

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1281-1290

Chapter 1281

'Beth! Take him down!'

'Beth! You are our goddess!'

The countless voices embracing her were so exuberant that it made Beth feel big!

Shen Xiyan looked at the group, their uplifted appearance was piercing. Lin Hao listened to their true arms chanting and stared at the woman called Beth, she was noble and beautiful, but that lofty head and the eyes that stared at him with a threatening flavour made Lin Hao feel that there was some fire in there, she was up to no good!

Lin Hao narrowed his eyes and gritted his teeth slightly, he was really hoping that these people would be quiet for a while and not make any mess, his eyes were always on Mohammed Katou, as for the party in front of him, apart from telling the Toulouse people that he was Lin Hao, that his wife was Shen Xiyan and that he loved his wife very much. Then there was nothing more. At first, all these things were done just to get closer to the church, but who could have thought that in the end, there was no need to do all this, but well, for his wife to be happy for a while, he still felt that it was worth it again

Every moment of romance remained in Lin Hao's mind and he would never forget it. He believed that Shen Xiyan would not either

However, if someone came to disturb Shen Xi Yan's elegance at this time! Then Lin Hao would definitely not let him go, no matter who it was! No matter who it was!

Shen Xiyan listened to the explanation behind her, her brilliant star-like eyes were slightly chilly, she had a grudge in her heart before she came. It was only the host's words and the reaction of the audience that made her not notice the anger, so she chose to finish by mentioning her grievances and telling them that the Chinese people were the most civilised and orderly people in the world!

Now it looked as if the other side didn't want her to say it when she broke up!

Beth was treading briskly, floating, enjoying being embraced by so many people, feeling as if she was the strongest woman, the head of the women's movement! She would lead the resistance behind her and express her emotions! She was one step closer to becoming Queen of Toulouse.

And yet, she had the perfect idea! But the people behind her were terrified! Her family, in particular, Chevreau, while literally falling out of their seats in fear of the Lord, in a comical manner that did not make Smith laugh, nor did it amuse old Gait. Their faces were all the same, covered with sympathy!

Among the group of minor nobles opposite them, there had been protests and voices, but they were so silenced by a group of suppressed voices that they could not open their voices, and at the same time they were so frightened themselves that they did not dare to speak out after two more reprimands.

This was a very destabilising factor, because the education of the Toulouse people, told them that the young men in front of them were nobles, noble nobles! A people who could rival the Empire of the Sunset! In their knowledge, the Eastern world is backward, and it is the West that controls the wealth of the world and is the lord of freedom

They were equally afraid that this instability would happen in their own families. But! This voice, this one person who stood up to this happening, turned out to be Beth of the Chevrolet family, one of their four great families!

The other three families plus the head of the Gaiter family looked at the Chaiflow? The other three families plus the head of the Gaiter family looked at the Chaiflo? The other three clans plus the head of the Gaiter clan looked at the Chaiflowers and there was nothing but sympathy in their gaze, and there was celebration on everyone's face!

Someone had come forward to take a beating, they could now finally let go of the worries in their hearts!

But the most relaxed of the group were naturally the Smiths and the Gates, both of whom had been described by the Toulouse nobility as the dogs of the Chinese. There was no way around it, look at the pomp and circumstance of the spectacle, the one metre of red carpet they hadn't walked down was dripping with the sweat of Finkin-Getebastian, and the old Gaiters and Smiths who walked on it felt incredibly humiliated. Of course they felt it before, but now, well, they feel thankful.

Look at the Cascade Group

The old Gator was really not expecting that there were really stupid people inside the four families who did not listen to the family discipline.

He looked to Chevrolet with deep sympathy, then shook his head and watched the stage, watching the combative Beth! Old Gator knew that not only was this girl finished for life! The Chevrolet family was going downhill too!

They had offended not only Lin Hao and his new Lin investment, but the ZF as well, and even the Church in this! But what is certain is that the Chevrolets will have a tough time under Boris!

When Boris, who was sitting at the bottom left of the stage, saw the voices of the revolt, which were like a parade, and saw that the leader of the group was actually Beth of the Chevrolet family, the expression on his face went from shock and anger to fury! The murderous intent in his eyes was so strong that he would have walked up to the Chevrolet and asked why there was such a scene if not for the spectacle!

To be honest Boris sat here and watched the emotions of each side, he found that the small leftist nobility he represented were complaining, but no one was coming forward to be the first one!

But then, at the level of the top nobility, led by the four great families, the Gargates, there was actually someone in their crowd who stood up to them, and wasn't that the Chevrolet family not giving him face? He had told them, with the utmost seriousness, that the members of his family must be restrained from causing trouble at the banquet, no matter what! That was what he had repeatedly asked, even begged!

And yet, there it was!

Chevalier! Chevalier! Damn it!

Boris clenched his fists as he stood to come and try to explain something, but Lin Hao waved his hand to show him not to move.

Boris narrowed his eyes, he sensed Lin Hao's anger!

Only, he looked at the time again, there were only eight minutes until the battle started! This was definitely going to be a delay! Boris looked off into the distance as if he could see a group of people there sharpening their fists.

Chapter 1282

He knew that the first moment of the battle would begin with the appearance of Mohammedan Kato's promotion! At that moment, it would start with Mohammedan Kato fighting to the death against the Golden Panther Lion, and then it would end with the death of one man! As to who will die, Boris does not know. There were secrets here that he didn't know at all. He knew little, there were people who played chess, but there were few chances for him to make a move. If he could make a move on a board this big, his words would not have fallen on deaf ears with the Chevaliers even after he had instructed them to do so!

Damn it!

Let's hope we don't ruin the effort, or the Chevaliers will receive the wrath not only of him, but of both or even all three sides of the chessboard! The Church, the Vampire King, and the Biggles!

Chevrolet saw Boris get up and thought Boris could stop the fracas, but! After he rose, he was interrupted by Lin Hao, which meant that Lin Hao's side didn't want to just suspend his daughter's offense! He had taken it to heart!

Chevrolet's heart trembled, what should be done? He didn't know how to solve this situation, he looked to his left and right, but he couldn't find anyone who could interrupt this situation! He was desperate! Especially after seeing Boris' gaze, he was desperate!

He cast his hopes on the church's president, but found that the group had closed their eyes and cultivated their minds as if they had not seen. Chevrolet was in deep despair at this moment!

He could not imagine that this battle between the Pope and the King, the ZF and the Church, the first to fall was their family! Damn the group training, damn Beth, how could they have raised such a fool? To be queen of what? What's the point of being famous? You're paid to live more comfortably than a billion people, you're born with no shortage of money, and yet? You're in trouble all the time, you used to be able to fix it, but how can you fix it now? Now he couldn't even help solve it with his life!

