

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1171-1173

Chapter 1171

The Porter Group.

‘Big brother, Uncle Bob and I are on our way there, it’ll only take a few minutes to get there.’
Night One was driving and calling Lin Hao at the same time.

‘Mhmm, it’s fine, be safe on the road.’ Lin Hao hung up the phone straight after listening.

When he thought of Bob, he naturally couldn’t avoid thinking of Jenny, only to think of Jenny and Lin Hao shook his head again. He knew that the relationship between himself and Jenny would not be the same as before, and he understood that a young girl’s heart always carries spring, if Jenny was like a kind little sister, they might become good friends, but it seemed that it would not work, Bob would not agree .....

He didn't complain to Bob because Lin Hao was about to have a child of his own and if one day his daughter was as close to a married man as Jenny was at the moment, Lin Hao would probably go crazy .....

Underneath the Porter Group, Lin Hao, as a Chinese face, was very attractive to passersby. And because the Porter Group is working overtime tonight, resulting in many people in a very bad mood, after all, working overtime in the West is very, very unkind, the company has to pay them exorbitant overtime pay, otherwise if they report it, then they have to be fined and the boss has to be fined to death .....

'And I don't know why Bob an acting president is making us work overtime, is he crazy?' A tall woman with blonde hair and blue eyes with big waves said unhappily.

Beside her was a young man with gold-rimmed eye sockets glasses, about one meter eight, with a very sunny looking appearance, and his ride gave him a lot of points, a two million plus sports car, from which the blonde woman had stepped down.

The young man was the son of a listed public boss, and was worth two or three hundred million dollars, although his family's wealth did not reach the standard of nobility, so he was not yet an aristocrat.

'Xena, I've heard that the president of your company group has changed hands, and I wonder who the new president really is.' The young man Dominic inquired, while looking at the Polter Group's headquarters building, their family's group building was not as luxurious as the Polter Group's headquarters building, nor was it as good as this location, his heart was envious, but he did hear that the president of the Polter Group had changed hands, which was a big deal and had caused quite a stir in this area, after all, Polter was at least a nobleman, a nobleman ah .....

'I don't know.' Xena said with a shrug and a bad tone, she and Dominique had been having a candlelit dinner, but suddenly they got a call from the group saying that all the directors of the company had to return to work overtime and that they couldn't refuse!

Dominique couldn't help but be a little disappointed, he had wanted to ask Saina some details about the changes inside the Porte Group, hoping that from this he could get on the line of the new Porte Group president and then allow his family's group to grow at a faster pace. After being disappointed, his eyes glanced at Lin Hao and he asked curiously, 'Xena, is he from your company? I can't imagine there are Chinese people in your company, it's really international.' After all, this was a live Chinese, and he dared to come out at night... Aren't all Chinese people cowardly and scared monkeys? How could they be so bold? So he could only relate Lin Hao's night out to the Bolt Group calling a meeting.

Saina also looked at Lin Hao and realised that this Chinese man was really handsome, with a side face like a knife cut that simply struck Saina straight to the heart, it was just a pity that he was a Chinese. If only he was from Toulouse, she could have hooked up with this handsome man after working late tonight.

After looking at him for a long time, Xena couldn't move from Lin Hao. How can I put it, tonight's Lin Hao had dressed up carefully for the party, and the use of the rejuvenating medicine had already changed his body soon earlier, and under the already good value of his face, he was now even more handsome .....

'No.' Xena? Woody Aizen whisked Yi'er? came the perfunctory reply.

Dominic couldn't help but frown, damn it! His own lady friend had been attracted to a Chinese man, a Chinese monkey! How dare he stand on the streets of Toulouse and seduce a beautiful woman? See if he doesn't go ahead and punch him twice in the face and tell him that the night in Toulouse is dangerous and that monkeys like him who want to come down should not appear in the night market in Toulouse in the future.

Chapter 1172

Dominique walked straight up to Lin Hao and just scolded him, 'Hey, Chinese monkey. Don't you know that the night market in Toulouse is dangerous? Don't get attacked by members of the underground by then and then your consulate will start protesting again.' Dominique laughed out loud as I finished. The Chinese consulate protesting is a very ridiculous thing to do, but it's incredible to Dominique that they repeatedly don't get offended .....

