

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1181-1190

Chapter 1181

The night one was instantly full of anger value.

However, Lin Hao stood up, more than the matter of saving Shen Xiyan, he still thought through, this bit of suffering, he could endure.

‘Please.’ Lin Hao said with a smile.

Henry sneered and said to Night One, who was full of anger just now, ‘Look at him, he Xi Lu Lu Servant Closed Servant Dyeing Yi sees more clearly than you do. And I don’t know how you, a person who is not the rightful owner, dare to disrespect me, if not for this gentleman’s decent appearance, I would not have let you go. Go on, bring us another chair over.’

Henry then began to order Night One. When Night One saw that his elder brother Lin Hao was just holding back, he had to grit his teeth and went to the other side to break off a chair and bring it over.

Before Night One could put the chair down, Denny just sat down on his butt and directly stretched Night One's waist hard, if it wasn't for the fact that Night One was a trained warrior, I'm afraid that this one hard straight stretch could really pull him straight to the ground, and he would even have to suffer a very serious injury

Lin Hao looked at it in his eyes.

He sort of knew that these two were coming over to deliberately make things difficult for him, but now that they were all on the brink, he had to endure even if he couldn't.

‘Bring over the financial statement so we can go through it.’ Denny said, excluding his condescending attitude and instructing Lin Hao.

Where would Night One let his big brother do such a thing, so he hurried up to him. However before he could lay his hands on him, Deni was just shaking with rage, ‘Did I tell you to do it? I told him to do it, are you so brain-dead and blind that you can’t see that I said that to is him? Low-class Chinese monkey! Sure enough, you are brain-dead.’

With anger contained in his heart, Night One slowly stepped backwards as Lin Hao’s eyes gestured. Lin Hao personally handed up the financial statement.

‘Sir, please look through them.’

Deni took the two financial statements, and only then did he nod in satisfaction.

Henry looked at Deni's flaunting, and the big stone of worry in his heart was put down. He even said in his heart, 'I can't believe that Denny is much more imposing than himself when he instructs people, and then he looked at this Chinese man, listening to their orders, taking care of everything, without any displeasure. Chinese people, indeed, are inferior people

It was simple spite, and the two men were just giving Lin Hao a piece of their mind, and not going to keep making a fuss about it.

After going over the financial statement, the two men looked at each other and both nodded their heads.

Lin Hao looked here, and the already steady boulder in his heart was even steadier.

Henry put down the financial statement and coughed. As if hearing a signal, Denis smiled and said, 'In Toulouse, it is still unprecedented to go from a Chinese to a nobleman to say the truth. Even the not-so-small Kashi nowadays, back then they were F nationality people, and you, a Chinese national. Originally, according to the Church's agreement, you would never have been allowed to become a noble of your lowly Chinese nationality and join the Church. But well, seeing that you sincerely want to join us, we will have to reluctantly accept your begging.'

Deni's words kept on belittling the Chinese. As Night One listened, his heart was on fire and he wanted to strike out on the spot, but looking at Lin Hao's back as he stood, he could only grit his teeth and bear it. He knew his big brother would definitely not be able to bear such anger, and this situation today must be because his big brother was gritting his teeth and holding back because of his wife's affairs

'But well. As you know, the entry fee for people outside of Toulouse will be higher than the entry fee for Toulouse locals. And the initiation fee for people outside of F nationality is higher than that of F nationality. And the conditions here will be even more onerous for you to join as a Chinese, and I wonder if you are ready to accept this onerous condition?' Denny said as he handed the conditions in step after step.

After hearing this, it dawned on Lin Hao that these two people seemed to be trying to make a fortune out of him. If Lin Hao hadn't taken over most of the territory of the Topan Organisation and most of the territory of the X Organisation, he would have been blackmailed by these two men, but now, not really!

I thought these two would bring some kind of problem, but it turned out that what they wanted was just this simple. Lin Hao even sighed, 'Wouldn't it have been better to tell you earlier? If you came here and said you wanted money directly, Lin Hao might have given it to him directly, but to beat around the bush like this and to mock and slander and insult him is another matter

'I wonder what kind of a condition it is?' Lin Hao asked, still in a conciliatory manner.

Deni frowned at once, he had made himself so clear, where was the cleverness he had just shown? Why was it gone? It's true that Chinese people are stupid and unteachable!

‘When Kashi joined the club, they paid an extra 400 million euros for being F nationals. You guys, you’re only paying 400 million more.’ Denis blurted out.