Chevrolet looked at Beth's itchy, triumphant stomp, and his heart burned with a rage that would have burned the whole plain!

But no one dared to stand up to it. For Boris's gaze scrutinised below, and was fixed especially on their group of nobles! And it wasn't just Boris, the vice-presidents of the church were staring at him, too, with a pair of glares so stern that Chevalier was about to start trembling!

Saying sincerely? The Church's vice-presidents were also staring at him. In all the years of Toulouse's history, it was the first time that I felt on the verge of despair! A hundred years of honour, was it really going to be ruined by a little woman?

He looked back at the family clansmen behind him, each one full of anger. As Chevrolet looked at them, they looked at Chevrolet as well. To be honest, the group of them hadn't felt the gravity of the situation at first! But when they saw the sympathetic looks from the other four top families at the helm, they realised that something was not right. And then seeing the murderous rage-filled eyes of Mr. Mayor Boris, and then the staring demeanour of the church vice-presidents, they began to tremble violently all over before they realised that the church's warning, the family patriarch's warning, was not a joke! Only by the time they reacted, it was too late!

Every time Beth went, she was leading them into an abyss, an abyss from which there was no turning back, and they wanted to go up and strangle the most vain of women. Could the Chevrolet family really stand her torture? Bloody drunks! If this time they could avoid this one disaster, they would make Beth kneel before the family cemetery and repent for the rest of her life! Push her out to suffer the wrath of Mr. Lin Hao and the others!

Little did they know that the horror was not here, but after!

In the scene seven minutes later, to be precise!

Perhaps after they were finished, they would realise just how much of a sinking irreparable blow Beth's step had inflicted on them!

Beth finally walked up to Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan. Usually it was Lin Hao who stood in front of Shen Xiyan, giving her the safest harbour, but at this moment, Shen Xiyan stood in front of Lin Hao, she raised her delicate bottom and looked at Beth with contempt. This woman who had come with the will to rebel against the lesser nobles of Toulouse, she would see what kind of hand this so-called noble had!

In terms of aura, it was definitely Shen Xiyan who won.

Beth stood in front of Shen Xiyan, while raising her head proudly. She examined and surveyed Shen Xiyan's dress, and on this journey, she had been thinking about how to belittle this woman. But the closer she got, the more she sensed Shen Xiyan's unavoidable oriental aura. Wen Klein's designs were absolutely top-notch. What Shen Xi Yan was wearing today was not a sarong-like dress, but a recent Chinese cheongsam! This is the dress design that shows the strongest feminine charm of the Chinese people. What is the most special clothing in China when you go abroad? What is the most special costume in China?

Shen Xiyan's slender and straight figure, delicate and plump waist and hips, that S-shaped flowing line, is the sculptural beauty that countless models want to pursue. This is a beauty that God would not dare to replicate with a knife like this, a beauty that is beyond compare, a beauty that makes people feel ashamed of themselves.

It was only when Shen Xiyan's aura was in full swing that Lin Hao felt that there were times when Shen Xiyan was so domineering!

Moreover, within Beth's sharp eyes, she saw who had designed this dress! It was Venklein! This one of the world's top fashion design masters, she remembered that she had gone in to invite him again and asked him to design a dress for her, but the other party said that he was designing a dress for a super big person and didn't have time to design for her, at that time she thought, what other super big person, bigger than her? But after thinking about what class of customers Venklein served, she didn't spill her guts, and now it seemed to be for a Chinese guy! This Venklein, damn him! After this incident, she was going to unleash her power as queen, and that was to make all the nobles, not to buy the clothes made famous by the Venklein atelier, so that they could not get along in Toulouse! Let them not get along in the southern city!

Beth looked at Shen Xiyan before she glanced back behind her, only for her to wonder why, her father's elders were looking at her incomparably strange, like, with awe?

Chapter 1283

What is this about? Was it fear? But don't they see that behind her stand countless Toulouse nobles? This was a huge group of people, a chance to bring them together, and once the Chevrolet family had gathered these forces, it would be easy to go on in Toulouse, or in the whole southern city of F, too. She felt that she was not only a valued member of the Chevrolet family, but also the founder of the future super family of F, the Bess family!

She simply ignored the begging and cowering eyes of the group and instead glanced at Avril. She looked back, just at Avril, and then used Avril as a trigger to anger the woman

Finkin Gatt was simply furious! This damned woman, how dare she stand in the middle of the stage, how dare she lead the little nobles to denounce Mr. Lin Hao, and also with standing in front of Mr. Lin Hao's wife so imposingly, is she really not afraid of death?

Bastian also looked at Beth in disbelief, in his perception Beth, although this stupid woman is stupid, but it does not mean that she has no brain, ah? But now that she has done such a thing, is it the Chevrolet family? The family had instructed him to do this. But they seem to be afraid, too, don't they? Look at Mr. Chevrolet, sweating all over his head? That look must have been uninformed!

'Bastian, is this woman looking for death?' Finkin-Gate said, clenching his fists. It was so irritating, this was a very good opportunity to perform, and to have it delayed by such a stupid woman

Bastian was also full of anger, his sharp eyes staring at Beth's back, 'What a sinner for the Chevrolet family! But isn't this just right for your Gaiter family? You can take the opportunity to become one of the four nobles of Toulouse, you've been counting for years.'

Bastian, who had been happy for Finkin-Gate, was met with a blank look from Finkin-Gate, 'Bastian, do you think that following Mr Lin will only be limited to Toulouse? I thought you were a rare talent before, but now it seems that your vision is just a little bit bigger, I really feel sorry for Mr. Lin who gave you such a big task.'

Bastian's face went white, this was the first time he had ever looked at Finkin-Gate's ambition in terms of business talent, to think that this dude, had such big ambitions!

And, Finkin-Gate was right, with Mr. Lin, why should his vision be limited to Toulouse? What about limiting it to the southern cities? His goal from this moment onwards is to become the dominant electricity company in F straight away!

Finkin-Gate, thanks for reminding me! Otherwise I would really have been abandoned by Mr. Lin. How could a weak Toulouse Electric Company keep up with Mr. Lin Hao?

Beth, who had withdrawn her eyes, smiled at Shen Xiyan and then said, 'Madam Lin. Do you know Miss Avril?'

'Miss Avril?' Shen Xiyan wondered, this woman brought her knight here and then just asked such a question. Because Shen Xiyan was followed by a translator, she was afraid that she would miss very important news and disgrace Lin Hao, so she brought a translator along with her.

Naturally the interpreter translated all of Beth's words word for word to Shen Xiyan.