'Oh, I forgot to tell you, some members of the underground in Toulouse don't like beautiful women, they like skinny, handsome men, and with a look like yours, they should really like it.' Dominique went on to provoke, and began the attack of his life.

Lin Hao stared at Dominique for a moment, not taking him to heart, looking at the distant streetlights as if he couldn't understand F-speak. The night in Toulouse was quiet, except for the lights, there were only a few drunks in the distance from time to time, sober people rarely walked in the streets, such a prosperous city was so depressed at night, making him, a Chinese, feel very uncomfortable, after all, inside the big economic cities of China, the night is the important time to drive the economy, and here, only after nine o'clock, it made it feel like an empty city .....

'It's a pity that I can't understand the F language.' Saina couldn't help but be disappointed, she had wanted to leave him a phone number and then ask him to wait for her to have a drink with her at a nearby bar after work, but now that she couldn't understand F, how was she supposed to hook up?

Looking at Xena's disappointed look as a result, Dominic scowled and cursed, slut!

'Hey, wah-wah, monkey!' Dominique pronounced in a few Chinese characters and pointed at Lin Hao, yelling.

‘Haha, the Chinese is a piece of shit, he can’t even speak the common F language all over the world. Xena, with a monkey like that, you’d move your heart, you really let me down! This is a Chinese, they are not even as good as monkeys, you really let me down!’ Dominic said in mockery as if he was venting. He had been chasing after Xena for a long time, and he had found a chance to have dinner together, and after this dinner, they would probably be able to fall in love together. It took a long time to just get it, and then she just took one look at a Chinese guy and kind of fell in love .....

Xena was said to ruffle a bit of blonde hair, the heart that was still a bit tempted directly disappeared, but with a reproachful tone retorted, ‘Dominic, I am a noble Toulouse blood, I so may casually have a relationship with a Chinese low race person.’

At this very moment, Bob and Night One’s car pulled up right in front of Lin Hao.

‘Who is so blind? Can’t you see we’re teaching this Chinese guy who looks like a mute a lesson?’ Dominique held back? The ground is dyed to flick the intention of Lu Ai Yi? couldn’t help but say with a grimace, secretly saying bad luck.

The more Xena's eyes rolled as she saw Bob inside the car!

Night One was a little angry and got out of the car after stopping, but Bob was slower to get out because he was older. Dominic was happy to see another Chinese, this Chinese was really bold, to dare to go out at night in a foreign country, were they not afraid of death? Even they themselves do not dare to go out so boldly at night, except to go to some bars with tight security and so on, other places really do not dare to go .....

'You Chinese monkeys are really bold, you think two people dare to travel at night in Toulouse, are you not afraid that the rats in the street will kill you? This is Toulouse, not your China! Do you know why you are safe at night in China? Because there are no street lights, so the criminals can't see the road, so they can't commit crimes!' Dominique sneered.

Night One was not Lin Hao, he was already furious, and now when he heard this man insulting his homeland, his eyes went icy cold, the coldness on his face erupted, and the next moment .....

Chapter 1173

‘You’re just looking for death!’ Night One roared, walking up just straight up and kicking him hard, a kick that took Dominic’s breath away straight away.

‘Big brother, are you alright.’ Night One turned to ask Lin Hao again, this damned gringo, how dare he scream in front of Big Brother, really if it wasn’t for Big Brother’s fear of striking out and killing him, I’m afraid he wouldn’t even let him taunt him.

He also knew why Lin Hao didn’t take much action against such people now, thinking that his power was not something such people could endure, he had come to F to take care of his wife’s business, how could he delay his trip for three or two losers? Big brother didn’t want to be harassed by ants, but he wasn’t afraid!

‘It’s alright.’ Lin Hao shook his head and thought to himself that it looked like he would have to ask Jelly and the others to arrange for some personnel to come around the Porter Group, there were some hidden security issues here, he didn’t want to have such minions coming to him every day from time to time in the future to cause trouble and thus delay him.

Dominic lay by his car for a long time breathing before a breath came up. He was now beyond furious that he had been kicked by a Chinese man! If word of this got out, it would be a disgrace to the whole of Toulouse! He was to be promoted to nobility, and as a nobleman of Toulouse, they all looked down on Chinese monkeys! If word got out that he had been beaten up by a Chinese monkey, and then the Chinese monkey left in peace, he would really not be able to hold up his head.

