

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1221-1230

Chapter 1221

Seeing that the castle Lin Hao was about to reach the castle, Mina could not sit still any longer. The news from Bensamin's side had been unclear, but she was really very suspicious of the truth inside Lin Hao's words, after all, the door to the castle hadn't been opened at the moment.

It was no one's fault. During normal times, especially on holiday days, the gates of the castle in Gorfint would be closed tightly, causing the castle to take a while to open today, which made Jelson anxious as hell.

He looked at the guards opening the doors and was already sweating profusely, so he yelled, 'What the hell is wrong with you? You can't even open the door to the castle? Do you want to be punished by the house!'

'It's not that we don't want to open it, but the castle gates are showing signs of damage from the last incident,' said Steward Jelson. You know how big the last incident broke out,' the head of the escort retorted in a whisper, and he finished with a handsome handful of sweat on his forehead. It was a mixture of exhaustion and fright

The family law punishment was too horrible, he was afraid he could not bear it

Jelson also anxious, hastily took out his mobile phone and made a phone call to Lin Hao.

Lin Hao looked at the phone and likewise frowned at the castle's gate, what was going on, why couldn't this castle's main gate open?

He and Night One had gone in through the side gate more than two hours ago, the side gate was fine, but how come this main castle gate had ordered itself down and this Jelsen didn't have any eyesight at all? He hadn't opened the castle gates yet?

He called himself at this time, did he encounter any problems?

‘Jelson, what is going on? Why are the gates of the castle not opening! What the hell are you doing eating? I’m definitely not going to ignore it directly with you disrespecting me before if you anger my wife’s interest!’ Lin Hao roared low, he was really angry.

Jelson was so frightened by Lin Hao’s voice that his hand holding the phone was trembling while his voice was also shaking, ‘Master. The gate is stuck for some reason and the escort team is fixing it. The explanation they gave me was the aftermath of the last incident’

Lin Hao’s brows were furrowed after hearing this.

On the night of the banquet that day, a lot of places had been impacted, destroying a lot of the wall foundations, only he hadn't expected that even the main gate of the castle had been affected. Bob told him that the gate mechanism was showing signs of wear and tear, and that there were many visitors at the gate, so using the gate would cause a stir. At the time, Lin Hao felt that he was not a flashy person, so it didn't matter which gate he used, so when he repaired the castle, he simply ignored this

The first thing you need to do is to make sure that you have a good idea of what you are doing. But now that Shen Xiyan has invited so many people to visit the castle, he can't say that all of them will go through the side door, right? Wouldn't that make his wife's face look bad?

'I'll go and clean it up myself.' Lin Hao said helplessly, then hung up the phone.

Shen Xiyan took in all of Lin Hao's movements and asked out loud, 'Honey, what's wrong?' She looked at Lin Hao's sad face with a hint of anger and thought that Lin Hao had encountered some more difficulties.

‘Nothing, it’s just that for some reason, the main gate of the castle’s opening mechanism is damaged, I have to go ahead and take care of it, you wait here with Night One and the others, I’ll be right out.’ Lin Hao said with a slightly warm smile.

After saying that, he got down from the Lamborghini Poison car and walked towards the offside gate.

Such a scene made all the people saw, they rubbed their eyes, for a time more than this phenomenon some puzzled

And after Benshamin and Mina saw it, their eyes lit up at the same time and they both couldn’t help but say, ‘What the hell, I thought he could really get the castle gate to open, but now it looks like it’s just here to brag, it’s hilarious.’

‘Eh, bitch. Your president is an asshole too, how dare he say anything! I’m going to tell his wife that he’s a hypocritical asshole and that this castle doesn’t let the fucking poor people visit! He’s talking big!’ Mina shouted at Xena.

Chapter 1222

At the same time there had been step after step of arrogantly pushing through the crowd, causing angry curses to erupt from among the crowd, but Mina didn’t care at all, she was now excited, in the mood of a pagan on the verge of victory.

She was jealous of Shen Xiyan, so she hated beautiful love. Because she could never get love anymore, when she sold her flesh for money to attend various parties, she parted ways with love

‘You, you don’t want to go!’ Xena panicked a little and tried to go after the damned shrew, but she couldn’t catch up with Mina straight away because she had her shoes off and her discouragement fell on deaf ears.

It didn’t take long for Mina to reach Shen Xiyan.

Shen Xiyan looked at Mina, a western beauty, only too tacky and heavily painted to make people look uncomfortable.