'Right. It's Miss Avril of the Smith family, one of the four great families, a woman who is very beautiful and admires Mr. Lin Hao, oh yes she is also Mr. Lin Hao's secretary.' After Beth finished, her gaze was fixed dead on Shen Xiyan's face, he wanted to see this woman's angry look, she too disliked Shen Xiyan's calm and composed look all the time, it made her feel that she was generous and perfect

Shen Xiyan's face instantly became a little ugly, but still held back the discomfort in her heart, instead smiling and saying to her: 'I wonder what purpose this lady, coming to say this to me? Is it to break my relationship with my husband? That is not necessary, I think this kind of small trick, you do not need to come out to say, it is better to say your purpose directly, look at the ministry behind you, their look, their eyes, is leading you to launch an attack, do not let them down.'

Shen Xiyan was uncomfortable in her heart, except that with such a big scene, she could not disgrace Lin Hao. At this time, she had to maintain her grooming. She thought of a poem, 'Standing in the Potala Palace I am the biggest king in the snowy region, wandering in the streets of Lhasa I am the most beautiful lover in the world', and now that she was standing in the central location of the banquet, she was the queen by Lin Hao's side, no longer a simple wife who could be jealous at will... ..

So she kept her temperament and tried not to be petty over the slightest thing.

Beth gritted her teeth as she clearly sensed the flicker in Shen Xiyan's eyes, the anger inside her glasses. As a woman, she sensed Shen Xiyan's angry displeasure, but Shen Xiyan's words were too perfect, surprisingly, she could not continue to explore further on top of this topic, she was certain that as long as it kept going on, Shen Xiyan would never be so subdued!

‘Since Madam Lin wants to know the purpose of my visit, I will tell you directly! This is Toulouse! This is the exorbitant country of F. This is the land of the nobility! Not a place for you Chinese to run wild!’

Beth’s voice was so high, in one paragraph, that it made the blood of those below boil!

After she finished, all she could feel was the sound of thunderous applause rolling in her ears, a scream that was the loudest applause she had ever heard, and it was soothing and enjoyable to listen to!

Her enjoyment, however, was based on the despair of all the Chevrolet family, that one individual Chevrolet family, to the point of being paralysed on the floor when they heard those words.

Especially hearing that ‘overbearing’ spill simply made their hearts tremble violently!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1284-1286

Chapter 1284

Shen Xiyan’s face remained the same, not warm, not angry, very plain, that faint smile, always hanging at the corner of his mouth.

After all the races in the world, with one world war after another, they all came back to equality! And like China, for a hundred years, everyone has been equal and free for a long time. But Shen Xiyan didn’t believe it! Because she also heard in the news financial news, the western aristocracy? So that was the freedom that was hoped for after the cultural revolution? A false freedom, with endless hypocrisy, a culture of aristocrats controlling their freedom? A cultural revolution of self-deception? That’s ridiculous.

One planet, that is, a few languages. All the same structure, all centuries-old species of life, no one more precious than the other. The origin and extinction of species, how can there be anything precious or not? Noble or not? Or in other words, it’s the twenty-first century, where’s the nobility? The blood drawn from his body, could there be a C blood type in addition to the composition of blood types such as ABO? Pathetic people!

‘What is an aristocrat?’ Shen Xiyan opened her mouth and sneered, her voice not too loud.

The translator was translating, and she was an authentic Toulouse. When hearing this sentence, her heart trembled. What was a nobleman? As Toulouse people, they did not seem to have a specific concept, they just knew that the nobles had money

‘The nobles are’ Beth froze, not waiting for Shen Xiyang’s irritation and annoyance, but waiting for this sentence.

Shen Xiyang looked at Beth who hesitated, then asked with a cold smile, ‘What’s the difference between a noble and a human?’

‘You’re a noble? My husband is also certified as a noble? And then what? Any physical changes?’

‘You’re a noble? What makes you different from me? Except that you’re a Westerner and I’m a Chinese! Are you not a vertebrate, is your blood type an S blood type built on top of the ABO component blood types?’

‘You’re a nobleman? Are you recognised in other countries above this world?’

‘You’re a noble? You can go straight to heaven?’

‘You? Serve steak love closed shan shan dye dye? Are you a nobleman? You can make peace in this world?’

‘You’re a nobleman? How do you prove like a stranger that you are a noble? Do you have a golden bloodline?’

‘You are a noble? Why are you a nobleman?’

‘Are you rich? Do I not have money?’

‘What else do you have that I don’t?’

‘You’re a nobleman, say this about a noble nation! I Chinese heritage years ago, trace back to the origin. You can trace the history of civilization more than three thousand years ago! From ancient times to the present, there has never been a cultural break! Thousands of years ago, the Confucian culture continues to this day! Several neighbouring countries have been influenced by our Chinese ideology! If a country like yours, with its fragmented civilisation, is a country of nobility, what about my country, China? What kind of country is it? The kingdom of God? In my kingdom, all people are equal, all races are equal, all people are free! The rich and the poor walk the same streets, can go in and out of the same places, there is no difference between human beings! In my kingdom, it is a kingdom of people! In my country, there is absolutely no racial discrimination! Because in my country we are fifty-six nationalities! There is no North-South discrimination! In my kingdom everyone is a modern man, in my kingdom the meaning of every man's existence can be found, his descendants know him, he knows his ancestors, in my kingdom man is only man. In my kingdom, the existence of nobility, a thousand years ago, has been attitudinized! In my kingdom, so rich as I am, I am not an aristocrat! Rather, it is those who devote themselves to the building of the country who are aristocrats, and they do not consider themselves aristocrats! Only those who have built this kingdom can claim to be nobles, not everyone who has a little money is a noble! Aristocrats? A system that has lagged behind my China for thousands of years, and you gloat in front of us, ridiculous and pathetic!

Shen Xiyan's voice was so strong that it penetrated the heart of everyone present! They were all nobles, they were all human beings. Their hearts were tingling at the question, and Lin Hao was looking at his wife with fascination, too dominant for him to love to believe! Simply don't be too handsome!

Lin Hao wanted to hug Shen Xiyan from behind, so that he could enjoy the feeling of hugging the queen a bit. Only to have Shen Xi Yan open her hand and tell him not to make a scene. Lin Hao lost a laugh and stood right behind her Shen Xiyan's voice was not too loud, and all the people could hear it. Those senior biochemicals heard it clearly, and their hearts were touched, but unfortunately, there was no reaction.

On the contrary, Jun Wu Ren looked at the overbearing and peerless Shen Xiyan and thought that it was really a phoenix among men, never thought that Madam Lin had such an awareness.

Beth's face turned pale at the question. What she was proud of, at such a moment, was nothing!

What is nobility? Isn't a blood type made up of ABO types?

What is aristocracy? Was it just being rich?

What is nobility and how does she prove she is one? A medal? But she had been abroad too, and in other places she had said she was an aristocrat and people had called her a fool. And the few aristocrats that are recognised in the world, that's all because they have contributed to this country, but they don't claim to be aristocrats anymore, they're just royalty

How exactly does the concept of aristocracy explain itself? In this scientific age. As Shen Xiyan asked her in China thousands of years ago, the aristocracy that is no longer spoken of, they are still gloating about it. And then this is why they look down on the Orientals.

