

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1291-1300

Chapter 1291

‘Golden leopard! Don’t you make a move!’ The male lion shouted urgently, the golden leopard’s ears flickered as he heard a command, and then a flash of light, the next moment! At a speed several times faster than the speed of sound, he threw a punch directly at the fist of Mohammed Kato!

The two collide!

‘Bang!’ The sound of a violent impact came out.

Mohammad Qatou’s eyes narrowed slightly as he stared at the Golden Leopard who had suddenly exploded. He stared carefully at the Golden Leopard, really questioning him as to why he had suddenly struck.

The Golden Leopard was completely blind!

The lion gasped for breath, it was too dangerous just now, ‘Golden Leopard, he is very strong, let’s do it together! Otherwise I’m afraid I’m going to get hit hard!’ The male lion said with some trepidation as he stared at Mohammad Qatou, but the killing intent in his eyes became even stronger, because he knew that if Mohammad Qatou didn’t die today, if he met him alone in the future, he would definitely die! But the good thing is, one of the three of them will die today!

And it would be Mohammedan Kato who would die. It was a great relief to him that he could grit his teeth and swallow this humiliation!

‘Well.’ Golden Pao had received orders to force Mohammedan Kato to strike with all his might, and he didn’t know what his superiors meant by this. But he knew from his superior’s orders that Mohammed Kato was very strong, certainly stronger than the lion, and that the outburst he had just made was definitely not his self-imposed outburst!

It was something that was only natural, after all, their true strength had not been brought out in full!

After all, neither the beast transformation nor the dismemberment had been performed. But his superiors told him that it would be best if he could force out Mohammed Katou Dismemberment, if not than forget it

He was quite relieved by the other man’s instructions, at least he didn’t mean to send him to his death, otherwise, it really felt a bit sad

‘Lion, don’t hide, his strength is stronger than yours!’ Golden Leopard instructed? Ai Ai Di Xi Dye Yi Pa Shan? , there is no narrative of equivalent status inside the past days, but direct command.

The male lion also did not care about his identity, directly a roar, the whole body strength burst. The next moment, the lion body once again become bigger, the whole person is like a gilt body, golden light, the strength has once again increased!

King Lin Hao, Mohammed Katou, tsked in amazement. This man had just advanced to the next level and he could crush an old senior biochemist to the point where he couldn't breathe, if this was given some more time, these two wouldn't even be his opponents, right?

The Vampire King's training methods were really brilliant

He looked at Bigel and found that Bigel's face was a bit surprised, obviously not feeling this situation either

After the complete body beast transformation of the male lion, Mohammad Kato's face was much heavier, and one of the contempt faded away. He did not expect that the golden leopard did not just watch and not fight, as the king's mouth said!

Clearly the king had misread him! King had deceived him!

The Golden Leopard didn't mean not to fight, but to bring the fight to a fever pitch, and look at the lion's full-body bestial transformation and increased strength! The golden leopard is even the same full-body beast transformation, which leaves him only covered with a fish scale defense, very depressing

The fact is that the vampire king has told him that he can only go all out no matter what, he can't hide away, otherwise he will surely die!

In fact what the vampire king told him was that the golden leopard would not join the lion in striking him, the golden leopard would not, and the golden leopard would not dare! But it did not say that the Golden Leopard would not strike in earnest!

But Mohammed Katou didn't dare bet on it, and he wouldn't bet on it

The black fish scales were like black armor covering the whole body, and the cold light emanating from this defense was creepy

Move!

The golden leopard is faster again this time, its legs trampling the air, making explosive sounds and flashes of golden light! The majestic power, along with the air stirred up by the male lion, pressed down on Mohammad Kato.

The male lion didn't even need to speak, his golden fur exploded, his eyes bigger than his fists flashed, and his two huge paws, waiting to have an aura of destruction, clamped down and moved.

Mohammed Kato gritted his teeth, these two men were not giving him any dead space, if he didn't meet them head on, he wouldn't be able to avoid them! Damn it!

'Now that you're here! Then let me know what kind of explosive power you two have!' Mohammed Kato grunted, and with a flash of black light from his fish scales, countless water vapour poured into his body as it bulged!

The next moment!

He threw out his fists with both hands! Against the duo's pincer attack he began to counterattack!

'Bang Bang!'

Two consecutive impacts were heard.

And then Mohammed Katou's body shareholders, a few fish scales on his body darkened and then fell off.

Then look at the lion muffled grunt, then the corner of the mouth spurted out a fresh blood came

The golden leopard also flew backwards dozens of steps, which landed steadily

The male lion looked at the golden leopard with malevolent eyes, he felt that the male lion had not exerted all his strength, but he did not dare to question it. At this moment, it was as if he had entered a vortex, and around heaven and earth, there were countless eyes slowly appearing.

He felt countless terrifying presences, they were all looking at him, staring at him in droves, he was like prey exposed to the atmosphere

‘Golden leopard! Tell me what is hidden in this

Asura looked at Mohammed Katu smacking his lips slightly, ‘This is too strong

Zeus was also frowning, if this Mohammedan Kato had been given another hundred years, he felt he was no match for him at all, what kind of advanced cyborg was this, too terrifying? Or was it a simple fish? But the fish scales that covered his body told them that he was definitely not a whale shark, so what was he? What the hell was it?

Not just the two of them felt terrified, all the senior biochemists present felt that Mohammad Kato was too powerful, if they met such a being, they would be no match for the terror

Who in the world has produced such a terrifying being?

This is not a way to live? It's too much of a blow to self-confidence

‘It really is a crazy existence.’ Lin Hao let out a sigh of admiration. He had always thought that Mohammad Qatou was a crazy person, but the people around him told him that he was a careful and cautious existence, look at such a person, exposed in front of so many people and still so terrifying, is this called being careful and cautious? Isn't that arrogance?

Chapter 1292

Bigir smiled, to be honest, he was also stimulated by Mohammed Katou, this was too strong, beyond his five hundred years of knowledge

At the same time he looked towards the slightly smug vampire king, this is the bottom of the vampire king, simply too strong, the advanced biochemicals that he, Bigil, had cultivated, combined, I'm afraid, were not as talented as Mohammed Katou, right? In a hundred years if they fight again, this man will definitely be able to make them feel in crisis

Bigir looked to the sky, and those individual kings also looked at Mohammad Katou with the same amazement, all tsking, and finally a discussion voice appeared.