How to say it, the two of them negotiated on the lift is the number of two or three hundred million, after all, say more they are afraid that Lin Hao does not agree, how to say it, Lin Hao’s assets are not very big, only about five billion, collected a tenth is five hundred million, now take another four hundred million, are about to become a fifth. Only because Lin Hao’s attitude before was too groveling, making him think it was good to bully, so he directly lionized

Henry, who was sitting on the side, almost spewed out a mouthful of red wine straight away when he heard it. Denis dared to be straightforward with this amount, and to be honest it all scared him. But looking at such a bold Denis, Henry slowly began to enjoy the wine. Wouldn’t it be nice to think that he would soon have 200 million in his pocket? He was so pleased with himself.

Has the fox’s tail finally emerged? Four hundred million at the beginning? It’s really a bloodbath, just as he, Lin Hao, is fish meat on the chopping board

‘I did ask Bastian and Finkin-Gate about the fine process of their membership at the previous banquet. I didn’t hear anything about charging extra money, I wonder if the extra four hundred million belongs to the church to collect, or to individuals?’ Lin Hao asked rhetorically with a cold gaze.

Denny was looking at Lin Hao smugly, when he suddenly heard Lin Hao’s sharp rhetorical question, he sat up straight, especially when he saw the way Henry looked at him watching the show, he felt shameless, feeling humiliated by a Chinese, and approached to roar, ‘If I tell you to pay, you pay. Why are you asking so many questions? Don’t you want to get in? If you don’t want to get in, don’t hold us up. Henry, let’s go.’ After saying that, Denis got up.

This Lin Hao would not let them go straight away, after all, he had not been initiated yet, and from Henry’s expression he saw the struggle as well as the sudden fear of what had happened

He knew that Henry was afraid not of him, but of the church.

He actually wondered a little why the closer he got to the church the more he was afraid of its existence. Nor did he know why the prestige of this church was so high among the people, especially within the biochemicals, which were simply god-like.

Watching Deni get up, Henry just had to grit his teeth and follow, telling himself, 'Just a few steps with this Deni. If the other guy really doesn't stay, I'll just say that Deni took the liberty of adding these conditions. That way, I can also report to the church that it was Denis who had the problem and not myself. The church can't know about this, or I'll be in trouble too. Damn Henry, to have pissed off this simple-minded Chinese!'

Deni who had already thought that she had eaten Lin Hao to death suddenly felt at this moment as if this Chinese man was a terrifying powerhouse who had penetrated their thinking, but of course she consoled herself in her mind that it was all the terrifying pressure given to them by the Pope and not the damned Chinese man

They were ordered to come over to handle Lin Hao's initiation, not to come over and not do anything If they couldn't do it, they would have to be punished by the Church, it just made him wonder why suddenly Lin Hao's demeanor changed so much ‘Denny, do you really want to go? Aren’t you afraid of the Church!’ Henry asked Deni in a low voice as the two of them walked out the door of the meeting room.

Deni had started to panic straight away, he couldn’t imagine that Lin Hao had not even the slightest intention to stay, seeing as they were about to walk out of the meeting room. How was Denny’s fear ever not his fear?

‘He should not let us go, before we deliberately make things difficult for him, he has put up with it, at this time I am afraid that he is going to fight a protracted war with us, the big deal is that we will give up the profit then, or not to pay extra fees.’ Desan whisked the ground Aisan Ani to answer in a low voice.

Chapter 1183

Hearing this from Denis, Henry was relieved. On the contrary, when he heard that there was no extra cost, Henry felt uncomfortable again, this no cost? Wouldn’t they be mocked to death when they would arrive at the church and be asked by the other colleagues how the situation was, and they would say in a dusty voice that they hadn’t gotten anything extra?

The thought of it made Henry's mind wicked, and he thought what an old wanker Henry was.

Just as the two of them were pondering, Lin Hao shouted with a smile, 'Two. You should still join the club, so don't be in a hurry to leave.'

The two were struggling with when to turn back when they heard Lin Hao's voice and instantly looked at each other with surprise all over it, and room to spare!

The duo walked into the conference room with their butts in the air, still strutting around, still as arrogant as before. Indeed do not know that just at the entrance of the conference room that shifted pace of the wretched appearance has let Lin Hao night a Bob three people see clearly

There are countless pairs of eyes watching outside the conference room door, the image of Henry slamming the door and coming out just now shook the heart of every one of them.

‘It’s getting loud, it’s getting loud! It’s over, all the previous speculations have been confirmed! We’re really finished.’ Someone shouted in despair, in fact he was still reluctant to believe what Saina said before, but the image of seeing two church people slamming the door and then their own president begging them to go in, such an image struck deep into his self-confidence

Xena was not a desperate face, she raised her head and looked around, found everyone was disappointed look, finished, the last glimmer of happiness at the bottom of her heart is gone

Inside the meeting room.

‘The two of you were a little harsh in your offer earlier. When I was waiting for the two of you to arrive, but I had sought advice from many people, saying that only ten percent of the initiation fee would be charged for membership, and that it would be a ten-year amount. And they told me that if one wanted to join the club directly, it was also possible.’ Lin Hao said.