‘Wanna go!’ Dominic pulled out a gun from inside the car and pointed it at Lin Hao and Night One, shouting angrily.

‘Dominic! Don’t!’ Xena shouted hurriedly, she didn’t want this to happen at this juncture, this was shooting inside the city, it would always attract some people over.

‘Xena, get away from me, I’m going to teach these two fucking monkeys a lesson!’ Dominique pushed Xena away, the gun still pointed at Lin Hao, then he took out the phone and dialed? Wu Serving Fu Ai Serving Er Fu Dye? call number over and over again close to hissing, 'I'm going to get the Tobin's men to take them both and I'm going to make their lives worse than death!'

'What! Dominic, don't mess around!' Xena's face took on a shocked expression when she heard about Topone, that was Topone, the mighty Topone, their boss was a very powerful man, I heard he could even dodge a bullet from a gun! And there were hundreds of members under it.

'Huh.' Lin Hao couldn't help but sneer after hearing this, to think that he was looking for someone from Topang, didn't he know that Topang had already been wiped out by the people who were there? Even their boss had died under the fist .....

Night One was also happy, how dare he get his big brother's new little brother to beat up his big brother, don't say no, he was now looking forward to that kind of picture, he saw Lin Hao and found his big brother's expression was also playful, so he said, 'I don't care if you're Topang or Newbang, I'll let you call the people here!'

‘Arrogance!’ Dominic shouted.

Xena saw Night One like this and was disgusted in her heart, secretly saying that she dared to be a jerk in Toulouse because of her three-legged kung fu, at the same time looking at Lin Hao, thinking that it was a pity that this handsome face would be treated inhumanly when he entered the territory of the Tobon, perhaps, what a pity, she hadn’t tried the Chinese yet .....

A few seconds later, Dominique’s phone call came through.

‘Hello, is this Brother Beard? It’s Dominique, I’ve been beaten up by a Chinese guy who knows some kung fu at the Porter Group building, bring some men over.’

‘Money’s not a problem. And there’s a good-looking Chinese man in this one, I think someone in your area would like it.’

‘Really, this Chinese man is so good looking that even the white collar of the Porter Group wants a taste.’

The bearded man on the other end of the phone also licked his lips after hearing this, ‘Alright then, I’ll bring my men over right away, remember not to let them get away! Otherwise my men won’t let you go!’

‘Will do will do, they were cocky and said for me to call the men in.’ Dominic said as he looked at Night One.

After the call was made, Dominic looked at Night One and Lin Hao and sneered, ‘You’re finished!’ At the same time he walked around twice, shaking his head at Lin Hao the whole time,

‘Such a handsome looker, he’s sure to receive a lot of advances on his chrysanthemum tonight. A lot of big brothers in Toulouse don’t like ladies, they like men! Because here, homosexuality is legal!’

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1174-1176

Chapter 1174

Xena looked extremely sorry, such a handsome Chinese man, will soon be the feast of the TOB tonight, what an unacceptable fact, think of this scrawny body, I’m afraid he will die straight away tonight .....

‘Seriously, I will be watching from the sidelines when the time comes to see how you will be punished in an inhuman way!’ Dominic said to Lin Hao while looking back at Night One, he wasn’t going to let Night One go, ‘I’ll get this kick of yours back tenfold! Damn Chinese, I’ll stomp your face in and stomp it to pieces, so you’ll know that we Toulouse are not easy to bully!’

A few minutes later, a few black vans drove this way and Dominique got excited, ‘You’re finished!’

Lin Hao looked at the vans, and to his disappointment, Jelly and Townsend had arrived.

Jelly and Townsend who were in the car were shaking all over, damn Toulouse man, how dare he make trouble under Mr. Lin's group, wasn't he afraid of death? And this damned bearded man, he even said something about wanting to let their brothers vent their frustrations! Then Zheng Hao, let you damn Toulouse man dedicate your own asshole!

The bearded man had been through death tonight, and when he heard that Dominic was begging him to come out and do a job for a lot of money and a very good looking Chinese guy, he was overjoyed, after all, he had just come out of a ghost and then he had good prey sent to him, so he could just let off steam, but then, the other guy was his new big brother's big brother, and that? Yifu Yi Wu Xi Wu Zero Yi? The one who had wiped out their Toban chief! That was their god, and this damn Dominic had the audacity to offend and humiliate him, and deserved to die!

