyone at the scene.

Even if he was compared with the whole rich family in this event, he was still in the top ten.

"Are you ashamed of me? Then who are you to me? Son? Grandson? I'm not as grotesque as you are!"

"You! How do you swear like that?"

"Did I? I only scold dogs!"

"Please go out! Get out now!"

"Even if I'm not as good as the people around me, it's not something you can offend off, and you don't look at your own virtues. If you really have the money and ability to sit here as an entrepreneur, why are you still doing the job of serving food and water!"

"You just served food and water!"

"Isn't it? When the leaders take their seats later, it's not you who will serve food and water."

Leon really did not like this kind of argument.

He was right. Even if he degrades himself, it was not the person in front of him who can offend him at will!

Not far away, Alex watched the farce as if he was watching the cat and dog who were arguing.

“I only need to ask my assistant to convey what I mean, and I can make this city citizen work for me. This is the function of noble status. Watching these two ants fight for blood, I feel much happier, and it is even more interesting than usual to fight crickets.”

In Alex’s eyes, Leon and the Chamber of Commerce staff, whose lives was as thin as paper, and was humble, but he only needed him to use a few tricks to play them into the palm of his hand.

Yesterday, Leon contradicted him. Today, if he meets Leon again, he did not intend to let Leon joined the Chamber of Commerce easily and smoothly.

That’s Torture!

Humiliation!

Break the mentality!

Alex would avenge his vengeance, and when he vents his hatred, he would surely die before he will stop!

That was why Alex’s mind was smaller than the needle hole, but it was precisely because of the style that people in Fairmont were afraid of him.

At the moment, the assistant next to Alex said, “Mr. Carter, it looks like the dog is working very hard. He has been deadlocked for five minutes.”

“You see, even a dog has its use. I don’t spend money to ask for help. I just give a message to the dog and do things for me with a wagging tail, and that boy Leon will definitely be thrown out of the conference hall!”

There was a smug smile on the corner of Alex’s mouth.

As Alex said, the staff worked hard and growled at Leon, “That’s enough! Now I have the right to ask you to leave your seat and get out of the conference hall!”

“You are not qualified! At least I am the manager of a company. I meet all the requirements, and since you are so rude to me, I have the right to ask the Chamber of Commerce to replace you!”

Leon’s eyes seemed to fledge out of sparks and face each other.

“Then tell me, what company are you the boss of? I have worked in the Chamber of Commerce for four years. If you are really the boss of a certain company, I must have an impression of you. New company!”

When the staff member said this sentence, he was actually very guilty, but when he thought of what Alex had said, the boy did not have any strength, so his heart settled.

“Yes, the new company is only two months old.” Leon sneered.

“Huh! I told you, it’s only been two months. It must be the kind of small start-up company with three or five people. This kind of fly company can be registered casually.”

“It is true that there are not many employees, but they are all experts in the industry. They are regular customers of the local TV treasure show. They were set up in Fairmont City two months ago. At present, five stores are not as good as those big companies, which operate on a small scale and specialize in second-hand goods.” Leon face did not change color.

Such as boiling hot pot, Grand Hyatt KTV, Michelin Real Estate and other industries. Leon cannot said this now. The fundamental reason was that the staff was not high-level as his. There was no need to talk too much with him. It was good to pulled out the antique shop.

Moreover, there was no doubt that Carlo has really handed over the antique shop to Leon.

“You should have admitted that it was a small company that had just been set up.”

At this point, the staff member suddenly stopped, and the more he thought about it, the more he felt that something was wrong.

The staffs were regular guests of Red show. Manage five stores and sell second hand goods. Why that sound does liked Salian’s antique shop? With the condition of being on the show alone, it was absolutely impossible for other local antique shops to achieveit.

Besides, antiques were neither old nor valuable. It was really a monopoly on second hand goods.

What the Fuck! That was really a hard stubble!

A series of shit sounded in his heart, and he was shocked uncontrollably.

If he win the lottery and offended the people of Carlo as soon as he came up, will it be easier in the future?

It won't be easy in the future, but it's not because of Carlo.

