

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1021-1030

Chapter 1021

Chen Shanshan and Mu Chen came down to this side of the lawn, the left is a wooden fence, which is full of flowers and plants, in fact, flowers and plants are very beautiful, but this wooden fence is even more attractive eyes, from the European classical aesthetic casting of a fence, full of the taste of the fifteenth and sixteenth century, the fence is very long. Perhaps the flowers and plants inside are dignified by these fences .....

The right side is the previous fake mountain, the water has a fountain, clear spring water gushing, Jelson to Lin Hao four proudly introduced to, 'you do not think this is fake mountain fake water, the mountain may be fake, but the water is really real living water. If you have time, or if you are allowed to, you can take a dip in our Golefant hot springs. Oh, I'll never forget the compliments of Mr. Bob's friends when they came to the castle and came out of the hot springs. ....' said Jelson with great pride about the hot springs.

Lin Hao twisted his head to look over there and found that there was really a spa room, this castle, really good facilities .....

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the castle. At this time, her heart's worry is gone, the rest is all nervous, so Lin Hao to take a look at which side, she will unnaturally stiff cast a gaze to, with this to ease the inner panic .....

Mu Chen mentality is very good, after all, he is also considered a small capital, what places have been, but at the same time all know that he can not have, he can go to enjoy, have to pay enough, want to go to have words, that is delusional .....

See the four people look, Jelson heart again ridicule, backward Easterners, a look that has not seen the world, really ridiculous .....

What are the Eastern Chinese? Represents backwardness, represents poverty, all the inferior modifiers can modify their civilization, unlike them Europeans and Americans this noble .....

‘I’ve heard that you don’t even have such a hot spring over there?’ Jelson said with a smile, which irritated Mu Chen, he had met countless such Westerners, despising the East and belittling them Chinese, only they were all completely sitting on the fence, their perception of China was still stuck a hundred years ago, these were all in the past, it was better not to mention them .....

‘Mr. Jelson. In our China, there are plenty of hot springs and even more famous ancient places. The castles that you take pride in in the West are arguably absent from our side of the world. It is not that such castles are difficult to build, but because, in a small-scale defensive castle like this, in our huge Chinese community, and in huge wars that can easily involve tens of thousands of hundreds of thousands of people, such a castle can be destroyed by one of our square armies, so we don’t need such a cockamamie thing at all .....

‘Mu Chen has been to many castles, every official or person in charge is proud of it, Mu Chen feels ridiculous, as if going to the East as well as the kimchi country, night and day .....

Two thousand years and even earlier, Europe and the United States are local small-scale wars, hundreds and thousands of people are a big war, so the castle is a very powerful defense system engineering, but in China? Two thousand years money on the war Bai Qi pitted 400,000 troops in the battle, if the castle like this under the god of war Bai Qi, I’m afraid the points? The city’s most important thing is that it will be destroyed in a matter of minutes. The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the situation.

More than a castle? The Forbidden City of the Imperial City is as large as the Forbidden City, is it comparable to such a small Western country? A castle is no match for an emperor's tomb? What are they proud of .....

'That's impossible.' Jelson was shocked for a moment, but immediately shook his head and laughed, mentally mocking, these hypocritical Chinese, saying that the castle is chicken? How can this solid castle be a chicken rib, it's the culmination of an ancient European noble!

Lin Hao sneered and said, 'At a glance, you know you have never been to China, two thousand years ago the Qin Empire, oh forget it is my Chinese English. In his country, there was a god of war! A voice that has experienced more than forty battles and has never lost. It even killed and pitted nearly two million people in battle. One of the most powerful battles, directly pitted and killed 400,000 troops, 400,000 troops, you may not understand what this is called the concept, just take the recent war, this kind of easily 800,000 to 900,000 nearly a million war also a few. I think there is far from it, after all, in your country F, but it is rare to experience such a war, there, of course, is the glory of that uncrowned king. Would a castle be useful under his iron horsemen? Have you ever heard the saying that the world civilisation looks at China? None of the things that exist among our history means they are all chicken ribs!' Lin Hao said in a domineering manner.

Lin Hao's voice was so powerful that it penetrated his soul, directly hitting his hypocritical gentlemanly spirit. The gentlemanly aristocratic spirit of F was directly trampled by Germany long ago during World War II, and now the so-called pride, unable to lift its head in front of Germany, only dares to show off in the Eastern countries, a pathetic nation, unable to forget the nation's glory, and unable to face the nation's defeat, pathetic .....

Jelson no longer dared to speak, he was after all a servant, a product of the old century, when felt that he could not in this area, took the initiative to shut his mouth, he was waiting, waiting for Mr. Bob himself to appear, but also thinking of Lauren, he felt that Lauren butler was a very perfect official, he handled things to come in order, and disposed to make people feel very comfortable, unlike himself, some times still can not hold this feeling, Jelson thought to himself, maybe he had only just assumed the position of butler, some rusty .....

