

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1271-1280

Chapter 1271

The night in Toulouse did not change much. The commoners were still enjoying their nightly sleep, but only the nobles were in a state of panic. The news that was being circulated was true and false, the lesser nobles had no access to the secrets at the heart of the storm, they didn't know who to believe and they were like a headless fly in a torment

The great nobles, though they knew, were extremely worried about who would really dominate society in a battle for the ages, and it was a matter of life and death for them

Will a decision really be made in the future, after thousands of years without change? The struggle between the Church and the ZF has existed for thousands of years. It used to be that the Church gave the throne to run the country. It was the centre of political power, then came the social revolution, and man and the Church began to fight separately, but one ran the surface and the other the private sector. But the economic lifeline, for the most part, is still under the management of the Church, which means that the ZF is still under the thumb of the Church, and without money, isn't the ZF in a chokehold? It must be uncomfortable for anyone to be under constant threat

So the conflict has finally broken out

At last the formation receded, the moonlight receded, the morning glowed white and the sun showed a glimmer of light. It was a new year and a day to witness the first year of history

Lin Hao's celebration banquet was held with Finkin-Gate together with Bastian, after the nobles who were tormented by the confusing news had to receive an invitation the next day to come to this banquet that they could not refuse, in their faces were full of smiles, only those who met privately to travel together showed their sadness and concern, it was a problem that could not be ignored

So the atmosphere was bizarre.

The castle of Golephonte, Shen Xiyan got up early, put on the new dress belonging to her own, Wen Klein's technology is very good, Shen Xiyan see this finished dress very like, she tried on the time that is heartily like, all can't wait for the early morning to come, she wants to wear this dress, and Lin Hao stand on top of the highest stage, tell the world, she and Lin Hao are Chinese! She wanted to vent the discriminatory treatment she had received for Lin Hao!

Shen Xiyan knew the scale of this party, and from the news and the momentum created in the past two days, although she could not understand the F language, she could still understand Lin Hao's two speeches in Chinese. Her ears were filled with the words of a lifetime about Mr. Lin Hao, Shen Xiyan's ears were familiar

The anticipated early morning came, she changed into the Venklein gown and looked at herself in the mirror? The shade dye whisked zero wu serving Lu Lu? all looked at several times before finally giving up to shake Lin Hao. In fact, Lin Hao saw Shen Xiyan change clothes early on, only he was not willing to disturb his wife's appreciation of his own elegance, besides, Lin Hao was also admiring Shen Xiyan's beauty ah

Love a person, never feel bored

‘Husband, husband, you’re still pretending to sleep!’ Shen Xiyan shook several times and found that Lin Hao just didn’t open his eyes, which made Shen Xiyan pout, then leaned down on Lin Hao’s side and blew up gently, whispering.

Lin Hao hugged Shen Xiyan, wrapped his arms around her slender waist and gently rubbed Shen Xiyan’s head, today was a very important day!

It was the time to decide whether he could save Shen Xiyan in the first place.

‘Brother Jun’s coming, I won’t lose no matter what!’ Lin Hao said in his heart.

‘Alright, alright, get up and wash up. We still have to hurry.’

Because it was a grand banquet, it opened its entrance from eight o’clock, and the person who set the time for the banquet to open was Lin Hao, which he had set after communicating with Boris, and also together with the news that Bigir had brought the king.

At this time, Lin Hao seemed to see that the two forces had made a decision to go head to head!

This was what Lin Hao wanted to see, and he felt that it was also what Jun Wu Regret wanted to see the most. Jun Wu Regrets was not afraid of world chaos, but of the world not being in chaos. Of course he is not talking about a world war, but this mysterious organization in the world

Shen Xiyan broke away from inside Lin Hao's embrace, it's not that she didn't like the coziness, it's just that her heart had been stubborn and cared about the aggravation Lin Hao had suffered!

In fact, Lin Hao is also taking Shen Xiyan's care, on top of the banquet, he will also explode out.

Time passed by as Lin Hao and Shen Xi Yan washed up. The other people involved in the banquet inside the castle were also up

Over the banks of the Garonne River, giving a sense of being isolated, the golden leopard male lion was feeling a steady stream of senior biochemicals and mid-level biochemicals surrounding the earth boundary coming around. The golden leopard's heart trembled, so many terrifying forces were coming around, what kind of an event was going to happen here?

That Mr. Lin Hao, the volatility he brought to Toulouse was really great.

The male lion swallowed his saliva, the biochemicals' territories were all wells, but now so many people had converged on them, was that what it was all about? Why, he asked the Golden Panther, who kept shaking his head. Then he asked Bigil, but saw the cold look in Bigil's eyes, it was the first time he had felt such a terrifying look from Bigil, he had always thought Bigil was a gentle and humble senior biochemist, now it seemed that what oversized biochemist was a good crop

He could only wag his tail and return to the golden leopard's side after not getting any feedback from Bigil. He could sense that Golden Leopard must have received the cold shoulder from Biggle as well, so he was much more balanced

'Why are there so many high level cyborgs here? And why is there the Pope's aura?' The male lion couldn't help but say, his voice small.

Golden Panther kicked him, 'Don't talk nonsense if you don't know! That's the King's scent, as for the Pope's scent, I didn't feel it.'

'What?' The male lion froze, what was the king? Wasn't it the Pope?

'A king is something that exists only at a higher level of our strength, the noble knights of the ancient texts! It's the Pope's First Order of Knights! Of course that's all past history, now they're called kings.' The Golden Leopard explained, in a low voice, afraid of offending the King who was in the sky above.

The male lion made several consecutive oohs and aahs, so that was what happened. At the same time it was figured out, what was the quest above the Senior Cyborg, just why had he not heard of anyone advancing to 'King'?

Just as the male lion went on to ask, Golden Leopard slapped him hard, 'Don't ask random questions if you don't want to die!'

The male lion covered his golden lion's head and hurriedly nodded his head. This time, he was like a little confused existence

At the same time there was also an illusion that he no longer seemed to be one of the strongest existences, which caused him to fall incomparably short in his heart and was very uncomfortable, but he didn't dare to ask

The Golden Leopard looked at the presences in the sky, one was Bigir and the other was King.