Denny listened to what Lin Hao had said earlier thinking that this man turned out to be a hard-headed person who knew everything. Henry was thinking the same thing. But after the two heard the words that followed, they couldn’t help but look at each other and then both shook their heads, they hadn’t heard of any request for direct membership.

How to say it, here Lu Yi zero Wu Fuyan pick up dye face vacant five to ten years, is not to allow the church to better verify each other, leaving a margin of error.

Seeing that both people are shaking their heads, Lin Hao sneered and then said, ‘Two conditions to join the church. One is to be a wealthy man with a value of over five billion dollars, and the other is the territory occupied by the underground world as well as the power, and coincidentally, both of my conditions have met the requirements for membership.’

‘What, that’s impossible! The territory of the Toulouse Underworld is clearly demarcated, and you, a Chinese, cannot possibly be involved.’ Henry shouted as he heard this and stood up straight away.

Outside the door, Xena’s body trembled slightly after hearing these words, as if she remembered something.

Before she had entered the group’s building, Dominic had a grudge incident with Lin Hao, and within this incident he seemed to have heard that Topaz had been destroyed by him and that he had destroyed half of the X Organization. She didn’t know about Organisation X, but the mighty Topanga she did know about. And Dominique was confident enough to say that she had brought in one of Topang’s junior leaders to teach this Chinese a lesson, but how did it end? After the Topanga man came, he knelt directly in front of Lin Hao’s heels, that kowtowed and begged, Lin Hao didn’t even give him a second look

And the shocked reaction of the church auditors in the conference room just now made her suddenly remember the words, that is to say, the president of her own family is very powerful?

Then what did the church auditor come over for? Could it be, a Chinese person, an audit before being promoted to nobility? This, how could it be?

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1184-1186

Chapter 1184

How could a Chinese, how could he become a nobleman of Toulouse!

She had previously thought that the group was going to be lost because of her preconceptions about Lin Hao's Chinese identity, and now she was running to these it seemed that it was her own thinking that was going in the wrong direction!

'Xena, what's wrong with you? Xena, what's wrong with you?' The female colleague closest to Xena shook Xena's arm fiercely, Xena's reaction just now had stunned them all.

After being shaken back to her senses, Xena swallowed and took an even deeper breath before saying slowly, 'We may have thought wrong.'

‘What’s wrong with that? What the hell is going on? Xena, why are you being so paranoid? You’re the one who said the group was going to die, and now you’re the one who’s wrong? What is going on?’ Someone asked anxiously, how could they not be anxious when it was their future at stake?

Xena gritted her teeth and said, ‘I don’t know if I said it before, the president of our group extinguished the Tobon

‘Said ah, what’s wrong with that?’ Another person asked anxiously.

Xena continued, ‘Didn’t you hear the sound coming from inside the conference room just now? The church was in shock

‘There’s nothing impossible about it.’ Lin Hao shook his head and lost his smile and said, it was good that he had asked clearly before, otherwise it would have really taken him some more time.

Henry and Denny did not take up the conversation, but looked at Lin Hao, with the intention of signaling Lin Hao to continue on.

Lin Hao leaned on the window sill and looked at Henry and Denis, it seems that the status of these two people in the church is not as high as he thought, perhaps just a small person who came over to the errand staff, and has no real power

‘After William Young’s meeting was over. the X group fought a firefight with the Torpentine group, then Zeus joined in, they fought fiercely, and I sent my men to put an end to the firefight right at the last minute. And I sent my men to take all the territory that was previously owned by the Topanga, and the area that was owned by the X Organisation in that area. As for Topanga and the leaders of the other two organisations, they have all been killed there in the ruins of No. 5. I don’t know if you have received any news, but I think the Church must have news of such a big announcement. Perhaps the Church has already sent people over to look for the boss of this emerging force?’ Lin Hao said as he narrated.

By the time Lin Hao had finished, Deni's eyes were already round with Henry, who had heard about this incident. And just as Lin Hao had guessed, the rendezvous had dispatched personnel to go over and check directly, as long as the other party was real, then he would be inducted.

The two men who heard about the incident at the time, Denis and Henry, were stunned. The mighty Topanga, ah, the mighty Topanga. Of course Tobon himself was not that strong in the face of the leaders sent out by the other two organizations.

That prisoner Ince was the strongest of them all. An up-and-coming junior cyborg who was noticed by the Church and then simply destroyed. And there were three junior cyborgs and eight Orcs in the group that was exterminated. Such a large group could not say how much Toulouse could be destroyed, but occupying one side, it must be a group that can be compared to the general strength of the X group, and then it was directly exterminated.

Moreover, the person who exterminated them was the Chinese in front of them?

Would they believe it?