'Mr Jelly, Mr Townsend, the Porte Group is just up ahead, just past a street light.' The bearded man's voice was trembling, he was about to meet the real God off screen, a God in the guise of destruction and a God in the guise of death, and he himself had almost screamed in front of the God, his heart was beating out of his chest, he was even more furious now and wanted to cha-ching like Dominic!

‘Bearded man, you bloody contraption, wait and kneel properly before Mr. Lin and repent! If it weren’t for Mr. Lin, you’d be dead by now! He is a god, how dare you speak foul words to him, do you know what a sin it is to blaspheme God?’ Jelly roared in anger that was close to a roar, he was now very angry that someone had disrespected his god, and that it was one of his own men. He had to know that he, Jeli, had only just become a half-orc because of Lin Hao, and now it was only a small matter that he had almost failed to make, could he not be angry?

At the same time, he was glad that this bearded man had informed him before he went out to do his job, otherwise, he really didn’t know how to face Mr. Lin .....

‘I deserve to die! I’m the bastard! I will make that scumbag who offended God kneel before Him and repent, and I will also make him taste hell .....’ the bearded man was very annoyed and trembling at the same time, stammering and inquiring, ‘Will I...will God forgive me .....’ He despaired to himself at the end of the sentence.

‘It depends on your own performance, if you behave badly, even if God forgives you, I will not forgive you! Don’t you like being an animal? I’ll make you happy happy happy with livestock!’ Townsend roared.

The bearded man shuddered, his heart wicked with rage, and he was thinking that he would make sure this damned Dominic suffered before he received such an inhuman punishment! Otherwise it would be hard to quench his hatred.

Finally this street light passed.

Dominic was very excited, hating the arrival of the road without this section and then having the bearded man looking for it. He looked at Lin Hao and Night One's cloudy appearance and couldn't help but sneer, 'Still pretending to be calm at this time, you guys are really arrogant and ignorant!'

'It's over.' Saina said, shaking her head and pronouncing a death sentence.

The car came to a halt.

Dominic walked up, 'Brother Beard, that's them two, look at that Chinese guy, isn't he very good looking?' He was as proud as if he was taking credit, while staring at Lin Hao's eyes with all the playfulness .....

However, the next moment, the bearded man raised his head and grabbed the chair on the street and fell down hard on him .....

'Ah!'

Chapter 1175

'Ah, bearded man, you hit the wrong man, the wrong man!'

Dominic shouted clutching his head, it hurt too much, he felt like he was going to break a few ribs, this damned bearded man, as soon as this strife was over he would get him inside the sentence, he swore on his noble career!

'I didn't fight wrong, you damned scum, how dare you disrespect the gods, even if you seek death, how dare you take me with you! Damn it, damn it!' The bearded man hit harder and harder with more and more excitement, afraid of hitting lightly.

The anger in his heart was like the rage before the dawn? Wu Zha Dye closed I Shan Pao Wu? Dawn, step by step in the outbreak .....

Dominic, who was in the midst of being beaten, flinched, God? Where was their god? He knew that the gods of the nobles were in the church, and the bearded man's Topaz organization was also under the church, so their gods were also in the church? Was this Chinese man in front of him a member of the Church? But! The pride of the Church is even more solitary than that of the nobles, how could they possibly charge a Chinese? This is just a joke!

‘Brother Beard, they are Chinese, how can they be from the Church!’ Dominic inquired with a trembling voice.

‘Heh!’ The bearded man sneered and didn’t bother to explain, but looked at Jelly. This man had become a half-orc directly in front of them, and the person who made him a half-orc was the Chinese man in front of them, their god! At the same time this was even more godly than a god, okay? This was something he hadn’t seen in all his years in Tobin, something their previous bosses hadn’t been able to get, but the Chinese god had given it to them! Incredibly atmospheric, giving each and every one of them the light of hope! Wasn’t the whole point of following your big brother’s officers to get ahead? But he had been a member of the TOB for so many years, and then gradually learned that following the chief to work, it was the chief who was making a name for himself, and they, ah, were just responsible for selling their lives .....

And Jelly told them that if they followed the gods of China and did the organization’s business well, everyone could become an Orc in the future! That statement they half believed, but it greatly stimulated them and made their blood boil!

