

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1091-1100

Chapter 1091

‘Yes.’ Bigel did not dare to hesitate and answered incomparably serious.

The first time he felt the presence of Lin Hao is from Lin Hao hands to save Finkin Gait, now looking back, still really feel horrible, if at that time Lin Hao choose to strike, he may die in the air

If now he and the old Gator in the meeting talk, he will not say anything in the sky above the Golefant Castle they look again Lin Hao will catch up with them to fight them, but that Lin Hao will kill them all!

Life is many times a fluke and choice, and he himself was immensely grateful that he was able to stand above the right one every time

‘In that case, you must have knowledge about the Heart of Regeneration, tell me about it.’ Lin Hao’s eyes emitted an intense light. Originally thought that conquering Bijir need to show a little strength, but did not think that they just released the power aura, will give him a shock, but think about it, this person if really the same as Cang, then think must have lived for so many years, the means must still have, for example, careful to see the wind to make the rudder

Bigel looked at Lin Hao, this dare to appear in the F Chinese strong man, really again for the regeneration of the heart to come! In fact, he has always suspected that the purpose of Cang to Western Europe is for the Heart of Regeneration

‘The heart of regeneration is the meat of resurrection and the fountain of blood.’ Biggle also does not care about Finkin-Gate hear hear, these things are useful for biochemical talents, not at all useful for ordinary people. Just like the one intact regenerative heart within the castle of Goerfent, old Bob even took it as a curse, which if earlier known by Biggill, I’m afraid it will also take Bob to take off together with Gait, and become a Toulouse super big family, top nobility

Lin Hao did not then ask, but like a king waiting for his subjects to report back to him, he quietly looked at Bigel, Bigel was staring at the scalp numb, spare a few hundred years of life, experienced the great waves of his, so at this moment, from the inside out to show cowardice

This silent fear? The ground zero xiyiwu dyed zero? Terror is the fear that penetrates the heart

‘The flesh of recovery is a very powerful biochemical substance that can repair a part of the lost body after the biochemical person performs dismemberment. This is one of the few biochemicals that can restore the state after dismemberment

As for the blood fountain, as his name suggests, there is a constant flow of blood gas that can be used by biochemicals to permanently enhance their strength, the Yonghua saying is cultivation.’ Bigel seriously explain the role of regeneration of the heart, he said the two roles are the most obvious, especially the first dismemberment after the repair of this horrible function.

Talking about dismemberment, Lin Hao remembered the dwarf scorpion golden python transformed after devouring his own body, and then the power became as strong as Mohammad Kato, did not understand at the time, now understand, so that is called dismemberment

But Lin Hao got a message is to repair the lost part of the body! Shen Xiyan is now injured in the brain domain, is not because it is not repaired and healed, and now relapse? If the heart of regeneration within the Golefant Castle he got, wouldn’t he be able to restore Shen Xiyan’s body?

Lin Hao thought of here some chagrin up, regret at that time did not go all out to leave Mohammad Kato behind! This is a sore point for him!

Seeing Lin Hao fall into a deep state of thought, Bigel knew that Lin Hao was here for the Heart of Regeneration! The first time he made up his own mind, Golephant that one regeneration heart, no matter what, he could not go and fight with Lin Hao for it!

‘I heard Finkin say that you can spend some time to find the leader of the ‘X’ organization?’ Lin Hao asked once again, he didn’t know what the leader of the ‘X’ organization was called

‘You’re talking about Mohammad Kato? Although his trail is very secretive, if Mr. Lin needs me to help you find Mohammad Kato, I am still willing to help

‘ said Bigel. In fact, the balance between him and Mohammad Katou and the other two senior biochemicals will immediately break, after the Golephant Castle incident, the three-legged posture is about to collapse, because the appearance of the regenerating heart, as well as Mohammad Katou’s true is strength exposed, so that the three of them are worried about it!

Chapter 1092

At the same time, the three of them will also go to scout the traces of Mohammad Kato, because the heart of regeneration, they also need! And at this time if Lin Hao wanted to look for traces of Mohammedan khattus, he was very willing to help.

The role of the regenerative heart is much more than what he told Lin Hao so simple, of course he saw Lin Hao on these two roles have been very satisfied, he did not go on to say, because he felt Lin Hao may not care about the role of the regenerative heart next, which for him, completely feel Lin Hao is his most powerful ally

‘The original name is Mohammed Kato. How much time will it take you to find where he’s going?’ Lin Hao asked in a low voice, it took too long for Lin Hao to accept.

‘A week, no, definitely not more than a week.’ Bigel first said a week, but he looked at Lin Hao’s expression and immediately changed his mind.

Lin Hao nodded with satisfaction, a week’s time would definitely allow him to enter the upper class of Toulouse, and at that time, after getting the Heart of Regeneration, he would be all set.

