

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1031-1040

Chapter 1031

‘One more kiss!’ I don’t know who suddenly shouted out loud.

It was an incomparably romantic moment, and Avril, in the middle of a storm of happiness, heard the countless shouts and went straight up, just to catch Lin Hao in a fierce kiss, but Lin Hao did not give her such an opportunity, but gently grabbed her hand, shook his head and smiled.

Aviel knew what Lin Hao meant by his refusal and was slightly lost, then she saw Lin Hao walking towards the centre stage. Countless people’s eyes were drawn to him, they wondered, they were puzzled, what was Lin Hao up to.

Yang William tried desperately to avoid Lin Hao’s eyes, not daring to face him. Lin Hao swept around, taking in the atmosphere outside. Over the cruise ship, he felt three powerful auras rotating back and forth endlessly, among them was the aura of Bigir, who he was very familiar with

They all have the aura of high level biochemicals, and then beyond that, there are many if any intermediate biochemicals aura, if Lin Hao didn’t know the purpose of their coming, I’m afraid he would really think that these people are coming to find him in trouble. At that time, maybe Lin Hao would have exterminated them all like he did the senior ninjas of Eastern Japan

The outside matters Lin Hao cared about as much as the inside, and his two matters were carried out together. He couldn’t put either of them aside because then it would take two periods of time, something he wasn't willing to face. He did have the time, but the longer Shen Xiyan's condition was delayed, the more dangerous she and the child would be, and how could Lin Hao accept such an end?

So he looked in front of him and focused on the boat outside

Standing in the middle of the stage, which was the main stage of the auction, he took Ina's microphone as soon as he could.

Faced with Lin Hao's sudden dominance, Ina was full of smiles, this man was too domineering to be liked

'My name is Lin Hao.' Lin Hao gently tapped the microphone and found that it was able to make a sound before he said.

The nobles in the arena looked at you and me, not quite understanding what Lin Hao meant by this statement. They were all thinking, 'Is this man the same dude as Finkin Gatt? Like to pretend?'

It was just that this introduction of Lin Hao made Finkin-Gate a little uncomfortable. Lin Hao introduced himself and would definitely talk about that night. Only nowadays he wouldn't dare to go up and obstruct and 'I am the master of Golefant Castle!' Lin Hao said once again.

This was a direct shock to the whole room! They looked at everyone around them in shock, all asking with their eyes if they had heard wrong?

Golefin? The owner of Chateau Aivoui? The owner of Castle T? The same Chinese who had issued the order to kill the Gates family?

But why did he have Finkin Gatt at his beck and call? What is wrong with Finkin-Gate? Has he gone mad? What the hell is going on here? They all looked at Finkin-Gate

Finkin Gatt did not dare to complain and looked at Lin Hao with a smile on his face, looking at Lin Hao with immense respect

The people on the floor are once again confused, the disfigurement revenge, shouldn't it be different from heaven? How come here is Finkin-Gate, as if nothing has happened? And he looked like he was smiling, full of respect? What had happened here to make this situation possible?

Bastian's pupils opened up tremendously. He was Lin Hao! He was the Chinese powerhouse who had caused the Gaiters to lose face! The Gaiter family had approached the heads of all the families present that night, telling them not to reveal too much information, otherwise the Gaiter family would definitely do their utmost to destroy them!

Afterwards, they, the people of these super big families, thought again that Lin Hao might have left Toulouse that night, no, scared enough to leave F. But who could imagine that this man not only did not leave, but also attended the banquet held in Toulouse once again? This is stepping on the dignity of the Gaiter family? What kind of courage does such a person have?

What Bastian couldn't accept was that Finkin-Gate looked as if he didn't resent Lin Hao? What kind of a change was this? What kind of change was this that would make Finkin-Gate look like this? He wanted to know, but at the same time his heart was in fear, in awe, and in celebration. He looked at Avril, at Lin Hao, with countless questions in his heart, and he wanted to ask his sister, and then find an opportunity to apologize to Lin Hao properly

He had offended his idol and had to apologise no matter what

Now he is no longer simply supporting Avril to be with Lin Hao, but no matter what

Chapter 1032

When William Yang heard these words, he sat straight down on his buttocks. His heart shuddered and his mouth kept spouting out that it was over and done with.

'What should I do, what should I do? I've offended such a super powerhouse, it's over, it's over. Jia Shi Group is going to be finished, how can I face my grandfather, finished, finished

Yang William like crazy, mouth constantly repeating finished finished, and before watching the good show people are looking to Yang William like this, when they saw Yang William scared to the point of demented, this is satisfied

'I am likewise the president of the Porter Group.' Lin Hao said again, for Bastian and Yang William dramatic reaction did not put on the heart, he did not have a big impression of Bastian this person, Bastian's super power generation company for him, not his business

But William Yang he still remembered. This man who his own Chinese people thought was disgraced by having Chinese blood was something that really made him uncomfortable. He had fought for China, he fought with Jun Wuhui in the East to defend his family and country in blood, but never thought that there was such an existence. As he said, it was acceptable to him that people abroad did not understand their own race, but for people with Chinese blood to say the same, he was beyond abhorrent, beyond angry!

But now is not the time to talk about this matter

‘I am also the CEO of Lin’s new investment in the Asia Pacific region as a strategic investor,’ Lin Hao had said.