‘He is God!’ The bearded man slammed a chair down hard before he gasped, ‘Did you know that Tobin is gone! Now he’s the head of Topanga!’

‘What!’ Dominic was spitting blood from the beating, but after hearing these words, he fainted in shock straight away. He ..... had actually offended the big brother who had exterminated Topang? Wouldn’t he be looking for death?

After bearding the man, inside Xena’s disbelieving eyes, he knelt directly in front of Lin Hao, ‘God. Please spare my life, it’s all because this scum fooled me, if I were given a hundred more guts, I wouldn’t dare to disrespect God!’

Jelly and Townsend also got out of the car immediately afterwards and walked up to Lin Hao, kneeling down on one knee and saying incomparably blaming themselves, ‘Mr. Lin, it was negligence on our part in our dealings that made him almost strike at you, please punish Mr. Lian!’

Lin Hao waved his hand, 'All go back. This matter is all settled and finished, but teach your people to remember to show respect when they encounter Chinese people in the future.'

'I will, I will.' Jelly gasped out loud, and the bearded man even kowtowed on the ground in excitement.

Chapter 1176

The Chinese man who had destroyed the fearsome Topaz, who was he? Saina was incomparably curious and wanted to find out .....

At this time Bob came down from the car, Bob had mixed feelings about Lin Hao's destruction of Topang. He was still a bit scared at the time when he killed Ghost Nine, fearing that Topanga would take revenge afterwards, but what about it? Now that Topang had actually been directly exterminated by Lin Hao, didn't this guarantee their safety for future travels? Mr. Lin, you do this, let me an old man, how to appreciate ah, he shook his head, looking back in the direction of Jenny, his heart bitter beyond words .....

But after a moment of mixed emotions in his heart, Bob smiled bitterly, Tobin was solved, but ushered in an even greater enemy, that of X. It was then that he learned that the cyborg who died inside his former castle was the second leader of Organization X, the Dwarf Scorpion. He was also the one who had been responsible for the kidnapping of Jenny. ....

An underground organization with junior cyborg, even their big leader may even be an intermediate level cyborg existence, Bob almost fainted with fear after hearing this news at that time .....

‘Mr. Lin, thank you, once again, for solving a problem for me. I was worried before that the Ghost Nine of Deathtopia would be looking for me, but to my surprise you have already solved this trouble for me, I just don’t really know how to thank you, I owe you so much .....’ Bob said gratefully.

Lin Hao smiled, ‘No need to be grateful.’

Xena watched Bob's conversation with Lin Hao and her whole body was stunned again. She knew Bob, the acting president of their group, and she knew they had crossed paths when she saw Bob in a car with Night One earlier, but now hearing that the handsome Chinese man in front of her was there to solve the Tropic of Cancer for the sake of the acting president made her brain buzz .....

This acting president she also kind of knows something about, is a nobleman of Toulouse, the old aristocracy. The company's assets are not large, but it is an old aristocrat with a heritage of several hundred years, but I heard that a few days ago he gave away his castle, which caused a great deal of turmoil in the aristocratic circle at the time, and even made them, the commoners, curious as to who Bob had given that valuable and meaningful old building castle to .....

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. Of course, I've already solved half of X's troubles, and I'll deal with the remaining half in the time to come.'

What Lin Hao said was that he had solved half of it, instead of taking care of the X organisation tonight, that was because he hadn't found a chance to do so for Mohammad Katou, if he had found a chance to do so, he would definitely have destroyed the X organisation together.

‘What! I heard that they have intermediate level biochemicals in their organization!’

Bob’s whole body was shocked after hearing this, he felt he couldn’t believe what he heard.

‘Not enough to worry about, sooner or later I? I’ll take care of them. It will take care of them.’ Lin Hao waved his hand and said.

Chapter 1177

Xena felt like her whole being was going to be possessed as she listened next to him. This man was her real president, and he was going to wipe out Torbane? Even going so far as to wipe out Organization X as well? How could this man be so strong?

A Chinese man, having a nobleman help run a group? Moreover, the former president of the Porte Group, Porte, had just died and he had inherited a large number of shares in the group? Who the hell is he? And was Boldt related to him?

And what did he mean when he said that the church had come to review his assets? Did he get his hands on Boldt's assets by unscrupulous means? Is that why the church came to scrutinise him? It's over, it's over, it's really over!