After visiting half of the castle, Jelson received a phone call that Bob and Jenny were done with the operation. Lin Hao looked at the big castle, the first time he felt that it was indeed a bit big, after all, the time to do an operation to remove the shrapnel did not even finish strolling around the castle, so you can imagine how big the castle is.

The followers Jelson took a tour bus inside the castle and arrived in the middle of the main city where the master lived. Old Bob looked much better, Jenny's face was also eased and her breath was rosy, Lin Hao was worried? The first time I saw him, I was so worried. The worried heart relaxed .....

'Thank you, Mr. Lin, for solving such a big problem for us .....' Bob said gratefully, shaking Lin Hao's hand, one hand of course, his other hand was wrapped in sarong.

He didn't ask Jenny to come up and give Lin Hao a grateful hug, which was a very unintelligent thing to do, but he didn't want Jenny to have too much contact with Lin Hao, it was just too dangerous, he wanted Jenny to cut ties with Lin Hao and never see him again, and then use that to get away from this right and wrong. How can I put it, Bob is really scared, even though Lin Hao is very powerful, but as a top tycoon in F, Bob definitely knows more about the secrets of F than Lin Hao .....

People are like this, the more they know, the more they are afraid .....

Jenny was a little angry at her father's rudeness, but being pulled by her mother, she naturally did not have too much emotion, but looked at Lin Hao with a smile, her eyes as bright as a river of stars were full of vigorous life, all with good intentions, Lin Hao looked and felt so good, it was like seeing the same Jenny when she was begging on the street again, Lin Hao was so relieved .....

Jelson saw this scene and could not help but sneer, Mr. Bob must also look down on the Orientals, this is Mr. Bob, he is a top tycoon, an absolute upper class figure in Toulouse, how could he possibly look down on the Orientals ?

And such a rude and conceited Oriental, a little Oriental Chinese, so conceited ?

'No need to thank you, all these things were caused because of me, in the end it should be me who should say sorry.' Lin Hao said with a smile, he felt pretty good about Bob, but he could also see that Bob was not an ordinary rich man, not to mention owning the castle, just the way he behaved in my 8th ruin, I'm afraid that ordinary killers couldn't bear that kind of scene, he himself still remembered the kind of fearful look of Ghost 9's men, and he didn't know what happened to the one who escaped now... ..

'Mr. Lin, in fact, I have a great deal of selfishness in speaking to you and calling you here. And it's no exaggeration to say that I called you over at that time all with the mentality of saying sorry to your family .....

Bob said, saying the words from his heart, of which the purpose was to make a clean break with Lin Hao as he thought earlier.

'What does that mean?' Lin Hao asked with some confusion, as he listened to Bob's words, confused as hell.

Night One also looked at Bob in confusion, frowning and thinking to himself if there was another conspiracy present here, it shouldn't be ?

Bob said directly and bluntly, 'When we learned that the other side is the Orcs organization, my heart is incomparable struggle, because in my understanding inside, the Orcs are terrifying, very terrifying, of course you have seen and also been solved, but the strength of the Orcs is not just so simple, if you want to know more clearly the power of the Orcs, we can communicate in private .....

After a pause Bob continued, 'The situation was when I learned of the Orcs and then learned that Jenny had been kidnapped because of it. I was terrified, you should understand my fear .....

finished Bob and looked at Lin Hao as if waiting for Lin Hao's approval as well as forgiveness .....

'I can understand.' Lin Hao answered him seriously, this matter was indeed related to him, it was just that Bob's kind of obsequious and always curved speech made him think when did westerners become so good at words? Westerners weren't straightforward .....

'Thank you for understanding. At the time I was struggling, struggling to get you to turn back. Because there were these two choices, one of which would end up facing the option of death, and obviously I was being selfish and tricked you into coming here to save Jenny .....

Bob said honestly.

Lin Hao heard this and instantly laughed out loud and said with unmistakable cheerfulness, 'This matter is behind us, isn't it? You and Jenny are just a little injured, and I'm alive and well, Uncle, so don't take this matter to heart anymore.' Lin Hao thought it was something, but it turned out to be just such a thing, but I have to say that this western aristocratic uncle is really strong in his principles .....

‘Thanks again for your understanding, but I made a promise to my previous butler just before, and now I can give it to you.’ Bob said to Lin Hao.

Chapter 1023

The previous butler? Jelson’s ears perked up, happy to finally hear something about Lauren.

Night One didn’t feel the need to mention the name again, it was an obscure name that should have been left out of such a scene. Meanwhile Lin Hao’s facial expression was a little icy when he heard Lauren’s name .....

Jelson glanced at Lin Hao and found some displeasure on his expression, his face instantly sloughed off, surprisingly upset with Lauren the butler, this arrogant Oriental, what an abomination.

And his state towards Mr Bob seemed too banal, no respect, no admiration, really uncomfortable now .....