Then she said that China had thousands of years of history and influenced several surrounding countries. She looks back on her own kingdom, it seems, divided and unearthed history, and it's even more disjointed, so it's impossible to trace it back to its roots

However, this is the deepest obsession of her heart, is also the most out of her things, but also deep-rooted things, and how will she be moved by Shen Xiyan's words! Even if she was moved, it was not now!

She looked behind her and shouted out, 'Don't listen to this demon woman's nonsense!'

Chapter 1285

She was shouting to wake some of them up!

But what awaited her was that Shen Xiyan, the queen, stepped back as Lin Hao stepped forward and slapped her fiercely across her delicate looking but ugly thinking face!

Shen Xiyan stood aside and said to all the people on the stage, 'The so-called nobles? Aren't they all just people? When it comes to money, you can't win against me, and when it comes to strength, you're not as strong as my husband? How dare you all stand tall with us. Do you know how many Toulouse natives are disgusted by your faces, and yet you are still complacent? The so-called nobles are just deceiving themselves, pathetic people.'

After Lin Hao's stern strike, it was like he had woken up all those present.

Wang Shufen looked at the overbearing and peerless Shen Xiyan, like a little fan girl looking at Shen Xiyan, she hadn't even thought that there was still a time when Shen Xiyan was so overbearing. This was simply too handsome, this couple, simply too perfect!

Gu Yue chewed on Shen Xiyan's many words, especially 'You can't win against me when it comes to money, and when it comes to strength, you're not as strong as my husband, it's too hard!' If Shen Xiyan was a star, she could have been a fan!

Night One looked at Big Brother and Madam, especially at Shen Xiyan, and thought how dominant Madam was, just like Big Brother! A match made in heaven!

'How dare you hit someone!'

'Let's all go up and beat them to death!'

'How dare you rush to strike at Toulouse, get out of here you Chinese!'

Just as they were about to rush up, Boris stood on the steps of the landing stage with Finkin-Gate and Bastian, and kicked hard at one of the people who were rushing upwards!

Boris didn't care at all about his image, but Shen Xiyan's words made him realize that there was no such thing as a nobleman. They were all the same human beings, and wasn't all he was doing was taking his family to make more money? What is the concept of a nobleman? You ask him and he can't even answer.

Not to mention Finkin Gatt, a man who could throw away his family's honour, would he care about nobility or not? As for Bastian, it goes without saying that his face has been humiliated by Finkin-Gate to the point where he is nothing.

West zero closed love whisked closed love Shan? 'Somebody! Arrest this group of troublemakers! If you don't listen, just use the electric baton!' Boris barked at the security forces, and at once a group of black-clad men rushed in and lashed down on the group who were making the most noise.

They were all young men with a lot of fire in them, so naturally they were not scared by a single stick, but one by one they were even more vicious, peeling away the men in black and about to burst into Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan's faces.

At this time the people from the Chevalier family cautiously lighted the stage, as they walked up to Lin Hao, then in front of the eyes of all the protesters, they knelt straight in front of Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan!

‘Respected Mr. and Mrs. Lin Hao, she is just a servant of our Chevrolet family, and I don’t know who has cursed her from today to dare treat you with such great disrespect! As a member of the Chevalier family, we apologise for this, and here, apologise to you, and at the same time we will definitely pay for this and punish her severely too! It will never be easy to spare her!’

It was a young man who had been pushed out, there was no way out, he was Beth’s brother and he was the only one who could make such an apology. He was really reluctant to come out, after all, in the face of Shen Xi Yan and Lin Hao’s fierce anger, he didn’t dare, but there was no way out, if he didn’t come out, I’m afraid the Chevrolet family would be lost. Once the Chevrolet family was gone, what would they be? Not even civilians! That’s not good enough!

Besides, it was Beth’s fault, what did they have to do with it? If they’re responsible, let Beth be responsible! And the words they used in their apology were unanimously agreed upon, the same words that had just come out of his mouth.

Beth, who had been beaten senseless, had only just regained her senses when she heard these words from her brother and was so angry that she forgot the pain in her face. She was so furious that this Chinese had dared to hit him, she had wanted to ask the Chaiflowers’ bodyguards to arrest this Chinese when she stood up

But instead she saw her brother on his knees apologising in front of the other man! Yes, on his knees!

And saying something about him not being a Chevrolet? That he was a servant? She was Beth, his own sister! How could she be a servant!

‘Brother, what are you talking about! I’ve been beaten by him and you’re on your knees to apologise, you’re simply disappointing me!’ However, he did not wait for his brother’s comforting words, but fell to his knees, shifted his direction and then, in front of everyone, slapped Beth’s face hard again before snarling and roaring, ‘You are not of my House of Chevrolet! Nor are you my sister, don’t you dare talk nonsense! This will impress Mr. Lin on my Chevalier’s senses! We won’t make Mr. Lin unhappy for the sake of a little servant like you.’

Lin Hao looked at this scene and laughed coldly, if he had known this, why did he put this person up, it was still ridiculous, was this an appetizer? But Lin Hao was not without gain, that is, seeing Shen Xiyan’s so domineering side, he even felt that if Shen Xiyan had the same strength as him, he would want to eat soft rice. It’s just that Lin Hao suddenly realized a serious problem when he thought about it, that is, the time had come and Shen Xiyan was pregnant, and just now her emotions were fluctuating so much, did this mean that it had stimulated Shen Xiyan! It even threatened her child, and it might have worsened Shen Xi Yan's condition!

Thinking about this chain of events.

The coldness hanging on Lin Hao's face turned into anger!

He was like an angry dragon, his eyes full of rage, and all around him was within the range of his aura where his dragon's might was located, the surroundings became abnormally cold in vain, and Beth and her brother prostrated themselves on the ground in fear.

Such a terror, such an outburst, was not only felt by the two people in front of him, but also by the countless experts in the sky, who were also astonished.

The male lion's gaze had been staring at the bottom of the lake, but in the face of the sudden outburst of Lin Hao's aura, he also twisted his head to glance this way, then coldly grunted, 'Both husband and wife are so arrogant, they will create retribution one day!'

Jin Bao didn't say anything, he wouldn't take Lin Hao's every move to heart because he knew that Lin Hao wouldn't be his enemy no matter what. He didn't have to worry, and all he had to worry about were the two in the sky. Although he had been partnered with the lion for many years, he really did not care much about his hundred-year life span, his future survival, and his own survival, whether the lion lived or died.

In the midst of this battle between the King and the Pope, no matter who ended up winning, the rules of Toulouse were still in his mind whether they changed or not, but the rule of three high level cyborgs was still in his mind, so! For safety's sake, the male lion, must die!