'Let's go up, then.' Bob nodded, still shaken in his heart, one thing after another, all things he couldn't do, and things he feared, and then it was things like this that were such an understatement in Lin Hao's description .....

I have to say that Bob's mind was slowly changing, thinking that if Lin Hao was more or less single, he could have promised Jenny to him, after all, Jenny was in love and very attracted to Lin Hao, it was just a pity that ah, people married young .....

As for Saina, they simply ignored it .....

‘Xena, how do you you, it feels like you’re in sixes and sevens. Aren’t you dating Dominic? Is he not pursuing you anymore?’ Xena asked with concern after a female colleague saw her when she walked inside the staff lift.

Chyna then came out of her trance and looked to her left and right for a few moments before whispering, ‘Do you know where our president is from?’

Women are a gossipy species, and once they heard this, their eyes lit up, but at the same time they asked with some concern, ‘Xena, you didn’t offend the real president, did you? Is that why you were sulking just now?’

Xena shook her head with a mournful expression and said in a deep voice, ‘It’s even scarier than that.’

‘Huh ?’

The other people inside the lift gave a surprised cry. Saina’s voice was not very loud, but the lift space was so big that everyone could hear it, only some people who were not that close to Saina were not able to exit and join their chat, and Saina usually sounded arrogant, on account of her beauty, many people could not look at her, but many people in the company had the idea of pursuing her, but unfortunately, none of them had succeeded. Although we all know that Saina also listen to the waves, but Saina just do not like them, they West pick up closed pick up serve closed er love is also very difficult .....

Saina carefully glanced left and right and found that they were all executives of their own company, before speaking in a low voice, ‘I just heard our true president say that people from the church will be coming over soon. As you all know, the Church is a mysterious organisation that is in charge of all businesses. If any business disappoints or if there are serious irregularities, the Church will send someone to take the business away. And our company, the sudden change, so far no one knows exactly what happened, so I think .....’ said at the end Saina pause .....

What's going on here, Saina thinks they will know if they think about it a little .....

As luck would have it, the woman who had questioned Xena earlier exclaimed, 'Yes! I also think that there must be something untoward going on here. Porter may be a bad man, but with his stinginess and greed, how could he inherit his company to a Chinese? He is a proud aristocrat at heart! As far as I know, all aristocrats despise the Chinese very much.'

'Right! I've talked to a noble owner before, and they really hate Chinese people, and according to him, all the nobles hate Chinese people as their creed!'

After saying a few words, the whole lift was silent. How to say, the words are so clear, Polter so shrewd, certainly will not transfer his property to a Chinese, then that means, this Chinese people use some kind of means, hijacked Polter's company .....

And at this time Xena said, 'You may not know, just a moment ago Dominique invited the man from Torbont who was supposed to come over to clean up the president of our group, but when the other party came, he knelt down directly in front of our president, you are not seeing, that pleading look, humble look, where does it look like a gentleman from Toulouse. And he also said that he had destroyed Tobin! And also said a what X organization also extinguished half, and the last meaning is that he will extinguish the X organization all .....

'What! Isn't this just robbery by force? To be able to destroy the TOB, means he's strong enough, so Mr. Porter must be nothing before him! Hiss, this president of ours, it's dangerous. I'm suddenly feeling unwell now, can I take a leave of absence?' A man supervisor swallowed his saliva and said, he was a bit scared, in the surrounding of the Porter Group, Tobon is a very powerful existence, almost all the underground forces around are controlled by him, and it is because of Tobon that the night market over here is safer, then they dare to come over at night to work overtime, otherwise, even if they are given ten times the salary, they would not dare to come to the group so far away from home at night .....

'Taking time off? Come are come, you now this time to go back, I'm afraid is directly dead, but I know that the Tobin's will let people zero cover ground Lu Serving ground Lu Shan suddenly disappeared .....

'It's over, it's over.' Someone couldn't help but shout.

Every one of them had despair on their faces, and when the lift stopped, every one of them had a sullen and bitter face, and then returned to their work stations, and were asked again by the side at the same time, and they copied Xena's words again, and it didn't take much time for the whole company to fall into panic.

And as Lin Hao, the president, was rendered a murderous demon, and their Porte Group would never exist again after the next church members arrived, everyone was worried and scared again. And the Polter Group's demise seemed to be the only way for them to save themselves .....