Very reluctant to believe, just looking at Lin Hao's convinced look, Henry and Denny two people drummed in their hearts, not knowing if they could believe

Lin Hao looked at the two of them with struggling expressions and also smiled, just at this time, Lin Hao's mobile phone rang, and Denis and Henry's own mobile phone also rang.

The three of them looked at each other, Lin Hao was relaxed beyond belief, but Denis and Henry were already panicking in their hearts

Chapter 1185

Lin Hao's call came from Jelly.

‘Mr. Lin, there are officers from the church over here to review our sphere of influence as well as confirm our power. However, as you know, I am one of your men, so I can only bring them up to the Bolt Group to look for you later, I wonder if this will disturb you?’ Listening to Jelly’s words, feeling Jelly’s respectful tone, as well as the two men panting heavily next to him.

Lin Hao replied, ‘You bring them up, but don’t take the lift, the way you look now, you can’t let me pickpocket the employees of the Lu Closed Whisker Serving Yi Yi Group, I’m afraid it will be disturbing to them.’

‘Okay, I’ll take them up the stairs.’ Jelly replied.

He couldn't fly directly yet, and the building of the Porter Group of companies was also very high, he couldn't jump up in one leap, and even more so he couldn't climb with people, so he had to take them up the stairs with him. Nowadays it's stairs for him, not let's say level ground, whether it's dozens of floors, or hundreds of floors, he can fly as fast as he can, and he can reach his destination very quickly

'Henry, we will soon be at the meeting room of the headquarters of the Porter Group of companies, you two give me good hospitality to the other president, he is a big man.'

After saying the conversation, he just hung up.

Then Henry's head kept echoing inside that he was a big shot? A big shot? Why would that be the case?

Even if the Lin Hao in front of him was directly promoted to nobility, he would still be considered a newly promoted noble at most, but to directly say that he was a big shot was a bit too much for him to accept, after all, after so many years in the church, how many big shots were there in the whole of Toulouse? How many big shots are there in Toulouse? What about the top ones? Apart from a few, who were the rest of the big shots?

They are all intermediate and high level cyborgs, and the junior cyborgs are just that.

If it is true that the words coming out of his phone are a big shot, it means that he is a Chinese who is at least an intermediate level biochemist in strength? But he's not a cyborg, right? There was no sign of mutation at all, so he could conclude that he was not a cyborg. How could a Chinese who was not a cyborg be a big shot? There were so many contradictions here that Henry really didn't want to believe it

But the person he spoke to on the phone was also someone who had been engaged in vetting missions inside the church for many years, and would definitely not be exaggerating, so what was the hidden existence here?

Henry looked at Lin Hao and found that Lin Hao was looking out of the window. At this moment, looking again at the back of this Chinese man, she suddenly felt so magnificent, so untouchable. She was beginning to regret it in her heart, and at the same time was glad that none of the bad guys had done it themselves, and that the threats had not been made by her, they had all been said and done by Denny.

This is great news

As for Denny too, he naturally received the news that came from inside the phone.

At that moment, he was sweating profusely, his heart started thumping, and he just felt like he was finished, finished.

He had just offended a big man for a big man, himself as a small man within the church, so wouldn't he be punished by the church?

And still threatening him and wanting to charge extra, this would be the end of him if word got back to the church.

He hissed in his mind what to do, what to do. He looked over at Henry and found that Henry was also looking hard, but obviously not as hard as he was.

Thinking about the incident earlier, it seemed like all the words had come out of his mouth and Henry hadn't. Damn this Henry, putting himself out as a scapegoat again, damn it. Damn it, why did he listen to him himself

Chapter 1186

A few minutes later, two more men in church robes were sandwiched by a man who stormed straight into the conference room. The security guards of the Porter Group of companies rushed inside in fear, except that they were nowhere near as fast as Jelly was. The security guards of the Porter Group of companies rushed inside in fear, but they were no faster than Jerry, and once he had entered the conference room, he closed the door behind him.

A few of the security guards were so scared that their heads were spinning, what was this? How could there be such a man terrorist, barging right into someone's company in front of all the people, wasn't that too arrogant?

Only when they got to the door of the conference room, Night One was already standing outside the door, 'The person just now is a distinguished guest invited by the president, you don't have to worry about any chaos. Just go down and do your own thing.'

A few security guards looked at you, and finally the head security guard nodded, and then led the men down.

The two new church auditors stared at Lin Hao for a few moments before respectfully shouting, 'As expected of Mr. Lin, Fuzzy Closed Zero Love Cover Zero Fuzzy is handsome and young.'

The two men patted their horses' backs, in stark contrast to the condescending posture of Deni and Henry when they both arrived.

'Mr. Lin.' Jelly saluted respectfully and then stood aside without speaking, Deni and Henry looked at the man and could see that he had just been promoted to Orc. It was only natural that they would be most familiar with such an aura and such a look.