Bigir stood beside a middle-aged man whose eyes were always scarlet, while an endless blood aura emanated from his body, and he was the king! The King of Vampires! And the last vampire in the world!

'Bigir, why has your strength not been very steady, I have a vague feeling that you are strong, very strong, even up to my strength' the vampire king asked with flashing red eyes.

Bigel recovered with a smile, interrupting the vampire king, 'What words is the king saying, if I can? Yi Ai Er Shan Yi Er Ai closed? enough to be as strong as you are, I fear I would be a king in my own right.'

The vampire king smiled and then asked curiously, 'Back then I interceded for you to break away from the church, and then you did eventually break away from the church. I am truly curious, what was the deal that the Pope made with you? Was it your heart of regeneration? But why, I can feel the presence of the Heart of Regeneration inside you? Bigel, you are truly mysterious! You are the number one under the King and to be honest, I really want to explore your secrets, no offense to you of course, just curious

Bigel was not offended by the vampire king's blunt words, still looking like a kindly old man, he replied respectfully, 'What secrets am I able to, just that I did something dangerous for the Pope for a few years at the time, and then the Pope promised me a break from the Church.'

'Huh.' The Vampire King laughed, could he believe such nonsense? That was just really ridiculous. Only after so many years with Bigel, the Vampire King wasn't angry in the face of Bigel's signature answer, but enjoyed the hot pain of the sun beating down on him.

Vampires hated sunlight with a passion, but to the extent that he was such a horrible being, the sun's burn just tickled him, like a massage, stimulating the central tissues in a very comfortable way

'Biggle, I do not wish you to be on the opposite side of us!' Suddenly, the vampire king spoke up.

There was an additional blood film around them at some point, which isolated the flow of air around them, as if a vacuum existed. Bigel knew that this was the Vampire King isolating the Pope's consciousness, making their conversation inaudible to the Pope

In the face of the Vampire King's sudden words, Bigel shuddered violently inside, but immediately regained his composure and instead smiled and inquired, 'King, what do you mean by this statement? When did I stand in opposition to you? If I was really on your side, Mohammad Kato, a little kid, would still be able to advance to Senior Cyborg with Black Piranha!

You don't think I don't know the horror of the black piranha, do you? It is one of the top ten aquatic cyborg species in the world in terms of biting power. If it wasn't for King's existence, do you think I would have let him advance to Advanced Cyborg?'

'Heh.' The Vampire King didn't get angry at Bigel when he saw that he had pulled away from the topic again. They both knew it in their hearts, they were just both reluctant to poke at that layer.

'I heard Boris went after that Chinese guy? Do you think that Chinese guy will end up on my bad side too? Doesn't he want to save his wife? He risked coming to our Western European world just to get to her wife,' the vampire king added.

Bigel shook his head in disbelief, 'I don't know why he would want to see Boris, who is a main warrior! He's a crazy politician. Always working against our church!'

'Huh.' The Vampire King sneered, 'Not with us, you don't belong to the Church' the Vampire King corrected.

Bigel was not embarrassed either, but looked down at the two men, Golden Leopard and Lion, within his gaze, Lion had become the first casualty of this war, only Golden Leopard he did not know. Because in this battle between the King and the Pope, the Lion was the first senior cyborg to be abandoned, and what about the Golden Leopard? Whose side would he be on?

Having watched Golden Panther for two hundred years, there was no sense of which king had groomed him, could it be the Pope? It couldn't be, the Church doesn't care to do that, so who could it be?

The situation at the moment was a three-legged race. One belongs to the Pope, one belongs to the 'King' alliance, and one is the senior biochemist trained by the ZF, except that the senior biochemist trained by the government they have not revealed who they represent, which is a rather terrifying fact, because the more hidden the enemy is, it means that such a threat is extremely terrifying and more feared

'I also belong to the biochemicals. Cyborgs are an existence that the ZF doesn't like.' Bigil replied.

It was at this statement from Bigil that the Vampire King nodded, yes, the ZF did not like their existence!

The Vampire King was annoyed at this information. The Church groomed successive dynasties to lead the F's forward? The Iyi Serve Wu'er Iyi Pick Zero? , no, leading the whole of Western Europe forward and opening up the industrial revolution! But then? Every one of those who came to power afterwards rebelled against the Church and disliked it! Damn these lowly human beings, unsatisfied human beings, indeed!

'These damned humans, I wonder why the Church has allowed them to remain!' The Vampire King said arrogantly, while gritting his teeth, 'Once I become Pope, I will control the order to death, making the powers that be slaves one and all, and if they don't listen to me, I will simply suck them dry!'

Bigil did not result in a word, the Vampire King's knowledge of this society was still in the glory of the Church a thousand years ago, did he not know that the real hot weapons of today's society were weapons that could threaten the existence of the Pope?

Does he not know that the bombs in the M countries nearly a hundred years ago made the ninja alliance of the East feel intimidated? Perhaps the Church is like that, remembering only its own glory, a decadent and corrupt existence, and their being replaced is a matter of history surviving and an integral part of the development of human civilization

'King. If that Chinese man does stand against us, what should we do?' Bigir suddenly thought of a question, and then asked seriously.

The vampire king could not help but sneer at Bigir's scruples from inside Bigir's voice, 'His strength is almost in the same class as yours, although he seems to have a strong explosive ability, as long as you perform a beast transformation and dismemberment, he is definitely not your opponent. You weren't so fearful back then Bigir, what, you've been in contact with humans for a long time and you're afraid of the east and the west?'

'Oh, the king is joking.' Bigir smiled back. Which was also starting to drum in his heart, was it really as the Vampire King said, that he could really beat Lin Hao by using the Beast Transformation to perform dismemberment? This was a question that had been in his mind that he had been unable to unravel since he had very much met Lin Hao.

How to say it, Lin Hao's strength was a terrifying existence. He said that he had killed Cang and Zu. But he knew that Lin Hao had killed him together with Jun Wu Regret! And Jun Wu Regret was very powerful, this was a piece of information that Wang had revealed to him before. After all, there were only a few terrifying existences in the world, so how could an existence like Wang not know about it?