'The Vampire King lives up to his mysterious vampire existence! To think that he even found the biomass of a prehistoric top ten biting black piranha. This is something that we can't compare to at all. With such a depth, no wonder he dares to send? Zero West Dye West Erdi Wudi? The battle between the dynamic king and the pope! You know, it's been years long

This was the voice of a king who revealed a giant claw, and Lin Hao didn't even turn around for a glance back.

Another king also tsked, 'This biochemical species is more terrifying than the whale shark, which is oversized and easily targeted, but this is different, small individual and still keen!'

‘Yeah, if it’s over a hundred years, the vampire king’s strength, terror crushing all three of us is not a problem, right?’ Another one lost his smile and said.

‘Haha, just the three of us?’ The king with the giant claws showing sneered.

Then the discussion among the kings stopped abruptly, a cryptic revelation that made Lin Hao glance at Bigir. It was as if Bigir had not felt Lin Hao’s gaze, and said, not without surprise, ‘What did the kings say? What does the Giant Eagle King mean? Is there a fifth king in existence?’

The Vampire King was also in silence at this moment, the Giant Eagle King had existed for eleven hundred years and was considered the number one king under him! The Giant Eagle King’s words had a meaning, he must have sensed it, yet was there really another king in existence? And who was it?

There are four kings under the Pope, and there is a battle of kings against kings! If a fifth king were to appear, the Pope would never allow it to exist, because if the number of kings became greater, the Pope would also feel the danger. How could he let the king grow? But what did the Giant Eagle King mean by this statement? Was it a deliberate attempt to scare people?

The four kings, apart from the Giant Eagle King, were all on his side. That is why, he dared to start the battle between the king and the pope!

Moreover, his purpose in bringing Bigir over to be on his side was to see Bigir’s strength, as well as to give Bigir an advantage! Once he was crowned pope, he would make Bigir king!

As for the Giant Eagle King? The Giant Eagle King is the leader of the ZF organization, a strong man who guards the political head, this is a deal that the Pope has made with the ZF for thousands of years, so the Pope will not take on the Giant Eagle King and the Giant Eagle King will not be involved in the battle for the Pope

The two of them are relatively safe existences

The vampire king was taken away from his countless godly thoughts by this statement, the news of this was revealed and made him feel very much unstable, he was already desperate and now he felt the danger aggravated

He glanced at Bigel and then at Lin Hao, frowned and shook his head.

The Golden Leopard's sudden outburst made him feel the presence of another unexpected element in it! He didn't think that the Giant Eagle King's words would directly implicate the element of surprise... who, in the end, was it! was also involved in it?

'Stallion. I'm sorry, I can't tell you. All I want to say is that if you can kill Mohammed Kato maybe you can live, if you can't kill him, you will die! Yes, that's right, certain death!' Golden Leopard said bitterly, finally saying the words

'Damn it! Why!' The male lion roared in anger, chattering and roaring, the next moment the already wild male lion's breath was disordered, the whole man looked like a nervous disorder, so many eyes in the sky, making him feel humiliated! The battlefield before him, the hidden secrets within, made him angry! He felt that this world was alien to him, that he, an advanced cyborg, seemed to be nothing at this moment! Angry!!! Very angry!!!

Golden Leopard looked at the impotent and furious Lion and shook his head and sighed.

With the Stallion in his rampage, Golden Panther felt he could have an easier time! After all, with the Stallion's outburst, he could totally force Mohammed Katou to go all out with his task, it was just so simple

The male lion's rampage led directly to Mohammad Kato's difficulty in fighting. When a man enters a berserk state, his strength increases, but his defences are weakened, but if he has someone right by his side to protect him, then the situation is different

Now the Golden Leopard is acting as a cover for the Lion's defensive capabilities, an advanced cyborg more powerful than the Lion helps the Lion to cover, Mohammad Kato only feels a bit overwhelmed!

The Lion storms out!

He and Mohammed Kato are punching like mad, not afraid to get hurt, he's hitting the ground with his fists, scales are flying and the lion's fur is falling off!

The scene descends into a small arena of violence.

Mohammed Kato looked at the lion in a bloody mess, his body was covered in blood and the lion's hair was falling off, but his punches were so severe that he didn't have the slightest intention of retreating, which made Mohammed Kato incomparably annoyed that an opponent who was not of his own strength had forced himself into such a mess.

This Golden Leopard, by not giving his full strength, was only helping the Lion's to stop him from striking at the Golden Leopard's weakness!

'Since you are forcing me to strike with all my might! Then I will grant you all!' Mohammed Kato could not stand the situation any longer.

As if the lion had seen the light, they beat Mohammedan Kato to the punch, unable to fight! And both of them were wounded to varying degrees! Plus the Golden Leopard didn't give up on him and helped him to defend himself against the Mohammedan Kato's attacks, so he could fight him hard!

Although he was badly injured, there was light in his eyes! Looking at the anger and fury in Mohammed's eyes, the lion felt that the next moment, even if he had to be dismembered, so what? As long as he was alive, what was dismemberment? Nothing is more important than staying alive!

Chapter 1293

'If this goes on! Mohammad Kato will lose ah' Asura looked here, just now the fight is really too ruthless, the male lion kind of don't want to punch to the flesh, and there is a golden leopard in the defense to stop Mohammad Kato break the defense, such an attack, put is Asura himself also feel a little difficult to deal with

Zeus is also nodding, but he narrowed his eyes, always feel things are not so simple, so opened his mouth and said, 'Maybe it won't be that simple?'

'Yes, I also feel that things are definitely not so simple, now Mohammad Kato's identity is becoming clearer and clearer, a newly promoted senior biochemist is so terrifyingly strong, one-on-one, I may not even be his opponent! If it serves as a trigger for the battle between the King and the Pope, it definitely won't be so simple to hastily end it!' Asura nodded and then said, looking at the strength of Mohammed Katou, to be honest, it made him quite bad, after all, such a powerful strength, or a newly promoted senior biochemist

Zeus helplessly smiled, 'also do not know which one he is cultivated talent, right? There must be some bottom card that is not used, let's just move on to the next. Look, he's about to strike again!'