“Gentleman, I'm going to the bathroom, you can sit down.”

The man realized the seriousness of the problem and found an excuse to run away.

However, ten minutes had passed, and the man still did not come back.

Just then, Leon received a text message. “Mr. Millers, mission completed.”

This time, Leon put away his phone as if nothing had happened.

Alex, who watched it secretly, saw that his good dog had disappeared, and the more he thought about it, the more he wondered.

“What's wrong with this dog? It's too inefficient. Do you want to force me to go there in person?”

Chapter 149 the Man!

Alex narrowed his old eyes and sneered in his heart. “Just this kid, there's no need for me to go there in person. The meeting is about to begin, so let him go first and wait until the meeting is over!”

However, it was not Alex that let Leon go at all, but Leon took the initiative to solve the problem.

Although Leon made a low-key appearance in the Chamber of Commerce, his strength made it impossible for him to keep a low profile completely.

Of course, Alex was a high prestige in Fairmont and had a large number of supporters, and Leon had never taken it lightly.

Just then, Carlo appeared in front of Leon with Tabitha.

“Leon, is here early.” Carlo said hello.

“Well, can you get used to it?” Carlo was worried that Leon has never experienced such a party of filled with rich people.

Tabitha stood behind Carlo, and she didn’t say hello to Leon.

She heard that someone came to the Chamber of Commerce on an electric bike today and thought it was Leon. She tried to avoid got involved with Leon so as not to lose face.

“Leon, you will wait outside for me and Tabitha. After this meeting I’ll show you around.” Carlo said, as he patted Leon on the shoulder with a kind face.

That moved proves that the relationship between the two was unusual.

“Grandpa, don’t take him with you. What a shame!” Tabitha shook Carlo’s arm and bluntly said the hurtful words.

“What’s there to be ashamed of? What’s worse about Leon than others? Tabitha, please stop talking. I’ve made up my mind. “Carlo had made up his mind.

In Carlo's view, today's Chamber of Commerce was an excellent platform for communication with each other.

Yesterday, Leon contradicted Alex, and he would definitely make it difficult for Leon in the business world in the future. If he didn't take advantage of this opportunity to help Leon established some interpersonal relationships, it would be difficult to mix in Fairmont City in the future.

Leon did not refuse.

It would be too humiliating for people to refused Carlo's kindness.

"Yes, Mr. Williams, I will." Leon nodded and readily agreed, but Tabitha looked reluctant.

As soon as Tabitha imagined Leon rode an electric car to the scene, she felt numb and embarrassed.

However, Tabitha made a big mistake. The man who rode the electric bike was the younger brother of Leon.

Carlo had a little chat with Leon and then he took Tabitha to the special seat in the front row to sit down.

As the provincial capital to invest in Fairmont City, they would enjoy that seat.

This scene was seen by Alex.

'What on earth is going on with this Carlo that he cares so much about that unknown boy of Leon? It's a bit strange to say that Carlo is kind to Leon because of his granddaughter's relationship.'

At the thought of this, Alex shook his head again.

‘It’s impossible. From Carlo’s point of view, it’s impossible to find a native of Fairmont, or at least a large family in the provincial capital. Moreover, his granddaughter is the same age as my granddaughter, and they are both studying at the top university in the provincial capital. She shouldn’t have that much interact with Leon. Besides, his granddaughter Tabitha also looks disdainful of Leon. It shouldn’t be because of that relationship.’ Alex thought again, he didn’t lose those questions in his mind.

Alex became more and more curious about why Carlo would take care of Leon. He couldn’t figure it out for the time being, but it didn’t hinder him to deal with Leon.

‘This kid contradicted me yesterday, and I’m sure I won’t just let him go, but today I have another important thing to do, that is, to find out who bullied me, May,. Since Marcus and Liam won’t talk about it, I’ll take May and find him myself!’ Alex clenched his teeth and was furious in his heart.

Some time ago, he’s granddaughter was pulled out of her hair while playing golf, but her granddaughter didn’t know each other’s origin and forgot her name, but both Marcus and Liam were there at that time.