Close up Mina is also sizing up Shen Xiyan, flashy all in one, elegant temperament, simply the embodiment of nobility, such a perfect oriental woman, let her very jealous

Night One stood directly in front of Shen Xiyan to prevent this western woman who ran up in a huff.

‘Stay away from us.’ Watching Mina step closer, all coming within three meters of the car, Night One drank.

‘Huh.’ Mina sneered and followed up with, ‘Hey. Your husband, he’s lying to you! This castle is not for people to enter just because they want to, it is the jewel of the whole of Toulouse. Its previous owner was a member of the Toulouse clan who had been dressed as a family for hundreds of years, and Toulouse has not let poor people in on a large scale in its history, so your husband, he’s lying about everything he says, he’s lying to you! He is a liar, a hypocritical liar!’

Night One’s pupils instantly shrank and he stared viciously at this troublemaker, he dared to slander his big brother, he was simply looking for death, ‘If you don’t want to die, get out of the way right now. If my big brother says to let all the people in, he can let all the people in!’

‘Oh, so the city gates are opening now! Why haven’t the gates been opened? And Jelson, the castle’s steward, has disappeared? If he can really order the castle to open the gates? Why did it take so long to open? Wasn’t it because he couldn’t order Jelson to open the gates? He might just be on good terms with the castle’s owner, but the castle’s owner was confronted with such a comical request from him and turned him down, hence the current scene!’ Mina said with an articulate sneer.

This made Night One incredibly annoyed.

And someone had already explained Mina's words to Shen Xiyan, who looked at Night One with a suspicious gaze and inquired softly, 'Night One, tell me, can we get in or not? Can Lin Hao, can he, open the gate of the castle?'

Faced with Shen Xiyan's question, Night One replied directly and respectfully, 'Madam. Big brother is definitely able to open the castle gates, Golephant is indeed one of Big brother's properties! I was present when he signed the transfer of the castle with Bob, and it was Mr. Bob who insisted on transferring it to big brother

Dye Zero Yi closed the cover to the ground 'Oh oh.' Shen Xiyan thin red lips then let out two easy breaths exhale, after all, so many people looking at her, questioning her, or let her very unstable

'Do not pretend to be calm and collected, if you are really the owner of the castle, then open the door! If not, apologise to us, especially you vain Chinese woman! You can't even get in yourself now, and you're talking about taking us on a tour with you!' After being translated by the interpreter the conversation between Night One and Shen Xiyao, Mina shook her head and lost her smile, these two people were still talking tough now, still pretending, and what Bob insisted on begging for the transfer, it was too comical and too small

And the translator looked like he was doing it on purpose. He translated Mina's words again as they were, which made Night One's anger value explode and he wanted to go up and beat up this translator. But he found that Shen Xiyao had listened to all of it and was moved. Her emotions were up and down and her face was very ugly. Night One didn't know what to do for a while, Wang Shufen was also at her wits end, she ran to Shen Xiyao's side and said to her, 'Xiyao, Lin Hao will definitely not lie to you, and you know how much Lin Hao loves you

The reason why Shen Xiyao's emotions changed so drastically was because she felt that Lin Hao had lied to her

However, just at this time, an incomparably luxurious sports car rumbled in, the incomparably high pitched sound of the engine drew everyone's attention to it. Shen Xiyao turned her head over to look at this one car.

It was a supercar that gave the impression that it was pricey, and on his passenger side was a handsome young man, except that he had lost half of his face, which instantly made people feel incomparably sorry for him.

Finkin-Gate's face is still quite attractive to women. Gu Yue looked at Finkin-Gate also could not help but exclaim at the high value of this man's face, just a pity that he did not know why he was disfigured, and would really make people feel sorry

The person who came was Finkin Gatt. He had changed his car, he was still pulling his weight, and when he came back to Golefant again, he looked at the castle of Efwowu Luaiji Shutwood, which had given him nightmares, and he was not taking it to heart anymore, because it was Mr. Lin's castle, and Mr. Lin was no longer hostile to him.

He also did not have to be in fear that the castle would bring him misery

Finkin Gatt saw Shen Xiyang from inside the sports car, he couldn't help but let out an astonished cry straight away, this woman was simply too beautiful, too gorgeous, simply the embodiment of classical Chinese beauty, I guess she was Mr. Lin's wife. She was so beautiful, she was the only one who was worthy of Mr. Lin, who was unrivalled in the world!