He mourned for the lion, and looking at his glowing spirit, he laughed bitterly and said helplessly, 'In this world, advanced cyborgs are not absolutely free to exist, if that China that Madam Lin spoke of is really so. I hope if there is a reincarnation, I will be reincarnated to Huaxia 'Not good!' Chevalier saw Lin Hao's sudden anger, and then looked at Shen Xiyan, he seemed to have remembered something, that is! Madam Lin is pregnant, a pregnant person, so so angry, is going to move the fetus!

Chevalier then ran up from his own as evenly inside the eyes of countless people in disbelief.

The image did not strike him as comical and ridiculous, but rather made all those around him feel that Chaiflor was no less than the leader of a family, just now Lin Hao was only slightly angry, he had already sensed the seriousness of the matter, this keen sense of smell, really is not the group of small nobles sitting opposite can compare with.

Old Gat looked at Chevalier's bloated and fat, as if he was rolling, and could not help but admire the fact that the old man was really stronger than himself, and look at his alertness, which was only stronger than his own. Looking at Lin Hao, who is now in the centre of the stage, he was a bit afraid that if Finkin Gatt hadn't followed his ass at that time like a heel, and then his Gatt family was still suppressing him all the time, his anger, I'm afraid, would have been vented on his own head, and then with his personal strength, plus Boris' cooperation, would the Gatt family still exist? I'm afraid I'll lose my reign if I have to maintain the family for 100 years! In the past, he was not happy with Finkin-Gate and felt that he had disgraced the Gates family, but later he felt that Finkin-Gate had done so only because he was too scared and had been pleasing Lin Hao, and he had accordingly given Finkin-Gate a little benefit as a good job!

But felt no? Yi pak yan wu yan yi er whisk? Chevrolet's consciousness, look at him, as soon as he saw Lin Hao's anger, he ran up before alone, looking anxious and hurried and afraid, where is this the head of one of the four great families of Toulouse? He looked at Finkin-Getter and thought that Finkin-Getter must be a credit to the Getter family!

Smith looked at Lin Hao's anger, at Chevrolet's frightened look, and inside his afterglow, the old Gait's kind of backward and thankful look made him feel just sorry! Yes, why did such a powerful young man get married so early? If it had been later, his own daughter Avril would have been his wife, and by then the Smith family's development prospects would have been unmatched by anyone in the whole of Toulouse, and he felt incomparable regret just thinking about it.

At the same time, he did not know that Lin Hao was one of the four great families of China, and if he had known, I am afraid he would have regretted it even more. After all, Ai Weier was studying in Yanjing, China, and the Four Great Families were also in Yanjing

The way Chevrolet hurriedly looked at the Beth who was crying to do the explanation head big heart trembling, why is the family head in such a hurry, so wretched? His face was full of fear, what was he afraid of? Was he afraid of Lin Hao? There was no need for that! They were one of the four great families of Toulouse, one of the four great families of the whole economic city of F. They had a lot of weight! But didn't such a weighty family head, Chevrolet, look too humble in his haste?

This kind of humble, she had heard of that is Finkin Gat

'Mr. Lin, this is my family servant, she doesn't understand, I'll clean her up right here!' Chevrolet turned on Beth and slapped her so hard that the corner of Beth's mouth bled again

In Beth's horrified eyes, Chevrolet didn't stop, but continued to punch and kick, hitting her incredibly hard

Beth's already painful face, hurt a second time, the pain spread throughout her heart and cries out, while screams rang out, 'Aah!'

'Aah! No! Aah! No! It hurts! Don't

Chevrolet's look didn't stop, he turned into a brutal man in front of everyone and beat Beth to death, until she fainted, then he stopped

And the little nobles, who had made Beth their queen, all stopped resisting at that moment and looked at Chevrolet without saying a word

If she was not a member of the Chevrolet family, she would have been nothing in the eyes of the little nobles. Nobles have eyes for people who are more powerful than normal, and for Beth to be beaten like this means that the Chevrolet family has simply given up on her and doesn't even care if she lives or dies!

What are they without the support of the Chevrolet family? They're nothing.

And when the young leaders looked at the Chevrolet family, they found that their clan members were looking at them with a harsh gaze, which made them fearful, thinking how to thank the next, how to escape the Chevrolet family's pursuit and punishment, they looked at the Chevrolet's fear to the extreme, and inside their heads, they had the corresponding choice, if the Chevrolet could do it, why couldn't they do it? Why couldn't they do what Chevrolet could do? A powerful family master like Chevrolet had come straight up to ask forgiveness, so why couldn't they? At the very moment he made his choice, all they could see inside their eyes was Chevrolet

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1287-1288

Chapter 1287

Chevrolet went down hard on his knees right inside their eyes!

‘Whoo!’

The whole room was shocked? The whole crowd was shocked!

Chevrolet was on his knees! How is this possible!

Facing Lin Hao’s angry eyes, Chevroel felt that Lin Hao’s anger had not been eliminated, and even his anger was even stronger, which made the hatred as well as anger in his heart even greater, but the fear was also even stronger, what he did just now was used to extinguish Lin Hao’s anger, but the process was very ruthless, but the other party did not seem to be used

So Chevrolet gritted his teeth and was ruthless, and knelt down directly, and not in front of Lin Hao, but in front of Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan!

‘Respected Mr. Lin, Mrs. Lin! The Chevrolet family is guilty! Please also ask Mr. and Mrs. Lin to condemn us directly! Whatever the punishment is, we are willing to accept it!’ He was taking the tone of a trial, what else could he do? That was all he could think of, rather his gaze, with a sinking sense of remorse, nothing else, his heart was too depressed, that Lin Hao’s gaze through his eyes, directly subduing his heart, making it impossible for him to utter a good word, he didn’t give himself the chance to identify himself, so he knelt straight down!

Of course he had his wits about him, he knelt down with Shen Xi Yan, all he wanted was, to get her attention and make her kind. In fact, he also knew that Beth had made Lin Hao so annoyed all because of Shen Xiyan, so it was definitely most useful for him to apologize to Shen Xiyan

He couldn't understand why such a powerful person was always deeply in love with children, was this true love

Shen Xiyan was a bit overwhelmed by this scene, she was domineering just now, but when faced with this situation, she was really at a loss for words, after all, she was still a woman

'Humph!' Lin Hao kicked Chaifluoer, this old man was wise enough to know who they had offended, so he directly requested Shen Xiyan, but well, how could things possibly go away like this? That would not tell all the people on the floor that Shen Xiyan and the others could contradict, offend and disrespect her?

He loves his wife more than anything, so how could he let a random person bully him?