Bob noticed Lin Hao and Night One’s state of mind, Lauren’s attitude towards the Oriental was bad, but Lauren had died, the butler who had been with him for decades had died, he felt the need to pray for him, ‘Lauren went to see God, he was a good butler, although some times than the concept is more old-fashioned, but contact and accept new things, but still very fast. It is, for instance, the promise I have made about what is to be given to you that he is entirely in favour of.'

'What!' Jelson exclaimed, Lauren was dead? Wasn't Lauren supposed to have gone back to her happily ever after ..... He looked to Bob, unable to believe the statement, expecting Mr Bob to be joking, only to look above the look of sorrowful mourning on Bob's face and think that Lauren was really dead .....

Bob looked over to Jelson, who was caught by Jelson's startled cry, Bob looked at Jelson's expression and went up and gently patted Jelson's shoulder with his uninjured hand, 'Don't be sad.' Bob was naturally aware that Jelson had always idolised Lauren, but unfortunately, people don't come back from the dead .....

'What Lauren and I negotiated before was that if Mr. Lin lost his life because of saving Jenny, then I would gift the Golefant to Mr. Lin's family, but now Mr. Lin is still alive .....

Bob said, everyone's eyes lit up, which .....

Jelson's heart exclaimed, the first time he felt that the Oriental was still alive or somewhat useful, although he did not like it, although he still could not accept the fact why it was Lauren who died and Lin these Oriental was still alive, but some of these words of Bob made him deeply hit more, the thought that if he became the Oriental's housekeeper, he was afraid that he could hardly live .....

The fact that this is an ancient castle, worth hundreds of millions of dollars, how can you just give it away, but looking at what Bob said, it must be just a polite statement .....

The people in the room didn't really believe what Bob said, thinking that Bob was just being polite, however Bob then continued, 'I feel even more compelled to give the castle to Mr. Lin, Mr. Lin saved my daughter twice and me once, so I can intuitively say that he saved our family, he is the great hero who saved my Bob's family. And this idea, I concluded when Mr. Lin fought against the leader who kidnapped Jenny, so now even if my father persuaded me, I would still give Mr. Lin the Golefante, so I also ask Mr. Lin not to refuse.' Bob spoke with a serious posture, very serious, not like a joking kind .....

After these words came out, ? The ground serving dyed ground Lu Xi Yi cover?
The scene was suddenly silent, no one said anything, really want to send .....

This is an ancient castle worth more than four hundred million euros .....

This is a fifteenth or sixteenth century art building in country F .....

Jelson's face was incomparably pale, his worst fears had come true, once the castle was given away, they, the servants, would be given to this Oriental along with it, his pride was instantly trampled on, he felt his dignity had been insulted, his eyes fell on Bob, hoping that Bob would take back this decision .....

Only for a long time, Bob was looking at Lin Hao, his eyes filled with gratitude, as well as sincerity, honestly pleading with Lin Hao to accept his decision. Bob did this in order to be grateful to Lin Hao, but also in order to break off the favor of this rescue with Lin Hao, with the intention of cutting it off .....

'Mr. Lin, please take this castle, otherwise my heart can't rest in peace!' Bob said, with a pleading tone. After saying that, he even glanced at Jenny, looking at Jenny's eyes full of Lin Hao's look, Bob's heart gripped together in pain, so the look of praying for Lin Hao to accept it was even more aggravated .....

Chapter 1024

Lin Hao glanced at Jenny, and then looked at Bob, had to nod, he knew that Bob in order to so want him to accept the castle, one is to repay the kindness, two may be to let himself and Jenny have a good break with the entry point, after all, he just held a world-famous wedding, is already a married man, and Jenny, still young, still do not know what is called love and like, there is just pure a good girl's heart .....

Lin Hao accepted to Bob's heart? Closed picketing and dyeing to cover the land intention to dye? , just nod and agree down, 'Then I will have to be forced to take this valuable castle .....

Got Lin Hao's affirmative answer, Bob breathed a sigh of relief, and looked at Jenny again, and found that Jenny was still looking at Lin Hao with starry eyes, and the bitterness in his heart was even stronger, while his own wife was also sizing up Lin Hao, while her face was all admiring, which made him want to leave this dangerous possessor of absolute charm Oriental man even more quickly .....

'I am going to have a bonfire today, when I will invite the socialites of Toulouse to come to the castle to celebrate, and also do a farewell ceremony, of course rejoicing, to celebrate Mr. Lin becoming the owner of Gorfint Castle, so please make sure you are there then, especially you, Mr. Lin, the owner of Gorfint Castle.' Bob gave a gentleman's salute to Lin Hao, which signified his respect.

Mu Chen's entire body was as if he had been struck by lightning for some time, really gave away .....