Mina, in the middle of the crowd, saw Finkin Gatt and her whole body was so excited that she roared in shock, 'Finkin Gatt! Ahhhhhhhh, it's Finkin Gatt! The former first heir to the Gaither family, the prince charming of countless dreams, how did he end up in Gorefante? Ahhhhhhhh, am I dreaming! Somebody pinch me!'

The whole room shook as Mina shouted Finkin Gatt's name... Finkin Gatt! It was Finkin Gatt, the prince charming that countless Toulouse women had dreamed of!

Shen Xiyang was also rendered by this atmosphere, her emotions shifting from a somewhat slightly angry demeanour, instead looking along with Gu Yue at this handsome Western youth who had caused quite a stir. She found that he also happened to be staring at the two of them, but Gu Yue was atmospheric and indifferent, staring at Finkin Gatt, while Shen Xiyang's gaze flickered for a moment, but then she was indifferent again, thinking that she was married, so there was nothing wrong with looking twice. But then she realised that she seemed to be disfigured, right?

She is so popular even though she is disfigured? If she hadn't been disfigured, how popular would she have been?

As he watched the scene seem to be in turmoil, Finkin-Gate's proud head grew a little bit more proud, but he couldn't find Lin Hao's figure in the crowd, so he couldn't help but feel a little bit distressed.

'Armand, where is Mr. Lin? How come I can't see him?' Finkin-Gate inquired as he got into the car and turned to Armand.

Almand stood up and looked around for a few moments. In the car they had seen Shen Xi Yan's photo and knew that the fairy-looking Oriental beauty standing in the middle of the crowd was Mr. Lin Hao's wife. But no matter how hard they looked for Lin Hao's figure, they couldn't find her

Almand sat inside the car and shook his head slightly, 'I don't know where Mr. Lin is either.'

At the same time Bastian also came in his car.

And the car industry of the Kaiser Group arrived.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1224-1226

Chapter 1224

'Arrival of Bastian under the Smith family!' I don't know who suddenly shouted again.

'Kashii Group arrives!' And then there was another.

The situation was once again chaotic, the people who came here were all big families and super big families.

This situation was somewhat familiar to Shen Xiyan, so she looked at Night One, who nodded to her as she nodded her head, indicating that it meant the same as before. This made Shen Xiyan's heart that a displeasure, directly disappeared.

The car of Bastian also had Avril, who was there after all. Avril looked at Shen Xiyan through the crowd and found that she was really beautiful, in fact, the classical beauty of the Chinese, simply too outstanding, she stood in the crowd, like a queen.

Avril's heart was wringing Cullinan incomparably, Bastian watched in silence, looking at the most favoured Avril in the family now so painful is also helpless, after all, that is Mr. Lin Hao Lin ah, where he dare to stand up for his sister, even if he dare, he can deal with Finkin Gait? To be sincere, he did not dare to face Finkin-Gate directly, that kind of fear, is deep in the marrow of ‘The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what’s going on. How come there are so many super big families here? And isn’t the Gaither family a long-standing feud with the Smith family? Why are they appearing here together today? Is there some big shot showing up?’ Mina grabbed Benshamin’s arm and yelled with unbridled excitement.

Benshamin buttoned his ears, somewhat disturbed by the noise, but was also looking at these people at the same time; who were these people appearing together for? And who had such a big face? Could it be the three great myths of Toulouse? Only which three myths are they? Ben Sharmin’s family had access to the bioChemists, but not to the topmost of them. After all, the big names at that level, their families personally don’t even deserve to lift their shoes

Yang Lijun sits here looking ahead from on high, Finkin-Gate, Bastian, Avril, are not bad late bloomers, but he, an elder, still holds some pride. How can I put it, Yang Lijun still has some Chinese habits in his bones, thinking that he is an elder and that anyone younger than him should respect him, except that if he really held his pride so high, Finkin-Gate and Bastian would only give him a good look, even if it wasn’t for Lin Hao’s sake. They didn’t really think like that in the West, they didn’t have much moral kidnapping, so if he really dared to be arrogant in front of Finkin-Gate, he would probably get kicked by Finkin-Gate.

‘That woman is quite pretty.’ Yang Lijun stared at Shen Xiyan for a few moments and tsked. At his price, ordinary women really didn’t catch his eye, but an oriental woman as positively beautiful as Shen Xiyan, Yang Lijun said with all his heart, hadn’t seen and enjoyed one for many years.