This title he only made intentionally as a title for future cooperation with Lin’s New Investment, he was not good at revealing his identity as the CEO of Lin’s New Investment, after all this was exposed. Then the church would reject him and he didn’t want to spend any more time on the church. But again, he knew that if he used violence to fight violence this path would certainly be the most inferior path

From the conversation of Jun Wuhui, and later from his own understanding. There are super strong people in Western Europe, there are existences that surpass Cang He Zu, existences that are more powerful than them, himself, there is no absolute certainty that he can kill him

He did not dare to take Shen Xiyan’s life to be a bargaining chip to gamble, so he could only do so

This identity of Lin Hao they all already knew, so it didn't bring them a certain amount of surprise.

'I hope that as a newly promoted noble of Toulouse, I can work well with all of you in the future. If every noble present recognises my presence, Lin would be grateful.' Lin Hao said with a smile, such a sincere smile.

'I, Bastian Power Generation, am willing to sign a lifetime free electricity contract with the Porte Group!' Bastian, the newly promoted top dog, immediately went on to say. For them, how much electricity could a group use? Even if they used tens of millions of dollars a year, for him, it was just a matter of blinking his eyes, so this opportunity, he would definitely not let go Finkin-Gate also said immediately, 'I am willing to use my channels to open the way for the Porte Group to sink into the market!'

With the direct help of Bastian and Finkin-Gate, the scene that Lin Hao was worried about before that he might be ostracized was directly gone, Lin Hao nodded with satisfaction, he could not imagine that his becoming a new nobleman in Toulouse would be accepted by such a small wave of people so simply, all he had to do now was to expand his own fame on it, his current identity, he still could not contact the Pope, the value of not more than ten billion, the Church would not come over to contact him.

This is what Bob told him, and he also said that even if it exceeded ten billion, the Church would not necessarily come to him, but ten billion was the minimum standard!

'Congratulations to Mr Lin Hao for becoming the new noble of Toulouse!' I don't know who shouted out.

Countless people then shouted.

How to put it. Because of the addition of Finkin-Gate and Bastian, so that this group of nobles who originally rejected the Chinese did not dare to raise their voices to refute, if they were to say so at ordinary times, they would not approve,? The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on this. After all, this is a Chinese

The two heirs of the super great family directly admitted, where they dare to speak out to refute ah, this is not waiting for death? And did not see Lin Hao stepped on the Gaiter family to the top, the Gaiter family party Finkin Gaiter are so enthusiastic celebration? What do they have to say to deny it?

Besides, Lin Hao's qualifications to become a newly promoted noble all have ah

Take the condition of Golefant Castle, the nobles on the spot, except the Gaither family, no one else is owning a castle! This kind of condition, they themselves do not have, but Lin Hao has ah! Moreover, the Porte Group was previously promoted to the ranks of nobility because of the Porte Group, and now that Lin Hao directly owned the Porte Group, they didn't dare to deny it

Lin Hao looked at this scene, looked at Bastian and Finkin-Gate, think these two people still have some use well, before he and night one have projected various scenes, all think that tonight although no matter what will succeed, but when the time will need to spend absolutely will not only use so little time, he and night one said are, really can not, with more than biochemical strength, once again crush the whole field of nobles, plus Lin's new investment next capital strike, so that they are forced to accept

But now there is no need

Chapter 1033

Bigir stood in the air feeling what was happening below, the lion beside him kept shaking his head in disbelief.

‘Biggil, you say you have come to do your best to find Mohammedan Kato for such a Chinese man? And by the sound of your words, it means that if you find the Heart of Regeneration, you will give it to him too? My God, Bigir, you are an old man from Toulouse, and you are so subservient to a Chinese. If your dead ancestors knew about this, they would pop out of their fossils.’ The male lion said sarcastically.

The male lion said popping out of the fossil naturally comes from the language technology of country F. He deliberately exaggerated his words, in fact, he did not believe that Bigir would do so

They don't know how terrifying Bigir's strength is, because Bigir hasn't fought biochemicals for years. After all, he has lived for hundreds of years, and some people have known of Bigil's existence since birth, and know that he is a powerful biochemist, and since they know that he is a powerful person, then naturally they will not fight with him.

How to say, the strength is not as strong as Bigel, naturally will not fight with him, the strength is similar to him, naturally also dare not easily go to risk, as for say the strength exceeds Bigel? He does not believe it himself. He does not believe that the hundreds of years of heritage of Bigir is still no match for a newly promoted biochemist?

Legend has it that if Bigil is willing to join the Church, I'm afraid it will all be compared to the Pope's existence, but of course the comparison here is fame, as for strength? That's not possible

The fame and reputation is also because Bigil has lived for hundreds of years, the hundreds of years of fame is really too big

Bigir smiled, looked at this junior, did not explain too much, but said lightly, 'He is very strong, he easily wounded Mohammad Kato.'

The male lion laughed loudly after hearing this, 'I can also do what you say.' For the strength of Mohammed Katou? The male lion said in all sincerity, Mohammad Katou was nothing in front of him, so he despised him from the bottom of his heart.

If it wasn't for the countless nobles on the cruise ship, many of whom were associated with the church, he would have wanted to go up and crush the whole crowd and then lecture Lin Hao, a Chinese, on what to do. Not a lecture, but a lesson to this Oriental who came to Toulouse to spread his wild Bigir shook his head and did not go on to say anything else.