'What's that!!!'

Sky.

Lin Hao watched the battle between the three Mohammedan Katus and felt that it was really a real battle of the tormentors, but also knew that it was just an appetizer, and at the same time saw clearly that the lion must die!

How could a talent trained by the King fall in the middle of such a simple opening scene? Then look at the Golden Panther, he's got a questionable strike, no idea whose men he's working for, no need to do his best! Always leaving a hand out when pushing Mohammed Kato to the breaking point makes it seem odd

‘This is’ Bigir made a deliberate sound of disbelief.

The Vampire King sneered, ‘The good show has not yet begun. Kato didn’t use the weapon I gave him, and when his weapon is brought out, if I wasn’t struggling with the identity of the Golden Leopard, I would want to order Kato to kill them both.’

As Lin Hao listened on the sidelines, he felt that this lion still had a hard life, but what could be done about that? How sad is it to be so weak that you don’t even have a chance to stand in line? But thinking about it seems like there are quite a lot of people who want to be like this, there is nothing to feel unworthy for him, after all, no one is innocent in the line of duty in the East!

Growing up to a holy ninja god ninja, growing up to a senior biochemist, king, say again is innocent?

‘Behold, the true standings are about to be seen!’ The Vampire King said triumphantly.

And sure enough!

Down there!

Only to see Mohammed Katu pull out a scepter from nowhere!

The three kings in the sky above, shouts of astonishment came out!

‘What is that! The power of the seventh pope? The power of the seventh pope? The scepter!’

Lin Hao’s body trembled slightly even as he heard it, the Pope’s sceptre! He stared at the gold-colored scepter in Mohammad Kato’s hand, plus a jewel that emitted endless vigorous power. He felt that this object had a powerful threatening power, but when he looked at it twice more, he found that the threatening flavor seemed to have become weaker.

At this time, the vampire king also said, ‘This thing is about to be useless, still some threat to advanced biotics, but for us, nothing

Bigil nodded without moving, and it was good that the nod didn’t go unnoticed by the Vampire King.

He got from above the canon that the Pope’s scepter was not impossible to be made, but because the number of gems was infinitely close to zero, and such energy gems were not easy to find, resulting in the Pope’s scepter now being just a false diamond scepter, unlike the scepters before the 7th Pope, all of which carried endless power and could threaten the scepter of the King’s existence

This kind of thing is too horrible, but also extinct quickly, otherwise, what pope's battle? It's simply a death sentence? In ancient papal battles, there was no such thing as an advanced biochemist, because under the swing of the scepter! The senior biochemicals could not resist the power of the scepter at all!

The giant eagle king grunted and looked at the scepter in the hand of the film clam touching the caduceus.

'A scepter?' The male lion's blood-dripping mouth spat out, but instead of being afraid, he grunted softly and prepared to strike again.

Immediately, though, the voice of the Golden Leopard came to his ears, 'Stupid! This sceptre can kill you in seconds! Use Dismemberment now!'

Only then did the male lion look at Mohammad Kato in shock, for he found that the Golden Leopard had begun to turn bestial, and his face was so ugly that he could see the choice to dismember mixed in with the Golden Leopard's expression

It's over!

This is his first thought!

The male lion didn't hesitate, inside the eyes of everyone, the male lion gritted his teeth and pulled, one of his arms came off and then bloodily handed into his mouth. Immediately afterwards the power that erupted inside the male lion's body became muddy, not much thicker than it was just now.

Goodbye dismemberment of Lin Hao has been nothing whatsoever strange, but it is Jun Wuhuo look smacking his lips, there is such a way of dueling, this is too anti-human, such a thing, it is better not to exist, wait and see how much can be harvested, think of harvesting all these people, he felt no more exciting

'What the hell is that? The power it explodes out is so terrifying!' Asura couldn't help but ask.

Zeus shook his head, he really didn't know what it was and he couldn't help but look to Bigir, who, he thought, might know.

This sudden battle between the king and the pope made him feel weak, very weak, and the sky kept sounding like a muffled thunder condition, and he thought it was someone chatting

Mohammed Kato waved his scepter, the horrible power with his dance, slowly gathered, and finally gathered out like a powder keg so big energy body, it's around, issued a faint burst of sound, very frightening.

The male lion used the dismemberment and his whole being became more and more manic, with an unmistakable intention to eat Mohammed Katou. He has almost lost his mind, after all, the male lion before is a state of rage, lost most of his sanity, now once again dismemberment stimulation, sanity is all gone

The Golden Leopard slowly walked backwards as he saw that Mohammed Kato had struck!

In an instant, a powerful explosion came, the surface of the Garonne River boiled and tossed, and countless swimming fish were directly shaken to their bellies.

‘Ah!’ The lion that had impacted out struck the pooling force body of the sceptre, and the whole body stiffened as if it had been electrocuted, and the next moment it was as stiff as a dead man!

This was too terrifying!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1294-1296

Chapter 1294

Lin Hao looked at it while sighing in his heart, fortunately it was only a scepter that was about to decay, if this had been a scepter in its heyday, Lin Hao would have thought it was a super killer weapon.

The male lion? Shan Lu Fuyi Yi Yi Pao Yi? It wasn't dead!

He dripped on the surface of the river, but how was it different from death? After standing up on the river, the next moment, he dismembered once again, a huge lion leaving only two hind legs, a rather comical appearance, but no one made fun ‘I’ll fight you!’ The male lion roared.

Only to see Mohammed Katou fly in, a scepter slammed down hard, the male lion’s maximum outburst was directly crushed by the blow, and finally the first senior cyborg!

The lion is dead!

The fish in the water gathered towards the body of the lion and began to eat it as it sank.

A generation of superpowers had fallen without a splash.

And the golden leopard knew not what had detached itself from the scene and fled to who knows where.

‘One blow, dead’ muttered Asura, his heart showing deep fear, could it not be fearful? Can not be afraid? Just a simple blow ah, that scepter, what the hell is that thing, it is so terrifying, how can one fight with him? How can one fight him?