The castles in Europe were just like the quadrangles in the imperial capital, or even more precious, not that the quadrangles in the imperial capital were inferior to the castles in Europe, but because the castles in Europe were not just because of the era, but because of the huge area they covered and the architectural facilities they possessed inside as well as the geographical environment with pure natural advantages, and the fact that the buildings inside the castles possessed the habits of the old aristocracy, and even when they went to the modern In the imperial capital of Yanjing, the quadrangle covers a large area but is extremely dense, with many quadrangles, but castles are rare, and each complete castle is the joint effort of dozens of generations, because after a certain generation of the family has fallen into despair, it will not be able to keep the castle It's not often that a castle is left intact, but it also has to have absolute local power and the right time and place, after all, if it's destroyed by accident, it's also a kind of extinction, so there are very few of them left as intact as Gorfint .....

That's why every castle is so precious .....

He has travelled to many western countries and visited many castles, but there are very few castles like Gorfonte, which have the complete architecture of the 15th and 16th centuries, and are so complete. It was a castle that led the economy of a local town to a very high level, and everyone was living well because of the castle's tourism industry. That was an accidental example, because many castles are, just like Golephants, the private homes of the super-rich, who don't like casual visits from the general public, and even people who are generally worth over a billion dollars find it difficult to get inside the castle, because people who own castles are not just rich, but also because of their aristocratic status ..... owning a A castle of this size is definitely a top aristocrat in Europe, and at the same time not a new modern aristocrat, but an ancient one .....

What kind of man is Lin Hao that he has convinced Bob so much that he is willing to gift such a valuable castle outright? The castle is worth two to three billion RMB, not to mention how precious it is. And Bob seemed to be asking Lin Hao to accept, so sincere, even with a begging .....

Chen Shanshan is very happy for Lin Hao, she also knows everything about castles in Europe, similar to the meaning of domestic gold-digging women, anyway, it is a symbol of status, the bigger the castle, the more years of existence, it means that the identity of the person who swims this castle is more terrifying, now Lin Hao is not only the identity of the top tycoon in China, in Western Europe is also the top high society people .....

'X' organization internal central area conference room, the leader is a middle-aged forty-year-old strong man, full of beard, different from the general villains is that, if he is not sitting in the middle of a group of villains, I am afraid that walking in the street, will think that he is socially productive middle-aged, elite people, unfortunately, he is the 'X' organization leader, Mohammed Kato, in Toulouse and even the southern cities are famous thugs .....

To his right was a short man in his early thirties with a scorpion tattoo on his shoulder, he was Dwarf Scorpion of the Black Scorpions, the representative of the 'X' organisation that had merged into it and could now be the second in command of the 'X' organisation.

'Tweeter that died.' Dwarf Scorpion said in a low voice of grief, pushing that was a strong henchman of his, after becoming a half-orc, more powerful to another level, even within the 'X' organization, is also a member with great strength, but, dead .....

Mohammad Kato tapped on the table, he had been staring at the dwarf scorpion, he brought the black scorpion members are very strong, but in the face of the loss of a half-orc variant crystals lost, he is still very heartbroken. He was not sad that Push had died, he was sad that the rat mutation crystals .....

He also knew that the chief's anger was not about the death of Push, but about the mutation crystals that had just been injected into Push's body. That was one of the ten mutation crystals that Mohammed Kato had received from the Pope, three of which had been traded and two of which had gone missing.

The chief was waiting for an explanation from him .....

The dwarf scorpion gritted his teeth and spoke with difficulty, 'Chief. One of the purposes of our Black Scorpion merging into 'X' was to avenge the Black Scorpion boss, but in this we did not know that the power behind that Oriental was so powerful, of course I know that the problem lies with me, I was the one who allowed that arrogance of Twitter to cause the rat mutation crystals to be lost, but! Our scouts then followed Lin at Castle Gorfant in search of a mutation that belonged to the early eighteenth century, and if it hadn't been for Tweeterna's unauthorized actions that eventually led to his own death, our scouts would not have followed Lin into Castle Gorfant and would not have discovered this hidden .....

Dwarf Scorpion looked at Mohammed Katou's expression as he spoke, seeing that Mohammed Katou did not interrupt him and his expression did not change much, Dwarf Scorpion then breathed a sigh of relief and continued, 'Although Pushtner made a fatal mistake, he also sought an opportunity for us to get close to the Pope, a mutation from the early eighteenth century, which is no less valuable than a rat mutation crystal .....

Dwarf Scorpion did not dare to exaggerate or claim credit, he was afraid that Mohammedan Kato would suddenly condemn him, so he tried to talk as small as possible. The value of a mutation is high, and it is still an eighteenth century mutation, a mutation can result in a direct biochemist, not an Orc. In the end Orcs are just remnants, living people are the ultimate body of mutations, like himself, like Mohammed Katou. Enter the Orcs to know the horror of the Pope, the horror of the Church .....

When Dwarf Scorpion stopped talking, Mohammed Katou's hand stopped tapping on the table, Dwarf Scorpion's words moved him, mutants are like touching a prize, if you touch the prize, even the Pope will be happy, and the lowest level of mutants is a cyborg, of course, although they can not directly transform mutants into mutant crystals, but the Church can ah, then they can take this opportunity to get acquainted with the Pope .....