He had been able to live for hundreds of years, apart from his superior eyesight, that is, he did not use his biochemical power much, as if at this moment Bigir was standing in mid-air as if he were making a movie, a human look-alike. But the male lion is different, he stands in mid-air, above his head lion hair against the wind to make a hunting sound

‘This Mohammad Kato seems to be a real aquatic series biochemist. If it weren’t for Lin Hao, I’m afraid you would never have known what kind of biochemist he is in your lifetime.’ Bigir said as he looked at the surface of the Garong River, which was calm and quiet, with fishing boats catching the night now and then

The male lion was a little stung by Bigil’s remark. How to say it, they as Bigir’s senior biochemist, that is a symbol of strength, should have for the whole Toulouse situation will be very well informed, but this Mohammed Kato, just under their eyes from the street gang, mixed to half orcs, and now intermediate top biochemist, according to their collection, more can be concluded, Mohammed Kato is very likely to be in such a period of time The most likely time for Mohammad Kato to advance to the top level of biochemistry

Once Mohammad Kato has advanced to the advanced level, there will be a fight between him, Golden Panther and Mohammad Kato

As for why there is no Bigel, because Bigel does not participate in the direct jurisdiction of the Church. He can be said to be independent of the Church, but at the same time the Church can appoint him to do some tasks, but these tasks will not involve his life or death

Such an independent existence, to be honest, they envied. The reason for this is that at this level, they would like to break away from the Church and start a new family, but they don’t dare to, because the Pope in the Church is strong enough to destroy them...? Love, love, love, love. ...

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1034-1036

Chapter 1034

‘I remember you saying that the Pope himself took Mohammedan Catholics to practice for a while?’ The male lion asked seriously.

Bigir looked at Stallion with an expressionless face, thinking to himself that he thought this man didn't have any brains, but now he was a bit scared, 'Yes, fifteen years ago. At that time you had just become a senior cyborg and together with Golden Panther you killed Lohan. That's why we have the scene today where the three of you, Golden Panther and I co-exist.'

Thirteen years ago? Lion began to remember thirteen years ago, the year he had survived at a great cost. He had given three quarters of his fortune to Golden Leopard in order to persuade him to join him in killing Lohan. But now, when he thought of Luo Han, he could not help but tremble at the bottom of his heart. Luo Han was so powerful that he could have fought the two of them alone under adequate conditions, and even more so, he could have killed them both

But well, in the end, the two of them won.? The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing. And it was the fact that Lohan was less powerful and less mysterious than Bigel that made them choose to take on Lohan

This is also a situation that the lion and the golden leopard after killing Lohan two jointly agreed down. That is in the future the two of them will team up to kill whoever dares to advance to senior biochemist!

But they did not want to intercept and kill Bigel as they had done. A senior cyborg who had lived for almost two hundred years had almost killed them both, so they didn't dare to take the risk of fighting a senior cyborg who had lived for more than five hundred years. Only those who have tasted danger know the kind of caution that comes with treating it

'Why would the Pope be so sure that he would be able to grow up? Although it is true that this boy has really grown up now, is he really sure that this boy can survive under me and the Golden Panther?’ The male lion asked with a frown on his face than Gil. His attitude was reverent, no longer as angry and with disdain as before

The male lion and the golden leopard did not fear Bigir much, all because Bigir did a lot of things that they could not look up to, so they would go up and tease him verbally, and over time, the two of them dared to tease and taunt Bigir a lot, anyway, Bigir was a 'good' old man like the good old man ‘Huh.’ Bigir laughed twice and didn’t reply. How could he say anything about designing the Pope’s stuff. He wouldn’t dare say it either!

‘Never mind. Seriously Bigir, if I didn’t know your root situation, I would really think that this Mohammedan Kato was the son. He’s so careful, it’s almost scary.’ The male lion said helplessly. He and Golden Leopard knew that they couldn’t knock anything useful out of Bigir’s mouth, but then again, Bigir would always tell them secrets with a slip of the tongue, and that was annoying.

The two of them had no worries, but every now and then Mohammed Katou would come and give them a hint of danger. For example, the existence of Mohammedan khattus was subliminally told to them by Bijil

Otherwise they would not have known about the existence of the Mohammedan khattis earlier. Subsequently, they would have known eventually, but only after Mohammed Katou became an intermediate level cyborg, not when Mohammed Katou became a half-orc

After all, with the power the two of them had at the time, there was absolutely no need to pay attention to as well as know about the events of an Orc’s existence.

Bigil gave a light laugh. Once again, he went to seriously scout the river. This Mohammedan katou was still really a tricky contraption. He was right, if it wasn't for the fact that Mohammed Katou had taken the Heart of Regeneration, he would have really liked this kid, just as cautious as he was, not revealing his strength up front, then growing his strength quickly, and also being watched by the Pope, such a person, if he hadn't suddenly burst out and grabbed the Heart of Regeneration, I'm afraid that both the Golden Leopard and the Lion would have fallen into his hands.

After all, if they let him grow up peacefully, who knows what kind of dangerous being he would become?

Anyway, Bigil feels that Mohammad Kato will eventually be a greater threat to him than the Lion and the Golden Leopard.