'Wife, did you move your fetus just now?' Lin Hao turned back to look at Shen Xiyan, the eyes that burned with anger, directly turned into gentle and delicate, the hosts were stunned to see what kind of love it was that would allow a man to transform into gentle and delicate in the midst of his domineering anger, was that the supreme love?

The presenter wished hysterically in her heart, 'You must be together, you must be happy forever!' She even felt like she could stop believing in love, because love was, at this moment, the two of them!

Shen Xiyan shook her head, grabbed into Lin Hao's arm, and said softly, 'Honey, why don't we just forget it? In fact, I'm not in any serious trouble' Shen Xiyan was still a kind woman, the reason she was angry and angry was to vent a grievance for Lin Hao, now that she was done venting, she naturally had no more comments, besides the woman who had just been contradicting her had already received the punishment she deserved.

Lin Hao rubbed her head and gently scratched her nose, smiling dotingly, 'Fool, how can you let go of someone who has offended you so easily? If everyone came over to bully you in the future, then hubby would have to sulk and die'

Shen Xiyan sniffed shyly and lowered her head.

Chevrolet looked at the two of them and after hearing Lin Hao's words, his heart shook, It's over! Absolutely finished! Damned Beth, the Chevalier family, by you a pit finished! Damn it, damn it!!!

He roared and ranted, but he knew that it was useless!

The only thing that will do the trick now is to give thanks!

‘Madam Lin, I see you are graceful and elegant. I have a shopping street around the State House which is all owned by the Chevrolet family and they sell all sorts of luxury goods and I think only a lady like you can deserve it!’ Chevalier was not angry at being kicked, but hastily crawled to Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan and confessed to Shen Xiyan.

Seeing that Shen Xi Yan was slightly moved, Chaifluol continued, ‘That one shopping street can bring billions of profits to the Chaifluol family every year, they are the most popular luxury street for tourists all over the world, and they have all the big brands in it! Their suppliers are also supplied by the Chevrolets themselves, and I would like to present it to you, and the supplies in it will continue to be paid for by the Chevrolets, without any labour charges!’ Chevroil went on to say, while he looked at Shen Xiyan, and found that Shen Xiyan was really moved!

What can I say, women like clothes, bags and cosmetics, they look good, what woman doesn’t look good? What woman doesn’t like luxury? It’s just that some of them keep hanging on to it, and that’s only for those who don’t have it. Some of them don’t hang on to it, because for them, a luxury item they can afford is just like a normal person buying a piece of clothing. But even if they could afford it, who would be too small to buy it? And with such a huge, profitable and diverse range of products, even directly from the designer, it is the same as Shen Xiyan having a mobile fashion house. As a woman, she had to be a good family man, so Shen Xi Yan was naturally overjoyed, so she pushed Lin Hao’s arm and asked him to nod, as long as Lin Hao nodded, she could speak.

Seeing that Shen Xiyan really liked it, Lin Hao hummed and nodded gently, then said to the Chaifol, ‘This time you let your Chaifol family muddle through with such a small price to pay. But if there is another time, I will definitely not condone it!’

Shen Xi Yan gently traced a kiss on Lin Hao’s face, she loved Lin Hao too much.

‘Thank you Mr. Chaifolol.’ Shen Xiyan said gently, with fondness inside her eyes!

The people on the stage looked dumbfounded!

The value of that line of business family was more than the assets of many of the lesser nobles. Don’t look at it, it only earns a few billion a year, but if you take away the cost, it’s like adding a few hundred million! And aren’t the houses on Commercial Street worth anything? Very much worth it!

Chapter 1288

This was all tantamount to a direct hemorrhage of the Chevalier family! It was so horrible, just a slight toppling and losing two tenths of the family fortune, which I’m afraid would have really hurt them all if they had added up all these little nobles, those of them so scared that they fell straight to their knees? Serving closed love Shanxi Zhaoge? Up!

‘Dear Mr. Lin, Madam Lin. I apologise to you here for our disrespect! I beg you to forgive me!’ The sound of apologies in unison, as well as the image of them kneeling on the ground, directly scared Shen Xiyan silly!

Wang Shufen couldn’t even believe the image! Everyone here was a nobleman? They actually knelt down and apologized directly to Xiyan, this is simply too unbelievable, Gu Yue looked at Shen Xiyan in the centre of the stage, she was like a queen, enjoying her people embracing her here

Heaven’s Edge.

Because of what happened here with Shen Xiyao, the vampire king instructed Mohammed Katou to delay coming out. Boris looked at the stage, and then at the distance, and in looking at the news coming from inside his hand, the delayed outbreak of the scene made Boris anxious.

And just as they all knelt down, there was a loud bang in the sky, and the four great families, the Gaiters as well as Boris, all looked over, and at that moment, Boris knew! The Vampire King was actually waiting for Lin Hao! This is simply too terrifying, that is a king's existence, but even for the sake of Lin Hao's matter at hand, a hard delay of twenty minutes, Mr. Lin Hao, what kind of terrifying existence is it

Not only did Boris look at Lin Hao, but the lords of the four great families as well as old Gator all looked at Lin Hao. That loud sound just now represented a lot of things. It was the sound they were waiting for, he had finally arrived, more than twenty minutes later than planned, and his start time, surprisingly, was when the incident with Beth on Lin Hao's side had just ended, meaning that the vampire king was also waiting for Lin Hao, and they all felt that the show of weakness was too terrifying without him!

The other three great clans and Old Gator looked at Lin Hao's sound and shadow, their hearts trembling. A moment ago they had thought it was a bit unworthy for Chaifol to do that, but now it seemed like it was quite worth it!

An event of that magnitude was waiting for Lin Hao. By paying just a few billion dollars in assets, Chavlor had made Lin Hao's heartfelt hatred annihilated. Chevroil got even more lucky, secretly saying that it really was Allah's protection.

The vampire king felt the signs on Lin Hao's side and after Lin Hao finished his opening speech for the banquet, he found that someone on Lin Hao's side had actually come out to top it, for which he spent a lot of time waiting, he was annoyed, but finally it was over, so he sent a message to Mohammed Katu!

The water began to boil and the surrounding army monitored the area. Around the army, countless modern thermal weapons appeared, cyber cannons, nuclear magnetic cannons, super massive amounts of TNT and all sorts of weapons that destroyed existence for hundreds, if not thousands of miles around. The vampire king could feel the presence of these, this time, the battle between the king and the pope would also lead out to the battle between the church and the ZF

Bigel looked at the vampire king, he could not at all imagine that this vampire king who said that Lin Hao was not his opponent was waiting for Lin Hao's entrance, which of his words were true and which were false?

Bigel narrowed his eyes as he saw the army of biotics rushing in like flies over a trail! There was no shortage of high level biotics, mid level biotics. There were a few kings amongst them! The real battle had begun!

The blood of centuries of silence raged within Bigir!