Although he has never met the Pope either .....

'I can put aside the matter of the lost rat mutation crystals in Twitter, but the mutation in Castle Golephant must be taken out for me intact, otherwise my wrath is not something that any of them can withstand .....' Mohammad Kato let out a shrill voice, and the seven members present heard their whole bodies tremble, it was the voice of the king that could penetrate the body .....

'How dare Toban interfere in our affairs. Prisoners Ince you lead the team to exterminate them.' Mohammed Kato instructed to a burly man at the far end of his right hand side, he was stocky and had fangs spitting out of the corners of his mouth with blood still on them, like Push that, like an existence that had just turned into a half-orc, though obviously from the standpoint of his position, Prisoners Ince was more powerful than Push? The status of the man is much higher than that of Tui? The status means strength, so that means that the strength of the prisoner is much higher than that of the tweeters .....

The actual fact is that the actual people who are in the marketplace are not only the ones who are in the marketplace, but also the ones who are in the marketplace.

What about the other seven people here at the same time? How strong was Mohammed Kato? He has the same body as a normal person, with no smell or feeling of mutation .....

Chapter 1026

‘Boss, Toban may have something to do with the two mutant crystals we lost, and my men have scouted that Toban may have become an advanced Orc, just one step away from being a Cyborg .....’ said Prisoners Ince, spitting out his sharp fangs, his pierced and bleeding tongue splitting like a snake’s snake’s letter or a lizard’s tongue .....

Although the other party is said to be a high level Orc, but Prisoners Ince does not look a bit worried and afraid. Mind you, he was now an intermediate Orc .....

‘This news, if the source is true, you’ve taken credit again! I think it’s a very lucky thing that you’ve got a good eye on you, I’ll send someone to follow you and protect you. ....’ said Mohammad Kato, who looked at him with surprise. With a smile, but to everyone else, it was icy cold, even to the second chief dwarf scorpion .....

After Prisoners Ince exited the meeting room, the meeting just briefly chatted about a few things before half of the people left, and then only four people were left in the meeting room.

Mohammed Katou said to the remaining three people with a grave expression, 'The Pope ordered us to send a cyborg to the East no matter what, I have already thought of who to give this quota to .....' said the other cyborg directly to one of the four of them, there were only three cyborgs in the meeting room at this moment .....

The Pope ordered something big, but they 'X' organization already have biochemists to go to the East, only to die in the East, I heard that there has gradually become a purgatory-like existence, very terrifying place ..... now to send people, does it mean that there are many The actual fact is that there are many biochemical experts who died in the East? The man who had received the order from Mohammed Kato was ashes to ashes, but with great reverence for the Pope, he placed his hands on his chest, said a prayer, and disappeared into the conference room. ...

He was also concerned about the movements in the East, some people in their circle of powerful masters said that the place was a treasure trove that was unearthed after the East had destroyed the ninja alliance in the East, and that other local organizations, whether in Western Europe or North America, were slowly joining in and starting to fight for it. The earthquakes around the world a few days ago were not any crustal movement, but a global earthquake caused by the mysterious forces they had alerted in the big fight in the East .....

That is? The earth steaks the ground to cover the meaning of the west steaks? A dangerous place where junior cyborgs are cannon fodder .....

The last person to go was beside him, and now the one to go is opposite him, and I'm afraid the next one to go is himself. Two of the four cyborgs in the organisation had already gone, and the next time the Pope gave the order again, he would be the only one left to dispatch. He hoped that such an order would not come again, or that the one who had just left would live longer .....

‘Dwarf scorpion. Don’t despise the Orientals, I mean if he can kill Twitter then he must be powerful, what I am worried about is the Orientals being cunning, after all the incident in the East was created by the Orientals with conspiracies, so beware of the Orientals conspiracies. This is a kind reminder, I hope you will listen to it .....,’ reminded Mohammed Katu as he saw Dwarf Scorpion walk out the door of the conference room.

‘Don’t worry, chief, I am a cyborg. No matter how powerful that Oriental is, he is only an Oriental, a waste Oriental, we have nothing to fear. I’m afraid they got a lucky hit with the death of Pushena.’ The Dwarf Scorpion scoffed, ‘An Oriental? What good are they except for a bit of scheming and trickery? Haven’t lifted their heads for centuries, oh, and have been involved back and forth with that bullet of a land in the East for centuries, what a ridiculous nation.

‘Well, then you must remember to get the complete and good mutation out for me.’ Mohammed nodded, he didn’t believe, either, that the Orientals were able to destroy the Eastern Ninja Alliance, he felt it was the Orientals boasting or stealing credit from others.

Chapter 1027

After Dwarf Scorpion left the door of the meeting room, the eyes of a middle-aged man who had been standing at the door for a long time lit up and hurried up, respectfully saying to Dwarf Scorpion, ‘Mr. Dwarf Scorpion, the bonfire dinner of the Golefant castle tonight will start soon, I wonder what else I can do for you?’