Chapter 1035

'Okay, he's coming up.' Bigil interrupted the lion's reminiscence as he sensed the change in Lin Hao's breath. That meant that Lin Hao had finished everything down there. It was only the thought of Lin Hao coming up that inexplicably caused a strong sense of pressure to rise up in Bigil's heart, as he found no trace of Mohammedan Kato

He turned his gaze to the lion, and a cold smile occurred in his heart.

'Just come up, look at that cautious look, I really don't know what else you're afraid of, having lived for centuries. Wait a minute and see how I teach him a lesson.' The male lion teased, not looking up to Lin Hao at all.

Birgit laughed again and didn't say anything. This irritated the male lion, thinking that Birgil didn't despise him

The first thing you need to do is to get to know each and every one of the lesser-known noblemen present, and there is no need for Finkin-Gate to lead Lin Hao around. The company's main business is to provide a wide range of services to the public. The actual fact is that you will find a lot of people who are not familiar with the actual people who are in the market.

'Mr. Lin, in fact, there is absolutely no need to get to know these people, in two days I will give you a super celebration banquet, of course, when the time comes I will also invite Bastian together, that scene, I see Toulouse that nobleman does not come, afterwards I will go with Bastian to his house to find trouble! If you dare to disrespect Mr. Lin, you disrespect me, Finkin Gatt, and you disrespect Bastien! Bastian, don't you think so?' After saying this, Finkin-Gate pushed Bastian who was following him.

Bastian excitedly even shouted, 'Yes, yes! I'll stand with Finkin-Gette and invite the entire Toulouse nobility, otherwise they won't have a chance to eat afterwards! I'll pay for the celebration party when the time comes!'

'No, no. I'll pay for it, I'll pay for it!' This was a very good time to take credit, and he would certainly not let Bastian take the credit.

'Stop arguing and let Finkin-Gate out.' He had already seen the two arguing.

Avril was just holding Lin Hao's arm like that, leaning on his shoulder. Happy and sweet, while the nobles surrounding Lin Hao, their brains still buzzing even now, still had some difficulty in accepting this image before them, Finkin-Gate and Bastian, ah, those who didn't know thought they were Lin Hao's servants, who would dare to believe this if they told anyone?

But they all know that after tonight, after talking to others about this matter, perhaps more and more people will believe this matter

A person say, honestly no one believe. You can't even believe such a scene, but it's a different story when countless people say it

In other words, after tonight, Lin Hao's will be famous, the entire Tulu upper class, there will be no one who does not know who he is, such an effect is exactly what Lin Hao wants.

Such a situation, for him, reduces a lot of unnecessary trouble, and allows him to put more thought into finding Mohammad Kato's.

Anna looked close, but knew that she would never be in a position to speak to Lin Hao again, nor would she dare to have any unpleasant thoughts. There were times when the opportunity was right in front of her, but once she didn't grab it, she never did.

As she watched Lin Hao walk towards the Bing outside the ship, Manny said to her little sisters, 'How could a man like him be a match for the other nobles present. I told you he would be powerful, but you didn't believe me and kept taunting me, and it's a good thing he didn't hear me, or else you, ah, not to mention his own strikes, or Finkin Gat would not have spared you!'

Her ladies were instantly frightened and cheerful, their faces that were still smiling were all in awe, one by one they covered their mouths and shook their heads vigorously at Manny, that pleading look in their eyes, no longer the same look that had mocked Manny before, and for the first time Manny possessed a sense of satisfaction in her heart as she raised her head proudly and looked in the direction Lin Hao had gone.

She never imagined that just because she didn't like Lin Hao early on and then got slapped, she would finally be able to find a sense of superiority over her sisters who had always looked down on her before. Perhaps this is the reason that after being powerful to a certain extent, even the after-effects can make some curmudgeons fearful

After leaving the cabin, Lin Hao looked behind him and said to Finkin-Gate, 'You guys first let the others not come out, I'm going to meet Bigel and the other two senior biochemicals up there.'

Chapter 1036

Lin Hao said this to Finkin-Gate because he didn't want more people to know that they existed.

However, Finkin-Gate and Bastian said excitedly, 'Mr. Lin, don't worry about them knowing. These nobles are more or less aware of the existence of cyborg, and the more powerful you show, the more submissive this group of people will be to you.'

'Yes, yes, yes. The stronger you are, the more they will recognise you.' Bastian nodded even harder, not caring about his status at all.

Lin Hao laughed lightly and said nothing more. He then glanced up towards the sky, then directly stomped his foot lightly, and his entire person seemed to disappear from the spot some ‘Mr. Lin is simply too powerful. You are unaware that Bigir showed submissive meaning the moment he saw Mr. Lin. You have to know that Mr. Bigil is a God-like existence in us. Of course I am exaggerating, after all, we are under the jurisdiction of the Church above us,’ Finkin-Gate said to Bastian with immense pride, as if Bigir was not a credit to their family.

In fact, without Finkin-Gate saying it, Bastian also knew how powerful Lin Hao was. What kind of existence was Bigir, a knife hanging over their heads under the Church, which would cut down if they disobeyed a little

It’s just that Bastian feels that today is particularly unreal, if he wasn’t himself really in this scene at the moment, he wouldn’t dare to imagine even if he exuded his imagination that he would be standing with Finkin-Gate chatting like this, and that Finkin-Gate would be chatting with him and then talking about Bigil ?