After all, the Church had given the crystals of biotics and they could not be clear about their effects.

'I wonder what the two of you want?' Lin Hao's name advisor asked.

‘Naturally, we came over to congratulate Mr. Lin on becoming a newly promoted noble in Toulouse. Because Mr. Lin’s assets have already exceeded five billion, and now he owns such a large underground organisation as mine. It is more than enough for him to become a new nobleman. Only the details of it, we need to discuss’ said the leader, a blue-eyed Toulouse man, the details of which were naturally about money.

Lin Hao nodded and said he was satisfied, but well, he was puzzled and asked, ‘I just don’t know how much I need to pay for the entrance fee.’

When Lin Hao said this, the bodies of Denis and Henry beside him began to tremble violently

The blue-eyed Toulouse man naturally felt his colleague’s violently trembling body, and knew that these two wanted to punk this Chinese man. To be honest, in this business, they have been known to screw people over, but the target of the screwing varies from one size to another.

Take the most famous incident, the Jiashi incident, which cost several hundred million dollars. When they heard it at the time, they were very envious of the two church censors who had gone out to the Kashii group at the time. He thought that perhaps Denis and Henry were like another replica of the Kiasi incident, only without thinking that this Chinese man in front of him, was very powerful!

‘Mr Lin, you just pay at ten per cent.’

‘I thought I had to pay more.’ Lin Hao sneered, then turned to the shivering Deni and Henry, ‘Just now these two were arrogant, saying that they wouldn’t let me enter the church unless I paid an extra four hundred million. I was wondering what kind of rule this was, but it turned out that it was just their own rule. This gentleman, I wonder if there is any compensation for me when such an incident happens? After all, these two men could have done a lot of damage to my spirit.’

‘What, these two people actually inflicted harm on Mr. Lin, they are simply looking for death! Mr. Lin, you only have to ask and I will kill them both!’ Jelly was in a manic mood at this time, not particularly rational, this was the aftermath of his recent promotion to half-orc, it would ease up after a while.

Deni and Henry hastily hid behind the blue-eyed Toulouse man in fear.

‘Mr. Lin, they will be punished.’ The blue-eyed Toulouse church censor said with a smile, saying nothing about the punishment.

‘What do you mean by that? Is that the spiritual damage our chief received, as if it had not happened? Are you looking down on us? Do you know that we are the rear leader even more than’

‘Alright!’ Lin Hao shouted lowly. He knew what Jelly was going to say, and by interrupting him, Lin Hao didn’t want too much of his information to be revealed all over. Entering the church was just the beginning, but it was also a step from zero to one, and now that he had stepped on it, then it meant that he was infinitely close to finding out how to save Shen Xiyan, and at this juncture, Lin Hao would not let him have an accident.

He had endured all of Denis and Henry's difficulties just now, but he couldn't stand the other party's difficulties again?

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1187-1188

Chapter 1187

Lin Hao interrupted Jelly, who naturally did not dare to speak, but only looked at Denis and Henry with malicious eyes. Lin Hao continued, 'I want to join the church straight away. Before I came I heard Bastian talking to Finkin Gatt and William Yang that if one has relative assets and also a large underground power organisation, one can pass the church directly and it doesn't take ten years of tax time

The blue-eyed Toulouse man rubbed his nose and, after gritting his teeth and struggling a bit, smiled and nodded. He felt that this Chinese man had come prepared, otherwise how could he have had everything ready. Of course none of this was his business to worry about

The fact that he is now a Toulouse nobleman of Chinese nationality, but in the face of the huge noble community, already the entire people of the Toulouse Church, he did not think this Chinese man could turn out much of a wave, the nobility of Toulouse, has always looked down on the Orientals as a basic etiquette, this is still a Chinese national Chinese man, there and how can live in Toulouse in style?

That's why he was harbouring Denis and Henri, you foreigner, don't you know how to restrain yourself? The nobles of Toulouse will surely teach you a lesson later on if you show your face like this! When the time comes, all they have to do is watch the good show. As for the talk of Finkin Gatebastian and the like, he would just listen and laugh. There were plenty of people who knew Finkin Gatebastian, and you couldn't say that because you had a word with him, you were a great man, could you? If that were the case, it would be ludicrous. He had spoken to the Pope at the same level, so wouldn't he be in the Pope's position of power? Of course he would not express such a thought

'Thanks a lot then.' Lin Hao didn't put much thought into this man's performance. Rather, it was Bob on the side who stared at this man for a long time.