'Why is it only now?' Bigir asked peacefully.

The Vampire King hemmed and hawed, as if he sensed that the others were puzzled as to why they were waiting for a Chinese man.

‘Because, I want to wait for him to participate. If he doesn’t attend, how will I kill him then?’ The Vampire King said grimly.

Bigel was inwardly shocked, why was this called? Why did he suddenly want to kill Lin Hao? This was puzzling, Lin Hao didn’t seem to have offended him, right? And looking at him, it seemed like he wasn’t the only one who wanted to kill Lin Hao.

‘He’s too wild, openly trampling on the face of the nobility! This is a slap in the face to the Church, the supreme Church, how can you allow an outsider to be arrogant and domineering? Your sense of honour, Bigir, does not seem to be there anymore.’ The Vampire King said grimly, he was not used to seeing Lin Hao!

Because Lin Hao and his wife were too disrespectful to the nobles as well as the Church, they suppressed and humiliated the four great families they felt it was fine, because the four great families were also disrespectful to them, but beating up the general nobles, wasn’t that what Shen Xiyao said in her mouth, what were the nobles? What’s the difference between a noble and a noble?

Nobility is a status given by the Church, a certification by the Church! That’s different! The Church is God’s gift of heavenly power, and the Church represents heavenly power, that’s different! It’s a pity that these noblemen don’t even have this awareness!

The Vampire King did not stand up for this group of nobles, but for the face of the Church

Bigel could hear the Vampire King's displeasure, but what did that have to do with him? The power of the Church was a symbol of heavenly power, and they prided themselves on being a gift from God, but alas. After centuries of travelling through the nations, such things as Divine Right were simply a kind of expectation fraud within theology, something that only the unenlightened ancients would have been deceived by.

But it was funny to say that Bigir felt that they Westerners always paralysed their deficiencies by deception when they faced themselves, unlike the rest of the world. He was reminded again of China, that horribly powerful country, from the ancient days when power was exercised on behalf of the heavens, to the present day when people are at the centre of things. Their people did not believe in Gods and Buddhas, but only in themselves, not in everything of course; Bigir had heard that they were a very wise people who believed only in what was good for them, and completely disbelieved once it was not good for them. And never put theology on their lips, such a race seems to have gone further than all the developed countries in the belief in theology piece

The modern revolutionary movement in the West, which opened the door to the scientific century, only unfortunately they only have one foot in it, and the other, inside the century-old scientific age, is so deep in it that it's laughable! Wretched!

Bigir felt a big difference with this group, and that was the idea

In fact it's not just him, he senses so many senior biochemists have this idea

'Mohammedan kato out of the water! The great battle has begun! It's all about to begin and end!' The Vampire King said!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1289-1290

Chapter 1289

‘He’s coming out!’

The male lion said in a suppressed voice, his golden coloured head, glowing with endless power, a terrifying force collapsing space with a faint popping sound

The golden leopard looked at the male lion and shook his head, he knew that the male lion was going to die

This great battle began with his sacrifice!

What a sad senior cyborg, he was completely blinded.

Thinking back over the years as a partner with the Lion, who knew, in all sincerity, that time would fade so quickly at the thought of looking back. Even the memories were starting to blur, and so was the person in front of him! There is a saying that some people are still alive, but they are dead! An advanced cyborg as strong as the Lion was only a casualty in the midst of the Great War, but what about him? He was more powerful than Lion, would he die here too?

How many advanced cyborgs will die in the sky? Several sides play chess, who will be the one who finally wins and cleans up the chessboard?

This grand plan, which has been maintained for the previous year, has finally come to a head! The Church has never been a peaceful existence, and all the kings in it want to fight the Pope!

There is only one pope, but there are countless kings! However, kings die just like them, and if they don't become kings, they don't last forever! And if an advanced cyborg does not become a king, he will die even faster! The passing of life, what a horrible existence that is, the fear that Golden Panther thought of, he looked back and felt that there was death slowly coming towards him with a scythe, waiting for him to age and then take the scythe and begin to reap his life He was overwhelmed with panic... ..

Zeus and Asura came crashing this way from the banquet grounds with a group of men, like shooting stars in a flash, or like fireflies in the night, swarming with flying lights like this, the vampire king and Bigil looking at them with that contemptuous gaze, like they were looking at ants. Bigil, for the moment, was like a king's! He looked down on those beneath him, the aura of a king slowly overflowing from his body. The vampire king at his side, who had learned of Bigil's strength early in his life, for his stoicism, honestly felt that he was still really a doer of great things

Asura inquired to Zeus, 'Big brother, I seem to feel the presence of countless terrifying auras! These existences, I feel they are able to crush us!

Zeus let out a bitter laugh, at this moment he realised that he was considered the number one powerhouse under the Pope, outside of Bigil, but now? He knew the endless news and felt as if he, in front of that horrible group of people, was nothing! What an impotent rage!

‘Those are kings! Today is the battle of the millennium, another encounter between the King and the Pope! To be honest, I really want to see the King’s strength against the Pope’s. I’m even wondering if the burst of strength I saw before wasn’t the Pope’s, but the King’s! I also knew for the first time that the King turned out to be just the King and the Pope was the Pope, and that the two of them existed separately!’ Zeus said.

Asura and the others scratched their heads, this was the first time they had heard this news. It was not their fault, after all, the last time the battle between the King and the Pope had been fought was a thousand years ago, inside the previous year senior biochemists had changed one crop after another, even the King had changed one crop after another, only an immortal being like the Vampire King, with a long life span was able to live until now and knew a lot! All other information was found from inside ancient books, otherwise no one really knew so much information

But the natural ones are more powerful than the ones that are transformed afterwards, of course, for the technological powerhouse North America, it’s still a real headache

The first thing I did was to find an excuse to disappear from backstage. He promised the Vampire King and the ZF that Boris represented that he would join the battle between the King and the Pope

Feeling the departure of his elder brother, Night One saw the black dragon among the crowd again, he looked around and explored, no matter what, he could not search for the presence of Jun Wu Ren, he thought again, the terrifying strength of the Jun family head, and how could he spy on it?

‘Madam.’ Seeing Shen Xiyan anxious? zero love to cover the intention to cover Xixi Yi? The night one hurriedly walked up to her in a hurry.

Shen Xi Yan looked around for Lin Hao and found that Lin Hao was really gone, she was a little angry and questioned when she saw Night One, ‘Where is Lin Hao?’

‘Big brother has some matters that he needs to go out to settle.’ Night One explained, as for what it was, he really didn’t dare to say, something that big, it all seemed like a celestial battle, if this was known by Shen Xi Yan, there was no telling what kind of accident would occur, after all, big brother loved madam so much, and madam loved big brother so much, if she saw big brother injured, what would happen?