If he called his father now and told him about such a scene, his father would scold him and say that he was committing insanity

He looked at the dome of the sky in the darkness of the night, and there was a powerful presence up there. He also knew that there were many such powerful beings around here, and of course many of the powerful beings in his mouth included those of the intermediate level cyborg

‘I know of the existence of the Bigir.’ Bastian finished looking over at Avril as he gasped for air. Avril looked at him as well, except Avril’s eyes weren’t filled with much fear within them. Avril hadn’t been much involved in what had happened back then, she was the talk of the hothouse, and because her family had sent Avril to study in other cities in F as a child in order to keep her out of such a whirlwind, Avril had complained as a child why she wasn’t allowed to stay at home with her family, but no one in their family had explained. Later, when Avril got older, they sent her to study in other countries, which led to the incident of Avril coming to China to study

So then Avril was fortunate to avoid the bullying time period that came with the crazy growth of the Gaither family

‘Excuse me.’ Looking at Bastian’s sad expression, Finkin-Gate said with an apologetic look. Their family was bullying and had oppressed many people in the Bastian family, and he had just been praising Lin Hao, but had forgotten that mentioning Bigel was rubbing salt into the wounds on Bastian and the others

‘It’s fine, it’s fine.’ Bastian said with a bitter smile, he could hold a grudge, but he still couldn’t have thoughts of revenge when faced with Finkin-Gate, there was just avoidance and evasion

‘Yeah, that’s all in the past. The fact is that you can’t be sure that your family will have a chance to grow in the future with Avril’s relationship with Mr. Lin Hao.’ The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you’re doing.

Looking at Finkin-Gate’s once again imposing appearance, Ba ? Zero Shan closed service closed zero zero zero ? Tissien was still a bit scared at heart, but the big change in Finkin-Gate’s attitude towards him made him feel a lot more at ease, and he went to look at the place where Lin Hao had gone to the sky, and silently thanked Lin Hao in his heart.

He understood what Finkin-Gate said, he was able to stand with Finkin-Gate, the reason Finkin-Gate did not humiliate him was because of Lin Hao's relationship in, he had been in the mall for so many years this point of relationship still do not know? Wouldn't that be a waste of time?

Bastian laughed, 'Yes. I am now very grateful that Avril knows Mr. Lin Hao, otherwise, forget it, not to say' Bastian would like to tell his past, but afraid to offend the good-natured Finkin-Gate now, so point to the end, together with looking at the sky, waiting for Lin Hao's arrival

Chapter 1137

In mid-air.

Lin Hao had already flown in front of Bigel and the lion, and after Bigel saw Lin Hao arrive, he played a slight waist, 'Good evening, Mr. Lin. How did you feel about the banquet down there? Did you have a pleasant evening?'

After seeing and hearing what Bigel had done, the male lion sneered, this was the existence that he and Golden Pao had always feared, and now to see a Chinese man looking so humble? If he had told Golden Panther, he would have said he was stupid to say that about Bigel? Bigel is the strongest man in Toulouse!

Of course, the Golden Panther is now suppressing the intermediate level cyborgs who are in the surrounding area and are interested in coming over to get involved, so he couldn't be there in the first place, but he did come over.

How can I put it, neither the Golden Panther nor the Lion was very willing to face Bigir. Although Bigir was not violent in nature, it was still a little intimidating to have a powerful beast by your side. But he was not as powerful as the golden leopard, so he simply had to do what the golden leopard told him to do and stand with Bigir

‘No way, Biggil you really fear a Chinese man? I really can’t believe it. To be sincere if it wasn’t for your Gaelic family down there, I couldn’t stand seeing that face just now. How dare a little Chinese man be arrogant in our Toulouse? It’s ridiculous!’ The male lion looked towards Lin Hao.

To be honest, if Lin Hao were older, like a middle-aged man in his forties or fifties, giving off the appearance of a calm and strong man, he might have believed in Bigir’s words and behaviour, but looking at Lin Hao’s young appearance, only in his twenties, he was able to suppress Bigir, who would believe it?

How many years had it taken him to grow to this level of strength? More than eighty years. What about Golden Pao? The Golden Panther is now over a hundred and thirty years old, it took them a century or so to get to where they are now, and now he is being told that a man in his twenties is better than them. And this is more powerful than Bigir, who has lived for centuries? Can you believe that?

Even a genius like Mohammed Katou is only an intermediate level biochemist today, and he owes this rate of growth to the Pope. A pope exists to train Mohammad Kato, if he does not grow up, it would be really strange

Looking at the male lion, his strength should belong to a relatively weak existence within the three senior biochemicals. But looking at this look, it is the one who is jumping for joy ah. If he didn't care more about Mohammad Kato, Lin Hao really wanted to teach him a lesson, and also see how much stronger the so-called senior biochemist was than Mohammad Kato, a mid-level biochemist.

'Is there any more news about Mohammad Kato.' Lin Hao inquired. He directly ignored the man, the male lion.

The male lion was instantly amused, ignored? He was one of the three super masters of Toulouse, a ranked master in the entire southern city, and he was ignored? He was not happy, he wanted to see how strong this man was!

'No, he disappeared straight into the Garonne River. But he shouldn't be able to escape this section of the river. He belongs to the aquatic species of cyborg, with his current strength, he can stay underwater for four or five days, but with his character, I'm afraid that when he comes out, his strength will have already reached the ranks of advanced cyborgs.' Bigel said seriously, this was his estimate, but he could be ninety percent sure that when Mohammad Kato came out from under the water, his strength, would have reached the ranks of advanced biochemists.