They presented the corresponding certificates as well as documents to Lin Hao, provided of course that Lin Hao had paid the money directly into the other person's account. The four of them withdrew directly after issuing the certificates of documents, without even congratulating them, and of course Lin Hao did not want

‘After working so hard for so long, I am finally a so-called aristocrat. Where in this world is there any aristocracy or not? People are all the same people, some people just like to deceive themselves and others. The backward civilization is perhaps so’ Lin Hao took the certificate and papers and waved them gently, not with the joy he imagined, but just with a much lighter heart, this good news, he would share with Shen Xiyan, of course not saying that he had contacted the way for her on how to cure his brain field injury. It would just say that he had become a noble of Toulouse

‘Mr. Lin Hao, that blue-eyed churchman just now he is a small head of a not-so-low position named Emil. The ones in charge are nobles of middle rank and above.’ Bob couldn’t help but mention it only after seeing Lin Hao finish his exclamation.

Lin Hao twisted his head with a cold smile on the corner of his mouth, a small headman only.

When he saw Lin Hao’s sneer, Bob hurriedly said, ‘I don’t think you should offend the ground guard Shade Wu Shan Zero who is in love with him. He has a lot of power in his hands, and if you offend him, it will be difficult for you to move forward in Toulouse in the future.’

Faced with Bob's heartfelt admonition, Lin Hao was quite grateful, 'Thank you Mr Bob for your concern, as long as he doesn't come over to obstruct me, I don't really take them to heart. As you know, I have achieved my goal and am very happy now.'

'Congratulations to Mr. Lin for finally becoming a nobleman. I thought it would take at least a few years for Mr. Lin to become a nobleman in Toulouse, but it only took less than half a month, which is unbelievable. If I hadn't seen it with my own eyes, I wouldn't have believed it if someone else had told me.' Bob said.

'Haha.' Lin Hao laughed at this and then walked up to Bob's side, 'Mr. Bob. I will be hosting a celebration party in three days, I hope you will be there then, you deserve a lot of credit for me becoming a noble of Toulouse.'

‘Be there, definitely.’ Bob agreed cheerfully, he glanced out of the window and retired, ‘Mr. Lin Hao, it is late at night, now that everything is taken care of and you have got what you wanted, I think I will go back and take a maintenance nap, one is too old to resist.’

‘Okay, okay.’ Lin Hao gave another order to Night One to see Bob off.

Chapter 1188

A few minutes later watched as Bob got into his own car and drove out of Lin Hao’s view.

There were a few minutes later, Night One pushed open the door to the conference room, he stood next to Lin Hao, slightly bent over but with a stubborn face, ‘Big brother, I can’t swallow this anger!’

‘Don’t worry, I’ll make them pay back tenfold sooner or later!’ Lin Hao gripped the edge of the table.

All the things that had happened were in his mind, how could he possibly forget? The reason why he chose to hold back was because he had to beg for it

Only then did Night One straighten up when he heard Lin Hao's words.

'You guys go out first, I need to make a phone call with Xiyan.' Lin Hao ordered Jie Li out of the door of the conference room, then turned to Night One again, 'You also need to talk to Gu Yue on the phone more, in the end, you two have only been married for a short while and I'm separating you, to be honest, it's quite guilty.'

'Big brother. What are you talking about, you'd better have a chat with Madam.' Night One said a little angrily, he felt that his big brother was talking a little out of line, which made him feel uncomfortable inside, after all, he hadn't helped Lin Hao much after such an incident, yet that was it, his big brother was still talking about guilt, which simply made him feel ashamed.

Jelly left, and Night One went out. Lin Hao was left alone in the whole office and was pulling out his phone looking at the lights outside the conference room door and the many staff executives waiting for him to give his word, he had to put the phone down for now.

After taking a few steps towards the office, Lin Hao said with a smile on his face to his staff, 'I've called you all here tonight. It is to consolidate the Polter Group's receipts as well as financial statements and then hand them over to the church for review. Originally, this matter did not need to be handled by everyone overnight, but since it is rather urgent, I have to disturb you all.'

'As an apology, I am already celebrating my becoming a nobleman. Tomorrow, Miss Saina will find a resort for everyone to relax and unwind, and all expenses will be paid by the group.'

Lin Hao said two sentences after turning around and heading for the conference room, he missed Shen Xiyao too much, if not for the fact that just now Yi zero whisked dyed steak Lu zero's own staff did not mean to leave, Lin Hao all want to finish the call first and then see them

The crowd in the middle of the Xena was Lin Hao's command stunned five thunderstorms, their own this new president even remembered her name? And even put her in charge of the group's group building? She was the one who had just promoted negative news in the company?

And what was the last sentence? Become a nobleman?

A Chinese person becoming an aristocrat? Was this really happening in front of them?

A Chinese, a nobleman in Toulouse, the proud country of F? If this were to be told in any other city in F, it would cause chaos, wouldn't it?

‘Oh oh, good.’ Only after Lin Hao had closed the door to the meeting room did Saina react and agreed with two oohs and aahs.