Advanced Biochemists were also known as Ascended Patriarchs over in China. And on the Chinese side there were Grand Masters above the Innate Patriarchs! Lin Hao's strength today was only that of an Innate Patriarch, while Jun Wu Ren was a solid Grand Master! It was like someone telling Bigel that he could beat King with the strength of an Advanced Cyborg, which Bigel would never admit.

Because the closer you are to the strength of a king, the more you know that the strength of being close to a king and being a king are two grades of strength

But! When facing Lin Hao, Bigel always felt that Lin Hao's strength was definitely not that of an advanced biotic strength, but at least that of a king, however, Lin Hao was indeed only an innate clan master, which was a very bizarre existence

'Let's hope so. This Chinese man, leave it to me when the time comes.' The Vampire King said contemptuously.

When he fought with Lin Hao, Lin Hao actually couldn't kill his doppelganger with a single punch. A person who couldn't even kill his doppelganger with a single blow with his full strength, what was there for him to fear? Although the strength was there, unfortunately, the hard strength was still weak and he didn't take it to heart at all, unless the arrival of Jun Wu Ren

Chapter 1274

And he didn't believe that Jun Wuhuai would come out! Because this is the Church's stronghold, if he, Jun Wu Regret, dares to come out, he would be sending himself to his death! Jun Wuoren wouldn't protect his China and would come to Western Europe to send him to his death? This is absolutely impossible.

Although the East is now being stamped out by him, there are still many countries that threaten China's existence around -...

'When the time comes, you don't have to care about him, if he dares to really stand against me, I will kill him with one punch! The Chinese, a Chinese martial artist who has never stood on the world stage, the weakest of the mysterious forces, what do they have to fear. When the East was destroyed, I think it must be because Zu was weakened by the shock of the ancient prison, otherwise I can't imagine why Zu would have lost.' The Vampire King said.

As if he had heard something unimaginable, Bigir asked in a heavier tone, 'King, what has happened to the East? Does the Mouth of the World really exist?'

The Vampire King's eyes locked on Bigir's body, he could feel Bigir's urgency, he even knew about the ancient prison of the East, and the Mouth of the World, the Vampire King said playfully, 'I don't know where the Mouth of the World really leads, and I don't know if the rumours of the first Pope are true, because no one has ever entered the Mouth of the World. Even the Pope himself was killed by the second man, the Pope. So it is doubtful that he left his words behind. Only for some reason, the Pope has been very concerned about the Mouth of the World lately, and at the same time, this time, because of the death of Zu, it has caused all the mysterious forces in the world to go around the Ancient Prison to plant people as well as snoop, only I don't know what exactly they are looking for. And because of the exposure of the Ancient Prison, it has led to a lot of firefights and countless dead and wounded people somewhere, and many biochemists have a lot of complaints about that. And if I were to become Pope, I would never let anyone go forward to explore the ancient prison, even the existence of the first Pope who just talked about it must be a fake, what with the mouth of the world. It's just a broken deep well'

Listening to the Vampire King's chatter as well as arrogance, Bigel fell into deep thought, the Vampire King's meaning was clear, he did not believe in the existence of the Mouth of the World, nor was he willing to believe it, even bringing out the first Pope to question the Mouth of the World. Just why did the Vampire King himself not believe, but the Pope did? And what about the terrorist power groups in other countries that believe it? Have their head honchos, too, heard such legends?

Was the legend that was spread all over the world really just a legend?

'What, you want to go and see it? Fine then, when I become Pope, I will give you this task to do.' The Vampire King looked at Bigel's stony expression and said seriously.

Bigel hastily waved his hand, 'I am only good too? Wood flicker er zero yi serve dye intention? Odd.' At the same time Bigel pulled away from the subject, he looked at the image of the lake slightly scattered and rolling and said to the Vampire King, 'Mohammed Kato is swallowing the Heart of Energy, once he does, it won't take long for him to be able to become an Advanced Cyborg.'

For the Mouth of the World, it was clear that the Vampire King cared more about Mohammed Katou, who he had nurtured for years and given the Pope the power of his scepter, just so that he could play its part in the subsequent battle between the King and the Pope! And as Bigel said, Mohammed's type of cyborg is one of the top ten biting black piranhas in the world! And most of these top ten bite fish are extinct! Many of these extinct species are whale sharks and other non-existent species! It's no wonder that Bigel was afraid of such a terrifying being, once he grew up, he would explode with terrifying power, definitely not something that an ordinary advanced cyborg could resist!

The type of Biochemist is the upper limit of a Biochemist's strength. Even if one becomes a senior biochemist, one cannot break the shackles of the beast's own most powerful strength

That is to say the more terrifying the type of biochemist, the higher the ceiling of his future growth. And Mohammad Kato is the one with the highest growth limit among the contemporary cyborg species!

As long as he becomes an advanced cyborg, together with the power of the Pope's scepter, he will be able to defeat two Golden Leopards and Lions with just one

As for the biochemical crystals, that is the vampire king explored countless ancient cemetery ruins, risking his life to find a biochemical mutation crystals, he used a whole hundreds of years in order to layout the king and the pope's battle! Therefore, he would never allow himself to lose, nor would he think that he would lose.

The Pope is obsessed with eternity, but as a king he knows that there is no eternity in this world! If there were eternity, this Pope would not be the eighth Pope! It would be the second generation! Only the second generation of popes died of old age, the others died in the battle between the king and the pope

Even the horrible 2nd Pope didn't explore the Mouth of the World, so isn't the Mouth of the World a sham? It's ridiculous that so many people think that people can really last forever!

Unless, of course, a vampire exists!

‘I’m also very much looking forward to how strong the Katou will be after he advances.’

With that said, the water in this section of the Garonne River began to gush violently, as if boiling!

The promotion had begun!

Chapter 1275

‘Mohammed Katou is starting to advance!’ The male lion looked at the golden leopard, his huge lion’s head shining in gold as he exploded out with a powerful aura, all the strength of a senior biochemist unleashed!