The first thing you can do is to get a good look at your grandfather’s eyes and say that he is also an old pervert, and at the same time, he panicked. This is the credo of Yang William’s life, at the same time he was calculating in his heart what if grandpa really was killed?

What would be the situation then? Wouldn’t it be as he wished? It was a good thing!

Chapter 1225

‘Master, you are simply amazing.’ Jelson couldn’t help but praise Lin Hao as he watched him stiffly push the castle open.

He had seen dozens of people from the castle escort work together to push the door open, but still couldn’t manage to open the stuck castle door. But he looked at Lin Hao’s back, this was a super strong man, this little thing right in front of him was probably nothing, right?

Lin Hao grunted and his mind was anxious, 'Xiyang must be waiting impatiently, this damned gate was actually shattered by a bullet that shattered the gears, resulting in the inability to use the lever principle, it's sort of justifiable that this group of people can't push it open.'

'The door's open!' Someone suddenly shouted.

Xena had been captivated by Finkin Gatebastian's battle with the Gash Group for quite some time, but she had still been staring at the gates of Golefant's castle from time to time on the way, after all, she was still more concerned about that at heart.

Now the gates were finally open, which meant that what their CEO boss had said was true!

Ahhhhhhhhh!

Xena mentally screamed, the president turned out to have such a horrible identity. This president was surprising them so much, surprising them all the time, so surprising, so shocking!

This was a centuries-old relic of Toulouse, of incalculable value, and now it belonged to a Chinese man.

Mina stared in fascination at the opened door of the castle, and Benshamin looked on with equal astonishment. Inside their line of sight, Lin Hao slowly walked out of the door like a king who was invincible with the world, he walked in the middle of the road like a king, looking at his subjects and enjoying the salute his subjects were giving him.

‘No!’ Mina roared, but there was still some strange glimmer of hope at the back of his mind, he felt that this could not necessarily be Lin Hao’s castle, perhaps it had something to do with Finkin-Gate and Bastian, who had just left and was calling Finkin-Gate and Bastian and the others for help.

‘Opening the gates of the castle must not be directly related to this Chinese man, but because of these super big families, it must have been this Chinese man who just called and begged!’ Mina shouted frantically.

Xena lifted her foot, but no longer with who this door was opened because of, she was going to do it and make Mina lick her feet!

‘Bitch! Now you can lick my feet!’

Mina shoved her away and yelled in utter madness, 'The gate is open, but can you get in? The owner of the castle doesn't even know who it is yet!'

'Huh. Still talking tough!' Xena sneered.

Night One looked at Mina, who was still struggling, and the corners of her mouth turned up in an eerily cold smile, she really wouldn't die until she got to the Yellow River. But it's alright, later she'll be too dead to die!

'Madam, I'm afraid these people are here to present you with gifts.'

Wang Shufen and Gu Yue both frowned in confusion, only Shen Xiyan was looking at the invincible Lin Hao in her heart, he was like a dream lover at this moment, he stepped on the seven coloured clouds to greet her, she was very moved.

Wang Shufendi dyed Xixi zero service dyed came up and asked, ‘Night one ah, I feel that this group of people are all very high status people ah, they really came over to give gifts to Xiyang?’

Night One nodded, ‘That one with half a face is one of Big Brother’s little brothers. And his face is the result of being punished for provoking big brother!’

‘What!’ Gu Yue covered her mouth and let out a soft cry, this handsome and extraordinary westerner was actually disfigured by Lin Hao’s punishment. It was just that he was disfigured and he still had to come over to greet Xiyang with a gift? Didn’t it feel a bit unrealistic?’

Chapter 1226

‘Yes, you don’t need to know the exact thing, that’s roughly it anyway. By the way, their family is like the Four Great Families before Tianhai, or rather, a family that overrides the Four Great Families. How should I put it, although it is not as good as the Four Great Families in Yanjing, it is infinitely close to the Four Great Families in Yanjing.’

Night One pointed to Finkin-Gate and said, when he had finished introducing Finkin-Gate Night One also pointed to the Bastian family and introduced, 'Their family is one of the four great families of Toulouse, very strong and quite well financed.' As Night One introduced the Bastian family, he saw Avril through the glass window, and was quite helpless.

She liked her big brother, but he had his heart set on someone else, and he would only love Madame alone in his life. His heart was so big that it could hold the whole world, but that whole world, Erfthi Zuoyidi, was so small that only Madame could live in it alone.

'Mr. Lin is coming out!' Finkin-Gate had only just seen Lin Hao walk out with one foot and was beyond excited, it was just a pity that everyone was watching the Golefant castle doors open and ignored a lot of Finkin-Gate's madness, otherwise there would have been another big shock.