Not only was Saina stunned, the other people were equally stunned. But for them there was shock, but there was also surprise. The group that they had previously feared would be destroyed and their years of struggle reduced to nothing, now once the group would not be destroyed and the boss was so strong that he had become a nobleman within a period of time as a Chinese, who would dare to believe it if they had not seen it with their own eyes, to be honest?

The crowd chewed down would for some time before reacting and exclaiming, ‘Xena. Let’s go to a five-star resort tomorrow, shall we? I know there’s a nice resort next to Gorfint Castle. I heard from the planning office earlier that Gorfunte might be confiscated and we might be the first Toulouse people to holiday at Gorfunte Castle.’

‘Yes, yes. I’ve heard something about that too.’

There was a flurry of voices, one after the other, and in the face of this request, Xena had to agree. It was natural for the locals of Toulouse to take a special interest in the local castle. Only Xena didn't tell them that in fact the castle of Golephonte had been gifted to someone else. And that its former owner was Bob. But he didn't know if the group knew this information, anyway, the first purpose of the group was a holiday, the purpose of the holiday was achieved, and what they encountered in the middle of the trip was another matter to be seen

Tianhai.

'Mom, I just can't eat anymore. And I want to sleep again.' Shen Xiyan put down the chicken soup in her hand and said petulantly.

When Wang Shufen heard that Shen Xiyan wanted to sleep again, she thought that Shen Xiyan's condition had worsened. She wondered if her good son-in-law Lin Hao had found a real cure over in Western Europe? If this is postponed any longer, I don't know if Shen Xiyan's condition can be saved

It is said that the more one worries, the heavier one's mood becomes, and one will subconsciously think in the direction of deterioration, which is what Wang Shufen is thinking today

'Xiyan ah. Even if you don't eat, you still have to give the baby some, right? You just woke up, why are you going to sleep again, did you stay up late last night?' Wang Shufen picked up the chicken soup and personally handed it to Shen Xiyan, then made the act of feeding her.

Shen Xiyan looked at the chicken soup and felt sick to her stomach, she didn't know what was wrong. Recently, her drowsiness had become more and more serious, and it also made her look preoccupied, which was a bad feeling that kept bothering her, and it also irritated her from time to time.

They say you shouldn't be in an intense mood when you're pregnant, but she doesn't know why, she hasn't been in a good mood

‘Mum, I really can’t eat. I want to go to sleep.’ Shen Xiyan pushed away the chicken soup handed to her by Wang Shufen, and then walked straight to her room.

This looked at Wang Shufen’s heart incomparable, what should be done, she murmured down, ‘son-in-law ah son-in-law you have no progress ah, Xiyan this situation, mum is really worried

The last time Jiu Tian Xuan came over to see Shen Xiyan, he said that they should not worry too much, but so many days have passed and no news has come from Lin Hao, so how can she not worry? Coupled with the recent worsening of Shen Xiyan’s unwell condition, the worry in her heart increased again

Wang Shufen remembered stamping her feet inside the living room, pacing back and forth, slapping her hands, ‘What should I do

Just at this time, Shen Xiyan's mobile phone rang, Wang Shufen hurriedly ran over and found that it was 'husband' note, immediately her face was happy, Lin Hao called, did he find the cure for the disease ?

She hurriedly picked up and asked without waiting for Lin Hao to say, 'Good son-in-law, is it already possible to prepare a cure for Xiyan ?'

Lin Hao was in the midst of his joyful excitement, when he heard Wang Shufen's enquiry, his entire complexion was overwhelmed, and his heart was even heavier, 'Mom, what's wrong ?'

The first time I saw you, I was really worried about her state. So when I saw you calling, I asked you straight away if you had found a cure for her illness.'

When Lin Hao heard Wang Shufen's account, his heart sank and his heart seized together directly, Xiyan, wife, you must not be alright. Hubby has found the doorway, just give me a little more time and I will be able to cure you,惜颜

'Mom, I know.' Lin Hao replied in a deep voice, then squeezed out another tone with a smile, 'Mom, give the phone to Xiyan for me, I'll have a word with her.'

Wang Shufen heard a voice coming from Lin Hao's side and listened to what Lin Hao meant, she couldn't help but sigh before replying in a low tone, 'Alright, I'll give the phone to Xiyan right now. Hao'er, you should also take good care of yourself over in Western Europe, Xiyan's mother will take care of it for you.'

Wang Shufen pushed open Shen Xiyan's bedroom door and found that Shen Xiyan had already fallen asleep. Looking at Shen Xiyan, who was suffering so much from her condition, Wang Shufen was in pain, how she wished such pain could happen to her, or to help Shen Xiyan share some of the pain, but unfortunately, her condition did not allow her to share it with Shen Xiyan

‘Xiyan, Xiyan.’ Wang Shufen began to push the sleeping Shen Xiyan, while saying, ‘Lin Hao is calling.’