And then again with the strength of the madam like this if she stood in the middle of the storm, no one could predict what accidents would occur

‘Humph, deliberately finding an excuse to leave me out, when he comes back, I will definitely reprimand him properly.’ Shen Xiyan hummed lightly, then seeing that the banquet had started, she began to follow it closely

Night One breathed a sigh of relief, fortunately Madam didn’t pursue the matter, or else she would have to lie.

Gu Yue looked at the nervous Night One, her eyes flickering, she followed Night One’s side and asked in a small voice, ‘Did Lin Hao go to solve some dangerous trouble.’

Night One directly froze, his dodging eyes just now, surprisingly did not avoid his wife's detection, he hurriedly covered Gu Yue's mouth, signalling her with his eyes, not to speak or ask nonsense. Only when Gu Yue nodded did he let go of his hand.

Gu Yue looked at Night One with some anger and hummed, seeing that Night One was dumbfounded and angry. She then pinched Night One's waist, causing Night One to grimace in pain. Seeing night one's helpless appearance, Gu Yue then let go of her hand, once again lightly humming, incomparably proud to follow Shen Xiyan

From within Night One's expression and movements, Gu Yue already knew what she wanted to know.

Finkin Gatt and Bastian were following right behind Shen Xiyan's buttocks like two guides, that fawning look was humble, comical, but enviable!

Night One arrived at the front battlefield!

And Mohammed Katou flew straight up from under the water!

With a streak of red, the Vampire King sliced through the trails of the sky with such speed that it would have been difficult to catch if not for Lin Hao's great strength. Then the next moment, the Vampire King was back above the sky, and with a hard, vicious yank, he surprisingly cut through the Heart of Regeneration as sharp as a knife's edge.

‘This is my promise to you, half of the Heart of Regeneration, and when it is over, the other half will be yours.’ The Vampire King did not move as he gave Lin Hao the Heart of Regeneration, Bigel could not see the anger inside the Vampire King’s eyes, the two were like guests of a trade that had met in passing. Bigel thought to himself, perhaps this is the old bastard who has lived for a thousand years, such immobility, one moment, there is a great flame of anger, hate to kill the other party, the next moment when the other party comes, and then is fluttering and immobile, talking about the deal, such a city

He also has

‘Let’s watch a show first. The death of the male lion is the powder keg.’ The Vampire King said.

Lin Hao looked at Bigir, this moment Bigir strength up powerful, and vaguely give the impression, as well as close to the Grand Master category

A good Bigir, hidden deep enough

‘You finally came out!’ The male lion looked at Mohammad Kato and sneered, ‘Rat I thought you were going to escape, now is it that you find that you can’t escape, so here you are waiting for death huh? Ha ha.’

Mohammed Katu simply ignored the lion and glanced away, then looked around at the mountains and rivers, how many years had it been since he had been able to view them so atmospherically. After so many years of hiding, countless to terrifying divine senses probing over his head, all because of the scepter in his hand, he was able to circumvent those murderous divine senses

The Pope's scepter doesn't just give him a bottom line, it also does!
Circumventing the King's carpetbaggers, after all, the King will train his own men, only many don't know it! It was a deal between the King and the King, but the King would also kill the men that the other had trained, because the men that the King had trained! All of them are strong, very, very strong kings, and once these people reach advanced biochemistry, the powerful ones, with a little growth for a hundred years, are more powerful than the average weaker king!

And he, the strength now! As long as Stallion and Golden Leopard came together, together to kill, with King watching, he was able to kill both of them! The King was his bottom card, and the King would not watch him die!

The situation today is completely different from before. The battle between the king and the pope had come so early, something he had not expected. He looked to that frail breath beside the king, that familiar smell, was it because of his presence that the battle between the king and the pope had thus come nearly a hundred years earlier?

Perhaps it was?

He was a little uncomfortable, his keen sense of smell told him that he was in danger within this great battle, but the King had told him!

If they lost, they would flee North America! That let him know that he still mattered to the King! He probably also knew that he was important because he was different from the others, he was a black piranha, a prehistoric top ten biting aquatic cyborg! More terrifying than the average whale shark's bite, with an identity like his, once he's cultivated for a hundred years, where is the average king a match for him? And once he was promoted to king, ordinary kings would be nothing in front of him!

Only, that black and heavy terrifying aura still made him feel oppressed and wanted to escape

'What are you looking at!' The male lion roared, his whole body transformed into a beast, a huge golden lion with a golden glow! He stepped into the air, running with streams of light, and the next moment, a huge claw, scratching the air with a popping sound.

Mohammed Katou, covered in black, glowing fish scales, faced the lion's fist with a tremendous blast, and connected directly with it with one hand! That look of total defiance, even contempt, enraged the lion, and his other paw struck out with the same force! The light scattered so widely that it looked like a small sun appeared in the sky!

Looking at this incomparably serious as well as determined scene, Lin Hao's heart was filled with emotion, a powerful man who had the chance to become a Grand Master would constantly kill each other because of the Church's backward order.

Little did Lin Hao know that this was the law of the jungle decided by the Pope and the King together! It hadn't changed in two thousand years! Biochemicals were too good to grow up, unlike the strong martial artists in China, who only had the chance to reach out to become an Ascended Master unless they had an extremely high martial talent, but after entering the Ascended Master, they would never be able to become a Grand Master for the rest of their lives without great qi to add to it, unlike biochemicals, who had at least a fifty percent chance of becoming an advanced biochemical and then crossing over to the King, as long as they had enough blood qi to suck and grow!

This is still modernized, due to the modern society ruined? The closing of the earth and the dyeing of the land of love? The endless ecology has led to the slow growth of advanced biochemicals, slowing down their attempts to cross over to the king level, and even making them all extinct! Otherwise, there's no telling how many king-pope battles would have taken place in these millennia!

This was the scene that the Pope wanted to see the most, and it was also the scene that Wang Half-Happy wanted to see

When Jun Wu Ren watched the strongest people close to the Grand Master fight like this, he also felt a little incredulous and a little regretful. But the rules of the game were such that they had to go and kill each other, because if they didn't, the Pope himself would do it! The Pope would never allow the existence of so many biochemicals close to the presence of the Grand Master, because that greatly threatens his heavenly power!

Mohammed Kato's pupils glared as he threw a punch!

Just one punch, not a double strike!

'Bang!'

A blow clashed together with a muffled grunt, and a powerful force exploded with a popping sound that shook more than a little.

The male lion's eyes glared, his face full of disbelief, a newly engaged calculator was fighting with his strength, even stronger than him, it was hard for him to accept!

'No!'

'Heh heh.' Mohammed Katou hemmed and hawed, then threw a blazing punch down at this golden lion head!

'NO! The male lion roared in shock again, the blow was so fast that he was somewhat unable to react.