Zeus was also shocked beyond belief, never having heard of such a thing, it was simply too incredible, if everyone had such a thing, what were popes and kings? Unfortunately, he had not heard of such a thing for centuries, and now that it was exposed, it was really a scene that could only occur in a battle between a king and a pope

The first time he used the scepter twice, he obviously felt his body's blood energy rapidly weakening, but the power that burst out was really shocking, too terrifying, a senior biochemist was lost! He previously thought that with the power of the scepter, he would only be able to escape under the lion and golden leopard, but now it seems that even without this so-called king and pope battle, he would still be alive and well ah, a pity, hey

The Giant Eagle King was silent for a few seconds, then spoke, 'The Pope's scepter is really a symbol of heavenly power, it's a pity that such a thing, no longer exists. To be sincere, I'm quite curious as to why such a thing doesn't exist now. If there was, where would be the current battle between king and pope, wouldn't we all be at peace with each other?'

'Oh, King Giant Eagle, what a joke to tell. Thanks to you, you are still a king who lived for the previous year, even if there was a scepter of the pope a thousand years ago, the pope also fell half a dozen, which means that the king can also have the scepter

'Yes, King Giant Eagle! And look at the current Pope's scepter, if it was really that terrifying, honestly the Vampire King would give him it to a newly promoted biochemist?'

The Giant Eagle King laughed, these two guys who were allied with the Vampire King were singing a double act here, but well, we all know how to take sides, so we didn't bring it up, we all saved face

The vampire king looked at the shocked Bigel, smiled contemptuously, then said: 'This thing, use the power gem once will lose a life, a thousand years ago there are many, but the millennium of the dispute out of the great war, as well as the change of dynasties came to the bitter, let the power gem deficit, and then no matter how to search, did not find the power gem, so In this way the symbol of the power of God gradually weakened. But the position of the Pope was never to be shaken again, and thus the faith of the people began to gradually fall away, and the position of the Church would become shaky as the dynasties appeared to die out

He was, in our eyes, the Jewel of Divine Right! A pity, it's gone now! But from what I've seen, it seems to say that it would have existed inside the ancient prison. The records also say that the first Pope got this gem from the Mouth of the World, but well, I think it's all a swindle, which makes it kind of ridiculous I wonder why some people die and leave a pair of swindles there?'

The Vampire King once again drew from the Heavenly Power Gem to the Mouth of the World, which made Lin Hao wonder. He always felt that these things were not as simple as talking about

The image seen at the Mouth of the World once again appeared inside Lin Hao's eyes. If the Heavenly Power Gems really flowed out from the Mouth of the World, then wouldn't there also be something like this in China, just why hadn't he ever heard of it? It just made people wonder why Cang could live for hundreds of years and suppress qi luck? And at the same time qi luck is and in the existence of something?

A myriad of things that people can't explain slowly appear, making the Lin Hao haunted, he shook his head and let these things out of his head

The lion fell, an old man in church robes stood out with a cane, he was the president of the church, and he brought judgment! Every territory has a church, along with a president, whose duty is to tally the taxes collected from the nobles, as well as consolidate the power of the biochemicals.

Now that the lion was dead, he was going to swear the papal proclamation to Mohammedan Kato to authenticate him.

But his face was hard because this was the centre of the storm, he could feel that there were many high ranking biochemicals around him, but he did not dare to go against the will of the Pope, this one passing, he had to go through, he felt that time was slow, he wanted to go away quickly and escape from this scene

‘Mohammed the Kathurian!’ The president of the church shouted in a low voice, although he was very steady and solemn, the trembling inside his voice was still audible to everyone

Mohammad Qatou looked at the president of the church, put away his scepter, the fish scales that covered his body were also slowly disappearing inside his body, he transformed into a middle-aged man, gentle and elegant, ‘Yes.’

‘The High Cyborg has fallen and you have survived, the future order of Cyborgs in Toulouse will be under your care, together with Golden Panther and Mr. Bigir, once any other High Cyborgs enter your territory at will, you can work together to kill them! This is a power given to you by the Pope! You know that!’ The president went on, as if reciting a mantra.

Mohammed Kato nodded, while looking at the High Cyborgs next to him, acting on behalf of Heaven!

What they were about to do was to act on behalf of the Pope, except that the Pope he was acting on behalf of was not the current Pope, but the next Pope!

‘President! There are countless high level cyborgs in my vicinity, and they step into our territory at will, am I allowed to kill them!’

Mohammed Katou hesitated for a small moment and said in a domineering voice.

The president froze in place, he could not have imagined that the person who started the battle between the king and the pope would be Mohammed the Kathurian!

‘But... yes!’ The president replied in a trembling voice.

And all those high ranking biochemists around him who were watching the show had their pupils shrink at the same time, everyone was alone for the battle, and they all dared not go near those around them, because the battle between the king and the pope, now begins!

Above the sky two kings emerged from among the clouds, one of them a snow-white bear, terrifying in his might, and as he appeared, all the senior biotics who had fallen into the air fell to their knees in droves! There was not a single one who did not kneel! And the president of the Church of Toulouse, who stood on the deck giving power to Mohammed the Katharine, even prostrated himself on the ground, ‘Greet my king!’

For the battle between king and pope? The Sanctuary of the Woolly Ground? It took place in Toulouse, so he knew that there was a battle between the king and the pope, and that there were two kinds of popes, one was ‘king’ and the other was ‘pope’

‘Greetings to the King!’ A voice shouted out, shaking heaven and earth.

Lin Hao looked towards Bigel, he now wanted to see if Bigel would kneel, after all, there was a king in addition to the three kings that had come out of the Giant Eagle King's mouth earlier

Lin Hao knew then that the Giant Eagle King knew that Bigir, the false king, existed, and Lin Hao, because Boris also knew of Bigir's strength, was inside Lin Hao's watching gaze. Bigir slowly kneeled down, a look of respectful welcome to the king's arrival

This makes Lin Hao look dumbfounded, this Bijir, but really can Gu hidden, not to mention, on his this hidden look, but also really in line with his behavior of. The compliment with himself is also a yang-fang, and the compliment with the vampire king is also the same, using the strength of the king, but kneeling other king

The white bear king looked like he was coming on clouds, carrying a terrifying pressure. This kind of mighty pressure Lin Hao is all too familiar with, if his whole body is released, it is even greater than this. And Jun Wu Regrets also have, the strength is the strength of the great master, even because the same strength as the great master, Jun Wu Regrets even more can crush his existence

Easy to advance on the innate weak layer, the ancient clouds sincere not deceive people

Jun Wu Regrets felt the pressure of the White Bear King and could not help but shake his head, 'That's it? This is the only way to call yourself a king? This is too weak, right? If there weren't so many people, one hand would really crush one to death

Brother Lin and I would be invincible in the world since!' Jun Wu Ren sneered incomparably smugly

The White Bear King landed next to the Vampire King, who called out, 'Brother White Bear.'