The Dwarf Scorpion sneered at the rich man’s flattery, he knew what Bolt had in mind, wasn’t it to get that Castle Gorfint?

When the castle became ownerless, it would be put up for auction. But according to the local economy in Toulouse, the ZF would not put this perfect castle up for auction at all, it would be used as a tourist attraction in a resort, so there would be nothing for him to do, but what if it changed hands before it lost its true owner? Getting Bob or Lin Hao to agree to transfer the castle to him unconditionally would be a different matter .....

‘Bolt, put away that false sense of yours. You and Bob are good friends, you sold Bob and then you want to take his property, and now you want his house .....

.....’ said the short scorpion, mocking Bolt, but after a pause he added, ‘If you want it, it’s not impossible, you If you want it, you can pay for it, half of the castle, and then I will make you the new owner of Gorefindel .....

.....’ said the dwarf scorpion, staring at the greedy Bolt, mocking him, but still wanting the money. Mocking him because he was such a despicable nobleman .....

Polter’s smiling face froze up, the Golefant was worth 300 or 400 million euros, if he gave the dwarf scorpion half that amount then it would be over 200 million, a horrible amount of cash, although he was also worth over two billion euros, but taking out over 200 million in cash would give him a long bout of pain .....

‘Polter you have to remember that you just spent over two hundred million to buy an ancient castle worth three or four hundred million fifteen or sixteen centuries, you are making a huge profit .....

.....’ grunted the dwarf scorpion, staring at Polter.

Listening to Dwarf Scorpion’s words, Polter moved and he gritted his teeth and agreed, ‘If I can really earn it, I’m willing to pay this amount, but it needs to be paid in installments, you know, I’ve already given you a large amount of bail money. That’s a very large sum of money! Bob can’t even get it out!’ It must have been a very good deal, he would have made it anyway, but he couldn’t pay that much straight away, so he was prepared to haggle a bit with Dwarf Scorpion .....

‘Huh.’ Dwarf Scorpion sneered, Bolt had indeed offered a large sum of money, a very high value, but it was a deposit paid for the annexation of Bob’s family property. Where else would it have been his turn to do such a good thing, Bolt? It wasn’t because Polter had told him the secret of what was inside Golephant Castle that he then had this opportunity. But then, the money is into the ‘X’ organization inside, but not into his hands, not really his money, but this two hundred million euros, but it is a real into his pocket, think of two hundred million, spare the dwarf scorpion who has become a cyborg, is also a little excited .....

‘I didn’t receive that money, but you said you would give me a sum of money in private, don’t forget this.’ Dwarf Scorpion then said.

For two hundred million and the fact that Porter would give him a large sum of money privately, Dwarf Scorpion felt that the money had already arrived in his bank account, Lin? An Oriental? Beat him Cyborg? They were weaker than the North American group of lunatics, except for the other places if not? In accordance with Lu Shan dye intention Yi Fu? is the number of people, they biochemists can completely walk across, so from the beginning to the end of the dwarf scorpion did not put Lin Hao in the eyes .....

‘I will remember.’ Porter stared at Dwarf Scorpion’s back, this man was too greedy, if not for the annexation of Bob’s family fortune, he had absolutely no need to be in the company of such a person, it was simply an insult to his noble status .....

But at the same time, he knew that without ‘X’, without the Dwarf Scorpion, he would never have succeeded. The thought of being able to annex Bob’s estate, and the upcoming rise in status for the next noble banquet, cheered Polter up. The elevated status of the noble banquet would give access to the heart of the Church, and inside the Church would come in and out of something that a large number of old Western European nobles wanted, and that was, biochemical technology that could prolong life! This is something that every aristocrat wants. After all, what is the use of having so much money if his life is only a hundred years or so ?

Chapter 1028

He was very good friends with Bob, and if he hadn't known this information, he would never have betrayed him like this. But after learning the news, faced with biochemical technology that could prolong his life, he chose to kill his closest friend, because, knowing one's enemy, one can win a hundred battles. He knew Bob best and knew many of his weaknesses, and it was easiest to get him killed .....

'Then get ready to go.' Dwarf Scorpion commanded.

The two chatted for a while, just focusing on splitting the money, not thinking at all about the trouble they would encounter. Dwarf Scorpion's extreme ego had left Bolt with no worries at all about failing, and the power of 'X' had shown him what it meant to be a real cyborg, not an Orc. He and Bob had both touched on the existence of Orca Cyborgs, but had no idea of the relationship between Orcs and Cyborgs, just that Orcs were Cyborgs and all powerful .....

But after experiencing the 'X' organization's explanation, he realized how powerful the biochemicals were, as if Dwarf Scorpion had told him that in the whole of Toulouse, there were only three high-level biochemicals. Any one of them would be enough to destroy an urban area, what a terrifying power! And he, Dwarf Scorpion, was a junior cyborg, his leader 'X' was a mid-level cyborg .....

Bolt was not qualified to know the real name of the leader 'X' .....