‘Looks like he’s really looking for death! How dare he rush to level up at this time.’ The male lion then muttered, while clenching his fist, making a sound brought out by the friction of his joints, appearing to be very powerful.

Golden Leopard once again looked at the male lion and mentally mourned for him, all of them knew that this was a big battle, only he didn’t. Perhaps this was the sadness of the advanced cyborg.

In fact, apart from the male lion not knowing, Mohammed Katou didn’t know too much either, but unlike the male lion, he had what he thought was the presence of the Pope behind him, only to also wonder why the Pope had told him to call him King, but of course, these were not the important things, the important thing! was that he was about to become an advanced cyborg.

The fruit went into his belly and the vigorous energy permeated every cell of his body? Ai Wu Fu Fu Xi Lu Fu Shan? , then the cells absorbed the power, he felt as if the crystallized biochemicals in his body were about to explode, and the next moment, a steady stream of blood qi from the heart of regeneration was feeding into every cell of his body for him to absorb

In such a state, he only needed to maintain it for half an hour before he could advance to the next level

Shen Xiyan with a stunning smile rode in the car driven by Lin Hao himself, Lin Hao looked at the navigation prompts and knew that there was still a little bit of distance to go, he turned his head to look at Shen Xiyan, 'Wife, we'll be there soon.'

At the same time he looked at Night One inside the rearview mirror, that meaningful look told Night One that he was going to take every second of the next minute seriously

In the mobile phone that Yeyi had on him, he received messages that kept vibrating non-stop, all the feedback that he had arranged for the officers to get. The Black Dragon was here too, hidden early in an unnoticed corner of Toulouse. In fact it wasn't just the top brass of Zeus who had come, the bottom members were also on the scent, it was a big deal, the feedback he had given to Jun Wu Ren, plus the information Jun Wu Ren had gathered himself, Jun Wu Ren had told him that if he could still get important information, then it would be great, if not, then forget it, and in the meantime never just put your life on the line... ..

Having received his big brother's admonition, Black Dragon clearly analysed that his big brother Jun Wu Ren should have gotten the information he wanted to get, which made Black Dragon happy for that. He likewise applied to come to Toulouse along with the large group, for the simple and straightforward purpose of seeing if he could still salvage a bit of useful information

The venue for the party.

It was a modern, high-tech high-rise. There were security guards standing side by side for three miles at the entrance, an expensive sports car sped by, glancing with the eyes, no less than a hundred cars, so you can imagine how big the party is today, and it doesn't stop there, there is a steady stream of rich people waiting to enter

Like ten miles of red makeup, Shen Xiyan held Lin Hao's arm and walked down the red carpet, the confidence in her bones radiating from the inside out. For some reason, she felt exhilarated, looking at every foreigner's gaze, no matter how they looked, Shen Xiyan was extremely confident, while telling herself that she must stand on top of the highest high platform and tell these so-called aristocrats that she and her Lin Hao were from China! The ancient and powerful Chinese people!

In fact, after Shen Xiyan and Lin Hao entered the arena, the eyes of everyone in the arena would be pinned on her! After all, no one didn't know Lin Hao, but many people didn't know Shen Xiyan. Lin Hao's name was already the hottest word in the fermentation of these three days, as long as it involved fashion, aristocrats and the like, there was no one who hadn't heard of him, but Shen Xiyan's, however, rarely flowed out. After all, the publicity was that Finkin-Gette and Bastian had thrown a superb party for a Chinese man, a party to which all the nobility of Toulouse had been invited.

Finkin-Gette followed Lin Hao's lead, and that lofty head, closed down quite a bit. This made the other nobles feel a bit uncomfortable, thinking to themselves that a Chinese man should be so restrained.

And then look at Bastian, following the same behind, the usual inside proud look, even more humble, look at some small nobleman teeth itch. After all, these two were the most prestigious young men in Toulouse, and to look like this now was hurting their pride.

'Isn't it just a little nobleman? Even if he is the first Chinese noble in Toulouse, but there is no need to make these two so humble, right? Look at Bastian's humble appearance, it's almost pathetic. And look at Finkin Gaiter's eyes looking at that Chinese man, as pathetic as a little fan seeing his idol.'

'Hush, stop it! Do you know who broke Finkin Gatt's face?' One of the men who knew a bit of the story said to him.

'Who?' At his words, everyone around him looked over in parts, then inquired.

He whispered, 'It's this Chinese guy! You just know that he is the president of the Porte Group and have just recently learned that he is the new owner of Castle Golephant! But do you guys know why the Kashi Group is being suppressed by Lin's New Investment?'

When it came to Lin's New Investment, everyone was caught up in thought. As a well-known company in Toulouse, the Kashi Group, it had been completely and utterly delisted within these three days! That was a super group of companies with a market capitalisation of tens of billions of dollars, a company of such magnitude that had disappeared directly from Toulouse without a sound? And all the nobles present knew that the Church had a protection agreement, but what? And yet he was still destroyed? Of course, even if the Church doesn't protect it, what about the local ZF in Toulouse? Don't they protect? Surely they do.

And yet, with all this protection, he was still destroyed by Lin's new investment. This must show how scary Lin's new investment is. They, the small noblemen, had not bothered to say that Lin's New Investment was just a fierce dragon crossing the river, and that a strong dragon could not suppress a snake on the ground, but not even a few days later, the other side had crushed a super conglomerate with a market value of tens of billions of dollars into bankruptcy

The new investment of the Lin's, horrible as this!

'Why is it being suppressed?' Someone asked cautiously, hearing that he was somewhat intimidated.

'Because the president of the Jiashi Group used overly aggressive remarks about this Mr. Lin Hao's his son, causing him to get angry and order that the Jiashi Group must be eliminated within three days!'

'This can't be!' Someone shouted loudly at once, what a laugh, he was just a small Asia Pacific investor, how could he possibly let the new Lin investment suppress a super conglomerate so drastically?

The man sneered and laughed at the rebuttal: 'To be honest, at first this Mr. Lin was instructed to sign a non-disclosure agreement at the time of the Golefte. That's why for three days, no one dared to break the news even if they were present at the time, but after yesterday, the news came out! It was the ZF who revealed it, and it was the Boris family who said it. The president of Lin's new investment, is this Mr. Lin! You guys are unaware that people from the Boris family said how much Boris respects this Mr. Lin.'