'Vampire King.' The White Bear King laughed.

From their conversation, Lin Hao clearly felt that the Vampire King had a higher status, after all, one called out brother and the other king, but anyone who was not stupid in the head could feel the difference in their status.

After greeting the Vampire King, the White Bear King looked directly at Lin Hao, then narrowed his eyes with an air of majesty, 'Why don't you kneel to this King!'

Lin Hao's strength was superficially shown to be infinitely close to that of a Grand Master, but the power that burst out definitely exceeded that of a Grand Master junior, so it gave the White Bear King the illusion that Lin Hao's strength was only that of a senior biochemist, a senior biochemist, and he didn't kneel to him? What an abomination? Moreover, the Vampire King even said that Lin Hao was just a punch away from him.

Lin Hao laughed and asked rhetorically, 'Why should I kneel to you?'

'Arrogance!' The White Bear King was furious.

At this time, a black crocodile looked like a diving dragon, soaring through the clouds. A powerful black mist emanated from around him, giving off a feeling with the stench of a swamp, and by the time he got close to Lin Hao, this feeling was aggravated and deeply irritated his respiratory system, which made Lin Hao very uncomfortable.

So Lin Hao retreated three ways, even pinching his nose in a disgusted manner!

‘Arrogance!’ The White Bear King then bellowed.

The Black Crocodile King, who came from the clouds as if he was treading on clouds, was incomparably annoyed that this Chinese man disliked his breath, he probably didn’t know that his own powerful breath could smother an advanced biochemist to death!

‘Chinese, don’t be too arrogant! An existence of your strength, I can completely crush to death with one hand!’ The Black Crocodile King said domineeringly, not putting Lin Hao in his eyes at all, while feeling that if not for the Vampire King’s sake, he really wanted to crush Lin Hao to death with one hand

Lin Hao shook his head, this group of people is really a powerful mouth, strength is not much, but the frame is not small. The black crocodile king was acting like the dragon king had arrived, which almost made him laugh!

‘All right, all right.’ The Vampire King spoke out to interrupt, while glancing slightly with a contemptuous look, Lin Hao looked at him with a smile on his lips and didn’t have much to say as the Vampire King continued, ‘We’re all all allies now, what’s wrong with that, when the big battle is over, you can spar to your heart’s content.’

‘That’s a good idea!’ The White Bear King hemmed and hawed as he looked at Lin Hao and said domineeringly, ‘Inferior Chinese monkey, if you dare to refuse my sparring session, I will make your Chinese know the wrath!’

‘Alright, alright, didn’t you hear the Vampire King say that after the big fight? Aren’t you giving the Vampire King brothers too much face by beating him to death like that? But then again, Vampire King, why did you invite a Chinese man? Just because he could throw a punch against one of his doppelgangers, you think he’s strong? That’s an unstable conclusion to make. I don’t even think he’s a match for Mohammed Kato, and look what Mohammed Kato just did! Tsk, if I had trained this man, how much more. The Vampire King is no less than an existence infinitely close to the New Emperor!’ The black crocodile king collected all the stink, but turned to say a mouthful of stink, Lin Hao listened really helpless, patting a horse’s ass well, no wonder he was so stinky

Lin Hao helplessly shook his head, this three how no matter how to look, all give him a feeling of unreliability, just this? Also is the pope’s opponent? The pope, who had been alive for nearly a thousand years, would not be anything if he had been overturned by these people, he suddenly felt. It would be really funny if he was so mysterious

Lin Hao now also did not get angry with them, because think it is not worth, how to say, his purpose did not achieve, the end of the king and the pope fight represents who gave him a hand to cure Shen Xiyan, of course, he will not let these two parties both defeated or die together, just thinking about it, Lin Hao found a best candidate, that is Bigir ah!

The existence of this false king, is it not the best to support such a person? I just don’t know which side Bigel is on, it would be great if he was on the side of the ZF ‘Rise up.’ Finally the Vampire King peeled back the clouds and the scarlet world, with its volatile blood aura, pressed down on the heads of each and every senior biotic, saying that he was asking them to rise, but in fact, he was giving them another downward spiral!

The blood mist fell on each and every one’s head, causing them all to prostrate themselves on the ground. It was as if they were kneeling to worship the enthronement of the new emperor, and the vampire king was satisfied when he saw that all the people in the group had kneeled. Only when the afterglow fell on Lin Hao’s head, with a faint light hum, he became more and more dissatisfied with Lin Hao’s presence, this Chinese, really arrogant and ignorant, a tiny Chinese, not kneeling to worship the Pope of the western world, really provoking the Pope’s majesty!

The blood mist dispersed, and only then did they stand up one after another.

The Giant Eagle King in the sky above grunted, seeing his sit down also kneeling, but there was no way out, this was not the time to fall out with the vampire clan, the time for them to set up a rivalry situation, the fall of the battle between the King and the Pope!

‘Not yet enthroned as the new emperor, and then dare to travel the royal power, really arrogant and ignorant, also do not know whether these two people who have grown to become the king’s existence have brains or not’ the giant eagle king sneered, even more dismissive of this king and pope battle.

The Pope’s imperial power gradually fell away as the Pope kept pursuing the mouth of the world. There was of course the secondary factor of the depletion of the Jewel of Divine Right, and the gradual becoming of royal power as dispensable. The people, with the ZF as their head honcho, were becoming more and more numerous, and as the Pope began to panic when he discovered that the Pope was not eternally present either, he kept looking for a way to enter the Mouth of the World.