Bob led Lin Hao on a tour of his group. Lin Hao saw fear inside each and every person's eyes, which made him frown, saying that when this group of people faced him, weren't they all contemptuous and cold-eyed to look down on him? Why were they all afraid now? It was as if they were afraid of something, which made Lin Hao extremely puzzled.

Even Bob wondered what was wrong with this group of people. Why did they keep fearing Mr. Lin, did they know Mr. Lin before? Bob scratched his head, so did Night One, but didn't stop them from continuing the tour.

'Every department head give me a tally of their department's financial reports, immediately the church members will come over, they will audit it all directly then, once the audit is completed, Mr. Lin will become a noble of Chinese nationality directly ever! This is an honour for your Bolt Group, you will become a special presence, and when the time comes you will rejoice to your heart's content.' Bob said in a high voice, only his words did not stimulate such a group of people, but made the group's hearts sink even deeper and depressing, thinking that at this time you are still saying such self-deceiving words, you have teamed up to kill Bolt and swallow Bolt's family fortune, and when the church people arrive later, they will surely take you all away! You bunch of murderous demons. Even some of those who knew Bob before, shook their heads, really knew people, they used to think that Bob was a good old man and a very good friend to Poulter, but what? Now he has joined forces with an outsider, killed Poulter, swallowed his family's money and is now strutting his stuff in Poulter's company, a disgrace, a disgrace to the pride of the Toulouse people!

Seeing that they were still sullen, but they had already started to do the work at hand, Bob did not say anything else, after all, it was not the time for them to ask such questions, all they had to do now was to wait for the church's auditor to arrive, and to be honest, Bob was still a bit excited.

Lin Hao looked at them, did not care too much about their expression of emotions, the Porter Group eventually no matter what kind of development it becomes, if he is not in Western Europe, these will be merged into Lin's new investment, which will send professional managers to take care of, he does not have time to build up in business, what he wants to do is to accompany Shen Xiyao slowly grow old, and then accompany the child he is about to give birth to grow up .....

The first time I heard that the president of the Porter Group changed hands and became a Chinese.'

'I know, the church said above that all they want us to do is to come over and audit the Porter Group's assets to see if they have changed, and if not, have them included in the dues.'

'So, how much to include?' The taller, middle-aged man asked.

They both paused at this point in the conversation and then looked at each other with a smile, their minds unspoken in the intrigue .....

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1179-1180

Chapter 1179

‘Henry. As a Toulouse person the entry fee guidelines are generally incorporated into the membership fee for five years, and those outside Toulouse pay the entry fee for how many years depending on whether they are F nationals or not. But this Chinese guy, how much would you say you have to pay?’

Henry was the tall middle-aged man with a sneer at the corner of his mouth, ‘The maximum is ten years, he must be ten years this is what we have said between us all along the way, this is not likely to change. As for how much tax he pays, it depends on how he behaves. And Denny, you should not be kind-hearted and merciful when the time comes, he is a Chinese, we screw him, he dare not complain! You have to know that the people who handled the membership of the Jiashi Group before, they were paid very high from it, so, Denny, think about it, you are about to retire, if you get a fortune from this side, what will become of all your life in the future!’

The middle-aged man named Denny trembled after hearing these words, he had been foolish before, and after hearing about the Jia Shi incident, he had even made up his mind that he had to make a fortune out of Lin Hao, a Chinese.

How can I put it, the market value of the Jiashi Group was 8 billion Euros, and according to the rules and guidelines of the Church's membership, it was only necessary to pay 800 million, but the Jiashi Group paid 1.2 billion, of which 400 million was swallowed by the person who processed the membership for the Jiashi Group. That's a very visual 400 million, and the thought that he would have gotten an amount of one or two hundred million made Denis's whole person excited.

Bullying local groups in Toulouse, they could only stint and get a little filial respect from each other. But bullying those outside Toulouse, they were lionizing .....

'Henry, this is a big fat piece of meat, don't you drop the ball. Hm.' After saying that, Henry also couldn't help but hum.

Hearing Denny's words, Henry laughed outright. This journey to Denny to do thought work, but the other party are hesitant, and did not directly open the mouth to say yes, but now the proverbial door, he agreed, and up that greedy look, let him look very pleased, this journey has not been in vain, the heart is also secretly scolded Denny is a hypocritical gentleman .....