After learning of such a terrifying strength datum, the concern in Bolt's heart dropped to zero, and he even began to say a prayer for Bob, as for that new Golefant Castle master Lin Hao? Damned orientalist, how dare he accept the Golephant castle, simply defile the Golephant .....

Banquet? Squire Aiyi'er Lu closed the ground? The entrance began.

Although Bob was wounded, he was bandaged up and had several personal guards guarding him from others, so he did not have to worry at all about a second recurrence of his injuries, and he entertained every guest with a smile on his face.

Lin Hao followed him, Bob introduced Lin Hao's identity to every Toulouse tycoon who came in, and Lin Hao nodded slightly, his gentlemanly demeanor exploding, while Lin Hao himself is a super tycoon, his temperament and all is bar none, not at all false some tycoons worth several hundred million, in fact, Bob is nothing in his eyes, after all, Bob's value converted down to just a few tens of billions of assets .....

A few of them used obscure French to disparage Lin Hao, but they were all rebuked by Bob. Night One stood aside and quietly memorized all these people, Lin also has his own assets in F, and they are not small, and Night One and Mo Tianji have taken care of them .....

After walking away from a few wealthy people who were not exactly of high status, Bob's face showed a hint of hesitation, he looked at Lin Hao and then at Jenny who was surrounded by young handsome men and women, walked over to Lin Hao and said softly, 'Mr. Lin the next person to come is Jenny's nominal fiancé, so I hope that you, when the time comes, will not act too close to Jenny, at least the eye contact between the two of you can become stiff .....

And as if afraid of Lin Hao's anger, Bob then explained, 'Mr. Lin, I mean, Jenny is still an unmarried little girl, even if the other party is not her real fiancé, but Jenny will always marry someone, don't you think? And it's not like she's going to marry the average poor lad, it's going to be all these young, respectable and talented people in society. So her reputation, it's important, it's important .....

'I understand.' Lin Hao replied with a smile. The moment he accepted the castle, Lin Hao had actually answered all of that to reassure Bob about all of this, except that Bob didn't seem to believe him much, which made Lin Hao cry and laugh a little. Just isn't Bob too insistent on his own philosophy, he's all married, he married the woman he loves the most, Shen Xiyan, and can't live in his heart any other woman anymore .....

'Thank you Mr. Lin, you are a kind man, God will bless you .....

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1029-1030

Chapter 1029

Through the front door came a handsome blond young man, young, fair face, all collagen, and Bob pointed to him.

'Finkin Gatt. He and Jenny were close friends and they had a marriage contract from childhood, but Finkin Gatt's family estate surpassed mine when his father was very young, causing the contract to seem like a dispensable existence; after all, he was more powerful than me, four times more powerful. So the decision to decide whether the marriage contract is optional or not is not in my hands .....

' said Bob, a touch of sadness passed over his face, as a father he felt he was a failure, he could not even decide on his daughter's marriage matters, at the same time facing Finkin-Gate's domineering father, Bob was also a bit daunted .....

Jenny two kidnappings, he has sought the help of Finkin-Gate's father, but the other family is like a black hole, the news is passed in, are not returned, Bob is angry about this, but can only anger can not say, is very suffocating .....

'Good evening Uncle Bob.' After Finkin-Gate approached, the high and mighty aura was displayed, the afterglow glanced slightly at Lin Hao, straight after Bob greeting, as if he did not see Lin Hao.

Bob also had noble etiquette, with a faint smile on his face, he nodded to Finkin Gait, then pointed to Lin Hao and said, 'This is the new owner of Golefant Castle, let us celebrate him.' After saying that, he instructed Jelson to bring three glasses of the castle's homemade red wine from the 17th century .....

Finkin-Gate took the goblet and gently shook it, his eyes did not fall on Lin Hao's body, this smell of despise was even stronger, especially after taking the goblet, intentionally away from Lin Hao, as if he was disgusted with something, which made Night One annoyed.

Bob was also embarrassed up, such a situation had not occurred to him at all, but to show his landlord's friendship, Bob said stiffly, 'Let's have a toast .....

This sentence was like a slap in the face to the young man, his look of revulsion as well as impatience was written all over his face, the disgust inside his eyes was thick and heavy, the goblet standing in mid-air was shaken and put back on Jelson's tray, Finkin-Gate said in a cold voice, 'Uncle Bob, when have you and I, as old European aristocrats, ever toasted to an Oriental? Uncle, you are also of famous noble descent in Toulouse, this is simply a disgrace to us, well, I won't tell my father about you forcing me to drink with an Oriental, but the purpose of my visit, and I'll be straightforward, is that my father says that the castle of Gorfint should not be sold to an Oriental, it is an insult to its very existence and an insult to the face of our noble western nobility! ‘

‘Remember, these are my father’s words, which I expounded word for word. I’m not in the mood for all the arguments of you lousy old men, but my father is right, if Golephant becomes an orientalist castle, then Jenny’s sister’s innocence will be tarnished by a lowly orientalist! After all, you did say when I was a boy that Golephant Castle? Whoever marries Jenny in the future, the castle will be given to him!’ There was no hint of respect for Bob on Gail Fint’s face, but rather a strong whiff of threat, which made Lin Hao, who was standing watching, frown straight up.