Only the Church, a huge organisation, did not want to see the Pope's majesty fall, so it swindled the Western world under the guise of the Pope's majesty, not to say swindled, because there was still the Vampire King to maintain the Pope's majesty, so gradually the Church's power was secured, but well, it was still in defeat, and he even saw the final situation, which was to become the Eastern world. There are very few faith-based organisations in the Eastern world, especially in China, where there are more than a billion people, but less than one tenth, less than one hundredth or even less than one thousandth of their theological beliefs

This is a very scary phenomenon, at first he could not understand such a phenomenon, but later on, through understanding the civilization of Hu Xia, gradually know that they have their own system of thought, as well as from the hundred thought to choose a most perfect system of thought, and in this defeated hundred thought there is the existence of theology, obviously theology defeated, defeated completely

A civilization that has given birth to a system of a hundred schools of thought is naturally one that removes its dross and chooses the best ideas. It is an extremely advanced ideology and the fastest and most harmonious great nation to cater to the new civilization of the New World

A nation without a theocracy will not have its ideas collapse because of the collapse of faith, because each of them has a forward thinking, and underneath this forward thinking, there are countless one of a kind ideas, and within this thinking, many of the innate ideas of everyone are even the same

How can a kingdom like this not be powerful

The Giant Eagle King retracted his thoughts, and before him, Lin Hao was the best proof of this. Not far in front of him, the Chinese woman's utterance of what is nobility is another proof that they all think the same way

China, which has always been despised, has been guiding the world forward. The world that? Closed Yi Pao Yin Shan Zai Yi Ai? seems to have been nourished by a new kind of thinking when it knocked on the door of the great nation of China, a decades-long debacle followed by a less-than-decades-long rise, always at such an astonishing rate They always eliminate the worst, then learn, then plan, then upgrade, and by the time other countries react to It's too late

Look at the neighboring countries that were heavily influenced by their country and still have ideological texts that live on in them

When all the advanced biochemicals were at full strength, there was a muffled thunder in the sky, Lin Hao and Jun Wu Ren felt very helpless, what's the point of making an appearance, always engaging in all this nonsense?

From deeper in the sky came out a super strong man, behind him it was like heavenly thunder rolling with endless pressure, Lin Hao faced such an aura when he saw the blurred shadow of the Pope, he felt a rhyme in it, such a rhyme was very strong.

Lin Hao felt it, and so did Jun Wu Ren, a rhyme they were incomparably familiar with!

Like a dao fruit!

Yes, it was Cang and Ancestor. Especially Jun Wu Regret was incomparably familiar, for he had advanced directly to Grand Master after absorbing Ancestor's Dao Fruits! And in this Pope's body, there was the rhythm of the Dao Fruits in it!

Lin Hao felt his body changing violently as his roots surged up and endless void power was gathering towards him!

The next moment, the power within his body swarmed up like an ocean, and finally, as the ocean surged and the tide fell, his roots trembled violently! With that, his body underwent an overwhelming change, it was just like the enlightenment Jun Wu Regret had experienced that day after absorbing the Dao Fruits

Jun Wu Ren looked at Lin Hao's appearance and was secretly shocked! How could Brother Lin not be a Grand Master yet? Then what was his strength that day? How much more? This

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1297-1298

Chapter 1297

'Not a Grand Master beheading a Grand Master, now in a Grand Master? Then wouldn't it be a matter of suppressing the entire field! Brother Lin, the surprise you've given me is truly terrifying!' Jun Wu Ren smacked his lips.

Lin Hao's promotion had attracted the Pope's attention, as well as the attention of the three people around him!

The White Bear King's heart was bitter, but the anger on his face was even more intense, 'So what if I've advanced to become a king? I am an existence that has been promoted to become a king for centuries!'

The Black Crocodile King also sneered, 'It's not enough!'

Only the vampire king frowned deeply, this Chinese man in advanced biochemical strength to the self? The earth is intended to serve to close the Yi Pao Zha? The fact that his own doppelganger did not lose against a punch shows that the bottom is extremely strong, and now that he has advanced to king, his strength has definitely become stronger.

I never thought that the Pope's appearance would give him such a great opportunity. But that's about it, he might be able to beat the White Bear King, but he's definitely no match for the Black Crocodile King! Even if he was, the White Bear King and the Black Crocodile King would definitely be able to kill him!

Moreover, the Vampire King's expression changed to one of surprise, wasn't this a very good thing? Although he wasn't afraid of the Pope, one more point of help and one more point of success, how good was that? What's not to like?

'Congratulations! King White Bear and King Black Crocodile join me in congratulating the King of China! I can't imagine that the tiny China has a king of kings in existence, it's not to be underestimated.' The Vampire King congratulated with a smile, as the Vampire King had spoken, the White Bear King and the Black Crocodile King could only helplessly follow suit, 'Congratulations to the King of China on his promotion!'

Lin Hao did not care at all, but was feeling his power change, suddenly up the terrifying power, reached a qualitative rise, the power between heaven and earth are in his feelings, in the scope of the F country, scattered only a few senior biochemicals did not come, in the whole of Europe, hiding inside the corner only a few pseudo-kings shrink, and no more strong people

After becoming stronger, the feeling of power has increased a lot, this side of the world, Lin Hao felt, truly invincible! Of course this is Lin Hao's own feeling, in North America, there are even stronger existence, only Lin Hao does not know, but Jun Wu Regret knows

The giant eagle king looked at Lin Hao, he had read Lin Hao's profile and at this moment, was shocked! Lin Hao had killed Cang and Ancestor at the Advanced Biochemist level! Now that he had entered the king's level, was the Pope still his opponent? Was he still a match for him? Definitely not! Besides, he and the others were no match for Cang and Ancestor in full form, so how could they be a match for him now?

The world was really focused on him! The Giant Eagle King was glad that he was a guardian of the ZF and that Lin Hao had cooperation with the ZF, otherwise he wouldn't have known if he would have survived Thinking about the news he saw, curing Shen Xiyan needed the Heart of Regeneration, and he? Just now, if he had the Heart of Regeneration under the conditions, he could indeed cure Shen Xiyan, even if it was half a Heart of Regeneration.