'Sister, you'd better not look.' Bastian was also excited, only to look at his sister, his heart ached, as he said afterwards.

Avril shook her head and said strongly, 'I'll just look.'

Bastian said helplessly, 'Then you don't get out of the car.'

'Hmm.' Avril nodded gently.

This made Bastian breathe a sigh of relief; if they still offended Lin Hao at this time, their Smith family would really have no room to survive in Toulouse. Only yesterday he had been able to settle his differences with Finkin Gatt, and then when he left just now, people from the Gatt family had come up looking for cooperation, which had thrilled the family, especially when his grandfather Smith had called to praise him directly for finally doing something for the sake of the Smith family, which had left Bastian in tears and laughter.

Yang Lijun couldn't take his eyes off Shen Xiyan, she was so beautiful, simply too beautiful. He was wondering why when he used to go to China on business, the local powerful people did not arrange for such a beautiful woman to receive him, it was really irritating. At that time, he even said something about returning to his roots and investing a little in them, but now it seemed that they still had a grudge against him, which was really hateful.

'Just this kid? Can't see a difference either. This Bob is a heartless thing, I even said before that I would give him three billion to buy this Golefant castle, but that old bastard just won't sell. I did say at the time that I could still raise the price, but this old bastard didn't even listen to me, and directly threw me out of his office, and now, well, the assets are directly missing three billion, and I don't know if with his business ability, this noble family that has been inherited for hundreds of years, will directly fall into decline by his daughter's generation!' Yang Lijun only glanced slightly at Lin Hao before his gaze was placed greedily on top of the castle.

'If this castle had been purchased by our Jiashi, our Yang's would have been able to step directly into the real top nobility in Toulouse. It's a pity, a pity, that it was short-changed by a Chinese. Wouldn't it be a waste of the value of the Gorfint just to give it to him? To bring shame to Gorfint?' Yang Lijun said indignantly.

William Yang was sweating coldly, he was already mentally praying for his grandfather to stop talking, he didn't want to die yet!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1227-1228

Chapter 1227

'Mr. Lin!'

Finkin-Gate had run out of the car and was running towards Lin Hao's heels without regard for his image. Behind him, Armand was also panting to keep up, he was old and his body didn't quite believe it.

'Isn't this Finkin Gatt? Why is he so excited?' Someone whispered.

'Yes, by the looks of it, it doesn't give the impression that he's in a high position, what's going on here? Isn't this man Finkin Gatt?' Another person replied.

Chattering among the crowd began to make noise.

Lin Hao had a bit of a headache, why was this lapdog character here again? He himself was still upset about the door opening just now, this door and still broken because of Finkin Gat's people, wasn't he afraid that he would descend on him?

'His face, why is there dislike written all over it?' Suddenly someone could not resist making a sound.

At this, the crowd exploded in the middle of the crowd. Lin Hao's expression was one of discontent and dislike, and it was incomparably clear. What exactly was this man's identity? Instead of respecting Fin Jin Gaiat as if he was a nobleman, he was disgusted? This, this was unacceptable, wasn't it?

Mina looked at the whisk-servant closed zero-dye land west in shock at the image, and the expression on Lin Hao's face, she could see it clearly, 'No!'

'Mr. Lin.' Finkin Gatt exclaimed excitedly, then added, 'Mr. Lin, I'll go ahead and say hello to your wife. The Gaither family has also sent their congratulatory power over.'

With that, Finkin-Gate nudged Armand, who had just gotten to his feet behind him.

Almon immediately turned back and ran back again, only smiling dryly as he greeted Lin Hao, then ran to the front of his own caravan and shouted at the top of his voice, 'The Gaither family wishes Mr. and Mrs. Lin a hundred years of happiness, a long life, and an early child! A pair of celadon jade vases are presented to signify a long and prosperous life hand in hand!'

Almand this was shouted in Chinese.

When he had finished shouting in Chinese, he went on to repeat the previous speech in F, but added the following, ‘The blue and white porcelain vases were purchased by the Gaither family from the Toulouse Museum at a high price, and as a token of the Gaither family’s friendship with Mr. Lin, they felt that 100 million euros was totally inadequate! Nothing compared to the friendship between the Gaiters and Mr. Lin! By the way, this blue and white porcelain is a unique piece of art treasured by an emperor of the Qing Dynasty, the only pair in the world!’