Wasn’t this youngster too overbearing, he was pressing Bob all over the place, didn’t he know that Bob was injured?

And, again, disparaging them Chinese! After landing in Western Europe and entering the life of their masses, Lin Hao felt that this group of people, this group of so-called aristocrats, did not put them Chinese at all, which made his heart rub off on him, holding his aristocratic dignity over and over again? Lin Hao laughed at the fact that the F country was directly destroyed by its neighbours in a few hours during the Second World War, so how could there be any dignity? It was a disgrace, and this group of people had forgotten this disgrace? Its neighbours are still looking at them! The ruins of No.8 are still standing too, what a joke!

Chapter 1030

Seeing his big brother’s displeased face, Night One, who had long been suppressing his anger, stood up straight away and said to Finkin-Gate, ‘Home... my boss had wanted to have a drink with you purely for the sake of Mr. Bob, but to think that you could still act like that? What kind of a man are you? I’m telling you, in this special place, which is now known as Castle Golephant, you’d better keep your posture down and your mouth shut! Or I’ll show you what the East has to offer when it comes to sending guests off!’

Finkin Gaité was a well known noble rich boy in Toulouse, respected and admired by countless people, no one had ever shouted at him, even his father was not allowed to do so, because his father was an old nobleman, they all had strong manners, not the manners of nobles like Bob, who mingled inside the group of nobles at the bottom, they were noble manners of high nobility .....

After being reprimanded by Night One, Finkin-Gate felt greatly humiliated, and the surrounding people were gathering around him, which made it even more difficult for him to maintain his noble manners, he was incomparably angry and pointed at Lin Hao and roared, 'You lowly Oriental, I want you to sink this monkey into the Garonne River! Otherwise I will never forgive you!'

Lin Hao was amused again, laughing uproariously. This young man had actually asked him to sink his brother into the Garonne River, and even more so, he said that he would never forgive him without throwing Night One into the Garonne River, haha, he hadn't heard such a funny joke in a long time.

'Who are you? Come in here and get all high and mighty with me, my brother is right, clinking glasses with you because of Mr Bob's face, otherwise what are you in front of me? A rich kid? Oh no!' Lin Hao's icy eyes emitted a terrifying killing intent that thickly wrapped around Finkin Gator, Finkin Gator was enveloped by this terrifying killing intent, his whole body chilled, and the servant bodyguard beside him even pulled out the gun on his waist, only to be snatched down by Night One .....

Night One took the gun and pointed it at this bodyguard's head, 'This is our territory, and I think you people bringing guns in here are a serious threat to our guests' lives! Jelson, you take the escort team and unload the guns of all the bouncers in the venue, if you can't do that, you get the hell out!' Night One was incomparably domineering, and Jelson, who was on the sidelines, shuddered as he listened, angrily rebuking the nobleman, offending him, and pointing a gun at his bodyguards, all these images, were things he could not believe .....

But he didn't know why, but he still listened to Night One's command, because the gaze Lin Hao was casting over his shoulder wouldn't allow him to refuse!

'Yes, Mr. Night One! Guards, grab your guys, and if anyone dares to resist, let him know the rules in the castle!' Having said this, Jelson then said, 'All noblemen present ladies and gentlemen, we are about to have a security clearance and would ask your bodyguard escorts not to resist or I will not know the lengths to which our master will go to make you submit ..... of course that would be barbaric and You are all civilized nobles, I am sure you, will obey my rules right .....

Lin Hao looked at Jelson and suddenly felt that this vain and exploding butler was not useless, at least, the castle could still be left in his hands in the future ..... Suddenly Lin Hao felt a lot more relaxed .....

The bodyguard of Finkin-Gate shrank back in fear, but as the personal guard of the noble family, he was proud at heart, so he took a step forward and went up again, however, Lin Hao went up and kicked him directly away, Lin Hao stared at Finkin-Gate, for kicking the bodyguard away, it seemed that it had not happened in their eyes .....

Bob was frightened by this sudden outbreak of the scene, this kind of horrible scene, he was completely not thought of the picture, offend Finkin-Gate, this is too horrible .....

‘You’d better not pull out your gun, or I don’t know myself how I’ll strike at you. Of course, if you think you can carry the same kick as the one this bodyguard just flew out with, consider my threat unspoken.’ Lin Hao raised the corners of his mouth and looked down at the aristocratic teenager, Finkin Gat.

The bodyguard who flew out possessed terrifying strength, but now that he had fainted, he Section did not believe that since ? The bodyguard who flew out had terrifying strength, but now he had fainted. He would only be fainting, so he dared not disobey Lin Hao’s words .....

‘Do you know who I am?’ Finkin Gatt said stubbornly.