The pope appeared from the sky, white light flashes, countless people can not open their eyes, thunder at the same time also rolled, pretending to stand, Lin Hao and other people really can not learn

The white light receded, the rolling thunder fell, and a middle-aged man appeared. This man is very handsome, even the handsome and extraordinary Lin Hao in front of him, how can I say, also weak on a tenth. He was too perfect, and the piece of temperament, held too dead This can not be blamed for the unattractive Lin Hao after consuming the divine medicine, just because the Pope lived for a thousand years, the daily growth daily repair, so that his body is free of dust and dirt, besides the Pope is a person who existed in that period of the Heavenly Power Jewel, the chances of impurities in the body are removed The body of the Pope is almost gone.

In fact, when Cang came to Western Europe, the purpose is to want the Heavenly Power Gem, but this Heavenly Power Gem in China is not called the Heavenly Power Gem, but called the Spirit Stone, a breeding of powerful energy, with the existence of the Dao Rhyme Chance Spirit Stone but China can not find, Cang can only come to Western Europe to find

The Pope came out and did not exert a mighty pressure to bring the world to its knees, but the white light of the Lord was shining in the world!

At that moment, all the churches throughout Western Europe, the idols manifested, and the world began to chant the Pope's scriptures once again

Lin Hao did not know, but Shen Xiyan was feeling that many people around her were kneeling on the ground, gently chanting Sanskrit, Wang Shufen Gu Yue and others were also surprised to see many people around them, many nobles in this were kneeling on the ground, but Finkin Gatebastian was not, Boris was not! The four great families were not there!

There are very few nobles in the middle level, and there are only one or two nobles in the high level top level

Shen Xiyan looked at that group of high level nobles and couldn't help but say, 'The different education received, the weaker the degree of belief in theology

'Yes, you see take to the top nobles. They are not repulsed by the status of nobility, but they are somewhat reluctant to travel to the knees of nobility, because they already know that the so-called nobility status is all a dispensable thing when they are enjoying the honor.' Gu Yue said.

Wang Shufen pooh-poohed, 'Shameless contraptions, hypocrites

Chapter 1298

Many nobles were also a little angry to see this group of top nobles not kneeling, how could they not kneel to worship the papal apparitions! This is very disrespectful behaviour towards the Pope, what an abomination!

And the vice-presidents of the Church were even more furious, these damned top nobles, how could they not pretend to do so at this time! What an abomination! By setting such an example, they were bringing down the reputation of the Church and the influence of the Church!

Boris nodded slightly at the sight of such a group of people, 'This group of damned capitalists are well educated and know that there is no theology in the world, but this group of lowly nobles, who put the Pope's gift of nobility on their lips, respect the Pope so much! I wonder what will happen to them when they learn that the Pope has fallen? Will they donate all their assets to the ZF? Will they pay more taxes to the ZF than they pay to the Church? If so, what a perfect thing it would be.'

The Pope appeared and all those who believed in the Pope's existence chanted the Pope's Bible in place and prayed for the Pope's blessing

The Pope looked towards Lin Hao, he locked eyes with Lin Hao, he saw another world inside Lin Hao's eyes, a black and dark world with an endless end, inside that world he saw a blurred shadow, that shadow was very terrifying, the Pope's body trembled, he hurriedly withdrew his divine sense, when he looked at Lin Hao again, he found that Lin Hao was also just a king's strength.

Of course he was not just a king's strength, because of the tremors Lin Hao had caused in Eastern Ying, how could he, a pope, not know about it? And he had also scouted out the arrival of Jun Wu Ren

He? Zero Serving Er West Earth Er Yi Pao's congregation infiltrates within the whole world, his eyes are in the whole world, whatever is happening in this world, he will know sooner or later, except that with such strength as he has, he will not strike at all just because a church is destroyed, because it is not worth it

He has higher aspirations, a small church collapse he has to strike? Then wouldn't he be shaken by the loss of a nation's church faith? This is totally unnecessary

'You have finally appeared.' The Vampire King stepped forward, looked at the Pope, and opened his mouth first! 'I thought you wouldn't show up, back then I watched you grow up and you became Pope before me, much to my chagrin, unfortunately I knew a thousand years ago that I was no match for you! But now, I won't hold back any longer!'

The Pope looked at the spirited Vampire King, a vampire who had just radiated something resembling the majesty of the Pope, a sewer, and was so arrogant, the Pope said with disgust, 'A thousand years ago you were a dog blood sucking brat, what can you do to compete with me for the Pope's throne? To elevate yourself? There's no point. In the Church's canon, your vampire family is just an ugly thing hanging on the church beam, only that as time changes, your status becomes precious, haha, it's really ridiculous

Lin Hao originally thought that this is a how to say, untouchable strong existence, at the very least fluttering, obscure, mysterious very, now it seems that this person old spitters

Lin Hao guessed that it might be that this person had not spoken to anyone for nearly a thousand years, so he could not easily find an opportunity to speak and had to become a chatterbox

It really was Lin Hao's right guess, the Pope had not spoken much for nearly a thousand years, Lin Hao could not easily find an opportunity to speak, so naturally he would not let go of this opportunity to speak

'You!' The vampire king looked like he had been poked in the spine, his body trembling with anger, his scarlet eyes, sharp fangs, endless ugliness on display, his appearance was really comical

The pope's words, directly stimulated the vampire king let of his two helpers a time of mixed feelings, how to say it, after the fall of the era of heavenly power gem, the vampire king lineage removed their bat identity from the ancient books of the church, and then pretended to be high, made up a very powerful identity, while also promoting the identity of the gods and ambassadors

‘Is this how the Pope behaves with you? It’s really laughable!’ The vampire king gritted his teeth and finally said with a calm and steady heart, ‘If the Pope is behaving like this with your demeanor, I don’t think you deserve the status of Pope!’

The Pope shook his head helplessly and stared at the Vampire King, shaking his head repeatedly with a disappointed expression on his face, and finally said, ‘Look at the people around you, a silly bear and a smelly one, what? Is he quite a pope too? And that’s what unleashes the battle between king and pope, not to talk about it!’

At the last sentence, the entire audience of senior biochemists trembled, they felt the Pope’s pressure!

At the same time in this moment, the Pope’s image was once again magnificent.

The Pope himself was just having a good time with his mouth, but was still very, very offended by this humiliating offence!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1299-1300

Chapter 1299

‘Words are not good enough! Then let’s do it!’ The Vampire King was slightly shaken with anger, and then he roared loudly, ‘Anyone without a blood letter mark can be killed!’