‘Find Mohammad Kato, the heart of regeneration I will get back. If you have any requests at that time, you can mention them to me.’ Lin Hao said to Bijir, he did not care? The ground zero Zhaoxi serve ground Shan? Neither the context nor the tone seemed perfunctory.

Bigel stared at Lin Hao for a few moments, honestly some can not believe that this is Lin Hao said, but think of this is the Chinese, think in the mysterious East, they people are so kind and simple, of course, under the premise of not offend them

Finkin Gat just like a transparent person, watching two superb people in the discussion of a shocking thing, but the two kind of lightly said down, so he felt as if it was a joke, but looking at the two people's terrifying identity as well as strength, he could not think so, at the same time his heart was also in the excitement, and even heard the heart of regeneration can repair the lost limbs when, his heart secretly fluke, if Mr. Lin got, whether he can give himself a handout?

The thought that if he could still recover to the appearance of not losing that half of his face, Finkin-Gate got excited. And Mr. Lin said, than Gill to help him work, he will give him the opportunity to make a request, if they work seriously and assist him properly? Wouldn't there be such an opportunity too?

Finkin-Gate couldn't help but ask excitedly, 'Mr. Lin, if, if I also assist in helping to do things like Mr. Bigier all the time, can I be given a chance?'

'That depends on what kind of things you make out of it.' Lin Hao glanced at Finkin-Gate who opened his mouth to interject, looked at his face full of excitement, and then looked at his bandaged face that was already overflowing with pus and blood, and knew what was in his mind.

'Thank you, thank you.' Finkin Gatte was excited.

Mohammad Kato bounced around countless places after getting the heart of regeneration, and just as Bigir came to the State Trade Building and the time when Lin Hao released the super powerful threat, he was in the downtown office building, and his whole body was so scared that his chest was stuffed with pain. Lin Hao's punch, he has not recovered until now

When facing Lin Hao, Mohammad Katou although reluctant to front its front, that is because of its cautious, not how feel Lin Hao's thing horrible to make him scared, but when he went back to prepare to recover this injury, found himself a short time difficult to heal, which makes him can not help but heart shock up

Such an injury, all give him a kind of his own dismemberment after surviving the injury

‘How did Bigel come? Did he find my hiding place?’ Mohammad Katu inside the top office building had scales flickering above his forehead, if an employee came in at this time, I’m afraid he would be scared half to death

Lin Hao caused him injuries not only just let him long injury, but also let him biochemical characteristics, directly exposed

You know, his in order to let himself at all times to erase the characteristics of the biochemical, how much it cost, now by Lin Hao a punch injury also regained the characteristics of the biochemical, this is a fact that he can not accept!

Only now he is annoyed, but he is more worried is that Bigel and other three senior biochemicals are searching for his presence throughout Toulouse, and, as more time passes, other senior biochemicals in the southern city will also smell the wind, after all, a complete regenerative heart, too attractive

At the same time he was also chagrined at his previous haste, if, if he had sent all the members of Organization X into Golefte, wouldn’t he have had to do it himself?

Mohammed Katou did not dare to reveal his scent, he was too afraid, but at the same time he knew himself that he could not get out of Toulouse without something to assist him

‘I am afraid that the Bigir trio have guarded the necessary route from Toulouse to the Church.’ Mohammed Katou murmured, getting the Heart of Regeneration, he needed to give it to the Church because the Church would use it, he would not! He knew a little more about the Heart of Regeneration than the Dwarf Scorpion, but it was up to the Church to actually use it, but from what he could guess, having the Heart of Regeneration by his side would indeed allow him to increase his strength faster

This was an unexpected blessing, as he himself was at the peak of intermediate biochemistry, and could enter the advanced biochemistry level with a chance

‘If, if I advance to Advanced Biochemist during this time of hiding and escaping, then I won’t have to worry about the Bigir trio anymore! Together with the weapons given to me by the Pope, it would be enough for me to take on the three of them! I wouldn’t win, but I definitely wouldn’t be defenseless against the three of them! Once I enter the Church and fulfill the promises it has given me, I will even surpass the class of High Cyborg, and at that time, I will kill them all! There is no point in anyone standing in my way!’ Mohammed Kato said through clenched teeth.

‘These are all things to be done afterwards. What I have to do now is to get out of this dangerous place at the moment!’ Mohammed Kato held his satellite phone, only to lift it and put it down, and put it down again, as he wondered whether to use it.

Although the satellite phone is safe, but no matter what he does, it will reveal traces, and even if he himself does not go to carry out, his men are carrying out at the same time, he does not believe that there is no way that the three Bijl can lay nothing to catch this message ‘Boss.’ Outside the door of the president’s conference room, a beautiful female secretary knocked on the door and shouted softly.

Mohammad Qatou put on a black high hat directly, then turned his back to the office door, his whole body was looking out of the window, in front of him, there was a computer, the picture on the computer was exactly the picture of the female secretary outside the door waiting for his summons!