'What!' Countless people were shocked

It was unbelievable, he was actually the president identity of Lin's new investment, such a horrible identity, holding this banquet, it seemed to make sense. At once all the people spread the word one by one and looked at Lin Hao. Those women who already admired Shen Xiyang were envious to death. Anna, who was brought in, looked at Lin Hao's back, her eyes dumbfounded, he was the president of Lin's new investment, once she had some disdain for him, damn it, and hated George even more in her heart. Thinking of George's miserable ordeal, Anna felt that it was still light! Offending the president of Lin's new investment and not bankrupting their family was all a mercy!

Putting George at the back of her mind, Anna looked at Avril and found that Avril's eyes had been red and Anna was heartbroken, only, what could be done about it? Look at other people's wife Shen Xiyang, at this moment, decent, graceful and elegant, whether it is beauty or temperament, and Lin Hao are very fit, and then look at Lin Hao in front of her pampering care model, that is really love. Not Xiang treats them like that, although not too big to refuse, but also will keep a safe distance, it turns out that he had a wife early, and is still such a beautiful Chinese classical beauty.

How could Anna say it before, she had some times felt that in this world, there would not be many women worthy of Lin Hao. Even out of jealousy, she sometimes felt that Avril was not good enough for Lin Hao either. But now that she saw Shen Xiyang, she felt that only such a woman could be worthy of Shen Xiyang, right

Bob was in the middle of the crowd and at this moment, all started to look up to Lin Hao a little. He knew that Lin Hao's identity was extraordinary, and he also knew that Lin Hao's strength was extraordinary, and he began to watch him become the number one person of the younger generation in Toulouse so quickly, and honestly, his heart was incomparably amazed.

Seeing Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan walking intimately on the red carpet, their loving looks were like that of a newlywed couple, their eyes were filled with each other's looks. Both showed a wave of good and bad in this world had nothing much to do with them. Such love, looking at the old Bob is also the heart of the yearning, he is F people, also romantic people, especially like romantic

He looked back at his daughter, Jenny, and found her eyes red. He didn't know whether he was touched or hard, but Bob's heart was incomparably relaxed at this moment anyway. Lin Hao told Jenny in this way, rejected Jenny. Wasn't that what Bob wanted to achieve? He didn't want to see Jenny fall deeper and deeper, but the powerful Lin Hao was not someone he could lecture or say things like I'll give you as much money as you need to leave my daughter. Besides, is he as rich as Lin Hao? No.

By the time Lin Hao entered, the party had already started.

The male lion from afar looked over and couldn't help but sneer, "Such a powerful strong man is so fond of worldly pandering. But I've heard that they don't seem to be able to live for a few hundred years like me, do they? I can't beat him now, but, I'll live longer than him! When he dies, hey, I will show him what it means to be caught in the despair of reincarnation!"

Golden Leopard shook his head straight after hearing this, the Lion was far from knowing the seriousness of the matter and was still holding a grudge at this point in time. But to be sincere, it seemed that the average lifespan of the strongest people in China was not as high as they were. It was usually around one hundred and thirty or forty years old. This is all because of the benefits of prolonging their lives by strengthening their bodies, not at all like them, who are easily two to three hundred years old, and those who have a bit of opportunity are directly five to six hundred years old. The pope, for example, lived for at least five hundred years. And then to the Pope, this kind of are a thousand years long, at the time he did not become a biochemist, think a person live two hundred years feel like a luxury, see is he are more than two hundred years old, feel? Wu Fu closed dye west land zero land? He hadn't lived long enough.

He looked at the stupid advanced cyborgs in the sky, and then looked at the resentful lion with a pitiful gaze. Perhaps this was pathetic.

'How proud he is now, how sad his own clan will be when he dies! As long as they dare to walk out of China, I will let them out one by one to die. Let this be a curse of despair, a curse that no descendant of his family will be able to erase! Ha ha!' The male lion shouted excitedly, itching to rush into Lin Hao's face to mock and say it out loud. Lin Hao had made him lose face within the entire circle of senior biochemists, and as a high ranking senior biochemist, how could he possibly swallow this anger. But because he was afraid of Lin Hao's strength at the time, he didn't dare to make any unpleasant comments, but now, knowing that the other party had a maximum life expectancy of one hundred and thirty-four years, the Lion was happy!

He couldn't beat Lin Hao, but it was still easy to crush an unarmed, ordinary man, and with a body like his, sleep wouldn't find out after killing one! Because what they control, is not the power that science can all explain through.

Shen Xiyan looked at the pairs of eyes, they had envy, also looked down, also shocked all kinds of eyes looked at her. She took Lin Hao's arm and looked determinedly at that stage! It's close, almost there!

She was a little excited, she couldn't wait to be able to get up there right away, the thing that had upset her so much about coming to Toulouse was being racially insulted. The thought of Lin Hao being racially abused made her very uncomfortable and incredibly depressed! Her husband is very powerful, but when faced with something, back to choosing to ignore and hold back, this is something she does not want to see. Although it is said that Chinese people are Confucian and choose to ignore some things, it is really annoying when they bounce around too much. And!

Her own husband pampered her so much and stood up for her in everything, and now that he was being bullied, she, as Lin Hao's wife, had to take out this anger! Just leave the bullying of Lin Hao to her alone! And she can't even love him enough to bully Finally, she walked onto the stage.

The host was instantly excited that she was hosting such a big party. This would be the glory of her life as a host, and later if she retired in her old age, she could show it off to others and say that she had supported a grand scene that the whole of Toulouse would never see again! And at the same time a party with a Chinese man as the main character! You know, the hatred of the F's has always been buried in the heart, the condescension of the F's has always been placed in the mind. They don't even have much respect for the Chinese, yet she hosted a banquet for the Chinese that the entire Toulouse nobility came to celebrate and didn't dare not attend!

Looking down at the aristocrats, they looked like a party she had hosted, a starlet singing ball, and at the bottom of the stage, there were all sorts of loser fans, and look at them, they really looked just like the loser fans.