After hearing this, Lin Hao thought that this man was really too crazy and a talent.

Why did Bigel think so? One, because Mohammad Kato's own talent is amazing, and two, because Mohammad Kato's character is very cautious, if he did not advance to the minimum bottom line of the senior biochemical ranks, he would not dare to reveal his identity, and throwing himself into the Garonne River is tantamount to declaring his own death. But he plunged inside the Garoon River, not hesitating to reveal his identity, with the thinking of Bigir? Serve Sam Yisan Yisan Yisan Sisan?, that means Mohammad Kato, already has the bottom of advancing to senior biochemist, a thirty-something senior biochemist, no wonder the Pope will personally go to train

And these before the male lion asked, Mohammad Kato are not willing to go to say, is not because with these people to say the meaning is not big, they may not be able to deal with Mohammad Kato

The reason is that if Mohammad Qatou was not sure, how could he have waited here to advance, knowing full well that once he jumped into the Garonne River, then he would be besieged, would he let himself be caught in a siege situation? Definitely not! Unless he was absolutely sure of escaping again

And escape, it might have something to do with the Pope, except that he, Mohammed Katou, had overlooked the existence of a horrible factor when thinking about this plan, and that was the presence of Lin Hao

In fact, how can I say this, Bigel is still somewhat looking forward to what kind of surprise Mohammad Kato will give him next.

Lin Hao nodded his head. But the lion next to him listened with a very bad taste, before he asked Bigir about Mohammad Kato, but Bigir always told some information that seemed useful, but was more outdated than at the moment, then he went to ask, and Bigir pretended to be deep, which made him lose face, especially in front of this Chinese man, Bigir showed a humble look, but also made his chest sink beyond

‘This guy is pretty crazy.’ Lin Hao looked down at what was meant to be Mohammed Kato, how could he put it. It was obvious that he knew that three high level cyborgs would definitely come from the sky to keep an eye on him, and he was still hiding in the water. Was he so confident the same as the last time he escaped from himself, thinking that they too would be gullible?

Even if they would be gullible, would he, Lin Hao, still let him go?

Last time, he didn't know that what he was holding could save Shen Xiyan, but this time he knew, even if he broke out in his Extreme Dao state, he would still leave the other party with no way to hide!

In other words, even if the King of Heaven came, the Heart of Regeneration, Lin Hao would take it!

'Haha, to think that someone would say that Mohammed Kato is a crazy person, he is a cowardly person, very, very cowardly. He is so cowardly that he has a dozen of his own dwellings and his face is even more so that no one has seen it except the Pope. Is such a man crazy? If such a man is crazy, then aren't you even crazier? A Chinese, coming to us in Toulouse, arrogant and domineering, looking down on senior biochemists? Remember your Cang? Oh, back in the early days, he wanted to come to our western world in search of some great man in pursuit of the heavenly dao, but in the end, I defeated him back, but never thought that Cang, who had lived for hundreds of years, would not dare to come to our west afterwards, and yet you, a tiny young man in his twenties, are screaming here, aren't you even crazier than the Mohammedan katou in your mouth?' The male lion was looking for a point to mock Lin Hao, now that Lin Hao had given it, then naturally he had to go crazy and start mocking and sarcastic.

After Lin Hao heard the male lion's words, he couldn't help but subconsciously look at Bigel, and with that inquiring look, Bigel naturally saw it clearly, then nodded, signalling that this was indeed what he meant.

This time Lin Hao revealed a stunned look, originally thought Mohammad Kato was a crazy heretic, now it seems to be cautious into a very scary character, such a character than crazy to the point of conceit, but also much more scary

After all, to be just crazy is to like to take risks. But if one is cautious, then I'm afraid that means that this person will only act crazy if they are relatively sure. Thinking about this Lin Hao looked down and revealed a gruff frown, 'So that means he has absolute certainty of advancing to Advanced Biochemist and absolute certainty of escaping from here?'

The male lion's entire body froze after hearing Lin Hao's words, what did it mean? After being analyzed by Lin Hao, he suddenly sensed that there was a hint of something different inside.

Right, Mohammad Kato is originally a very careful guy, how could he make such a bold move, just now when he met with Golden Panther, he mentioned why Mohammad Kato why, what purpose does he have to make him so bold

It seems that he is very bottom.

Lu Jie Er Shan Er Xi Yi Fu? He smelled a hint of crisis.

Only when such an atmosphere was on top, he remembered Lohan again, the senior cyborg who lived for two hundred years, didn't they eventually kill him? Even if Mohammad Kato had become an advanced cyborg, so what? He and Golden Pao still couldn't kill him?

But then he looked at Lin Hao and realised that this Chinese man still had some brains, but so what?

‘So what if he becomes an advanced cyborg? The last Advanced Cyborg died at the hands of me and Golden Panther. His promotion is death! No matter which big city, the Church will not allow three Advanced Cyborgs to exist because that’s the Church’s rule, although I don’t know why the Church is using such a rule to make us kill each other, but I don’t care. He’s bound to die. And by the way, it’s not you who has to think about the life and death of Mohammed Kato now, it’s you.’ The male lion looked incomparably contemptuous as he raised his lofty head to look at Lin Hao. Lin Hao’s disregard just now made him uncomfortable at heart, he was at least one of Toulouse’s senior biochemists, a super powerhouse, and to be ignored by a Chinese man over and over again, he was disgraced! He was not a nobleman, but he had the pride of being a F-National, and a little Chinese monkey dared to ignore them so arrogantly? He was just looking for death!