Obviously, Mohammed Katou had installed monitors outside his office door. In fact, not just outside the office door, but also inside the office door, because Mohammed Kato did not want his staff to remember him.

The female secretary carefully pushed open the door, ? Lu Pao Yi Xi Shan Xi dyed the ground ? before walking in. She felt that her boss was a very eccentric person, so eccentric that he never looked at his employees, and that was okay, and didn’t seem to care much about the company’s affairs, big or small, but then, on the first day of their employment they would all look at the company’s rules and regulations, and the biggest one of them was, never commit a crime! Don’t let the police into the company!

It’s strange, it’s bizarre. Of course weird as it is, their company has never done anything illegal either, no matter what on the books or tax avoidance, just a very good positive company

‘What is it.’ Inside the computer saw the blonde secretary, Mohammed Kato’s voice became a little cold and no longer sounded like a machine, he changed his voice

‘The Sega Group that we are working with is preparing to hold a banquet to be held at the Garonne River’

Without waiting for the secretary to finish, Mohammad Kato refused outright, ‘You send a representative’ Invitations to parties like this are usually rejected outright by Mohammad Kato? To attend a party? Wouldn’t that expose him? He had done so much to hide his presence and would certainly not appear at a high-profile venue

However, when he had just finished speaking, Mohammad Qatou then said, ‘Send a representative who is more resourceful, and I will follow him. Remember to arrange a random identity for me’

‘Hmm?’ Mohammad Kato tone raised a few pitches and came out with a questioning tone

The blonde secretary took a few steps back in shock and immediately spoke, ‘Yes, yes, I’ll make the arrangements. The party is tonight’

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1094-1096

Chapter 1094

When the blonde secretary was out of the office, Mohammed Katou took off his hat, his scales glinting silver, and a glint of heartlessness flashed inside his eyes, though there was more than a hint of luck on his face. ‘By the Garonne River, I’m in need of an escape now, and isn’t that exactly what I want to do when I can escape on my own without using Organisation X? It seems that for once Lady Luck has favoured me, thank God, no, thank the Pope‘ Mohammed Kato clasped his hands to his chest in a devotional prayer

The blonde secretary walked into the office and after scanning the area, called out to one of the blue haired young men, ‘David, you are invited to the Sega Group banquet in the evening as a representative, but you are to bring one along.’

The young man named David was working hard and upon hearing this, he was flabbergasted for a moment and then cheered straight away as his colleague beside him went straight up and gave him a big hug, ‘David, do well and you’ll be the next General Manager!’

Davey also got up immediately and walked over to the blonde secretary and kissed the back of her hand gratefully, ‘Thank you, I’ll treat you to a big meal when I get back!’

‘Oh

As for who to bring the blonde secretary didn’t say it directly, she didn’t know how to say it, she could feel that the boss didn’t want to reveal his identity, she just didn’t understand, what was the boss so careful about, what was he afraid of? Afraid that the staff would see his true colours? Or that he was a murderer? Afraid that when the police came to the office they would find out that he was a murderer? What a weird boss

After talking to Lin Hao, Bijir disappeared into the conference room on the top floor of the China World Trade Center. He had already gone to Mohammad Khatan’s residence, which he knew, to look for Mohammad Khatan

As soon as Bijil left. The night one outside the door of the conference room also returned to his office from the door, Lin Hao and Finkin Gaité Bijil conversation can not be heard by just anyone, so the night one has to guard, now Bijil has left, the night one does not need to stand at the door, and Avril kept running to the conference room, he has refused several times for Lin Hao... ..

When Avril saw Night One leaving, she excitedly walked up to Night One and said in a small playful voice, 'Vice President Night, can I go into the meeting room?'

Avril and Anna both had very simple jobs, so there was a lot of empowerment time during office hours

'You can go in.' Night nodded.

'Oh, it's really suffocating me, I'm going in then.' Avril had a smile on her face and then just started knocking on the door of the meeting room

Night One knew what Avril wanted, if he was right it was an upper class exchange party on the banks of the Garonne River tonight. Of course even if Avril is not looking for Lin Hao this matter, then he will also talk to Lin Hao this time, when the time in the arrangement of an identity to enter inside is not sh? The actual fact is that you will be able to get a lot more than just a few of these. What a big problem.