Night One looked at the celadon porcelain that was carefully carried over by seven or eight bodyguards. It had to be said that it was white and moist like snow, it was soothing to look at, no wonder it was an orphaned item in the emperor’s private collection, it was only a pity that the nightmare a hundred years ago had opened the doors of the Heavenly Dynasty, since then countless treasures had been lost overseas, this one could be seen at a glance, it was a treasure that had been snatched from back then.

‘One, one hundred million! Event only!’ Some people swallowed their mouths, this is not a hundred million RMB, but a hundred million euros, this. I’m afraid it’s all going to be a town treasure in the Toulouse museum, right? This Geert family are buying le out and giving it away?

This Chinese man!

What is the identity of this Chinese!

Mina's legs suddenly gave out.

She knew this pair of celadon porcelain, she and Benjamin had gone to the museum a few days ago and focused on this pair of celadon porcelain. She clearly remembered Benshamin pointing at the pair of celadon porcelains and saying, 'This is an orphaned piece from the private collection of the emperor over in China, and the most prized orphaned piece of his life, but unfortunately, China is too weak to have such a treasure, and they, Toulouse, are willing to keep it for them.' At that time, Benshamin spoke with extreme pride, the contemptuous look inside his eyes, and his demeanor showed everywhere how his bloodline as a western aristocrat was contemptuous of the inferior species of China

And yet, a few days later, this was the picture! The super family of Toulouse, who went to buy it personally and then gave it to a Chinese, what exactly is this trying to show, even if one can think with one's feet, it is the Gaiter family ingratiating itself!

Such a frank ingratiation!

And they, on the other hand, keep belittling each other!

It was over!

Xena stared at Mina, her gaze icy cold.

Mina tried to escape from the midst of the group, but was stopped by the Bolt group.

Benshamin roared, 'I am a nobleman! Don't you dare stop me!'

'Oh, a nobleman? A little nobleman is really no use today!' Xena sneered. She had never thought that she would one day point at a noble and say, you're nothing

At this moment, she looked at Lin Hao and felt like she was looking at a god.

‘Oh no, it’s been short-changed!’ Bastian secretly said no, and also ran down from the car evenly.

As for Avril, she had no intention of coming down.

The Smith family had been passed down as a super great family for hundreds of years, and the hundreds of years in there were not ups and downs, but they had always been one of the top families and had never fallen. It is only the weakness of the biochemical power in recent times that has led to their status being suppressed by the Gates family. This is not just one of them, but the other three families as well

The gradual disappearance of biochemical power has resulted in this super big family having a very weak bottom when facing advanced biochemicals. The super big family like theirs was almost always established with advanced biochemicals, and it would be difficult to create a super big family without advanced biochemicals in their ancestors. Only then the closer the age is to modern times, the more polarized the biochemical power is, the senior biochemicals can crush countless intermediate biochemicals with one hand, unlike the previous 17th and 18th centuries, or 15th and 16th centuries, where seven or eight intermediate biochemicals, or powerful intermediate biochemicals, could arm wrestle with the senior biochemicals

Not today. And coupled with the Church's order that a city, no matter what, can only have three Advanced Biochemicals, resulting in all of them, the intermediate Biochemicals trained by the super great families, having to die of old age

Because even if they advanced to advanced biochemists, they would still be wiped out by advanced biochemists trained by clanless ones like Bigir

So year after year, the power of their four big family biochemicals grew weaker and weaker. But back more than twenty years ago, the four big families still controlled the economic lifeline of Toulouse just the same, however when one family came along!

That was the Gaiters!

They came out with their advanced cyborgs and directly suppressed the four families, making them not dare to breathe.

And this example of cooperation is the first family-less cultivated advanced cyborg to work with a noble family in these two hundred years, or with a small family! This directly broke the rule that had been in place for over two hundred years. And why Bilgi, a senior biochemist who had lived for hundreds of years, would work with a family, the four of them had brainstormed for more than ten years and still could not come up with an accurate guess.

But recently it had been figured out!

That was the Order of the Knight ---- Heart of Regeneration!

When Mohammed Katou snatched the Heart of Regeneration from Golefant, at that moment, the four great families instantly understood why Bigir was willing to cooperate with the Gaither family. It was because the Gaylord Aifu'er Zhanshanfut family also had a complete Heart of Regeneration inside their castle!

Before the Industrial Revolution, the nobles were knights of war who would open up the land for the Church and the dynasty, and the Church would reward them with the Order of the Knight, the Heart of Regeneration! And the dynasty would grant them nobility.