Lin Hao narrowed his eyes and pondered the relationship between the Church Pope here, having just heard about the Church, and now knowing about the Church. About the papal church, to be honest, he didn’t know a lot, as for the relationship between the church and the nobles he didn’t know, the relationship between the church and the biochemists he didn’t know very well either, and the church and the pope, he knew even less. But Bigir certainly knew, and it seemed he needed to take lessons from Bigir ‘Bigir, tell me about the relationship between the Pope’s church and the biochemicals.’ Lin Hao said to Bigir in a commanding tone.

Bigir was silent for a moment, shook his head and said, ‘Mr. Lin, there are many hidden secrets involved, and under this occasion, it is not good for me to open up to you. I will talk to you when we are both alone.’

What Bigel was implying was that the Lion was not qualified to listen!

The lion was furious, 'Bigir, I am the Toulouse! I am the one who is your partner! He's just a Chinese! How dare you tell a lowlife the secrets of our church and not me!'

An underbred?

Lin Hao had already found the lion noisy, and now he was even more directly offended. Lin Hao, who had not wanted to make a move, was no longer able to endure this moment.

He looked at Bigir, and a cold smile spread out from the corners of his mouth.

Bigir's hypocrisy let him know that he could not do anything without striking!

Chapter 1139

He could clearly feel the lion's scorn for Bigir's bones, and Bigir's disdain for the lion and the golden leopard. But for the provocation of the male lion to himself, Bigir did not speak out to rebuke, but watched the fire from across the river, which made him feel that Bigir was nothing but defensive towards himself, that is, acting hypocritical, such a person, standing behind himself, Lin Hao felt very uncomfortable!

So let's strike now and show Bigir how terrifying he can be.

It was a chance to kill two birds with one stone.

‘I wasn’t willing to strike to teach you a lesson, but barring that, you keep putting your face under my slap. Since that’s the case, then I’ll do as you wish!’ Lin Hao said as his entire body’s aura exploded out.

The terrifying aura was released directly, and the cruise ship below was directly crushed as if it was being swayed all the way after being beaten by a big wave.

Bastian staggered, he raised his head to look at the sky, ‘Who can imagine that such an aura is artificial? If it wasn’t for the terrifying aura that erupted when Bigir broke into the family’s secret meeting room at night, I wouldn’t have believed that above the world, there are really people who can drain the mountains!’ He said bitterly, it was a sorrowful past, and although it was all over and done with now, and he would never encounter that kind of humiliation again in the future, it was so helpless for him, an ordinary man, to face someone of such strength, even though his family was loaded with money, but what was the use?

Finkin-Gate looked up at the sky, one hand gently rubbing over the lost half of his face, there was nostalgia, and expectation, and admiration within those eyes, but no resentment, and he dared not resent ‘What’s wrong what? Er serve wu dye yi ershan whisk? The actual fact is, is it a big storm?’ Someone inside the cabin ran out and shouted.

‘Why is it suddenly rocking so much ? But it’s a quiet night outside, it doesn’t look like a big storm, what’s going on?’ Another person enquired.

It was only then that Finkin Gatt returned to his senses and said to them with immense pride, ‘This is the terrifying power unleashed by Mr Lin Hao. He’s fighting the three mythical figures of Toulouse. Oh, that is, Bigir, the Lion and the Golden Panther.’

‘What!’ Someone shouted in shock.

The figure that Finkin-Gate had made his home was Bigir. They were half convinced about the secretive and sacred being of Bigir. Why half-believed ? It was because they did not believe that people could live for hundreds of years. But then again, the Gaither family made their fortune because of him, and they had to believe ‘Why is he so terrifying, can he win?’ Someone asked in a low voice.

After this doubt came out, countless nobles likewise crossed their heads head round, and Finkin-Gate just looked at them like that in a lively discussion, and did not answer at first. He was now like Lin Hao’s top dog, always giving Lin Hao momentum, and he was afraid that the momentum created would not be too big and Lin Hao would not be very famous, so he did not say so.

After returning to his senses, Bastian looked at the crowd who were discussing so passionately, and heard quite a lot of terrifying legends about Bigir, he was also in doubt, to be sincere, Bigir had lived for hundreds of years, Lin Hao was just a young man in his twenties, could he really suppress Bigir and the others ?

Bigir was already very powerful, and there were two other high-level cyborgs, could he win against three in one fight ?

Not only was he worried, but he also had doubts, wasn't Bigel working for Lin Hao again ? Why did such a terrifying aura break out now ? Had a conflict erupted between the two ?

If that was the case, what should be done ?

'What the hell is going on here ? Why is Bigel fighting with Mr. Lin Hao ?'

Avril was so nervous that she pinched the corner of her dress, she was originally full of confidence, but hearing more and more talk about how powerful Bigil was, how powerful the Golden Leopard was, how powerful the Lion was, made her confidence dwindle, leading to falling into doubt

Originally still in the little sisters in the majestic Manny after feeling the change around, her ladies in unison to look at her, this killing eyes, originally also gave her tea and water people, have got up and back away.