'Let's give a warm welcome to Mr and Mrs Lin!' The host shouted loudly with excitement, she used her full body strength to shout, she was afraid that her voice was not loud enough, but her voice even made Shen Xiyan feel some? The company's main business is to provide a wide range of services to the public. It was noisy, but Shen Xiyan did not interrupt her noise. She could feel that this host was excited and also with respect to them. The more intense her emotions were, the more exuberant the mouthful of anger that was about to be vented in Shen Xiyan's heart

'The people at the venue shouted loudly, especially Finkin-Gate and Bastian, like two little fan boys, where there is no look of being worth tens of billions? Look at that open-mindedness, it really made the nobles present quite sweaty.

The nobles looked at the Gates and Bastian families, they looked at the expression of the old Gates, they looked at the expression of the Smiths. It really made their hearts hard to find that the two were not displeased, and even just as incomparably happy with the stock this.

Everyone was aware of the horror of Lin Hao's identity, but still quite resisted the idea of Lin Hao being so dazzling and dazzling as a Chinese. There were even people muttering in private about what a Chinese man was arrogant about, yet there was also talk of national hatred.

'It's really disgraceful enough! A Chinese man is hosting such a spectacle in Toulouse, and all those present are nobles who can attend. What is this? Isn't this just humiliating us? What a disgrace, look at all those powerful nobles, each one of them is actually cheerful and applauding, it's ridiculous, celebrating a Chinese? Celebrating him for what? The Chinese are the lowest race in the world, and now they are stepping on our proud Toulouse people and holding such a grand banquet. If word gets out tomorrow, the whole southern city, not the whole of F, the whole of Western Europe, the whole of the world, will we not be even the lowest race? Wouldn't we be no better than even the lowest of the races! Damn it!

His voice greatly rendered a lot of bloodthirsty teenagers, the country's hatred, with glory. Granted, Western European countries such as F were free countries, pursuing all private pleasures, and really didn't have a particularly large presence in their own hearts for races and the like. But when an existence that they don't even normally look up to is now standing over them, they feel very humiliated!

That feeling of having one's dignity humiliated makes one's face feel hot and sore.

'Yes, look at those fat-headed nobles! Not one of them dared to stand up for themselves, my heart, it really hurts. When will the great spirit of F be able to stand on top of the world! He finished covering his chest in sorrow, that deep-through-evil look, how righteous and indignant, a generous look of righteousness, really makes people feel that there is a great and fearless spirit, but he was just saying that, although scolding the nobles present for their inaction, but what about themselves? Just ranting incompetently in the midst of the crowd, daring to speak but not to act, perhaps this is the comedy of self-deception, it's really funny

'You speak so generously, so fiercely, so indignantly, but are you not nobles yourselves? Why don't you stand up and fight back? What do you say about the other nobles being fat and big-headed and yourselves? Are you not rich and partial, and then what? Why don't you stand up for yourselves? You dare to speak but not to act? If you don't have what it takes, then shut up! If the other side hears you, don't drag us down with you!' Someone stood up and retorted.

'Yeah, seeing how exuberant you guys are talking about it, you think it's really something, so go ahead, hide your fears inside and stir up emotions in others here. This kind of unwilling fear is still beyond ridiculous. We are at most afraid of Lin Hao's terrifying power, while you, being both afraid and hypocritical, are simply disgracing yourselves! I just feel that if you guys are really very angry at heart, then you should come out of the banquet now and find a round table, talk about a round table and then come and strike a blow against Lin's new investment. If you don't have that, shut the hell up right now! We don't want to be the Kaiser Group!'

Another person spoke out in mockery, and as soon as this voice came out, all those young nobles who had been outwardly red-faced and exuberant, all had ugly faces. Although their mouths were full of words, if they were to resist, it would be tantamount to killing them, and they would not dare to do so even if they were given a hundred guts.

In the face of a loud voice, they lowered their heads, not daring to face the stage.

Shen Xiyan's gaze kept examining the people below, she saw countless expressions of displeasure, but also saw many heartfelt blessings. She knew that in this world, there would always be people who were blind! There will also be people who are inexplicably red-eyed, good people and bad people, there is not a relative difference in the first place, there is just an emotional thing

'The arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Lin Hao in Toulouse is a boon to Toulouse! They brought to Toulouse the super conglomerate Lin's New Investments, an investment company that is comparable to the top major companies in the world, and whenever they look at an investment project, there's nothing that doesn't work out! In other words, as soon as they invest in local industries in Toulouse, the other side will get a qualitative leap forward! This is a hard fact!' The presenter said in a high-pitched voice, she paused, took a breath and then added: 'You can look at the big screen behind me, which shows the projects that Lin's new investment has invested in around the world!'

After she finished speaking, on the big screen behind her, there were various investment figures in a flash, which were quite magnificent. The aristocrats in the audience were incomparably red-eyed, how can I put it, when they looked at the data from Lin's new investments, they felt that this was a giant wheel that spreads money, they make money wherever they invest, they never lose money!

In fact, the nobles present were all economists, and knew all about the various curves and various data that were studied mentally. Just with the scale of Lin's new investment, it could totally become a super closed loop. How can I put it, no matter which company it is, as long as Lin's New Investment strikes, they can take a start-up company to IPO, because inside their plate, they have everything! Whether it's traffic, or channels, or technology, or platforms, inside Lin's New Investments, no matter what industry they are in, they have their own unique traffic tray in the pallets, and, for Lin's New Investments, the last thing they are short of is money! And their global investment, for the positioning of products, can be placed in the world, such a scale, as long as the helmsman does not play dead, not to say five hundred years of heritage of enterprises, at least a hundred and one years definitely will not collapse!

If they ride on such a huge wheel, they will still be worried about making money? Can they not be excited? And look at why these two men, Bastian and Finkin-Gate, are so humble. Who wouldn't be happy to humble themselves and piggyback on a car that can make money so easily? Besides, how could they know that the horror of Lin Hao is not here at all 'This is the feast of Toulouse! It will lead Toulouse forward! Boost the local economy of Toulouse!'