Night one know Lin Hao to enter the upper class of Toulouse, then can not miss any of the upper class exchange any banquet

Avril pushed the door in and saw Finkin-Gate standing behind Lin Hao like a security guard, although she had seen such a picture before, but seeing it again still made her feel a bit unrealistic, this was after all Finkin-Gate ah, the Gates family ah, that overbearing and incomparable Gates family

Of course, if she knew that the superpowerful Bigel, who the Gaither family relied on so much, was also groveling before Lin Hao, I wonder what she would think

‘Mr. Lin, there is an exchange banquet at the Garonne River tonight, may I invite you to it?’ Avril’s violet eyes were filled with an expectant look, she had had her makeup touched up before she came, or to be precise, when she was preparing to extend an invitation to Lin Hao, and at this moment she looked even more gorgeous and stunning

Turning his head around Lin Hao looked at Avril and was also slightly surprised that this violet-eyed secretary was once again a few points prettier

Of course the point Lin Hao noticed was still the banquet, Avril’s identity was not simple. He had read the information, a banquet where Avril could be invited, then it was bound to be a banquet of no low level, such a banquet, Lin Hao would not miss it!

‘Thank you for the invitation, I would like to

After hearing this, Avril's entire body gave a gasp of surprise and ran to Lin Hao's side excitedly again, kissing him deeply on the cheek, 'Thank you, thank you for being my male companion.' Only to run away shyly after the kiss

'Strange etiquette, ' Lin Hao said helplessly.

The social level of the banquet in Garonne River was not low, like this kind of banquet Avril originally did not want to go, because she did not have a male companion, she also did not want to go to the banquet to find a random male companion, of course such a banquet she attended once or twice, only all because of George and spoil the fun, then with time she did not want to go to the banquet, just to not want to run into George at the banquet. And why would she choose to attend it today, the purpose of which was to want to invite Lin Hao to join her, if Lin Hao did not go, she would never attend

Finkin-Gate rubbed his head, the banquet on the banks of the Garonne River he knew, it was a good banquet of sorts, and the theme of the banquet was interesting. It said it was to celebrate Sega's 20th anniversary in Toulouse, but Finkin-Gate knew it was a witch-hunt by Sega's first heir, and he was so ashamed of it that he thought it was vulgar

Seeing Finkin-Gate's odd face and puzzled look, Lin Hao inquired, 'You know about this party too?'

Finkin-Gate hastily nodded, 'It was a banquet held by the Sega Group to celebrate its twentieth anniversary in Toulouse, and it invited most of the nobles with assets like Bob in Toulouse, but when such meetings are held in Toulouse, they all apply for a bit with the Noble Alliance, as the people from the Alliance will send someone over to oversee it. They also invited me, but I refused, it is not qualified to invite, a banquet of such rank,' Finkin-Gate said, his past pride recounted step after step, then when he reached the end, he hastily covered his mouth. Because of this banquet, Lin Hao was going to go, yet he said he didn't have the qualifications to invite him? Wasn't that a disguised way of looking down on Lin Hao? If he was given a hundred more guts, he wouldn't dare to say that

‘Mr. Lin, I am not

‘Alright, alright.’ Seeing that Finkin-Gate was scared, Lin Hao directly stopped what Finkin-Gate was going to say next, he could already imagine what Finkin-Gate was going to say, that groveling look

‘This banquet you need to attend.’ After saying that Lin Hao glanced at Finkin-Gate's face, the words inside this eyes, all reveal the meaning of no doubt, Finkin-Gate nodded his head repeatedly, completely without regard for the meaning of disgrace. After all, he had lost half of his face, so if he walked out, it would be a disgrace, but Mr. Lin asked him to do something, and he dared not refuse!

When Lin Hao disappeared from the conference room, Finkin-Gate hurriedly greeted his butler in and directly instructed, ‘Old Armand, tonight I'm going to accompany Mr Lin to the banquet held by the Sega Group at the banks of the Garonne River, how do you think I'm going to turn out to make Mr Lin compliment me?’

Armand looked at Finkin-Gate with a suspicious look, thinking to himself that when you attend a party, don't you always bring a female companion? Even if Mr. Lin had gambling tastes, he wouldn't bring a male companion as ugly as you.

‘Well, well, Mr. Lin asked me to attend the Almand then nodded, for the etiquette of aristocratic travel, Almand had systematically studied, so he carefully instructed, 'First of all. That Lamborghini Poison of yours is certainly not to be driven by yourself, if you can, you can gift it to Mr. Lin.'

'Yes, yes, old Almand or you thoughtful, if you hadn't said so, I might have driven it myself? Dyeing and covering and serving Sissi and loving and closing? in a racy poison myself' Finkin-Gate praised, while not feeling sad about losing a Lamborghini of which there were only thirteen in the world

'Secondly, there will be an auction at this banquet, which of course you know all about. But this auction will be for a Cullinan diamond worth eighteen million dollars. The Cullinan diamond, known as the world's number one diamond, is cut into nine large diamonds, as well as ninety-six smaller diamonds, and this banquet will auction off one small diamond. We don't have to care about its size, but we do care about what it means. I think Mr. Lin will definitely bring a female companion to the party this time, so you can present it to Mr. Lin's female companion The Cullinan diamond represents power, royalty, queens and so on, while this one represents no love

Almand explained very smoothly the origin of the diamond and its symbolic meaning, which Finkin-Gate knew, but he cared about the nine big diamonds, the small ones were not much on his mind before, after all, well, his previous status was there

'Thank you, Mr. Armand.' Finkin-Gate gave Almand the courtesy of a nobleman, looking very grateful, and no longer called old Almand, but Mr Almand

Avril returned to her seat in the office and Anna, who had been staring soulfully at where she had come and gone, only came back to her senses when Avril had taken her seat.