The duo's wolfish look was shameful, but it didn't burden their hearts one bit because it was the Chinese people they were victimizing .....

'Mr. Lin, everything is done, do you want to go through it.' Bob handed the financial statement to Lin Hao, who thanked him and said, 'Thank you Mr. Bob, I won't need to look at it, I can trust you with your help.'

Lin Hao looked up to say thank you when he saw Night One nodding in affirmation, so he didn't bother turning it over again.

Night One walked over to Lin Hao's desk and said to him, 'Brother, the church censors and the others are here.'

‘Finally, they’re here.’ Lin Hao excitedly stood up from his seat.

A few minutes later.

Denis and Henry arrived at the office building of the Polter Group’s top brass, and when they walked in, the distinct and unmistakable church uniforms brought a hint of psychological pressure to each of the top brass, and they looked at Denis and Henry with reverent gazes, and although Denis and Henry both often felt such gazes, they still enjoyed this moment, with faces full of solitude, like the church pope’s missionaries, that proud .....

Once the two of them left, all the people inside the office smelled over Xena’s workstation.

‘Xena, do you think this is the end of our group!’ This is an incomparable relaxed voice, the tone of voice also carries the excitement shade dye Lu Shan Yi Shan Lu move tone. How can I put it, just now, finishing the financial statement, they all had a breath of relief in their hearts, because they were all in fear, now that the Church’s people had come, they were protected, could they not be relieved?

Chapter 1180

Xena scanned Polter, a complex look inside her eyes, one of loss and reluctance, but more of relaxation. ‘When the Church comes, we’ll be safe. It’s just that we’ve been fighting for so many years, and this is suddenly gone, and I don’t know if we’ll ever see each other again, and to be honest, I’m quite sad to see you all go.’

‘Haha, Xena. If we live, we’ll see each other again, and I don’t want us to meet in heaven later.’

‘Oh, just you can still get into heaven. God will beat you into hell, damn bastard.’

‘Hahahaha~~~’ There was a joke .....

It was a peaceful scene, with relaxed, natural, smiling faces in front of everyone .....

Inside the office, Denny and Henry pushed their way in and saw Bob, and then Lin Hao and Night One, two Chinese people.

They naturally knew Bob, an old aristocrat whose family had existed for hundreds of years, but was now in decline, and according to the information they knew, after Bob had lost Castle Gelfant, one of the heads of the church proposed to remove Bob's title of aristocrat, and this proposal, surprisingly, was unanimously agreed to by all the heads of the church.

Of course that's not what they were worried about .....

Bob was put off by these two eyes, face has been written full of displeasure, secretly said that these two people have no aristocratic education, of course, only in the heart of the complaint, and did not say out.

‘You are the new president of the Porte Group, and I have heard that many nobles have jointly suggested that the Church should vet you to see if you can be inducted and can become a nobleman. Now we have come with the supreme honour of the Church, and here you tell us whether you are hiding something about your assets, whether your assets are above five billion, and whether you are willing to give at least ten per cent of your total assets again for the initiation fee?’ Denny asked with his lofty head raised, this voice was cold, without a trace of emotion, and even within his eyes, there was a slight look of contempt.

Lin Hao smiled and said, ‘All the assets are here, you can see for yourselves.’

‘What? And let us see for ourselves?’ Henry heard these words like a spark of gunpowder being set off.

This caused Lin Hao and Night One and Bob to look at each other, very confused as to why this man was suddenly angry? His own financial statements were all here, he could see them when he opened them, and how would he know if he was hiding anything without looking at them, such sudden anger was indeed baffling.

‘Won’t you turn it over? And have we travelled a long way here without even a chair and a glass of wine to quench our thirst? And you’re a nobleman like that? Wah Wah, that’s ridiculous!’ Deni asked several questions in a row, and then even rose to a life attack, which made Night One very annoyed, but thinking that this was the opportunity his big brother had found so easily, he could only bear the anger.

‘I’m just moving chairs and pouring red wine for you guys.’ Night One said with a smile on his face.

Henry sneered and said, ‘The Chinese are really stupid. Can’t he give up the seat he’s sitting in?’ He said and pointed at Lin Hao’s seat.

This time, the whole room's atmosphere was a little colder .....