The little white dress even said with outright anger, 'Manny, the strong man in your mouth actually wants to fight with our Toulouse myth, isn't he looking for death ?'

‘What an arrogant little noble, he is still a little noble now, if there is when he becomes a top noble, won’t he not put the church in his eyes? I think he will fall under the mythical hands of Toulouse and be crushed into slag!’

‘Right!’ A chorus of accusations made Manny’s face hard to read

Yang William hid inside the corner and looked up at the sky, his heart was full of mixed feelings, not knowing what to do.

Everyone else was doubting that Lin Hao would lose or win, while he cared that Lin Hao was able to fight them, wasn’t this a disguised way of saying that Lin Hao was powerful? So powerful that he had offended himself, and a Chinese at that?

Their family, Jiashi, had originally struggled a bit in Toulouse and had grown to such a large size over the years, or the individual people within the family had worked very hard, ten times as hard as others a hundred times, to get to where they were today.

Why is it so hard? It’s because other families have people to bless them, while their family relies entirely on the local government and mercenaries, and although they can also find biochemicals, the price they pay is much greater than others. In the end, it still has something to do with his Chinese bloodline

Now he thought again, if he had known that Lin Hao was so powerful, and their family had made good relations with him, would there have been a place for them in Toulouse in the future? But now he is only thinking about it, what he wants most is that Lin Hao must not condemn their family afterwards

Of course, not to condemn their family, this is simply delusional!

With a huge sway after that, once again there was a strong storm hitting, at the same time the air a golden light emanated out, a huge golden lion refracted the light and shadow hit the river, at that moment, the heaven and earth was golden, the terrifying pressure hit again, the huge cruise ship directly sank ten meters!

‘A male lion! It’s a lion!’ Someone on top of the cruise ship shouted, he knew the male lion. No, he had only heard of the Stallion Senior Cyborg, a super powerful one, and his loud shout made the people who were there look over.

This nobleman was an aged nobleman, in his early fifties, in good spirits, but unable to resist overworking and with a head full of grey hair.

He felt all eyes on him, and looking at the nobles who were looking at him, he shouted, ‘My grandfather used to deal with the Lion, a powerful Golden Lion cyborg who had a horrible reputation in Toulouse fifty years ago. That was fifty years ago, but then he faded away, but its strength, it never left us, look at it now. Our cruise ship has sunk eight metres! Eight metres, that’s a terrifying eight metres, how heavy does it have to be to make a cruise ship sink eight metres!’

‘Hiss, how much heavy cargo does that have to be? Mr. Lion is too powerful! So what will happen to Mr. Lin Hao? I’m now looking forward to Mr. Lion and Mr. Lin Hao sharing a victory!’

‘But anyway, doesn’t the fact that Mr. Lin Hao fought with Mr. Daring Lion mean that he’s also very powerful?’

‘Although that’s what I said, but judging from the imposing aura, Mr. Lion has already won, hasn’t he? One looks like a storm that just shook the cruise ship, but Mr. Lion directly pressed the cruise ship to sink almost ten metres! Even children can count, let alone us clever noblemen.’

With the heated discussion, no one wanted to believe that Lin Hao could win, except for Finkin-Gate. And he had wanted to campaign for Lin Hao that Mr. Bigill would stand by him, but looking at such a lively discussion in the arena, he decided not to say anything, because he knew that Lin Hao would beat the lion to the punch!

He was so excited now, he thought of what it would be like to see the mighty Stallion Cyborg being knocked under the water. I’ve heard of a falling chicken, have you heard of a falling lion? Haha, it’s exciting just thinking about it!

A greenish glow emanated from the body of Mohammed Katou, who was recovering as well as growing in the crystal chamber under the river, and the fins on his back swung wildly as the raging power churned back and forth.

He had refined his strength a lot more and he hated the satisfaction

What used to look like a human was no longer the case at this moment, huge scales covered the top of his head, black and dull glowing with a green light

‘The fight is on, the golden lion projection. Oh, the name of the lion’s rage, it is true.’
Mohammed Katu wiped the corner of his mouth, those sharp teeth that were slowly shrinking back, receding with a terrifyingly cold light.

‘But I’m getting close.’ Mohammedan Kato went on again.

He looked at the regenerating heart, the one that was beating madly. It was as if he had seen it somewhere, the image was very much like that, he just couldn’t recall it for a moment. But it was that blurred image that made him wince. In front of that blurred image he saw a terrifying face, a face that glowed white, a face that he wanted to see but could not, a face that brought such intimidating pressure that he did not dare to look directly at it

He knew who this man was, but ? er wu paxan lu pax dye zero ? was someone he didn’t dare to think about, or think much about

‘In wait for me, in a few days, I’ll be an advanced cyborg! The Golden Lion, the Golden Leopard, and the terrifying Silver Moon Skywolf! As well as the Chinese Lin Hao, and the other biochemicals from Toulouse! In three days, the night of the Garonne River will blossom into an endless light, and you will see the fish with the biggest bite in the world on the surface of the water, and you will taste his terror!’ Mohammed Katou said as the cold light emerged from his sharp teeth in his mouth, the scarlet blood brought an aura of death, but not nearly as terrifying as the sharpness on the tips of his teeth

His biochemical species is a very scary fish, a very famous fish in the world! A man-eating fish that no human would dare to face!

It was his arrogance and his bravado, a path he had to go through after becoming a biochemist.

The Pope told him back then