Avril had told her what she was going to do, and after she had listened she was very much in favour of Avril going ahead and inviting, but her heart was crying out for Lin Hao to refuse

‘Anna, I’ve invited Mr. Lin to attend the party with me! Thank you Anna, thank you for giving me the courage!’ Avril said gratefully as she hugged Anna, not knowing that Anna didn’t want to know the answer

‘No need to thank me Avril, it’s all your own charm!’ Anna said with a dark look, she also wanted to go and invite Lin Hao to attend with her, she just didn’t have the courage to do so, as well as what she knew herself, would be rejected by Lin Hao

‘I’ll see you tonight then

Avril released her embrace with Anna and then left her office seat straight away, she was going back to dress herself up and prepare to attend

Anna looked crestfallen as she watched Avril’s back

The night struck over Toulouse, whether it was the glorious bustle of the city centre or the lights of the Garonne River that represented the economic strength of the city.

In a black Audi, Mohammed Katou himself drove the car forward, with David, sitting behind him, directing the forward movement. And Mohammed Katou obeyed with attention, not looking like he was David’s boss, or that he was the head of the ‘X’ group that had scared the citizens of Toulouse ‘Stop, stop!’ David shouted at Mohammed Katou after passing a flower shop down the street.

Mohammed Katou heard this order? Wood closed the grill and landed on the West Service Wood? The order did not sound angry, but simply stopped the car hard.

‘Rubbish! Stopping a car almost hurt me, and I don’t know why the secretary lady sent you forward with me, what a disgrace to me!’ David scolded one after another, and Mohammed Kato laughed dryly.

Looking at such a mute Mohammed Katou, David was furious, ‘Go and buy me a bouquet of flowers, and remember, think with your uncommon sense, a bouquet not of one, but of a large bunch! Better yet, ninety-nine of them!’

Mohammed Kato nodded and got out, and David then added, ‘You don’t have any money, do you? Never mind, I’ll give you a handout.’ David pulled two notes out of his wallet and threw them at the top of Mohammed’s black top hat, almost lifting it off the ground because of the force of it.

If David had been watching closely, he could have felt two sharp killing intents coming from underneath the high hat except David felt that Mohammad Qatou was a strange piece of crap so he didn’t pay much attention to him, which allowed him to get away with it

The only flowers that are worthy of Lady Avril’s beauty are the flowers.’

‘Where’s the rest?’ David carefully placed the flowers on the seat next to him and asked Mohammed Katou in a stern voice.

‘Forget it, consider it my tip for you, one look at you and I know that you are a poor man!’ David sneered, then straightened his make-up in the mirror and ordered again, ‘Drive, drive faster, don’t be as slow as you were just now, I don’t know what you’re afraid of driving so slowly? Is it because you’re afraid the police will stick you with a fine? Damn it’

Mohammed Kato frowned, the police were a presence he was very reluctant to face, it was like a demon in his mind. Looking at David through the rear-view mirror, he found him looking happily ahead, looking great, not taking him seriously at all. Mohammed Kato grunted softly, a soft grunt that only he could hear, but he drove a little faster, but only by five yards

The river flowed along the banks of the Garonne River, shimmering under the neon lights, and every now and then a few unknown fish jumped out of the river playing playfully disturbing the ripples that swirled out of the river to? The river is illuminated by neon lights. and the dull sound of fishing boats’ clattering engines rows of fishing boats are tethered to the quay on the shore, huge cranes are still operating, and not far from the quay, a luxury cruise ship that is bobbing on the river is warbling, singing and dancing

On the road near the shore, it was filled with luxury cars, dozens and hundreds of them, large and small

And the security guards were tired and sweaty from parking

Mohammed Kato finally was driving to the banquet location, David came down with a very sullen face, he did not expect, this man driving speed told him to speed up, he just speed up five yards, he was going crazy, but now finally is to the location, do not have to share a car with this man, the heart is also a lot more pleasant.

‘You’re really stupid. I’ll talk to the secretary lady about your condition.’ David grunted, not forgetting to issue a warning.

Mohammed Kato, however, smiled for the sake of it; finally, he could change his hiding place and get away from the city centre.

As he watched David leave, Mohammed Kato looked at the Garonne River, picked up the device containing the regenerating heart and jumped into the river, like a loach in the dark, disappearing into the water.