In fact, Lin's new investment isn't that terrifying, except that he's positioned to somewhat undermine Lin's century-long plan to invest abroad and then gather countless resources, but Lin Hao is willing to go through with it for Shen Xiyan's sake! Besides, who could know that this wave of his would be a failure? What if it succeeded?

As Shen Xiyan listened to the host's words, the anger in her heart became more and more suppressed! They had done so much for Toulouse, and then this group of people still had a problem with them? If she had known that Lin Hao had such a plan, she would definitely not have agreed to Lin Hao doing this? Yi Ai Er Xi Zha Er Shan Dye? , it was really uncomfortable for her to take such a good thing cheaply to this group of white-eyed wolves.

‘The actual fact is that you’ll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these. Look at them, all of them with unconvincing eyes and expressions, and, humph, they dare not look down on us!’ Shen Xiyan’s voice was not loud, but the host could hear her.

This host could understand Chinese, so she heard Shen Xiyan’s words word for word.

Her whole heart thumped, how dare they keep disrespecting Lin Hao and his wife! This was simply a sin for Toulouse! They had to know that Toulouse’s economic development had been stagnant for a long time, and it was so hard to get a giant ship to take them forward. If they were held up by some uneducated rich kids and aristocrats, would they be able to face the locals of Toulouse?

Of course they probably wouldn’t care, because capitalists are incredibly selfish things. They will destroy one ecological balance after another in order to cash in on short listings, they are hungry wolves, they are treacherous devils! How could they care about the feelings of the common man? What an abomination!

Lin Hao smiled, Shen Xiyan had said so, and to be honest if he hadn’t promised Boris, Lin Hao might have told Shen Xiyan that I would move Lin’s new investment away once I had cured you of your illness. But he couldn’t tell Shen Xi Yan the reason for this, he could only smile and promise her, ‘Honey, those small company owners who make you unhappy, we will never work with them!’

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1279-1280

Shen Xiyan nodded helplessly, Lin Hao had said so, what could she do but accept it, but still pouted and said to Lin Hao, ‘Then husband you must remember, you absolutely must not cooperate with them!’

Lin Hao nodded his head vigorously, incomparably serious. How can I put it, he and Shen Xiyan had encountered many things and people, and Shen Xiyan had been victimised by many people. Lin Hao thought it might be that Shen Xiyan was pregnant, which led to great mood swings, but it was all something that the two of them accepted as a couple, and whatever Shen Xiyan did, Lin Hao would unconditionally agree.

In Toulouse, many people mocked him saying that he, Lin Hao chose to turn a blind eye to them because they were weak, after all, would a giant tree deliberately lift its roots to step on a small grass because of a mocking word. But when that little grass messes with something that the giant tree cares about, even if the other party is a mayfly, Lin Hao is still willing to move his whole body, no matter what the countless cost!

And Shen Xiyan, she was not a petty person, she just felt that this incomparably powerful husband of hers had been despised and insulted by a tiny rich man, and her heart was incomparably uncomfortable!

‘I will! Honey, don’t worry. We have the assets to not work with whoever we want, if you don’t see? The actual fact is that you’ll be able to get a lot more than just a few of the most popular and most popular ones. accustomed to anyone, just buy him out.’ Lin Hao held Shen Xiyan’s hand, swaying, like a pair of young lovers in love, watching the people on the stage dazed incomparably, how to say, such a solemn occasion, two people actually ‘shamelessly’ began to fall in love, which makes the envious people on the floor, the heart incomparably wail, OK!

The male of them felt that Shen Xiyan was incomparably beautiful and the female felt that Lin Hao was very handsome.

‘Hee hee.’ Shen Xiyan low shy smile, then squirm hit Lin Hao’s hand, that shy look, caused Lin Hao mood comfort, ‘well well, let the party continue, so many people watching us talk about love, and besides, there are mum and Gu Yue in the field, strange embarrassment ‘

Lin Hao ‘haha’ a big laugh, signaling the host to continue.

The host looked at the youngest and richest couple in Toulouse, and their lovey-dovey look was the kind that could be written into a textbook! It was so romantic! In such a grand scene, they only had eyes for each other, as if the only thing worth caring about in this world was each other’s eyes.

The host went on for another ten minutes.

Lin Hao looked at the time, an hour after the banquet had started, only ten minutes to go, the action in the sky was getting louder and louder, Boris under the field was nervous, old Gail and Smith and the others were also looking out nervously, the water of the Garonne River, the overflowing energy was gradually weakening, the water floor however looked like it was hiding a prehistoric shark, it was churning under the water, Lin Hao felt it, the familiar yet powerful aura, wasn’t it Mohammad Kato who was it?

Had he advanced? I can’t believe it was so soon. Advanced biochemist ah, he raised his head to look above the sky, in the distance a powerful energy body rushed to the clouds, he brought a terrifying pressure, very powerful!

It was as if the sky was falling!

‘A real Pope?’ Lin Hao’s eyes narrowed slightly, this aura was much more powerful than Cang He Zu, and quite a bit more powerful than that so-called king. So? A king dared to call out to such an existence? Surely he wasn’t looking for death!

What’s his strength? Mohammad Kato? Or the advanced cyborg present here? Or the king hiding in the distance?

Who cares, this is their own business, as long as they can save Shen Xiyan, Lin Hao does not care who stands over there, who will ultimately benefit from the Church and the ZF, who will ultimately win the battle between the King and the Pope, Lin Hao does not care, all he wants is who survives and heals Shen Xiyan

Shen Xiyan and the nobles present couldn’t feel each other’s presence!

She stood on top of the highest high platform and looked down on the group of nobles in front of her. The nobles and castles that she had once known in books and heard about, she now had them all.

‘Avril, I fight for you!’ A voice came to Avril’s side and Avril hurriedly looked at her, it was a direct descendant of another of their four great families, her name was Beth.