This is what is recorded in the canonical texts. After the Industrial Revolution, the whole continent came into view, when wars gradually lost their original purpose and petty warfare went on to economic development. The power of the dynasty fractured, the Church began to be threatened by people with heat weapons, the nobility bestowed by the dynasty gradually began to be useless, and at the same time the Church, faced with the rapid development of heat weapons, the regenerative heart was also pulled out of use, resulting in the regenerative heart can no longer be raised, and since then the biochemical power is weak

The war has destroyed countless millions and also destroyed the foundation of the Cyborg

The Smiths were one of the families that reached their zenith at the time of the Industrial Revolution. And they were an offshoot of the Smith family during the dynasty, not the main line, which of course has now disappeared into history. Although the Smiths of the present day are not the Smiths of before, nearly two hundred years of collecting information has taught them many hidden secrets

Church revolutions, dynastic revolutions

And dynastic families are dynastic families in a time of turmoil, and these families possess ancient castles plus hearts of regeneration. The Regenerating Heart works as a blood pool used to cultivate the power of the cyborg, it will greatly cultivate as well as allow the cyborg to grow faster. Under a powerful noble knight, there is often a super powerful force of cyborgs, which is the backbone of the territory, and war is often fought over these beings

And regenerative hearts are not an existence that can never be used up, they will be weakened by each massive consumption of life force, and eventually depleted

There are many other castles in Toulouse where regenerating hearts have dried up like this. Some were transformed, some were destroyed

The Smith family sent Bastian here in order to make a good relationship with Lin Hao, and then hoped that they could use his blood pool to radicalize some biochemicals and make them grow in strength a step faster.

As for why the Gaiter family spent such a large amount of money, Bastian couldn't figure it out. Because the Gaiter family had a blood pool, were they simply trying to get on good terms with Lin Hao? Or was it because they were shocked by Lin Hao's outburst of strength?

When Bastian met with the family, this guess was rejected straight away.

Because! There was a Pope inside the Church!

The Pope was the strongest person in control of order, a super power above the advanced cyborgs, and they maintained the order of Western Europe, and wouldn't let anyone break it easily. Even this Mr. Lin Haolin, who was even more powerful than the Lion, but they believed that even Mr. Lin Haolin would not be a match for the Pope!

This, too, was why the Four Great Families dared to sit firmly on Mount Tai. Even though they had been suppressed by the Gaetes, the Gaetes were still unable to replace them!

The Church, the Pope, would not allow the Gaetes to break the order outright, would not allow the High Cyborgs to take over everything!

The world, even if there were rules as such, all people, would play the game within a rule. And to get to the point of breaking the rules and playing the game, then long must pay the price. If that price is not paid, it will be death! Obviously, senior biochemists do not dare to break this rule

The four great families and Gait and other families also firmly believed that Lin Hao could not break this rule.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1229-1230

Chapter 1229

‘The Smith Family Bastian wishes Mr. Lin Hao and Ms. Shen Xiyan a happy and prosperous life! A congratulatory gift: a triple painting of a Tang fresco from the Mogao Caves, documenting trade in the West! Valued at eight thousand Euros, it is a very complete Tang Dynasty brush painting and an intact Santui!’ Bastian shouted, his voice high-pitched.

The frescoes in the Mogao Caves, which she had seen on television when she was a child, had been badly stolen, and she also knew that when the state excavated the Tang Sancai later on, they would lose their colour due to oxidation, and now, looking at the Santuo Tang Sancai frescoes that Bastian had ordered his staff to send up, Gu Yue couldn’t stop feeling excited!

If this were to be donated to the National Museum, I'm afraid it would become a treasure for the museum, right ?

Of course that pair of blue and white porcelain the same, only because of the bad reputation of the Qing Dynasty, resulting in many people very dislike, but do not like this dynasty, but the crystallization of the people's art of this dynasty, or very much like

'What, another 8,000 euros!' That's horrible, isn't it ?

Saina stared at Mina hemming and hawing, Benshamin looked at the Tang San Cai topiaries in despair, their family had ancestors who had been to China in the last century and had also excavated the Mogao Caves murals, it was just a pity that they had only stolen some gold leaf scriptures, the murals and such they did not have that superior technology at that time. Nowadays, the ancestors have left behind a grudge that if the technology had survived, their family would have been able to replace it with a very high value of money. I'm afraid it's more than he's worth now, isn't it ? Benshamin's heart was already in despair to the depths. He was remorseful, why did he come with this bitch today, why did he help her to refute, why did two of his friends cut themselves off, and he was still clinging to the slightest crack of theory inside to refute, to go out on a limb, he was just looking for death!