He was searching for Mohammed Kato’s location when suddenly his sense of smell disappeared and he frowned, ‘Why did he disappear? Is he dead? The place where he disappeared was on the banks of the Garonne River? Mohammed Katou could not be so bold, how dare he go to the territory monitored by the Lion’

The Lion was one of the three senior cyborgs in Toulouse and his exit to stop Mohammed Katou from escaping was the Garonne River, because the three of them had made numerous scenarios, one of which was that if Mohammed Katou was an aquatic cyborg, then there was a high probability that he would leave by water, so the Lion was in charge of monitoring the Garonne River

‘What the hell is he doing? Or maybe he really is an aquatic cyborg, except that he must have sensed Lion’s scent around the Garonne River, so is he trying to force his way in? But that’s not his character at all, so what the hell is it for? Could there be a base for him underwater?’ Bigel floated in the air and was pondering, while the lion above the Garonne River was on his way

Riding in that Lamborghini Poison, Almand himself drove for Lin Hao, sitting beside Lin Hao was Avril in full costume, she was beautiful at the moment, a star river blue dress embellished with a small dazzling masonry stone, she looked like a princess

Lin Hao looked up to the sky, two powerful breaths were meeting, one of which he was familiar with disappeared in the Garonne River, he couldn’t imagine at all, Mohammed Katou dared to disappear from under his nose, this was a cocky and arrogant religious man. Lin Hao didn’t know Mohammedan Kato as well as Bigir and the others, he had only fought Mohammedan Kato once, and that time he had seen Mohammedan Kato’s vigour, and today he saw it again. To be sincere, he had killed countless enemies, but he had never met anyone so arrogant, who was obviously no match for him, but had rushed to provoke him... ..

‘Let’s hope Bigel finds this crazy Mohammedan khattus soon.’

After entering the water, the Mohammedan katou was like a fish in water, with his fins on his back showing and bubbles spitting out of his mouth. He did not sink to the bottom of the river in a frenzy, but sank slowly, like a corpse being sunk into the river, very carefully, for fear of making too much noise and attracting the people around.

As he sank, he looked back at the river from time to time, he also felt the Bijil breath, as well as the lion, and even Lin Hao’s breath, his heart was thumping, he was sighing his gratitude, and marveling at his madness, he dared to be so arrogant at this time, and at the same time went in front of Lin Hao to provoke him, fortunately they did not come after him, only Mohammad Kato knew that his own kind of cyborg was completely and utterly exposed today

‘Hopefully I’ll be able to get into Advanced Cyborg in the next few days, once I’m in Advanced Cyborg I can come out from under the river and fight Lion and Bigel and the rest of them, win or lose, I can definitely walk! Once I’ve met the Pope, give me some time and I can come back and kill them! Then I’ll never have to hide again!’

The headquarters of ‘X’ is on the Garonne River, however, over the years, Mohammed Kato has built himself an underwater chamber, of course, if it were an ordinary person, he wouldn’t be able to stay underwater for long, not to mention that an ordinary person wouldn’t be able to stay underwater for long, even a cyborg wouldn’t be able to stay underwater for long, but Mohammed Kato has built himself an elaborate underwater chamber, he can stay in it for four days due to the large number of oxygen tanks, he can breathe the oxygen inside, and there is also a blood storage room, and food

After sinking for about five minutes, Mohammed Kato finally reached the entrance to his underwater chamber. It was a huge rock, 20 square metres in size, and he pushed it so hard that a trickle of blood spilled out of the water. When he pushed the stone hard, he pulled the wound and it spilled blood. He didn’t care much about it, but continued to push hard, and after ten seconds or so, a powerful suction force engulfed him, but for his intermediate level biochemists, such suction force didn’t affect him at all

After the stone door of the secret room was pushed open, what was presented inside was a super large glass enclosed space, from outside the glass there was everything inside, a coffee table and chairs, all made of crystal of course, very flashy. It was not that Mohammed Kato had any noble aspirations, but because only artifacts made of crystal could be transported to the bottom of the river

The glass room was squeezed by suction, and a superb engine inside began to hum and rumble, and the water that poured in was squeezed out directly by the tremendous force, and the room, at all, was filled with no one.