However, when Alex asked about Marcus and Liam, they were tight-lipped and gave no information.

Alex was surprised that he even showed up to investigate the matter to the Parker and Walker families, but there was still no result.

However, Alex believed that if he can play with Liam and Marcus, he must also have some strength in Fairmont City, and he may be able to see him at the Chamber of Commerce.

At the moment, his granddaughter May did not come to the conference hall, but went to the hot spring. With her unruly young lady's temper, the meeting would bored her to death.

Alex regretted not bringing May with him, otherwise he could had identified him on the spot.

Minutes passed, Alex adjusted his mood, and went to the prominent figures seat and shook hands with Carlo with a smile.

This old guy, acted in a vicious style, he liked to haggle over matters, but he did not write it easily on his face.

He pretended that nothing had happened, even the unhappiness that happened in Williams Family yesterday, he seemed to forget all, but he began to talk happily with Carlo.

Up to now, all the seats in the Chamber were filled.

Prominent seats in the first three rows, especially the first row was the most honourable.

Mr. Carter, Mr. Williams, Mr. Danielle, Mr. Walker, Mr. Crow, Mr. Parker, and others were all the leaders of the top ten enterprises in Fairmont City.

However, half of them were uneasy and occasionally sneaked a peek at the middle of the conference hall.

It was because the people who take seats in that position were not only in their immediate superiors, but also the parents of had a good taste in food and clothing.

The young man who seemed to have nothing but handsome, can make them lose their present splendour and wealth with only one word.

‘According to principle, Mr. Millers should also take a special seat. We migrant workers ran to sit in front of him, feeling uneasy. When I waited for lunch, I had to punish myself for three drinks in front of the face of Mr. Millers!’ Sebastian had a lot of thoughts on his mind, as he talked nervously in his mind.

Alex, who was seated by, he saw that situation and asked curiously, “What’s the matter with you, Mr. Crow? You don’t look good.”

“No, it’s all right. Maybe I’ve been working too hard to set up the Chamber of Commerce scene recently.” Mr. Crow squeezed out a smile.

“With the help of the current Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Crow the hotel is getting better with each passing day. It is said that the old man envies it, but there is one thing that is very curious. Why didn’t Ms. Park of Bertholdt Real Estate come? Is there something wrong? How can we do this without her on an occasion like this?” Alex asked with a puzzled look on his face.

Mr. Crow was psychologically prepared for this question, and he knew that someone in the Chamber of Commerce would ask it today.

“Maybe something urgent happened at home, so I missed it.” Sebastian pretended not to know anything.

That night, it was he who, under the order of Mr. Millers, took his son and didn’t allow Belle to get out in her room.

He didn’t ask any more question about Mr. Crow’s answer, Alex changed the subject.

“Mr. Crow, recently there was a guy named Leon who was very close to Carlo and was very arrogant. He even said wildly that these leading enterprises in Fairmont City were all rubbish, and that they did not enter the market at all in the provincial capital.”

As he said this, Alex lowered his voice and looked towards Carlo. They were five seats apart, and Carlo probably couldn't hear them.

Sebastian frowned and looked unhappy when he heard Alex's words.. He said in his mind that it was beneath his dignity to set up Mr. Millers behind the old thing like Alex.

“I said, Mr. Carter, how can you be as knowledgeable as a young man?” Sebastian knew that Alex was narrow-minded, but he still asked in that way.

“It's not that I'm too meticulous, but this kid is too arrogant. After the meeting, I have to ask Mr. Crow for help. This is your place, and it's more convenient for you to operate, but I'm not doing it for my own personal vendetta. I'm trying to teach him a lesson for the big bosses in Fairmont City, so that this kid can learn his lesson.”

Alex originally intended to ask Sebastian to teach Leon a lesson, but it would kill two birds with one stone if he could feel Carlo be disgusted with Leon.

“Mr. Carter, are you kidding me? The one who told me to touch Mr. Williams? I don't want to get involved in this.” Sebastian shook his head.