Unfortunately, there is no pill of regret on top of the world

Looking at Wang Shufen's shocked eyes, Gu Yue opened her mouth to explain, 'Auntie this Tang Sancai fresco is difficult to preserve even with the current technology, but back then this group of foreign tomb raiders saved it. This has something to do with their technology, but also with the time of their excavation. With the older it is, the faster it meets oxygen oxidation, the faster we excavate now, the first one is because the technology is more backward, at the same time there is also because the age is long, the oxidation speed is accelerated, it is too late to protect, it just disappears in colour

Wang Shufen looked at the Tang Sancai, heart tsk, eight thousand five closed zero ground zero dye five closed million euros ah, worth more than six hundred million. And the pair of blue and white porcelain in front has been worth a whole eight hundred million RMB, his own son-in-law is simply too powerful.

Although exclaimed praise, but Wang Shufen has no longer the previous kind of see profit want to hide the psychology. How can I put it, she wouldn't dare

Lin Hao looked at the ingratiating appearance of these two people and also smiled, waving his hand to indicate that he already knew.

Chapter 1230

'I've heard that Mr. Lim has opened the Château de Gervent to celebrate Madame Lim's holiday in Toulouse for those visiting here today. How can the Gaiters be without wine to fill in some of the colour, so for today's share of champagne, the Gaiters are paying!'

Finkin-Gate shouted, and at the same time helped Lin Hao to establish himself as the owner of Gorfint Castle!

When Finkin-Gate shouted this, Mina sat straight down on the ground, but how could Xena let her get away with it so easily.

Xena grabbed Mina's chin and said with a soft smile, 'My feet are already a little dry and dirty at the same time, they need just the right amount of licking, so why don't you just lick them clean for me!'

Mina gave a look of horror and desperation as she looked to Benshamin for help, Benshamin lifted his foot and just stomped down hard on her face!

'Fucking bitch, you've done this to me! Damn you, even if you don't die today, I will make it difficult for you to live to see the sun tomorrow intact, in the name of my nobility!' Benshamin roared.

The sound was loud and it didn't attract many eyes, but Night One was staring, with that icy stare that made Benshamin, who had wanted to leave after a stomp, now had to kick harder!

Mina was very miserable, she was kicked by Benshamin not to die at the same time, at the same time also by Saina with the foot in the mouth, she fought to resist, but er pick up Shanzhaxi whisked the ground instinctively do not dare to use much strength, she has been beyond desperate.

Jelson kept his eyes on the place and when he saw that Night One was also looking at it and with a critical gaze, he ran straight to Night One, this was a time when he needed to step in and deal with this incident and not for too long, as there was a tour to be managed soon to preside over the big picture.

‘Mr. Night One, I’ll arrange for these two to be handled by the escort, you don’t need to worry too much.’ Jelson said respectfully.

Jelson knew that night one and Lin Hao’s relationship is very strong, and the opportunity is not a close brother is already better than a close brother, look at the two people came to Europe together, many things have appeared together, such a character, can be considered the second head of Golefte Castle.

And Benshamin and Mina exit questioning against insulting Lin Hao and the castle lady's voice he also heard, earlier even called people to keep an eye on these two people.

'Well, treat them well and never be soft-hearted! If you dare to upset the lady, this is even worse than upsetting big brother!' Night One said in an icy voice, his anger very strong. His words were not at all deliberately home panned, big brother favored the madam, which was the envy of even Madam Jun

Jelson heart thud directly, legs began to tremble, he carefully looked at the night one, found that the night one is to put the angry eyes on Benshamin and Mina, rather than on his body, Jelson this is a sigh of relief, secretly said the next moment if encountered such a thing, directly take away!

Don't give them the slightest chance of getting dirty!

Jelson didn't dare to stay longer and hurriedly called out to the men to come up, 'Men, take these two men down to me! Take them to the castle prison and keep them under guard!'

A few plainclothesmen rushed out from the crowd, grabbed Benjamin and Mina, and dragged them straight to the side entrance of the castle. Benjamin shouted and begged, 'I'm a nobleman, I'm a nobleman, you can't do this to me! The Church will not allow you to do this to me! Please, let me go, it's this damned woman, it's not my fault, it's this damned woman!'