Mohammed Kato entered the glass room with a strong thrust, and after reaching the glass room, the glass door closed tightly the stone outside the door also closed slowly, Mohammed Kato lit up a table lamp, warm white shining inside like a crystal palace,? Fushan fushan fushan zero service ershan? He then laid down easily on the crystal bed and breathed heavily, but only for a few seconds, he immediately put the heart of regeneration on top of the crystal table, and then directly began to recuperate plus strengthen himself

As for the noisy and lavish party on the lake, it didn't seem to concern him at all, and David wanted Mohammed Kato to leave him alone, he didn't want to stay with such a person, he felt degraded

He was a supervisor who was soon to be promoted to manager, a man of status, but of course he didn't know that he was no match for many of the people in this room, because many of the gentlemen and ladies in it were aristocrats

David was standing in front of the steps to the luxury ship, holding the flowers that Mohammed Kato had bought for him, and was standing straight up waiting for Avril to come

He kept replaying Avril's face in his mind, he thought a woman like Avril would be the brightest lady of the night and would be a princess

People like David stood in rows, very many of them, they looked at each other and then opened their mouths and asked each other who they were waiting for, and there were many men like David waiting for Avril, among them there were inevitably aristocrats present and also young entrepreneurs

But David did not give up on leaving, but took it more seriously

‘You know what? Not only will Miss Avril be here tonight, but Miss Anna is back too!’

‘Wow, these two are the two golden flowers of Lin’s new investment president’s office, if you hook up with one, you will definitely be greatly helped in your career in the future, if you hook up with Lin’s new investment, you are still afraid that your career will not be successful in the future?’

‘Avril is here!’ I don’t know who shouted, whether it was people waiting to send flowers to Avril or not, they all looked at her

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1099-1100

Chapter 1099

Avril took three steps back to see Lin Hao’s? Covering Lu Yi Shan Lu Er Yi? figure

Looking at Avril’s look, the people have side eye

The first time I was ready to go in with Avril, Lin Hao temporarily received a phone call from the night one, so he instructed Almand to drive the car to a distance.

After Almand parked the car, Lin Hao stood on the bank, feeling the coolness of the river breeze blowing up, and was in an even happier mood. Because attending tonight's banquet would bring him into the view of the nobility, and if he went deeper, he might be able to contact the Church, and then curing Shen Xiyan would be the nail in the coffin. Lin Hao's heart ached at the thought of Shen Xiyan enduring her illness, but of course he knew that Shen Xiyan was not aware of her problem and only felt drowsy, but to Lin Hao, it was all his pain... ..

As for the previously mentioned suppression from the Gaiter family side, he doesn't care if there are still people privately pushing the envelope now, the Gaiter family has now dared not not to withdraw it anyway

'Big brother, Jun Wu Ren's side told me that Toulouse came in very unstable let us be careful.' The reason why he avoided Avril and came over here to answer the phone was because it involved Jun Wu Regret, and he didn't want any outsiders to hear what he and Jun Wu Regret were talking about

'Be careful.' Lin Hao said. Jun Wu Regret in the world news is certainly more careful than him, after all, his dream is not the same as his own, Lin Hao only want their own home with Shen Xiyan well on, Jun Wu Regret after revenge but hope that China is strong, foreign enemies do not disturb, although Jun Wu Regret walk this road many difficulties, Lin Hao are weeding out for him

'Black Dragon reported to Jun Wu Regret the information he gathered in Toulouse. It says that a super powerful biochemical has appeared in Toulouse, and this biochemical is driving the entire Toulouse biochemicals crazy, except he says that because there are three senior biochemicals in Toulouse who are suppressing it, it's calm on the surface, but privately countless mid-level biochemicals have started to gang up and prepare to join the battlefield within a share of the pie, such as the organization Black Dragon is in... ..’

Night One and Lin Hao both knew that this super powerful biotic was the Heart of Regeneration that had appeared within Golefant Castle. It was just that Lin Hao’s focus was divided into two major parts one was to enter the upper class of the province and become the core of the top wealthy to reach out to the nobility and enter the Church’s vision, and then there was Mohammedan Kato. As for anything else in Toulouse, Lin Hao doesn’t really care

‘So now it looks like we have to find the Mohammedan katou quickly. Night One, you talk to Black Dragon about what’s happening with the ‘X’ organization and what’s going on over in Toluz. We can use the power that Black Dragon is in to annex or exterminate these two organisations, I don’t want my next move to be delayed by two small organisations.’ Lin Hao then said.

Night One immediately replied, ‘Black Dragon said that someone from the ‘X’ organization has already started to make a move on Topaz, but the two organizations are fighting so hot that I’m afraid they won’t be able to stop anytime soon

Lin Hao shook his head, ‘What I want is not for them to fight like hell, what I want is for them all to disappear! The only thing that will happen is if they disappear, nothing will happen. Tell Black Dragon to guide their organization to join this strife, no matter what.’ Lin Hao thought of Jenny and Bob, if these two organisations didn’t disappear, when they stopped they would definitely turn back to deal with Jenny and Bob, and there were still many fanatics of the Black Scorpion organisation within the ‘X’ organisation, once they were free and available, who knew what the group of them would do... ..

‘I’ll communicate with the Black Dragon. But’ Night One paused here, he knew that he could not command the Black Dragon to do something if he went to communicate with him, so he hesitated.