“I've made it clear that this kid doesn't know Carlo very well, and he's a little more popular than passers-by, so don't worry about it.” Alex appeared to be friendly to Carlo, but he never gave up his guard. He feared that Carlo would rob him of his position and prestige in Fairmont City.

‘If he’ll teach Leon a lesson, he can stand up in front of Carlo. Alex thought in his mind.

The old man was meticulous in his abacus, but he was too stingy, and his pattern became smaller by means behind his back.

“They don’t hold a grudge against me. Why should I help you?”
Sebastian chuckled.

“Mr. Crow, is easy to say this, but my request is actually very simple. Besides, you won’t refuse my offer if you listen to me.”

Alex whispered a few words in Sebastian’s ear, and then the two smiled at each other.

Sebastian had a fake smile. Of course, he would not betrayed Mr. Millers for Alex.

He pretended to agree that he would tell Sebastian clearly who was closed to him and who had a deep background in the circle.

At the moment, a figure appeared on the podium in the conference hall, and then all the bosses looked up at the podium one after another.

One the president of the business was here.

Leon saw the familiar face and shook his head gently.

‘The city of Fairmont was too small!’ Said by Leon in his mind.

Super Rich Man by kiang Chapter 150

Chapter 150 People's words are awesome!

This person was the Steven of the Bank of Italy, assigned in branch of Fairmont City.

Leon just laments that Fairmont was too small, but he was not surprised that Steven still had the identity of being head of the Chamber of Commerce.

Leon knew better than anyone about the background of Bank of Italy in Houston.

Although Steven, in his eyes he was inconspicuous in Fairmont City, it was undeniable that he was absolutely qualified to assume the post of president.

Leon took out his phone, put it on the table, and began to take notes.

No matter what Steven was worth in his eyes, Leon doesn't care at all, included the other people in the conference room. If he had any business ideas or unique ideas worth recording, Leon would record them in his phone's notebook.

He was a cruel son, but he was not only a second ancestor who would only lose his family, and he had a family trial task. If he didn't make some achievements, how can he brag to his cousins in the family?!

Steven stood on the podium and gave a speech filled of emotion, and he also spoke out the plans and ideas of the business community in Fairmont City for the next few years.

However, not many people listened carefully.

Many people were playing with their mobile phones and were not in the mood to listen at all.

For them, the Chamber of Commerce was just a formality, and the most important thing was to send gifts to Alex after the meeting.

There was no particularly good way to improve this situation. After all, the Chamber of Commerce was a non-governmental organization, and all of them here were the backbone and core of various companies. They were relatively scattered and lack of cohesion. So it was impossible to imposed discipline as compulsory as in school classes.

Time passed quickly. It took Steven more than an hour to finish his speech.

Then, one after another, he invited Carlo and Alex to the stage to spoke as representatives of the members of the Chamber of Commerce.

As a boss from the provincial capital, Carlo must be respected by everyone in the audience, but everyone knew that the focus of Carlo's caused was not on Fairmont City, and some people had heard that Carlo was about to leave Fairmont City recently.

Therefore, when Carla spoke on the stage, the atmosphere was mediocre.

However, when Alex took the stage, the atmosphere immediately became lively.

Almost every time Alex delivered a speech, someone in the audience took the lead in applauding, which made Carlo looked embarrassed.

In the middle of the speech, Alex suddenly said to the audience, “When I speak here in front, please listen to me and do not play with your mobile phone. Please respect my hard work!”

Alex’s eyes, instantly fixed. He turned to the middle area under the stage, and bumped on a person.

It was Leonard!

He didn’t look up. Leon scratched his fingers and saved the notes.

Mainly he had no distractions, he looked at the recorded Carlo’s business philosophy. As for Alex’s speech, he thought it was not essential enough, so there was no need to record it.

“That young man, still pretending not to hear? Please look up and face me. “Although Alex wanted to scold Leon, he kept his emotions under control.

However, as he looked at his taut face, he also looked very serious, just to take into his account in Mr. Carter image.

As he heard Alex’s questioned again, Leon looked up curiously.

He said to himself, what was this Alex doing? What did he emphasize?

Unexpectedly, as soon as Leon looked up, he came face to face with Alex.