Looking at Beth’s angry face, Avril hastily pulled her back to keep her in line. She could see that Beth was very angry and she wanted to go up to Lin Hao and have a theory! But Avril could see that Lin Hao’s love for Shen Xiyan was so deep, the love in his eyes, and the light in his eyes, all shining for Shen Xiyan, she and Lin Hao had also been close, but that was all her own touch, she knew that love was not touching, but she had touched herself so much, and touched others, but not Lin Hao, didn't she feel bad? She was very hard, she was very depressed, especially looking at Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan so in love with each other, even more stimulated her tear glands

'Beth, don't be reckless! You have to know that the destruction of the Jiashi Group is not that Yang William offended Lin Hao, there are many people who offended Lin Hao, but what? All of them are still alive and well and are plagued by their families! But the owner of the KSH Group just because his words were frivolous to his wife, the KSH Group, with the assistance of the Church and the ZF, still escaped the despair of bankruptcy! Beth, do you want to watch your own family, destroyed in front of you?' Avril pulled Beth in and said, she was really afraid that Beth would step up at this time, she was also afraid that she would then never be a friend with Lin Hao that she could see again because of Beth's stepping up.

Lin Hao was the president of Lin's new venture, and she was the chief assistant in the president's office, and they were looking up but not down. Although she knows that she and Lin Hao will never be able to be friends again, but watching Lin Hao behind his back is something she is very willing to do, she doesn't want to even have the chance to watch him in silence

Just like the cullinan that has been cupped in her hand, she knows that the diamond is no longer worth anything, but it was given to her by Lin Hao

'Avril, what are you afraid of! He's just a Chinese guy, and it's the fact that people give him face that makes him look good! If people don't give him face, he's nothing! Don't look at the big scene now, but what about it? What is he in Toulouse? And you Smiths, with him bullying you like that, can you stand it?' Beth whispered unhappily, saying to herself, 'They're just a Chinese, how good can they be? This is Toulouse, a multinational conglomerate, no matter how powerful they are, they are just that. In front of the four families, they were nothing. She wanted to stand up for Avril, to fight for her, but more than that, she was upset! Extremely upset! In Toulouse, how could they, the Chinese, make such a big show of themselves! Especially that woman, she was so uncomfortable with the way she was acting! She, Beth, was determined to be the most famous woman in Toulouse, and now? She felt very humiliated to have her thunder stolen by a Chinese

It can't be helped that Beth is a native of Toulouse, educated and surrounded by friends with such personalities, it's hard for her not to form such a chain of contempt! It can't be helped, not everyone has studied in China like she did, and she has explained the culture to many of her friends, but they are all very dismissive, which makes her struggle! Of course there are many aristocratic friends who are aware of the horrors of China, but they will go against the grain in order to fit in with the aristocratic circles. On the surface, they follow everyone else and say that China is nothing, but secretly they follow some Chinese entrepreneurs and work together respectfully

The only country that is backward is the one that holds on to the past honor and does not move forward. Keeping that honour is something that requires endless effort in the present as well as in future generations, rather than remaining stagnant and even wishing for the past to reappear and the world to go backwards! If that were true, Avril knew that even the whole world put together would be no match for China! They have had great battles with hundreds of thousands of armies in two thousand years, and to think of their history here, the three hundred warriors of Sparta going forward? I'm afraid these three hundred men are nothing in front of the vassal kings of the other side's cutthroat clan? Not to mention two thousand years ago, even a thousand years ago, one of their dynasties, with an army from China, fought directly to the European continent and almost took over the whole of Europe, how could their honour be compared to that of the Toulouse a hundred years ago? The other side didn't even hang on to it all the time, they all knew that backwardness would be beaten, and they, the nobles? Many of the ancient nobles are still gloating

The world is actually a big place? Shan ai whisking whisking ai chalu? , but their circle is ever so small, so small that it's laughable

Avril lost a laugh, 'Our family swallowed it ah. Even I have become a great credit to the family. Beth, the honour of the Four Families has long since been trampled down to nothing by the Gaither family.'

Beth smiled, her face hardened, feeling that Avril had disrespected her! She stood up for Avril, but the other girl kept belittling her, which made her angry and feel that Avril looked down on her.

Beth grunted in her heart in anger, wasn't it just because she had some flirtation with Lin Hao? And then to really think that she could be powerful in Toulouse? To be the queen of Toulouse! You don't even want to see if the other party still wants you. Since you're so obsessed, I'll let you just shatter.

Aren't you having a slight fling with Lin Hao? Although Lin Hao is already married, are you clean? Avril, you have a fiancé, and although the relationship seems to be broken, it existed! He's a wife, you have a fiancé, it's a complicated relationship without explanation!

Just as Avril was looking at the stage, Beth opened Avril's collection and came out from the middle of the crowd. She was beautiful and flamboyant, her clothes were specially tailored, after all, it was impossible for her not to care about such a big party, she was the woman who was inspired to become the Queen of Toulouse! How could she ignore every opportunity to express herself?

'Who's that!'

'That's Beth!'

‘Beth of the Chevrolet family, one of the Four Great Families of Communication!’

‘What does she want?’ A wave of voices floated out from inside the previously defiant group, as if they had seen hope.

When Beth stood up, they realised that it wasn’t just them, the little nobles, who were upset about the Chinese standing centre stage and strutting their stuff, but also the people from the really big families! That’s right, the people from their small families were extremely upset, not to mention these super big families. They must have been the ones to lose face first

‘Beth!’

‘Beth!’ The crowd began to cheer amongst themselves, the rousing cheers that grew louder and louder as the voices joining in embracing Beth grew louder and louder. Beth looked at them as if she saw her own followers!

She knew then that many people were actually already upset with these two Chinese, only because they were small in power and intimidated by the other side’s overwhelming tactics!

But they, the Chevaliers, were a top family, a communications family. It’s not something that a group like Jiashi can just suppress! The Cascades? Can they compete with them? It’s not even worthy of their shoes. She really didn’t believe that they would dare to go to war with their family! No one would want to offend a local snake, it’s like looking for death.

Let's hope that the Chinese will behave themselves, be honest and quiet, and leave the Toulouse stage to the Toulouse people, or if they don't, then let the Toulouse people, led by her, sanction them! Let him know that in Toulouse, this will always be the domain of the Toulouse people! The little Chinese will either lie down or get out!