‘It’s okay, you just communicate with the black dragon about what we’re going to do. I’ll talk to Jun Wu Ren about it.’ Lin Hao knew what Night One’s concern was, so he gave it to him straight, Night One had been with him for so many years, the two still had a tacit understanding

‘Okay big brother, then I’ll go find Black Dragon now.’ Night One hung up the phone after saying that, not to see that he is now the vice president of Lin’s new investment, but then, what he should do for Lin Hao, still have to do, say Lin’s new investment internal construction special, there are very many professionals in monitoring the staff work as well as the progress of the project, no need to direct on site at all, unless Lin’s new investment has any problems that can not be solved, at that time he will step in, if he can not solve He will report back to Lin Hao

After hanging up the call with Night One, Lin Hao dialed up Jun Wu Ren’s number.

A cold female voice came from the other side of the phone when he answered, Lin Hao lost his smile, ‘Madam Jun.’

‘Lin family master.’ Hou Yijun was startled for a moment, then immediately said, ‘I’m going to call Wuyou’

‘What an intimate name to call.’ Lin Hao joked, Hou Yijun blushed slightly, but Lin Hao couldn’t see it.

Not much later Jun Wuhuai’s mellow voice ? Yi Wu Yi Fu Zha Xi Ai Shan ? The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The fact that Lin Hao heard Jun Wu Regret’s words is also convincing, his own wife also hides and hides ? But Lin Hao thought back properly, it seems that when he met something big, he would also avoid suspicion with Shen Xiyan, men are perhaps like that ‘Brother Lin you say.’ A dozen seconds later, after the sound of the door closing had fallen, Jun Wu Ren asked seriously.

Lin Hao said directly, ‘You know that I am in Toulouse. And I know about the message you gave me. What I’ve come to tell you is that you can command Black Dragon to have him guide the organisation he’s in to join within the strife between the ‘X’ organisation and the Topaz, so that they enter within this great battle as early as possible, not late.’

Jun Wu Regret pondered a little, Lin Hao gave him a lot of information, but it was all about commanding things, making him a little confused, Black Dragon infiltrating F, was his secret, he trusted Lin Hao before he told him, but to expose it like that, she felt it was a little unworthy

Lin Hao knew Jun Wu Regret’s concerns, and he knew that Jun Wu Regret was not like himself. Lin Hao explained, ‘The great war in Toulouse is inevitable. Joining the battlefield early will be beneficial. And I will help Black Dragon in guiding their organisation to join the ‘X’ organisation within the strife with Tropang to achieve victory, so that he can lurk a little deeper at that time, if he is slowly working undercover step by step like this, he doesn't know what will be useful enough to be of great use.'

Lin Hao paused, the phone passed over to Jun Wu Ren, who fell into a deep thought, indicating that he was thinking about their own problems. Lin Hao continued, 'I called Black Dragon to enter the reason is because I will send someone to solve the Tobon with 'X' organization. Most of the people, like the Orc biochemicals, if they really can't solve it, I will personally appear, or call the senior biochemicals out

'What! You just took in a senior biochemist?' Jun Wu Ren said in shock! He wasn't like Lin Hao, who had heard nothing outside the window earlier in China, he knew the division of power as well as the contradictions around the world and how their power was built. So spare him the shock of learning that Lin Hao was able to dispatch an advanced biochemist.

'It's not exactly taking in, but I can make him work for me.' Lin Hao said with a smile, then added, 'Brother Jun, under this premise, it shouldn't be too much of a problem for Black Dragon to guide them to organize their entrance, right?' After Lin Hao finished speaking, he was thinking that if Black Dragon couldn't even do this point well, he wouldn't need to follow Jun Wuhui in the future. If he himself instructed Night One to do this matter, Night One would definitely complete it 100%.

'Good, I will go and instruct Black Dragon to do it, Brother Lin, thank you.' Jun Wu Ren said gratefully, and didn't pry at the root of the matter, none of the strong people like them would pry into each other's secrets

However, the gift Lin Hao gave him was something he could be happy about for a while. At present, the situation in the East is very troubled, the world countries and regions organizations lurking in the sea, but they open the gate of the East ancient prison, but do not know the secret of the existence of the East ancient prison, which makes him very anxious, and his hopes are placed on the black dragon, so when Lin Hao said to let the black dragon enter, he was hesitant hesitation, after all, he and Lin Hao strength is strong, Lin Hao asked for things, he did not say let the black dragon to do. Even if he had been asked he would have helped. It was just that Black Dragon was a matter of great importance and he could not go and command his hand at will.

But Lin Hao's subsequent explanation made him excited, and at the same time made him feel that perhaps he wanted to know the secret of the ancient prison, Lin Hao would know it beforehand

Of course feeling is feeling, the infiltration that Black Dragon has to do still has to continue and to be promoted quickly to the inside of the organization

After communicating with Jun Wu Ren, Lin Hao instructed Almag to drive the car over to the luxury cruise ship, the party was about to start