The sleeping Shen Xiyan rubbed her eyes, looking a bit irritable, but when she heard Wang Shufen say that Lin Hao had called, she immediately got up.

This whoosh of getting up scared Wang Shufen, as Shen Xiyan was pregnant at the moment, and such a violent movement would move the fetus.

‘Xiyan, Xiyan, be careful, don’t move the fetus’ Wang Shufen shouted.

The first thing that I did was to think of you, I wanted to hear your voice so much that I forgot I was carrying a baby, you won’t be angry, will you?’

Chapter 1190

Listening to Shen Xiyan's explanation, with a voice of aggravation. Lin Hao's eyes could not help but shed tears, he also missed Shen Xiyan very much. The reason he didn't call these days was because he didn't dare to face Shen Xi Yan, the plan on this side of Western Europe hadn't been pushed before, hadn't been in contact with the church, he was afraid that his heart would run away once he heard Shen Xi Yan's voice

What he couldn't have imagined was that now that he's heard it, his emotions will be the same

Lin Hao wiped a handful of tears from his eyes and forcefully kept his voice from choking, 'How could I be angry with you. You're my most beloved wife.'

Listening to Lin Hao's warm and doting voice, Shen Xiyan felt that she was the happiest woman in the world at the moment.

‘Honey, you haven’t called me for so many days, did you encounter any problems over there? Also, has that friend of yours been rescued? If you’ve rescued it, can you come back to keep me company?’ Shen Xiyan asked with concern, only the last enquiry, her voice became faint, very, very small

Lin Hao’s heart burst, for a time directly unable to say words. Shen Xiyan’s voice sounded like it was so humble that he couldn’t bear it ‘Wife. That friend still needs some time before he can be rescued. Remember what I told you last time, I got a big castle over here? Let me tell you, now I’ve become a nobleman over here. I’m going to take you over and become the mistress of the castle and a noble lady, do you think that’s good?’ Lin Hao changed the subject, he could no longer accept such an enquiry, and it wasn’t like being separated from Shen Xiyan for so long again.

Organization X and Tobon he had almost solved, plus the power of Toulouse he had mapped out, in the whole of Toulouse, he felt that no one could threaten, so he desperately wanted to put Shen Xiyan by his side and take care of it himself

‘Ah, really?’ Shen Xiyan was immediately overjoyed after hearing this, and her previously low tone of voice exclaimed directly.

‘Really.’ Lin Hao replied with a smile.

Shen Xiyan asked again, ‘Then when can I come over?’

‘You can come over right now. When the time comes, I will bring you to the banquet of the entire Toulouse upper class nobility.’ Lin Hao said dotingly.

‘Wow, hubby you’re too good, then I’ll pack up with mum and leave straight away. Then you have to pick me up at the airport then.’ Shen Xiyao said in a petulant manner.

Lin Hao nodded his head with a mmmm, ‘I’ll definitely pick up my wife who I’ve been thinking about day and night.’

‘Trojan horse.’ Shen Xiyao made a zero er closed zero west zero service intention kiss sound into the microphone.

‘Wooden horse~’ Lin Hao was trembling and after returning the sound, that powerful body, instantly went straight to soft, he leaned against the windowsill and secretly swore, ‘Xiyao I won’t let any more accidents happen to you! Absolutely not! You got hurt because of me, how can I let you be tormented by injuries all the time!’

After hanging up the phone, Shen Xiyao no longer had a trace of sleepiness, but was excited.

Wang Shufen looked at Shen Xiyan in such a good mood, her heart was also happy for Shen Xiyan, and the worry in her heart couldn't help but be a little less. In all these days, it was the first time I had seen Shen Xiyan so happy. It is true that her happiness and sadness all originate from Lin Hao. It's just that Lin Hao is far away

‘Xiyan, your mood changes shouldn't be so drastic all the time, it's not good for your fetus.’

‘Got it. Mom~’ Shen Xiyan trailed off, ‘Mom, let's pack up and look for my husband in Toulouse later.’ When she said looking for my husband, Shen Xiyan's stunning face was still flushed

‘What!’ Wang Shufen asked rhetorically in disbelief, just now she was wondering if she could go to Lin Hao's place, now Shen Xiyan said to go directly to Lin Hao?

‘Yes, mum. Just now Lin Hao said for us to go to Toulouse, he said he was going to make me the mistress of Golefant Castle, and what’s more, my husband has become a nobleman in Toulouse! Mum, there really are nobles in this world eh.’ Shen Xiyang said with immense pride.

She stood on the wear, Wang Shufen kept giving her precautionary movements, afraid that Shen Xiyang would fall down

Listening to Shen Xiyang’s words, Wang Shufen was also a bit unbelievable, her son-in-law not only got a castle in Europe, but also became a nobleman? To be honest, he was very vague about the concept of nobility