The next moment, only to see the Vampire King’s eyes flashing, inside his scarlet eyes, emitting endless blood,? dyed zero er ground Shan whisked love closed? And the senior biochemists under his command all had a red mark revealed on their bodies!

In other words, those who have the mark are all under his command, and those who do not have the mark are the Pope's and the Giant Eagle King ZF's minions

Instantly! The entire Garonne River was awash with blood, as the presence of the sneak attack caused many to bleed from injuries, and blood instantly rushed out.

'No! I have been with you for three hundred years, why are you trying to kill me!' The scorpion asked back as a scorpion-shaped senior cyborg was struck by a punch in the west, a huge hole appearing in his chest.

On board him was a cat-shaped advanced cyborg, his face was cold, without a trace of emotion, 'Because since the paths are different, then there will be your death and my injury, and since I have to wait for you to strike, I might as well strike first!'

'So go to hell!' The cat-like advanced cyborg, his fist turned into a claw, scratching down viciously, trying to scratch through his heart.

The Scorpion Advanced Cyborg instantly transformed into a huge scorpion, black leather armor covering his entire body, and a pair of huge pincers swung ruthlessly, driving black points of power light to sweep out and strike directly at the Cat Advanced Cyborg!

The cat-like senior cyborg's face sank as he quickly retreated, but his claws were trapped inside the scorpion's body, making it difficult to pull them out for a while, and he was suddenly thrown into a panic!

‘I didn’t want to kill you, but you made me do it!’ The two men were good friends, peers for over two hundred years, and now they were fighting against each other, he really couldn’t accept it! Two hundred years!

One arm was chopped off, and the cat-like advanced cyborg was filled with pain plus shock, and said incomparably shocked, ‘Why, why did you become so strong?’

The scorpion advanced cyborg let out a bitter laugh, ‘Because, the person above me handed over a lot of things that made me grow fast!’

‘No!’ The cat-like Senior Cyborg roared, looking up to the three Vampire Kings and finding that the three were just indifferent to him, and at that moment, his heart was incomparably cold!

It was a look of desperation, of incomparable painful struggle, and no one knew how much pain he was in. It was only for a moment that the despair disillusioned and became hollow. Two hundred years of time had ended, almost all of those who traveled with him had died, and he had spent his life spying on countless advanced biochemicals in order to achieve supremacy as a vampire king, but unfortunately, in the end, he was still a loser who did not survive

The survival of the fittest. Just because his own kind is too weak, then he was simply given up

Looking at the desperate gaze of the cat-like senior biochemist, the scorpion senior biochemist also gave a bitter laugh, but his pained face immediately changed into a steely gaze as he looked at no one, but killed and fought!

You could see on his face that he was full of hope, his eyes were full of light, hopeful light

In the distance

A huge fish head, madly killing up, he churned the river in the water, sometimes bringing out huge waves, sometimes a fish flung its tail to slap the high level biochemicals flying at low altitude, his speed was fast and his sneak attack was so strong that several high level biochemicals were attacked by him.

And early in the water Mohammed Kato took advantage of the opportunity to directly bite up madly, the terrifying bite force directly bite each other off the waist, so terrifying killing power, so that countless senior biochemicals do not dare to fight at low altitude, preferring to spend some physical strength in high school, rather than dare to wrangle at low altitude

'He's so terrifying!' Flying up into the sky a bison's huge golden horns lashed out headlong at the biochemist with the blood mark beside him, the golden horns piercing the other man straight through, blood spraying out, but he was still scared because he had just been knocked out of the water, but luckily he was fast, and with the help of his old friend, he was able to escape

‘Damn! I can’t believe I let him get away! Kato, you’re so careless! He’s an Advanced Cyborg who has lived for four hundred years, the longer he exists, the greater the threat he poses to us!’ The tiger shark advanced cyborg opened its bloody mouth, revealing its blood-occupied fangs, and let out a low growl.

‘I know, but that white haitong was too fast and grabbed a claw of my neck, if it wasn’t for the horrific defence of my fish scales, I’m afraid my neck would have been broken!’ Mohammed Kato grunted, it was good that he had spared no effort in forging his weakest piece of fish scale, and made that fragile wave of points directly into armour, otherwise, he might really die here

‘That damn bird man, I wish I could eat him up!’ The tiger shark senior cyborg grunted, but his gaze fell on Lin Hao’s body and said contemptuously, ‘Kato! Why don’t we kill that Chinese brat, I think he’s too arrogant to kneel to our king!’

Mohammad Qattu looked at Lin Hao with a slight scruple within his expression, he couldn’t help but touch his chest, he didn’t dare to target Lin Hao, he still had some scruples about this terrifying Chinese man.

Although his current strength, indeed, he can clash with that one blood shadow doppelganger of Wang’s, but it does not mean that he can fight with Lin Hao, he will be able to win steadily, unless he brings the Pope’s scepter, as well as he falls into the water, so that he dares to fight with him, and also just a fight, life and death struggle, he is still not willing to

That outburst of Lin Hao’s was still fresh in his mind

‘The two of us?’ Mohammad Kato was silent, he wanted to take revenge, but he was afraid that he would be injured, in such a situation, once he was injured, he could be waiting to die

He looked to the king, ? Luo zero Wu whisked the ground to serve the cover? The king shook his head at him.

Mohammad Qatou immediately understood that the king did not want him to fight against this Chinese, or rather, the king did not want him to fight with the Chinese now, how to say, the king and this Chinese have cooperation, how long cooperation, he is not sure

‘There is no rush to fight him first, we are hunting some high level biochemicals from other stations.’ Mohammed Kato said to Tiger Shark.

Tiger Shark was helpless, ‘I really want to eat that Chinese guy! Damn it, how dare he stare at me!’

Lin Hao saw the tiger shark’s provocative gaze, this damned stinky fish, really looking for death, if it wasn’t for the fact that it wasn’t time for their group to strike now, I’m afraid Lin Hao would have already blasted him with one punch, death-defying thing!

The Pope stood high in the sky, empty behind him, and had no intention of making a move to kill anyone.

The giant eagle king occupies the top of the army, behind him are thousands of troops to give him defense, he is not afraid at all, just faintly watching the killing on the river, but his gaze falls on Lin Hao's body from time to time