Alex stared straight at him.

“Why didn’t you answer me when I called you just now?”

“Why would I answer you back? Give me a reason.” Leon frowned slightly. He was reading his notes intently just now. He didn’t know Alex was calling him.

Moreover, there were so many people at the scene holding their cell phones, who knew who they were shouting for.

“The reason is simple. Why don’t you respect what I said here on the stage? If young people only bow their heads and play with their mobile phones like you, then our country will be in danger. If your attitude is not correct, it will determine your pattern, and it will be difficult for you to make a decisions in the future.”

Alex ridiculed Leon with a thorn in his words, but because he controlled his emotions, he also adjusted his speed of voice and his tone.

It was obviously a sarcastic remark that came out of his mouth, but it made a lot of sense.

In addition, Alex had a lot of support from people, and as soon as his voice fell off, someone echoed.

“That’s it! Young men and women worries the future of the country!”

“I don’t want to make progress at a young age. I asked you to join the Chamber of Commerce to learn business experience, not to play with your mobile phone!”

“Mr. Carter has benefited me a lot. We should put down our phones and stop bowing our heads!”

“Attitude of people is everything. Listening to Mr. Carter is better than reading a ten-year book!”

“Mr. Carter is over 60 years old and has been conscientiously dedicated to the business community in this city for decades. We must show a hundred percent respect for such a respectable elder as him.”

One by one, the words of the people were for him, and Alex supporter was really good in making it worst.

Obviously, he was playing with his mobile phone just now, but now he had to leave himself alone, as he stood on the commanding heights of morality and giving directions.

After that, they were so rhythmic, some people who didn't know the truth really believed that what they said was reasonable, and Leon was a young man with an incorrect attitude.

Alex had a high prestige in this city, almost a response, but Leon had never been afraid of anyone!

In the face of many people, Leon calmly responded, “There are a lot of people playing with mobile phones, why is it only aimed at me? Besides, I'm taking notes on my phone, not for entertainment. If you don't have a clear investigation, please don't speculate!” He spelled out

It was true that Alex did not blame others, he was only against with Leon.

As for Alex, he can acted that he knew how to handle emotions, and set up people with high dignity. He has maintained quite well, at least for now.

Besides, some people didn't care about the truth. It was easy to believe what “celebrities” would say. As they became blind and lack of the ability to distinguish what was right from wrong.

“This young man, he really doesn’t know how to talk to elder. Is it possible that Mr. Carter can be as knowledgeable as you?”

“That is how can Mr. Carter target a young man? Can he commit a crime?”

“Mr. Carter has always convinced people with virtue, how he can haggle with a younger men like you!”

“If you’re wrong admit it. It’s not shameful act to apologize to Mr. Carter!”

“I really take myself seriously. A big shot like Mr. Carter doesn’t care about you!”

Three people became tigers, people’s words were awesome!

These people were given a rhythm and blamed Leon one after another.

“If you don’t believe me, surely I did take notes, but I took my notes with the president and Mr. Williams. As for what you call Mr. Carter, it’s a pity that his business philosophy is so vague that it doesn’t qualify for me to record it.”

Leon took his time and showed his mobile phone to the people around him.

Despite the hurtful words of the people who didn’t know the truth, how can Leon let Alex take control of the situation!

Alex originally had a magnanimous character, at this time the dispute was very deep, and then Leon had to do was to infuriate Alex.

Sure enough, Alex can’t stop his foolish acted towards Leon.

“Nonsense! Is it possible that my business philosophy can be understood thoroughly by a younger men like you? With your qualifications, you don't know how to do business at all!”

The veins busted out on Alex's forehead, his hands pinched hard on the table, his head stretched out and his eyes was sharp as a falcon towards Leon,.

Later, he added, “Mr. Williams, I strongly suggest that this boy should be thrown out. He has greatly lowered the quality of being a businessmen in Fairmont. Mr. Williams, you perform your duties as president and carry it out as soon as possible!”

When everyone looked at it, they felt that Leon was finished, and that Mr. Carter would come to a good end if he annoyed him more.
